

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 468

Seeing Mu Sili taken away by Qin ruoqing, Kang Mobei leans on Shen Hedan's boss chair with his arms in his arms. The next thing is to talk to Yao Mei.

Yao Mei also understood her own value. She was struggling just now. Now she is sitting on the ground honestly, waiting for her to be untied.

Shen Hedan beckons, Gao Shun nods, three times five divided by two, then unties Yao Mei's rope and black tape.

"You heard what you said just now," Shen Hedan paced in front of Yao Mei. "As long as you testify in court, I will let you go."

"Hum, it's easy to say. Do you think I'll agree?" Yao Mei sneers. At the moment, although she has no chips, she is a trump card.

"As long as you confess to the police and testify in court, I can promise you that you will not only be free from the subsequent prison, but also continue to be at ease," he said

"No, I won't agree." Yao Mei kept a sneer. The panic just now had dissipated to nine days. Now she stood up leisurely and did not regard Shen Hedan's office as her own place. She even poured a cup of tea for herself.

Shen Hedan knows that it's really difficult for Yao Mei, who is widowed and has no children, to make her agree to cooperate.

But there must be a way.

"Well, since we don't want to cooperate, we'll do it our way." Shen Hedan said, just about to raise his hand and ask his subordinates to continue to treat her with "good life", kangmobei began to speak.

"It doesn't matter if you don't recruit. The police have plenty of ways to let you go. At that time, even if you recruit, you can no longer enjoy all the help I promised you and the two promises I made to you. Now that you have figured it out, go to jail and squat. For the crime of endangering public safety, the maximum penalty is death. Although the explosion accident is not directly caused by you, it's because of you Smashing and sabotage led to the distraction of the blaster in Letian, which led to serious consequences. Three promising young people were seriously burned. In order to cure your crime, it doesn't matter to admit that there is some negligence and loss of money in Lumi island. As long as you are sentenced to death, I can pay as much as I want, since you want to kill yourself. "

The voice behind Kang Mo north is more and more serious. She beats Yao Mei's heart with every word. She has no support except money. Her son has gone. There is still a hatred in her heart. She must be quick to get rid of her son!

Gao Shun always looks at Shen Hedan's face. As long as he has any orders, Gao Shun can quickly interpret it. Seeing Shen Hedan's wink, Gao Shun resolutely ties the hemp rope back to Yao Mei. It's tighter than what he just tied. He can hear Yao Mei's bones cackling.

"Pain! Hiss! Take it easy

"Well, I thought I was a lady, a prisoner!" Gao Shun sneers at Yao Mei coldly, then rudely pulls Yao Mei up and pushes Yao Mei out of Shen Hedan's office.

"Use some hospitality." Shen He Dun light a, speaking of the underworld jargon.

"Well Gao Shun looked at Yao Mei's eyes, but also raised a three-point playful game.

"Wait a minute!" Yao Mei's heart, counseled, "your condition, I promise."

In the capital, Bai nianxi and the lawyers did not go back to the hotel where they stayed temporarily. Instead, they had lunch and talked with each other at a nearby restaurant. In the afternoon, there was another lawsuit to be fought - the one with three young people as the plaintiff.

In order to take the initiative, Bai nianxi proposed that the three young artists also take the initiative to sue Letian after Letian filed a lawsuit, accusing them of serious burns due to their negligence.

This trial is not as easy as the one in the morning. Facing the huge evidence chain of Lota's rearrangement, all the evidence has been erased, and even the script and other details have been tampered with afterwards. Bai nianxi is very worried and has been playing drums.

"Hum..."

With half an hour to go before the court session, conmobei called.

Hearing that Yao Mei has been arrested, he will turn himself in to the police, attend as a witness and testify for Lumi Island, Bai nianxi is happy.

Half an hour later, the court.

"All rise."

"In this trial, the plaintiffs Lin Ze, Zhuo Tian and Wen Guang have entrusted their lawyers to litigate the case of Letian entertainment and three plaintiffs' severe burns caused by gross negligence. Now the court is in session."

As Bai nianxi had expected, all the material evidence, witnesses and statements that appeared in the court trial over and over again were extremely unfavorable to her side. Although she knew that all the evidence had been falsified afterwards, the difficulty was that it was difficult to break through their carefully arranged evidence chain one by one.

The trial lasted for the whole afternoon, and Bai nianxi continued to be under high-intensity mental pressure. He sat on the sidelines and watched the lawyer's defense. The more he looked down, the more he felt that there was no chance of winning.

Until the end of the trial, the judge announced in court:

"the ruling of the plaintiff accusing Letian entertainment of gross negligence leading to serious burns of the three people is as follows: after hearing by this court, this court considers that there is no subjective or objective error in Letian entertainment causing the major explosion accident, so it refutes the plaintiff's claim."

Lose the lawsuit.

.....In the lobby of the nearby hotel, Bai nianxi's face didn't change, at least he didn't feel bad because he lost the lawsuit.

And the lawyer team is not so good mood, because of losing, at least face a little dark.

"Rest early, so that we can concentrate on the last trial," Bai nianxi said encouragingly. "Just now I received good news that a key witness can appear in court, but she has to go through the process of the police. It is estimated that it will take a few days. We apply to the court to postpone the trial. These days, we all have a rest and do it before the court session To be prepared to supplement the evidence of the witness. "

After parting with the lawyer, Bai nianxi returns to his guest room.

The results of the trial were broadcast live on the Internet. If they were concerned, they would have known the results.

Call the hospital. The phone will be picked up at that end soon.

"Mr. Bai, is it the result of the trial?" On the other end of the phone, Linze asked anxiously.

Bai nianxi was silent for two seconds, and immediately said with a smile, "well, there's a result. I lost the lawsuit."

"Ah..." Lin zegang was still doing rehabilitation exercise with all his strength. Hearing this, his strength suddenly dissipated.

"Don't lose heart, now at least you know what level of opponent Letian is." thinking of Letian's perfect evidence chain for this lawsuit, Bai nianxiguang feels great pressure. However, if you want to uphold the justice belonging to the three young people, if the legal weapons can't be used, other weapons are still effective, such as public opinion, "make a good recovery Jian, when you get better, in addition to the law, there are more ways to achieve justice. "

"Mr. Bai, next..."

"No appeal." Bai nianxi whispers his decision.
