

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 483

"Dong Dong ~"

"Yeah! Daddy's back! "

Luo Luo excited, quickly ran to open the door, sure enough, outside the door stood commobei, and Musi left.

Musili smiles and enters the house with commobei. Commobei smiles and looks at Lolo. Mysteriously, he takes out the framed certificate of donation from his backpack and presents it in front of Lolo like a surprise.

"Wow! Great Lolo danced and clapped, took the certificate and held it in his arms.

Bai nianxi watched the excited Luo Luo run up to the second floor. Then he slowly came to him and helped him take down his backpack and put it aside.

Seeing that conmobair was wearing a hat, she reached out to take it down. Conmobair subconsciously backed back and avoided her action.

"Ah, I haven't washed my hair for several days. I'll take a bath." Kangmobei pretended to stretch and walked slowly to the second floor.

Bai nianxi's smile solidified, and Mu Sili was afraid that she would think more about it, so he quickly said:

"I met some former business partners of commobei, and I've been attending the banquet and dance these days. I'm very tired. I haven't had time to wash my hair these days, so I fell asleep when I got back to the hotel."

"Well Will you stay for dinner? "

Conmobei walked up the stairs quickly, or his dizziness came again because of his big action. Before his eyes were white, he quickly thought of something and turned back to the living room.

"By the way, Sili, I forgot that Mr. Qin asked me to have dinner with him. Please give me a ride!"

After that, Kangmo north wind fire ran out of the house, Musi from see this, quickly say goodbye, carrying Kangmo North leave Kang home.

"Stop I feel like vomiting... " Conmber frowned bitterly.

It's really strange for musili to feel that kangmobei is like this. He has never been so uncomfortable before. He stops the car and looks at kangmobei squatting on the side of the road and vomits continuously. At the same time, he calls the union to pray for Tiancai and makes an appointment to meet for a check-up.

CT images, brain wave tests, etc. conmobei can't understand what is above, but he understands Qi Tiancai's expression. His expression continues to be cold.

Although as a doctor, he always has a cold, expressionless face.

"Isn't this your first concussion?" Qi Tiancai looks at the inspection results and asks calmly.

Conmber nodded: "I won't be..."

"It's not too serious. You have been injured many times before. This time, it happened to hurt the old injury. There is shadow in the cerebellar region. I suspect it's congestion. Congestion affects your balance and other abilities in the cerebellar region, so you always feel dizzy. This It may have to be an operation. " Qi Tiancai said slowly.

This result, let Kang Mo North gape: "do, brain operation?"

"I'm not a professional brain doctor. That's my opinion. I'm not sure whether the congestion in your cerebellum area is due to old injury or cerebral hemorrhage. If it's cerebral hemorrhage, if you don't treat it as soon as possible, you will not only face dizziness and vomiting, but also face paralysis, nystagmus, hemiplegia, etc. I suggest you don't delay it. The consequences are very serious. "Qi Tiancai's tone is very serious, which makes kangmobei nervous and at a loss.

Mousse was beside him, with a little sadness on his face.

If it wasn't for Shen Shimo, kangmobei wouldn't be like this, or This is just a blessing in disguise and found the hidden disease?

In a word, musili doesn't feel grateful to Shen Shimo.

Qi Tiancai went through his desk drawer and took out a business card: "if you agree,

"I'll make an appointment with my friend right away. He's a professional brain doctor."

"Well, you can make an appointment, thank you." Conmobei stood up with dizziness and walked out of the office.

The sanatorium, built in the suburb, has a large courtyard. The five storey building is very elegant. Next to the building is the side building he just checked. It is also the research building that Qi Tiancai had been dreaming of for many years, and now it has finally come true.

It seems that Mulian city is here every day and has a good life.

Looking at the structure of the sanatorium and the surrounding landscape inside and outside, conmobei sighed heartily, with a smile on his face.

However, if the operation is really done, conmobei still wants to hide from Bai nianxi, so that she won't worry too much.

What's a good excuse? I've been in hospital for a few months, he thought.

"Tell her that when you are in hospital, let her take care of you, so that she can be at ease." Musi saw through his mind and came over with a smile.

"Yes." In her heart, she didn't think so. She worried too much about herself.

"Recover well. I'll take care of Shen Shimo. You'll get better if you have good treatment." Moussili looked at conmobei with a resolute smile on his face.

Wearing a cap and looking around nervously to make sure that he was not being followed, Shen Shimo walked forward cautiously, took a taxi and went back to the mountain cottage where he was hiding.

When the boss came back, the two men who stayed in the same place immediately showed exaggerated joy "Boss, you are back at last! How's it going? How's it going? "

Seeing his subordinates' joyful inquiry, Shen Shimo returned with an expression that was uglier than eating excrement. This expression was already a kind of answer. The two subordinates were so worried that they didn't dare to say anything more, for fear of saying more mistakes.

Breathing into the hut, Shen Shimo sat on the broken sofa and began to think about the next step.

The two men communicated with each other by eyes, and they didn't make any sound, so as to avoid inexplicable and silent censure.

"Did you cook! I'm starving Silence sulks for a long time, and silence breaks it.

The two men came in from the outside in a hurry. They roasted the rabbit with firewood in the mountain and handed it to Shen Shimo politely.

When did he eat this kind of food with strong local flavor, but he had no other choice but to frown tightly and take it. The delicious meat made him take a bite, but because he was in a bad mood, the taste in his mouth was not clear.

See the boss eat, two hands hanging heart temporarily put down a little.

Before long, one of his subordinates turned his eyes, plucked up his courage and said with a smile:

"boss, I think it's really hard for you to do things alone. You see, conmobei is also a public figure. Of course, he has competitors. Since he is a public figure, his shortcomings and who are his competitors must be published in the news. It's better..."

"Yes Hearing the speech, Shen Shimo suddenly became cheerful.

Seeing that the boss's reaction is so inspiring, his voice is even more elated:

"boss! If you need it! How about we turn the news over? "

"OK, that's it!" Shen Shimo breathed heavily with his nose. For a long time, he was not so excited.
