

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 485

The moonlight outside the window is very bright, just like an emissary of light, constantly sending light to the earth.

Late at night, Bai nianxi lies in the arms of Kang Mobei. They have a tacit understanding of insomnia.

"Are you dizzy now? If you feel uncomfortable, you must tell me that you can't support yourself because you are afraid of me. " Bai nianxi raised his eyes and looked at Kang Mobei's face. His eyes were serious.

Kangmobei raised his bilateral corners of his mouth with a brilliant smile: "I know. You've said it many times. The doctor in the sanatorium prescribed the special medicine, which is very effective. He won't feel dizzy one day after the injection."

"That's good. Go to bed early, get up early tomorrow, and pretend to be flying." Bai nianxi unknowingly becomes very wordy.

Kangmobei raised his hand and fondly touched Bai nianxi's hairline: "just drive around. The expert has already arrived at the hospital. We are not far away. We are near our home. In case there is something wrong..."

"Bah! No bad luck! It's just a minor operation! " Bai nianxi snapped to interrupt.

Kangmobei knew that the joke was wrong and shut up.

"The American consortium representative wants to see me?"

Letian entertainment headquarters, Tian Huarong heard the Secretary's message, heart accident.

Today, the stock market of Lota is in a slump, and Lin Ze and his colleagues have never made a positive response to anything.

Although the public opinion has come down, if we want to save Lota's stock market, unless there is a large amount of money coming into the market to save the market, all means to add icing on the cake will only play a little role.

At least the decline has stopped, just want to boost, no money, there is no way, netizens stopped caring about public opinion, but shareholders still regard public opinion as an important consideration, continue to wait and see.

"If not, I'll..."

"No, see you. Tell him to come to the conference room. I'll come right over." Tian Huarong interrupts the Secretary's words and orders as expected.

Since it is a consortium, it must be to talk about capital and cooperation. Tian Huarong knows this in his heart.

Shen Shimo waited at the front desk for more than ten minutes before she finally got the card. The receptionist received the call. After she hung up the phone, she beamed more brightly at Shen Shimo:

"I'm sorry to have kept you waiting. Mr. Tian asked you to come to the conference room."

Silent sneer, then cold walked in, the receptionist to his impoliteness turned a white eye.

Tian Huarong, with a busy look, hurried to the meeting room. At the moment when he saw Shen Shimo, a sense of familiarity came to his face. He could not recognize who it was.

"Ah After a few seconds of thinking, Tian Huarong remembered that two years ago, the person who negotiated with him because of the explosion accident was Shen Hedan. The person in front of him was somewhat similar to Shen Hedan, "are you..."

"My name is Wei Shi." Shen Shimo sat haughtily, not even looking at Tian Huarong.

Tian Huarong was very dissatisfied with his rudeness, but he didn't show it: "Hello, Mr. Wei, what's the purpose of visiting our company this time..."

"Of course, I'm very interested in Lota," Shen Shimo said, standing up and pacing up. "Tell me how much money you need in the current business crisis and how much money the stock market needs to save the market."

Seeing his tone so big, Tian Huarong couldn't believe it for a moment: "can you..."

"Of course, a billion? Two billion? " Shen Shimo turned his head and scanned Tian Huarong with his fierce eyes.

"If Mr. Wei can give us $3 billion, then you will have 49% of Letian's shares, and the other 51% will be in my hands because of the management right." Tian Huarong said.

Silent mouth raised, confident smile: "no problem, but there is a condition."

With that, Shen Shimo takes out a black pickup bag and hands it to Tian Huarong.

"Here are three cards, three billion yuan, in Swiss bank. If you try to get them into China, three billion yuan is yours."

"Swiss bank?" Why don't you take it by yourself and try to get it into China by yourself? Tian Huarong raised his vigilance and suspicion.

Shen Shimo pretended to walk back and forth with ease, and continued with a smile: "don't worry, there is no trap here. Money is my money, but it's not convenient for me to show up. So, if you want 3 billion, it depends on whether you are willing to go to the Swiss bank, and then transfer it to your account. When you return to China, then transfer it back to my account. I will trade in the stock market in my name And the deal is done. "

Tian Huarong carefully listened to the silent words and thought about the suspicious things in his heart. Gradually, he realized that the biggest doubt was that if he didn't go by himself, it was the biggest doubt.

It's reasonable to say that for such a huge amount of money, you will find someone you can trust. However, when you meet Wei Shi for the first time, you entrust yourself to collect such a huge amount of money

"I don't have to invest in Lota. After hesitating for so long, it seems that I'm not interested in my $3 billion. Goodbye." Silent polite smile, to attack the heart of the game.

Tian Huarong chuckled and casually passed Shen Shimo's side. Then he said with a warm smile, "I don't mean that. Since Mr. Wei believes me so much, I'll live up to my trust. I'll go back and forth to Switzerland. Besides, it takes time for a huge transaction. I'll see you at the stock exchange in a week. How about that?"

"Cheery, see you then." Shen Shimo left his card bag, took a meaningful look at Tian Huarong, and left by himself.

After the silent figure disappeared outside the meeting room for a long time, Tian

Huarong waited a few minutes to confirm that the so-called "Wei Shi" was probably far away. Then he carefully turned his hand behind him to his face, holding a hair.

"Mr. Tian, you look familiar!" The Secretary saw that Mr. Tian didn't come out of the meeting room for a long time, so he pushed the door in a hurry. Seeing that Mr. Tian Huarong was looking at his hands, he opened his voice.

Tian Huarong looked up at the Secretary: "this hair, you ask someone to check the DNA, match the information database, I doubt 'Wei Shi' is not his real name."

At first glance, "Wei Shi" is similar to Shen Hedan, which makes Tian Huarong feel that he can't ignore.

The secretary took the hair carefully and went to work in a hurry.

In the ward, three specially hired nurses are busy cleaning up the ward. Outside the door, there are also two security guards with fresh faces.

In order not to be seen by acquaintances, Bai nianxi went out of his way to find these three professional nurses.

And the security outside the door is a strange face security specially arranged by commobei after he stated to musu Li that he would have an operation in city a, and Musu Li was worried that Shen Shimo would come to the door.
