

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 488

Back to the door of the operating room, there was still no movement in the operating room, which made the waiting people impatient.

"The posterior brain blue area continues to expand, doctor..."

The anesthesiologist, monitoring the vital signs detector, said to the chief surgeon in a sad tone.

The doctor kept silent, calmly took the professional surgical tools, continued the operation, and did not respond to any questions.

The blue area means that the brain waves cannot be detected, which means that the relevant brain areas are "inactivated".

"Ready to sew." The chief surgeon finally opened the cavity, but what he said was the end of the operation.

"Doctor? Stitching? This... "

"The cerebellar function is quite complex. Many functions are the blind areas of brain knowledge. The blood clot has been successfully removed, so the operation is successful. As for other functions, the patient will continue to monitor after waking up." Doctors decisively interrupted the anesthesiologist's words, holding their own professional, the end of the brain surgery "battle".

"Come out!"

Kang Liqing saw the door of the operating room being pushed open and cried with joy.

Hearing the sound, Bai nianxi rushed to the front quickly: "doctor! Mobei's operation was successful, right? "

The doctor nodded: "the operation is successful. After the patient wakes up, other prognosis work will continue, such as coping treatment of postoperative sequelae."

"Thank you, doctor." Bai nianxi's throat is sour.

Musi left the ward with a sense of guilt. Looking at Kang Mobei who was sleeping and Bai nianxi who was sitting by the bed, he didn't know what to say.

Kang Liqing quietly left the hospital when the excitement on his face subsided after the operation, and Mu Sili didn't notice his departure.

Soon, Kang Liqing returned to the hospital again, only this time, with Lolo and LeLe.

"Mommy ~"

the light call brings back Bai nianxi's thoughts. Bai nianxi is surprised to see Lolo coming.

"The doctor said that Mobei may be sleepy for a few days, and it may be helpful for him to let children's voice in the ward." Kang Liqing said carefully.

Bai nianxi nodded, raised his hand and stroked Lolo's small head: "Lolo, accompany daddy well, help mom take care of Lele."

"Well, don't worry, Lolo can do it." Lolo looks like a little adult.

Qin ruoqing has been here quietly for most of the day, and has not said a word. Qi Tiancai has already left. He still has research work to do.

"Sili, let's go back. It will be dark soon." Qin ruoqing whispered.

Mu Sili didn't dare to rest assured. He was afraid that Bai nianxi would make a unilateral decision as soon as he left.

"You go back. Thank you for being here with us." Bai nianxi smiles and says goodbye to them politely.

"You..."

"You don't have to worry about me. I won't mess with you." Bai nianxi knows what he wants to say, so he interrupts.

See, he is not good to say anything more, can only take Qin ruoqing together, leave the hospital.

After leaving the ward and coming to the washroom of the hospital, Bai nianxi takes out her mobile phone.

After reading Tian Huarong's message again, Bai nianxi thought of a saying: know yourself and know your enemy, you can win a hundred battles.

At least we need to know the purpose of Tian Huarong.

Tian Huarong received a call from Bai nianxi. He was discontented. How long had it been before he called.

"Mr. Tian, if you have anything to say, just say it." As soon as the phone was connected, Bai nianxi went straight to the subject.

"Hum," Tian Huarong snorted coldly, "I'm doing it for you. How can I listen to your tone, just like I have a plot."

"The wise don't talk in secret. Please speak out." Bai nianxi said frankly and refused all the polite words.

Hearing this, Tian Huarong had to answer her topic: "not long ago, Shen Shimei came to me. His purpose is easy to guess. You, Kang Mobei, Shen Hedan, are the people who killed his mother. Of course, revenge is his only purpose."

"Go on."

"he wants to see me, naturally he wants to use me. I am a businessman and businessman. You know that he wants to use my lotian to deal with you. I has the final say, if you have more substantial interests, you will give up your cooperation with Shen Shimo." Tian Huarong smiles greasily.

Bai nianxi quietly chuckled: "so, what's the benefit he gives you?"

"He plans to invest 3 billion yuan in Letian, but I haven't agreed yet. As long as you agree to hold a press conference and clarify all public opinions, within a certain period of time, the stock price of Letian will return to its previous market value. Then, Shen Shimo, I will help you catch him. After all, he is a wanted criminal." Tian Huarong spoke frankly about his plans for cooperation.

"Oh, but I refuse."

"No? There has been a vicious wanted criminal against you in secret, can you rest assured? I want very reasonable, one did not let you compensate, two did not let you contribute, advised you not to be too arrogant! You don't do business like that! " Tian Huarong immediately clamored."Compensation? It's you who do wrong, it's you who abandon injured artists. For me, there are more important things than interests. People like you will never understand. " Bai nianxi sneers.

"So what? It's the law of business for businessmen to pursue profits! "

"Businessmen have conscience, too." Bai nianxi said that and hung up.

After a trial, Bai nianxi sort out the situation.

Tian Huarong wants interests, while Shen Shimo wants the lives of all relevant people.

What about yourself? Bai nianxi thought for a few minutes.

"What I want is silence." Bai nianxi talks to himself and goes back to the ward.

When he was hung up, Tian Huarong threw away his mobile phone with an unhappy face, and his eyes kept turning around, thinking about how to continue his plan.

It is the most long-term benefit for lotta to recover its original market value.

After thinking about it, Tian Huarong edited a short message and sent it to Bai nianxi.

[I hope you can make it clear to yourself that Shen Shimo is a cunning person. Now only I can contact him. If you want to catch the person who is the biggest threat to you, you have to cooperate with me. ]

after reading Bai nianxi, I don't intend to reply to him.

Suddenly, the light flashed in Bai nianxi's mind.

Is Lota the bait to lure silence? In the same way, I'm just a bait.

Tian Huarong couldn't wait for any reply for a long time. According to his instructions, the Secretary sorted out a lot of Bai nianxi's interpersonal information.

After looking at the information, Tian Huarong's plan has enriched a branch line, musili.

If Bai nianxi can't easily agree to his proposal, can the lobbying of people close to him increase the possibility of Bai nianxi's agreeing to his proposal?

Musili takes Qin ruoqing back to the sanatorium. When his father comes home, the text message Bai nianxi shows him is floating in his mind.

He saw that the message was sent by Tian Huarong. He was worried about Bai nianxi's unilateral plan. He might as well ask Tian Huarong directly.

After taking advantage of his ability to get Tian Huarong's mobile phone number, moussili did not hesitate to call Tian Huarong.

"Oh, I didn't expect that you called just as I wanted to contact you." On the other end of the line, Tian Huarong made no secret of his accident.
