

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 489

After a telephone communication, Mu Sili understands Tian Huarong's purpose and ignores Tian Huarong's lobbying. Mu Sili hangs up on his own.

For Bai nianxi, Tian Huarong's proposal is impossible for her to accept, so Tian Huarong can be ignored if she intends to solve the problem herself.

Restless, moussili put on his coat and drove to the hospital.

Dragging Bai nianxi outside the hospital, Mu Sili said in a cold voice:

"I just contacted Tian Huarong. I know you won't agree to his proposal, but I also ask you not to have any dangerous ideas."

Bai nianxi hears the sound and smiles easily: "I happen to have a dangerous idea."

Muse from the spine suddenly cool: "can't!"

"Shen Shimo plans to use Letian to target us. Tian Huarong thinks that only he can induce Shen Shimo to show up? If he is wrong, I can lure Shen Shimo to show up. I am a bait myself. " Bai nianxi's inner decision has been made.

Moussili was distressed:

"can you stop doing this? Mo Bei hasn't woken up yet. He certainly hopes that the first person he sees after waking up is you. If you have any mistakes, what do you want him to do? Please! What's your plan? You tell me. I'll help you as long as you don't do anything dangerous

"What do you think of Tian Huarong's proposal? Do you have any other way? " Bai nianxi asked.

Mousse immediately dropped his head slightly:

"if you give me a decision, I will For the time being, he promised to cooperate with Letian. Letian led Shen Shimo out, and we took the police to catch him. The rest can be dealt with slowly in the future. "

"Tian Huarong asked me to hold a press conference, let Linze and Zhuo Tian speak out, help them say good words, you also agree?" Bai nianxi smiles.

"I always say that we should deal with the problems later." Mousse has been away from the market for a long time, and there is no better way now.

"I have a better way," Bai nianxi turned around, ready to go back to the ward, "you go back, I will not do dangerous action, I will continue my plan."

The ethereal voice came to musi Li's ears, and Bai nianxi's back was gradually moving away. Musi left her decadent back and watched her go away.

Three days later, komorbei was still in a coma. In the past three days, doctors have done several brain wave monitoring tests on komorbei's brain. The blue area of the cerebellum without brain wave response displayed during the operation still appeared in each test.

It's upsetting for doctors - no brain wave response, which means that the brain area concerned has lost its function.

After a long time at the bedside, Bai nianxi looks at ease. She firmly believes that he will wake up, but he will have to sleep a little longer.

The laughter of Lolo and LeLe seems to appear on purpose in the ward. The doctor has also said that external stimulation has a positive effect on the patients, or because of this, Lolo, who has always been precocious and has little to say, has abnormally become more talkative and lively.

Bai nianxi uses her mobile phone in her hand to keep busy. It just looks like she's just keeping quiet.

[is the PR team ready?]

[Mr. Bai, the public relations team is ready. Lin Ze, Zhuo Tian and Wen Guang need to wait for them to finish their notice before holding a press conference.]

[OK, I see.]

[Mr. Bai! I'm Linze! We're off tomorrow! You can come back by night flight!]

[well, it's hard for you.]

The next day, the press conference of Qianqiu entertainment made public opinion explode again.

[he sought me, naturally he wanted to use me. I was a businessman and businessman, but you know he wanted to use my lotian to deal with you. I has the final say, if you have more substantial interests, I will give up my cooperation with Shen Shimo.]

[he plans to invest 3 billion yuan in Letian, but I haven't agreed yet. As long as you agree to hold a press conference to clarify all public opinions, and within a certain period of time, the stock price of Letian will return to its previous market value, I will help you catch Shen Shimo. After all, he is a wanted criminal.]

[reject? There has been a vicious wanted criminal against you in secret, can you rest assured? I want very reasonable, one did not let you compensate, two did not let you contribute, advised you not to be too arrogant! You don't do business like that!]

[compensation? It's you who do wrong, it's you who abandon injured artists. For me, there are more important things than interests. People like you will never understand.]

[so what? It's the law of business for businessmen to pursue profits!]

[businessmen also have conscience.]

.....

At the press conference, Bai nianxi directly disclosed the contents of his conversation with Tian Huarong, which instantly detonated the scene of the press conference.

"Mr. Bai! This call means that Lota is admitting that they have gross negligence, right! In that case! Lost lawsuit before! Is Qianqiu planning to appeal? "

"Linze! Why did you always choose silence before? Don't you think it's humiliating!
""Linze! We support you! "

.....

After the reporters howled, the order maintaining host tried to calm down the chaos on the scene.

Facing the microphone, Lin Ze said faintly:

"the reason why we hold the press conference now is that before, our injuries still need continuous treatment, and the treatment cost a lot of money. As beneficiaries, we want to put into work immediately after recovery, so that we can use our actual work to repay Qianqiu group and general manager Bai who treat us well."

It has been more than two years since the incident happened, and the three young people's mind has been blocked by time for a long time:

"it has been a long time since the incident happened. After losing the lawsuit, we have given up our plan to pursue the case and want to work hard. But now, if it is not for Lota, he does not want to repent all the time, and even uses such despicable words and does not hesitate to use wanted criminals as chips We will not be angry to hold a formal press conference to denounce the unscrupulous Lota even if we do not abide by the justice and judicial justice we should abide by and hand over the wanted criminals to the police. "

At the press conference, in the fierce Q & A between you and me, it was updated to the headlines of the major media simultaneously, and quickly occupied the hot search lists. The accusations against Lota were overwhelming.

The purpose of Bai nianxi's press conference is not to denounce Letian, but to use the power of the media to make a tacit announcement to Shen Shi.

Almost at the end of the press conference, Bai nianxi broke the silence again and said to Shen Shimo through the microphone:

"Shen Shimo, I've told you about Lota's thoughts through the media without reservation. In addition, Bai nianxi is here. I'm not going anywhere. I'm waiting for you. If you want to aim at me, I'll come. I'm not afraid of you, You are a coward, only dare to hide in the sewe
