

Always Been Yours Chapter 1178

Livid, Gregory glared at his father and whined aggrievedly, "Mean Daddy! How can you take Mommy away from me? She already promised to sleep with me last night!"

"And why should my wife sleep with you?" Nicholas retorted impassively. "Mean Daddy!" The little guy puffed up his cheeks in anger.

"I swear, Nick, you're hopeless. Must you be resentful of your own son?" Kieran couldn't help ribbing as he watched from aside.

"Says the bachelor who still can't find a girl." Nicholas jabbed his brother's raw nerve, defeating the young man for good. Meanwhile, Tessa muffled her chuckles as she watched the three bicker.

On the other hand, Timothy lamented as he watched the heartwarming scene, feeling genuinely grateful that Nicholas and his family held his sister dearly. After breakfast, everyone parted ways.

While Kieran and Nicholas headed to the Sawyer Group, Timothy also went to his company. When Sabrina saw him enter his office, she immediately grabbed the documents and updated him on their work.

the work, Timothy asked about the new project. "What did they say after causing the latter to frown and ponder for a while before deciding, "Since they

it off?" The decision stumped causing her to jolt and nod at once. "Got it. I'll Timothy's office. "I'm sorry, but the rate you've requested has exceeded our company's charge was rendered stumped after hearing Sabrina's words. Realizing that Reinhart Group had decided to call off the deal, he became anxious. "Are you

Reinhart thinks we can't get anywhere since your company insists on keeping the initial rate and refuses to negotiate. So, we've decided to call off the person

...

in her office before the phone she

than the person in charge, Wanda smirked and answered,