

Always Been Yours Chapter 1181

“If I were you, I’d be mortified and bury myself in a hole. As if I’d still be audacious enough to cause my boss trouble!” Sabrina snapped at Amber, and her scowl rendered Timothy stupefied.

Though he knew his assistant was shrewd, could typically hold her own, and didn’t need him to worry about anything, he never thought she had such a fierce side.

Not only was Timothy gobsmacked, but so was Amber, who couldn’t even refute the young woman. For the very first time, someone else had gotten the upper hand on her unruliness.

She glared daggers at Sabrina, looking like she wanted to swallow the young woman up. Her chest heaved from seething fury, and it took her a long time to find her voice back. “You b*tch, get out of my room! Get out!” she berated while pointing angrily toward the door.
