

Always Been Yours Chapter 1182

After all, his smile was the source of her drive to do anything. After leaving the hospital, Timothy and Sabrina returned to the company, but who'd have thought they'd bump into Tessa just as they exited the car?

For once, Tessa got a break from her intensive rehearsal, so she decided to see how her dear brother was doing.

"Looks like I came at the perfect time." Tessa approached the pair with a smile when she saw them getting out of the vehicle. "Did you guys meet a client?"

"Tessa," Sabrina greeted sweetly. Timothy, on the other hand, supported Tessa while explaining, "We came back from the hospital."

Tessa knew at once that he had gone to visit Amber. With that, she looked worriedly at him. "She didn't bully you, did she?"

"No. Plus, her current condition won't allow her to do anything either." Timothy shook his head with a smile.

Rest assured, Tessa asked casually, "How is she, then?"

"She should be alright since she has the energy to cuss," he answered while helping his sister into the asked no more alright. At that, she asked, "Have you secured the deal called it off," Timothy off? Why?" Tessa asked back for sister to worry, he answered half-truthfully, no matter how. Plus, another company so I should choose

Tessa didn't know much about business, trio

asked Timothy which the latter said everything was fine, for he didn't sister about through Timothy's intentions, she covered need to worry, Tessa. The company's doing just fine, and few deals hadn't seen Henry the last never suspecting that the two would

Meanwhile, Timothy looked toward his assistant good job, which Sabrina

Joyous, the young woman attended to really good to try

be glad

Sabrina returned with her “Here, Tessa. Tell me what nodded and took a bite. Though she thought it was