

Always Been Yours Chapter 1194

"I'll show you on a laptop." Seeing that Nicholas was interested, Timothy fished out his laptop and showed him the program.

As his hands flew over the keyboard, he explained, "I let the programmers in your company give it a test earlier, and the outcome was amazing. If someone attacks the intranet in the future, the system will issue a warning and automatically produce some viruses to counterattack."

As he spoke, a red warning sign appeared on the screen. He had tried attacking the Sawyer Group's intranet, and the system counterattacked with a virus. However, the virus didn't bother him one bit.

He just had to tap some buttons on the keyboard to resolve the virus. After all, he was the one who had developed the virus for the system. Seeing that, Nicholas nodded with satisfaction and praised him, saying, "You've done a great job. That's a really good design."

If not for the fact that Timothy was gifted when it came to information technology, Nicholas wouldn't have lent him some monetary support back then. Fortunately, Timothy did not disappoint him.
