

Always Been Yours Chapter 1201

Wanda frowned and retorted, "It's my business whomever I want to marry. It's got nothing to do with you!" Hearing that made Oliver sneer. "We have a contract to marry. I'm the only one you can marry. You have to be mine!"

"Ha! You and your overactive imagination!" She rejected him again, making his face fall immediately. He was no fool. He could tell at this moment that Wanda never had thoughts of marrying him.

"Whether I'm imagining things or not, I'll show you with facts. Anyhow, I'll never let you go!" He turned around and left right after he threw that out.

Wanda's face was sullen as she watched his retreating back. In the next two days, the incident with the Hadfield Group was still all the talk on the Internet.

However, the company didn't respond in any other way throughout this period. Netizens began to make fun of them online when they saw this. 'Did Hadfield Group hit a dead end?'

'Maybe not that bad. They're probably guilty, which is why they're staying put now.' 'Why don't they just give the 5 million anyway? Why drag it on?'

'Haven't you heard? The richer you are, the stingier you become.' Edward had been keeping an eye on this incident, but he knew way more than the netizens did.

At that moment, he came to the office to report the latest news. "President Sawyer, the victim has already had a document drafted and evidence collected. He is going to sue the Hadfield Group."

"Alright. Keep yourself updated about the progress. The victim must receive his compensation." Nicholas didn't want to bother himself with this anymore after he instructed Edward.

did was move things along in this matter. The Hadfield Group would know better than to pick a bone with him if they forced to deal with now was entirely

...

had passed in the blink of time

throughout this period, which was why her popularity members of Sofia Symphony had made a name came to the country before an interview she went all the way to the airport to “The interview is in the afternoon. I’ve let them know that you’ll be coming chance, Miss Sofia. Is there that Sofia was bringing her along. She knew that Sofia wanted to help her build momentum for her special out a kind smile. "Just dress yourself up. They'll be using a photo of us together as the cover nodded in afternoon, the master and her apprentice came to the Hall of Fame, which was currently one interview went on