

Always Been Yours Chapter 1220

Nicholas was currently in his study, working overtime. Soon, Andrew knocked on the door before entering with Edward. Nicholas saw Edward and asked coldly, "Who is it?"

"It was Oliver," Edward reported truthfully. Nicholas wasn't surprised, but his face turned sullen at the namedrop. Oliver! Him again!

"Considering how the fool still has the free time to provoke us constantly, it seems like the Hadfield Group's situation isn't as dire as we thought. If that's the case, let's give him something to do!"

Although his tone was cold, it was filled with fury. Edward looked at the angry president and quietly marked a plot for Oliver's grave in his heart.

This man really won't stop unless he's dead.

Nicholas didn't know what Edward was thinking.

Nicholas' eyes were half-lidded as he recalled something. "Come here."

He motioned for Edward.

Edward walked over obediently.

Then, Nicholas murmured a few instructions in his ears and said coldly, "Do you understand?"

"Yes, sir. I'll get it done now."

a box, nodded, and left to fulfill his

...

had some peace, made the news

the Hadfield Group had been stealing and embezzling public funds to the Hadfield Group, which

Group's fake accounts

were in an uproar as soon as the news always thought Oliver was wealthy. It turns out he was it's over for Oliver and the betterment for companies

Hadfield Group's scandal also caused massive waves in the Southend ones who were the most enraged and bewildered were probably

embezzlement

Hadfield Group to hold a board

father, who was semi-retired

filled with a sea

look any better since he had an earful of accusations and insults hurled at him from getting the same amount of money, although Hadfield Group seemed to have expanded their really something else. You got us all demand a thorough investigation of the annual accounts to see the amount of money you stole anything about what Oliver is doing? Or were