BENEATH HER DARKNESS: The Alpha's Little Demon Chapter 31

031- Little Demon

ADAN STONE.

My hand coiled around my erection as I slowly jerked my cock, watching as she seduced me with her dance.

Lucy continued dancing, but she was moving forward to where I was seated, and I couldn't wait to get my hands on her, but I waited. She dropped to her knees and placed her hands on my inner thighs, parting them wider as she looked me in the eyes.

"Tell me, Alpha. In the six nights that you were gone, were the females you spent time with able to satisfy you as I do?

Bold and brave.

A smug smirk crept onto my lips as I leaned my face close to her, cupping her cheek before pushing my thumb into her mouth. She began sucking it hard and loudly, making my cock too fucking hard already.

"Tell me, Omega. Do you think after I tasted your sweet pussy, my mouth would want to taste another?"

Her arousal swirled around me as a seductive smile curled on her lips. She pulled away from my thumb and, without a warning, dipped her face in between my thighs.

Her wet and warm mouth enveloped half of my cock, her tongue swirling and lapping on it. Her saliva coated my hard cock before she began sucking harder, taking in almost all of it. Her head bobbed up and down, and all the while, her eyes never left mine.

“Fuck!” My hand went to her hair, grabbing a fistful as I pushed her more to take all of me as my hips began to buck up and down. Her hands went to cup my balls and the pressure she was putting on them was too much.

I enjoyed fucking her mouth wildly and the beautiful way she was taking it all in.

She was gagging, drool dripping at the corner of her lips as her eyes watered, but she wasn't stopping. I was panting, and I knew if she didn't stop, I would be shooting my cum into her throat in no time.

A loud guttural growl escaped my throat as my muscles clenched. And the Omega took it as a sign to push her mouth forward. The end of my dick hit her throat and her hands flew to grip my hips. For a moment, I was terrified it would choke her, but the eyes staring at me were telling me that she was enjoying everything she was doing to me. It was enough to make my breathing hitch as a wrenched groan signaled my release.

My hold on her hair tightened as I shut my eyes, while I unloaded on her throat.

“Hmmm...” A sultry moan escaped from the Omega's throat, and I couldn't stop the smile tugging on my face. My chest heaved as I slowly opened my mouth and loosened my hold on her hair. She was licking and sucking me clean, with a satisfied smile on her lips.

My hands went down to her back and to her arm as I roughly pulled her up from the floor and positioned her on my lap, straddling me. I raised us from the couch, and my beautiful Lucy coiled an arm around my neck and leaned her body away from mine. She licked her lips before her fingers went into her pussy and soon she was pushing them into my mouth and I didn't even think before I began sucking her juices.

Soon I would taste more of it, but now I wanted to punish the pussy that ignored me six days ago.

I sucked her fingers hard, savoring her sweet taste before I let them go and dropped her body to the bed.

She giggled and parted her legs, giving me a full view of her crotchless lingerie as she touched herself, coating her fingers again with her wetness. “I thought we would never get to bed, Alpha.

She was right, we hadn't made it to bed yet.

“Do you think you will get fucked, Omega?”

She nodded her head, as she slipped her fingers into her mouth, sucking her own juice. I just had my orgasm, but my dick was in a rage again.

“Did you forget my name, Alpha... All I hear is Omega...”

“Maybe... Tell me, what's your name again?”

Her eyes squinted as she was about to say something, but I beat her to it.

“On your knees, Lucy,” I growled lowly, and she immediately flipped over on her stomach before slowly rising to her all fours, wiggling her perfect rounded ass covered by just a tiny string.

My fingers trailed down her back, down to her spine before it ended in her thongs. I snapped it broken, making her lower body jolt before I kneeled behind her. My hand coiled on her long hair as I tugged it upward, making her tilt her head up as I lowered my body until my head was on the same level as hers.

“The Alpha will eat you the whole night, but for now, I want to bury myself in you ... are you ready for me?”

She nodded her head, and I tugged her hair again, making her wince in pain.

“Words, Lucy... Are you ready for me?”

“Yes, Alpha...”

I positioned my throbbing dick against her wet entrance, brushing it in between her folds harshly before I tugged her hair again. "Will you fucking ignore me again when I try to wake you up?"

"No, Alpha. Never again..."

"Good girl... Can I fuck you hard?"

"Yes, please..."

"Safeword, Lucy... Give me one."

"Demon..." she answered in a raspy voice, at the same time I slammed my aching hard dick on her throbbing pussy, making her whole body jolt from the impact as a loud, sultry moan escaped her throat.

A smug smirk formed on my face as I tugged her hair harder and began rocking my hips against her, fucking her brutally hard as if tomorrow would never come.

LUCY.

"Alpha," I gasped as my lashes fluttered. The Alpha's mouth was in my core again, attacking my pussy like it would all save us from hell.

I had no idea how many times he made me come last night until the early morning, and how many positions he took me. All I knew was that my pussy would never be the same again. And that he ruined every other man for me.

My hands flew to his hair as I gripped them tightly, bucking my hips forward as he finger fucked me hard while lapping and sucking my clit.

“Good morning...” He murmured against my mound, sending vibrations all over my body.

I propped my elbows on the bed as I pushed my upper body forward while my legs clamped over the Alpha’s head.

“Alpha, I swear to the Goddess, if you make me come again...” My mouth parted as my orgasm built up, and I knew there was no sense fighting it. My body shuddered as my throat let out a sultry moan before my back collapsed on the mattress as my orgasm took over my whole body.

And instead of slowing down, Alpha Stone amped up his speed, and I knew he wanted me to squirt again, but my body was giving up already.

“Demon...” I murmured, hoping he would hear it as tears trickled down my face. As much as I wanted to come, my body couldn’t take it anymore, and I knew I might pass out again.

I felt his body go rigid at my word as he slowed down on his stroke inside my pussy, just enough for me to ride down my orgasm until he came to a full stop.

He withdrew his fingers and dragged his body up and lay beside me. His arm slipped under my back as he pulled me into his chest.

“Shhh... I’m sorry.” He peppered my face with kisses. “I’m sorry. Did I hurt you?”

I snuggled against his chest, panting as I shook my head. “No. I just don’t want to pass out anymore. I’m sorry...”

He cupped my cheek and urged me to look at him. His eyes were flitting with worry. “I’m not going to fuck you hard. again...”

“No. Don’t say that... You can fuck me as hard as you want, just that... you made me pay for the six days you were gone in just ten hours. I’m not an Alpha, I’m just an Omega. I didn’t have the stamina that you have.”

If I thought my stamina was enough to keep up with the Alpha, I was wrong. He was a bull, and I was just a rabbit. Maybe if I wasn't suppressing my demon power, I would be able to keep up with him.

He smiled at me as his thumb stroked my cheek. "I'll keep that in mind. Just that this little demon in my arms is making me lose my control."

I scooted my face into his chest so he would not see my reaction the moment he said 'little demon.' I knew he didn't mean anything, but it hit home.

"Lucy..." His hand brushed against my arm while his legs were entwined with mine.

"Hmmm..." I mumbled my response, my face still buried in his chest.

"Do you know your father's name? I will meet with a tracker today and I want him to track down your mother and your father's family so we can take the next step of letting your wolf out. I'm worried something is off. It is unlikely for a shifter not to be accepted in a pack."

LUCY.

My heart began thudding loudly as I listened to Alpha Stone discuss sending trackers to find my family's background. I closed my eyes and tried to even out my breathing before I answered him. "You really want me in your pack, Alpha Stone?" "Hmmm..."

Of course, he would not admit it.

"I already gave you my real name. Everly and Diego Foster are my parents. Diego is my stepfather, and he's the only father I know."

“Your mother never discussed anything about your real father?”

“No.”

“So you’re not sure if you’re half-human or not?”

“He kept asking.”

“No.”

“You must be a fucking bunny!” His hand on my arm was now on my ass, squeezing it so hard before he slapped it that I couldn’t help but giggle. He then rolled over and hovered over my body. “But this little bunny under me can’t keep up with me. Shame.”

“You’re a beast!” I playfully sneered at him, my eyes beaming as my gaze took in his handsome features.

“That I am...” His head dipped at the nook of my neck as he began nibbling on my skin. Goddess, this man had no plan to stop.

“Alpha, does it really matter if I’m part of your pack or not?”

“I’ll be more secure knowing no one will touch you if they can smell my pack scent on you...”

“But I will eventually go...”

His head snapped up to look at me, elbows propped on the mattress before his face warped into a frown. “What do you mean?”

“If our mate appears, we have to separate ways, right?” I asked, biting my bottom lip. The words came out wrong, I wanted to ask him if he would throw me out once he found his mate.

He pushed his body up and climbed out of the bed, heading to his closet. He pulled out his sweatpants and put them on. “The last time I checked, I’m the one who can decide that. I’m the fucking buyer here. I will decide if I’m done with you or not.”

I swallowed hard as I sat up from lying down. How could I forget that?

“Alpha, I mean if your mate appears out of nowhere, of course, you need to be with her.

She’s your mate.”

That pained. A little. Yes, just a little. I have my own mate, I kept reminding myself.

“Will I be a kept woman then?” I added.

“My fucking mate can fall from the heavens or rise from hell, I don’t give a damn.

Unfortunately for her, she’s too late! Someone already landed on my fucking dick! In case she can beat that, then I will reconsider.” He exclaimed coldly, but despite the animosity in his voice, I found tingles spreading between my thighs.

He was referring to me, right? Falling on his dick?

“I don’t want to fucking hear about mates from your mouth again.” He said in a cold voice before he grabbed a shirt and headed out of the bedroom, shutting the door as he left.

My eyes widened while I tried my best to keep them from rolling. This Alpha had an unpredictable mood. I wondered if he was a female in his past life because he was nailing this sudden shift of emotions. (2

I stood up, still naked, dragging the sheets with me, and ran after him. I flung the main door open and stepped out into the hallway before I called for him. “Alpha!”

He turned around, his eyes raking my body from head to toe before he scowled at me.

What the fuck are you doing outside and naked?

“Oh!” I clutched the sheets tighter before looking around us. A sheepish smile curled on my lips as I looked back at him. “No one is around!

“Get your fucking ass back inside!”

I dropped the sheets, leaving me fully naked in front of the Alpha. Maybe it would shut him up. 2

It didn't take long before a loud growl erupted from his throat. I was enjoying taunting him, knowing whatever punishment I would get would be something I would enjoy.

"I just want to ask if I can sleep more or do you want me to follow you downstairs?"

4/10

"Sleep the whole fucking day! Now, moved!" His eyes were dilating, and I ended up giggling before bending forward to pick up the sheets, making sure my breasts were hanging perfectly right in his eyes. 1

"See you at breakfast, Alpha!" I turned my body around, hiking my ass a bit higher, before running back inside his suite.

I swear I heard another growl before I was able to shut the door.

I chuckled and made my way to the bedroom, slowly this time.

My pussy was still tender. Alpha Stone got me so bad overnight. And thank Goddess, he allowed me to sleep.

My eyes darted to the grandfather clock in the corner. It was not even six in the morning. Did he even sleep?

ADAN STONE.

Everything was fucking perfect until the word mate came out of her mouth. I was fucking sure

I would never meet my mate anymore.

But what if she did?

Now, I was torn between wanting her wolf out and just letting her stay wolfless so she wouldn't have a reason to leave.

But then I owned her. And I don't think I would allow her to leave anytime soon, with or without a mate.

A part of me was hoping that she was our mate, but every time I remembered she was just an Omega, I had to hold back. My family had never had an Omega for a Luna. And although my parents and grandparents showed no sign of discrimination, I didn't want to disappoint them.

My father was not the one meant to rule as an Alpha of this pack before me. He was the youngest son. He was thrust into the position. because of the circumstances surrounding Aunt

Suzanne, the first-born Alpha Female who was supposed to rule the pack together with her mate.

And because of that, I believed I was also not the rightful Alpha heir of this pack. So I spent the last ten years trying to prove to myself that I was a capable Alpha. And bringing home an Omega was never part of the plan.

But after the few days that I spent with Lucy, I don't think I would be able to let her go.

"Will I be a kept woman then?" Her question kept ringing in my head. I had no answer because I didn't know what I wanted anymore.

"You're too early!" Kingston met me at the foot of the stairs on the ground floor, he had a cup of coffee in his hand and was heading for the main office.

"I couldn't sleep anymore," I answered curtly.

"Or you didn't sleep?" He chuckled before he shook his head as we walked side by side toward the office. "You reeked of sex. You didn't even bother to shower?"

Well, I prepared a fucking bath for me and Lucy -before I began finger fucking her pussy this morning. I thought I would wash and pamper her, but the mate topic she brought up set me off.

"Fuck off!" I snapped at him as I unlocked the office door and stepped inside.

“Whoah, someone is in a bad mood. Did the little Omega refuse a morning fuck?” He chuckled as he sat down on the chair in front of my desk.

“Can you shut up for a fucking moment? Why

“I’m driving out soon. Your parents are arriving. I’m picking them up at the airport.”

“Can someone else do it? Are you their fucking chauffeur now?”

“They want the Gamma. That’s all I got. Who am I to question Alpha Audrius?”

“Is my father your Alpha? Last time I checked, I was the one paying you. Stay here and let someone else pick them up.”

“No. The instruction was clear, it’s Kingston or they’re not driving here.”

“I didn’t know my parents have a fucking attitude.”

“Where do you think you got yours?” He chuckled as he stood up while I ignored his jabs.

I was used to it already.

“Do you want coffee or anything? I can have someone prepare it before I leave.”

“Yes. Black. No sugar.”

“No sugar,” he repeated, shrugging his shoulders as he walked toward the door. “I wondered what Lucy did to piss you off this

I let out a sigh the moment the fucker left the office and closed the door. I leaned back on my chair and brushed my hands over my face, only to have her pussy smell envelop me. My hands were reeking of her.

I didn't have any sleep at all. The time that I wasn't feasting on her body, I was just watching her sleep, memorizing the way she was purring softly and the way her mouth would twitch into a smile from time to time.

I even held the opal stone hanging around her neck. It was old but heavy, it might be worth something. But I knew it was special for her because it came from her mother. So a necklace

“should never be an option for a gift to her because I was certain she would never use another necklace than the one she had.

I smiled despite the heaviness I felt. Did I really think of buying her a gift? I couldn't remember the last time I bought a gift for someone. It had been too long. Laira and Lena had been generous enough to remember special occasions and buy gifts on my behalf.

But I wanted to buy many things for Lucy. Things she'd never had the luxury to have. My mind was already going overboard with the things I would buy for her and the places I would take her.

I chuckled as I stood up from my seat and headed for the private bathroom hidden in between the shelves. I stripped off my clothes and stood under the shower while I let Lucy and the night we shared run through my mind.

Now, I sounded like a sugar daddy wanting to shower my sugar baby with gifts.
