

Gong Yoo had not realized at all that what he did was a big mistake.

"You shouldn't have to act like that. I feel sorry for your lover for defending you. Besides, if you look closely, his face is no less handsome than my husband," said Aeri who kept grinning until she burst out laughing. How happy she was today because finally Dae Hyun will soon fall into her hands again. It was not in vain that she worked hard to survive.

"Yeon Ho, we should just go home," said Soo Yin. The longer she was there, the more trouble she got. Everything had happened. No matter how stubborn Soo Yin was to refute, she will always look guilty in front of Aeri. It didn't matter at all because explaining everything to Dae Hyun was much more important.

"Who allowed you to take Yeon Ho away? If you want to go home, then go. Enjoy your company with him, don't take Jo Yeon Ho with you," Aeri said as she stepped in to block Soo Yin who was about to leave.

Gong Yoo pinched the space between his eyebrows. He did not know for sure with the rumors circulating. But if he saw the expression on Soo Yin's face that looked annoyed with him. Gong Yoo began to realize that he had made the wrong step.

"Get out of the way, Yeon Ho doesn't want to be with you anyway," Soo Yin said while holding Yeon Ho's hand tightly.

"Yeon Ho, you should just go home with mother." Aeri forcibly pulled her son's wrist. But Yeon Ho actually hugged Soo Yin's legs tightly.

"I don't want to," said Jo Yeon Ho.

"You have to go home with mother," said Aeri, whose voice had begun to rise.

"He doesn't want to be with you. Just let them go because forcing a child is not good," said Gong Yoo to mediate the debate between them. He also felt sorry for Soo Yin who was constantly being attacked. He shouldn't have made the story up as if they had a relationship. But it was too late to take his words back.

Soo Yin immediately took Jo Yeon Ho away when the opportunity was there, in the midst of Aeri who was arguing with Gong Yoo.

"Soo Yin, don't go," Li Sa shouted. She was about to chase Soo Yin but her foot tripped on a rock so she stopped in her tracks.

Meanwhile, Gong Yoo kept trying to prevent Aeri from following Soo Yin and Yeon Ho.

Soo Yin immediately asked Chung Ho to get ready as they had to leave before Aeri followed them. Soo Yin didn't want Jo Yeon Ho to be asked to go by Aeri.

Now she only had one thing on her mind. Surely by now her husband had seen her photo with Gong Yoo. She had to explain everything before there was another misunderstanding.

"Chung Ho, can we go see master," Soo Yin said while biting her lower lip. She was sitting nervously, thought about how to explain everything to her husband. Worried if her husband trusted Aeri more.

"To where, miss?" asked Chung Ho.

"Do you know where the restaurant is?" Soo Yin had repeatedly asked Dae Hyun but he didn't want to show her.

"I don't know either, Miss," said Chung Ho, who had started to drive his car away from the Namsan Park area.

Soo Yin sighed heavily because Dae Hyun didn't answer her call either. It was certain that Dae Hyun must have received the photo.

"Is there something very important and urgent?" Chung Ho asked when he saw Soo Yin sitting restlessly in the back seat with Jo Yeon Ho.

"Nothing," said Soo Yin curtly as her gaze was out the glass window. Hoped to find her husband soon.

"Mom, what's wrong?" asked Jo Yeon Ho while looking at Soo Yin with twinkling eyes. He noticed that Soo Yin was restless.

"It's fine. I just wanted to see your father because I had some business with him." Soo Yin tried to smile even though only a faint smile could be etched on her lips. She gently rubbed the top of Yeon Ho's head to make it more convincing.

"Chung Ho, we should look for master until we could find him," said Soo Yin because her heart would not be calm if she had not met her husband yet.

"But where are we going, Miss?" Chung Ho was about to resist but he felt bad. It seemed that something had happened so that Soo Yin had to meet her husband soon.

"It's up to you. Anyway we will go wherever you know. We must find him immediately," said Soo Yin.

"Yes, Miss," Chung Ho said obediently.

Chung Ho visited several places that he thought Dae Hyun might be currently at but to no avail.

Soo Yin had also tried to contact her husband along the way but there was still no answer. Until finally Soo Yin decided to go back to the villa because it was late. She felt sorry for Yeon Ho who was tired.

oooooooo

Pyeongchang-dong villa,

The night was getting late, Soo Yin paced back and forth, worried about her husband's whereabouts because he couldn't be contacted.

Bad thoughts then appeared in her mind. It seemed Dae Hyun was so angry that he didn't want to talk to her anymore. Soo Yin covered her face with both hands, feeling like she was about to cry.

"Ughh, why do men actually boast by saying something crazy?" Soo Yin grumbled while biting the tips of her nails. Felt very annoyed with Gong Yoo who just spoke without thinking first.

The wind was blowing harder and harder until it pierced the pores of her skin. But Soo Yin didn't seem to feel it. No matter how cold it was outside, Soo Yin would wait for her husband to come home.. Even though she had to close her hands because she wasn't wearing a jacket.
