

Today Dae Hyun was forced to take Yeon Ho back to the UN Village because his mother had already called. Urged him to take Yeon Ho home immediately. Maybe Aeri had told Mrs. Park if Soo Yin was playing behind his back with another man.

"Isn't mother coming?" Yeon Ho lifted his face to meet Soo Yin's eyes. There was an unwillingness in Yeon Ho's heart to have to leave the house.

"No, next time. Sorry, I can't take you," said Soo Yin with a warm smile.

"I want Mom to stay at our house because I'm already staying here," Yeon Ho said with his head down in disappointment.

Soo Yin then squatted down and cupped Jo Yeon Ho's face so he wouldn't look down again.

"Honey, you can come back here whenever you want," Soo Yin said to give understanding because it was impossible for her to come with them. When Aeri thought that her relationship with Dae Hyun was tenuous. After all, Aeri must have told everything to her in-laws. It was certain that if she came, it would cause a commotion.

"Is it true that I can come here again sometime?" Yeon Ho said with a more radiant face.

"Of course, you can come whenever you want." Soo Yin kissed Yeon Ho's cheek in turn as a goodbye.

"Yeon Ho, let's go because your grandmother has been calling constantly," called Dae Hyun who was behind the wheel of his car. He was witnessing the separation of a child and mother even though they can still meet at any time.

Yeon Ho pursed his lips because he had to leave right now.

"Mom, be careful at home. Next time, my father and I will stay here again," Yeon Ho said sadly.

"Okay, mom will be waiting for you," said Soo Yin.

"Soo Yin, we're going," said Dae Hyun while developing a warm smile.

Yeon Ho kept asking whose house the villa was so they said that it belonged to Soo Yin. It seemed that he was starting to understand that his biological mother and father were Aeri.

Soo Yin waved her hand as the car was about to exit through the gate. Likewise, Yeon Ho poked his head out to wave to Soo Yin.

=====

UN Village,

Dae Hyun had parked his car in the yard of his big family's house. Then got out while holding Yeon Ho's hand.

"Father, when are we staying again at mother's villa?" Just set foot in the UN Village area but Yeon Ho already wanted to go back there.

"Hmmm, we just got back but you already want to stay there again. Do you really want to stay there?" Dae Hyun said with a frown. Didn't expect Yeon Ho to really like living there.

"I just miss mom," said Jo Yeon Ho with a sullen face. He should have forced Soo Yin to come along.

"Don't worry, we'll definitely stay there again." Dae Hyun rubbed the top of Yeon Ho's head as they walked in.

"Alright, hopefully it won't be long," Yeon Ho said hopefully.

Just past the main door, Dae Hyun already saw Aeri and Mrs. Park who were sitting on the sofa. Looked like they've been waiting a long time.

"Grandma's grandson is finally home," said Mrs. Park who missed Jo Yeon Ho so much. Then stretched out both arms to hug him.

"Why haven't you been home for so long? You said it was only two days but it turned out to be more than a week," continued Mrs. Pars.

"I'm sorry, Grandma. At mom Soo Yin's house, it was really fun," replied Jo Yeon Ho.

"Is that true?" Mrs. Park raised her eyebrows.

Jo Yeon Ho immediately told everything, how fun it was when living with Soo Yin which was never done at this house.

Aeri who was there just rolled her eyes, trying to hold back her patience so she wouldn't get emotional like yesterday. It turned out that Soo Yin really worked hard to make Jo Yeon Ho close to her but unfortunately it was over now.

"Sounds like you'd rather live there than in this house?" Aeri quipped who still couldn't help but open her mouth.

"It was very fun there," said Jo Yeon Ho very honestly of how happy he was with Soo Yin.

"Now go upstairs to change your clothes with Aunt Eun Hee," said Mrs. Park before talking to Dae Hyun.

"I don't want to change it. Look, the picture of this clothes is very beautiful." Jo Yeon Ho proudly showed off the clothes he bought when he was with Soo Yin. Children's suits with the image of a superhero character.

"Later, I will buy you more. Don't be too proud," said Aeri, who was getting annoyed because Jo Yeon Ho always praised Soo Yin.

After being persuaded by Eun Hee, finally Jo Yeon Ho wanted to be invited to play outside.

"Hmmm, we've heard from Aeri that Soo Yin has another man. Do you still want to be with her?" asked Mrs. Park while smiling crookedly. This incident was exactly what happened to her decades ago.

Dae Hyun was silent, reluctant to answer questions from his mother. Let them think as they pleased about his relationship with Soo Yin.

"Dae Hyun, I've told you that girls like her must be mostly like the others. They only take advantage because you have a high position. Look when you don't have a position, she now leaves you," said Mrs. Park who was a little relieved that Dae Hyun finally knew Soo Yin's rottenness. She was also very grateful that Park Soo Hyun did not marry her.

"I've found out who the man is. Turns out he is our new hotel manager," Aeri said.

Dae Hyun raised an eyebrow. Quite surprised that Gong Yoo worked at their hotel.

"From now on, go back to the hotel. Don't let the hotel fall in the hands of your uncles," said Mrs. Park gently.

"Sorry, I can't. Because in a week I have to work elsewhere. Park Soo Hyun has already handled everything. From now on, you must try to trust Park Soo Hyun," said Dae Hyun.. Although he also still doubted his brother's abilities.
