“Go and save my son!” shouted Li Zhengshang.

“Mr Li, we should make plans before we do anything,” said one of them. “Tang Gong may not be as powerful as us, but he’s a narrow minded man and very scheming. I’m afraid that doing anything rash now might agitate him instead.”

“Besides, we’re not sure exactly where he is right now. The source of the phone call might not be where they are right now.”

People like Tang Gong were very careful.

He wouldn’t make mistakes easily, and there was no way he didn’t remember that the Li family had other highly skilled fighters working for them.

Li Zhengshang frowned. “You mean I have to give in to their demands and pay them to release my son?”

“That would depend on whether you think Young Master’s life is more important or if money is more important.”

If these were ordinary kidnappers, they wouldn’t have hesitated and would have gone to save Li Genhong by now.

But the kidnapper was Tang Gong, someone who used to be the assistant leader of the Dragons of Qing Sect. Whoever got to that position was definitely no ordinary man.

Besides, he was a grandmaster level fighter, so his prowess wasn’t too far off from theirs.

If they agitated him, Li Genhong was dead for sure.

Li Zhengshang was really fuming now.

If news of this went out, then the reputation of the Li family would go down again.

The Li family couldn't even protect their own heir, and they hoped to support those Chinese merchants?

They hoped to protect those Chinese merchants so that they wouldn't get bullied and kidnapped by others?

That would sound like a joke now!

But if he didn't pay up, then the chances of Li Genhong surviving were extremely slim!

"We'll pay!"

Li Zhengshang's entire body was trembling and his expression was darker than the night sky.

The anonymous account that Tang Gong had quickly received $100 million.

"Young Master Li, it looks like your position in the Li family is still pretty high. Mr Li barely hesitated before sending me the money."

Tang Gong laughed. "I'm a man of my word. I said I won't kill you, then of course I won't kill you."

Li Genhong didn't say anything.

He stared daggers at Tang Gong as he started regretting how he had actually hired these ingrates to work for him!

“Brother Tang, everything has been arranged and we can leave via the southern border,” whispered one of his men after walking in.

Tang Gong nodded.

He walked over to Li Genhong and squatted down, then sighed.

“I didn’t want to do this either. We’ve been in Las Vegas for so many years and we’d love to stay and make a comeback, but we can’t.” He rested an arm on Li Genhong’s shoulder. “As long as that person is around, we can’t stay here. He might not kill me now because he thinks I’m just a worthless ant and it’s not even worth his effort to step on me. But what if he gets into a bad mood someday?”

“What are you talking about?” Li Genhong didn’t understand. “Who is this person?”

Tang Gong froze and his expression immediately turned nasty and threatening.

“You’re still pretending at this point in time?”

How could Li Genhong not know who he asked Tang Gong to kill?

That was Jiang Ning!

The king of the forbidden territory of Donghai in

NH

China!

The frightening demon who destroyed the Bao family and Qing Sect with one hand!

Li Genhong was still pretending not to know?

“There’s no point in lying to you! Who on earth is that person?” yelled Li Genhong in frustration.

Suddenly, his entire body shuddered and his eyes went into a daze. He stared blankly at Tang Gong and his lips trembled. “It’s...it’s him?”

Tang Gong narrowed his eyes. “Jiang Ning!”

“Jiang Ning!”

Li Genhong gulped. He had guessed it was Jiang Ning, because the person he really wanted Tang Gong to kill was Jiang Ning!

But Li Genhong didn't expect Tang Gong to be so frightened by Jiang Ning that he would rather betray him, kidnap him, get money from the Li family and leave the city.

"It looks like Young Master Li really doesn't know anything."

Tang Gong looked at Li Genhong's reaction and realized he really didn't know anything. He couldn't help but call Li Genhong an idiot in his heart.

"Do you know how the Bao family disappeared? Do you know how Qing Sect vanished?"

"It's all because of this Jiang Ning! He wanted the Bao family dead and Qing Sect to disappear!"

KABOOOM!

Li Genhong felt like he couldn't hear anything anymore.

His mind went blank and he could barely think anymore.

Jiang Ning...was such a terrifying character?

Jiang Ning was the one who killed off the Bao family!

Jiang Ning was the one who wiped out Qing Sect!

How could he...how could he be so scary?

"Young Master Li, I really admire you for trying to go up against Jiang Ning and even trying to kill the people in Lin Group. Didn't you know that Jiang Ning protects his own people the most?"

Tang Gong shook his head and scoffed. He didn't waste anymore time and left with his men, leaving Li Genhong to sit there in a daze.

He got his money, so he had to leave now. As for Li Genhong...

He didn't have to do anything. Who could offend Jiang Ning and still live to tell the tale?

Li Genhong was completely stunned and sat there for a long time without moving.

His body was trembling, and even his soul was trembling.

He had heard about how the Bao family and Qing Sect no longer existed. He was still discussing with his father a few days ago about how this could have happened.

They thought it was an internal fight that resulted in them killing each other. He never thought that... it would turn out to be Jiang Ning!

GULP!

Li Genhong gulped and his lips were trembling. "Finished! We're finished! We're doomed!"

The Li family had offended Jiang Ning!

He immediately climbed to his feet and started running back home like a mad man.

NH

Meanwhile.

At the Li house.

Li Zhengshang received a call from Tang Gong and sent people to pick Li Genhong up after he confirmed that his son was still alive.

He couldn't get out of the house himself because the heads of the other two families that controlled the Chinese Chamber of Commerce, the Cheng family and Bai family, were both here.

The fragrance of tea filled the large hall.

Even though they had lived overseas for many years, they still preferred to drink tea and never drank coffee.

“A total of 13 merchants terminated their contracts, including six of them whose contracts have expired. Zhengshang, this situation doesn't look good.”

The head of the Cheng family, Cheng Ruo, glanced at Li Zhengshang as he narrowed his eyes and didn't look friendly at all. “I'm very curious as to what exactly happened to the Li family. You should tell us.”

“That's right. If something's happened to the Li family, then that's your business. But if your business ends up affecting the Chinese Chamber of Commerce and implicates the Bai family and Cheng family, then who's going to bear the losses?”

The head of the Bai family, Bai Feng, looked extremely displeased as well.

The news of how the Young Master of the Li family got kidnapped really made the reputation of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce drop to rock bottom!

If they couldn't even protect their own family, then how were they going to protect the Chinese merchants?

What right would they have to collect 20% of their annual profits as part of their membership fee?

“Both of you have worried for nothing,” said Li Zhengshang directly. “There are no problems with the Li family, and all this is just a misunderstanding.”

He continued calmly, “My son is fine, he was just too playful. This won't affect the Chinese Chamber of Commerce.”

“That's not how you should be putting it. You're not the only one who decides whether it affects us or not,” Cheng Ruo scoffed. “The Chinese Chamber of Commerce doesn't only belong to the Li family. It belongs to all three of us!”
