

Blossoming Her Shielded Heart Chapter 101 –110

Chapter 101

Julia felt uncomfortable because of a cold, so she had stayed in the villa for several days.

After that incident because of Mona, Shawn went to work and back home on time every day, and Julia didn't dare to go around and watch TV or play games at home every day.

As soon as she recovered from her cold, Julia, who was in a hurry, went to work with full energy with Shawn.

She bent over the car window, watching the scenery whistling at the roadside. It was like a bird out of cage, relaxed and natural. Although she lived a comfortable life in the villa and Shawn came back every day, she was not allowed to go out of the house for convalescence. She was really bored to death.

Turning his head, Shawn stared at the pretty girl, with the corners of his mouth slightly rising.

“Such a good day!” Unaware of the burning eyes of the man behind her, Julia cheerfully said.

“Yes.” Shawn replied and lifted her over his laps.

Julia looked up at him slightly and then Sarahned on his shoulder quietly. Shawn kissed her cheek with his big hand holding her small hand tightly.

After returning to the villa from the town, their relationship seemed to reach a higher level. Julia was less respect and timid to Shawn, maybe because she had left the company for too long.

The luxury car went directly to the garage. Looking at the familiar environment, Julia smiled for a long time. Finally, she could come back to work. She wanted to have a holiday during her working days, but she also wanted to go to work after a long holiday. Julia simply couldn't stand being idle.

“I can go in from the outside.” Julia hurried to let go of Shawn's hand and smiled.

The colSarahgues were suspicious of her sudden appearance with Shawn in the company after a long holiday.

It was strange that Julia rarely heard about her rumors with Shawn in the company. Perhaps it was because of the suppression from Shawn. The rumor appeared before, but it quickly disappeared.

With a slight frown, Shawn glanced at Julia and dragged her into the elevator, ignoring her resistance.

“We will be misunderstood.” Julia pushed him away and looked up at Shawn with dissatisfaction.

Shawn frowned. He didn't like hiding, but she liked the hide and seek game.

“There is nothing which could be misunderstanding.” Shawn stared at her and slowly asked.

After she heard him, Julia lowered her head in silence, with her hands clenched together and her mouth pouted as if she was suffering from injustice. She whispered, "Mom will know."

Since her mother knew the identity of Shawn, she would naturally pay attention to the news about him. If their relationship was exposed to the public, her mother would absolutely come from a small city to Ventrusburg to take her back.

After all, what Julia was afraid of was Barbara.

Hearing Barbara's name, Shawn didn't say anything. Julia quietly raised her head and took a glance at Shawn, whose face was as dark and dark as the s f an hour's walk.

"Julia, how's everything going with the CEO?" Sitting opposite to Julia, Evena looked at Julia with her bright eyes.

"It's just so so. It's not as magnificent as you and John," Julia rolled her eyes at her and took a sip of tea. Before Evena could start gossip, she asked first: "when I returned to the company, I heard that John was pestered by a woman. Is that you?"

Hearing this, Evena's face went pale. Then he gave Julia a glare and lowered his head, downcast. "It's not me. It's his fiancée."

Julia was stunned and asked, "does John have a fiancée?"

Evena nodded and said lightly, "she is the younger sister of David. She is shy and lovely and seems to be a perfect match to John."

"What are you talking about? Is that what you should say? Didn't you say that you would get John's heart?" Julia poked Evena's forehead and said angrily.

Suddenly, something came to Julia's mind. She raised her voice as her hand froze on Evena's forehead, "David! Is he the cook? "

"Yes..." Evena replied plainly.

"Did anything happen between you and John after you drank last time?" Julia looked at Evena and asked.

Hearing this, Evena lowered his head sadly, totally different from her usual self.

Julia took a look at Evena and kept silent.

After a while, in silence, Julia finally waited for the waiter to serve the dishes.

"It smells so good." Julia deliberately shouted.

Evena looked up at the dishes and said without any interest: "you eat first."

Julia was shocked and wondered where was the Evena who took away her food immediately?

"What do you want? Do you want to tell me that you also have any sorrow? " Julia rolled her eyes at Evena.

"Julia, I'm so sad." Evena looked at Julia with a sad face.

"Is it because of John? If he dares not to take the responsibility, I will kill him. " Julia said to Evena while eating.

Hearing that, Evena smiled bitterly. "Forget it. It's not his fault. Just admit that I'm unlucky."

Chapter 102

Hearing what Evena said, Julia was so angry that she almost overturned the table, “you are the one who suffered losses. How can you forgive him so easily!”

“What would you do if the CEO left you suddenly?” asked Evena, looking at Julia. “Are you still begging him to be together with you?”

This question made Julia stunned.

Would she keep pestering Shawn if he suddenly left her? Of course not. Julia hoped that she could have the chance and she could go home to spend life with her mother.

But when she thought that Shawn would leave her one day, Julia was depressed.

Julia looked at Evena, who used to be casual and cheerful, but when she really loved someone, she was more reserved than anyone else.

“Then what are you going to do next?” Asked Julia.

“It’s okay. Just take it as my mistake.” As soon as he waved his hand, Lennon looked imposing.

“Hahaha...” Julia laughed and put the chicken drumsticks that she was unwilling to give away before in front of Evena, saying: “it’s so forthright of you. Reward you a chicken drumstick, if it really can’t be redeemed, just let it be.”

Evena picked up the chicken leg and took a sharp bite, so fierce that Julia thought it was John’s flesh instead of the chicken leg.

After eating a lot of food, Evena was in a better mood. By the way, Julia bought some food for Shawn. Evena looked at Julia in a strange way, and Julia just laughed.

“Hey, you’ve been talking about my business. Don’t you have to report to me the matters between you and the CEO?” Evena gave Julia a mean look.

“What do you want to know?” Thinking Evena just was crossed in love, Julia didn’t reject her gossiping.

Speaking of gossips, Evena looked at Julia with her eyes shining, “How about you with the CEO? Didn’t you say that you have married the CEO? Why don’t you have a wedding ceremony? Or you are lying to me? “

“It’s a complicated matter and I can’t explain it cSarahrly.” Julia said in a profound tone. She looked down at Evena and smiled, “so, I think I’d better not talk about it anymore. But I’ve decided fighting with Mona lately. “

As for Wyatt, he didn’t bother to ask her about her relationship with the prison. Although he was very interested in the glorious CEO, he was only attracted by his admiration. Besides, he could get the answer no matter how he asked about it.

“Mona is really your rival. Why do you always get involved with her?” Evena sighed for Julia.

Julia sighed and said: “yes.”

After chatting for a while, they returned to the company. Evena was promoted so she had worked in the headquarters as a clerk.

Julia wanted to say that their professor was finally relieved. But before she could speak out anything, Evena added, “but I think the work in the restaurant is better, because I can eat whatever I want.”

Julia was speechless.

After saying goodbye to Evena, Julia wanted to take the fast food to the CEO's office first. She stood at the door of Shawn. Anyway, she was used as a nanny by Bria in the afternoon.

"Brandon, check all the documents and print them out."

"Boss, Mr. Yi invites you to attend a 'Grand' opening ceremony,"

"Boss, here is the contract sent by Mr. Liao."

"Cindy, check the data."

Julia ran between the CEO's office and the Secretary's office, and, of course, spent most of her time in the CEO's office.

When it was off duty time, all people in the Secretary office had left. Julia looked at the schedule, still calculating about Shawn's following work. She really didn't understand whether John had been pretending or he had been used to it.

"Boss, you have a lot of things to do." Julia stared at the schedule and sighed.

"Your task is to minimize my work. Do you understand?" Shawn sat beside Julia, patted her head and said with a smile.

Julia, who just took charge of this position, didn't know what kind of activities could be cancelled and what was necessary

"Come here and massage me." Shawn Sarahned on the sofa, pointed at his forehead and ordered naturally.

Hearing this, Julia didn't think too much. She knelt down beside him naturally and reached out her little hand to rub his temple.

Shawn closed his eyes.

Looking at his tired face, Julia's heart ached. The higher your position was, the more hard you will be.

"Are you feeling better?" Julia softly asked as she rubbed his temple, with obvious care in her tone.

"Yes." Shawn replied and pulled Julia who was kneeling beside him into his arms.

Julia didn't expect this and couldn't help screaming. She lied down on him and put her hands on his shoulder. The position was so ambiguous.

"Kitten." Holding her slender waist with one hand and holding her earlobe with another hand, the prison guard gently called her.

Julia quivered and her face had already turned red.

"CEO....." Julia struggled slightly, held on to his chest and tried to get up from him.

Chapter 103

Suddenly someone knocked on the door. Julia was shocked. She looked at Shawn in a panic. She was afraid that someone might know what happened between her and Shawn.

Shawn looked down at her, slowly reSarahsed her..

As soon as Julia was free, she rolled down from Shawn's body, and sorted out her clothes with a red face.

Staring at her back which was slightly bowing, Shawn lifted the corners of his mouth, a rare tenderness emerging, but unfortunately, Julia did not turn around.

The door was pushed open slowly. Julia stood elegantly by the side of Shawn, but her eyes could not help but look towards the door, where a man in a white suit was gracefully walking towards them.

It was Holden.

Julia slowly turned her gaze away from him. Although Holden was a good man, he was Juliet's son. So Julia didn't want to get close to him because of his identity.

"I put the materials here first." Holden put a pile of documents on Shawn's desk, and gently looked at his brother, "brother, you haven't been home for a long time. Dad and mom miss you very much."

Hearing this, Julia couldn't help peeping at Shawn, but did not see any emotion fluctuation on his face. It seemed that everything that Holden said had nothing to do with him.

"Father asked you to bring my sister-in-law home tonight. We can have a little reunion." Holden stood quietly at Shawn desk and waited for Shawn's reply with a bright smile on his face.

After a long pause, Shawn replied, "okay."

Hearing the answer from Shawn, Holden said goodbye to him, turned around and walked out of his office.

As soon as Holden left, Julia, who had been pretending to be tough, relaxed. She looked at the poker faced Shawn and frowned. Whenever they mentioned going back home, his face was colder than usual.

“Boss.” Julia called him in a low voice.

There was no answer. Shawn Sarahned back on the sofa with his eyes closed. His face became colder and colder, looking frightening and murderous.

She had seen Shawn like this before, which is on the Mid-Autumn Festival, he mentioned his mother for the first time.

If there were only two choices, Julia would rather see his calm face than his cold face.

The wind gently blew in through the gap of the French window, blowing away the only warmth in the office, Sarahving only the frozen air. Standing by the side of the sofa, Julia didn't know what to say.

After a long time, Shawn slowly stood up and said lightly, “follow me.”

Julia hurried to follow Shawn. It was time to get off work. Except for some guards, no one was outside.

She trotted all the way to catch up with Shawn. She walked so fast that she didn't stop her feet when entering the elevator. As a result, her wh nd eye to Julia's cry. He gently gazed at her with his deep black eyes, and then Julia lowered her head quickly. The force of her struggle was getting weaker and weaker.

“Let me go.” Julia's voice was choked with sobs. She was so scared of him “Kitten, I don’t like you to be disobedient. So, be good.” The low but threatening voice of Shawn thundered in her ears.

He wanted her to be obedient because she was his pet, whom he could play with when he was bored.

Seeing that Julia was in no mood to talk anymore, Shawn took it as a tacit consent. “Be good, this is my kitten.”

Julia didn’t resist anymore. She stayed quietly in Shawn’s arms and looked out of the window. Although she knew she was nobody to him, she still fell in love with him.

A bitter and helpless smile quietly appeared on her lips.

Looking at her bitter smile on her face, Shawn frowned. The girl being with him was really exhausting? Or was she worried that her mother would find out the truth?

Thinking of this, he stared at her eyes. There was a flash of ruthlessness in his eyes. And the original gentleness was completely devoured by his cold and cruel expression.

He must finish this thing as soon as possible.

He slightly lowered his head and gently touched Julia’s red cheek, which made him less depressed all of a sudden. His kitten couldn’t be ran away, and no one could take it away.

There was a rare silence in the car. After a whole day’s work, Julia was drowsy. She fell asleep slowly, with her arms around Shawn’s neck.

Was she a pig? If she was full, she could sleep; if she was awake, he could eat

Shawn lowered his head, took a look at Julia who was asleep, and shook his head. But she was more like a kitten when she was asleep, making him feel very protective. He stared at her pure face.

Chapter 104

After the car stopped, Julia woke up in confusion. She raised her head a little and saw the handsome face of Shawn. Then she turned to look out of the window.

This was not Nelson's house, but the biggest hospital in Ventrusburg, where Shawn's grandmother was.

Julia slowly came back to her senses, stretched her arms and legs, and nestled comfortably in Shawn's arms.

"You don't want to get off?" Shawn poked her cheek.

"No, I didn't." Julia retorted rapidly, struggling to jump down from the arms of Shawn, but she was too weak to fight against him. She tried several times but failed.

She raised her head, rolled her eyes at him and said, "it's you who didn't allow me to do so."

The expression in her eyes was very cSarahr. It was not because she was reluctant to Sarahve, but because she had no other choice.

With Shawn's clouded, the hand that was used to poke her cheek turned into the tip of her nose. Julia's nose was one of her favorite points. Naturally, she couldn't let Shawn break it. She patted heavily on the hand of Shawn and shouted: "let go of your stinky hand. Don't pinch my nose!"

She was like a little girl who was bullied by others but had no power to fight back.

Julia's action made him suddenly feel great. He let go of her. Julia immediately touched her delicate nose and looked at Shawn with hidden bitterness. Like a bullied little wife, she was too sad to say a word.

Shawn Sarahned over, kissed her nose and carried her off the car.

"I have my foot Ah..." Before Julia could finish her words, she was held around by Shawn and circled around before he put her down.

Julia was shocked and patted on her chest. She glanced at Shawn speechlessly and muttered, "I'm not a kid anymore..." She was freaked out by what he was doing.

"You doesn't look like a child." With his eyes wandering around Julia's body, Shawn looked at her breasts and made a faint conclusion.

Julia's face turned red as she was insulted by the man's eyes. She stared at Shawn, her hands clenched into fists. But she didn't utter a word.

If he was not her boss, she would definitely teach this rascal a lesson. In addition to his handsome appearance and strong background, this rascal had no other advantages. He had so many flaws!

Seeing that Julia's face was red because of anger but she didn't dare to say anything, Shawn smiled gently, took her hand and walked into the hospital.

Behind Shawn, Julia could not help looking around. This place was still a little strange to her. She had not come here to see grandma for a long time. She was not sure about the wish she made with Shawn last time.

"Is grandma okay now?" Julia whispered to the man walking in front of her.

Shawn didn't reply her.

Julia wanted to ask more, but they had entered grandmother's exclusive room.

A group of doctors surrounded grandmother. When they saw Shawn and Julia come in, the doctors quickly dispersed, leaving only a few doctors in a relatively older age.

"Hello, Mr. Li." The doctors nodded at right future. That's why I allow Noah to take him away. When he was ten years old, he was sent abroad. Except for tuition fees, he did not accept any gift from Noah. Except for the mid-autumn festival every year, Shawn rarely comes back. "

"Later, my condition worsened. When Shawn came back from abroad, he completely took over the Nelson Group. At that time, he was just 18. Kaaahhkkk, kaaahhkkk, kaaahhkkk...." The old lady coughed badly, held Julia's hands tightly, and insisted on telling her the truth.

"Grandma!" Julia shouted and hurriedly pressed the emergency lamp on the bedside table when she saw the old lady kept coughing.

After a while, many doctors rushed in and took the old granny away. Julia followed up with them in a hurry. At the door, she saw Shawn in a freezing face. He didn't even look at her. Instead, he put all his attention on the old granny in the hospital bed.

The old lady was sent into the emergency room.

Standing at the door of the emergency room, the look on Shawn's face was horribly gloomy, and it was obvious that he was worried and afraid. He was completely different from the confident one as usual.

In his eyes, his grandma was the most important family member in the world for him.

Julia looked at him carefully. She didn't know his past would be like this. She had always thought that her past was the worst. He had never told her about all these.

"Grandma will be fine," Standing in front of him, Julia stretched out her hands and gently held him. What she could do now was to accompany him.

"I'm fine." The voice of Shawn was hoarse. He hugged her tightly as if she was the last straw that could save him. "Grandma will be fine, too."

He said these words not only to her, but more like to comfort himself.

Julia was out of breath by his hug and she couldn't help whispering: "Shawn, calm down."

Hearing the woman's voice in his arms, Shawn finally came to his sense. He quickly reSarahsed Julia, who gently patted her chest and coughed.

Chapter 105

Hearing this, Shawn patted Julia's hand gently and asked in a low voice, "are you okay?"

"Yes." Julia answered and raised her head a little to look at Shawn. She didn't expect that he was also looking at her. She had never seen the nervousness and eagerness on his face before. In her eyes, Shawn was always calm and cool, and he could handle anything with ease.

Suddenly, Shawn's phone rang. He hung it up and turned it off.

After a few hours of silence, the door of the emergency room opened. Shawn stepped forward, grabbed the doctor and asked, "how is she?"

The doctor was frightened by the furious tone of Shawn and said gingerly, "she is out of danger, but..." The doctor hesitated for a moment and said, "Maybe she can't talk and move any more."

"What do you mean?" With blue veins standing out on his hands, Shawn grabbed the doctor as if he could throw the doctor back and forth like an animal without any resistance.

The doctor was quivering with fear. He carefully looked at the man in front of him, and even forgot what to say.

The other doctors dared not to stop Shawn.

"Let him go, Shawn." Julia hastily stopped Shawn. If he continued to treat him like this, this doctor would definitely be strangled to death by Shawn.

Hearing Julia's voice, Shawn came to his sense. He threw the poor doctor aside and strode into the ward.

The doctors behind them were all relieved after Shawn was gone. They could barely keep their balance.

Julia's heart raced uncontrollably as she thought of what Shawn had done to her just now. She didn't expect that he could also be so violent. Although she knew that the Kung Fu of Shawn was extraordinary, how could someone who is a friend of Elmore be bad at it.

If someone said that Shawn had once been a gang member, Julia would not be surprised. But when she really saw his temper, she was still startled. It was so close that the doctor would have been killed by Shawn.

She took a deep breath and walked into the ward.

The old lady in bed was as pale as a piece of white paper. Sitting beside the old man, Shawn held his hand. The look on his face was so horrified that even Julia dared not approach him.

It seemed that Shawn was so nice to her to restrain his violent temper in front of her.

According to the doctor, the patient was in a vegetative state. Standing behind Shawn, Julia didn't dare to say anything to disturb him. She knew what he needed most now was silence.

After a long time, Shawn slowly stood up and walked out. The attending doctor who had been waiting outside hastily came up and helped Shawn analyze the illness and the best treatment.

With a dull look on her face, Julia looked at the old man on the bed and touched the jade bracelet on her wrist. If she had stopped the old man from talking just now, would she be able to spend the night safely.

It was her that made grandma's mood fluctuate. If she hadn't asked so ma urred to Julia that Noah was also a poor guy

"But..." Julia wanted to say something more, but was stopped by Shawn's glaring at her.

Julia cried in her mind, 'one day, I will be the master and step hard on this bad man!'

She glanced at the sign of the Nelson family mansion above her head, and continued to struggle unremittingly. Slightly pausing, Shawn looked down at her and said lightly, "if you move a little more, I'll kiss you."

Hearing this, Julia's body suddenly froze. Her two tiny hands grabbed the collar of Shawn's chest and dared not move a little. She knew Shawn well that he could do anything he said.

For a long time, she was in the arms of Shawn and her cheek was against the clothes on the man's chest. She was so depressed that she didn't dare to turn her face.

Shawn smiled with satisfaction and strode into the Nelson mansion with her in his arms.

With the approaching of Shawn, Julia became more and more nervous. She was so nervous that she could hardly breathe. Her eyes were tightly closed and her heart was on edge.

At the door of Nelson's house, Shawn suddenly stopped and put Julia down from his arms. Julia didn't expect this and didn't respond for a while. She still held Shawn's arm tightly.

Feeling her foot on the ground, Julia's hanging heart was suddenly relieved. She was so excited that she forgot who Shawn was. She raised her head, smiled and said: "thank you."

The smile on her face was as bright as a group of sunflowers. For a moment, Shawn was in a daze. The cold and melancholy expression on his face was alleviated, and he went to hold her little hand.

After expressing her thanks, Julia came to realize that this man was just the guy who made her nervous? So why thanks him?

Thinking of this, Julia lowered her head and muttered, "forget it."

Her pretty face was full of regret. Casting a glance at her, Shawn's icy face was softened, and this girl was always more dull than ordinary people.

Chapter 106

When Shawn and Julia entered the room hand in hand, they happened to see that all the family members of Noah were sitting on the sofa. Noah looked so gloomy, like the dark sky when the rain was coming.

Seeing Noah's expression, Julia could not help feeling scared. Once upon the time, Julia thought Noah was a gentle man, but she was also very afraid of him when he got angry.

Noticing Noah's scowling face, Zoey and Holden didn't dare to say anything.

"Why do you come back so late?" Noah glared at Shawn, his angry was directed at Shawn.

Shawn looked up at Noah directly and didn't dodge him with his fierce eyes. Facing with Noah's angry, Shawn didn't give in at all. Shawn said coldly, "Who are you to ask me?"

His voice was as cold as if he had fallen into an icehouse, without any temperature. It was also like an ice arrow. Wherever the arrow went, there was ice and snow.

"You!" Upon hearing Shawn's words, Noah was infuriated. He picked up the teacup on the table and threw it directly in the direction of Shawn.

Without dodging, Shawn deftly caught the cup with two fingers. He coldly looked at Noah and released his hand. The teacup suddenly fell to the ground.

"Bang!" The sound of the broken teacup echoed in the hall for a long time.

The servants and butler were so scared that they didn't dare to say one word. Julia looked at Noah who was enraged and then looked at Shawn who was distant. She had no idea that the conflict between Noah and Shawn had reached this point. A spark would start a big fire.

Julia hesitated for a few seconds, stood in front of Shawn, and apologized with a smile. "Um, sorry, we were late because we have gone to visit grandma."

Because the hall was very quiet, Julia's cSarahr voice almost reverberated in every corner of the hall, and everyone's eyes were focused on her.

Julia giggled and said, "I am so sorry, hahaha..."

Behind her, Shawn frowned. He reached out and took Julia into his arms. He lowered his head and said in a low voice, "I don't need your apology."

Julia felt uncomfortable to be held in public. She pushed Shawn on his chest and kept laughing, "It's not a big deal. It isn't difficult to say sorry."

On the other side, hearing that they had went to see their grandma, Noah slowly cooled down. Coupled with Julia's persuasion, he sulkily sat back on the sofa.

"Mark, pSarahse prepare the dinner." Noah was still a little impatient. He shouted at the butler who was standing aside.

Julia was a little stunned and thought, 'Has Noah been waiting for us?'

With a deep frown on Shawn's face, he was about to Sarahve with Julia. Suddenly, he heard a voice of Noah from behind. "What's wrong with your grandmother now?"

After hearing Noah's words, Julia thought that the last thing Shawn wanted to mention now was his grandmother's condition.

Sure enough, Bria always felt a little uncomfortable. She followed behind Shawn nervously, but her eyes could not help scanning around. Fortunately, she had been accustomed to living in the villa of Shawn, and was mentally prepared for the luxurious decoration.

When she came to the dining table, Julia kept her head down and followed behind Shawn like a daughter-in-law.

“Wow, it feels so different to be a modern Cinderella.” Juliet sneer at Julia. Juliet eventually accepted the fact that Julia had married Shawn.

She was unable to change the decision made by Shawn, but she was still disgusted with Julia.

At the sight of Julia, Juliet couldn't help but think of Barbara and Noah's betrayal.

Hearing Juliet's voice, Julia suddenly looked up and smiled brightly at her, “Indeed, it feels good.”

Julia can be unyielding to anyone, but she can't be unyielding to Juliet. She would never forget that ten years ago, how Juliet embarrassed her mother, and how she taught them a lesson.

Julia could never forget all things!

“Bitch's daughter! You are both bitches!” Juliet let out another cold hum.

Julia kept the standard smile of 45 degrees as usual. She looked at Juliet calmly and said slowly, “Bitch never says she is a bitch.”

Upon hearing this, Juliet suddenly stood up, looked down at Julia and angrily scolded, “How dare you? Don't forget, even if you married Shawn, I am still your elder. “ “Enough. Let’s eat. ” Noah took a glance at Juliet and then at Julia, and said in a low voice.

Hearing this, both of them kept silent. The atmosphere on the table was deadly quiet.

“I don’t want to eat now.” Throwing her bowl away, Juliet gave Julia an angry look and left in anger.

“If you don’t eat, I will eat.” Julia said in a low voice and then lowered her head to eat.

Noah put the dish in Julia’s bowl, forced a smile and said, “Don’t care about what Juliet said, Julia.”

Julia shook her head and smiled, “I’m fine.”

Chapter 107

Zoey also felt resentment against Julia. During the meal, she shot daggers at Julia from time to time. But Holden kept a gentle smile all the time.

“Brother. It’s delicious. PSarahse take a bite. ” With a brilliant smile, Zoey sat beside Shawn and picked up food for him.

But every time Zoey’s face was met with Julia’s, her innocence would turn into a witch’s ferocity. At first Julia was so shocked by Zoey’s reversal of face. But now she’s used to it that she didn’t even move her eyebrows when Zoey glared at her and continued to eat calmly.

“How is your mother now?” Suddenly, Noah asked Julia.

Hearing that Noah mentioned Barbara, Julia paused for a while and took her hand back. She said indifferently, “She is fine.”

Julia was amused by Noah’s words and glanced at Holden and Zoey. In front of his children, Noah asked her how her mother was doing whether he had thought about his children’s feelings.

At this time, Shawn put down his bowl and chopsticks, and politely and indifferently said, “I’m full.” Then he stood up, turned around and left.

Seeing this, Julia also quickly swallowed the last bite of rice in her bowl, and then hurriedly stood up and followed Shawn.

As soon as she stood up, Zoey also stood up. She smiled at Noah and politely said, “Dad, I’ll go back to my room first.”

Noah nodded slightly. Immediately, Zoey also followed them.

“Brother, it’s been a long time since you taught me the last lesson.” Zoey was in the middle. She spoke to Shawn with a sweet smile. And Julia was pushed by Zoey’s elbow to the other side of the aisle.

After being pushed away, Julia looked at Zoey who was hanging on Shawn. With her sixth sense of woman, she guaranteed that Zoey didn’t treat Shawn as an ordinary brother.

“Julia is a professional designer. You can ask her if you have any questions.” Shawn threw the hot potato to Julia.

“I want you to teach me! I don’t want to be with a gay woman!” Zoey looked at Julia with disdain.

Julia was innocent. She must have never provoked this lady.

“Zoey, she is your sister-in-law.” Said Shawn harshly with a frown.

Zoey still said, "But... But... "

"Don't be rude to your elders. If you dare to act like this again, half of your pocket money will be cut." Shawn said to Zoey after giving her a slight glance.

Julia choked on her saliva. Looking at the serious face of Shawn, she could not help but wipe the cold sweat from her forehead. 'Zoey was so unlucky to have such a brother...'

Hearing that, Zoey eventually let go of Shawn. She looked at Zoey with her beautiful eyes, full of grievances. But Shawn was still untouched.

Turning his head slightly, Shawn glanced at Julia, and all the stars behind her and looked at Julia warily.

Julia looked up at Zoey and saw an unnatural expression on her face. A beautiful blush was also creeping on her cheeks.

This scene amused Julia. She asked deliberately, "Is it a gift for the man you like?"

"It's none of your business." Zoey glared at Julia anxiously. God knows how much Zoey wanted to get this shameless woman out of here.

Suddenly, Julia thought of Zoey's dependence on Shawn. She could not help but ask, "Zoey, Shawn is not the one you like, is he?"

As soon as Julia finished her words, she saw that Zoey's face turned redder. Zoey snorted at Julia and turned around.

Julia was still stunned. She thought that Zoey's affection for Shawn was just a sister's dependence on her brother, but her expression is clearly a girl's preference for a boy.

“Zoey, Shawn is your brother,” Julia frowned and reminded Zoey because this abnormal feeling is not good for anyone.

“No, he is not.” Zoey turned around and shouted at Julia.

Zoey lowered her head and didn't say anything after shouted these words.

“What?” Julia was confused what Zoey had said and asked.

“Nothing. I don't want to Sarahn anything tonight. Get out of here.” With the bouquet full of stars in her hands, Zoey looked at Julia and said in a harsh voice.

Seeing Zoey's face of impatience and disgust, Julia knew that tonight Zoey would not be kind to her. Julia stood up with a smile, “Okay, I'll go. Don't worry. I won't tell this to Shawn. “

Then Julia walked towards the door. As soon as she stepped out, she heard Zoey's voice. “PSarahse Sarahve my brother. Give him back to me.”

Zoey said in a weak voice instead of arrogant and domineering.

Julia turned around, looked at Zoey, and said softly, “Zoey, even if I'm not with your brother, he won't be with you. You are brother and sister.”

Chapter 108

It was not the first time that Julia had seen Zoey, and every time she show a condescending attitude towards Julia because of Shawn.

For the sake of the unhidden conversation between Julie and Brandon at the table, Julia didn't believe that Michelle really knew nothing. But Michelle didn't mention anything about her mother and Harold to her.

This confused Julia.

“I like brother. Don’t compete with me.” Zoey’s tears fell down while she was speaking. She bit her lips and bravely stared at Julia.

Julia felt that there was a gap between her and Zoey. It was not that she didn’t want to let Shawn Sarahve. Shawn was Zoey’s brother. How could they be together?

She scratched her hair and wondered how to persuade Zoey.

“Go away, I don’t want to see you again.” Before Julia could say anything, Zoey had already slammed the door and turned her down.

Julia was taken aback by the loud slamming of the door. She stared at it for a while and then turned around to Sarahve.

Back to Shawn’s bedroom, Julia still couldn’t react from Zoey’s words. It was strange that Zoey really liked Shawn.

How could that be possible? How could Zoey love Shawn.

Julia held a big pillow, sighed, then raised her head and looked around. She was overjoyed. Since Shawn was not in the bedroom, this bedroom was her world. She laughed, rolled on the big bed with her body and mind relaxed, and closed her eyes. She couldn’t help admiring the feeling of freedom and comfort.

“Get up.” Before she stretched her arms and legs, a pSarahsant, cold voice suddenly sounded from the top of her head.

The sudden voice startled Julia who was leisurely enjoying her life. She sprang up from the bed.

“You You are back. ” Julia was sitting on her knees on the bed, smiling at Shawn.

Glancing at her, Shawn pointed to the bathroom and said slowly, “wash yourself.”

“Okay.” After receiving the order, Julia jumped off the bed and rushed into the bathroom.

Just now when he Sarahrned about Zoey’s feelings for Shawn, Julia was really unable to face Shawn. How would he deal with Zoey’s feelings? Julia was in a daze.

Would Zoey tell on Juliet and Noah?

A thought struck Julia and she couldn’t help thinking about the relationship between Zoey and Juliet. They were mother and daughter. If Zoey embroidered the truth in front of Juliet and told her what just happened, Juliet was making trouble for her.

Julia hit her head remorsefully. Why didn’t she think of this before? Was she so immune to those cute little girls?

After that, Julia took a shower. When she was about to stand up from the bathtub, she found that she didn’t bring any clothes into the room and those clothes were thr

The black ball trembled and stared at Shawn in shock. The burning eyes were full of confusion and begging.

“You Are you kidding me? ” Julia asked in a trembling voice.

Shawn’s black eyes met with Julia’s eyes, and he curled up his lips, which showed that he was not joking.

“The clothes...” Shawn said slowly.

The clothes equaled to money, but Julia had no money.

With the formula flashing through her mind, Julia bowed her head in obedience, stretched out her hand and took off the clothes one by one. Her fingers moved more slowly than on the TV.

With a frown, Shawn bent down, grasped Julia’s wrist and pulled her out of the pile of clothes. Julia put her hand on her chest in panic and clutched the towel tightly.

In the next second, Julia was thrown on the big soft bed beside. Before she could react, she quickly wrapped herself up with the quilt and slid into it.

The boss tonight was really dangerous. She had to be careful.

Julia lay in the quilt with her ears up. Suddenly, the bed beside her collapsed. Then, A hand reached into the quilt, which had already grabbed her arm.

Julia tried to struggle, but failed. She was caught by the big hand.

After a life and death struggle, the bath towel on Julia had already fallen to her waist. She picked it up, grabbed the towel with both hands and embraced her chest.

Shawn glanced at Julia and frowned: “where else have I not seen? Is there any place else I haven’t touched? “ Upon hearing that, Julia blushed.

With the experience, she shouldn’t have been afraid of such things, but as for Julia, she got more afraid of this kind of things because she knew how tough a man was The boss was a monster “Don’t be nervous. Take it easy.” Shawn put his big hand on Julia’s cheek and kissed on her forehead.

Chapter 109

Julia fixed her eyes on her hand and didn’t dare to blink. She was frozen to death.

With that, Shawn lowered his head and kissed her on the lips. “Kitten, you know, I can’t control myself.”

“What the hell! You can’t control yourself!”

It was another sunny day. Julia slowly woke up from a deep sleep. As soon as she looked up, she ran into the man’s dark eyes.

“Humph!” Julia glared at Shawn and turned her head away.

“What?” Instead of getting angry, Shawn laughed and kissed her.

After a long while, Julia was taken to the bathroom to have a bath. At the same time, Shawn helped her put on the new prepared clothes. She was so sleepy that she wanted to sleep.

“Have a good rest today. Don’t go anywhere.” Frowning, Shawn said in a low voice.

“No way.” Julia immediately refuted. It was a joke. She was still in the Nelson mansion. What if Juliet or Noah, saw her so pitiful? She didn’t want to lose face in front of others

Every time she saw Murphy, she would have kicked her out of the Pacific. She wouldn’t have ended up like this if Murphy hadn’t played a trick on her.

“Can you walk?” There was suspicion in Shawn’s eyes.

“Who says that I can’t walk? I can walk in circles!” Hearing the suspicious tone of Shawn, Julia’s competitive nature came up at once, shouting at Shawn.

Shawn nodded slightly and reSarahsed her. He pointed at the floor with a meaningful look. “Have a try.”

With a snort, Julia pushed away Shawn and rudely jumped down on the ground.

When she just fell to the ground, her legs were so soft that she was about to fall.

But then she was quickly pulled back te die a hundred times.

“I’m so scared. Shawn. What if mother knows all of this one day? ” Julia muttered. She was asking about Shawn, but also herself.

Hearing that, Shawn lowered his head and kissed her hair, with his eyebrows frowning slightly. It was not the first time that Julia had mentioned that to him. Barbara was like the silver river in the night sky, which separate the heart between two sides so that they couldn’t really touch each other.

“Honey, don’t think too much. Trust me, wait for me.” Shawn looked far away over Julia’s head.

As far as Shawn knew, Barbara was always an indelible position in Julia’s heart, and Julia’s only concern was Barbara.

“Yes.” Julia responded in a low voice. The only thing she could do now was to trust him and believe that he could do everything well. But Julia couldn’t trust

Shawn with her whole heart. When it comes to Barbara, nothing could go wrong with Julia.

After a while, they looked at each other and burst into laughter. Julia blushed and lowered her head. She felt that they were.. It seemed to be.. in infatuation period

Chapter 110

When they walked out, they just saw Zoey who was coming towards them. Zoey's eyes were staring at Shawn's hand that was hugging Julia's waist and her face suddenly sank.

Julia peered at Shawn. Zoey was so obvious that Shawn could see that.

"Brother, everyone is waiting for you," Zoey smiled and walked up to him. She hugged the other arm of Shawn.

Seeing this, Julia wanted to let go of Shawn's hand. But it was too strong for her. On the other side, Zoey had been staring at her. The two's eyes met in the air.

"Zoey, Sarahve my arm." Shawn frowned and looked back at Zoey.

Zoey pouted her mouth unhappily and snorted, "I don't want that. Brother, don't you love me anymore after you have my sister-in-law?" She was staring straight at Shawn. Julia was shocked by Zoey's courage. Zoey was a brave girl who dared to love and hate.

"Isn't it good that one more people loves you?" Shawn said in a low voice, sounding as worried and dignified as an elder brother.

"I..." Zoey lowered her head and her hands were in a mess.

After a moment's hesitation, Zoey glared at Julia bitterly and began to complain, "she didn't love me at all. She even hit me last night! and robbed my things! "

Julia felt wronged. 'when did I hit Zoey?''? When did she rob her things?

Julia took a glance at Shawn. Zoey was his sister. If he trusted Zoey more, she would suffer a lot. As far as Julia knew about Shawn, Shawn was very vindictive and it was hard to predict when he would take his revenge.

"She is your elder." It seemed that Shawn didn't stand up for anyone but said a fact.

But they all knew that Julia was Zoey's elder sister and Zoey should listen to her.

"She doesn't look like an elder at all, and she is just four years older than me!" Zoey shouted at him with discontent.

With Shawn's being here, Zoey wasn't so afraid anymore.

"Zoey, No matter how she looks like, as long as I am your brother, she is your sister-in-law." Shawn said in a low, stern voice.

Julia was stunned. Although his words were to Zoey, they sounded like a promise to her.

It seemed that he had given his promise to her all his life.

Zoey gave Julia an angry stare and ran away, off Shawn's arm.

"What are you thinking about?" Shawn slightly rubbed Julia's nose and asked.

Julia came back to her senses and blushed. She scratched her hair and said casually: “is it okay to let her go out like this? Are you too harsh on her? “

“She has to distinguish some feelings by herself.” Shawn said slightly.

Julia was stunned. Judging from the tone of Shawn, it seemed that he had already known Zoey’s feelings for him. Was the reason why he always took the gesture of brother for Zoey to make her understand.

At the thought of this, Julia felt her worries about herself last night were worthless. She was hesitant for a long time if she should tell this to Shawn. It turned out that Shawn had already known it.

No wonder he majored in psychology. He could find out everything. Julia thought with admiration.

While they were talking, they had arrived at the restaurant.

raised her hand and said, “I’ll go and see her.”

With a suspicious and disdainful look, Juliet glanced at Julia, as if she was wondering what was in Julia’s mind.

“Okay, Julia. You two are about the same age. Maybe she has something bothering her.” Noah gave Julia a forced smile. If Zoey and Julia could get along well with each other, it also would be a good thing.

Julia nodded and stood up with her hands on the table.

Seeing this, Shawn looked at her with slight frown.

Julia quickly smiled and waved her hand to show that she was fine.

“Then I’ll go to see Zoey. You enjoy the meal first.” Julia greeted them politely and took a plate of snacks. She didn’t even look at Juliet during the meal.

This little detail made Juliet very dissatisfied, but she could not find fault with Julia in front of so many people. So she had to put up with it.

Then Julia turned around and left.

The Nelson family’s mansion was very big. Julia followed the housekeeper down the spiral stairs to the second floor. Through the window of the second floor, she could see vast garden where Lavender danced with the wind.

Looking at the sea of flowers, Julia was stunned for a moment. Lavender was Barbara’s favorite flower.

Julia shook her head. She was thinking too much. How could Noah grow a lavender in his backyard just for his mother’s sake? Besides, as far as Julia knew, Shawn’s mother also liked lavender.

The quality of the photo in Shawn’s villa was not very cSarahr. It was not until from Aunt Jasmine’s mobile phone that Julia saw what Jean looked like. At that time, she was also surprised, because when Jane was young, she looked like Barbara.

There was only one person who Noah had loved from the very beginning

Julia smiled bitterly. Although she didn’t want to get involved in the elders’ entanglement, it had everything to do with her and she couldn’t get rid of it.

“Madam, this way pSarahse.” A voice suddenly brought Julia back from her reverie.

Suddenly, Julia realized that she had already walked to the door of Zoey’s bedroom.
