

Blossoming Her Shielded

Heart Chapter 125 - 126

Chapter 125

After the meal, Shawn wanted to keep Julia at the company, but when he heard that she was going to go shopping with Zoey, he let her go unconditionally.

Using Zoey as an excuse worked. Julia happily followed Zoey away. Zoey looked at the giggling woman behind her and asked, "are you crazy?"

"Hey, how can you talk to your sister-in-law in such a rude tone?" Julia immediately straightened her back and angrily scolded her.

Zoey looked away and snapped, "I am not going to admit that you are my sister-in-law."

Julia touched her forehead. Everyone in the Nelson family was mean. Michelle was born in the prison, but her power was far less than that of the prison.

The two came to the business center of Ventrusburg, where there were a lot of people. Afraid of missing Zoey, Julia ran up and grabbed Zoey's wrist. Zoey was stunned. She tried to struggle but failed.

"It's so crowded here." The air was filled with a strange smell as Julia and Zoey were pushed towards each other. This made Julia very uncomfortable.

Zoey didn't like this kind of place either. She stood on tiptoe and looked at the people not far away. She frowned and said, "there are not so many people normally. It seems that there are some stars coming over."

"What kind of superstar is she?" Julia was confused.

"She seems to be a teenage girl who has just started her career." Zoey went against the flow of people. She didn't like joining the crowd.

"Just go there and have a look." Julia liked to join in the fun.

"No, I won't go." Zoey disagreed firmly. But there were too many people here. They rolled around in the crowd and were finally pushed out.

Zoey breathed a sigh of relief. She looked around but only to find that she was not familiar with this place. They had been driven out of the commercial center

They sighed and thought there would be more people, then they decided to take a detour home.

Zoey walked slowly while kicking small stones on the roadside. Julia was still reluctant to look back. She really wanted to see the superstars.

“Zoey, are you Zoey?” Suddenly, someone stood in front of them.

Julia was confused and turned her head. Suddenly, she saw a man in his forties standing in front of them, bending down. Zoey’s face changed dramatically and immediately hid behind Julia, while her hands were uncontrollably trembling.

“Let’s go.” Zoey pulled Julia’s arm to force her to walk back.

The man immediately caught up and said, “Zoey, don’t Sarahve. I mean no harm.”

Julia looked at the man in confusion and asked, “uncle, who are you?”

The man’s face was unshaven and his clothes were worn out, which made him look like a beggar.

“I I am Zoey... ” The man stuttered.

“Shut up! What on earth do you want to do?” Zoey interrupted the man. She put her arms around Julia’s and stood behind her. She looked at the man in front of her, with her lips trembling.

The man smiled bitterly. “I don’t have malice. I just w him.

Of course Juliet wouldn’t let him do that. Since Zoey Nelson had a surname of “Noah Li”, Noah would send people to look for her. If he could find her, Juliet would not be a rich lady anymore.

Mike and Juliet were arguing over this. He went to Zoey and told her that he was her father and she needed to go with him. He took her to travel around the world.

At that time, Zoey was already ten years old. She was more sensible and knew that Mike did not lie. She had heard several arguments between Mike and Juliet, and she knew more things than the adult imagination, but she did not say anything.

Zoey only told Holden that she would Sarahve with Mike. She didn’t tell anyone else. But in the end, because of the obstruction of Holden, Zoey only stared at the back of Mike, and she still stayed in the Nelson family.

In Juliet’s eyes, Zoey was a shame for her, and it was also the evidence of her cheating on him. How could she really care about such a daughter? Moreover, during Noah’s long absence, Zoey had no special feelings for him.

Hearing Zoey's shattered words, Julia finally understood what Zoey wanted to say.

It turned out that at the same time as Noah had an affair, Juliet also had an affair.

No wonder Zoey would say that how to distinguish right from wrong in the world of adults.

In Zoey's opinion, perhaps only Holden and Shawn were her family.

"Can you promise me not to tell anyone about this? I haven't seen him for eight years, and I don't know when he has come back to Ventrusburg." Zoey looked at Julia with a serious look on her face.

"Well, I promise you that I won't tell anyone even if someone kill me." With a gesture of cutting off the head, Julia said firmly.

"Thank you." Zoey loosened her grip on Julia's dress.

"So you and Shawn are not related by blood at all, right?" It suddenly dawned on Julia that she and Zoey had become rivals in love?

Zoey shook her head. "We are not related by blood."

Chapter 126

"That's why you like him? Oh my God..." Julia patted her forehead and tried her best to persuade Zoey to give up the idea a few days ago. For this, she seriously investigated a lot about morality and high rates of genetic disease.

"Idiot." Zoey gave her a disdainful look.

Julia hugged her and said, "alright. I don't mind you being my rival in love. I'm not afraid of you. But it's all over. Since you tell me, I'll keep this secret for you."

There were two reasons why Zoey told this to Julia. One was that she trusted Julia. The other was that Zoey was an innocent and simple girl. She wouldn't lie with smile. Second, perhaps Zoey no longer cared about what the Li family had given her. Third, Zoey needed help.

"Julia, do you think my brother will dislike me when he knows it?" Zoey looked at Julia in fear and asked.

"Of course not." Julia knew that Shawn loved this sister so much that their relationship could not be based only on blood relationship. Zoey was still sister of Shawn even without blood relationship.

"Okay, I'll trust you for once." Zoey stared into her sincere eyes and said after a long pause.

Julia and Zoey lied on the bed. Julia turned around and asked, “what are you going to do in the future? Looking at the wounds on Mike’s body, it was caused in the recent months. Maybe it was not long after he came to Ventrusburg that he was found by Holden. If he is found again, he can’t escape. “

Zoey stared at the ceiling blankly. After a long while, she suddenly sat up from the bed and said, “Julia, how about we send him out of Ventrusburg? Ventrusburg is under Nelson family’s control. It is difficult for him to go out alone. “

“That’s right. If he could escape, he wouldn’t have wandered in Ventrusburg for so long like a beggar. Zoey, why don’t you go and beg your brother? ” Asked Julia.

When they talked about Holden, Zoey’s mind went blank. “Brother never wanted to keep him alive. Mike could run away successfully because brother was not capable enough at that time.”

Zoey still remembered the coldness in Holden’s eyes when he looked at Mike.

Julia couldn’t help smacking her tongue. She didn’t expect that Holden would be so cruel. It seemed that neither of the Nelson brothers was to be trifled with.

“Zoey, don’t you think that your second elder brother is too concerned about you? Don’t you find it strange? ” Julia asked with confusion as she thought of a question that had been haunting her for a long time.

“There is nothing strange. My brother has always been like this since childhood.” There was no change in Zoey’s face.

‘well, She was used to it.’

“How about How about we take him back to the villa? ” Zoey was still worried about Mike.

“No. your second brother often comes to see you, and it’s hard to explain the situation for Shawn.” Julia denied it at once. She thought that as long as there was any change in the villa, Shawn would notice. She admired his sharp insight.

Julia and Zoey came up ily looked at Julia and said with certainty. She had nobody to say except for Julia.

Only when Mike heard the affirmative tone from Zoey did he feel relieved.

It was getting dark. Mike urged them to Sarahve because it was not safe in Ventrusburg at night, especially recently.

Julia nodded and pulled Zoey out of the abandoned warehouse.

“I hope everything goes well tomorrow.” Zoey looked at the beautiful red sky of Ventrusburg. Her hands clasped together, silently praying.

“Yes, everything will be smooth.” Julia said with absolute certainty. She believed that tomorrow would be a good day.

“Yes.” Zoey also smiled.

The park was very lively. The family went out to play in two or three numbers. Julia was Sarahning on the railings by the lake, while the air coming from the lake was fresh. Zoey was also Sarahning on the railings, gazing at the vast lake.

“Zoey, let’s travel around the world in the future!” Opening her arms, Julia thought of the freedom she looked forward to.

Zoey rolled her eyes at her. “You have to get my brothers’ permission first.”

“Then let’s go together!” Julia laughed. Her bright and warm smile was soothing.

Zoey also laughed happily. The breeze on the lake made her feel cool and comfortable.

They slowly walked back to the gate. On the way, Julia saw her favorite marshmallow. She touched her pocket, and there seemed to be one dollar left. Well, it should be enough.

“Aunt, give me an apple flavored marshmallow.”

“Well,”

Julia handed a large piece of marshmallow to Zoey, and said with a smile, “Have a taste, it’s very delicious.”

Zoey looked at the green marshmallow in confusion. “It can eat?”

Julia put it directly into Zoey mouth. Instantly, her mouth was filled with a sweet taste.

“Yummy!” Zoey said with a puzzled look.

“Of course.” Julia smiled and took Zoey away. Zoey was obediently following her.

In an instant, Julia felt that he was like a bad uncle who abducted and sold children
