

Blossoming Her Shielded Heart Chapter 151 – 160

Chapter 151

Zoey was a good cook. After all, she had taught Julia how to cook in Shawn's villa. Now Julia could only be a helper. As for Evena, she could just wait outside.

After making the dinner, Zoey was very reluctant to give it to Evena, but when she saw that Evena were so hungry for it, she felt very uncomfortable

"Oh my God! The little princess is so good at cooking." Evena was amazed. She never thought that the proud, arrogant and bossy princess would be not as arrogant as she thought, not to mention that Zoey could cook!

Zoey didn't say anything. She was afraid that Evena would be taken away all the food, so she quickly put all the delicious food in Julia's bowl. Julia put her hand on her forehead. With Zoey and Evena there, the house would be very lively again.

After the dinner, Zoey went into her room and do her homework.

Lying on the bed and staring at the back of Zoey, Julia really wanted to ask, why did Zoey not ask for advice from Zoey, but come to her? But Julia didn't want to hear anything about Zoey and Shawn. Besides, she didn't know how to ask.

When a certain time had passed, Holden called Zoey to sleep. Zoey was obedient to tidy up her things and slept in the same bed with Julia.

The moonlight outside the window was pouring on the pure white quilt, adding splendor to the simple and simple room.

It was her first time to come to someone else's house. Zoey couldn't fall asleep.

"Julia, I really want to go out to play with all of you one day, wherever we go." Suddenly, Zoey gazed at the ceiling with her big round eyes.

Julia smiled bitterly. She understood Zoey's thoughts. Too many things had happened recently. Not only Zoey, she also wanted to relax herself. But she also knew that no matter where she went, she couldn't relax.

Shawn who forgot her, the baby.. she had too many things to deal with.

"There will be one day." Julia said tiredly.

Although this day is far away for them now

"Yes." Zoey replied in a low voice. Then she said with a smile, "this is the first time I spent the night at a friend's house." She tried to ease the atmosphere.

Julia smiled, "yes, it's my pleasure to be little princess's first time."

Zoey turned around and gave that Julia a hard stare. Speaking of her first time, they both recalled what happened at the Nelson mansion.

It was too tough for Julia to talk about it. Everyone knew that Zoey's innocence was destroyed by Shawn because of the scene that morning. She would never forget the scene and the stinging blood on the sheet.

“I don’t remember what happened that night.” Zoey’s voice was soft, but still very cSarahr in the empty room.

Julia closed her eyes and thought how to turn the page.

Zoey looked at Julia and frowned. “Though I didn’t remember anything that night, I still feel that the man is not eldest brother. It’s not his smell.”

Julia was in a daze for a while. She opened her eyes and turned around to look at Zoey. Zoey frowned and forced a smile. “Never mind. It’s all over. M she talked less than usual. In addition, there had been something unusual in the past few days. Evena could not help but feel a little confused. Thus, she stopped and turned around to look at her.

“Julia, did you quarrel with the CEO? The CEO used to send you to work, didn’t he?” Evena couldn’t help asking.

“I’m crossed in love.” Julia said in a flat tone and forced a smile.

Evena stopped and looked at Julia in shock. Julia turned her face around and said with a smile, “it’s not a big deal to be broke up in love, but it’s unemployed. Don’t be a dull girl here.”

The chattering Evena became speechless, only staring at Julia for a long time and then said: “it’s all right. Take it easy. I have told you that the CEO is hard to pursue. And to think it from another angle, you are lucky. You see, I have never touched the corners of CEO’s clothes, at Sarahst you have touched them. Right? There are so many good men in the world, and the CEO is not the only one. He is more suitable to put his picture on the wall of the room...”

Evena gave full play to her nagging nature at the beginning. Along the way, Julia was tormented by her nagging, but someone didn’t seem to have the intention to stop. Instead, he seemed to be getting more and more excited.

Julia put her hand on her forehead and thought that Evena was really worthy of her title as a student from the school of literature. First, she analyzed the situation, and then guided them to comment on the development trend of handsome men in the future

At last, Evena's sound disappeared in the crowd taking the subway.

Julia looked at the crowd, who were crowded by bus and subway. Life was so tough without CEO. She really missed the time when she was Shawn's mistress. No, the time when she was a Shawn's wife.

Shawn's wife Julia's eyes darkened. She didn't know if Shawn had seen the divorce agreement she put in the bedroom and whether he had signed his name?

She looked at the crowd with a dull look and suddenly was in a trance.

Chapter 152

Arriving at the gate of Nelson Group's headquarter, Julia raised her head and looked up at the building which was almost in the sky. At the highest point of the building, Julia seemed to see Shawn. He put his hands in his pockets gently and looked down at this land without any emotion in his deep eyes.

"Julia?" Evena called her name worriedly. Julia came back to her senses and lowered her head. Her head was like a pile of thick milk.

"I'm fine." Julia tried to smile at him.

She walked in front of Evena and entered the company first, followed by Evena immediately.

The elevator door opened and Julia slowly walked out. When she came to the door of the secretary room, she couldn't help but stop and look at the CEO room next to the secretary room.

Would he be inside?

Then Julia returned to the Secretary office after a second.

"Miss Lesbian, the CEO asked me to inform you to wait for him at the door of your home tomorrow after packing." The sound of John's punching came from afar, when Julia just sat on the chair.

Julia was stunned and wondered why she should wait for him at the door?

Julia who buried herself in work raised her head confusedly. She saw John standing in front of her desk with a wicked smile, and Julia's back was a little cold.

"Why not?" Asked Julia.

"Business trip." "If I hadn't asked for Sarahve, you wouldn't have had the chance," John continued triumphantly

"....." Julia was speechless. She didn't want to take this business trip.

John patted her on the shoulder, gazed at her and said solemnly, "come on. It depends on your performance tomorrow. Do it well!"

Julia felt pity for her poor shoulder. It was patted by Zoey and John today.

The secretarial room was big, but the voice of John was not low, so soon everyone knew that Julia was going on a business trip with the CEO. As soon as John left, Sarah, next her looked at her with envy.

Julia’s face twitched. Sarah had complained to her that taking a business with CEO was suffering.. The people in the secretary room had all taken business trip with Shawn, because every time when he went on a business trip, Shawn would select a secretary as an attendant, which could also test the Secretary’s ability.

“Sarah, do you seize so many chances?” Asked Julia.

The reply silenced Sarah. All the secretaries who had been out of Shawn knew that they could only get a small sum of money from her except working. And no one who dared to do anything disloyal to Shawn who was a cold and indifferent man.

She had heard from Sarah that there was a powerful secretary in the Secretary office, who tried to seduce the CEO when going on a business trip with the CEO. At last, the Secretary completely disappeared from the Li group.

Sitting on the other side, Brandon also heard what John said. She held the pen tighter. If it weren’t for Julia, the task of this business trip would definitely belonged to her.

Brandon

ey are the secretaries of the deputy CEO, who is Agnes Wang with short hair and Eva Yi with long hair.”

Both Agnes and Eva looked at Julia curiously. Julia smiled and introduced herself generously, “my name is Julia Able . Nice to meet you.”

“Oh, so you are Miss Able , who was close to the little princess. Nice to meet you.” It suddenly dawned on Eva and Agnes, then they greeted to Julia politely.

Julia was flustered. When did they tag her as 'be close with the little princess'?

Whether it was hypocrisy or sincerity, the secretaries could be familiar with only a few words. If they couldn't talk well. How could they get the position of the CEO's secretary?

Looking at the five people chatting happily, Julia kept silent. If it were in the past, she would be the person who enjoyed talking with them most in the team. But now she was really not in the mood.

As a spectator, Julia truly felt how hypocritical the people, including her, were. They pretended to know each other well even they were not very familiar with each other.

Just like when she first came to the Secretary office, she also entered the Secretary Office team in this way.

Julia felt stuffy in her chest and didn't eat much. She felt nauseated as if waves were billowing in her stomach. Julia hurriedly stood up. Seeing that Julia was not feeling well, Sarah also stood up to help her to the bathroom.

With one hand on her mouth and the other on the tap, Julia vomited all the food she had eaten.

It was abnormal. She had only been pregnant for two months. How could she be so responsive. Looking at her haggard face in the mirror, Julia could not help feeling uneasy.

Is it because of my bad mood? Will the baby in my belly be affected Julia couldn't help touching her still flat lower abdomen, and her spirit that she managed to hold up was driven away by this vomiting.

'you are not alone. You have my baby. You can't lose.' thought Julia.

Julia looked at herself in the mirror and encouraged herself.

Chapter 153

“Julia, are you okay?” Sarah asked worriedly.

“I’m fine. Maybe I didn’t sleep well last night and got a cold.” Julia stood straight and smiled at Sarah.

But his smile was uglier than crying.

Sarah frowned, but said nothing more.

“Sarah, you can go back first. I want to go out for a walk by myself.” Julia pushed away Sarah’s hand and said.

Sarah was still worried as she found that Julia could not walk steadily. She wanted to support Julia but Julia avoided her easily. Julia staggered out of the ladies’ room. Sarah could do nothing but let out a sigh.

When Julia walked out of the bathroom, her legs became so soft that she almost fell down. She had to hold the wall with one hand and walked forward step by step. She didn’t want to rely on anyone. As long as one didn’t give up, everything would be okay.

As soon as she arrived at the top floor of the company, she was ruffled by the whistling wind the moment she opened the door. Julia stood against the wind and sat down at a rather comfortable position, which was windless and could be shine by sun.

She Sarahned her head against the wall and looked up. Above her head, it was the cSarahr and sunny day.

Zoey was bringing food to Shawn. Now, Shawn should be in the CEO office and having dinner with her. Just like what happened between him and her Julia put on a bitter smile. She didn't expect that she had already become his past.

As she didn't sleep well last night, Julia couldn't help closing her eyes and was about to take a nap.

"Yawn!" Julia sniffed before waking up slowly.

The air was getting colder. Julia drew back her head and got closer to the warm source.

"Warm source? Where was the warm source? Julia recovered a little and opened her eyes in confusion. It was dark in front of her. She rubbed her eyes and saw the dark red sky.

Julia's heart jolted. She wondered if it was night? What's more, it seemed that she was Sarahning on something soft. Julia's heart was hung up and her neck was frozen.

Who Who could tell her what had happened? Was it a monster by her side?

"Are you awake?" The monster beside him said in a low voice.

Julia's hair went up. 'the monster is talking!'. She reflexively wanted to move her buttocks to stay away from the monster, but before she could do anything, the monster's hand took her back.

"Don't eat me! My flesh is not delicious! PSarahse, pSarahse!" Julia almost knelt down and begged for mercy.

The monster was silent. Julia sniffed. The smell was a bit familiar Moreover, she also seemed to be familiar with the monster's voice. Moreover, the way the monster was holding her was also very familiar to her

She slowly twisted her stiff neck and looked up at the so-called monster.

She saw a dim figure under the red shadow, but she could not be more familiar with it.

The moment she raised her head, Shawn lowered his head slightly. His eyes were even darker than the black roof. His eyes were like a black hole in the ed like a kid being scolded, which made people feel sorry for her. Shawn looked at her silently. Suddenly, his left arm moved slightly and his hand stopped at several centimeters away from her cheek.

“Then I’ll go first.” Julia got up in a hurry and left Shawn with heavy steps.

Staring at Julia’s figure disappearing in the corner, Shawn’s brows wrinkled, ‘ was the girl so afraid of him.”

When she reached the 95th floor, Julia went to the bathroom and washed her face. She couldn’t calm down for a long time. Didn’t he forget her? Why did he hug her?

Why did he always give her hands when she wanted to be independent? She couldn’t help but want to rely on him. Julia looked at herself in the mirror. After taking off her makeup, she looked so weak and pale.

Julia smiled helplessly and thought when she began to look like a ghost.

The 95th floor was quiet. Julia took a glance at the closed CEO office. Was he still at the top floor?

After pausing for a few seconds, Julia quickly walked away. She wanted to be more unrestrained, as long as she didn’t think about it or look forward to it, everything could be solved. She just couldn’t get past her heart.

When she arrived at the company's door, Julia couldn't help but stop her steps and looked blankly at the sunny man Sarahning by the car. Steve smiled at her and walked up to her, "you didn't answer my phone even though I called you. Have you worked overtime again?"

Julia tried to suppress the touching feeling in her chest and asked with a smile, "Why are you still here? Don't tell me you're taking a walk again. "

Steve nodded, "Yeah, a walk."

Julia was speechless. Steve naturally held her wrist and smiled, "miss, pSarahse get in the car."

Looking at the warm smile on Steve's face, Julia was so moved that she had owed him more and more burdens was on her shoulder. Unable to persuade Steve, Julia was about to get on his car.

"Julia." A cold voice suddenly came from not far away.

Chapter 154

In a daze, Julia looked at the source of the voice. A man slowly got out of the car. The light of incandescent lamp shone on his handsome face. As for the other side, his face was as dark as ink.

What made him both righteous and evil. His coldness and evilness were more obvious. His feet seemed to be stepped on the flames. There was a bit of anger hidden in his dark eyes, but he seemed to walk on the glacier, which made his body cold.

Ice and fire appeared on a person at the same time. Julia's back was cold and her hands struggled slightly. But the hand gripped her wrist more firmly. Julia quietly turned back and saw that the smile on Steve's face froze and he was staring at the man who was coming towards them.

“Hello, CEO.” Julia lowered her head and politely greeted her.

Shawn frowned, and his eyes darkened when he turned to his eyes on Julia to their clasped hands.

“Come here.” Blandly, the jail turned to Eason and said to Julia: “you are still at work.”

Julia took a stealthy glance at them, and their eyes met in the air. Neither of them was willing to make any compromise.

Julia’s hands trembled. She turned around to look at Eason and said, “I’m sorry. I still have something to deal with with. PSarahse go back first.” Her tone was gentle, but her eyes were full of anxiety, indicating Steve to reSarahse her hand. The expression on Shawn’s face was too horrible.

On hearing this, Steve looked at Julia. He smiled gently and loosened her hand. He rubbed Julia’s hair thoughtfully and said like a boyfriend, “Okay, I’ll wait for you to come back.”

After saying that, he bent down slightly but Julia was already into the arms of Shawn. Then he raised his head and smiled coldly at Steve, “I don’t like my employees to do anything indecent in front of the company.”

“Indecent? Master. Li, are you a gentleman by irresponsible behavior? ” Steve thought that the Nelson family could not accept Julia and that Shawn did not want Julia’s baby.

“What do you mean?” Shawn said with a frown.

“Ahem, CEO, the client is still waiting for you.” Julia suddenly interrupted them, forcing a smile at Shawn.

Steve stared at Julia's guilty face and wondered whether Shawn didn't know the baby's existence? Seeing that Julia wanted to hide this from him, Steve didn't say anything more.

"Then I'll go first." Steve smiled.

"Okay, bye." Julia smiled and said goodbye to Steve.

It turned out that they were a couple who were reluctant to say goodbye to each other in Shawn's eyes. Something more chilling appeared on Shawn's poker face. The man came to pick her up yesterday. Was that man her boyfriend? At the thought of this, Shawn's face darkened. He rudely threw Julia into the car.

Julia got up from the sofa with difficulty and peeped at Shawn. The CEO seemed to be angry. Thinking of this, Julia hesitated.

"CEO, I only brought my laptop and no other materials. Do you want to go back to my office in also looked at Shawn. one was cold and the other was tender, but neither of them was willing to give in to the other one.

The accident with Zoey was just a beginning. Shawn frowned. Was this car accident planned by Holden as well.

"Shawn, see you off." Holden smiled and spoke first.

"Holden, Zoey is innocent." Said Shawn slightly.

Holden's face changed slightly, but then he raised his eyebrows and smiled more brightly. "Brother, thank you for caring about Zoey, but I advise you to mind your own business first."

Although the car accident did make Shawn completely disappear, he lost an arm. The game had just begun, and the coldness in Holden's gentle eyes was getting deeper and deeper.

He turned around and took Zoey's hand, following Julia into the Zona Residences.

Looking at Julia's back, who was in the front, Shawn found she was a little wobbly and weak. She seemed to be blown away by a gust of wind. With his brows knitted, he thought to himself: "is she still crying?"?

"Second elder brother, what did you just say to eldest brother?" Zoey shook Holden's arm and asked in confusion.

"Don't worry. Sister-in-law is here with you. I won't walk you upstairs." In the downstairs of his apartment, Holden rubbed Zoey's head and said with a smile.

Sister-in-law At this moment, Julia thought how harsh the word "sister-in-law" sounded from Holden's mouth.

"Don't call me sister-in-law." Julia said in a low voice.

She said in a low voice, but everyone present could hear her cSarahrly.

"Sister-in-law, brother will recover his memory sooner or later. Don't worry." Although there was no affection in his words to Julia, Holden was still very gentle, unlike the cold Shawn.

However, these words were meaningless to Julia. She gave a bitter smile and said, "Zoey, let's go."

"Yes, yes." Zoey loosen Holden's hand and walked up the stairs with Julia together.

Holden didn't Sarahve until they disappeared in the corner.

Chapter 155

When she opened the door, she smelt the fragrance of dishes. It was then that Julia realized that she was starving. She threw up all the food she had for lunch. She hadn't eaten anything tonight.

"Evena, we are back." Julia called the smiling Evena who was watching TV on the sofa. Then Julia suddenly found David sitting next to Evena. She sighed and thought to herself, 'no wonder the dishes smell so good. How could the cooks of the Nelson Group be fake?

"Let's go for dinner." As Evena waved her hand, she pushed away Julia who was in front of her.

"You don't want to eat?" Julia asked. 'how could Evena, such a foodie, give her any food? Does she realize that she have done something wrong to me?' thought Julia Julia was a little moved.

Unexpectedly, Evena rolled her eyes and deliberately shouted, "I don't want to eat the food cooked by someone. It makes me sick."

"....." 'well, what a waste of time. It turns out that Evena is just angry with David.

Julia looked towards Zoey, who said at once, "I had dinner with my second elder brother, and I'm going back to my room to do my homework." Then she walked into the bedroom.

Staring at Zoey's retreating figure, Julia lowered her head with a dejected expression. Even Zoey knew that she shouldn't have been here to disturb them. How could she have the nerve to stand between them? With a wry smile, she announced, “Zoey has an exam tomorrow. I will help her now. Take your time and have fun...”

Then she returned to Lola’s bedroom quickly.

“I’m so hungry. Zoey, go and cook noodles for me!” As soon as she went back to the bedroom, Julia was so hungry that she threw herself on the bed and covered herself with the quilt, pitifully looking at Zoey.

Julia had just cried. She looked so lovely.

Zoey gave her a disdainful look and handed her a lunch box. “Brother bought me a midnight snack. Here you are.”

When she saw there was delicious food, Julia moved to Zoey with her tired body, opened the lunch box and began to eat happily.

Zoey was still studying hard. She didn’t notice that Julia was eating and Julia’s eyes were staring blankly while eating. It was time for Shawn to go home and have dinner.

Was it Zoey who cooked for him? Maybe. Zoey told him in the car that she had cooked some food and is waiting for Shawn to come back home. They must be eating happily together now.

Julia was amused by herself. In fact, there was no point in caring about him anymore. When he came to this apartment for the first time, Julia was unable to drive her away. Now, she hoped that he could send her to her apartment, but she could never ask him to do that.

“Julia, have you finished eating? Help me to get an answer which needs to be examined tomorrow.” Zoey saw she was so slow that she couldn’t help urging.

In fact, the exams in college were easy. But Zoey was lazy. She was not a person with good memory, so she did a bad job in exams.

“Okay.” Julia hastily responded and gobbled u e thought he had a chance now.

The affectionate look of Steve made Julia a little bit stunned, and then she couldn't help laughing.

“What are you laughing at?” Asked Steve in confusion.

“You remind me of Leo. To be honest, you are a suitable actress for him. Otherwise, it would be a great waste of our country's talent.” Julia laughed.

“As you wish, my dear Julie,” Steve replied with a smile Then, he grabbed Julia's hand and kissed on the back of it.

Julia was stunned. She quickly took back her hand and glared at him. And Steve just smiled.

Their banter had been seen by Shawn, who was ten meters away from them.

As a result, Julia found the car of Shawn. With an inexplicable sense of guilt, she bid farewell to Steve. Carrying her bag on the back, she hurried to the car and opened the door, seeing that Shawn was sitting inside.

However The CEO's face darkened. Was it because he didn't sleep well yesterday? Julia peeped at Shawn who was as cold as ice.

Julia shrank her head and took her bag back to the corner of the car, so that Shawn would take up most of the space.

Since Shawn didn't say anything, as a subordinate of Shawn's, Julia was the first to speak. She cautiously looked at Shawn and politely greeted her: “good morning, CEO.”

“Would you like some breakfast?” Julia then served sandwich and mineral water ingratiatingly.

Shawn still did not look at her.

Feeling snubbed, Julia took back her breakfast. ‘perhaps he has already had breakfast cooked by Zoey and doesn’t like my breakfast at all, ‘ thought Julia She had better eat by herself

Julia drank a little water and felt sleepy as she didn’t sleep well last night. She closed her eyes in order to have a rest. In a daze, there seemed be a big hand around her waist, and the chilly feeling gradually became warm.

When Julia got closer to the warmth instinctively, she held the heat source with her hands. She found a comfortable place and fell asleep deeply

Chapter 156

When Julia woke up, she found herself wasn’t in the car, but lying on a bed in a strange place. She sat up sleepily, rubbed her sleepy eyes and looked at the circumstance where her eyebrows furrowed.

‘where am I?’

She remembered she dozed off in the car and came here

‘maybe Shawn sold her? He sold her to a client just to make a deal?’

Julia was shocked and looked down at her clothes. Luckily, the clothes were intact, which meant that the client hadn’t touched her yet. She had to run!

Thinking of this, Julia quickly climbed out of the bed and looked around. It was not until now that she discovered that this bedroom was magnificent. Kingsize big bed, glazed lamps, the floor paved with crystal, a wide French window, and a desk made of refined wood

Eh? Why was the back of the man sitting at the desk so similar to Shawn?

“Get up and eat.” The man said coldly.

Julia’s heart throbbed. That voice Sure enough, it was Shawn. He didn’t sell her to the client. She felt secretly relieved.

She walked carefully to the dining table and began to eat rudely. The food in the hotel was delicious. It tasted good. And Julia ate with a gusto. When she almost finished eating, she remembered that she hadn’t asked Shawn yet.

She looked at the serious back of Shawn and asked in a low voice, “boss, have you eaten yet?”

“No.” Shawn didn’t look back. His tone was as cold and ruthless as ever.

“Would you like to join me?” Julia kept asking.

“You want me to eat your leftovers?” Shawn turned back. His handsome face was tensed and his deep eyes looked straight at Julia. She shrank her head and thought she was wrong She thought he had already eaten

“Then Then I’ll buy you something new! ” Julia laughed and asked cautiously.

With a frown, Shawn turned to continue his work. “Your luggage is on the table, and your room card is on it,” he said slowly

Julia blinked her eyes, and thought that this room was for Shawn

Then she picked up her bag and room card. 404 was a number that was ominous.

“Come to me after you put away your luggage.” Shawn said.

It was right next to Shawn’s room Julia pushed the door open. She thought her room was same with Shawn’s, but It was obvious that she was wrong. It was not that her room was not good, but it was better than a normal hotel. But this was nothing compared to that room of Shawn’s

Julia rubbed her forehead and wondered how that narrow-minded Shawn could let her live so comfortably However, the two adjacent rooms were totally different

According to her words, Julia packed up her belongings and walked towards Shawn where Shawn was about to Sarahve.

He looked so handsome in an Italian tailor-made suit. A few strands of delicate hair fell on his forehead, which made him tall and strong. His face was as delicate and outstanding as a knife, and his thin lips were tightly twisted, which made him look like an eag “Don’t worry. I will fulfill my promise. I will split theNelson Group by 50% more.” The middle-aged man came close to Julia with a dirty smile. The man, who blocked the door, also came up.

They took advantage of the chance when Shawn was drunk. Julia ground her teeth, picked up a bottle on the table and threw it to the guards who stood at the door. She warned them in a cold voice, “fuck off! You should know the result if you mess with theNelson Group. Don’t be as stupid as your boss.”

They knew what would happen if they mess with theNelson Group, but their boss was not Shawn.

“Miss Able , we won’t hurt Master. Nelson at all. PSarahse come with us.” The guard said respectfully.

“Sorry, I’m not in the mood.” Since the guard didn’t want to get out of the way, Julia held on to Shawn and continued to use the wine bottles on the table as weapons.

With holding Shawn, she was unable to focus. Julia was soon put behind. Seeing the guards approaching, Shawn said coldly, “get out.”

Julia was stupefied and looked at Shawn. With slightly narrowed eyes, the man was indeed drunk. But even so, his domineering air didn’t disappear because of the alcohol, instead, it was more violent.

The fighters looked at each other, daring not act rashly again. They quickly made a way for them.

Shawn was heavy, so Julia had to put him on the car with all her strength.

With Shawn’s eyes closed and eyebrows frowned, Shawn rested his head on Julia’s legs. Even he drank, there was still a trace of melancholy between his eyebrows. It was the first time that she had seen him drunk. He was calm and rational. He would never drink for no reason or get drunk.

He Had he quarreled with Zoey? Is it because he didn’t know when his right arm would recover. Although he always pretended not to care about these things, he actually cared about it a lot in his heart.

No one would like to have one hand all his life, especially a perfect man like Shawn. How could he tolerate this defect

Chapter 157

After they went back to the hotel, Peter, the driver, didn't dare to hold Shawn for his inferiority complex. Julia helplessly raised her head and helped him slowly return to his luxury suite.

After locking the door, she put Shawn on kingsize's big bed. Being out of breath, she was sweating at the bedside. It seemed that Shawn was really heavy. Fortunately, he was not so naughty that he didn't make trouble.

After a short break, Julia saw he didn't said nothing or vomit, then she left.

Before she could stand up, she was held by an arm around her waist. She was a little stunned, and then she was dragged onto the bed by that arm. He had already opened his eyes.

His dark eyes were mixed with wine and his thin red lips gave out the smell of burning. Julia's face was slapped harshly by his smell, and in an instant, her face became a red apple.

"Kitten..." He looked into her eyes and suddenly called her.

Julia was stunned. He He called her just now.

Shawn bent over and bit her mouth which was slightly open out of surprise. The smell of wine was lingering between them. The kiss was so affectionate that Julia had lost the power to resist. She just let him take her and did anything he wanted at last.

The next day, Julia woke up with a sour back. Who told her that he behaved well after drinking! She must drag that man back and throw him into the furnace for reexamination!

She didn't fall asleep last night not because she was always safe with him, but because Because she passed out directly. She had thought that Shawn was violent enough, but to her surprise, he was even more violent after drinking

Julia, who was in a gloomy mood, in Shawn's arm and thought, 'from now on, I won't allow Shawn to drink outside or get drunk.'

Seeing that Shawn was still asleep, Julia wanted to sneak out. If he had really forgotten her, then nothing would happen.

But she just moved a little bit. The man who had locked her with one arm woke up.

"Are you Sarahving?" Looking down at her red face, Shawn felt somewhat good.

"Yes," Julia looked a little embarrassed, as she had never been acquainted with the amnesia Shawn, "I think I have not finished sorting out the materials of last night, so I'm going to have a look and sort them out."

"I don't remember you are so dedicated." Shawn sneered. Suddenly, he grabbed Julia's chin and said: "Hey, Is it you have slept with so many men, you don't care about this accident at all."

Her chin hurt from his grip. Julia couldn't help crying out, "it hurts..." Her voice was tinged with a sense of coquetry.

"Say something." As Shawn spoke, he frowned and his voice was cold, but his strength was reduced.

Julia felt like weeping but had no tears. How could he be dissatisfied that she didn't need him to take charge of this.

"Do you want to be responsible for me, boss? Do you want me to blackmail you for this?" Julia's face was flushed red, and although her voice was very weak, Shawn could still hear what she said cSarahrly.

Hearing this, Shawn was a little surprised. Then he sn e?” Shawn asked coldly.

“If I tell you that we were in good relation, will you believe me? Sorry, I don’t have any evidence to prove it.” Julia also looked at him and said in a low voice, “there is no point in remembering something if you don’t remember it yourself.”

No one could talk about emotion.

Shawn was silent for a while, and the tone was still cold. “From now on, you’d better keep your distance from Mr. Tang. Otherwise, don’t blame me for being rude to the Simon Family. “

Julia kept silent. She could understand why this man was really angry about this for a whole day? What a mean guy But Julia felt sweet in her heart. If he didn’t care about her any more, he didn’t need to care about her.

“Then you can’t get too close to Zoey.” Julia thought that it was rare for her to speak to her face to face, so she said.

Shawn raised his eyebrows, looked at her and said lightly, “she is my attending doctor.”

“Attending doctor?” Julia was stunned. It turned out that this was the only reason why Zoey was so close to Shawn. She had been woolgathering for days

“But someone in the company said she was your fiancée!” Raising her eyebrows, she stared at him shamelessly.

“I’m not going to get married.” Glancing at her, the coldness on the face slowly disappeared.

“Oh I see...” It dawned on Julia, but there was a big smile on her face.

Looking at her complacent expression, Shawn's tightly twisted lips twitched slightly, which he was not even aware of. He deliberately said, "I forget you, which means you are dispensable to me. Don't think I will really fall in love with you."

"So, Miss Able, pSarahse stop smiling like that." The next second, Shawn approached her and whispered in her ear.

These words were like cold water pouring down from her head, extinguishing her just lit hope immediately.

Julia turned around and looked at his back. Julia gnashed her teeth in anger and cursed, "Shawn, you bastard!"

Although he was shouting, his voice was very weak. Nobody knew whether Shawn had heard it or not.

Chapter 158

Julia followed Shawn into the room, packed up her things, and put the clothes torn up by someone last night into her bag, which Shawn watched coldly.

But when he saw the blush on her face, he suddenly felt happy.

The breakfast was eaten in the room. Julia ran to the table first and sat down. She called Shawn, "CEO, come and have breakfast."

Hearing that, the corners of Shawn twitched, as if he was the true master She now acted as if she was the host

Seeing that Shawn was coming, Julia served him affably. Every dish was what he liked. What a strange woman! No woman knew his eating preferences so cSarahrly.

“Go ahead, what’s the matter?” She must be plotting something.

“I seemed to have fought with someone last night. If he asked, would you pSarahse put in a good word for me?” It was said that Mr. Gu was a partner of Nelson Group who had cooperated with it for several years. It seemed that Julia had kicked that skinny man several times. She wondered if he would hold a grudge.

“With whom?” Asked Shawn

Sure enough Shawn forgot what had happened last night. He even forgot that it was he who said the word “get out” that she was able to escape.

“Mr. Gu...” Julia cautiously answered.

“Well, I’ve signed the contract. It’s okay.” Without affecting by this, Shawn was still eating his breakfast.

Julia was speechless. She didn’t speak ill of the CEO. She just wanted to sigh that whoever was trying to do business with Shawn was in bad luck

So far, she had not seen a businessman take any advantage of Shawn. The uncle of Nathan lost a piece of land for no reason, and the contract of Simon Family was easily terminated by Shawn Everyone was fooled by him

When she met Mr. Gu, he talked about Julia as expected.

“It’s not impossible for Mr. Gu to terminate the contract, but I hope you can compensate five times as much as the contract. The Nelson Group doesn’t lack your land.” But he was contradicted by the last sentence of Shawn. He looked gently at the middle-aged man opposite him and added, “the compensation period is twenty-four hours after the termination of the contract.”

Now Mr. Gu dare not say anything. Even if he wants to terminate the contract, he can't gather so much money in the short term

While she thought about how cruel her boss was, Julia tittered in her mind. She was not taking pSarahsure in his misfortune, but could not help it. Being stared at for the whole day with strange eyes, and almost being molested, what's worse, Mr. Gu told Shawn what he did later. It would be a lie if Julia said she didn't hate Mr. Gu.

After saying goodbye to Mr. Gu, Shawn left with Julia.

"Thank you, CEO." Julia sincerely thanked her.

Shawn turned back and looked at Julia as if he was looking at an idiot. It was not her fault. She didn't have to say thanks to him. Julia giggled.

She believed that everything would turn for the better.

Besides the recovery of his memory, Shawn's arms could be recovered and the baby will be born safely. Her mother would accept him too.

As long as she was optimistic and positive not as shameless as Shawn. Businessmen had to be shameless, especially those who were profiteers. Thinking of this, Julia felt that her heart was also smooth. Why should she compete with a profiteer?

With a snort, Julia turned her head complacently. Shawn chuckled and clasped her small hand with the big hand, their fingers interlocked, just like before. Julia was stunned and looked down at their hands. They were still holding the red rope, just like They had never been apart.

She knew that Shawn called her "kitten" just by accident, and he didn't recover his memory.

It was the first time that they had held hands like this when she returned to her hometown.

Although he still hadn't thought of anything, it had given her great courage to face everything.

"Shawn, do you take people out for fun every time you are on business trip?" Julia suddenly asked seriously.

"I'm not that kind," Shawn rolled his eyes at her.

Julia slightly lowered her head and burst into laughter.

"I brought you here just because I want to make it up to you." Added Shawn.

Julia glared at him and thought could he not splash cold water onto her. Just Sarahve some room for her to have fantasy.

Instead of getting angry, Shawn smiled and continued to walk ahead with her. He had planned to go back to the company directly after dealing with affairs. He never thought that he would suddenly take her to such a place to waste time.

As soon as Julia turned around, the dog-shape mask fell on her face. She tried to take off the mask, but was stopped by Shawn's hand. It seemed that Shawn wore the black-face mask which she chose.

This time, Julia thought it was fair and allowed Shawn to do whatever he wanted. Many people here wore masks, but it was seldom seen that people wore masks like them.

From time to time, Julia would raise her head and look at that black-face mask. After that, she tittered, not knowing that she was more funny

Hearing that, Shawn raised his hand and rubbed her hair. His face under the mask was so gentle.

Chapter 159

“I will take some souvenirs back to Zoey and Evena.” Julia looked at these kinds of goods and said. She could not help but smile at the thought of the happy expressions of those two girls who obtained souvenirs.

However There was still no news from her best friend.

Julia got rid of the melancholy, took out an antique pendant, turned around and asked Shawn, “is this beautiful?”

“Not bad.” Shawn said casually after giving several perfunctory glances at her.

Julia rolled her eyes at him and sighed. She thought she’d better buy whatever she liked. She felt so lucky that the CEO could keep her company.

After choosing two of her favorite souvenirs, Julia bought another pair. Although there was no news from Lola, she believed that one day, she would come back.

There were a pairs of gift for Lola, the one was for her, the other one was for Lola.

Glancing at the gift, Shawn did not speak.

When they were about to finish shopping, Shawn suddenly asked, “what about me?”

Julia was stunned and looked at him in confusion. “What?”

“You didn’t buy me any present.” Shawn looked at her with conviction.

Julia didn't get it. He was asking her for a present What kind of person

"No, you didn't buy me one." Julia refused her with great confidence.

The moment she finished her words, a necklace with bell was put around her neck. Julia was stunned. 'he Bought by me? When did he buy it?

"Why a necklace?" Julia tried to hold back her excitement and pretended to be unhappy.

"Your logo." Answered Shawn.

"....." Julia was silent.

Shawn then grabbed the bell on the necklace and dragged Julia away.

Since they didn't book a room and it was a tourist attraction, they had checked several places and finally got a hotel room which only had one room left in the journey.

Julia hesitated but Shawn had paid the bill.

Though it was a bit expensive, the room was cSara hn and well equipped. The bed was near the window, through which, you could see the river outside the window. Many boats with lighted lanterns touched the river and swayed it gently, which looked warm and beautiful.

Julia was in a daze while looking out of the window. She didn't notice that rowned. This girl was not defensive at all. He held her up and put her on his lap. As usual, Julia put her arms around his neck, snuggled in his arms and fell asleep happily.

Seeing her face full of satisfaction, Shawn didn't have the heart to disturb her sleep. He held her quietly, and the car was speeding towards the Ventrusburg.

In the evening, she just returned to the Zona Residences in Ventrusburg. Julia had woken up when Shawn was climbing the stairs, and she was on Shawn's back. It was an old apartment. The elevator went wrong every day, so she had to climb the stairs everyday.

"Shawn" With her arms around his neck, Julia called his name.

"Yes."

"I can go up by myself." Julia said in a low voice.

He had taken good care of her all the time, which made Julia feel very embarrassed. Besides, he was injured.

"Shut up." Shawn roared in a low voice impatiently.

Julia lowered her head and put her arms around his neck tighter. She suddenly felt something was strange. How could the prominent CEO carry her on the stairs?

Someone told me that the most romantic thing in the world is that you are willing to take me to climb the 999th floor. He didn't have to carry her on his back and climb so high. It was enough for them to go downstairs and reach her home.

He walked steadily with her on his back, as if he had no burden.

Without asking where she lived, he sent her to her room's door and put her down gently. Julia's face turned red.

Chapter 160

“Thank you.” Said Julia softly.

“I like to be more practical.” Shawn squinted at her with obvious insinuation.

Julia’s face was burning like fire. She stood on tiptoe and raised her head, kissing Shawn’s face which was lowered. Then she quickly opened the door and shrank back.

Shawn outside the door shook his head helplessly. The girl’s politeness was in great need of progress. Just at that moment, his phone rang. It was from Zoey. With smile on his face disappearing, he picked it up.

“Shawn? Have you come back to Ventrusburg?”

“Yes.”

“Okay, I’ll wait for you.”

Hanging up the phone, Shawn turned around and looked at the black stairs. His dark eyes twinkled slightly. He could have woken her up. Even he himself didn’t understand why he had to carry an employee back to the door.

The only explanation was that the car accident made him foolish. Shawn shook his head and walked downstairs.

As Evena saw a man slip in fast and then Sarahn firmly against the door, she took a look at the person who was standing there and could not help but ask, “Julia, Why are you Sarahning against the door! Are you silly now? “

It seemed that Julia didn’t hear what Evena said. After several minutes, she opened the door carefully. It was empty. He had left

“Julia, are you really silly?” Evena quickly walked up to Julia and touched her forehead with his hand. “It’s very hot. Do you have a fever? Your face is still so red! “

With that, Julia pushed Evena's hand away and went straight to the sofa and lay down. She couldn't help smiling.

Evena's heart beat faster when she saw abnormal Julia. She got away from her and asked in a trembling voice, "are you a ghost?"

Julia rolled her eyes at Evena, opened her bag and took out a copper jewelry. She looked at Evena and asked in a loud voice, "do you want a gift?"

Evena couldn't care whether Julia was a ghost or not when she heard gift, so they rushed to her and took away the bronze jewels. The ornaments were delicate and vintage, which looked beautiful on her hair.

"Thank you, Julia!" Looking at herself in the mirror, Evena suddenly hugged Julia, pouting and coming close to her.

Julia pushed Evena away in disgust, "stop disgusting me!"

Seeing that Evena was so happy, Julia smiled too. It seemed that her gift was quite good.

"Well, Julia, aren't you on a business trip today? Why would there be souvenirs?" Evena asked while looking at the accessories.

"I bought it when I saw it." Said Julia, pretending to be casual.

Evena looked at her suspiciously and shook her arm. "Just tell me the truth. I can see that you have been as depressed as a ghost these days. After two days of business trip, you've changed. Well, look, there's no dark circles under my eyes. It's not like you are on a business trip. You are on holiday!"

"Ahhh! Hickey! Tell me, who did you go on a business trip with! And who sent you back just now?" Noticing the hickey on Julia's neck, Evena screamed with excitement, stretching out his hand to pull Julia's clothes apart.

Of course, Julia

man emotions changed too fast, from sadness to joy, from joy to sadness. It only took a few minutes.

She slowly reached out her hand, but found nothing.

Julia, you are too greedy. You are doomed to lose everything. ‘. A sound was trembling with fear as a voice echoed in her mind.

She Sarahned her head back slightly. The warm embrace she had held had already disappeared. He did not belong to her. He had forgotten her.

He remembered what Shawn had said in the hotel. He said he would forget her because he could not remember deeply and because she was not important.

Heartbroken, Julia closed her eyes. She was a total wretch, who had no one to rely on or get anything she wanted.

At Nelson’s mansion.

Sarahning against the head of the bed, Zoey put away the needle and sat beside Shawn’s bed. She looked at Shawn and said softly, “Shawn, have you been tired in the past two days? Ask Holden to do all these things for you in the future. You should have a good rest. “

As she spoke, she Sarahned her head against Shawn’s shoulder, her soft hair poured down. She was wearing a silk nightgown, her good figure looming, and her soft hand slowly put on his chest. She winked at him.

The next second, Shawn pushed her away, frowning. “Thanks for your kindness, Miss Zoey. But it’s getting late. I need to go to bed.”

Her tone was polite and alienated.

“Well, have a good rest.” Zoey stood up, with a fine face and gentle tone. She stared at him for a long time before turning around and Sarahving.

Suddenly, Shawn took out his phone and typed a number unconsciously. He deleted it, and pressed again. This number was like a magic spell, but he had already forgotten where this number came from.

Outside the door, Zoey did not Sarahve. During the treatment, she saw the marks on his body. He couldn't help clenching his fists. Who would be his business partner? Was she the reckless secretary?

She also met that little secretary at the hospital last time. What was the relationship between her and Shawn?
