

Blossoming Her Shielded Heart Chapter 251 – 260

Chapter 251

After regaining her consciousness, Julia didn't want to stay in the hospital anymore and she also wanted to go home after staying for a few days.

"Mr. CEO, I want to go home." Julia was in Shawn's arms, looking at him with a pair of innocent eyes.

Seeing the frown on Shawn's face, Julia continued, "I'm really fine. I don't want to stay here." She jumped off the bed and walked around in front of Shawn.

After hesitating for a while, Shawn pulled her back into his arms, stretched out two fingers and placed them in front of Julia and asked: "what's this?"

"....." Julia was speechless. She was just delirious, not completely stupid. What did he mean!

"don't know? It seems that you are not fully recovered. " Hearing that, Shawn lowered his eyes to look at her with a good smile at the corners of his tight lips.

Julia raised her angry fist and lightly punched his solid chest. Shawn held her little hand, while her little mouth was slightly pouted because of her discontent. At the same time, his heart was rotating. He couldn't help but look down and kiss on the bright red.

Finally, under Julia's insistence, Shawn compromised and agreed.

When they were packing up, Barbara and Zoey pushed in at the same time. Seeing that Julia had packed her luggage, Barbara was stunned and couldn't help saying, "your body has just recovered. Why don't you stay in the hospital for a few more days? What if something wrong after you go back home later?"

Julia smiled and said perfunctorily, "I have recovered completely. If I am not ill in the hospital, I will feel suffocated. Don't you think so, Zoey?" Then, Julia turned to look at Zoey, who was sitting quietly and playing with her phone.

Zoey didn't hear what Julia said. When she heard Julia call her name, she nodded to her.

"What are you looking at?" Seeing that Zoey was staring at the phone, Julia asked curiously. While she was speaking, she had already approached Zoey.

"Zoey, let's cancel our engagement. I'll let you go," said Hobson.

It was a message from Hobson. He wanted to cancel the engagement, but he finally took Julia's advice. Julia was inexplicably guilty that Hobson would give up on Zoey.

"Hobson's going to cancel the engagement party." Zoey put her phone back and sighed.

"Isn't this what you want?" Julia sat opposite her and asked with a smile.

Barbara was still checking if anything was left in the ward for Julia. And Shawn was going to go through the discharge formalities for her. Julia's and Zoey's voice was so low that only they could hear.

“Yes. I feel sorry for him. He’s been tortured by me for so long, but still got nothing. Love is so cruel.” Michelle sighed deeply. “Why do some people only gain nothing at the end after they have done everything? While some people get the hard won love just by doing nothing?”

Julia reached out her hand to feel Zoey’s forehead and said in a determined tone, “you have read hen go to Tibet.” Zoey talked to Shawn in excitement about her original plan.

Although Shawn nodded, his eyes were on Julia all the time. Seeing this, Barbara was too shy to take over her daughter and pushed her to Shawn.

“.....” Julia was speechless and thought her mother was such a fence sitter.

Now that Julia was back to Shawn, Zoey decided not to linger on. She told the whole plan to Shawn and then turned around to walk away.

At this time, the four had arrived at the gate of the hospital. When Julia saw that Zoey disappeared in front of a luxury car, she frowned. That car was Holden’s.

If she had the chance, she would like to find out what happened to Nelson family twenty years ago by finding the diary Mike said. Then she would know if Holden was Juliet’s kids.

After getting in the car, Julia became silent. She blankly looked at the scenery passing by quickly. Many things had happened in the past few days, so she didn’t have time to sort out her thoughts.

Zoey Why did she use drugs to her? Was it because of Shawn? Since the very beginning, Zoey hadn’t forgotten Shawn. She had married Holden only in order to get closer to Shawn.

In order to get what she wanted, Zoey had done her utmost.

Her baby just disappeared? Did she hate Zoey? Yes. If it was not Zoey, she would not lose her baby. However, hatred was of no use. She would never get her baby back.

Now she just felt very tired. What happened recently made her very tired. The low pressure in the hospital made her unable to breathe. Only when she left there could she calm down and think about other things.

With that on her mind, Julia Sarahned wearily in the arms of Shawn, closed her eyes and fell asleep slowly. Then, Shawn held her from the chair into his arms, with one arm holding her tightly.

How could he not see that she forced herself to smile? But he could do nothing to help her except caring about her. Only she could adjust her emotions.

Chapter 252

When Julia woke up, she found that she had returned to the bedroom's bed. Back home, Julia felt relaxed. She wanted to turn over and get up, but she then found that Shawn was lying next to her.

Julia looked at him and found that he was still in sound sleep. He had been more tired than her these days. He not only had to take care of her emotions, but also managed the company's affairs.

Li group was the biggest enterprise in Ventrusburg. It was full of business every day. However, Shawn had stayed with her in the hospital for a long time and during that time, he hardly left.

Staring at him for a while, Julia couldn't help reaching out her little sly hand, putting it on his cheek, and then touched her own cheek. She suddenly felt that Shawn's skin was even better than hers. She was jealous.

He still frowned when he was asleep. Seeing this, Julia felt so sorry for him and she put her little hand on his brow, gently smoothing the wrinkles between his eyebrows.

“Kitten.” The man’s lazy voice suddenly came from the top of her head. She was in a daze and suddenly felt that her body was held more tightly by Shawn. She heard him saying, “don’t cry.”

“Kitten, don’t cry.”.

Was he talking in his sleep?

Did she also exist in his dream?

Julia grinned. She was afraid of waking him up, so she put her face on his chest carefully. She didn’t know whether it was his temperature or her temperature when she blushed.

It was lucky that he had always been with her, supported her and gave her the only warmth when she was most helpless, and shared her pain.

“Shawn, I love you.”

She was no longer fond of him. She loved him, just as he loved her.

At this moment, Julia wished they could be together forever.

It was not until evening that Julia finally woke up. When she opened her eyes, she didn’t see Shawn. For a moment, she was a little flustered and could not help but gently call, “Shawn.”

Just as her words fell, the door of the bedroom was pushed open. Shawn, dressed in a suit, walked in. Seeing her sitting blankly on the bed, he quickly walked to the bed and held her in his arms.

Feeling his temperature, Julia's dangling heart slowly calmed down. Perhaps she was used to his company, and her heart would be inexplicably flustered if she was not with him.

Julia knew that he would not be with her all the time as he had a lot of work to do.

"Are you hungry? Let's go downstairs and have dinner." Said Shawn in a softer voice, as he felt her dependence on him.

Julia nodded in his arms.

After putting on her clothes, Shawn took Julia downstairs. Zoey and Barbara were already waiting for them in the dining room.

Seeing Julia come down, Barbara hurriedly held her forward and asked, "are you feeling uncomfortable?"

Noticing Barbara nervous look, Julia was moved. She smiled and shook her head, "Mom, don't worry. I'm strong enough to beat a cow!"

Uttering these words, Julia got rid of the shackles of Barbara and Shawn and walked straight to the front of the table. When she saw the CEO would change.

"Don't worry, mom. I have a plan," Holden chuckled. When he got Nelson Group, he would expose everything.

He was not a kid from Nelson family.

At that time, even if someone objected, there would be nothing they could do.

Before that, he wanted to be a good son in the eyes of his parents, a gentle boss in the eyes of the employees

Soon, everything was over.

Holden couldn't wait to see that day, so that he didn't have to hide Zoey so tightly and didn't have to care about the kinship between them.

The mother and son strolled around the backyard while talking. During the past more than twenty years, Juliet had treated Holden as her own son. If Holden hadn't remembered it when he was a child, he would never doubt his origin and just be the second son of the Nelson family forever.

However, he cSahrly remembered every single infusion twenty years ago. He was an orphan. He was brought back from the orphanage by Juliet and Mike.

He was determined to win this battle.

If Shawn lost, he just lost theNelson Group, and if he lost, he lost everything.

"Holden, now I can only depend on you." Juliet said to Holden with a sigh.

Since she quarreled with Noah in the hospital last time, they never talked to each other or yielded to each other. Juliet knew that no matter what she did, Noah would not like her. She could only rely on Holden.

As usual, Holden looked at Juliet and smiled gently. "As long as I'm here, I won't let anyone bully mom."

Upon hearing this, Juliet breathed a sigh of relief. "Holden, I'm so glad that you're here," she said After a pause, she started to complain about Zoey. "Zoey is such a trouble maker. She even didn't tell us that she was pregnant with Hobson's baby. And now she's trying to break off her engagement with the Lee family."

Holden paused, “cancel the engagement?”

“Don’t worry. We won’t agree with breaking off the engagement. They have a child, so they have to get married anyway.” Juliet didn’t notice Holden’s expression.

Chapter 253

After a while, no response was heard. Confused, Juliet looked in the direction of Holden. When she saw Holden’s knitted brows, she thought that Holden was feeling sorry for Zoey. So she comforted, “Holden, I know you care about Zoey since she was a child. But now she has grown up. She should be responsible for what she does.”

After a pause, she continued, “the Lee family is good enough for us. I will not let Zoey suffer any loss.”

Holden remained silent. He knew even what he said was reasonable, Juliet and Noah would never give up the thought of marrying the Lee family. In their eyes, he was a good boy. For this reason, they thought he would agree to whatever they wanted to do.

Sometimes, Holden was the envy of Shawn. Shawn was free and unrestrained.

It was a small village attached to Ventrusburg.

After cSarahning up the room, Zoey sat on the bed and stared at her phone in a daze. She had tried to call Holden these days, but he never called her. Was he very busy?

And because she had changed her cell phone, only Holden’s phone number was saved in her cell phone. She didn’t know about her family’s situation. If she left, would Shawn take revenge on her family?

She wanted to go back to Ventrusburg and see him.

When the door was pushed open, Zoey suddenly came to her senses. She raised her head and saw it was Vivek, a subordinate of Holden. Seeing him, she frowned. He had been taking care of her these days, but this man always made her uncomfortable.

Whether she liked it or not, Zoey asked politely. "Can you help me get in touch with Holden?"

Taking a cold glance at her, Vivek sneered in his heart, 'what a stupid woman! You have already been abandoned without knowing it.'

"I'm sorry, Miss Ding. Second Master has been busy lately. The only thing you need to do is to stay here, otherwise we can't help you if Eldest Master's men find out where we are." "I came here to say goodbye," Vivek said, bowing neither humble nor pushy

Zoey was stunned. "You want to go back to Ventrusburg?"

Vivek nodded. In order to settle Zoey down, he had to help her adapt to the life here.

"Take me. I want to go back, too." At the same time, Zoey came to Vivek and took his hand.

Frowning slightly, Vivek pushed away Zoey's hand and said, "miss. Ding, when the disturbance is settled, I'm sure master Holden will take you back. I hope you won't cause trouble to him these days."

Then Vivek turned around and left.

When vivek completely disappeared from her sight, Zoey could not keep calm. She wondered when the storm would be over She regretted. If she hadn't pushed Julia down the stairs, she wouldn't have to hide from them now.

However, there was no regret medicine in the world. Zoey only hoped that Shawn could let her go for the sake of Holden. However, she killed the child of Shawn, so he would never forgive her.

Maybe the storm would not pass in her lifetime. Would she live such a life of hiding and dodging all her life? No, she didn't want to do this. She wanted to go back to Ventrusburg Cit that it was the little princess and quickly let her in.

However, after she searched all over the villa of Holden, she didn't find the figure of Holden. She went back to Holden's bedroom, jumped into his bed and covered herself with the quilt, then called Holden.

"Brother, where are you? What are you doing?" He put the question straight with a touch of coquetry.

"What's up?" Instead of answering her question, Holden asked.

As he ignored her question intentionally, Zoey replied angrily, "I can't call you if there is nothing?"

Holden chuckled, "Would you call me if there is nothing? Zoey, I am so touched. "

"....." Zoey remained silent It seemed that she really didn't call Holden if there is nothing important. It was Holden who called her.

She chuckled awkwardly, "why do I call you when I have nothing to do?" She was a little guilty. She had something to talk to him. Was she too mean.

Without hearing Holden's answer, Zoey wiped the cold sweat from her forehead, she had to bite the bullet and said, "I don't want to be engaged to Hobson. Let's elope, okay?"

“.....” Holden was in a daze for a moment, and then his lips curved again. He stood up from the desk and slowly walked to the window. The business partner in front of him looked at him in surprise.

They heard that Holden couldn't deal with private affairs at work, but he was sure that the person who called had nothing to do with the work.

“Hey, do you agree or not? If you agree, I will plan the route.” Since Holden didn't answer her question, Zoey couldn't help asking.

“OK. If you are bored, you can think about the honeymoon route first.” Holden quipped with a smile.

The honeymoon route Zoey was confused. What did Holden mean?

“If you don't have anything else to talk to me, I'll hang up now. I still have some work to do.” Said Holden softly.

“Okay.” Frightened, Zoey hung up the phone at last.

After that, the phone was hung up. Holden's mood lifted a lot because of Zoey's words. 'elope?' He was a little tempted.

Chapter 254

In the CEO office.

“CEO, we found Zoey in a township.” John said casually as he put the papers in front of Shawn.

Without raising his head, Shawn replied blandly, “yes.”

“Don't you want to ask if we have caught Zoey?” With an exaggerating and surprised expression on his face, John looked at Shawn and asked.

Without raising his head, Shawn asked coldly, “dare you not make it cSarahr?”

John dared not to do so.

But we didn’t find her. When we arrived at the house, Zoey had already left. I don’t know if it was master Holden’s idea. ” John said straight.

Shawn’s hand paused, but his tone remained calm. “Keep looking.” he said “Yes.” Frightened by the horrifying aura around Shawn, John could not help standing straight.

It was already dark outside. As soon as the light went off, John told Shawn another task. “I have a business with Mr. Able at the intoxicating Pavilion at seven o’clock.”

“Yes.” Shawn stood up, grabbed a hand-made suit from the hanger and draped it over himself. Then he walked out with John. On their way to the Secretary’s office, he stopped and glanced at Julia’ seat.

Julia often worked overtime here, and she was always the only one in the Secretary office at this time.

After a moment of silence, Shawn walked out of the room. He was worried that Julia would think too much when she was at home, so he ended the business as soon as possible and went back home early.

In the villa of Nelson family.

Just as Julia said, Zoey came back dejectedly.

“Julia, I’m going to die.” As soon as she got back to the villa, Zoey knocked on the door of Julia’s bedroom, with tears in her eyes.

Julia, who was Sarahning against the bed and reading, had to put the book down. She looked at her and asked, "is your second brother okay with this?"

"I really don't understand what he is thinking about. He just said those words perfunctorily. He even asked me to think about the honeymoon route. It's the honeymoon with Hobson? Oh, No. I am doomed this time. Julia, he won't elope with me. I will elope with you. "

Speaking of this, Zoey's eyes lit up. She grabbed Julia's hand and squinted at her like a vicious fox. "That's a good idea."

Julia was embarrassed. She wanted to go out for a walk, but the general shareholder's meeting was around the corner, and Shawn was very busy. She didn't want him to be distracted by her, and she wanted to talk about everything after the general shareholder's meeting.

"Do you mean I should abandon your brother?" Julia took a few glances at her.

"For my happiness, pSarahse, Julia!" Zoey looked at Julia wholeheartedly. Her eyes were innocent and pSarahding. She was completely an innocent rabbit.

Julia glanced at her wrist. Zoey was holding her in a funny way as if she was grabbing at a life-saving straw. She smiled and pretended to cough, "just escape for a while, but you won't be able to escape for Hearing that, Zoey couldn't help chuckling and said lightly, "thank you for your kindness, aunt Able . But there are two mothers. I'm afraid that I mix them up. " Now that she was dating with Julia, Juliet was hostile to her, she would kick her out of the house if she called Barbara mom.

"It's okay. Have a good time tomorrow What time is the departure time of the car? " Barbara's voice was so soft and nice.

Julia believed that her mother was crazy today.

“Don’t worry. The driver will drive us to the destination,” Zoey replied politely.

“Go to bed early.”

Zoey left immediately after Barbara finished her words. She was under too much pressure to talk to the elder “Mom, what’s wrong with you recently?” See Zoey’s receding figure, Julia looked at Barbara in confusion and even put her hand on Barbara’s forehead to check if she had a fever. Was she crazy?

Barbara gave Julia a disdainful look. “I just understand one thing. It has been so long since that thing happened ten years ago. If my simple apology can bring about a harmonious relationship among us, then apologize.”

“Besides, I think Zoey is an adorable and sensible girl. I would be glad if I had such a daughter like her,” Barbara added with a smile.

She was blaming her for not being considerate and adorable? Julia ignored the sarcasm in her words and echoed, “yes, but what a pity that such a cute girl doesn’t want to be your daughter.”

“.....” Barbara gave Julia an angry stare and knocked on her head again. How dare Julia hit back.

Hearing Barbara’s words, Julia also felt relieved. They should have let go of what had happened ten years ago.

“I will pay a visit to the Nelson family mansion when I am free, as relatives by marriage.” Barbara forced a smile on her face. Although she seemed to be relieved, she still tried to let it go in her heart.

Perhaps this was the only thing she could do for Julia. Julia also hoped that she and Noah could bury the hatchet.

Chapter 255

They had waited in the hall for a long time, but Shawn one came back. At the urging of Barbara, Julia had to go back to her bedroom. She called him and told him that she would go traveling with Zoey tomorrow, in order to escape from the engagement banquet.

The driver was arranged by Shawn and he hoped they could have a good time.

Julia was about to fall asleep when a sudden sound of footsteps came from the room. She opened her dim eyes and saw nothing but darkness. He didn't turn on the light.

After he walked out of the bathroom with light steps, Julia felt that she was going to fall asleep again. Was it so difficult for her to see him before she left.

Shawn uncovered the quilt and lay beside Julia. He stretched out his hands and gently embraced her. Julia had wanted to call him, but she could not help frowning when she sensed the smell of alcohol from him.

Did he go out for a business dinner?

She tried to say something but stopped. She didn't want to disturb his rest. When Shawn's breath gradually stabilized, Julia dared to look up at him. The bright moonlight poured in from the window, plated a layer of noble gold on his handsome face.

For a moment, it was hard for Julia to tell if Shawn beauty the moonlight or maybe the moonlight beauty Shawn.

There was a kind of man who looked more handsome. The longer time she spent with him, the more attracted she was to him. In Julia's eyes, Shawn was this kind of man.

“Shawn.” After staring at him for a long time, Julia couldn’t help calling his name in a low voice. When she saw the faint smile on the corner of Shawn’s lips, she couldn’t help but chuckle and rest in his arms, closing her eyes and sleeping.

‘some day, I will have a baby with Shawn. I will go to catch fireflies with the baby in summer. I will fight snowmen with my baby in winter. Everything will come true one day.’

But when Julia thought of Shawn’s arm that had not yet recovered, her heart tightened. What should she do to get Shawn’s arm back to its original condition.

Julia fell asleep. Outside the window, she saw the cSarahr sky.

Julia didn’t wake up until the noon of the next day. Shawn had already dressed up, but he didn’t Sarahve. Instead, he sat on the edge of the bed, waiting for her to wake up. When Julia saw him sitting on the edge of the bed, she was very excited and happy.

Unfortunately, her joyful mood did not last for three seconds. She heard the disgusting voice from Shawn. “The cat was drooling.”

As a proud woman, Julia quickly raised her hand to wipe her mouth. When she put her hand to her mouth, she discovered that she was fooled by Shawn. She didn’t drool! Julia snorted, reached out and pinched Shawn’s ear, shouting, “you are drooling! Your whole family is drooling over you. “

“.....” Shawn said nothing but smiled.

After a series of treatment, Julia correct her at once. “Except me.”

Shawn nodded deeply. “Except me.”

“.....” Julia lowered her head weakly and started bickering. It seemed that she could hardly take advantage of Shawn. Why? Julia was still in deep thought. When she was still struggling with Zoey’s biological father. How could Holden do something to hurt him?

If Holden was a vicious man, he was the one who helped her when she fell. He had always been humble and courteous to her. Sometimes he would bring the midnight snack to Zoey and bring another for her.

Alas Human heart was complicated

They just went to the beach in Ventrusburg, which was not far away. A few hours later, they reached their destination. Zoey opened the door, jumped out of the car, opened her arms, and breathed the autumn breeze.

“Julia, come down! How beautiful the sea is!” Zoey called out from outside.

Julia slowly got out of the car. She really didn’t understand why Zoey had chosen to look at the sea in autumn. But when she saw the turbulent waves, she was also shocked. She couldn’t help but think of the scene that she saw at the top of the mountain on Shawn’s proposal day. That was where they had seen the sea.

At the end of the deep blue sea and the blue sky, there was an obvious white light. The world seemed to be divided into two parts by the white light. One was the sky and the other was the ground.

Seeing such a vast world, Julia felt her heart empty and empty, as if all her troubles were gone. When she was a university student, an old professor told her that the person who could cure people’s mind the most is not a psychologist, but nature.

“Is it beautiful?” Zoey jumped to her and looked at her with a smile.

Julia didn't want to admit. She pretended to frown and said, "are you going to take a shower there now?"

"Of course I want. Don't you know? There are some natural hot springs around the beach of our Ventrusburg. I've heard that the hot spring water contained a lot of vitamins, which are very helpful for people's health. " After a short pause, Zoey looked at Julia with a mature look on her face, "do you understand? After a shower, you are ten years younger."

"....." Julia was anxious for the Chinese teacher of Zoey.

"Let's go!" Zoey carried a small bag on her back and dragged Julia away. The rest of the luggage was carried by Adam.

Chapter 256

Zoey dragged Julia to the most magnificent and luxurious hotel in the local area. Standing in front of the hotel door, Julia looked up at the over 20 floor luxury hotel and pulled Zoey's sleeve. "Let's live somewhere else. It feels expensive here."

She was already Shawn's people, so she surely had to lend money from Shawn.

"This hotel belongs to our family," Zoey rolled her eyes at Julia as if she was looking at an idiot.

Our family Julia was shocked by her words. Nelson Group engaged in many industries, including hotel, real estate and hotel. Of course, it was also focused on real estate. It was said that half of the Ventrusburg belonged to Li group

However, when she heard from Zoey that the hotel was theirs, Julia was still shocked. All she knew was figures. It was only when the real thing suddenly appeared in front of them that she had a better view of the CEO's great image.

After the shock, Zoey dragged her in decisively. They walked into the hotel, talking and laughing.

"Zoey?"

"Hobson?"

As their eyes met, both of them were shocked and stood still.

Julia was speechless. God, you did it on purpose! It was such a coincidence that Zoey was going back to the engagement party!

"Why are you here? With your parents?" At the same time, Zoey looked around to see where Hobson's parents were. She wanted to escape.

"I sneaked out," Hobson said with a wry smile

After a short pause, Zoey blurted out, "the same as me!"

But Hobson didn't show any astonishment. He knew that Zoey could also escape, but he didn't expect that they all escaped to the same place. Could this be counted as a God's will.

Zoey felt awkward facing Hobson. Hobson had knew the relationship between Zoey and Holden and he said that he had given up.

"Will you attend the engagement party tomorrow?" Zoey asked in confusion.

Standing next to them, Julia wanted to knock Zoey on her head. Hobson said that he went out secretly and he would definitely not go to the engagement party tomorrow.

“If you want to go back, I will go back, too.” Said Hobson, smiling.

Although Hobson said he had let her go, he didn't stop. He kept giving Zoey chances to get back with him as long as she wanted.

“You'd better stay here.” Zoey said immediately. She was really afraid that Hobson would force her to Sarahve with him.

Upon hearing that, Hobson's face darkened.

“Since we meet each other, how about going to have fun together later?” Hobson said, “I want to buy some fireworks to celebrate.. the no Sarahding actor's engagement party tomorrow. “

Not to mention about Julia, even Zoey could tell the unwillingness in Hobson's tone.

“I'm sorry, Hobson.” Zoey apologized. No matter what, she had let him down.

Hobson shook his head. He stretched out his hand and rubbed Zoey's hair, “No need to say sorry. It's all my own willing.”

He felt more sorry for Zoey.

“Okay, let's go upstairs to put something and then go to the bathroom. I'll go to see you after I finis should go back?” Zoey asked after a moment's hesitation.

“Zoey, the only reason you are trying to escape is to get away from the engagement party. You have to get away from it as soon as possible.” Julia answered without a second thought. Then she thought her answer was too absolute, so she added: “if you really want to go back, you can go back. In fact, Hobson has always given you chances.”

The other side was silent.

Julia hadn't lived in the same environment as Zoey's, and she hadn't thought about what she would do if she was in that kind of environment. However, if she had decided to do something, there was no turning back for her. Even if it was a mistake, she would always take it to the end.

After a long while, there came a tough voice from Zoey. "Julia, I won't go back."

"I really like second brother, not because I like him as a sister, but because I like him as a girl,"

Julia smiled and thought that Zoey finally understood her true feelings, and she thought that it was a good thing. Everyone would be free to fall in love with each other, because the love between brother and sister was a taboo. And it needed courage to love each other.

"Okay, I'm going upstairs." Julia didn't like to stay in the water for so long, so she went ashore and wore a bathrobe.

After Julia went ashore, Zoey followed her. They put on their bathrobes but didn't Sarahve at once. They sat beside the hot spring and put their feet into the water. The huge hot spring turned to their basin to wash their feet.

"You can come here more often from now on. We have a lot of time in the future anyway." Zoey's legs were swinging and water splashed.

Julia looked at the cSarahr spring water and nodded, "yes." She also liked this place, as if the world had fallen into silence, and the temperature of the spring water was moderate and very comfortable to soak.

She wanted to say thanks to Zoey, but considering they were a family, she thought it would make sense without saying thanks.

Chapter 257

They went back to the VIP room when they received the call from Hobson.

It was nine o'clock in the evening when they packed their stuff. Julia and Zoey ran quickly to the place where they agreed to meet with Hobson. They walked barefoot on the long beach, and the tingle from their feet made people feel very comfortable.

In all kinds of lights, the silver white beach was reflected into various colors. In the distance, the wave reflected lights came one after another. In the distance, there were a few fishing boats, and the light was so colorful that Julia paused for a few seconds.

It was a picturesque scene.

Being hugged by the sea and the sky, she looked more tender. And there were very few people on the beach. The hot spring here was very famous in autumn. But the price of hot spring here was also so expensive that ordinary people had to figure out their cost of the hot spring.

Before she came here with Lola, they had saved two months' money. At last, they could get enough money to enjoy the hot spring here. Ventrusburg was facing the sea, but the beach was cSarahn and expensive.

"Zoey, senior, this way!" When they just walked behind a stone, the voice of Hobson came from the distance.

Zoey held Julia's hand and walked over. She looked around and found that the ' U 'facing the sea. There were three sides of high stones, one facing the sea, and the other side facing the sea. The light couldn't be found here, which showed a strong black mist.

Julia felt like a third wheel. Hobson didn't want to see her, and Zoey had to drag her here. It was very difficult for Julia

Several times' signals didn't work. Seeing that, Hobson pulled Julia aside and said, "Senior, I want to talk to Zoey alone, so..."

Hobson scratched his head awkwardly.

"....." Julia nodded and said: "no problem. I want to take a walk by the sea." She had been waiting for Hobson's words.

Then, Julia turned around and left.

The sea breeze blew over her short hair and made her loose long sleeve coat a little plump. Julia looked back at the place where Zoey and Hobson were. The firework was lit up there. She smiled and believed that Zoey had known how to deal with it.

She sat on the reef alone, looking at the other side of the sea.

'baby, you are still waiting for Mommy, aren't you?'. Don't worry, I will help you come to this world as soon as possible.

At the same time, Zoey and Hobson lit up their fireworks.

Staying alone with Hobson, Zoey looked around nervously and muttered to herself, 'damn Julia! Where is she at the key moment?'. God knew how much she didn't want to get along with Hobson. He knew everything about her and Holden.

"Zoey, do you love him?" Hobson put the little fairy in her hand. The light of the fireball shone on her face. Zoey was a very c o his arms.

Julia blushed and thought that he was too frank. If he didn't mind, she would be embarrassed

"Fortunately, it's not far away from here, or you'll have to take a plane to come here." Julia pushed him away a little bit and looked up at him with a bright smile.

Shawn pinched her cheek. "I won't let you go too far."

How arrogant he is! 'Julia thought to herself.

It was a double room, with only two beds. "It's a double room for me and Zoey. Where do you want to sleep?" Julia said. Could it be possible that he wanted Zoey to watch them sleep?

It was very weird. Julia shook off the picture from her mind.

"Let her sleep alone." Shawn said certainly.

Julia was speechless. It was difficult for her to understand why Zoey like Shawn. He didn't care about her feelings at all Paying no attention to Julia's angry face, Shawn chuckled and took her hand to take a walk on the beach. She hooked her ankle with her shoe and followed him slowly.

After walking for a while, he saw Julia was a little tired. So Shawn squatted down and said: "come here."

Without hesitation, Julia lied on his back and wrapped her arms around his neck, just like a queen.

"If I had known you would come tonight, I wouldn't have come here today. You're so verbose, Shawn." Said Julia, smiling and bending over on Shawn's back.

“I don’t want to see you cause new trouble when I’m away.” Shawn chuckled. His voice was so warm in the sea breeze.

“I have always been obedient, OK?” As soon as she finished her words, she remembered that he gave her another name. Then, she retorted: “I’m not a fool. My name is Julia.”

“Julia.” Shawn called her name with a smile. Julia nodded with satisfaction, and added: “you are a fool.”

“Shawn!” She was so angry that she reached out and pinched his ear.

The long beach dotted with joyful laughters and happiness.

Chapter 258

They played until very late, then they returned to the room. When they opened the door, they saw Zoey lying on her bed, playing with her mobile phone. Zoey was also surprised to see Shawn, and then glanced at the big bed opposite. Although there were two beds here that were more than enough for two people to sleep, but “Brother, won’t you go back to the villa?” Zoey asked cautiously as she would end up being cursed harshly.

“Yes.” Shawn nodded. Then he took away Julia’s luggage and took her out of the room without looking back. Zoey just looked at them.

What kind of speed

Zoey sighed. She had to sleep on her own. She didn’t need their company at all.

However Why did Shawn come to look for Julia, but Holden didn't Zoey was depressed at the thought.

The next day, Julia was awakened by the sound of waves very early. She broke free from the shackles of Shawn and walked to the window. The waves in the distance pushed forward layer by layer, and the seagulls were circling in the sea.

She suddenly found that there were many places she and Shawn went to, mountain, seaside, water country and small city They had seen many beautiful scenes hand in hand, and left indelible marks on her everywhere.

It might be the most romantic life to enjoy all the beautiful scenery in the world with the one you love.

While he was enjoying it, another hand was put on his waist. Julia habitually Sarahned back and gently rested her head on his shoulder. Outside the window, the blue sky and white clouds, the waves in the distance, the seagulls in the air, and the whistle of the fishing boats that were getting closer.

And the person behind it.

At this moment, Julia felt that she was the happiest woman in the world.

"I'll go home first. Have a rest here and come home on time." Ordered Shawn.

It was not far from the villa. She didn't need him to pick her up on the way which would take three hours.

"Okay. Be careful on your way back." Julia smiled.

"I know." Turning her body around, Shawn lowered his head and kissed Julia. After a few seconds, he reSarahsed her.

After Shawn Sarahving, Julia went back to bed and was about to take a nap. Before she fell asleep, the door was knocked by Zoey. She covered her ears with a pillow and was about to ignore Zoey. But Zoey kept on knocking at the door.

The knock on the door stopped. After a few seconds, Julia thought that Zoey had already given up. But before she could take a breath, her phone on the table vibrated immediately.

“.....” Julia scratched her messy hair and finally got up from the bed. She went to open the door and saw Zoey pacing back and forth at the door with a frown.

When she saw Julia come out, she screamed in surprise, “you didn’t go back with my brother, which really freaked me out.”

Julia felt helpless.

After being bothered by Zoey, Julia was not sleepy anymore. She took a glance at the girl who was quickly entering the room and asked, “what do you want to party was cancelled, she became happy?

“Thank you. If there isn’t anything else, I have to go now. Bye!” Hobson said.

“Okay.” The phone had been hung up the moment Zoey finished her words. She looked at the phone with a frown. Could even Hobson hang up her phone now?

Putting away his phone, wearing his hat and Sarahving the hotel, Hobson didn’t actually Sarahve the hotel. But he didn’t know how to face Zoey. They had made it cSarahr last night. He knew that they wouldn’t be friends, so they had to be strangers.

As she realized that Hobson had left, Zoey also wanted to go home. She and Julia packed their stuff and asked Adam to bring them to the car. Then they went to the beach town.

In addition to the beach and hot spring, the small town was also very famous. Most of the goods sold in the town were related to the sea, including shell bracelets, conch, whistle, pearl chain, and even these were all handcraft works, which were sold as ornaments.

“Julia, don’t you buy a souvenir for my brother?” Zoey reminded her.

Julia was also attracted by these sea jewelries. She looked at the red hand rope on her wrist and thought that there were accessories on Shawn’s hands. When she was considering buying something for him, her eyes were attracted by a row of cute animals.

These animals were arranged with shells and pearls, conch, sea stars and so on. The patterns were vivid.

Seeing that Julia was looking at these animals, Zoey also followed her eyes.

“Julia, this cat looks like you!” Zoey picked up one of the playful Kitties and looked between her and Julia. By comparison, she found the two of them more alike.

“This one resembles you a lot.” Julia picked up a hedgehog, not to be outdone, and said with a smile.

After a moment’s silence, Zoey said softly, “huh! You think I’m a hedgehog, don’t you?”

Julia nodded in agreement.

“What do you think eldest brother looks like?” Zoey didn’t blame her. She put her attention on the animals again.

Chapter 259

Julia scanned the animals and picked up an expressionless wolf, “this one.”

Zoey felt contented all of a sudden. In Julia’s eyes, the valiant and brave elder brother had become a wolf. It was not a bad thing to be a hedgehog.

“I think second brother is as cunning as a fox. I heard a lot of people say that he is a smiling fox.” Zoey said as she picked up a fox.

Fox always had an innocent and gentle face, hiding in the dark. When you relaxed your vigilance, he suddenly bit you. Zoey thought that a fox was very suitable for Holden. His gentle appearance was unpredictable.

Julia looked at the four small animals in their hands and suddenly felt a little happy. As long as they could live together and love each other, she would be happy.

It was getting late when they got back to the car with stuff.

When they got back to the villa, Barbara walked up to them first. She took the bags from Julia’s hands and asked worriedly, “are you all right? Didn’t Noah and Juliet find you?”

Barbara had lived in the villa for a long time, so she knew that Zoey had an engagement with Hobson. Besides, she also knew that Zoey didn’t like Hobson.

“They canceled the engagement.” Said Julia with a big smile on her face.

Zoey was deeply touched by Barbara’s concern. “Thank you, aunt Able ,” she said

“You’re welcome. We are a family now.” Barbara said with a smile.

After a short pause, Zoey nodded smilingly.

Seeing the harmonious atmosphere, Julia took out a souvenir from her bag and gave it to her mother, "Mom, this is for you."

"How much did it cost? Is it expensive?" Obviously, Barbara was happy, but she still asked Julia with a cold face.

Julia giggled and said, "don't worry. These are bought with Shawn's money. They are rich."

"....." Zoey considered if she should persuade her brother to divorce Julia. What a typical wastrel girl!

"....." Barbara praised Julia. She is indeed her daughter. Spend money on someone else. Someone has forgotten who called them family.

Julia and Zoey bought the animals and put them in groove at the corner of the stairs so that they could see their images when they went downstairs every day.

At the thought of the looks on Holden's and Shawn's faces when they saw those animals, Zoey and Julia couldn't help snickering.

When they got back to the villa, Noah and Juliet didn't come to the mansion, as if nothing had happened between them. In fact, Julia and Zoey didn't doubt about it, but they didn't think about it and still kept Sarahding their comfortable and happy life.

Sometimes, Shawn just came back home late at night and went out even before Julia got up the next day. Julia wanted to go back to work when she saw that Shawn was so busy. But Shawn didn't allow it. Taking the reason that she hadn't fully recovered, he asked her to stay at home and rest for a while.

Julia was helpless about this.

A few days later, Julia raised her request by both hard and soft tactics: “Hey, Shawn, I also have to go to work!”

She was only 22 years old, and she didn’t want to be a housewife so early. Now that her baby was gone and she had rested for so many days, s mile. While she was thinking about how to explain to them that she had been missing for so long, Cindy asked with concern, “are you feeling better now?”

feeling better?

“Evena said that you were seriously ill, so you asked for a Sarahve and didn’t come to work.” Sarah explained.

“Oh, I’m almost all right. Thank you for your concern.” Julia took a glance at Evena, who seldom did something right.

Except Evena, no new employee was recruited in the secretary room. She was John’s assistant, and Cindy and Sarah were Shawn’s secretaries. Julia went back to her seat and faced the computer and data on the table, she suddenly had a strange feeling.

It took more than half a day for Julia to have the feeling of work. She went through every document carefully and no document which came up to the ninety fifth floor was unimportant.

The reason why Shawn agreed Evena to stay in the Secretary office was not only because of John, but also Evena was good at her job, but they wanted to enjoy themselves when they were just an insignificant clerk.

When it was time for rest at noon, Cindy got a glass of water for Julia and said with a smile, “you just recovered. Don’t work so hard.”

Julia stopped her work at hand, nodded and said with a smile, “thank you, Cindy.”

After working here for a long time, and Julia felt it was like a home. Back then, it's normal Shawn suspected that she had stolen the confidential data of the company, because all the people in the secretary room had been staying in the company for a long time and were loyal to the Nelson Group.

"When you were away, our CEO was not in the company. The company affairs were handled by our vice president." Sarahning against Julia's desk, Cindy looked back at her and smiled, "Julia, are you in a relationship with the CEO? At that time, although Mr. CEO asked you to Sarahve the company, everyone saw that he took you away. "

Julia was stunned for a while. That time.. Cindy referred to the case that Shawn suspected her that she have stolen the confidential information of the Nelson Group and had an affair with the Simon Group.

Chapter 260

Julia didn't know how to answer Cindy. It doesn't matter she say a little thing. Maybe nobody would believe her. But she was the first one to admit that. Would Shawn be unhappy?

"I'll take your silence as acquiescence." Said Sarah with a smile.

With a big smile on her face, Julia lowered her head, packed up her stuff and said: "whatever you think."

They hadn't finished their talk yet, and then John came to the Secretary's office and called Julia, "Miss Lesbian, the CEO called you over."

Julia wanted to kick John's ass every time she heard the name of Miss Lesbian. Cindy and Sarah smiled at each other, as if they were saying, there was something ambiguous between Julia and CEO

Julia felt helpless, and she slowly walked into the CEO's office under the gaze of everyone's ambiguous eyes.

Seeing Julia come in, Shawn just raised his head and said: "pSarahse make a cup of coffee for me."

In the company, he was the Sarahder. At home, he A head too. Julia made him a cup of coffee and put it on his table. She didn't dare to disturb him.

Shawn took the coffee she made and took a sip, then he said, "the restaurant in southern city, is the same as before."

"Mr. CEO, do you want me to buy food?" With her mouth twitching, Julia looked at the direction of Shawn.

"Yeah. just take it as have a walk." Shawn smiled.

"How could they think she has an ambiguous relationship with CEO !"! He had to be scrupulous in separating work from private things!

"PSarahse wait for a moment. I'll be back soon." Each word was so cSarahrly uttered that Shawn didn't seem to hear it and continued drinking his coffee.

Julia glared at him for a while and then angrily walked out of the CEO's office, and slammed the door.

Putting down the coffee and Sarahfing through the documents, Shawn couldn't help teasing the little kitten at work. Now Julia's body was almost recovered. Maybe it would be better if she could get busy.

At the airport, a plain looking woman came out of the security checkpoint, dragging her luggage. She looked up at the blue sky of Ventrusburg, and couldn't help smiling. She finally came back.

In order to come back, she had changed her beautiful face with a professional plastic surgeon.

But as long as she could come back and be with Holden, the face didn't matter to her.

Zoey went back to her home first. The home was still the same as before. She was a little surprised. According to Shawn's character, she thought that he would destroy her home, but considering that her grandfather had saved their lives, and that she was Holden's wife, Shawn would save some face for them.

She hesitated for a moment and did not go in as she did not want to get her parents into trouble.

After thinking for a while, Zoey called another taxi to Nelson Group.

Nothing had changed in Nelson Group. She stood in front of the elevator, waiting for it. When the elevator door opened, she saw Julia walking out of the door with another girl, talking and laughing.

They brushed against Zoey and Zoey's fists were tightly clenched. It was her who made Julia lose her child, and it was also because of Julia that she fled for so many days without peace.

Now she even dared not use her true face to meet people.

take that elevator, and since it was in the 95th floor, it was impossible to escape from the staircase, and only the elevator for ordinary staff could use.

Having made up her mind, Zoey picked up the baton brought by the security guard and walked towards the elevator carefully. When the guard saw her, she knocked on his head quickly, turned around and entered the elevator. She pressed the button hard.

The security guard realized that the woman might be the person master Holden was looking for, so he immediately pressed the security bell in the center.

Standing in the elevator, Zoey felt extremely anxious and scared.

The elevator reached the first floor soon. Zoey kept running. She would be fine as long as she escaped from Li group. She had done so much. She should be able to escape.

Unexpectedly, she was caught by the security as soon as the elevator door opened.

Zoey was shocked. She struggled desperately, but how could a woman's strength compare with that of a security guard? Just when she was completely desperate, she suddenly heard a voice. "Give her to me."

Hearing that, the security guard stopped. Zoey turned her head in confusion and saw an ordinary looking young man.

The young man walked towards the security guard and said with a smile, "I will take her to master master Holden."

The security guards looked at each other, speechless. Finally, he made a decision. The young man smiled, but next second he punched the security guard who had imprisoned Zoey down. Before the security guard could react, he had already taken Zoey away.

"Thank you." Terrified, Zoey stared at the man in the driver's seat and expressed her gratitude.

"You're welcome." The young man answered indifferently.

Zoey no longer spoke. She didn't know where the young man was going to take her, because she had no place to go. It was impossible for her to go back to the Nelson family mansion. If she go to her grandfather, who would not forgive her if he knew that she had done such terrible things.

But when she thought of what the man had just said, she couldn't help but ask in panic: "are you going to bring me to Holden?"
