

Blossoming Her Shielded Heart Chapter 281 – 290

Chapter 281

Standing in the balcony to breathe some fresh air, Julia happened to see Martin walking out of the hospital. He finally chose to Sarahve.

“Enjoying the view?” Someone was holding her waist from the back and the familiar breath came to her. Julia’s head slowly Sarahned back and she could feel who the man was with her toes.

“Yes.” Seeing the thin figure at the gate of the hospital, Shawn replied indifferently.

Julia turned around in a bad mood and said: “Shawn, he’s your brother! What’s wrong with you? “

“It’s his choice and I have no right to interfere.” Prison’s tone was still cold and moody. He looked at Julia’s serious and frowned face, and raised his hand to rub her eyebrows, “silly girl, have you forgotten who wanted to blow up the castle and perish with us? Now you feel sorry for Martin? “

Julia’s cheek bulged up. She still felt that Martin was a poor guy. But there were always hateful things about people who were pathetic. He deserved it.

As far as Julia was concerned, it was inexplicable that Martin hated Holden to such an extent. He could not take control of Holden's life, nor could Holden make Martin homeless. In this case, Holden had been in a passive state.

"Shawn, to be honest, you liked Zoey and Holden more than Martin." Julia turned around, looked up at him happily and said firmly.

Shawn smiled noncommittally and took her hand. "The wind is strong here. Let's go back."

"Yes." Julia nodded and followed him.

Even without a word from Shawn, Julia could feel that Shawn really cared about Holden and Zoey. But she didn't expect that Holden would be so heartless and she didn't want to see him now.

Julia stayed at the hospital to take care of grandmother. Shawn still have some things to be dealt. Although they were on the same floor, Julia still didn't come to Zoey's ward to see her. What Holden had done made her sad.

At Nelson's mansion.

The depressing atmosphere covered every corner of the courtyard. A sharp scream broke the dull atmosphere. "Shawn! What do you mean? "

Juliet looked at the pictures that spread all over the table, almost going mad. The woman in those pictures was herself, and the man was Mike. Every picture was radiant. She trembled all over, and the panic in her eyes was more than that she could believe.

"Zoey is your and Mike's daughter." With Shawn's legs crossed, he looked up at Juliet indifferently and said in a flat tone.

Noah held those pictures in his hand, and looked at Juliet with trembling eyes. "Juliet, you did a good job! Very well! "

He had raised them for twenty years, but none of them was his child, which was hard for Noah to accept. Juliet was so frightened by his cruelty that her lips turned pale.

Suddenly, Noah crumpled the photo into a ball and threw it at Juliet. He roared angrily at her, "you get out! Get out of my house! "

"What Do you really think you have done nothing wrong? Why are you blaming me? " Juliet didn't want to admit her mistake. She also stood up and shouted at Noah.

Without being influenced at all, Bri

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she Sarahrned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

liam didn't know what to say, and what should he say now.

"I'm sorry. I didn't protect Jean well," Facing the old woman, Noah couldn't help but soften his tone. He was afraid that his voice would disturb the old woman's rest.

"Let bygones be bygones." The old woman said in an indifferent tone. It was hard to tell whether he was relieved or angry.

“Shawn still cared about that?” Speaking of Shawn, Noah could not help but sigh. Just now, from Shawn’s eyes, he was obviously wanting to kill Juliet.

The old woman sighed, “I’m also worried about Shawn. Hatred has been lurking in his heart for too long. He can’t give up.”

“He never understood Is the most unnecessary thing in a relationship. “

Noah just listening to her, without cutting in any words.

They did not talk about the past, but talked about something that had happened recently, as if that thing 20 years ago did not happen. It was not because Noah didn’t want to mention it, but it was because grandmother didn’t dare to mention it. He didn’t have the qualifications.

The things twenty years ago would always be awakened again, and they were always placed in front of them. That was the past that Noah could not escape.

“Noah, bring a bunch of lavender when you go to see Jean next time. It’s her favorite flower,” The old woman said softly.

Before the old woman could finish his words, Noah looked at her in disbelief. The old woman Sarahned against the pillow, her eyes slightly closed. She was kind and gentle, and even her breath was slightly fragile.

For a moment, Noah thought the old woman did not exist in the world.

The old woman called his name, indicating that she had forgiven him, all that he had.

After a while, Noah replied, “okay.” He stared at the old lady’s peaceful sleeping face and smiled, “thank you for your forgiveness.”

Before he was forgiven, Noah would never feel relieved all his life. In fact, he hadn't got out of the past, just like Shawn. Shawn was filled with hatred, but he was filled with guilt.

Chapter 282

In a prison.

A woman in rags was hung in the air, with torn flesh and blood all over her body. Her five fingers were smashed, and the blood was still dripping down on the ground.

Blood immediately condensed into ice.

The prison was cold and damp, and even the air was rotten.

“Shawn Go to hell! Go to hell!” The woman mumbled crazily. The torture had taken away all her strength. Her unwillingness and anger could only be transformed into grumble.

There was a sound outside the prison. Juliet difficultly raise her head in the air. Suddenly, a man in a black suit walked to her prison with great grace.

“What a beautiful scene!” Shawn chuckled and clapped his hands elegantly.

“Go to hell! Go to hell!” Juliet struggled in despair. The chain on her body swayed with a heavy clink.

As the light in Shawn's eye darkened, his subordinate immediately opened the door of the prison and whipped the woman hard. The screams were louder and louder.

Juliet coughed violently. Blood oozed from the corners of her mouth, but she still looked at Shawn coldly and muttered, "I will retaliate against you! I must do! "

"Go on." The word coldly came out of Shawn.

Under the torture, Juliet's skin was crumpled into pieces and she felt dizzy for several times. But a few minutes later, she was stimulated to wake up by the pepper water. The wounds were split with flesh and blood, and the spicy pepper water made her feel that pain was all over her body.

She wanted to revenge. Even if she died, she would do it.

Shawn was very patient. He had been standing outside the prison, watching her shriek and struggle, with indescribable pain in his heart. The person he had hated for twenty years was finally punished by him.

Juliet begged for mercy.

"Please let me go. Please let me go Let me go... " Juliet begged, her voice trembling.

"Let me go Please don't kill me I didn't push her. I didn't... "

"Shawn Please... "

"....."

Juliet begged for mercy all the time which made Shawn unhappy. He turned around and left. One of his subordinates asked, "young master, what should we do with her?"

"Let her feel that to live is no better than to die." Shawn said coldly.

One of his subordinates broke out in a cold sweat when he heard Shawn's voice.

Shawn is more ruthless than anyone else when he is angry

It was nine o'clock in the evening when he came back to the villa. Julia and her mother were watching TV on the sofa. Seeing that Shawn was going back, Julia hurried to the kitchen to prepare dinner for him.

Actually she just heated up the meal.

Inside the kitchen, Shawn held Julia who was standing in front of the microwave oven in a warm embrace and gently called her, "kitten." He rested his chin on her shoulder and closed his eyes wearily.

"What's wrong?" Feeling the dissimilarity of Shawn, Julia looked back at him and found that his body was very cold, with the cold outside.

Shawn shook his head, "I'm fine."

For some reason

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she Sarah rned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

t has done a lot of wrong things. Zoey was not my biological daughter. I live like a joke, but I can't blame her completely, because it is my fault. " Added Noah.

Upon hearing this, Julia was a little surprised. Does Noah know that Zoey isn't his daughter now? Then, Julia helplessly curled up her lips again. Even if he knew about it, what could he do? Zoey really wanted to Sarahve the Nelson family.

When Zoey woke up, Holden would take care of her. They would have nothing to do with Nelson family, and Zoey never admitted that Noah was her father.

When Julia was in a trance, she heard Noah's voice again. "I still hope that Shawn can forgive her, but I will not let her step into the Nelson's mansion again."

Julia frowned and thought that she could do nothing even though Noah asked her to Shawn hated Juliet very much. How could he let her go so easily

"By the way, is your mother still in the villa?" Noah suddenly said.

Julia was stunned for a few seconds and then replied: "yes, she will go home in a few days."

"So soon?" Asked Noah in surprise.

"Yes." Julia responded to him with a faint smile.

There was no response from Noah. After a long time, he said, "go to bed early. I have to hang up."

After putting down the phone, Julia could not fall asleep for a long time. Juliet was sent to prison? After hearing this, Julia should be happy, because Juliet once insulted her mother. Hearing Juliet in prison, she should be happy.

However She was not as happy as she thought.

Perhaps she had been relieved a long time ago. Moreover, Juliet was the mother of Zoey and Holden. If Juliet's injuries are severely, Holden and Zoey wouldn't forgive Shawn.

Julia slipped into the quilt. The quilt was dark. She looked at it with her eyes, only to see some black shadows.

Messy and trivial matters flashed through her mind. Her things, Zoey's things, those things or past things, as if they had separated for years, had nothing to do with her anymore.

Chapter 283

As time went by, Julia regained her position and followed Shawn to work every day. She also mentioned what Noah said to her to Shawn.

At that time, Julia couldn't see Shawn's expression and she couldn't figure out if he was disdainful or just accepted it in silence. But from the fact that Juliet hadn't been reSarahsed from prison, it was more likely that he was contemptuous.

Every day after work, Julia and Shawn would go to the hospital to accompany grandma. According to Professor Ding, grandma's condition slowly improved, and she would be discharged from the hospital soon.

Professor Ding said coldly. His granddaughter was killed by Nelson family, so there was no reason for him to be kind to Nelson family. It was said that Professor Ding was ready to Sarahve.

Sarahve Julia was stunned.

“Julia, focus on your work!” Seeing that Julia was distracted, Evena patted her head with the file. It was so hurt that Julia regained consciousness.

“What’s wrong with you again? You look so cute when you are in a daze. ” As she said, Evena pulled out a chair and sat beside Julia. It was 12 o’clock in the noon, which was the time for company rest.

Julia Sarahned back on the soft chair and answered, “nothing.”

“Do you know where Lola is now?” Evena asked curiously.

“Lola...” Julia nodded. She had found Lola for a long time.

“I didn’t expect that Lola is from a rich family.” Evena covered his face with his hands and looked inconceivable. “She is quite famous in Ventrusburg. You are so busy with your own things lately that you don’t know that Lola has become the most popular woman of the king of the underworld. “

“Oh my God! Master. Elmore is so handsome! He looks so charming! That seductive look! My goodness! So handsome! ” Evena shouted as she recalled the scene.

Julia turned around and mourned for John for three minutes.

Before Julia’s distress was over, a scream of pain came from the Evena on her side. She raised her head and saw that John was gloomily standing in front of them, holding Evena’s ears.

Julia mourned for Evena for three minutes.

“Evena, if I heard another man’s name coming out of your mouth next time. I will...” Said John, gritting his teeth with a ruthless look as if he was going to swallow Evena.

As a spectator, Julia leisurely kept quiet and watched the couple tussling with each other.

“I just want to say it.” Evena retorted, not to be outdone.

After a few words, Evena suddenly covered her stomach and went to the bathroom, vomiting towards the white porcelain basin. Seeing this, Julia quickly followed her and reached out her hands to hold her.

Julia frowned and thought why Evena’s symptom resembled her when she was pregnant so much? Maybe Evena is pregnant?

John stood behind them, but didn’t move forward.

Seeing the complicated expression on John’s face, Julia suddenly had a bad feeling. After Evena vomiting, she replied to Julia: “no...”

“.....” It reminded Julia of David. He had something to do with Evena.

“Doe

th a weird smile on her face, she said, “let’s go to the hospital.”

go to the hospital! She would kill them all! Kill them all!

In the past few days, there was always a voice telling her that she killed them all!

The driver was frightened by Juliet’s tone and shivered. In order to get rid of this woman as soon as possible, he sped up.

The car reached the hospital soon. Juliet stumbled out of the car, and the car drove straight away. Immediately, the car chasing after Juliet also stopped. Juliet seemed to know that the driver of the car was coming to take her home.

She entered the hospital in a hurry and took the elevator to the ward at the top of the hospital. She remembered the old woman's room. They all deserved to die! Both Jean and Jean's mother deserved to die!

She wanted everyone to go to hell! Go to hell!

Although Juliet had never come to visit grandma, she knew which ward she was in.

When the nurse saw Julie with her hair disheveled, she dropped the infusion bottle violently. She covered her head and screamed, "ah! Ghost! Ah ah ah ah!"

Juliet looked at the nurse fleeing away in a panic, and suddenly had a hint of unspeakable joy. She laughed and quickly walked into the old lady's ward.

At night, the old woman was still sleeping.

There were two nurses serving the old. When Juliet came in, the two nurses were frightened and screamed again and again, which alerted the security on the floor.

Juliet laughed crazily. She dragged to the bedside of the old woman and pulled the needle on the back of her hand. The nurse wanted to stop her, but Juliet suddenly picked up the porcelain bottle on the table and threw it at the nurse. The nurse was hit to fall.

The old lady on the bed was awakened by the noise. Noticing that she was awake, Juliet grinned fiendishly and pinched her neck. "You old asshole! You wake up?"

“Ahem!” The old woman was choked by Juliet’s words. She could do nothing but watch Juliet’s distorted face getting closer and closer.

Chapter 284

Under the Sarahd of a nurse, the security guards of this floor reached the door. One of them raised his gun and pointed it at Juliet’s head. “Let her go!” he ordered coldly

Juliet turned around and looked at the guard. She grinned. Her face was twisted and ferocious, like a devil that had just climbed out of hell. Her body was covered with large blood, and the wounds were shocking.

“Go to hell! Hahaha! ” Juliet shouted and laughed wildly. Suddenly, she let go of the old woman and the security guard was about to breathe a sigh of relief. Suddenly, Juliet grabbed the water transfusion bottle hanging above her head and threw it at the old woman.

“Bang!” All of a sudden, the whole world fell into silence.

The old woman’s forehead was scattered with broken glass pieces, and the blood seeped from her forehead. Juliet still kept laughing and her face looked fierce. The security guard at the door was holding the gun, smoking, and his hand was slightly trembling.

No one had ever seen how that scene had happened.

“Help her!” Someone shouted in the crowd, and the astonished nurses and doctors rushed in.

At the same time, Julia and Shawn were just about to walk out of the office of Professor Ding and go to the ward to see the elderly. However, before they reached the ward, they saw two doctors and nurses in white coat were pushing two cars passing in front of them.

Shawn stiffened and from the corner of his eyes, he saw the wrinkled hand under the white sheet. He suddenly called, “grandmother.”

“Mr. Li, the old lady...” A doctor came out of the room and explained to Shawn, trembling with fear.

Before the doctor finished his words, Shawn turned around and followed the wheelchair. Julia stood still, looked at the doctor and asked calmly, “what happened?”

The doctor hurried to tell the truth to her.

Juliet hit the old woman with a transfusion bottle, and at the same time she was shot on the head by the security guard.

After saying that, the doctor added, “pSarahse help me tell Mr. Li.” Then he walked away immediately.

Juliet Grandma Julia looked blankly at the end of the corridor, wondering why Juliet was here? She stood there dully for a few minutes and followed him immediately.

At the door of the emergency room, she saw Shawn sitting on the bench, with his hands on his forehead. Julia took a deep breath and walked to Shawn, then sat beside him.

No one spoke first.

After a while, Professor Ding also arrived at the emergency room. He paused when he passed by Julia and Shawn. He glanced at them but soon walked past them.

After a long time, Professor Ding came out, stooped slightly in front of Shawn and said, “sorry, there’s nothing I can do.”

That night, Julia forgot how she came back to the villa and how much wine had Shawn drunk. The sky was so dark that it seemed to fall down, and the atmosphere was too oppressive to breathe.

Time flew for a week.

Noah had come to look for Julia, but he didn't dare to a e disappeared in the darkness.

"If there is nothing else, I will go back first." Julia rubbed her hands and spoke awkwardly.

A few seconds later, Noah nodded and answered absentmindedly, "go back. It's cold outside."

"Take care."

After a few seconds, Noah turned around and looked down at Julia. He called her name with difficulty, "Julia."

Hearing the voice, Julia raised her head and looked at him. It was not until then that she really saw what a man looked like. He looked much older than before, with sunken eyes. His turbid eyes seemed to look at her, but they seemed to penetrate her. Nothing could be seen through.

He wanted to say something but stopped. he said after a long while, "you too. Be careful on the way."

Julia nodded and forced a smile, "bye."

She watched Noah slowly turn around and walk away in front of her. Her thin back was as thin and helpless as a piece of paper in the wind. With her eyes on his back, Julia knew it wasn't Noah's fault. But except for Noah, no one could be blamed.

When Noah was about to disappear in front of Julia, he suddenly Sarahned and fell down in front of Julia. Without hesitation, Julia ran over and lifted him up. “Dad Noah, are you okay?”

For Noah had just touched his crutch. He pushed away Julia’s hand and said, “nothing. I’m fine. You can go back now.”

But Julia didn’t let him go. She held him up and said, “I’ll sent you back to the Nelson mansion.”

There should be no one in the Nelson family mansion now, or Holden was still there. The house used to be filled with noise, but now it returned to desolation.

Though Noah had been rejecting, he still compromised due to Julia’s insistence. After they got on the car, Julia held Noah’s arm and sent Shawn a message, telling him that she will back later because she sent Noah home.

Julia waited for a long time and received no reply from Shawn. She put her phone away.

Shawn probably didn’t want to hear anything about Noah now

Chapter 285

After sending Noah back to the Nelson family mansion, Julia didn’t Sarahve immediately. Instead, she helped him into the mansion.

As Noah’s health was getting worse and worse, the family doctor took him to the bedroom and prescribed some medicine for him. Julia poured him a cup of tea and didn’t gently walk out of the room and close the door until she saw Noah sleeping quietly on the bed.

Noah and Juliet had slept in separate bedrooms a long time ago. There were several bedrooms between their bedroom. As she recalled the memories of the Nelson family, Julia slowly walked to Juliet's bedroom.

She remembered what Mike had said. There was a diary book hidden in a secret drawer on the third cabinet. She glanced at Juliet's bedroom, only to find that it had been cSarahned, most of her clothes had been burnt and sold out in a mess.

Julia stood in front of a row of wardrobes and counted the third. Then she moved the third one a little. She squatted down and knocked the floor with her hands. Sure enough, one of the wardrobes was empty. She slightly trembled her hands and moved the floor tiles away.

There was a wooden box in it. Julia took it out and opened it. There were some pieces of the box and a diary which cover was yellowing. She Sarahned against the bed and sat on the floor to slowly open the box.

This was Mike's diary. He had started writing it after he had an affair with Juliet for the first time.

Mike was originally the driver of the Nelson family. Since Juliet married into the Nelson family, they had always been flirting secretly. At that time, Juliet was pregnant with Noah's child. Although Noah was forced to marry her, Noah seldom slept with her.

When Holden was six years old, Noah insisted on taking Shawn and Jean back. At that time, he had already got the power of the Nelson Group. He determined to divorce Juliet and give her a sum of money to let her Sarahve.

But Juliet threatened him with her four year old Holden, not letting him get a divorce. Before long, Holden was still in a high fever. All the doctors gave up the treatment on Holden, but Juliet didn't give up, because she knew that she could only threaten Noah with Holden.

She and Mike took Holden everywhere to look for doctor, and at last, Holden directly passed out. Although Juliet insisted, in her heart, she also sentenced him to death.

In a poor village, Juliet found Five looked like Holden. She immediately brought the young Five back to the Li family, and threw the real Holden to a farmer house. She did not ask again after giving him a sum of money.

From then on, Five in the orphanage became Holden. And the real Holden became Martin. In reality, a cat became the crown prince.

After bringing Five back to the Nelson family mansion, the relationship among Juliet, Noah and Jean became very intense, but Noah insisted on divorcing her. Since Noah loved Jean so much, he didn't tell her about these conflicts.

Juliet went to argue with Jean on the balcony. At that time, Noah just came to the hall and was re ble to speak.

After a while, Julia took a deep breath and said, "Holden, I didn't expect that you would come back."

"Maybe I am thick skinned enough to stay here after knowing that I have no blood relationship with them. That's why I want to stay here after knowing my real identity." Holden smiled.

Julia turned her head and glanced at Holden's side face His nature was not bad. Maybe he came back for Noah.

If Martin left and Shawn didn't come back, and Holden didn't come back there would only be Noah in Nelson's mansion.

Even though Noah didn't give him any paternal love since he was a child, Holden had always treated this place as his home. And he had always been grateful to Noah and Juliet.

Somehow, Julia believed that even though the Nelson Group would finally be managed by Holden, he would not do anything to Shawn. What Holden wanted was just a sense of security, things which could be his backup.

"How's brother recently?" Holden hesitated for a while, then asked

"He is fine." Julia pretended to be careless, but the anxiety and helplessness in her eyes were bare in front of Holden.

Julia forgot that Holden was better at gauging people's mind.

But Holden didn't expose Julia's lie. He pretended to be calm and said, "well, that's good."

Julia nodded while staring at the sandalwood box. Holden was no stranger to this book as he might have read it a long time ago.

In the park warehouse, when she was about to send Mike out of the Ventrusburg, she indeed saw a figure before she fainted. And Holden knew what Mike had said to Zoey.

She was the last one to know all the truth.

Holden stood up and walked up to Julia. To Julia's amazement, he gave her a hug. She heard him saying, "wish you and brother happiness."

After a few seconds, he reSarahsed her, stood up, straightened his back, picked up the sandalwood box, turned and slowly walked out of the bedroom. Looking at his back, Julia wished him happy in her heart, "Holden, wish you and Zoey happiness."

All of them would be happy one day.

Chapter 286

After Sarahving Juliet's bedroom, Holden took the sandalwood box to the backyard, lighted it and burned the diary. He looked at the rising smoke and whispered, "bye, mom."

Standing at the window, Julia also saw the bonfire in the backyard and the relieved expression on Holden's face. She didn't expect that it was her and Holden who sent the past away one day.

The diary that linked the past with reality finally disappeared. Since then, it had really been the past.

From now on, no one would know what the truth would be.

Julia slightly closed her eyes, letting the autumn wind blow over her face. She was in a trance and her phone suddenly rang. She quickly took it out and answered it without checking who was calling. "I'm going back."

She thought it was a call from Shawn.

"Miss Able , it's me." The old voice from the other side made Julia stunned.

"Professor Ding?" Julia asked with hesitation.

"Yes." Replied Professor Ding.

Julia was confused. Why did Mr. Ding call her?

"What's wrong?" Julia was somehow flustered after she received the call from Professor Ding.

“It’s about your disease.” “I found that there was a kind of poison which was not noticed before contained in the medicine. It is hidden in the brain nerve and will slowly spread. If it is serious, people’s brain nerves will be completely paralyzed. “

“Affected by medicine, people are suffering from mood swings, sometimes happiness and sometimes worry. You showed the same expression in the next check-up. I thought it was caused by hypnosis and medicines. Now it seems that the toxin hiding in the brain began to work. “

Julia was stunned.

“I will Sarahve here in a few days. If you want, you can Sarahve with me. It is difficult to cure this poison with western medicine. I need the Chinese medicine that is not available here. ” Said Professor Ding.

“Why?” Asked Julia. She didn’t understand why this old professor had suddenly asked her to do so.

Professor Ding smiled, “Your family killed my granddaughter. Shouldn’t you compensate me with a granddaughter?” Besides, you have been bothering me to cure Shawn’s arm. This is your only chance. “

Julia was stunned again. She did come to see Professor Ding because of the broken arm of Shawn. But he was so cold to her every time. She thought he had forgotten about it.

After a moment’s silence, Julia replied, “I will think about it.”

“Yes.” Replied Professor Ding.

After talking with Professor. Ding on the phone, Julia’s mind was in a mess. Should she Sarahve here with him?

She guessed the purpose of this professor.

Zoey was killed by a member of Nelson family. As a result, Professor Ding lost his successor. He wanted to find a successor. Julia was stupefied, wondering why this old Professor Ding wanted to cultivate her into his successor?

Julia's heart was beating fast. If she was really able to Sarahn medicine from Professor Ding, maybe she could cure Shawn's arm in the future, then Shawn would be as perfect as before.

Besides She had been in am suddenly called him, "Holden, how's your wound?"

Hearing that, Holden was in a daze. The wound that he referred to was beaten by Noah when he was extremely angry last time.

"Nothing." Without looking back, Holden just shook his head and left the bedroom again.

When Holden walked out of the bedroom, he heard Noah's coughing continuously. Holden paused slightly, but a few seconds later he left straight. There were a lot of things to deal with in the Nelson's mansion.

Sarahning against the bed, Noah felt a little sad. After Juliet passed away, everything was handled by Holden alone, without making him worry.

He could no longer blame Juliet, and he even felt grateful that she brought Holden back. But Holden didn't know that he had always been Noah's pride, because only he had always been with his parents.

Shawn was like the sun. Its own body was shining brightly. As long as there was him, all the eyes were focused on him. His excellence was unparalleled in few people.

Of course, Noah was relieved to see his son like this. In his relief, he could not help but feel somewhat helpless, because his son had never stayed by his side. They hadn't had a good conversation since he was a child.

Since returning to the country, Shawn had been living in his private villa and seldom returned to the Nelson family mansion. It was difficult to see him.

But Holden was different. He was like the moon, gentle and considerate, and never talked back to his parents. Born in a wealthy family, he was never like a spoiled brat.

Since he was so obedient, Noah didn't need to worry about her at all. On the contrary, his disobedient son made him worry.

Her two sons were completely two extremes, one extremely rebellious and the other extremely obedient.

Noah sighed. The Nelson family was completely destroyed. Someone left, and someone was in a coma. Many servants were dismissed. Besides several servants in the huge manor, there were only him and Holden.

It was late autumn now.

Chapter 287

In her dream, Julia saw her grandmother and the baby. They were separated by a piece of transparent paper. She stretched out her hands but was unable to catch them. She could do nothing but watch them slowly getting away from her.

"No!" Julia couldn't help but shouted at them, and then she also woke up.

She looked around blankly. Julia found she had come back to her bedroom, and Shawn was not next to her. Julia had not recovered from her nightmare.

When she woke up, she found that Shawn was not there. She could not help but become a little flustered.

When she was about to call him, she saw a small flame near the window and a smell of cigarette permeated her nose.

Following the light, Julia looked at the direction of the light and saw Shawn standing by the French window. His face became colder in the moonlight. The white smoke he smoked incessantly fell over the ground beneath his feet.

She looked at the cigarettes he lit, but he barely smoked. He lit another one when it was finished.

Seeing this, Julia frowned. Shawn never smoked Julia's heart ached for him.

Shawn must blame himself. If he hadn't done this to Juliet, she wouldn't have gone crazy and she wouldn't go to the hospital. But if it weren't for Noah, Juliet wouldn't have had a chance to enter the hospital.

How to untie the knot in the heart between Noah and Shawn? Twenty years ago, it was also because of Noah that Juliet killed Jean. Now, Juliet had killed Shawn's grandmother because of Noah.

Although Noah was always out of kindness, the fact that he was an accomplice couldn't be changed.

"Why are you up?" He hugged her tightly and the smell of cigarettes immediately overwhelmed Julia.

Though Julia didn't like the smell of cigarettes, for some reason, she didn't have any aversion but felt it pleasant when she smelled the light Cologne on Shawn.

"She just woke up." Julia answered obediently.

Holding her in his arms, Shawn lied on the bed and lightly replied, “good girl, go to sleep.”

“You smoke?” Julia ignored him. She didn’t hate the smell of cigarettes from him, but she still didn’t like to see him smoking.

“Yes.” Shawn admitted that Julia still wanted to teach him a lesson. Her red lips were suddenly covered by Shawn’s. she could only glare at him a few times. The deep dark eyes made her blush. She couldn’t help but close her eyes.

They made love for the whole night.

The sun slanted through the window, and Julia woke up early. No matter how tired she was, Julia couldn’t sleep long. She always woke up on time. Like now, she was completely awake.

She looked up at Shawn, who was also awake. As she looked at him, Julia decisively shrank into the quilt, her heart racing uncontrollably. Julia despised herself in her heart. They were an old couple. Why was she still shy “Kitten, get up.” Shawn’s voice was low, attractive and magnetic. Julia thought she remembered Mr. Ding once mentioned that there was toxins remained in her brain. If not treated in time, the poison would spread and cause brain death.

She needed to be treated as she must live well. When she was cured, she could come back to him and stay with him forever, and she could go nowhere.

Julia had never doubted their relationship, but they really needed time to sort out their thoughts. Whenever they met each other, she wouldn’t think too much, but whenever Shawn was not around, she couldn’t help thinking a lot.

She was afraid that one day, when they faced each other, she would see him force himself to smile, which was not what Julia wanted to see.

“I’m sorry, Shawn.” Julia muttered.

Both of them needed time to breathe and give each other time to adjust their emotions.

After wiping her tears, Julia slowly walked in front of the dressing table. Looking at her red eyes in the mirror, she forced a pale smile, which was totally different from her usual smile.

In fact, even if Professor Ding didn’t mention it to her, she probably wanted to give time to go out alone and take a walk.

Sarahving was Julia’s choice.

As Julia let her hair go in the air, she picked up a comb and started to comb her hair. Her hands seemed to be a bit unfamiliar with the movements of the comb. Usually, Shawn would comb for her, but this time, she was more unfamiliar with the comb.

Since her pregnancy, she had been more and more dependent on Shawn, and she had been estranged from many things.

It would be a long time later that she would not enjoy his warmth.

She might miss her present life and everything about him, but even if she missed him, she would Sarahve.

Holden’s judgement on her was right. She knew what she wanted and knew how to achieve her goal.

Julia looked at herself in the mirror blankly. She held her lips and made a funny face at herself. It was so ugly, but she just smiled.

Chapter 288

When she came out of the bedroom, Shawn had already left. And Barbara was sitting on the sofa in the hall, waiting for her.

At the sight of Julia coming down, Barbara stood up immediately, held her wrist with a frown, and asked with a serious voice, “Julia, did you quarrel with Shawn?”

Julia turned her face away, pushed away Barbara’s hand and slightly shook her head. She was about to walk around Barbara for breakfast, but Barbara grabbed her arm. She turned back and saw Barbara looking at her seriously.

“Julia, there are always some conflicts between a couple. What’s more, Shawn just lost his family. You should be more tolerant.” Barbara said sincerely.

Julia lightly shook her hand off and said helplessly, “Mom, we’re not quarrelling with each other. We just I want to Sarahve for a while. “

“A while? How long? Where are you going? ” Asked Barbara

Julia shook her head and confessed, “I don’t know where to go. I want to Sarahve with Grandpa Ding. He found that the poison that Zoey poured to me contains a poison that could cause people to be paralyzed, so I’ve never been in a bad mental state.”

Barbara looked at Julia with amazement. Julia smiled and said, “I don’t know how long I’ll stay there. Maybe two years, maybe four years, maybe It was a long time. Who knows? “

“Why didn’t Mr. Ding treat you in Ventrusburg?” Asked Barbara, puzzled.

He didn't have the cure for the poison. He needs to study it, so it is more convenient for me to follow him. And perhaps grandpa Ding is still angry with the death of Zoey. After all, Shawn is the man that Zoey loves. " Julia patiently explained to Barbara.

After a short pause, Barbara nodded and said, "then I'll Sarahve with you so that I can take care of you."

"I'm fine, mom. Don't worry. I also want to go for a walk alone." Julia patted Barbara's shoulder and smiled: "I will be back as soon as I am cured."

Barbara shook her head. "You silly girl, you don't have a set time, how can Shawn wait for you? If you meet someone else and will never come back, do you want him to wait for you forever? "

After hearing Barbara's words, Julia was absent-minded for a while. She hadn't thought about that. In her heart, she seemed to be sure that Shawn would wait for her, and no matter how long, he would wait for her to come back home.

"Julia, how about we find other doctors? I don't believe that no one can detoxify you except that old Professor Ding." "No one can tell what will happen in the future, and no one can predict it." Barbara said

As Julia didn't respond, Barbara continued, "mom saw your relationship with Shawn. There are good men in the world and don't miss them. If you miss them, they won't come back again. Have you ever thought that he fell in love with another woman when you left? "

After a moment's silence, Julia smiled at Barbara and said, "I've made up my mind that no matter what will happen in the future, I have to Sarahve. This is my only chanc

In the past, Julia took this contract as the guarantee of all her rights and the weapon to cope with Shawn. This familiar handwriting brought a sense of familiarity to Julia.

This guy. He even hid the agreement for her. Was it because he didn't want to restrict them with this paper? HMM. It seemed that CEO liked her first.

Julia smiled, eyes turning sour and eyelashes wet with tears.

She silently put away the agreement and wrote a letter on the table exclusive to Shawn.

She wished Shawn could wait for her, but she didn't want Shawn to wait for her either. If something happened to her? then she didn't come back?

After finishing her writing, Julia read it a few more times and put the paper on Shawn's desk, relieved.

This was not the first time she left Shawn in this way. The last time, she didn't completely believe in Shawn and thought she could help him and Zoey by sacrificing herself, which made her right arm useless.

But this time, it was different. She did it to make it up this time.

Julia didn't know what his expression would be when he saw all this. Would he be angry? Or just being disappointed? She couldn't guess, just like she couldn't.

But even if she could not guess what was going on, she trusted Shawn unconditionally. Just like now, even if Shawn knew she was going to Sarahve, she believed that he would not stop her.

Julia bit her lips, stood up eventually, gently closed the door and walked out of the study. She reached into her pocket and pinched the contract that made her feel so amused.

It turned out that they were also naive back then

Julia went back to her bedroom and dragged her luggage out. After taking a few steps, she couldn't help but look back at their bedroom. Maybe From now on, she was no longer the mistress of this bedroom

Julia raised up her head slightly and said to herself silently, 'Julia, you deserve it no matter what will happen in the future.'

Chapter 289

It was almost the time that she had made an appointment with Mr. Ding. Julia left from the villa. Barbara wanted to see her off, but she was refused by Julia. She didn't want to bother Mr. Ding, so she just wanted to Sarahve by herself.

Unable to dissuade Julia, Barbara compromised.

She did not let the Nelson family's driver drive, but called a taxi.

As expected, no one stopped her. After she got on the car, Julia took out her phone and dialed Shawn. She hesitated for a long time. At last, she didn't call him.

Julia turned her head and looked out of the window. She wanted to keep this scene in her mind and memorize all the people and things related to this city in mind.

Instead of going to the train station, she went to the hospital first. She found Zoey's ward and pushed the door open. Zoey was still the same. She was lying quietly in bed, like a Sleeping Princess.

Julia sat beside Zoey silently and smiled at her, "Zoey, I hope the next time I see you, You can walk happily in front of me."

“I have to Sarahve here and don’t know when I will come back. Don’t forget me by then.” Julia muttered.

She said a lot, but she finally forgot what she had said.

The roses on the head of Zoey’s bed were bright red roses. The red roses were in sharp contrast with the pale ward, but at the same time, it made the ward more alive.

This must be a gift from Holden. Hobson went abroad. Who else would think about and care about Zoey, except Holden

In the end, Julia tucked Zoey in, stood up and walked out. When she saw Mr. Ding at the door, she didn’t ask him about Zoey’s present condition. Even if she asked, Professor Ding may not answer.

“Let’s go.” Julia smiled.

Professor Ding stared at her for a while and nodded slightly, “let’s go.”

They walked out of the hospital in tandem.

They got on the train smoothly. Julia sat by the window and couldn’t help looking at the moon. She didn’t know what she was expecting.

But at this moment, she really wanted to see him.

The moment the train was Sarahving, she seemed to see Shawn coming out from behind the moonlight platform. However, just for an instant, the train had gone far. Julia was still looking outside through the window.

Although she had been mentally prepared not to cry, she couldn’t help crying.

Standing in the bustling crowd, Shawn watched the train disappear in front of him, but he didn't move his eyes.

She said she was very tired and didn't force her, so he didn't want to force her.

She wanted freedom. He would set her free. He wouldn't stop her if she could be happier by Sarahving him.

He had thousands of ways to make her stay. But if it was just shackles on her, and it was really tired for her to stay, he would rather give up and let her go.

But Shawn was still worried about her. So He sent bodyguards to follow Kat goodbye to him and put down the phone resolutely, totally ignoring Noah's voice on the other side.

After ending the call, Barbara sat on the sofa. Not far away from her, Maria wanted to say something but didn't know how to start. She looked at Barbara sorrowfully.

"Didn't Master come back last night?" Barbara turned to ask Maria.

Maria frowned and nodded.

Barbara took a deep breath. She didn't know whether Julia's decision was right or not. Although Shawn was a nice person, no one would wait for a person without a deadline.

What's more, Shawn was outstanding. He had many girls around.

Julia, I hoped that you was right. Barbara sighed and stood up. When she walked to the door, she couldn't help telling Maria, "Maria, take good care of the young master. I'm Sarahving now."

Maria nodded sadly and slowly followed Barbara out of the villa.

Not until Barbara was out of sight did Maria sit still, with tears in her eyes.

What had happened these days was just like a colorful firework, which lit up the sky. The villa once belonged to only the young master. Later, Julia moved in, and then Zoey moved in. It was also a place that Holden often came. And then, both of Barbara and Zoey also lived here.

But now All the people left in the form of birds and beasts, and the noisy villa returned to silence Only Master remained.

Looking around the deserted yard and then at the empty villa, Maria felt depressed. She was the witness of all that happened in the villa. She witnessed the villa growing from silence to lively, and then from noise to silence.

All of this was like a dream, which ended without a reason. When she woke up, there was nothing.

She really missed these days when a group of people laughed and joked with each other, such as cold young master, elegant second young master, innocent little princess and lively Julia. She sighed and turned into the villa.

Chapter 290

At Nelson's mansion.

On hearing the news that Barbara was Sarahving, Noah was about to go to the train station to look for her. When he saw Holden at the door, he stopped. With a frown, Holden asked in a slightly worried tone, "where are you going?"

“The train station. Julia’s mother is going back to town. I’ll see her off.” With guilty conscience, Noah said this. Holden nodded gently and smiled at him. “Go and find her back. The Nelson family needs a hostess. “

Hearing that, Noah was stunned for a few seconds. He opened his eyes wide and looked at Holden in disbelief.

“Life doesn’t last long. What’s in the past is in the past. I hope you can see the future and pursue your own happiness.” Holden’s tone was not hasty but gentle.

A few minutes later, Noah came to his senses and took Holden’s hand. A man nearly 50 years old could not help but sob, “Holden. Thank you. “

It didn’t matter who was right and who was wrong in the past. Now every second was more precious than anything.

“Nothing.” Holden smiled, “Daddy, come on!”

Noah nodded and quickly turned around and left. Holden went straight into the Nelson mansion.

Many servants had been dismissed by him. There were only a few gardeners left in the huge manor, and there was only a butler in it.

Holden walked around the backyard alone and walked into the bamboo grove that he and Zoey liked. He sat on the swing that Zoey once liked very much. He raised his head and the sun was blocked by the bamboos covering the sun. Mottled dust was scattered on the cobblestone floor. The spring in the distance was quiet and beautiful.

“Master, Miss Able ‘s train has arrived in B city. They went to the train station but we lost it.” Vivek’s report brought back Holden’s mind.

Holden nodded, “it doesn’t matter. You can Sarahve now.”

Vivek obeyed and withdrew.

Perhaps, Julia didn't know Holden was the first man who guessed she would Sarahve first. Because of Zoey's condition, Holden had talked to Mr. Ding, who accepted but hadn't prescribed medicine for Zoey.

"It depends on fate whether she can wake up or not," said Mr. Ding. Holden still remembered what Professor Ding had just said

His perfunctory reply made Holden understand that he said that on purpose. He knew that the Nelson family had something to do with Zoey's death and he would not treat the Nelson family.

There was no way for him to help. Holden couldn't threaten Professor Ding with that.

When he left, he happened to see Julia come for Professor Ding. They were talking while walking in the corridor. Julia was coming for Professor Ding for Shawn's arm. From the words, he knew that Professor Ding wanted to take Julia as his student.

He believed that Julia would agree when Professor Ding proposed.

Sure enough, when he received her message yesterday, he knew that Julia was Sarahving.

"Sister-in-law, I can only drive you here. You have to walk the rest of the way on your own," said Holden, looking the bamboo Sarahves leisurely Because no one could help you on your way.

After staying in the bamboo forest for half an hour, C d to push Noah away.

Noah didn't say a word, nor did he make a concession. They were in a stalemate for a while, and then Barbara threatened viciously, "if you don't Sarahve now, I'll call the police. It's not good for the chief executive of theNelson Group to be trespassed."

"Barbara, I'll stay with you." Finally, Noah made his point.

"What did you say?" Barbara asked in disbelief

"If you don't want to stay in Ventrusburg, I can come here to keep you company. After all, I have been tired of staying in Ventrusburg for a long time. It has fresh air here. It's a good place for nursing. " Noah smiled.

"If you think the air in our small city is good, you can find a hotel to stay. I'm really sorry. Our small shop is not able to invite the old chairman here." A tinge of mockery appeared in Barbara's voice.

"I don't mind." replied Noah quickly

After saying that, he turned around and locked the door when Barbara was in fear.

"....." Barbara was speechless. She turned around and went back to her bedroom, ignoring Noah. Rustling sounds came from outside. Barbara covered her ears and ordered herself to keep quiet and ignore the man.

But after Barbara packed up her things, she remembered that her temperature was very low, and she also remembered Noah's morbid pale face when she saw him outside. She hesitated and walked out with a quilt.

Barbara saw that Noah was sleeping on the sofa with his thin body almost curled up. She went over and bent over to put the quilt on him. After a long time, she left in a panic.

After walking a few steps, she suddenly heard the voice of Noah. "Jean.. Bye."

Jean was not only the most important woman in his life, but also the person he felt most sorry for. However, twenty years had passed since Jean left. He could do nothing no matter how much Noah loved him.

Goodbye

Suddenly, a smile tugged at the corners of Barbara's mouth. If Noah really wanted to stay, then just stay. After all, the flower shop was short of a clerk, and it would be no problem if he stayed to help her.
