

Blossoming Her Shielded Heart Chapter 31 –40

Chapter 31

As soon as she returned to the secretary's office, Julia received the message from John that she had to work overtime tonight. She was the only one working overtime in the whole secretary's office. Although she can get overtime pay, it would be a little dangerous for her to work overtime alone.

But Julia had to give up at the thought of Shawn's personality that once he made a decision, it was hard for anyone to change it.

"Do you get used to working here?" John asked with a smile.

"Not bad. People here seem to be very nice. They are not as horrible as you said." Julia remembered the words that John had told to her this morning that the women in the secretary's office are not to be trifled.

"Of course, they are all on a diet and there is no trifle for them." John chuckled.

"John!" Julia gave him an angry stare. Because of his words, she was nervous the whole morning. She was afraid that those colleagues would find fault with her.

John stopped laughing and said, "In the office, don't completely let your guard down because someone have treat you well. Just do your job well and don't think about developing friendship. Love is a feeling of loss. "

Julia nodded. The book of workplace strategy was written in this way.

"As the secretary to the CEO, there are three rules on it. First, don't try to seduce the CEO. Second, don't have any hope of owning the CEO. "

John paused and glimpsed at Julia, "Third, your work ability must be better than others. You'd better work faster than a computer."

Then John smiled, "Remember."

Julia nodded her head seriously. John patted her shoulder with satisfaction, turned around and left.

After John left, Julia's serious expression immediately collapsed. Although the CEO was very handsome, she should not have any interest in him, should she? But she couldn't help blushing when she thought of Shawn's chest muscle that was exposed sometime. And did she really have no hope of owning Shawn?

The most critical point is how her work could be comparable to a computer. She is even worse than others, let alone the computer.

As much as she thought about it, it seemed that there was no condition Julia could match.

Depressed, Julia went back to her work and began to type on the keyboard.

The office was really quiet. Julia raised her head and looked at the other four people. They were all focusing on work and not chatting. Occasionally chatting with others was about work. It seemed that she was the only one that would be distracted.

“Julia, write a contract for that program and hand it over to me tomorrow.”
Brandon came over with a piece of paper and said to Julia.

Julia looked at the messy relationship on the document and frowned. She knew that the contract needed to be extremely careful and careful, because sometimes, a single word made different meanings.

“Brandon, Julia is still a newcomer. I don’t think it’s a good idea.” A woman retorted.

Julia raised her head and looked at that woman who looked sweet. She was exactly like her name, Sarah.

“I believe in Julia. Afte ate put it away, the old woman seemed to be relieved. She smiled and said,

“Then I can rest assured.”

“Thank you, grandma.” Julia felt guilty, and she also felt heavy.

“Silly girl, don’t say thanks to your family.” The old woman chuckled.

Julia’s heart was weighed down with anxiety. She didn’t dare to look into the old woman’s sincere eyes. Grandma would be very disappointed if she knew that Shawn’s marriage to her was just a show.

No, even if Shawn didn’t want to hide the truth any more, she would never let her grandma know. Some kind lies were more comforting than the truth.

“Alas! If Shawn’s mother was still alive, Shawn couldn’t live so hard these years.” The old woman sighed.

After hearing the old woman’s words, Julia realized that she actually knew nothing about Shawn. She knew nothing about Shawn’s family, and he never mentioned it to her.

It seemed that grandmother was the only family that was admitted by Shawn.

Every word that the old woman said was something she never knew.

“Shawn’s mother must be a gentle, beautiful woman,” Said Julia with a smile.

“Yes, Shawn’s mother was very gentle and kindhearted from an early age. His parents fell in love with each other before his father took over the company and gave birth to the baby. The relationship between his parents is doomed to attract people’s criticism...” The old woman suddenly began to cough.

Julia hurriedly reached out and gently patted the old woman’s back. At this time, Shawn and the old doctor came in. The old doctor skillfully made the diagnosis, letting the old woman lie in bed, and turned to Shan and Julia, “The old woman needs to rest now.”

Shawn nodded, walked to the bed and tucked grandma in before Sarahving with Julia hand in hand.

Shawn and Julia both kept silent on the way.

Julia slightly turned her head, and Shawn frowned with endless melancholy. On a sudden, Julia felt an urge to comfort him. But she thought about it for a while and didn’t know what to say. It must be painful for him to mention his grandmother.

Chapter 32

At the entrance of the hospital, when she was dragged into the car, she didn’t know where Shawn was going. When she was about to open the car door, Julia couldn’t help but ask: “we Where.. are we going? “

Though her tone was feigning to be relaxed, it still sounded a little stiff. Julia was just trying to make herself look relaxed.

“Have a meal.” Said Shawn lightly.

“No, thank you. I’ll eat at home.” Julia giggled.

“To the Nelson’s mansion.” The word “Nelson’s Mansion” was said by Shawn without any emotion.

Julia looked blankly at Shawn and asked: “are you going to meet your father?”

Shawn nodded.

“But I’m not ready yet.” Julia said with a sad face.

“What are you going to prepare?” The prison asked coldly.

“Makeup, clothes and I haven’t been mentally prepared yet!” Said Julia at once.

“That’s good.” Shawn glanced at her.

Julia knew that he wouldn’t care about her anymore, so she decisively took out her cosmetics from her bag and refined her make-up in front of the mirror.

How could she meet his parents so casually? Shawn’s father should not be as easy-going as his grandmother. Therefore, she must be cautious.

After making up, she put the mirror into her bag and just saw the jade bracelet in it. She carefully took it out and looked at the indifferent side face of Shawn.

“Here’s the jade bracelet that grandma give me. Here you are,” she said

With these words, she carefully handed the jade bracelet to Shawn.

“Take it.” Without answering, Shawn said impatiently.

“But...” Julia looked at the annoyed expression on Shawn’s face with hesitation, but still didn’t say anything. She carefully put away the bracelet.

In fact, Julia was curious about Shawn’s family. Why just Shawn went to the hospital to visit his grandma. Didn’t Shawn have a sister and a brother? Or did they just diverge with Shawn every time they went there?

While Julia was anxiously waiting, the car finally arrived at the Nelson’s mansion. Although it was not the first time for her to come here, she was actually more nervous than the last time since she hadn’t seen his family for some reason.

As soon as they got out of the car, a housekeeper came to receive them. Shawn held Julia’s hand naturally. Seeing that the gate was getting closer and closer to her, Julia was more and more nervous, with her palms sweating.

They walked into the hall of Nelson’s house. A woman in vulgar and ornate smiled gracefully at Shawn and Julia when she saw them coming in.

Julia was a little stunned, but she held back her uneasiness. This woman looked familiar to her, as if she had been deeply engraved in Julia’s mind.

“Shawn, you haven’t been home for a long time. Although work is important, home is also important.” The woman said softly.

There was no answer from Shawn.

“Nice to meet you. You must be the woman named Julia that Holden just talked about. I am Juliet, mother of the Shawn.” The wom

Julia looked at him in surprise.

Shawn nodded slightly, “Almost.”

'damn it! Am I the only one who is kept in the dark??' Julia stared at Shawn angrily.

"Why didn't you tell me? When did you know that?" Her questioning tone was beyond the scope of the subordinate to the boss.

Shawn frowned and didn't reply her. He reached out for her waist and forcibly took her into the room.

The atmosphere in the room was infinitely depressed. Julia quietly sat beside Shawn and did not look at Noah.

"Who are you?" Juliet raised her voice and broke the awkward silence.

"Who am I? I'm the one who bit and kicked by you ten years ago. Is that enough?" Not to be outdone, Julia stared at Juliet. She was not afraid. She had no ability to protect her mother ten years ago. But now, she had grown up.

But when you grew up, are you capable of doing things? You are already skilled?

Now, Julia had understood that only power and wealth are the standard for assessment, but she had nothing. If she turned against Juliet now, she would be the one to suffer. But she didn't want to think too much.

Even if Julia did not have the power to protect her mother, she would not let anyone bully her mother again, and she would take everything that her mother had suffered back.

"Are you that woman's daughter?" Juliet looked at Julia in shock

"Yes, your memory is good. It seems that there is no problem with it." Julia smiled, but every word of her had a sting which made her more powerful.

Juliet's face suddenly became ferocious. She stood up and said fiercely, "you can't enter Nelson family. Even if I die, I won't let you come here. Get out!"

Looking at Juliet's ferocious expression, Julia couldn't help trembling slightly. It seemed that time had passed through ten years, and she had returned to that cold winter, which she could never forget.

"I want to go out for a while." Julia turned around her head to Shawn and said to him.

Chapter 33

Shawn hold her hands in his palms. Julia was stunned. Her hand was cold, but she felt secure.

It was as if he was with her that she would not be panic even if the world collapsed.

"Shawn, You can't be with her, absolutely not! She did this intentionally. She arranged all of this!" Juliet's face changed slightly when she saw their intimacy.

"Enough!" Noah, who had been silent all this time, said coldly to Juliet with his face down.

With that, the whole living room fell into silence. Julia lowered her head. She had never thought that she would sit here with Noah like this one day, and she didn't expect that she would have anything to do with him.

Fate is unpredictable.

Without saying anything, Juliet took a fierce look at Julia and then sat back on the sofa in anger.

“Shawn, is it true that you have gotten the marriage certificate with Julia?”
Turning his face to Shawn, Noah’s cold expression softened a little when he looked at Shawn and Julia.

Shawn nodded.

“That’s good. Hehe. ” Noah said with a complicated expression.

“I don’t agree! Shawn, You can’t be with her. ” Juliet was so excited to hear that.

Juliet knew that Julia couldn’t be a member of Nelson’s family. Not to mention Barbara and Noah’s old love, Noah loved Shawn more. Together with Julia, Holden’s status in this family would be even lower.

“You’d better take care of your own business before caring about mine.”
Shawn raised his head and looked at Juliet. His voice was low, but gave a little pressure.

For an instant, the atmosphere in the living room dropped.

Juliet didn’t dare to say anything else. She looked at Shawn timidly, and then turned to look at Noah with grievance. She reached out and held Noah’s arm.

Feeling a little annoyed, Noah pushed Juliet’s hand away.

With an incredulous look on her face, Juliet stared at Noah for a tiny detail.

The atmosphere was a little embarrassing. Julia wanted to escape from this place. She didn’t understand why Shawn wanted her to stay and she might not become his real wife.

After her grandmother died, even if she did not ask for a divorce, Shawn would do the same.

He was a superior CEO, while she was just an ordinary clerk of the chief secretary because of him. How could he choose her to be his wife.

Her position and identity were given by him. As long as he wanted to take them back, he could do it at any time. Julia knew this well. No matter how successful she was in others' eyes, she was always under other people's roof. This couldn't be changed.

"Julia, you can live here in the future. Shawn runs the company very well, and I don't need to worry about it at all. I still live a leisurely life. If you are here, you can play chess with me and chat with me." Noah smiled, and his voice became old. His courage had become smooth with time.

"I'm sorry. I'm busy." Julia answered coldly, pretending that she didn't notice the appeal on Wil her hand generously, pretending that she didn't care it at all.

Noah frowned. When he thought of Julia who was in the alley, he frowned and asked, "Julia, you have become like this?"

"What? Have I become a stumbling block on your road of brightness? Can you pSarahse tell me where you are standing to lecture me?" Julia looked at him and tittered.

"Julia!" Noah growled.

Julia was stunned. She had made mistakes when she was a child, and he spoke to her in this tone.

"Do you think I am still the excellent third class student in my childhood? Do you think I am still that clever and sensible little girl? I tell you, it's impossible." Julia was still smiling, but there was something helpless in her smile.

Staring at her, Noah said nothing.

Under his gaze, Julia felt a little guilty. She no longer saw him as a father, but why was she still afraid of seeing his stern face and hearing his reprimand.

The living room was in dead silence. Julia felt somehow uneasy. Julia turned her head and looked out of the window. The courtyard of the Nelson's mansion was very big. The combination of ancient and modern was perfectly harmonious.

"Does your mother know that you got married to Shawn, Julia?" After a long pause, Noah asked.

Julia was shocked by Noah's words and shook her head subconsciously.

According to Julia's plan, she was about to tell her mother about their marriage. However, if her mother knew that Shawn's father was Noah, she would never agree her to be with Shawn.

She thought she could hide the truth as long as she could, and it would be better if she got a divorce with Shawn, then she could find another man to act in the play. If not, she could tell Barbara the truth.

Hearing this, Noah frowned again. After a long time, he sighed softly.

"Tell your mother as soon as possible. After all, it's about your marriage." It was hard to tell whether Noah said it with emotion or not from his tone.

Julia nodded.

Chapter 34

Then Noah stood up and left. Julia stared at his back as he disappeared from the corner. Her heart was filled with a complicated emotion that she could not solve.

She never thought that she would meet Noah in this way again, and legally, she was his daughter-in-law. Julia couldn't believe what would happen if her mother found out about this. Or Maybe her mother had already had a hunch about it.

After Noah left, she was the only one left in the living room, huddling alone on the sofa. As she took out the jade bracelet from her bag, the exquisite jade bracelet shone with a faint green light under the sunlight.

After she fiddled with the bracelet for a while, Julia suddenly felt a little heavy in her heart. If she divorced with Shawn, would all these burdens disappear, and could she return to the simple and worry free days before.

With so many things happened recently, she felt like in a dream. Her feet floated in the air, unable to touch the ground.

A man's voice came from behind her. Julia turned her head to look at the direction of the voice, and found that Shawn had already sat next to her.

"You like this jade bracelet very much." Said Shawn.

"Of course not." Julia put the bracelet back to her bag quickly.

Shawn reached out her hands and held her naturally. Julia was stiff. Thinking of Noah, she felt embarrassed. Although she didn't relate to Shawn when she was a child, she still felt uncomfortable when thinking of that they once had the same father.

"Don't pretend, there's no one in the room." Julia struggled for a while and giggled.

Hearing this, the man's handsome face showed a trace of dispare. He turned to Julia coldly and said, "in your eyes, we are just acting?"

“Yes...” Julia had meant to answer positively, but she swallowed the following words when she saw the somber look on Shawn’s face. Shaking her head, she didn’t dare to go against Shawn who was more horrible than Noah.

After a while, Julia heard from Shawn, “I don’t like acting.”

Hearing this, Julia’s heart hitched. She had an inexplicable feeling as if she had found a outlet. What did he mean? He said he didn’t like acting, so what he had done to her was not real at all.

If they were not acting, then what was it?

Julia didn’t dare to think further.

Besides, it seemed that Shawn had known Noah was her father for a long time. What was going on? Did he investigate her?

“When did you know about this?” Julia asked cautiously with her head down and her heart beating wildly.

It was not good to be pried on.

“I met your mother ten years ago.” Instead of giving a direct answer to Julia’s question, the man answered himself.

Julia was shocked and stared at him.

“In my father’s office.” He said these words with understatement. Julia’s heart beat fast.

“Don’t be so surprised. I didn’t tell you that your mother must ha h Shawn. She just wanted to take her diary back.

Unable to stand up, she had to stretch her hand out, while her eyes were rolling along the diary.

“Give it back to me!” After a while, Julia was out of breath and shouted at him, but her diary was still in Shawn’s hand.

The calm Shawn contrasted sharply with confounded Julia.

Julia looked at Shawn and gnashed her teeth. Then she seemed to remember something and gave a sly smile. Then, Julia put her hands on the shoulder of Shawn and pressed he against the bed.

“You’re still too young to contend with me!” Julia’s eyes got red and her reason had been thrown to a corner, then she started the queen mode.

The corners of Shawn’s mouth were slightly upward.

Seeing his smile, Julia, who was about to reach out to grab her notebook, froze and her queen aura was frightened by this faint smile. She slowly got her consciousness.

Somehow she felt there was a weird smile on Shawn’s face.

When she came back to her senses, she suddenly found that she had already flung herself on the CEO’s waist, and she was sitting very domineeringly in such a posture

She wanted to hide her face and go away.

“Very active.” Said Shawn, and there was a smile in his eyes.

Her face flushed from red to neck.

“That’s my diary.” Julia tried to be brave and said.

“Yes.” Shawn nodded, indicating that he knew it was a diary.

“I just want my diary back. That’s all.” Julia explained.

While speaking, Julia was still staring at the diary to show that she really had no other meanings.

After glancing at the diary for a moment, Shawn turned around to look at Julia. He pointed at his own face with a touch of flirtation in his dark eyes.

Julia understood what he meant. She mumbled for a while, but then she thought that she had already had intimate contact with him before, so she got down to him with the determination that as if she would definitely die.

Chapter 35

With a trembling voice, Julia left a light kiss on Shawn’s cheek. She quickly turned around and left.

She was going to lie on the bed, but her arm shook and she was almost pressed on the body of Shawn, not to mention getting up. Luckily, Julia had predicted what would happen and raised her head to avoid kissing Shawn.

But Julia didn’t expect something more dramatic would happen later.

She wanted to get up, but she felt the burden on her body increasing at that moment. Then she saw a handsome face enlarged in front of her eyes. She wanted to scream, but before she could do so, her mouth had been covered.

With the tender and tender lips, Julia put her arms around his neck, and murmured something in a flirtatious way.

After the intense kiss, Shawn lowered his head to stare at the woman under him. Her eyes were closed, and her slightly curled eyelashes trembled, like the wings of an angel. Her small face was more attractive than the delicious apple, and every inch of her skin was slightly red.

He curved his lips, gently touched her forehead, and slowly moved down her nose to taste every inch of her exclusive fragrance.

He was not repulsive, and even a little obsessed with the smell.

Julia was like a lamb to be slaughtered, and could only be manipulated by him.

Later, Julia didn't know how she arrived at the restaurant and she felt that she was floating here and there all the way.

Julia didn't want to stay for dinner, but she had to yield to Mr. Shawn.

She was eating silently. The slightly broken lips could not help but feel a slight pain. The thin feeling like silk reminded Julia of what had just happened in the room. The CEO kissed her again.

Before her eyes, a piece of chicken fell into her bowl. Julia silently put it aside and didn't even look up at Noah.

The atmosphere at the table was a little weird. Except for a few words from time to time, they were almost silent. Julia stealthily glanced at the crowd. Juliet only took a few bites and then left angrily. Before Sarahving, she gave Julia a glare.

Julia sneered. From now on, she wouldn't let Juliet hurt her mother again. Even if she had to give up everything, she wouldn't care.

"Sister-in-law, enjoy yourself." Holden smiled and tried to be lubricant on the table.

“Yeah, Julia, eat more.” Looking at the meat put aside by Julia, Noah also barely smiled.

“Thank you.” Julia nodded and thanked him politely.

Shawn said nothing. He sat quietly next to Julia as if there were other people in the room. Nothing could affect him.

Julia peered at Shawn stealthily, and thought to herself: “how could he be so indifferent?” She was so restless that she even didn’t feel at ease while eating.

As if sensing the gaze of Julia, Shawn lowered his head and looked at her too.

As they made eye contact, Julia quickly looked away and began to eat rice in silence.

“Brother and sister-in-law are so ate gloomily knelt down in front of the bathtub and drew circles, when there was another knock on the door.

Julia made up her mind. Anyway, she had to face it and get rid of it sooner or later. Her tense heart relaxed at the thought. She stood up and took a deep breath. Then she wrapped herself in a bath towel and went to open the door.

“Ha ha, sorry for keeping you waiting.” Trying to pass by Shawn, Julia smiled embarrassedly.

But she didn’t expect that the next second, the next second, she was gripped by the hand of Shawn, and dropped into Shawn’s chest.

As alarm rang in her heart, Julia hadn’t been ready yet. PSarahse don’t be in such a hurry, Mr. Shawn? Julia felt like weeping but had no tears.

“There are clothes in the wardrobe. Go and find one and put it on.” Shawn whispered in her ear. Julia was so scared that she couldn’t help but nod.

Shawn smiled, left a shallow kiss on her forehead, and then disappeared in the bathroom.

Julia found that her hands which held the towel were trembling. She felt so complicated.

Boss, pSarahse don’t be so frightening. Julia felt that her heart was going to be heavily tortured by Shawn. He always let her off when she was well prepared and did something when she was unexpected

Alas

Julia stumbled into the CEO’s wardrobe. When she opened it, she blinked quizzically, “are these clothes copied and pasted?”? Why they were all black suits.

The wardrobes were big and even a little larger than the kitchen of Julia’s rent house. But all of them were black suits which made people feel weird.

No, there was another wardrobe nearby. Julia was naturally very bold. She calmly closed the wardrobe and opened another one. Most of the wardrobe was full of shirts and T-shirts.

It was better than all black suits. However, there was no woman’s suit suitable for her. Regardless of anything, she opened all the cabinet that could be opened to have a look. She looked like a robber.

Chapter 36

When Shawn came out in his bathrobe, the cSarahn and tidy room had been rummaged. In the room, a woman in a bath towel dove into the closet. Half of her body was inside and the other half was outside. It is so seductive with her nice ass and slender legs.

“Is that the closet?” There came Shawn’s unhappy voice from behind her.

Julia was startled and accidentally bumped into the corner of the closet.

Julia put down the shoes bitterly she found and lowered her head like a child who did something wrong. She didn’t dare to make a sound.

“You haven’t found the clothes yet?” Shawn looked down at her.

Julia shook her head and whispered, “I’ve been looking for a long time and I don’t find any suitable clothes for me. There are all men’s clothes.”

Hearing that, Shawn’s temples throbbed. He looked up and rubbed his temples. Then he said, “There is no woman’s stuff in my room.”

“But didn’t you ask me to look for clothes in the closet?” Julia tried to defend herself, raising her beautiful face with the words “I didn’t do anything wrong”.

Shawn didn’t want to talk to her anymore. He bent over and picked her up from the ground. Fortunately, the floor in his bedroom was covered with a blanket, and the blanket was spotless. Otherwise he had to force her to wash it again.

“Ah.” With a scream, Julia firmly fell into the arms of Shawn.

In Shawn's arms, Julia didn't utter a word and was obediently put on the bed. Then, Shawn opened a closet, took out a white T-shirt and threw it to Julia, said coldly, "Put it on."

Julia quickly picked up the T-shirt and walked into the bathroom. Actually, Shawn let her wear his clothes. What a misunderstanding!

With inexplicable thoughts, Julia finally dressed the T-shirt.

Shawn's T-shirt was big enough to cover her hip. Julia made two turns in front of the mirror to make sure that she didn't expose her private body parts and then walked out of the bathroom with graceful steps.

Though she had covered her body, Julia still felt very uncomfortable because she was naked under the T-shirt when a gust of wind blew. She felt very strange.

At this moment, Shawn propped up in bed reading a magazine. Seeing Julia, he motioned for her to sleep beside him.

"I still have some work to do. You go to bed first." Julia giggled and walked towards the desk beside the bed.

Hearing that, Shawn frowned and said, "Give me the documents."

Julia was shocked but slowly handed the documents to Shawn. Then Shawn took her into his arms. Julia didn't forget to roll down her clothes, but... It couldn't cover her private parts.

She sat on Shawn's lap. There was only a layer of cloth between their bodies.

Julia lowered her head and Sarahned against Shawn's chest. It was the first time that Julia realized that she was actually very shy. Recently, she had become more and more shy, especially when she was facing Shawn.

In fact, Julia had pushed her out of the quilt with a strong and powerful arm, and her black eyes were filled with coldness.

"My boss, please let me go..." Julia's eyes were covered with a thin mist, and her smooth body trembled because of fear. Her pitiful look was really touching.

Shawn's heart shook. He pushed her away, changed his clothes and left.

The smell of Shawn lingered. Julia moved in Shawn's position, and still blushed. Seeing him walk into the bathroom, Julia was uneasy.

Julia was glad and impressed. She had too many uncertain thoughts in her heart. She dared not do so. If she made a mistake in one step, she would regret for the rest of her life. Although he was bossy sometimes, Shawn still respected her in many cases.

But at the same time, there was also a slight loss in Julia's heart.

Deep down in Julia's heart, she might not refuse to be intimate with Shawn. But she was more rational than sensibility. She knew what she should do and what she shouldn't do.

After lying in bed for a while, Julia got up slowly, wrapped in the quilt, jumped out of the bed, picked up the T-shirt on the ground, and hid herself in the quilt to wear her clothes.

Julia's clothes were not dry yet and she couldn't go out wearing Shawn's T-shirt, so she was sitting on the bed, playing with her phone, depressed.

"Brush your teeth and wash your face." Shawn came up to her and sat down beside her.

Julia lowered her head and glanced at Shawn embarrassedly. Shawn didn't look well.

No man would be happy to be rejected at that time.

"Boss, well..." Julia faltered.

"What?" Shawn also looked at her and held her in his arms.

"Thank you. You are so kind." Julia said seriously.

But when she saw Shawn's face, Julia blushed again.

Shawn stroked Julia's cheek gently with his coarse fingers and said, "You won't be able to escape next time. You'd better prepare yourself mentally."

"....." Julia lowered her head in silence.

Chapter 37

Later on, Shawn let someone bring a dress to Julia, who was finally relieved. She thought that she must store a few suits in Shawn's house, so that she wouldn't be so embarrassed without clothes to change.

The breakfast time was another awkward moment for Julia. If she was given a choice, she would rather face Shawn for all day than face Juliet and Noah for an hour.

"Julia, when are you going to hold your wedding ceremony?" said Noah, looking at Shawn and Julia.

Juliet sniffed. Without being effected by his mother, Holden kept a warm smile and said, "brother, sister-in-law, marriage is not a joke."

Noah nodded.

“Emm.. We haven’t held our wedding ceremony yet. Let’s talk about it next year. ” Julia glanced at the unmoved Shawn and said.

“Why?” Noah frowned.

“You’d better not do that. It’s a waste of money,” Juliet didn’t want Julia and Shawn to have a wedding.

Julia continued to say, “Juliet is right. It’s a waste of money. After all, every penny I spend is earned by his hard work. I will feel sorry for him.”

She was referring to Shawn. Hearing that, Juliet gritted her teeth. She didn’t know what to say to rebut Julia.

“Be quiet.” Noah said coldly.

Being attacked one after another, Juliet was naturally in a bad mood, but she couldn’t vent her anger either. Juliet knew that Julia was not only Barbara’s daughter, but also had another identity. Now she was not only the wife of Shawn, but also the daughter-in-law of Nelson family. And in the Nelson family, the last person Juliet dared to offend was Shawn.

“Julia, don’t say no. I’ll find a proper time to hold your wedding ceremony. Holden is right. Marriage is not a game. ” Then Noah turned to Julia and said in an imposing manner.

“Don’t bother. We’ll solve the problem between the two of us.” Julia smiled coldly and politely.

The biggest reason why Noah wanted them to hold a wedding ceremony was that he wanted to see her mother. But this was Julia’s biggest problem at present. She didn’t dare to tell her mother that she had got a marriage certificate with Noah’s son.

The only thing she could do now was to find a reason and divorce with him. She wouldn't marry Shawn anyway. Love was two people's business, but marriage was two families' business. She and Juliet would never make peace, and she would never forgive Noah.

So, Julia would not be with Shawn.

So she decided to break up with him before it was too late. She didn't want to think about it too much.

"Shawn." Seeing that he couldn't persuade Julia, Noah turned to talk with Shawn again.

Shawn nodded lightly and replied, "I will think about it."

This made Noah unable to say anything more.

When she married to Shawn, Julia never thought that she would one day stand with Shawn in the holy hall and receive everyone's blessings. Because she knew from the beginning that they we the contract prepared by Julia. She didn't say anything bad about the contract. Julia complained in her heart that the contract had been scrutinized by the CEO, so it was definitely perfect.

"By the way, Julia, do you have a close relationship with boss?" Brandon asked suddenly after she closed the contract.

Julia was stunned. She hadn't heard any gossips from these women since she came here. In fact, they didn't fully refuse to gossip.

"No, I just know him." Julia giggled.

Brandon looked at Julia with scrutiny. She knew that Julia was by no means an ordinary woman. No matter how Brandon looked at her, the smile on Julia's face never changed.

Julia had never lost to anyone in this aspect except Shawn.

"I remember that your resume contains the chairman of the Taekwondo club and the chairman of Ventrusburg University Student Union. Good, you are a Sarahder indeed." Brandon smiled, as if she believed what Julia said.

"Thank you. But the title means nothing to you." Julia also smiled.

They chatted a few more minutes before starting to work.

After half a day, Julia was so busy that she almost forgot to have lunch.

Today, the five people in the Secretary Office went downstairs to have dinner together. Since Julia was very talkative, and she could talk with others as long as they could talk, she quickly became familiar with all the other three people except Brandon.

However, the most topic they talked with each other was about work. Julia laughed and chatted with them, but in her heart, she thought the life here was totally different from the life in the branch company.

She and Evena had talked about almost everything with each other. Of course, anthomaniac was the most popular topic of Evena, but it was also a kind of fun. But now, in addition to work, I feel a little bored.

Julia suddenly found that life with Evena was much more fun. Thinking of this, the five walked into the dining room slowly.

Chapter 38

As soon as the five people stepped into the dining room, the noisy dining hall immediately became quiet. Then, those people weirdly looked at Julia, who was sitting together in small groups and discussing something carefully.

Julia was confused by this scene, but she didn't care about it and directly walked into a box with the other four people.

"Brandon, what's wrong with these people today? It's weird." Sarah asked with puzzlement.

"It doesn't matter. Perhaps there is some scandal." Brandon said with a smile.

Julia, who walked at the end of the line, suddenly had an uneasy feeling. As soon as she entered the private room, she heard the sound of Evena from behind. "Julia!"

Julia stopped and looked back at Evena confusedly. She were dressed in simple work clothes. Her make-up was half wiped with sweat. She was out of breath with rare anxiety on her face.

"Damn it! Those photos!" After saying that, Evena breathed heavily again.

Julia's heart was hung in the air, and the other four people also came over with doubts.

Seeing this, Evena apologized to her and took Julia away. They went directly to the balcony of the company. The balcony was secluded and no one would come at this time.

"What happened?" Julia frowned.

"Your pictures with Lola have been posted on the Internet. It has caused a lot of heat discussion." Evena said hastily.

On the other hand, Julia was drunk and couldn't stop blaming herself. Actually, she was popular in the campus and now her nightmare happened naturally. Who the hell was backstabbing her? Mona again?

"Julia, what should we do?" Evena was so anxious that she couldn't even touch the direction.

"I'm fine. I want to go home first. I'm worried about Lola," Julia calmed herself down and said.

Evena nodded and wanted to go with Julia, but she was held down by Julia, "Evena, don't follow me. I will go back."

Then she left Evena and walked quickly towards the elevator. Evena wanted to catch up with her, but she couldn't run away from Julia. He had to follow her slowly.

"It's really her! Oh my God! I didn't expect that she would show up in our company!"

"It's disgusting! They are lesbian!"

"Yes, I'm also confused. Do you think how a woman sleep with a woman? "

Every place had become the breaking point of the rumor. They unscrupulously pointed at Julia. Regardless of that, Julia took a taxi to run away from here to the Zona Residences.

Sitting in the taxi and watching the changing scenery outside the window, Julia couldn't help recalling the incident in college.

The chill spread from the bottom of his heart. Was the past going to be recalled? She became the center of the storm again.

When she returned to the apartment they rented, Julia immediately opened the door, but she didn't see Lola. She ran to her bedroom, where the painting was still there. But it seemed to be a mess, as if someone had broken into their house.

Julia could not help shouting, "Lola!"

No one responded. She rummaged around, but still couldn't find Lola.

t a female homosexual would like men?"

'I didn't want to have a relationship now. Besides, I'm the one who is in a relationship, not Evena. Why is she so excited?' Julia thought.

"That means you are not a lesbian. Wait a minute. Wasn't you in a relationship with Nathan ? Why is there still someone who says so? " Evena asked in confusion.

"So people think me as a freak!" Julia smiled casually.

"Uh." Evena thought for a while and agreed with her.

As a matter of fact, Evena had been working with Julia for a long time, and she didn't think Julia was a female homosexual. She just hated men, and except for that, she was nothing different from ordinary girls.

But why didn't Julia and Lola clarify the relationship between them?

That time when the rumor that Julia was a female homosexual spread, Nathan admitted that he was Julia's boyfriend in public. As a superstar of Ventrusburg University, Nathan exposed his relationship with Julia in public. As a result, this affair became more and more severe, which even almost made Julia and Lola drop out of school.

“Julia, I think Nathan is also a good man. Why did he go abroad that year? Didn’t you have a good relationship?” Evena asked.

Many things had not been figured out yet by Evena. Every time she wanted to ask Julia, she would get a perfunctory reply.. There were many things that were difficult to ask if Julia wanted to tell her the truth.

“Let’s go to find the Lola.” Without answering her, Julia picked up her bag and said.

Evena didn’t want to force her to say anything.

They packed their things and walked down the street to look for Lola.

As it happened in the middle of the night, no one was there, so nobody had seen Lola. For the entire afternoon, neither of them received any useful information.

“Julia, let’s take a break.” Evena were so tired that she collapsed on the stone bench by the roadside. She looked at the back of Julia and shouted.

Julia turned around and nodded. She also sat on the stone chair, without any smile on her face.

Chapter 39

In the CEO office.

“Wow, I didn’t expect Julia to be such a woman.” John stared at the exposed bed pictures on the computer screen and praised.

With eyebrows slightly wrinkled, Shawn pressed the mouse and tapped on the keyboard. The computer screen suddenly turned to black. When it lit up again, those pictures had disappeared without a trace.

“Boss, you are spreading virus?” John asked Shawn in disbelief.

Hearing that, Shawn raised his eyebrows and asked, “what’s your opinion?”

“No, I have no opinion.” John giggled.

“But, do you really believe that she is that kind of person?” Asked John.

“John, I am wondering if I should fire you. These photos are obviously photoshopped.” Said Shawn, emotionless.

John was shocked. He didn’t see anything wrong with these photos, but in the face of Shawn, he could only pretend to be calm and said with a smile, “of course I know, I just ask you, ha ha.”

After casting a glance at John, Shawn stood up and walked to the French window. Then he picked up his mobile phone and made a call.

Looking at Shawn’s straight back, John had mixed feelings. From Shawn’s gesture, Julia was really a bit special to him. There were few things that could make Shawn trouble, and Julia was one of the very few things.

“Boss, here comes Mona.” John hung up the phone and said to Shawn.

Hearing the name ‘Mona’, Shawn’s eyes were tightened. He said in a low voice, “let her in.”

John nodded.

“Brother Shawn, long time no see.” With a sexy dress, Mona staggered towards Shawn.

“Miss Mona, what can I do for you?” Shawn asked politely.

“Actually, I’m here for Julia. After all, no one is fine after this accident. I came here to comfort her, but I didn’t see her in the office. So I came here to see you.” Mona sat gracefully before Shawn, like a sexy black swan.

“Thank you for your concern. I remember that Miss Mona told me something about her last time. Can you make it cSarahr now?” Without look on his face, Shawn looked at Mona quietly.

However, with a question from Shawn, Mona was in a good mood and began to chatter.

John shook his head and thought to himself, ‘if Shawn hadn’t become the CEO, he could have been qualified for the job of an outstanding detective.’.

On the other side, Julia and Evena spent a long time searching for Lola, but they still didn’t see her. In the evening, they went to the police station to report the case.

After they left the police station, Evena wanted to go home with Julia, but she was refused. Julia wanted to be alone, so she might have a clue.

As soon as she got home, she received a call from Lola. Julia had tried to call Lola before, but her phone had been switched off. Seeing that it was from Lola, Julia quickly picked up the phone.

“Lola, where are you?” Julia shouted at the phone.

“Julia.” Lola’s voice was t time. I didn’t take your feelings into consideration. I only took myself into consideration.”

“You don’t have to apologize to me. I also did something wrong. Let bygones be bygones,” The tender and gentle smile on Nathan ‘s face was as gentle as it was.

Compared with years ago, Nathan looked more mature and steady. He was gentle, but also a little sophisticated and domineering.

“Nathan , can you tell me why you came here?” Julia put the glass of water in front of Nathan and asked politely.

“Where is Lola? Isn’t she with you? ” Nathan asked confusedly.

“She was missing, last night.” Julia said lightly. She was a little tired and didn’t want to talk about it now.

Nathan was a little bit stunned, feeling that Julia was impatient, and he didn’t ask any more.

Looking at the calm look on Julia’s face, Nathan couldn’t help but feel a little sad. It had only been two years, and she didn’t have deep feelings for him in her heart. Perhaps from the beginning, she had no feelings for him.

“Julia, what’s your relationship with the CEO of the Nelson Group? Why did you accompany him last time? ” Nathan was still mad at what happened last time, especially the words from Shawn.

Hearing what Nathan asked, Julia was confused. What’s the relationship between her and Shawn? Was it a boss and subordinate, or a couple? Or were they just intimate partner? She thought for a few seconds and replied with a smile, “Nathan , you are more and more good at prattling around. You haven’t answered my question yet.”

Nathan smiled awkwardly and said, “you are the best. It’s not a big deal. I just want to have a chat with my old friend. “

“So it is.” Julia nodded with smile.

Originally, she was very afraid of meeting Nathan or anything related to her past. However, when the past was exposed, in fact, Julia thought there was nothing to be afraid of.

Since things had come to the worst, she was not afraid.

Chapter 40

“You have read the news now. Aren’t you afraid that others will gossip about us if you come for me now?” Julia made fun of him.

“I’m never afraid of the gossip of others. Julia, in fact, I...” Compared with his usual gentle tone, Nathan’s tone was sort of firm. He looked at Julia quietly.

Before he finished his words, he was interrupted by a knock at the door and Julia went to open the door.

This time, it was Shawn.

Julia was just waiting for a while with Nathan, but she was overwhelmed with joy as she saw Shawn.

As soon as Shawn pushed the door open, his face turned even colder at the sight of Nathan sitting on the sofa. Standing next to him, Julia shivered with fear. She took a look at Nathan and then at Shawn, as she thought something bad might happen.

“Nice to meet you, Master. Li.” Nathan stood up and greeted to Shawn naturally.

Shawn nodded. Then he turned around, had a look at Julia, and calmly said: “I didn’t expect to see Mr. Nathan here.”

But his voice didn’t show any ups and downs.

“It never occurred to me that Master. Nelson would come to such a place.” Nathan also replied, with a gentle smile on his face.

One was cold and the other was gentle. Julia could feel the intense lightning and thunder between them. They were overbearing. Each of them had their own temperament.

“Cough, cough. Mr. Shawn, this is my senior schoolmate when I was in college.” Julia, who stood in the middle of them, made some dry coughs and said.

Shawn nodded. He held Julia’s hand and sat down in front of Nathan .

For Nathan , it was undoubtedly a provocation. His face went stiff. But soon, he looked as usual, and there was no gentle sign on his face.

There was an odd atmosphere among these three people, and Julia didn’t know where to start.

“Julia, I’m Sarahving now. I will call you later,” Nathan stood up and looked at Julia with a smile.

Julia nodded, let go of Shawn’s hand, stood up and walked Nathan to the door.

“See you next time.” All of a sudden, Nathan bent over and left a light kiss on Julia’s forehead.

Julia was shocked and pushed him away. Then she felt that she had overreacted and the atmosphere was a little embarrassing.

“This is probably the most intimate action that we have done for a long time in our relationship.” Nathan smiled. A kind of helpless and upset emotion flashed through his eyes. Julia pretended not to see it, said goodbye to him and closed the door.

Julia walked back and saw the coldness and gloom on Shawn's face. She lowered her head with guilt.

Did he see everything at the door just now?

The next second, Shawn stood up and dragged Julia into the washroom. He wiped her forehead with his hand which was just wiped by Nathan . Julia was stunned and thought that this was not what the CEO would do.

“Don't have any dealings with him.” Shawn took o daze.

With a frown, Shawn bent over and looked at Julia's face. This girl was gazing blankly at the vegetable in front of her, with her mouth slightly open. Nobody knew what she was laughing at.

“.....” Shawn spoke nothing. However, he smiled and didn't interrupt Julia who was thinking in face of vegetables.

'how silly she is!'. Shawn thought.

Somehow, Julia had been driven out of the kitchen by Shawn. She then saw Shawn come out with two bowls of noodles, one big and one small.

When seeing food, Julia was not as innocent as before. She stared at the big bowl of noodles. She took the instant action when Shawn put down the bowl, grabbed the bigger one and took a bite.

Yes, it's so delicious! Julia was shocked and let out a satisfactory sigh.

When Julia was about to have a second bite, she suddenly found that the big bowl in front of her had disappeared. Then she followed the direction in which the bowl disappeared and saw Shawn.

Shit! She forgot it was Shawn who cooked the noodles and thought it was Lola. Each time she had dinner with Lola, she would eat a big bowl. Because she had a big appetite, the amount of each meal was two times that of Lola.

“Mr. Shawn, you are so amazing. It’s so delicious even you just made a simple noodles.” Julia said to Shawn with a fawning face, hoping that Shawn could forget her rude behavior.

Shawn glanced at her and saw her flattering smile. Outside of the smile, there was more brilliance in her eyes, especially in that charming smile. He moved his eyes away and naturally put the bowl in front of her and said, “this is yours.”

“Uh.” Julia was a little embarrassed and thought, ‘does Mr. Shawn just want to eat the larger one?’ He didn’t mind her rude behavior?

Julia looked up at Shawn cautiously, only to find that Shawn had taken up his chopsticks to taste the noodles in a graceful and natural manner.
