

Blossoming Her Shielded Heart Chapter 51 – 60

Chapter 51

Julia tried to sleep but couldn't fall sleep. She was on an empty stomach that made her feel bad. She'd better find something to eat.

There were so many dishes on the table, which was enough for Shawn to eat. And there might be leftovers in the kitchen, thought Julia.

Julia tried to shake off Shawn's arms, but he was too strong for her. Julia looked at the ceiling helplessly, took a rest and tried again. Smart as she was, she didn't try to move his arms but slipped out his arms slowly.

It was at this moment that Julia felt well as a thin person.

With all her strength, Julia finally freed herself from Shawn's arms. She wiped the sweat off her forehead and was proud of herself.

Julia squatted beside the bed and looked at Shawn. Well, he was still asleep.

Julia grinned and crept out of the bedroom. There was a light in the corridor. Though it was a little dim, it didn't affect her at all. All she was thinking about now was delicious food.

Julia slipped into the kitchen and hurried to open the fridge, but the leftovers were gone. She looked at the fridge which was filled with kinds of vegetables, but there were no leftovers.

Julia was confused and turned on the light in the kitchen. She looked around but didn't find any leftover.

Depressed, Julia opened the fridge, took out a few tomatoes and washed them before eating them. When she stood there, she felt uncomfortable. She sat on the chair in front of the dining table, while her one leg was put on the table comfortably.

Julia looks very domineering.

After eating one, Julia felt a little bit uncomfortable in her stomach. However, she didn't care about it and was going to eat the second one.

Julia thought about how miserable her life was. She was so hungry that she ate tomatoes at midnight. The autumn wind outside the window was bSarahk. Julia was just like a tree standing in the wind, and her heart was filled with sadness.

"There are dishes in the pot."

A voice came out from nowhere and startled Julia. Her hand which was holding the tomato shook and the tomato fell to the ground.

Julia turned around and saw a tall figure standing at the kitchen door in the dim light that was Shawn. He crossed his hands over his chest and looked down on Julia like a God.

Julia looked blankly at Shawn who suddenly appeared, with a vacant look on her face.

Shawn walked in. Julia looked around and found that she could hide herself behind the French curtains. She immediately ran behind the curtains and her heart was beating in her throat.

How could Shawn wake up? When she got up, she cSahrly saw him sleeping well!

Julia tried her best to calm down.

It was most embarrassed to get caught by an acquaintance while eating furtively. Moreover, the acquaintance not only was the owner of the villa but also was her boss.

Julia prayed that Shawn couldn't find her. Julia kept praying with folded hands. She really hoped that she could move in an instant with her s said that people's mind was the most vulnerable at midnight. Now, Julia felt that she was even more sentimental than the poetess Nelson Qingzhao.

Shawn stepped forward and held her small hand. His hand was warm with fresh air, which made Julia feel a little warm. Julia struggled for a while, but failed. She followed closely behind Shawn with her head down.

The cobblestone beneath her feet made her mind cSahrer and cSahrer. The blood flowed faster and faster, and her body became impulsive.

The moonlight tonight was beautiful, and the big and round moon hung high in the sky like a shiny disc. The fountain in the yard was integrated into the moonlight, rippling out a pool of silver light. Julia felt cold as the wind blew. She shrank her neck.

Seeing this, Shawn reSahred her hand and directly held her into his arms.

They walked at will without any outdoor clothes.

But Shawn's tall figure blocked all the wind. Julia didn't feel cold in his arms.

They made a circle silently and went back to where they were. Their shoes were wet by the dew at night, and the shiny dew was shining under the moonlight. Julia felt a little novel and squatted down to study the dew.

Julia's eyes fell on Shawn's shoes. The quality of his shoes was excellent.

Julia looked Shawn's up and down.

After realizing what she did, Julia quickly stopped and wiped her hands with her clothes. Then, she stood up calmly and said, "Let's go back. I'm very sleepy."

As if she was not the idiot who had done that. Shawn looked at her.

Julia's eyes were bright. In her view, there are good scenery in the whole courtyard. What she didn't know was that. On the way back, Shawn paid more attention to her.

In Shawn's eyes, she was the most beautiful scenery tonight.

Being stared by the eyes of Shawn, Julia felt a little uneasy. She wanted to lower her head, but her chin was held by the man's hand. She was stunned as the face of the man suddenly enlarged.

He kissed her.

Chapter 52

The kiss was more lingering than ever. Against the moon, it was like a beautiful picture. But in the meantime, it was like an oil painting with stared colors and flowers, pouring out her feelings freely and passionately.

Julia grabbed his collar tightly, her face as red as a tomato.

She gritted her teeth and didn't want him to get in, but it only increased Shawn's desire to conquer.

After a little while, Julia put up her hands and surrender, letting his tongue penetrate into her mouth and swept every corner of it. At last, her tongue was rolled up by his.

Julia gave up her resistance completely. She would have collapsed onto the ground if her waist were not held by Shawn. It was a shame to imagine that.

When Julia was out of breath, Shawn reSarahsed her but again blocked her mouth. In the end, Julia was about to faint. She could guarantee that she was not the only one who was not well behaved tonight. Mr. Shawn was also abnormally nervous

When kissing, tears were welling up in Julia's eyes and streamed down her cheeks. When the salty tears melted into their lips, Shawn was a little stunned and reSarahsed her. Julia bit her lower lip, tears keeping running down from her eyes.

"Why do you treat me like this? Is that hypocrisy funny? Shawn, I wish you could stay away from me. You shouldn't have helped me at the first. You shouldn't have given me a towel when I was isolated and helpless; you shouldn't have helped me massage my belly when I felt pain; you shouldn't have stood by my side when I was isolated. You should have let me bear it alone!" Julia's sobs became a crying sound. She looked at him, with crystal tears on her eyelashes. She lowered her eyelashes, with tears pouring down her cheeks.

"I hate you. From now on, we'd better separate! You can fire me. I'll go home and sell flowers with mom. After all, Lola is not here. I don't want to stay here any more. "

“Our world should not have any tangles. It’s my fault. I was wrong from the beginning.”

“Shawn, divorce with me.”

Finally, Julia said, she was still staring at Shawn, the first time she called his name.

Julia had made up her mind to separate with Shawn and help her mother to sell flowers and run a flower shop. Anyway, her mother didn’t expect her to make any big deal. She could still live by selling flowers and helping her mother with part-time jobs.

Julia looked at Shawn, turned around and was about to Sarahve, but her hand was grabbed.

With arms around her waist, he pulled her into his arms. Julia didn’t want to struggle, because she couldn’t defeat him. She couldn’t stop him from doing anything. She always lost the initiative in front of him.

“I don’t agree.” Said Shawn in her ear.

She didn’t care about what was going on in Shawn’s tone.

“If you are worried about grandma, you can rest assured. Even after we get divorced, I will go to visit grandma every day and take her as my grandma.”
Julia sneered.

? Though Julia had thought about it for a long time, she still didn’t have any thoughts. She turned around and looked at Shawn. Then, her phone rang.

Julia was shocked and quickly turned her head away. She was staring at Mr. Shawn. Julia! you are beyond remedy!

Hearing her cell phone ringing, Shawn slowly reSarahsed her. After getting up, Julia looked at the back of Shawn who was getting dressed and hastily hid into the bed, only revealing her two big eyes all over her body.

The boss's body was really good. There was no fat on his waist, and his back was straight. Down Julia didn't dare to look anymore

According to Julia's eyesight, the CEO's body seemed to be better than hers. Although there was no comparison between men and women, the body that Julia had always wanted to pursue was the same shape as Shawn's!

Moreover, the CEO's skin was also very good, with wheat colored healthy skin covering the naked upper body without any spots.

Of course, this was a conclusion made by Julia. She didn't make any comments on the rest part of Shawn's body.

Since Shawn had his back to her, Julia was shocked by his strong abdominal muscles.

Julia, who was wrapped in the quilt, thought Shawn was lucky. She thought that the CEO wouldn't definitely be innocent if only the women in his room were Evena.

Julia had seen Evena attack a man in the street, just because the man looked pretty in the ordinary people. Unfortunately, he encountered Evena with a strong desire, so he was attacked.

While Julia was lost in her thought, she suddenly found that the quilt over her head was suddenly lifted and a faint smile appeared in front of her. Julia was stunned for a second and quickly showed a bright smile. "Good morning, Mr. Shawn."

"Good morning." Said Shawn, who pulled her out of the bed without mercy.

Julia was shocked as she realized that she was hanging in the air. She put her hands around Shawn's neck in a hurry, and her face turning pale.

Chapter 53

Shawn lifted her out of the bed. Julia, still suffering from the shock, held his arm and looked for her shoes on the other side.

She was shocked by this sudden move of Shawn. Julia once again understood that the key to be with the CEO was to have an incomparably strong heart.

Fortunately, Shawn didn't play dirty tricks later. After dressing up, Julia followed him to the restaurant for breakfast.

As for what happened yesterday, Julia dared not to mention it, let alone quarrel with Shawn. She was not that stupid to lose her temper.

That's right. Maria's food is very delicious. Julia continued to eat while Shawn gracefully moved his chopsticks. He, who was unconcerned and frowned, looked at Julia.

"Maria". Called Shawn, putting down his chopsticks.

"Master, what's up." Maria answered quickly.

"Bring miss. Julia's favorite food to the small dining table last night. She could back to this table until she's behaviors reaches the standard of dining etiquette." Said Shawn slightly.

Then, Julia was politely invited back to the small table where she stayed last night.

Julia silently looked at the bowl and a plate of food in front of her, and then turned her head to look at the delicious food in front of Shawn, gnashing her teeth with hatred.

But she didn't dare to show this emotion. She could only quietly and gracefully bite the rice in front of her. She had calmed down, why didn't he let her eat a little better. The more Julia ate, the more depressed she felt.

After breakfast, Julia went to work with Shawn.

Another good thing about living with Mr. Shawn was that she didn't have to take bus or subway when she went to work. Julia also had luxury cars to pick her up. Julia sat on her stomach against the car window, staring outside. She thought for a while and suddenly realized that it was not a bad thing to live with the boss.

Except that sometimes his lust went out of control, he was doing well in the rest of his time.

With Shawn by her side, she didn't have to worry about her work at all. Although sometimes Shawn wouldn't directly tell her where she had done wrong, he was still an indispensable role of guidance for her.

Julia stealthily turned her head to glance at Shawn, who was quietly Sarahning against the seat and slightly closing his eyes. The warm sunlight poured in from the window, and his side face against the light was very angular. He sat there like a perfect God sculpture, with a invincible power in the sun.

This man

Hearing that, Shawn frowned and Julia lowered her head at once. Her heart was filled with a strange feeling. She had never felt this inexplicable sense of satisfaction before, and everything was novel to her.

It was not until the car entered the parking lot of the company that Julia came to her senses. She quickly packed up her belongings and was about to get out of the car. On the other side, Shawn also woke up and took a look

, it was true.

Her position was acquired because of her relationship with Shawn.

“What do you mean?” Julia forced herself to calm down, looked at Lisa and asked.

“You know exactly what I mean. Julia, you are so disappointing.” Then, she walked around Julia and walked up to Brandon and others.

Julia’s feet seemed to be nailed to the ground, unable to move.

After a long time, she turned around and wanted to walk to Brandon and those girls. But when she turned around, she found that everyone had gone.

She didn’t see anyone in the secretary room.

Would Lisa tell Brandon and others about this?

However What she said was true.

Julia walked back to her seat in a daze.

‘what did Lisa see last night

No, last night no one was in this office Julia sat down, with her heart beating rapidly. Where else could Lisa meet her and Shawn besides here?

The scene of last night's kiss suddenly came to her mind. She blushed all over her face and bent over the table in silence. Thinking that Lisa might have seen that scene, she felt more and more uncomfortable.

Why did this happen? Even though she knew that she was in the company, she still did not push him away last night. As long as she pushed him away, Lisa wouldn't see them.

Julia knocked on her head gloomily.

She Sarahned on the table for a while but still felt a little uncomfortable. She stood up and walked to the door of the CEO's office. She hesitated and did not dare to knock.

What would Lisa think if she saw her walking out of the office?

After hesitating for a while, Julia turned around and left.

"What's up?" Behind her came the indifferent voice of Shawn.

Julia was a little stunned and slowly turned around. When she saw him, she felt a touch of grievance.

Looking at her hesitant look, Shawn frowned and pulled her into the CEO office.

Being sensible, John left with the documents. Before he left, he said, "I'll get meals for you."

Chapter 54

The door was closed. Julia lowered her head and stood quietly in front of him.

Julia said nothing and Shawn said nothing, Shawn paced back to the desk and absorbed himself in checking the documents as if nothing had happened.

“Boss.” After a long time, Julia finally called his name.

“Yes.” Shawn didn’t stop writing. He replied indifferently, indicating that he was listening to her.

Julia raised her head and glimpsed at Shawn. She felt so aggrieved when she recalled the scene that he left her alone this morning.

In fact, there was nothing to be aggrieved. Julia felt that the shy feeling in literature that she had Sarahned for four years was expressed at this moment.

“I want to Sarahve the Secretary office and go back to my original position.” Julia said with hesitation.

She had mentioned that before she came to the Department. Now Julia brought it up again.

“Why?” Shawn stopped writing and looked up at her.

Julia lowered her head and said in a low voice, “I’m not capable enough.”

“Are you so timid and self-abased that you even dare not to challenge?” Said Shawn, who stood up and walked towards her.

Julia was a little stunned. She was really not confident in her job. She thought she had self-knowledge, and she didn’t know that these things had become self-abasement in the eyes of Shawn.

“I...” Julia hemmed and hawed.

Shawn pinched her chin with his fingers to force her to look at him. Julia could not match his strength and looked up at him blankly.

He was still cold and handsome, and his dark eyes glared at her, which made people dare not to look straight at him. He looked at her like a king looking at his subjects, and his eyes flashed a trace of pity and pity.

“Don’t disgrace me.” The voice of Shawn was low but powerful.

Julia’s breath hitched. She was in a trance and looked at him blankly.

He said Don’t disgrace him?

“If you are just afraid of being gossip, then prove to everyone with your own capacity. Prove to me. You are not bad.” Added Shawn.

Julia’s heart skipped a beat and nodded, “yes.”

Hearing Julia’s reply, Shawn let go of her chin, swirled on the sofa and said casually, “help me make a cup of coffee.”

After getting the order, Julia made a cup of coffee for him without thinking, and then she put the made coffee before him. She suddenly realized that She was serving him..

Shawn took the coffee and had a sip. Julia looked at him nervously. She didn’t make the coffee, but mixed the material with water.

Seeing Shawn putting the coffee down, Julia was so nervous that she was waiting for further comments.

“Sweet. Add less sugar next time.” Said Shawn slightly.

Julia nodded.

There was other chance?

One occupied the whole sofa, while the other stood in front of a small round table stiffly, one was the emperor and the other was a citizen. They were in sharp contrast.

Julia looked at Shawn in a black r soft ear, gently exhaled by her ear, and then the hot breath drilled into her ear all the way to her brain.

Her brain was completely blank and then she heard a loud bang.

It took Julia a long time to come back to her senses.

Boss, did you pass your English exam? Was a certain distance the distance like this? As soon as Julia came to herself, she thought Shawn's English was not good.

As she was immersed in her own thoughts, Julia didn't notice that Shawn had already put her on the sofa, but he was still sitting next to her.

"Well, I'm going back to work." Julia pretended to be calm, but in fact and smiled.

She stood up and was about to Sarahve.

But before she could stand up straight, she was taken down by a force and slumped into the sofa defenselessly.

"Mr. Shawn, what can I do for you?" Julia changed her crying face into smile when she turned her head to Shawn.

She forgot what had happened just now. She just suffered a loss. It was normal in the commercial field, so there was nothing special about it. Julia, you should keep calm!

Without answering her, Shawn leisurely picked up the financial newspaper on the table.

Seeing his movement, Julia didn't dare to stand up and Sarahve. But she didn't know what to do if she didn't Sarahve.

When Julia was hesitating if she should ask him again, there was a sudden knock on the door.

Julia was delighted and just wanted to open the door. But when she thought of Lisa, her body froze.

Although both she and the CEO were dressed neatly, when Lisa saw her in the office, she must have thought of something

While Julia was thinking about this, the door was pushed open. She was startled and thought, 'is the door unlocked? If someone came in just now Does she still have a place to stay in theNelson Group?

She was trembling with fear at the thought. She turned quietly to look at Shawn, but he was still reading his newspaper without even raising his head

Chapter 55

Julia cautiously turned her head to the door. When she saw it was John, she breathed a sigh of relief. With her back straight down, she was indeed frightened to death.

"Hey." John put a packed delicately wrapped rice basket on the small round table in front of Shawn and Julia and greeted them with a smile.

Shawn nodded and put down the newspaper.

It was a rare chance for Julia to see such a delicate rice basket. She couldn't help stretching out her neck.

"Are you hungry?" Shawn blankly glanced at Julia and asked.

Seeing the exquisite and delicious food, Julia couldn't help but swallow. However, when she was faced with the question, she resolutely shook her head and calmly said: "I'm not hungry. I've had a nice breakfast today."

She was not full, just a little bit for breakfast today! Julia thought to herself.

Without saying anything, Shawn nodded and began to eat, ignoring Julia next to him.

Shawn, one day, I will have a big meal in front of you. I will make you jealous!
"! Julia resentfully clenched her fists and gritted her teeth.

She was sure that he did it on purpose!

In the middle of the meal, Shawn picked up a piece of red cooked pork and looked at Julia who was swallowing. He asked indifferently: "do you want to eat?"

Julia nodded, but then shook her head immediately. She turned her head and looked out of the window, as if she didn't want to eat at all.

"Open your mouth." The cold voice from Shawn got into Julia's ears.

The braised pork was so delicious, and she was too hungry

So Julia looked back and opened her mouth obediently, "aha..."

Shawn smiled with satisfaction. Then he picked up a piece of delicious chicken and put it into Julia's mouth. Finally She ate up all the food left

John stood not far away, turned his head silently and sighed, "Boss, your ability to tame pets is so brilliant!" There was even no leftover in the room. Killing two birds with one stone.

"Does it taste good?" Shawn took out a piece of tissue elegantly and wiped the stains from the corner of Julia's mouth carefully.

Julia nodded happily and smiled innocently, "it's delicious."

She didn't realize that she was eating Mr. Shawn's leftovers.

"Well, go back to work." Shawn nodded and pursed his lips. His stiff face softened when he looked at Julia.

When she heard that she could Sarahve at last, Julia was so excited that she jumped up and bowed slightly to Shawn. "Okay, Mr. Shawn. Goodbye."

As soon as she finished her words, she ran out of the room as if she was afraid that Shawn would back out and take her back.

Seeing that she ran outside with fear, Shawn's face that had just eased down slightly darkened.

When she returned to her office, she found that the office was empty and the other four hadn't come back yet. Julia hastily ran to her seat a Julia was stunned. She didn't mention anything about Lisa, nor did she mention Lisa saw them kissing in the office? How did Shawn know it?

Besides, who is Lee? She couldn't understand what they were talking about at all.

“I’m Sarahving too. See you tomorrow.” Regardless of Julia’s stunned expression, John waved at her.

Julia waved at John and smiled.

After John left, Julia took a look at the empty office and suddenly realized that the CEO was still in the office She was going to stay at a room with the CEO again.

Why did John Sarahve so fast

Julia was sitting on her chair. She wanted to read something to distract her attention, but she kept her eyes on the papers, on which was the shadow of Shawn. He frowned slightly on his cold face and smiled.

“I found a wallet on the roadside and handed it over to the police...” The phone rang in the empty office, which startled Julia who had been lost in various fancies and conjectures.

She took out the phone and saw it was her mother calling.

“Mommy, have you eaten yet?” Asked Julia on the phone.

“Yes. What about you?” Asked Barbara.

“Not yet, it’s going to eat.”

“Are you going to eat with John? How are you getting along with John recently? Are they living together? When are you going to get married? ” Barbara asked anxiously.

John? ‘John?’?

How dare Julia say that she was living with Shawn.

“Emm...” Said Julia in a twinkling of an eye.

It was said that mother knew her daughter best. Hearing Julia’s tone, Barbara asked in a low voice, “are you still with Shawn?”

“No... No! ” Julia denied in panic.

“Julia, I don’t mean to prevent you from being with Shawn. He doesn’t not fit you. I’ve asked a fortune-teller. He is unfit for you. ” Barbara tried her best to persuade Julia.

After a moment’s reflection, Julia asked carefully, “Mom, if I love him, will you allow me to be with him?”

Chapter 56

The other side was silent for seconds. Though it just had been a few seconds, Julia felt that she had been waiting for a century.

“Have you seen his parents?” Asked Barbara.

“Yes...” Julia answered with a lisp.

“Are his parents okay with their personalities? Are you sure you won’t be bullied by them after you get married? ” Barbara asked.

Sure enough, mother didn’t know that Shawn’s father was Noah. His mother was just suspecting. After ten years, Julia’s impression of Noah was somewhat vague, but Barbara remembered it deeply, so she didn’t like Shawn who looked somewhat like Noah.

Moreover, sometimes, the sixth sense of women was horrible. If Barbara didn’t want Julia to be with Shawn, there must be woman’s innate intuition which exert an difference.

Julia didn't know how to answer this question. Should she say directly that Shawn's father was Noah? Then her mother would definitely come and tie her up again.

"Mommy, I met uncle Noah." Julia slowly said.

"....." Barbara didn't respond.

"He is downstairs of the house I rent. He seems to be waiting for you. Every day, I see him waiting at the door..." After a short pause, Julia asked, "Mom, was it because of uncle Noah that you were in such a hurry to Sarahve here? Did you see him? "

Barbara remained silent.

"Mom, if he did that for his difficult speech, can you forgive him?" Julia asked tentatively.

After a moment of silence, Julia heard a firm voice from Barbara. "I will never forgive him."

Barbara's words made Julia's heart sink. What a bottomless abyss.

"Before Juliet came to our house, did you know that uncle Noah had a family? Asked Julia.

Without answering her question, Barbara smiled and said, "it's late, Julia. You can go to have dinner now. I have to go to work. Bye. "

"Mom!" Julia called her, but it was already beep.

Julia looked at her phone with a wry smile and looked out of the window. 'in fact, mom must have known it at that time. After Noah took her to his company, she knew that he had a family.

It was at that time that Shawn saw them together.

Would mom forgive Noah? 'will she forgive uncle Noah? What would her mother react if she knew that she had got a marriage certificate with Noah's son?

A pang of depression lingered in Julia's mind.

"You're out of your mind." Shawn's cold voice came from behind Julia. She was stunned and before she could see who he was, she was held into a warm chest.

Julia raised her head and saw Shawn's sharp, hard jaw.

"You just called your mother?" Shawn Sarahned his head on Julia's shoulder and asked.

Her voice was so cold and emotionless.

"Yes." Julia nodded.

She felt a little uncomfortable because Shawn was behind her. When Julia thought of being seen by others, she felt uncomfortable. Her elbow moved slightly and tried to break the arm around her waist.

Without asking more, Shawn reSarahsed her waist, t m eating, her smile gradually became stiff, and finally became numb.

Shawn! You asshole!

Julia went crazy again and again. Finally, Shawn put down his chopsticks and looked up at her.

Julia kept smiling.

“Come and eat.” Shawn looked at Julia coldly and said.

“Well.” Julia responded as soon as she heard these words, and then she immediately sat down next to Shawn. Julia was so hungry that she wolfed down the food in front of her and forgot all the courtesy.

She ate too fast and almost choked to tears. Shawn frowned and reached out to pat her on the back.

With these thoughts in her mind, Julia looked very sad. She missed the days when she was with Lola more and more. At that time, she could eat whatever she wanted to eat and Lola would also make different plans to serve her stomach.

today is different from that days. She had thought that working for the CEO would bring her something to eat, but the past two days' experience had told her that as long as the CEO was not satisfied with you, he might not even eat anything.

After eating, Julia suddenly realized It seemed that she was eating the leftovers of Shawn again!

What a pervert! How much did the man hate her! Julia raised her head and looked at the ceiling. The ceiling was filled with glazed lights, which almost blind her eyes.

Julia had never thought that she could live in such a luxurious environment, and she had never thought that she would get a marriage certificate with the emperor of Ventrusburg. What was more unexpected was that her stepfather was the emperor's father. Fate was really a magical thing.

Lola, where are you now?

Thinking of Lola, Julia always felt uneasy. Although she knew an artist's act might be a little strange, Lola never hid herself.

She lowered her head and took a rest silently. The CEO who was by her side didn't Sarahve at all, bringing her so much pressure that she couldn't even enjoy a meal

Chapter 57

After dinner, Julia searched online for Lee's information. The Lee group was also well-known in Ventrusburg, and was responsible for the real estate in the suburb.

After a while, Julia twisted her neck and tried to change her rigid face. Then she looked at Lee on the screen and shook her head. She really couldn't understand why Lee didn't agree to sign the contract. After all, it was a very good deal to cooperate with the Nelson Group.

Turning her head, she saw Shawn sitting on the other side of the study, busy with his work.

The study room in this villa was large and they stayed in each side of the room. In Julia's opinion, the room occupied by Shawn was much more spacious than hers.

"Mr. Shawn, why do you have to cooperate with Lee?" Seeing that Shawn also put down his pen, Julia asked hastily.

Lee's arrogance defied against Shawn's cold personality. Julia couldn't imagine that they were both unwilling to give in to each other.

Looking at her, for a moment, Shawn opened his mouth and replied gently, "to prove your ability."

“.....” Julia was speechless. Was Lee’s case taken as an entrance exam in Shawn’s eyes?

Julia knew that she could not get any useful information from Shawn, so she had to go back and continue to study her plan.

“Lee doesn’t like being late or drinking sweet food. Besides, he always pay attention to details.” Said the cold voice from Shawn.

Julia was slightly surprised and turned around to look at him. His eyes were fixed on the documents and he didn’t look at her anymore.

His words assured Julia. At this critical moment, her boss was indeed useful to her. She giggled with joy.

In the evening, though Julia was absolutely reluctant, she went to bed quietly in front of Shawn.

Feeling the steady breath of the man beside her, Julia unconsciously moved to the warm place and slowly closed her eyes. She soon fell asleep.

Perhaps she had been used to sleeping on the same bed with Shawn. At that moment, Julia could fall asleep naturally. It wasn’t like the time she would lost in various fancies and conjectures before sleep.

The next day, Julia made an appointment with Lee. She went back to the company and prepared some documents before she arrived at the place. Lee didn’t like late people, so Julia arrived there half an hour earlier.

To her surprise, Lee was already there waiting for her.

Julia checked the time and was shocked. She did come here half an hour earlier. She realized that it would not be bad if Mr. Shawn told her how long will Lee advance.

Julia checked her clothes and said to Lee elegantly, “Hello, Mr. Lee. I’m Julia from the Nelson Group. Nice to meet you.”

Mr. Lee looked up at her and nodded slightly, sort of greeting to Julia.

Mr. Lee was about 40 years old. He had a strong and tough figure, and there were few words on his face – “successful man”.

Julia looked at Mr. Lee and sat down in front of Mr. Lee with a smile,

“I will go back first.” Mr. Lee stood up and said in a low voice.

“Okay. Be careful on the way.” Nathan said with concern.

Mr. Lee nodded. When Julia saw Mr. Lee facing Nathan, the look on his face was affection.

What’s the relationship between Nathan and Lee?

After Mr. Lee left, Julia also stood up and said: “I have to go now. I still have something to deal with in the company.”

With that, she prepared to leave.

“Julia, don’t you have something to tell me?” Nathan stood up too, looked at Julia’s back and called her in a soft voice.

Julia frowned. Was there anything to talk about between them? It suddenly occurred to her that Nathan had confessed his love to her last time when they met. But she had refused him at that time. They should not be entangled.

“Uncle is a strange person. Even though you have done a good job, he may not agree to sign the contract with you.” Nathan added.

Upon hearing the contract, Julia turned around. She wanted to get the contract, to prove her ability to Lisa, and to avoid humiliating Holden. She must win the contract.

“Nathan , this contract is very important to me. In your opinion, how can I sign the contract with you successfully?” Asked Julia.

Nathan looked at her with a gentle smile and said, “you have talked for a long time. You must be hungry. Let’s go to eat something first, okay?”

She had meant to refuse Nathan ‘s kindness, but when she thought of the contract, she felt a little hungry. After thinking for a few seconds, she nodded.

She didn’t want to be so close to Nathan , not because she hated him, but because she was reluctant to remember the life in the University. Though Nathan didn’t say anything, Julia still felt guilty.

At first, Nathan just wanted to help her, but she drove him away with fierce words. Julia also knew what Nathan had done, but she dared not mention it. The more she mentioned them, the less courageous she was to face Nathan .

Chapter 58

They transferred from the coffee shop to an ordinary restaurant. Compared to the coffee shop, Julia felt that it was more pleasant.

“But don’t you live in Evena’s house, do you?” As soon as she sat down, Julia heard Nathan ‘s voice.

Julia was a little stunned. If he kept paying attention to her all the time, she would also know that she lived in the Shawn’s villa?

“Why do you say that?” Julia put her bag aside and looked at Nathan , pretending to be calm.

Taking a sip of tea, Nathan went through the menu casually while saying, “I went to her house, but she said that you moved out. She didn’t know where you moved to either.”

He just went to see her.

“What’s up? Do you have my number, don’t you?” Julia tried to change the topic.

Seeming to have read her mind, Nathan frowned and asked indifferently, “why do you want to move? Are you hiding from me?”

Julia’s eyes twitched. Why did she avoid him? Although she did want avoid him, she would not do it so obviously.

“How could it be possible? But something happened to me.” Julia giggled.

“What is it?” Nathan asked. He really didn’t like Julia to keep him out of her life. During the University, she hadn’t completely excluded him, but now, he felt that Julia was hiding from him.

Julia put her eyes on the menu and spoke in a low voice: “I don’t know how to say. I just feel a little uncomfortable about Lola’s Sarahving.”

She wouldn’t tell anyone what she didn’t want to say. Julia was good at hiding the truth with various beautiful words, attracting people’s attention to another thing.

“Haven’t you found Lola yet?” Nathan suddenly looked up and asked.

“Yes. She has never come back since that night when Ryan came to see her. Although she sent me a message to explain the situation, I still feel a little strange.” After finishing writing, Julia handed the form to Greyson. At the same time, she stared at him and asked, “Greyson, you work in the Simon Group, right? Have you noticed anything unusual about Ryan recently?”

Nathan thought for a while and shook his head. "I resigned recently. I don't know about him."

"Why did you resign? Aren't you Ryan's friend?" Julia was confused.

"We met in America. We were in the same school. Of course we were happy. We went back to our country soon after we met each other. We stayed at the University for such a long time, but I really didn't know that Ryan was Mona's brother. The relationship between me and Ryan is not as good as you think." Nathan smiled reluctantly.

Julia nodded. Indeed, when they were in college, Ryan didn't come to school very often. She wouldn't greet Nathan and Mona even he came to college. If he was not in a relationship with Lola, if Mona didn't make trouble after his car accident, Julia would not know that Mona was Ryan sister.

The world is so small, their entanglement is not over yet.

She, Lola, Nathan, Mona and Ryan.

The five men were like being tied t heard about his life. Everyone was wondering why the intelligent and talented Nathan would go to America. Nathan was not that kind of rich man. He shouldn't have gone. Later, she heard that during his trip to America, his mother died of illness. In the end, Nathan still didn't see his mother.

Julia didn't dare to face all these things. It was because she didn't know the good people and she was always rejecting Nathan.

The longer time passed, the cSarahrer she saw things. Because the cSarahrer she saw, the cSarahrer she knew what she had done wrong in the past.

Maybe everyone should feel sorry for her at that time, but it could not change the fact that she had betrayed Nathan .

How could she get over all this? If she had been able to calm down and treat the people around her well, maybe this would not have happened and Nathan would not Sarahve. Perhaps, she and Nathan would be good friends.

But now, Julia felt very uncomfortable when she was with Nathan , so she instinctively avoided seeing him.

“I’m sorry.” With her eyes lowering, Julia felt more and more guilty, and she even wanted to bent her back down.

“Julia, I know you feel guilty for avoiding me. But you don’t have to do that. It makes me feel uncomfortable. Let bygones be bygones, okay? ” Nathan smiled and put his hand on Julia’s head.

Julia’s head became stiff. She felt a little uncomfortable.

“But I have...” Julia was still thinking of the past. She might never forgot the feeling of that for the rest of her life.

“I volunteered to do that. You gave me a chance to travel around. Although I had a hard time in America, I just had an unforgettable experience in my life which many people couldn’t experience.” Nathan smiled, as warm and elegant as usual.

Even if he had gone to America for several years, he still had a smell of books deep in his bones.

However whatever an environment he was in, Nathan was still like a undisguised lotus flower, unaffected by anything.

Chapter 59

They kept silent for a while and the dishes had been served. Julia stared at the dishes on the table and suddenly found that her appetite was not as good as she thought.

And... All of a sudden, she thought of Shawn, who was still working in his company. 'Has he eaten yet?'

'Damn it!' Julia hit her head hard. 'How could I think of Shawn who left the leftovers to her every day?'

"Julia?" "What happened?", Nathan asked questioningly seeing Julia.

Julia touched the back of her head and smiled, "I was kind of excited when I thought of something. Haha."

Nathan put Julia's favorite food in her bowl with a faint smile and said, "This is meat, your favorite food."

"Well, how do you know that I like eating meat?" Julia looked at Nathan in surprise.

"Who else eat much meat than you at the student party?" Nathan smiled again.

Julia lowered her head with embarrassment. She felt ashamed at the thought of what happened before. She looked up at the bowl filled with drumsticks and then she was in a trance, how she wished that Shawn could also do that one day.

Compared with Nathan , Nathan was much better than Shawn.

Shawn was born in a better family, was more handsome and more capable. But in other ways, Julia didn't see anything special about him.

Shawn was a vindictive, tricky, arrogant, indifferent, cruel and lascivious man. It was just appropriate to use all the derogatory terms to describe Shawn.

Nathan , who was as gentle as a jade, was the perfect prince in girls' hearts.

“Julia, can you stop hiding from me?” The dazed Julia was pulled back to reality by the voice of Nathan .

Julia was stunned and looked at Nathan .

“If you don't believe what I said before, I'll say it again, 'I like you.'” Nathan looked at Julia seriously and said word by word.

Hearing this, Julia felt suffocated and her heart was softened.

'Is it the best way to make up for Nathan to be with him?' Nathan was a nice person. Julia always believed in him. He was not as cold as Shawn and he was nice to everyone, including to a little animal. He was very gentle.

How should she refuse Nathan 's love?

She refused him before because she didn't dare to face him and wanted to stay away from him.

“I...” Julia hesitated.

“I know you fall in love with someone else, but it doesn't matter. I just tell you my thought. I just don't want these words to be taken as a joke by you anymore. I just want you to know that there is still a person behind you. ” Nathan said with a smile.

Nathan never expected anything from Julia. He just wanted to tell her that he has been there all the time. No matter what happened in the past, now or in the future, he has never left her.

Tears were welling up in Julia's eyes.

Nathan was better than her. He shouldn't be so good to her, so humble.

Nathan has been taking care of her all the time. Why didn't she thought of that he would like her? She had took his kindness for granted. It was lucky that h her stomach was big enough.

Thinking of this, Julia immediately asked the restaurateur to pack the food, in case she would regret it.

After eating Shawn's leftovers, Julia probably knew what he liked to eat or what he didn't like to eat. She packed the food according to his tastes.

"For your colSarahgues?" Asked Nathan .

ColSarahgue? Was Shawn her colSarahgue?

To avoid any trouble, Julia answered, "For a colSarahgue." People in the same company should be counted as colSarahgues.

"Be careful. Let me take it." Nathan took over these doggy bags considerately and said.

Julia was embarrassed to refuse Nathan , and she quietly followed behind him.

Without the guidance of Julia, Nathan knew where the headquarters of theNelson Group was. Sitting in the front passenger's seat, Julia looked out of the window blankly, with the food wrapped for Shawn in her hands. Her heart was in a mess again.

She was insane and masochistic. As an employee, she was not responsible for preparing meals for the boss. However, the boss often asked her to have leftovers. Why was she so kind to pack food for him?

“Here we are.” Nathan’s Sarah voice interrupted Julia’s imagination.

Julia came to the reality.

She found that the car had arrived at the gate of the Nelson Group.

“Yes.” Julia answered and was about to get off the car.

“Wait!” Suddenly Nathan gave a cry. Julia was confused and turned round to look at him.

Nathan approached Julia with a big smile. She looked at him in confusion.

Nathan’s slender fingers gently slid across Julia’s face, which startled her. She was about to avoid his fingers, Nathan got his hands off her quickly. He grasped a grain of rice and smiled, “There is rice on your face.”

Julia was very embarrassed and looked down slightly.

“Focus on your work and make progress every day.” Seeing that Julia was so embarrassed, Nathan smiled and patted her head.

“.....” This made Julia speechless. She was no longer a primary school student

Chapter 60

After saying goodbye to Nathan, Julia walked fast back to the company.

Julia took the elevator and went to the ninety-five floor where Julia had a feeling of empty and luxury. It was time for lunch now, and no one passed by there.

When Julia went back to the secretary's office, she found that the other four colleagues were not there. She breathed a sigh of relief, walked to the door of the CEO's office and knocked.

The door was opened slowly. John sighed silently, looking strangely at Julia, "Good luck for you."

Then John walked past Julia, Sarahving her in confusion.

She entered the office with the food and closed the door carefully.

Perhaps it was just an illusion, Julia felt that the temperature in the CEO's office today was several degrees lower than outside. She was shivering.

Julia turned around and found that Shawn was still working. It seemed that he didn't notice that she had come in. He totally ignored her.

Seeing this, Julia didn't dare to disturb him. She took the food to Shawn's desk, put it down gently, and was about to Sarahve.

When she walked toward the door, Julia suddenly heard a cold voice which was as cold as falling into an ice cellar. "Is it fun to cheat on me?"

Shawn's voice was not loud, but made people feel a strong constriction. Hearing his voice, Julia's steps was too heavy to move.

"What do you mean?" Julia turned around and looked at Shawn wonderingly who was with a grim face.

Shawn hung up his lips and flew into a fury. He slowly stood up, and walked towards Julia step by step.

Every step Shawn took was like stepping on a blazing flame, but the air around him was cold. He came slowly from the depths of hell to Julia.

Julia knew Shawn was angry. She wanted to escape, but she couldn't move as if someone has cast a spell on her.

"You ask what I mean? You had talked about business with Lee. So why were you in Nathan 's car? Julia, do you want me to praise you for your ability? "

Next second, Shawn stood before Julia, and he gripped her chin so hard that she could not help screaming.

As if Shawn had not heard what Julia said, he tightly stared at her. Although Julia didn't think she had done anything wrong, she was still scared when she saw his eyes.

"Shawn, let me go! I'm hurt! " In desperation, Julia called out the name of Shawn.

"You know what pain is?" Shawn smiled coldly and letting go of Julia's chin. At the same time, his strong body tightly kept close to her.

When she was finally able to free her chin, Julia breathed a sigh of relief. But before she could free himself completely, she had been kissed. The back side of her head was tightly locked and she was forced to do what he wanted her to do.

"Ahahah..." With Julia's back against the wall and her han raid" stopped him. Since when had she been able to control his emotions?

Julia lowered her head and slowly told Shawn what had happened.

After that, Julia looked at Shawn's face carefully. Fortunately, this dark face seemed to be softened. Julia sighed and thought that Shawn was so childish. He was an adult now, but he still needed her to coax him

“Is dinner ready?” Julia looked at the lunch box on the table.

Shawn slightly bent down and kissed her lips suddenly, as gentle as feather, to heal the wound he just caused. Julia didn't resist and let him do whatever he wanted.

Such a man...

Was she really willing to Sarahve?

Julia looked into Shawn's eyes and was suddenly enlightened.

While eating lunch, Shawn didn't let Julia go. Julia kept rolling her eyes at him, but he ignored it all.

Julia found that Shawn seemed not to like these dishes either. His reaction was not intense as she had expected.

Well, Making Shawn show other expressions... It may be a little difficult.

Bored and speechless, Julia took a look at Shawn's food, and wondered, 'why is there no meat at all?' She didn't pay much attention when she packed these dishes which are all vegetables.

Then, Julia remembered that she always ate the leftovers full of drumsticks and meat, so she believed Shawn didn't like meat.

'Did Boss Sarahve the food for her on purpose?'

Julia was shocked. She looked up at Shawn who was expressionless and asked, "Boss, do you like these dishes?"

Shawn glanced at Julia and said lightly, "I'm not a vegetarian."

As expected, the dishes she prepared were detested by boss. Julia looked down dejectedly.

It turned out that the delicious meat was left by Shawn on purpose. Thinking of that, Julia couldn't help grinning. She carefully Sarahned against Shawn's chest and took a rest with her eyes half closed.
