

BIG BROTHER 20

HIS WIFE IS THE REAL BIG BROTHER - CHAPTER 20 - AVERAGE

Chapter 20

After such a tussle, the first class was so wasted that the remaining classes were all physics classes that were going to the big classroom, so she didn't go back to the classroom.

In the last month, because some of the senior physics teachers traveled, there were three teachers left for the whole year, so it was arranged for three classes to have a big lesson at the same time.

Before she reached the classroom door, someone called out to her from behind.

A girl wearing glasses ran towards her with a stack of homework books, the class's study committee member.

"Thousand indistinct, where is your math homework?"

Tang Qianzhu walked unhurriedly, without turning around: "Didn't write."

"Huh? You don't write again." Study aggrieved pulling a face, and added: "Teacher Yan is very strict, last time you did not turn in she said, this is your last chance, if you do not turn in this time, the next class, you will not be good."

"Where is the bathroom?" Tang Qianzhong suddenly came to a sentence.

The study committee member froze for a second, then pointed in a direction, "That, over there."

"Thanks." Tang Qianzhong walked towards the restroom.

Not a few steps, I felt someone behind me followed.

She glanced, "Why are you following me?"

"The stairs over there are connected to the wind chasing class, the wind chasing class is basically more boys, they are very immodest, you walk alone, it would be bad to run into them."

Tang Qianzhong stopped walking and looked back at her quietly, the corners of her mouth picked up a smile, "So, you want to protect me?"

The school committee looked at her calm and bright eyes, and suddenly blushed inexplicably.

Tang Qianzhong is obviously a girl, but in her eyes, there is a kind of dashing handsomeness that only boys have.

"I, I don't mean that ....." the school commissioner explained with a low head.

Before the words fell, a teasing whistle came from afar.

The school commissioner turned his head to look, his face instantly redder, and his face anxious, "Thousand indistinct, let's go, they are coming over!"

The first boy unbuttoned the collar of his school uniform, exposing a malnourished chest.

As they approach, the school committee has hidden behind Tang Qianzhong, a face as red as a ripe persimmon.

The boy who showed his chest stared at Tang Qianzhu, smiling slightly lewdly, "transfer student, I heard that you just fought with Lu ÒÒ fish? I'll help you, as long as you promise to do my ....." hey! Hey I am talking, you stand still! Stop!"

The boys were instantly irritated when they saw that Tang Qianzhu did not even give him a glance and walked forward unhurriedly.

The rest of the boys all snorted out a very ungenerous laugh, and only one well-dressed boy frowned.

"Brother Zheng, your teasing technique has met its Waterloo, it's finished."

"Shut up!"

Xu Youzheng looked askance at those few people, then turned his head to the boy next to him and said, "Brother An, this Tang Qianzhong is beautiful, right, I'm not wrong."

Shi Cheng An had a cold face, "Average."

He took a step forward.

Xu Youzheng was confused, that is called average?

The next person reminded him in his ear, "Brother, you forget, our brother An is interested in Feng Chu Chu, you have seen him look at any other girl?"

"That is, Feng Chu Chu is still the key class, this transfer student except good-looking, other than very mediocre, nothing attractive, just a face, look long will be tired, we have to pursue the inner beauty."

Xu Youzheng is still fascinated and does not understand.

A group of people talking and talking, they entered the big classroom.

Shi Chengan walked a few steps faster than them, at this time has been seated next to a girl.
