

Bigoted 101

Chapter 101: Curiosity of a Pubescent Boy

Monday morning-

Qin Shu walked out with her school bag and saw Fu Tingyan waiting at the door with his favorite car.

She walked over, opened the car door, and sat inside.

Fu Tingyan propped his chin up with his hand and saw Qin Shu sitting in the car. He turned his head and saw her lowering her head to fasten her seatbelt.

After fastening the seatbelt, she unzipped her school bag.

Fu Tingyan's couldn't help but glance at Qin Shu.

His mind unconsciously recalled the scene he saw in the gazebo.

Qin Shu took out her notebook and opened it. Seeing that the car didn't move, she turned her head to look at Fu Tingyan in confusion and realized that he was looking at her.

"Why aren't you driving?"

Fu Tingyan glanced at her guiltily because he had accidentally seen that scene last night.

"I was thinking about something just now."

He started the engine and drove away as he spoke.

"Oh," Qin Shu thought of how Fu Tingyan had helped her last night. She said, "Thank you for helping me last night."

Fu Tingyan snorted coldly. "I was just helping my brother, not you."

Fu Tingyan loved his brother, and Fu Tingyu was the person that Fu Tingyan worshipped the most.

Qin Shu smiled unconcernedly. "Helping him is the same as helping me."

" ... "

Fu Tingyan suddenly remembered something and asked, "By the way, did you solve the question you gave to the form teacher last time?"

He had almost thought that Qin Shu had cheated after she managed to solve the form teacher's question.

No one would have thought that an underachiever would be able to solve such a difficult question.

Qin Shu nodded. "I solved it. If you want the answer, I can write it down for you when we get to the classroom."

Fu Tingyan thought for a moment and said, "Okay."

Thinking of the mock exam tomorrow, he glanced at Qin Shu. Would she... do well for it?

Twenty minutes later-

Qin Shu took out a note and wrote down the answer to the question. She rolled it into a ball and threw it on Fu Tingyan's desk.

At this moment, Fu Tingyan was lying on the desk to catch up on his sleep.

Because he had to drive Qin Shu to school every day, he had to wake up almost an hour earlier than before. He naturally had to sleep since he was sleep-deprived.

Seeing the ball of paper in front of him, he roughly guessed that Qin Shu had thrown it. He put the ball of paper into the pencil box and prepared to look at it when he was more awake.

Fu Tingyan had been lying on his stomach from the beginning to the end. If one doesn't look closely, one would not be able to tell that he had moved.

Jiang Yu walked in with his schoolbag on his back. He happened to see Qin Shu throwing the note, and his face instantly darkened.

So the rumors in school were true. Qin Shu had dumped Han Xiao because of Tingyan.

She actually gave him a love letter?

She was really thick-skinned!

Jiang Yu walked in with a dark expression. When he passed by Fu Tingyan's desk, he deliberately glanced at his desk, wanting to see what disgusting words she had written.

He took a few extra looks but did not see the paper ball.

He glanced at the floor again but did not see the ball of paper either.

That was strange. He had clearly seen Qin Shu throwing the paper. How was it gone?

During the form teacher's class.

The form teacher stood on the podium and glanced at Qin Shu who was seated in the last row. She did not believe that Qin Shu had answered the question that day on her own.

She patted the lectern. "The mock exam will start tomorrow. I hope that you all will work hard to get good results. Also, I want to make it clear that for the honor of the class, the school will arrange for the ten worst scoring students to clean the field. The top three students in the entire grade will compete with the neighboring school in a friendly competition."

After saying that, the homeroom teacher looked at Qin Shu. "Qin Shu, you're a repeat student. If you can't get into the top ten this time, you shall also clean the field with them."

Chapter 102: Want to Cheat her of the Scar Removal Ointment?

The form teacher's words made the students who were at the bottom of the class look down with a downcast expression on their faces.

Qin Shu glanced at the teacher indifferently. It had been months since she came for classes. The form teacher had said that because she wanted Qin Shu to clean the field.

Clean the field on such a hot day?

Given her current physique, she might even suffer from heatstroke.

Jiang Yu glanced at Qin Shu, then at Fu Tingyan. He said in a gloating tone, "This time, Qin Shu won't be able to run away from cleaning up the field."

Fu Tingyan glanced at Jiang Yu and didn't say anything. He lowered his eyes and looked at the textbook. Qin Shu had written the problem-solving process for him, and his eyes were full of doubt.

"Oh right, Tingyan, let's go together this time. Let's see if Han Xiao from the neighboring school is a legendary top student."

Fu Tingyan replied with a grunt.

After class-

Qin Shu looked at the exam questions sent by the young professor. This was his way of testing whether Qin Shu had learned anything from his teaching during this period of time.

Just as she was about to start writing, her phone rang.

She took out her phone and saw that it was a call from Qin Ya.

After the call was connected, she heard Qin Ya's anxious voice. "Sis, I'll exchange Linhai Villa for the scar removal ointment. Can you come over?"

Qin Shu said "Okay."

Half an hour later, in the real estate trading center

The air conditioner in the center was turned on. When Qin Shu walked in, the cold air that blew at her cooled her down quite a bit.

Qin Ya was sitting in front of the office desk. When she saw Qin Shu, she waved at her. "Over here."

Qin Shu looked over and saw Qin Ya and Mu Lan sitting in a corner. She walked over and sat across them.

Mu Lan handed the contract to Qin Shu. "This is the contract. Take a look at it first."

Qin Shu glanced at Mu Lan. Since she agreed so readily, there must be something wrong.

She looked at the contract carefully and didn't miss a single word.

After she finished reading, she didn't find anything wrong and felt a little puzzled.

After Qin Shu finished reading the contract, Mu Lan said, “Shu, we’re family. Why would we harm you? If there’s no problem, just sign it and go through the formalities. You still have to go back to class, right? There’s quite a lot of work to do for school nowadays.”

Qin Shu looked up at Mu Lan and picked up the pen beside her to sign the papers.

“Okay, go through the procedures.”

While the staff was going through the procedures-

Qin Ya couldn’t help but ask, “Can I have the scar removal ointment?”

Qin Shu glanced at Qin Ya’s anxious look. She unzipped her backpack, took out the scar removal ointment, and played around with it.

She looked up at Qin Ya and curled her lips. “This will be yours after the formalities are done”

Qin Ya looked at the scar removal ointment in Qin Shu’s hand. It would soon be hers. Now, she just had to wait for the formalities to be completed.

The staff was going through the transfer procedures.

After they were done, they handed the new property certificate to Qin Shu.

“Sis, can you give it to me now?” Qin Ya’s hand was already reaching out impatiently.

“The transfer procedures have been completed. Give the scar removal ointment to Ya.” Mu Lan looked calm on the surface, but she was actually feeling very anxious deep down inside.

Qin Shu’s looked at the new property certificate and then glanced at the staff member. The staff member was a woman who was not even thirty years old. She looked average.

Her cold gaze made the staff member feel a chill running down her spine.

“Auntie, did you miss out something?”

Qin Shu looked at the woman with a smile that did not look genuine.

Being called “Auntie” made the staff member’s expression a little ugly. Perhaps it was because she felt guilty, she looked at Mu Lan and stammered, “It’s already done. “

Chapter 103: The Terrible Consequences of Lying

Mu Lan glanced at Qin Shu and thought to herself, she had obviously been a stupid girl. Why did she suddenly become shrewd?

“Shu, the staff does this for a living. She knows more than you do. She knows if she’s missed out on something. Don’t worry. ”

The staff felt more confident with Mu Lan’s backing. “You’re still a student, right? There are still many things you don’t know about real estate. I’ve worked here for several years, and I have already lost track of how many cases I have handled. Don’t worry. ”

Qin Shu's cold eyes swept over Mu Lan and the staff member. The two people who were swept by her gaze, the guilty ones, couldn't help but feel a chill down their spines.

She chuckled. "You've been working here for several years, right?"

The staff member nodded proudly. "Of course, I'm also an experienced worker here."

"Then..." Qin Shu raised her eyebrows slightly. "Won't you suffer a great loss without this job?"

The staff member asked guiltily, "What do you mean by that?"

Qin Shu stretched out her slender fingers and picked up the real estate certificate in front of her. She raised her fingers with force and threw the certificate forcefully beside the staff's hand.

"You've made a fake certificate. Is this a serious enough crime?"

There was a hint of a smile in Qin Shu's beautiful eyes.

However, this smile was like a deadly knife to the staff member. It was placed on her neck and made her feel cold all over. Her heart trembled. She was afraid that if she was not careful, she would be doomed.

If her superiors find out about the fake certificate, not only would she lose her job, she would also face even more severe punishment.

She had accepted Mu Lan's money because of her greed.

The staff member picked up the property certificate and held it tightly in her palm. Her palm was drenched in cold sweat.

As long as she did not admit it, Qin Shu would not have any evidence to say that she had forged the property certificate.

"I haven't completed the procedures yet. How can you say that it's a fake certificate?"

Mu Lan was dumbfounded. How could a girl who didn't know anything be able to tell that the certificate was missing a seal?

Qin Shu could be lied to easily in the past. She did not even see through those lies and even took them seriously.

Was she really going to have to exchange Linhai Villa for that tiny bottle of scar removal ointment?

Mu Lan's heart was bleeding even before she gave Linhai Villa to Qin Shu.

She had already auctioned off that villa a few days ago.

The auction was to be held tomorrow.

Moreover, the people attending the auction this time were all the richest people in the world. They were ranked very high on the international list of wealthy people.

Because of the location and the unique design of Linhai villa, the bidding price would be more than 100 million yuan.

If Linhai villa was transferred to Qin Shu's name today, not only would Mu Lan not get the money, but she would also have to pay a large sum of money for breaching the contract.

Mu Lan's heart was not only bleeding, but her entire body was cold due to fear.

Qin Ya had been thinking about the scar removal ointment in Qin Shu's hand all this while. The incident made her feel anxious.

She glared at Mu Lan. Mu Lan had thought for such a long time but in the end, she had thought of something that would give her away so easily.

She was not worried about anything except Qin Shu not giving her the scar removal ointment.

Qin Shu smiled and shook her head as the staff member acted shamelessly. "Do you think that taking the real estate certificate back and stamping it is not considered a forgery?"

"You have no evidence and say that I forged it." The staff member was not afraid because Qin Shu had no evidence.

The corner of Qin Shu's lips curled up. She looked up at the camera in the upper right corner of the room that had a flashing red light.

"The camera can't be fake."

The staff member panicked when she heard that. She turned her head to look at the camera in the upper right corner and felt a chill in her heart.

Right, Qin Shu would have no evidence as long as the surveillance video was deleted.

She hurriedly stood up and ran to the control room.

Chapter 104: Your IQ is a Little Low

Just as the staff stood up to leave.

Qin Shu unzipped her backpack, took out her laptop, and opened it. With her delicate hands, she entered a string of complicated code, her movements neither fast nor slow.

She did not seem to be in a hurry at all.

Because even if the other party deleted the surveillance video, she would be able to find it given some time.

The surveillance facilities here and the firewall could all be breached easily by her. She could enter them easily.

In just a few seconds, the video surveillance was saved on her internet disk.

At this moment, the staff member had already opened the surveillance video and quickly clicked to delete the video.

Seeing that the video had disappeared, the staff member felt relieved and returned to the hall. She wiped the cold sweat on her forehead and walked to her desk to sit down.

After what had happened just now, the staff was a little scared. She didn't care about Mu Lan's intentions and took out her stamp. She didn't leave a single spot that needed to be stamped.

Mu Lan only realize then but it was too late to stop her. She had seen the stamp on the property certificate with her own eyes. It meant that Linhai Villa was no longer hers.

Then what about the auction tomorrow?

The staff member no longer felt guilty. She handed the property certificate to Qin Shu, hoping that Qin Shu would leave as soon as possible so that she wouldn't look bad.

"The procedures have been completed."

Qin Shu slowly put the notebook into her backpack and picked up the property certificate in front of her. When she saw that the name on it was hers, Qin Shu, she was a little excited.

She had gotten back the villa that belonged to her mother by herself.

And the company shares.

Although the company was founded by Qin Hai and his mother, her mother had been the one who had provided the start-up capital and managed its operations.

If it wasn't for her mother, given Qin Hai's ability and IQ, he would not have been able to develop the company even if he had the start-up capital.

Although the shares that belonged to his mother in the company were under her name, the control rights were in Qin Hai's hands since she was still a minor.

She would take back all the hard work that belonged to her mother.

Qin Ya reached out her hand again, her eyes filled with anticipation and eagerness. "Sis, can I have the scar removal ointment now?"

Qin Shu kept the property certificate and looked up at Qin Ya. She handed the scar removal ointment in her hand over to Qin Ya.

Qin Ya looked at the palm-sized scar-removal ointment in her hand. She was both excited and a little scared. What if it wasn't enough?

"Is this little scar removal ointment enough?" Qin Ya could not help but ask.

Qin Shu said indifferently, "Of course it's enough."

Mu Lan also came back to her senses at this time. Linhai Villa was gone, but she could not fall out with Qin Shu. She held her daughter's hand and said to Qin Shu with a smile, "We are a family. Why would Shu trick you? I still have something to do, so I will take Ya back first."

After saying that, Mu Lan pulled Qin Ya and left in a hurry.

"Qin Ya, you care about your face so much. You should be more careful in the future. Otherwise, there won't be such an effective scar removal ointment if such a situation happens again."

Qin Shu reminded her kindly at this time.

Qin Ya stopped in her tracks and turned around. Even if Qin Shu didn't remind her, she would still be more protective of her face from now on.

Her fake smile was hidden by her mask. "Thank you for reminding me, Elder Sister. I will definitely take good care of my face."

Mu Lan and Qin Ya left.

Qin Shu picked up her backpack and looked at the staff with cold eyes. She said in the same tone, "There's an official website at the real estate exchange. It's quite lively now. You should join in the fun."

Qin Shu had already walked out with even steps before the staff could even react.

Chapter 105: Liking a Person is Not Wrong

Qin Shu had posted the video on the official website just now. Not only was the video clear, but the sound quality was also very good.

The staff member deleting the video showed that she had a guilty conscience.

When the time came to investigate, it would be even more difficult for her to defend herself.

She had taken bribes and made a fake certificate. She could possibly go to jail.

However, none of this was Qin Shu's concern anymore.

The staff member watched Qin Shu's figure disappear at the door. After a long time, she came back to her senses and hurriedly went on the official website.

She saw the post with the headline 'Taking Bribes and Making a Fake Certificate' as well as the video.

She was so scared that her mind went blank for a second.

How is that possible? She had already deleted the video.

By the way, how did the website find out about this so quickly?

If the video goes public, the top brass will be all over it.

She was done for.

Lin Xi High School

"Young Master Jiang, that country bumpkin, Ye Xue, likes you."

Zhou Yizuo waved a post-it in his left hand and yelled loudly, as if afraid that the other students could not hear him.

Ye Xue flushed and want to take back the note in Zhou Yizuo's left hand.

“Give it back.”

Zhou Yizuo managed to dodge easily because of his height.

“Show me what disgusting things she wrote.”

The students surrounded them one by one.

[The origin of the spring water,

the first blooming of the spring forest,

the spring breeze of ten miles

are not as beautiful as you,

Jiang Yu]

Someone even read it out loud. After reading it, the students burst into laughter.

“She even used a poem to confess her love. Does she think she’s a talented girl? Does she think she’s worthy of him?”

“Talented girl? She’s just a noob. Whether she can get into a college or not is still a problem.”

“She’s ugly and fat. How did she have the nerve to come out and embarrass herself?”

Jiang Yu glanced at Ye Xue, who was the most inconspicuous person in the class. She was indeed very unrefined. She was so unexceptional that if she was thrown into the crowd, she would be invisible.

He turned his head and ignored her.

There were many people who liked him.

If he had to deal with everyone, could he deal with them all?

Ye Xue’s face was flushed red. She didn’t even have the courage to raise her head, let alone look at Jiang Yu’s expression.

This was what Qin Shu saw when she walked in.

She had experienced firsthand the sarcasm of her classmates, so she knew how it felt.

She walked over and snatched the note from Zhou Yizuo’s left hand. She looked coldly at the group of people in front of her.

The classroom suddenly became quiet.

“Is it wrong to like someone? Don’t you all like someone?”

Zhou Yizuo looked at the note in his hand. It had been taken away by Qin Shu so easily. For a moment, he didn’t understand what was going on.

The students looked at each other.

Ye Xue raised her head and looked at Qin Shu, who was usually weak and easily bullied, speaking up for her. For a moment, she was stunned, as if she couldn't believe it.

"Remember every word you said today. Because I'm afraid that you will regret it when the time comes."

Qin Shu moved Ye Xue's desk next to hers in front of the students.

Then, she pulled Ye Xue, who was still in a daze, over to sit down.

The students only came back to their senses at this time. They continued to joke and mocked Ye Xue.

"You're a country bumpkin, yet you're helping the other country bumpkin. It's so funny."

"You're ugly and a bad student. One of you is fat and the other is thin. You two make a perfect couple."

Qin Shu ignored them and placed the note in Ye Xue's hand. "There's nothing wrong with liking someone. That's your own business. It has nothing to do with others. You just have to be yourself."

Ye Xue raised her head and looked at Qin Shu. She couldn't help but swallow at the lump in her throat and feel like crying.

"The only way not to let yourself down is to make yourself be good enough."

This also meant proving everyone wrong.

Chapter 106: The Reserved Young Professor

Jiang Yu, who had been ignored, looked up when Qin Shu spoke. He saw her helping Ye Xue move her table and was stunned for a second.

While she looked thin and frail, she did not hesitate when moving the desk at all.

They were both the targets of ridicule, yet she still meddled in other people's business?

Fu Tingyan, who had been sleeping, was woken up by the noise and heard every word that Qin Shu had said.

He found that Qin Shu's tongue had become much sharper than before.

He squinted his long narrow eyes and saw Qin Shu pursing her lips tightly as she moved the desk. He was stunned.

The delicate Qin Shu had a masculine side to her?

Ye Xue stood still, stunned. She did not react to Qin Shu's words for a long while.

Qin Shu looked at Ye Xue's clear eyes behind the lenses of her glasses. She saw that Ye Xue did not seem to understand her encouragement earlier.

"In other words, as long as you make yourself more outstanding, all the beautiful people and things will come to you one after another."

This sentence should be easier to understand?

Ye Xue nodded with a red face. "Yes, only those with good grades and beautiful girls will be liked by everyone."

"..."

This sentence sounded right, but that was not what Qin Shu had meant.

"You can do it too. As long as you work hard enough, all your efforts will be rewarded."

Qin Shu's voice was very infectious. Every word she said entered Ye Xue's ears, making her excited.

"... But, my grades are not good, and I'm very fat."

Ye Xue lowered her head because of her inferiority complex. Her face almost touched her chest.

Her fleshy hands held the note tightly. She just could not help but write that note. She had not wanted to confess.

"You haven't tried hard, so how do you know you can't do it? If your grades are bad, you can work hard to improve your grades. If you're fat, you can lose weight."

Ye Xue lifted her head to look at Qin Shu when she heard that. Hesitation and doubt flashed in her eyes.

Ye Xue had an inferiority complex and did not have any confidence. It was a little difficult for her to pull herself together all of a sudden.

Qin Shu continued, "The one who can stop you from advancing has never been anyone else, but yourself. You've already given up, and no one can help you."

Ye Xue bit her lip as if she had made up her mind. Even if it was for nothing else, she would still work hard just because of Qin Shu's words.

"I'll work hard."

Qin Shu smiled at her. "Good luck."

In the following days, Qin Shu would teach Ye Xue anything she didn't understand.

As for losing weight, Qin Shu helped her come up with a plan.

The most important thing was to exercise.

Ye Xue lived a little far from the school, so Qin Shu suggested that she run for an hour every day and take the bus for the rest of the day.

She wasn't allowed to sit after lunch. Instead, she took her English textbook and walked back and forth, memorizing words.

There were still many details. Qin Shu listed them down and handed it to Ye Xue.

Everything else would have to depend on Ye Xue's hard work.

When the students saw Qin Shu and Ye Xue's actions, they all looked on as if they were watching a show.

There was less than a month left before the college entrance examination. They were waiting for Qin Shu and Ye Xue to fail the college entrance examination and stay to repeat their studies.

Qin Shu used her time in class to finish the questions that the young professor had given her and sent them over.

She thought that being a professor meant that he would be busy and that she would not be able to get her results until the next day.

She did not expect to receive her results that night.

The young professor had only given her two words in his comments.

[Not bad.]

Qin Shu stared at the two words on the screen. What a reserved comment.

Couldn't he have praised her and given her a sense of accomplishment?

Chapter 107: Deepen the Faded Mark

Qin Shu stared at the screen for a long time. After thinking for a while, she decided to send him a message.

[Do you think it's better for me to go all out for the mock exam tomorrow or should I keep a low profile?]

After sending the message, the young professor replied in a short while.

[Why cover a jade in dirt?]

Qin Shu nodded her head in agreement after reading his message. Gold would always shine. It was only a matter of time.

Since it would shine sooner or later, why not take the opportunity to slap all their faces now?

After a while, Qin Shu glanced at the young professor's reply again.

Jade.

This sentence could be considered a compliment to her, right?

After being complimented twice by the young professor, Qin Shu felt a sense of accomplishment because the young professor was a cold person with few words.

He had never praised her ever since he taught her.

That was why this was so rare.

Qin Shu closed her laptop and stretched. Then, she stood up and walked out of the small study room.

At this moment, Ning Meng walked in with a glass of milk in her hand and handed it to Qin Shu.

“Madam, milk.”

Qin Shu glanced at the milk. She drank milk every day and she was a little sick of it.

She waved her hand. “I don’t want to drink milk tonight. I’ll drink it tomorrow night.”

Ning Meng looked at Qin Shu awkwardly. “Madam, this is Sir’s order. If you don’t drink it, Sir would be unhappy when he asks about it? Besides, there are only benefits and no harm in drinking milk. Madam, just drink it.”

Hearing this, Qin Shu took the milk from Ning Meng helplessly and brought it to her mouth. She slowly drank the cup of milk.

Then, she passed the empty cup to Ning Meng.

“Madam, rest early.” Ning Meng had completed her task perfectly and happily turned around to leave the bedroom.

Qin Shu picked up her phone and looked at the time. It was already ten o’clock.

Fu Tingyu was busy at the company, but he still had to work when he came back.

He was busy until midnight almost every day.

It had been three hours since dinner, so he should be a little hungry now.

She thought for a moment before walking out of the bedroom.

She took a dragon fruit, a mango, and a watermelon from the refrigerator in the kitchen. Then, she washed the fruit knife and cut them into pieces.

After cutting them, she put the pieces of fruit onto a plate, took a fruit fork from the disinfectant cabinet, and put it on the plate of fruit.

After that, Qin Shu took the plate and turned to go to the study on the second floor.

When she reached the door, Qin Shu knocked with one hand before pushing the door open and walking in.

Fu Tingyu sat in front of the dark brown desk, frowning as he looked at the amended cooperation plan.

When he heard the knocking, he looked up and saw the girl walking over with the fruit platter.

The girl was wearing a nightgown with straps. She was thin, and he could see her bones of her exposed shoulders.

The marks on her deep-set collarbone seemed to have faded a little.

The man’s pitch-black eyes gradually became dark and deep.

Shi Yan, who was standing at the side and awaiting comments from Fu Tingyu, saw Qin Shu walk in with a fruit plate in her hand.

He glanced at master four. This gaze...

Shi Yan understood and retreated.

Qin Shu walked to the desk and placed the fruit platter where Fu Tingyu could reach it. Then, she raised her head to look at the man. She smiled, revealing two small canine teeth. "Eat some fruit first before you continue working"

Fu Tingyu was not interested in fruits, and he was even less interested in large pieces of fruit.

She had specially cut the fruit into small pieces so that they could be eaten with a single bite and was convenient to consume.

Fu Tingyu looked at her two small canine teeth and his eyes darkened.

He lowered his eyes and his gaze fell on the fruit platter. The three kinds of fruits were cut into small pieces and it was very convenient to eat them with a fruit fork.

Chapter 108: Can't Wait Any Longer

Furthermore, Babe had personally prepared it for him. Even though he wasn't particularly fond of fruits, he still wanted to eat them.

His eyes glanced at the pair of hands on the desk. Her skin was fair and her knuckles were slender. They were like the hands of a mannequin.

Qin Shu waited for a while. Seeing that he didn't move, she thought that he didn't want to eat it.

She lowered her gaze and looked at the fruit platter. She reached out and picked up a fruit fork. She lifted a piece of dragonfruit with the fork and brought it to his mouth. Her tone sounded as if she were coaxing a child. "Try it. It tastes pretty good."

Fu Tingyu glanced at the purplish-red fire dragon fruit on his lips. He raised his eyes slightly and looked at the girl. He saw that her starry eyes were filled with anticipation.

After a few seconds of silence...

Qin Shu saw that the man had no intention of eating, and she felt a little discouraged. Why did he keep staring at her instead of eating the fruit?

Was he seeing things?

"If you really don't want to..."

Before Qin Shu could finish her words, the man's lips parted and he ate the dragonfruit by his lips. He chewed slowly.

What was the taste? Of course, it was sweet. It was very sweet.

Seeing that he had eaten it, Qin Shu was a little excited. She picked up another piece of watermelon with the fork and brought it to the man's mouth.

"This watermelon is also very delicious."

Of course, he wouldn't refuse Babe feeding him, so he opened his mouth and ate the watermelon she brought to his lips.

Qin Shu didn't prepare much fruit, so she fed him one bite at a time. He finished all three fruits in a short time.

Fu Tingyu still wanted more. The sweetness was not just in his mouth but had spread throughout his heart.

Qin Shu looked at the empty plate and felt a sense of accomplishment. When she looked at Fu Tingyu, her beautiful eyes curved into little crescents. "You go ahead. I'm going back to the bedroom."

Qin Shu picked up the plate and was about to leave. However, just as she turned around, he grabbed her wrist she was pulled into the man's arms.

It was because she did not keep her guard up in front of Fu Tingyu.

Qin Shu looked up and bumped into a pair of deep-set eyes. It was as if there was a pulling force, making her unable to move her eyes away.

She pursed her lips. "Aren't you busy?"

Fu Tingyu made a sound of agreement but continued staring at her with his pitch-black eyes. The girl's eyes were filled with stars. They were so dazzling that he couldn't bear to move his eyes away.

Qin Shu looked at the man in confusion. Was there something dirty on her face?

"Then why don't you hurry up and finish your work and rest early?"

The man's pitch-black eyes grew even darker.

"I have something to do."

Qin Shu blinked her large and beautiful eyes. She did not understand what the man had meant.

Just as she was wondering, his handsome face moved closer to her. And then, something cold pressed against her lips.

...

...

...

In the bathroom

Qin Shu finished her shower. She stood in front of the mirror, wrapped in a pure white towel. Her wet hair was almost dry and hung messily behind her shoulders.

She looked at herself in the mirror. There was barely any flesh on her thin shoulders.

Although she had eaten a lot recently, fat and her did not seem to be good friends. She did not seem to have grown any fleshier at all.

She looked at her collarbone and touched it with her fair and slender fingers.

She could still hear him speaking in her ears. "Babe, you're mine."

The man's voice was deep and domineering, and there were a subtle tenderness and affection in it.

The corners of Qin Shu's mouth couldn't help but curl up. She looked away from her reflection and took out a hairdryer from the cabinet to dry her hair.

After drying her hair, she put the hairdryer away in the cabinet.

Then, she took off the bath towel wrapped around herself and changed into a nightgown to get ready for bed.

Chapter 109: Sir Wants a Reward

Qin Shu had already fallen asleep when Fu Tingyu returned to the bedroom.

He went into the bathroom to take a shower. When he came out of the shower, he only casually put on a robe.

He walked over to the bed and sat down. He lowered his eyes to look at the girl's peaceful sleeping face. It felt as if he could not get enough of her no matter how much he looked at her. He felt that even if he were to look at her for the rest of his life, it still wasn't enough.

After looking at her for a long time, he went to bed. He laid down beside the girl and turned off the light.

It was pitch black in the bedroom.

Fu Tingyu closed his eyes and listened to the girl's shallow breathing as he gradually drifted off to sleep.

The next day, at the dining table.

Fu Tingyu was eating a bowl of fish porridge set down in front of him. He ate elegantly.

Qin Shu ate her porridge and glanced at the man across her. She thought of the mock exam today and said, "I have a mock exam today. Will I get a reward if I do well?"

Fu Tingyu looked up. "What reward do you want?"

The man's focus was on what she wanted, not whether she had the ability to do well in the exam.

This was him doting on her.

Qin Shu looked at the man across her, her eyes full of anticipation. "If I do well in the exam, can you teach me how to play the piano?"

Fu Tingyu had already achieved the highest possible level in piano playing from the Royal School of Music and had taken first place in an international competition.

When he was still in school, he was called the Prince of Piano by his classmates. He had just as many fans as the most famous actor in the country.

In his previous life, Fu Tingyu had taught her how to play the piano. That period of time was a beautiful memory between him and her.

Playing the piano could make someone calm down. It could also help them forget their worries and immerse themselves in the music.

Fu Tingyu paused, his chopsticks froze mid-action. It seemed that he had not expected this to be what the girl wanted.

Even if the girl did not get good grades, he was willing to teach her as long as she wanted to learn.

He nodded. "Okay."

"Then it's a deal."

Qin Shu smiled happily. Her two small canine teeth could be seen between her red lips. They were so white and dazzling.

The man's eyes darkened a little. He licked his lips as if he was holding back.

After breakfast-

Qin Shu picked up her school bag. She was not in a hurry to walk out. Instead, she moved closer to the man and kissed him. When she left, there was still a smile on her lips as she said, "Wait for my good news."

Then, she turned around and ran out of the living room.

Fu Tingyu watched as the girl's figure disappeared at the entrance. His slender fingers did not touch the cheek that the girl had kissed, but his own lips. She should have kissed him here.

Ever since the girl changed, he found himself getting more and more greedy.

Shi Yan, who was standing at the side, watched as master four's slender fingers reached for his lips...

Sir's hands were pale and slender with well-defined joints. They were a very good-looking pair of hands and were very suitable for playing the piano.

He was confused for a moment. Didn't Madam kiss Sir's face?

Why did Sir touch his lips?

Fu Tingyan waited at his usual spot. He watched as Qin Shu opened the car door and fastened her seat belt. This had already become a habit.

He and Jiang Yu had seen a lipstick advertisement a few days back.

Jiang Yu had even complained that the lips of a female celebrity were a little thick and didn't look good.

Fu Tingyan's gaze drifted to Qin Shu's lips. It was undeniable that her lips were really beautiful.

Then, he looked away.

He started the engine and drove to the school.

He thought of the mock exam today. He would be able to know whether Qin Shu could make it to the Imperial College once the results of the exam were released.

All was silent.

When they reached the usual place, Fu Tingyan parked the car by the roadside.

Qin Shu pushed open the car door and got out. She closed the car door and walked towards the school. This had already become like second nature to her.

Fu Tingyan waited for Qin Shu's figure to disappear around the corner before driving into the school.

Chapter 110: Was it Just a Coincidence?

Xu turned to look at Jiang Yu and asked curiously, "Young master, what are you looking at?"

"Nothing, just drive."

Jiang Yu waved his hand at Xu and watched as Fu Tingyan's car disappear around the corner. His eyes were filled with doubt.

Was he seeing things? Why did Qin Shu get out of Tingyan's car?

The seats were reordered for today's exam.

Unfortunately, Ye Xue and Jiang Yu's desks were very close.

Fu Tingyan's seat was very close to Qin Shu's.

Although it was a mock exam, the students were still a little nervous.

Ye Xue was even more nervous. It was not just because of the exam. It was mostly because she was seated next to Jiang Yu.

Her face was flushed red, and she did not even dare to raise her head.

Jiang Yu propped up his forehead with one hand and didn't notice Ye Xue, who was sitting next to him. He was still thinking about the scene he had seen earlier.

The two of them were completely unrelated.

There was no way Tingyan would give Qin Shu a lift.

Then what did he see just now?

Just as Jiang Yu tried to figure out what was going on, the exam began.

The exam paper was passed from the first row to the back.

Qin Shu was seated in the last row. When she received the exam paper, she picked up her pen calmly, read through the questions, and then started to write.

Time passed by slowly.

Fu Tingyan only spent two-thirds of the allocated time to finish the test paper.

He subconsciously turned his head to look at Qin Shu. He saw that she had propped up her head with one hand and that her hair was tucked behind her ears. From his angle, he could see most of her face.

He could not help but look at her lips, and his gaze started to wander.

It was not until the hair behind Qin Shu's ear came untucked and blocked his line of sight that he came back to his senses.

Fu Tingyan realized that he could not help but look at Qin Shu again. He was a little annoyed at himself.

At this moment, Fu Tingyan was like an adolescent boy. He knew that he should not pay attention to Qin Shu, but he could not control his curiosity.

At this time, Jiang Yu had also finished the questions. His gaze swept past Ye Xue and he looked at Fu Tingyan just in time to see that his gaze had shifted back from Qin Shu's direction.

Affected by his emotions, the pen in his hand fell from his hand and rolled all the way to the ground, stopping right beside Ye Xue's feet.

Ye Xue felt Jiang Yu's gaze. She knew that he wasn't looking at her, but she was still extremely nervous.

Suddenly, she heard a sound. Her face was red. She looked down at the bottom of the desk and saw a ballpoint pen.

She recognized it at a glance.

Before Ye Xue could react, Jiang Yu shouted casually, "Hey, pass me my pen."

Ye Xue didn't even dare to raise her head. She bent down to pick up the pen, but because there was too much flesh on her waist, it was hard for her to bend over. Her already red face turned even redder.

She finally picked up the pen with much difficulty. She lowered her head and placed the pen on Jiang Yu's desk before quickly retracting her hand. However, Jiang Yu still saw it.

Ye Xue's hands were very white and fleshy. There wasn't much beauty in them.

Jiang Yu saw her hands and could not help saying, "You're really fleshy."

He was not loud, Ye Xue heard him very clearly. She flushed bright red and pulled her hands to her chest as if she were afraid that Jiang Yu would see them.

Jiang Yu almost could not help laughing out loud. "I have already seen them. What's there to hide." How funny.

Ye Xue pursed her lips tightly, keeping her hand in front of her chest. She did not utter a word.

After lunch-

Qin Shu took out her laptop and opened it. She had done some exam questions yesterday and there would be a summary class today.

Ever since she knew that the location where the young professor held classes was weird, she would feel curious every time they had a class about where the young professor would be teaching.

When she opened the video and saw where the professor was, she was stunned.
