Chapter 171: Sir's Possessiveness

He had actually said that she looked curvy though she was thin?

She must have gotten to know a fake Fu Tingyu in the past.

She had never heard him say such words before.

Qin Shu walked to the wardrobe, took out her pajamas, changed out of her bathrobe, and then took off her slippers and got in bed.

Half an hour later-

Fu Tingyu opened the bathroom door and walked out. He saw that the person on the bed was already asleep. He also changed into his sleeping robes, turned off the light, and lifted the quilt to get in bed.

He brought her into his arms. She was still too thin.

But he liked how warm she was.

The next day, the morning light filtered into the room

Qin Shu also got up when Fu Tingyu got up,

After washing up, Qin Shu went to the walk-in wardrobe and picked out a pair of pencil pants and chiffon shirt to change into.

Her long hair was tied into a high ponytail, and her long, slanted bangs were tied up to reveal a full, smooth forehead. Her delicate features were fully displayed.

Fu Tingyu saw the girl tie up her ponytail, turned around, and went out again. When he came in again, there was a black mask in his hand.

Qin Shu carried her backpack and walked up to Boss. She bent down to pick up Boss and rubbed its head. "I'll take you out with me this time to broaden your horizons."

Boss's dark green eyes stared at Qin Shu, looking as if he was a little excited. The claw hidden in his meaty paws stretched out. However, he immediately sheathed them and meowed sadly when Qin Shu looked at him sternly.

Qin Shu rubbed his head again. "You still have to suffer for a few more hours."

She put Boss into the pet carrier and zipped it up.

When she turned around with the pet carrier in her hand, she saw the man walking over. She arched her eyebrows at him. "Are we leaving now?"

"Wait a minute."

Fu Tingyu walked in front of her. He held the black mask with his slender fingers and helped her put it on.

Qin Shu was stunned. She lowered her eyes and looked at the black mask on her face. Her heart...

Fu Tingyu sized her up. The girl's face was as white as jade. With the mask on, she only revealed a pair of starry eyes. Only then did he say in satisfaction, "That works."

Fu Tingyu and Qin Shu went downstairs one after the other.

When Ning Meng saw Qin Shu wearing the black mask, her eyes were filled with confusion. Why was she wearing a mask when she was fine?

Shi Yan had already loaded his luggage into the car in advance. He opened the door and waited there.

Ye Luo sat in the passenger seat.

Qin Shu got into the car first, and Fu Tingyu got into the car after her.

After Shi Yan closed the door, he started the engine and drove away.

Two hours later, at the airport-

Shi Yan had booked First Class seats. When it was time to board the plane, the group of four went to check-in and then boarded the plane.

The first-class cabin was spacious and the seats were very comfortable.

Qin Shu's seat and Fu Tingyu's seat faced each other and there was a table in the middle.

Meanwhile, Shi Yan and Ye Luo sat on the other side.

At this time, at the Fu residence

Fu Tingyan was dressed in a black-and-white casual suit, which made him look tall and slender.

His black hair was a little fluffy. There were a few strands that were sticking out, but the messy hairstyle just made him look better.

His long and narrow eyes were dazzling.

He raised the corner of his mouth and drove the Lamborghini that his brother had given him to pick up Jiang Yu.

He threw Qin Shu's words to the back of his mind.

After picking up Jiang Yu, the two of them went to Yixing Technology together.

When Fu Tingyan and Jiang Yu, the two campus hunks, appeared at Yixing Technology, they quickly became the center of attention due to their good looks and noble disposition.

Fu Tingyan had Mr. Y's invitation letter in his hand. So when he entered Yixing Technology, a receptionist led him to Mr. Y's office.

Chapter 172: Speak Human Language

However, there was a girl following behind them. Her eyes were not only shining with surprise, but there was also a glint that flashed in her eyes.

The receptionist stopped in front of an office and knocked on the door twice before pushing it open. "Mr. Y is waiting for you inside."

"Thank you."

Fu Tingyan and Jiang Yu thanked her and walked in.

The receptionist closed the door and the girl who had been following them walked up to him and asked, "What is the name of the boy who went in?"

The receptionist turned around and saw that it was the young master's sister, Ling Yao, who had asked the question, "Miss, which boy are you asking about?"

Ling Yao hurriedly added, "The one dressed casually in black and white."

The receptionist replied, "His name is Fu Tingyan."

Ling Yao repeated Fu Tingyan in her heart. She felt that the name sounded pretty nice and that the boy was also handsome.

The receptionist asked, "Miss, is there anything else?"

Ling Yao waved her hand. "It's nothing. It's nothing."

Only then did the receptionist turn around and leave.

An hour later

The office door opened and Fu Tingyan and Jiang Yu walked out. Both of them had excited smiles on their faces.

Ling Yao sat there and had fallen asleep. She only woke up when someone walked past her. She hurriedly chased after them.

"Fu Tingyan, wait."

Fu Tingyan stopped when he heard the voice. He turned around and looked at the person who called his name. He realized that it was an average-looking girl who was looking at him with a smile.

However, he didn't recognize her. His voice was filled with doubt. "Do you know me?"

"I didn't know you before, but I know you now. My name is Ling Yao. You can call me Yaoyao or Little Yao," Ling Yao introduced herself with a smile.

"..." Was there something wrong with this person?

Fu Tingyan looked away and continued walking forward with Jiang Yu, no longer paying attention to Ling Yao.

Seeing this, Ling Yao chased after him again. "Which school do you go to? I can come and play with you."

A hint of disgust flashed across Fu Tingyan's eyes. His good mood from before was all gone. He quickened his pace and walked out of Yixing Technology with Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu glanced at the girl who was chasing after him and held back his laughter. "Xiao Qi, this girl is so friendly."

Fu Tingyan suddenly thought of Qin Shu's words. Could that girl be that the 'peach blossom' she was talking about?

If he had known earlier that it was such a peach blossom, he would not only have worn a mask but also sunglasses.

A girl who was too friendly was really annoying.

"Ignore her."

Fu Tingyan quickened his pace again and walked to his car. He didn't even bother to open the door. He held the door with one hand and jumped straight in.

He was handsome. Even a simple gesture would make him look very handsome.

Jiang Yu didn't want to look bad, so he jumped into the car like Fu Tingyan.

Ling Yao's eyes were full of admiration. This kind of guy was her ideal boyfriend.

While Ling Yao stared at Fu Tingyan with starry eyes, Fu Tingyan drove away from her, whizzing by quickly.

Chapter 173: Didn't Bring Her Along?

Five hours later, Fu Tingyu, Qin Shu, and the others arrived in South Asia.

The hotel had been booked beforehand. They had booked a suite with a master bedroom, three bedrooms, and a living room.

After sitting on the plane for a few hours, Qin Shu felt her back and legs aching.

Fu Tingyu instructed Shi Yan in the living room to take note of things to note at the banquet tonight.

Qin Shu took out her laptop and placed it on the table. She quickly opened it.

Every time the Crimson Sand assassins assassinated someone, they would have a meticulous plan and escape route.

This would be especially so since the target of this assassination was very unusual.

Security must be very high at such an important banquet. Surveillance was essential.

Qin Shu's slender fingers quickly flew across the keyboard. She entered the system of the surveillance room of the banquet and directed the surveillance feed into her computer. She could watch it whenever she wanted to.

Not only did she want to sabotage the assassination, but she also wanted to cut off his escape route.

The coldness in Qin Shu's eyes disappeared.

After she was done, she closed the laptop and put it into her backpack. Suddenly, she remembered that Boss was still in his pet carrier.

Qin Shu quickly walked to the sofa and unzipped the pet carrier. Boss looked at Qin Shu with a lifeless gaze. It was as if he was saying, "You finally remembered about me."

"Boss, I really didn't do it on purpose. I was so busy just now that I forgot about you."

Qin Shu carried Boss out with an apologetic expression. She patted its head and prepared some water and cat food for it.

She placed Boss in front of the plate. "You can only eat cat food when we are outside. Eat more. I'll bring you out to see the world tonight."

"Meow?" Boss looked at Qin Shu with his dark green eyes for a while before he lowered his head and ate the cat food.

Qin Shu watched as Boss obediently ate the cat food without causing any trouble before she stood up and walked out.

When Qin Shu walked out, she saw Fu Tingyu's slender figure sitting on the sofa while Shi Yan and Ye Luo stood upright in front of him.

She walked over to the man and sat down.

She had already taken off her mask, and her exquisite facial features were perfectly presented in front of them.

Shi Yan looked at Qin Shu, and a look of surprise flashed across his eyes. He was stunned for a long time before he regained his senses.

Even Ye Luo, who was cold and quick-tempered, seemed to be dazzled when he saw Qin Shu's bare face. However, his expression quickly turned cold.

Fu Tingyu noticed their reactions and had expected it. When he looked at the girl with his pitch-black eyes, he had the urge to hide her.

Qin Shu didn't notice the surprise in the other two's eyes. She looked at the man and was a little conflicted. "What do you think I should wear?"

Fu Tingyu thought about how the girl's delicate figure would be completely outlined when she wore a gown. Many people would look at her. His eyes darkened at that thought. "Just stay in the hotel."

Qin Shu was stunned. "You're not bringing me to the banquet? Are you going to find another woman to be your female companion to attend the banquet?"

Shi Yan held back his laughter and reminded her, "Young Madam, Sir has never brought a female companion to a banquet before. Besides, the number of banquets Sir has attended can be counted on one hand."

Qin Shu glanced at Shi Yan. Of course, she knew that Fu Tingyu had never attended a banquet with a female companion before. She had said that because she wanted him to bring her along.

She looked at the man again. "You're not really going to leave me alone in the hotel, are you?"

Fu Tingyu looked at the girl's aggrieved look and could not bear to make her stay. However, when he thought of the people at the banquet today, he said, "Ye Luo will stay in the hotel to protect you."

Qin Shu glanced at Ye Luo, who was standing at the side. His face was cold and he looked mean.

In her previous life, Ye Luo had hated that she always dragged Fu Tingyu down and put him in danger several times.

Chapter 174: Bring a Male Companion, Not a Female Companion

Let him stay to protect her?

He would just lock her in the room.

Qin Shu reached out to hold the man's arm and suggested, "If you don't want to bring a female companion, then I'll wear men's clothing and go with you, okay?"

Men's clothing? Fu Tingyu's pitch-black eyes sized up the girl from head to toe as if wondering what she would look like in men's clothing.

"Wait a moment, I'll show you."

Qin Shu saw that the man was doubting her, so she turned around and returned to her room, closing the door.

Fu Tingyu looked at the tightly shut room door. His gaze was deep and serene.

President He liked beauties, and Shi Yan was afraid that Sir would be soft-hearted and relent, bringing Qin Shu with him. If President He made excessive demands, this cooperation would definitely fail.

Shi Yan knew Sir's temper too well. If someone dared to covet his woman, he would not let the other party off.

"Sir, President He..."

The last few words were stuck in his throat because of Fu Tingyu's cold gaze.

Ye Luo, who was standing at the side, actually wanted to say that they did not have to worry about anything if they just locked Qin Shu in her room.

At this moment, in the room

Qin Shu opened another suitcase. Inside the suitcase, were disguises and props.

During this period of time, apart from studying, she had also paid attention to the makeup skills in the cosplay industry. Cosplaying a certain character was truly interesting.

It also allowed her to take another step forward in the art of disguise.

Although she didn't know why Fu Tingyu wouldn't bring a female companion, she did not mind wearing men's clothes as long as she could go with him.

After spending nearly half an hour, Qin Shu changed into a very formal light gray suit with a white shirt inside. She had neat short black hair.

Qin Shu looked at herself in the mirror several times and didn't find anything wrong. She opened the door and walked out.

The moment the door opened, the three people in the living room looked at the door of the guest room. When they saw the person walking out, their eyes flashed with surprise.

The light gray suit complimented her slender figure. Her short hair was neat, and her slightly raised eyebrows had a hint of flamboyance to them.

Under the makeup technique, her delicate facial features became well-defined, looking as if they had been meticulously carved by the Creator.

Fu Tingyu looked at the girl in the suit. Her long hair had become neat and short, and her flat eyebrows were slightly raised, making her look rather masculine and handsome.

Qin Shu straightened her back and took a few steps to stand in front of Fu Tingyu. Then, she turned around and looked at the man. There was a hint of pride in her voice as she said, "How about it? I can go there dressed like this, right?"

Fu Tingyu looked at the girl in men's clothing and nodded.

Qin Shu's smile grew even wider when she saw that the man had agreed to take her.

The lights were switched on as night fell.

Fu Tingyu's tall and slender figure was seated on the sofa as he waited.

Qin Shu carried a backpack on her shoulders while carrying Boss in her arms as she emerged from the room.

When Shi Yan saw Qin Shu carrying Boss in her arms, he didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "Young Madam, it's not very appropriate to bring Boss along, is it. You are attending a banquet."

Qin Shu looked at Fu Tingyu in confusion.

Fu Tingyu glanced at Boss who was nestled in Qin Shu's arms. He stood up and walked in front of her. When he reached out his hand, he felt an invisible pressure. Boss shrank back in fear in Qin Shu's arms.

Fu Tingyu's picked up Boss and threw him straight into Ye Luo's arms.

"Meow!" Boss cried out.

Ye Luo lowered his eyes and looked at Boss. Boss looked at Ye Luo with side eyes, looking as if he were glaring back at Ye Luo.

Qin Shu glanced at Ye Luo and then looked at President Ba who was in his arms. She felt sorry for him for a second.

Fu Tingyu looked down at the girl, glanced at the backpack on her shoulders, and said in a low voice, "Let's go."

...

Chapter 175: A Different Name

The four of them got into the car and went straight to the venue of the banquet.

Along the way, Ye Luo, who was seated in the passenger seat holding Boss in his arms stared at the cat. The cat stared back at him.

Qin Shu was thinking about what would happen at the banquet. The assassin was here to assassinate President He. If they saw Fu Tingyu, would they want to make a move on him as well?

Just as she was deep in thought, a pair of silver-rimmed glasses appeared on the bridge of her nose.

After Fu Tingyu helped her put on the glasses, he retracted his hand.

Qin Shu turned her head to look at the man in confusion. "Why do I have to wear glasses?"

Fu Tingyu said, "Glasses suit you."

Qin Shu propped up the glasses on her nose doubtfully and looked at the rearview mirror in front of her. Looking at herself in the glasses, she felt that she looked more refined and elegant.

The corners of her lips curled up. The glasses looked pretty good.

The car stopped at the entrance of the hotel and Shi Yan opened the car door.

After Fu Tingyu got out of the car, he stood by the car door and stretched out his hand. Qin Shu stretched out her hand and put it on the back of his hand and got out of the car.

After Shi Yan handed over the invitation, the group walked into the banquet hall.

Ye Luo didn't enter the banquet hall because he was carrying Boss. Instead, he waited outside.

Most of the guests had arrived in the banquet hall by then.

Qin Shu followed behind Fu Tingyu. She looked around as they walked in. There were several bodyguards and they all looked quite strong.

The assassin was able to succeed even under such tight security. This meant that the assassin who was ranked in the top ten was ranked so highly for a reason.

Fu Tingyu brought Qin Shu all the way to where the food was. He glanced at the various delicacies and desserts on the table and turned to look at her. He asked in a low voice, "What would you like to eat?"

Qin Shu retracted her gaze and looked at the man. "Bro, can I ask you a question?"

Before they came out, they had agreed that she would come as Fu Tingyan, so she had to call Fu Tingyu 'Brother'.

This was the first time Fu Tingyu hearing a girl call him Bro. The feeling was completely different from when his younger brother called him 'Brother'. It could be said that it was very seductive.

"Go ahead."

Qin Shu asked in a low voice, "What's the point of this banquet?"

Fu Tingyu's answer was concise and comprehensive. "To build connections."

Qin Shu nodded thoughtfully. "Oh."

Fu Tingyu held her hand and walked to an empty corner. It was also a relatively remote corner.

"You sit here and don't move. I'll help you get some food."

Qin Shu glanced around. There was no one around and it was quite cold. She grinned at him, her two small canine teeth looked especially obvious.

Fu Tingyu's eyes darkened when he saw the girl's two small canine teeth. He immediately turned around and went to get her some food.

After Fu Tingyu left, Qin Shu put down her backpack, unzipped it, and took out her laptop. She put it on her lap and opened it.

She looked at the computer screen, moved the cursor with her fingers, and clicked on the surveillance footage. She started watching the cameras inside the banquet hall.

After watching two videos, she didn't continue because it would take too much time.

The assassin's whereabouts were a mystery. Even the employer of the assassin didn't know when he would make his move.

She glanced at the dignitaries in the banquet hall who were chatting and laughing. She didn't know what kind of shocking events would happen next.

President He hadn't come out yet, and the assassin might still be in hiding.

She suddenly thought of Boss.

Qin Shu looked up at the food area. Seeing that the man was still choosing food, she put her laptop into her backpack, stood up, and walked out of the banquet hall.

She quickened her pace and headed to the place where Ye Luo was waiting for them. However, she found no sign of Ye Luo or Boss next to the flower beds.

She looked around the flower beds for a while, and only then did she see Ye Luo walking over from not far away. However, there was no sign of Boss in his arms.

Chapter 176: The One Thing That Fu Tingyu Feared of

Qin Shu's heart tightened. She walked quickly to Ye Luo and looked behind him. She did not see President Ba. She glared at Ye Luo. "Where's President Ba?"

Ye Luo said coldly, "It ran away by itself. I looked around but couldn't find it."

Qin Shu did not believe that President Ba would walk away by himself. "Did you scold it and scare it away?"

Ye Luo was speechless.

Qin Shu glared at Ye Luo again, then turned and ran into the banquet hall. She wanted to notify Fu Tingyu first and then go find President Ba.

If President Ba was caught and treated as a stray cat, she would be sent away.

In the banquet hall

When Fu Tingyu came back with a food tray, the girl was nowhere to be found. His heart tightened. He placed the tray on the table and took out his phone to dial her number. He began searching for the girl in the hall.

But he was in a panic.

He feared nothing in this world but the sudden disappearance of the girl when he wasn't looking.

There were many people in the banquet hall. But he was the tallest among them all. He surveyed the room a few times but didn't find the girl. And her call was busy.

Because President He had made his appearance at this time, more and more people began to gather in the banquet hall.

Qin Shu hurried through the crowd. She was afraid that Fu Tingyu would become anxious if he didn't see her when he came back.

However, everyone was walking in that direction, so it was a little crowded.

She had no choice but to take out her phone to call the man's number, but his call was busy.

She hurriedly hung up the phone.

Fu Tingyu also hung up the phone at this time. His pitch-black eyes surveyed the banquet hall. When he saw her familiar figure behind the crowd, he quickly walked over.

Qin Shu looked at the phone for a long time before dialing the man's number again.

Fu Tingyu quickly walked up to the girl, grabbed her slender wrist, and led her out of the crowd.

When her wrist was grabbed, Qin Shu had no choice but to follow the man.

She clenched the phone in the hand and was ready to attack. When she turned around, she found out that the man was Fu Tingyu.

The man had a calm expression, and he pursed his lips tightly. The cold aura radiating from his body told her that he was angry.

Fu Tingyu pulled her to a place with no one around. It was also a relatively dim corner.

He pushed her against the wall and placed his arms by her side. He stared at her with his dark and deep eyes.

“Didn’t I tell you to sit still? Why were you running around?”

The man’s voice was low but trembled.

Qin Shu saw that the man was angry. She thought for a moment and stood on her tiptoes. She wanted to kiss him because it worked every time.

However, when her lips were almost on his, the man saw through her move and stopped her with his hand. He pushed her away and said, “You haven’t answered my question. Why were you running around?”

Qin Shu stared at the man and swallowed. If she had not experienced one lifetime already, she would probably be so scared that she couldn’t even be able to talk.

“I just took a look at President Ba. I was on my way back immediately after.”

Fu Tingyu cut her off. “What’s so good about a cat?”

Qin Shu whispered, “It’s lost.”

Fu Tingyu was stunned.

Qin Shu continued, “I’m going to look for it.”

Fu Tingyu stroked her hair with his slender fingers as a way of comforting her. “Just stay by my side. I’ll get Ye Luo to look for it.”

Qin Shu thought for a second and said, “He’s not familiar with President Ba, so he doesn’t know its habits. If you’re worried about me going, you can ask Ye Luo to accompany me.”

Fu Tingyu’s eyes darkened. “Will you be able to find it if you go?”

Qin Shu said with certainty, “Yes.”

Fu Tingyu was stunned once again. He looked at the girl in front of him. So many years had passed, but she hadn’t changed at all.

The only thing that had changed...

Chapter 177: The Disrupted Plan

When Qin Shu saw that the man was silent, she added, "President Ba is my favorite cat."

Fu Tingyu stared at the girl for a long time. In the end, he gave in.

"I'll ask Ye Luo to accompany you."

Qin Shu smiled at the man. "Mmm."

Fu Tingyu made a call to Ye Luo, asking him to accompany her as she looks for President Ba.

Fu Tingyu hung up the phone. A few moments later, Ye Luo walked in.

Before Ye Luo and Qin Shu left, Fu Tingyu said: "If you really cannot find it, I will buy you a new one."

"Mmm."

Qin Shu nodded and left with Ye Luo to search for President Ba.

After walking out of the banquet hall, Qin Shu glanced at Ye Luo, who was walking in the front. She thought for a second and said, "Ye Luo, the hotel is very big. It'll take us forever if we searched together. We can save a lot of time by searching separately."

Ye Luo glanced at Qin Shu, his eyes revealed no emotion. He also didn't make a sound.

Qin Shu saw that Ye Luo gave no response, so she took it as he agreed. "We'll meet back here in half an hour."

Then Qin Shu began walking to the other side of the hotel with her backpack.

Ye Luo stood in place and watched Qin Shu's back. After a good while, he finally turned around and walked in the direction of the kitchen.

Because there's fish in the kitchen.

Qin Shu did not rush to find President Ba. She returned to the banquet hall.

Because President He has made his appearance, Ming Wei must be hiding in the dark, waiting for the opportunity to assassinate.

Qin Shu went straight to the second floor of the banquet hall, found a relatively secret place, and took out her laptop.

She checked the surveillance footage. But there were so many security cameras in the hotel, she didn't have time to check them one by one.

Ming Wei could make his move anytime now.

She raised her head and looked at the live footage for the camera in the middle of the banquet hall. The footage showed a black screen. As she looked at the laptop screen, her fingers rapidly typed on the keyboard. It's a piece of cake for her to hack into the control center for these footages.

Ten seconds later, the live footage for the banquet hall suddenly showed up, followed by the sound of gunshots...

The sudden gunshots frightened the nobles and they were running in all directions.

The bodyguards in navy blue uniforms were protecting President He.

The lively banquet hall turned chaotic because of the sudden gunshots.

At the same time, it also disrupted Ming Wei's assassination plan.

This assassination had been carefully planned for a long time, so unless it was absolutely necessary, Ming Wei would not give it up.

Now, Ming Wei could only wait for an opening.

When the footage showed up, Qin Shu put away her laptop, turned around, and quickly left.

She was now looking for Ming Wei's assistants.

Qin Shu quickly went downstairs. When she turned the corner, a cat suddenly appeared in front of her. Its dark green eyes were especially bright in the dark.

She recognized at a glance that it was President Ba.

Qin Shu bent down and picked up President Ba. She rubbed its head and said in an unfriendly tone, "What are you gonna do if you get thrown into the stray cat camp?"

President Ba meowed aggrievedly.

"Alright, let's go find someone now."

Qin Shu carried President Ba all the way out of the banquet hall. She avoided the bodyguards and walked out of the hotel through the back door.

As she walked, Qin Shu thought that if it were her, she would choose a remote, dark, and relatively abandoned avenue.

She suddenly stopped and looked at the street corner in front of her. There was an SUV parked there. From this angle, she could only see the front of the car. The car was hidden in the shadows.

It was just as she had guessed.

Qin Shu looked down at President Ba and whispered into its ear, "President Ba, we're going to have to rely on you this time..."

After Qin Shu said that, she patted its head and bent down to put it on the ground.

Chapter 178: Miserably Bullied

Amidst the night, President Ba turned and looked at Qin Shu. His dark green eyes were shining with a strange light.

Then he turned his gaze back to the car in front of him and quickly ran over.

The reason why she was sure it was this car was that the hotel had a parking lot, and there was also a parking lot nearby. A parked SUV around the corner was too out of place.

Qin Shu watched as President Ba ran over, then she also found a hidden spot to hide near the car.

In the SUV

Ming Wei's accomplice had just received news from Ming Wei that there's an episode happening inside, and that the plan will be delayed for half an hour.

He took out a cigarette and put it in his mouth. He took out the lighter and lit the cigarette.

At this time, President Ba's vigorous figure jumped in from the car window. His pitch-black fur was camouflaged in the night, only his dark green eyes shined in the night.

Before the accomplice could react, President Ba had scratched the man with its fierce paws, and three bloody scars immediately appeared on the man's face. At the same time, President Ba snatched the lighter from the man's hand and jumped out of the car.

After jumping out, President Ba was not in a hurry to leave. Instead, with the lighter in its mouth, President Ba stood in the middle of the road, looking at the man in the car as if provoking him.

Everything happened so suddenly, and the accomplice was caught off guard, which was why President Ba's sneak attack succeeded.

His face was burning with pain.

He raised his hand and wiped his face. He then realized that the back of his hand was covered in blood. He looked at the cat outside the car and cursed, "How dare you f*cking scratch me! I'll skin you alive."

The man was a hot-tempered one. How could he stand being bullied by a cat?

And provoked as well?

He immediately opened the car door and got out to catch President Ba.

Seeing this, President Ba immediately ran away.

The chaser was not to be underestimated. He also acted very fast, so catching a cat was a piece of cake for him.

At this time, Qin Shu walked out from the dark and got into the car.

Because President Ba would be hiding, she wanted to be able to leave before the accomplice returns.

She pressed a button on her watch, and a flashlight immediately appeared. Then, she took out a pocket knife, cut the brake wire, and broke the headlight.

And when she's done, she quickly left.

At this time, the accomplice was close to catching President Ba. But President Ba jumped into the flower bed, and then under the car.

They were at the parking lot, so President Ba was nowhere to be found after it sneaked under the car.

The accomplice swore a few times before getting back to his car. He did not notice anything unusual.

Qin Shu stood at the back door entrance, watching as a pair of dark green eyes moving towards her at great speed.

She bent down when President Ba was near. She picked President Ba up from the ground and rubbed its furry head, “Beautifully done! I’ll ask the hotel kitchen to prepare some delicious fish for you tonight.”

President Ba quickly raised his head, his dark green eyes lit up, and he meowed with excitement.

When Qin Shu saw how President Ba’s eyes lit up at the mention of fish, she could not help but worry a little. Will this little guy be lured away by others with fish in the future?

Then she remembered that Ming Wei was still at the banquet hall, so she quickly went back with President Ba.

When they’ve returned to the banquet hall, the chaos had finally settled, and the banquet went on normally.

President He strode to the center of the stage, ready to make his speech.

High-rank officials and noble families gathered below the stage.

There were a total of ten bodyguards on both sides.

If Ming Wei chose to attack at this time, he would have an easy kill.

President Ba suddenly raised his head and gently scratch the back of Qin Shu’s hand.

Qin Shu also noticed that someone was walking over.

“What are you standing here for?”

An unfamiliar male voice came from behind.

Chapter 179: Exact Moment

Qin Shu turned around and saw a man in a navy blue bodyguard uniform standing not far behind her. His eyes were filled with questions.

She glanced at the communication device on the bodyguard’s ear with her clear eyes. An idea flashed through her mind.

She said, "My brother is in the banquet hall. He asked me to wait for him outside."

The bodyguard sized up the young man in front of him and asked, "What's your brother's name?"

Qin Shu slowly said the person's name. "His name is Fu Tingyu."

The bodyguard was shocked when he heard that. Jiang City's fourth master was a special guest invited by President He. He quickly lowered his head and said, "It's young master Fu. Sorry to bother you."

The bodyguard turned to leave after saying that. But Qin Shu pinched President Ba's leg. President Ba seemed to be in shock and directly pounced on the bodyguard.

The bodyguard hurriedly dodged, so President Ba missed and landed on the ground.

"President Ba, what's wrong?"

Qin Shu went to President Ba and brushed past the bodyguard. Then, she bent down and picked up President Ba from the ground.

Seeing that it was a false alarm, the bodyguard didn't think too much and walked away.

Qin Shu glanced at the bodyguard who had already walked far away. She lowered her eyes and looked at the palm of her hand. There was a black miniature communicator in her hand.

At the same time

In the southeast direction of the second floor, a black muzzle was aimed at President He on the stage. The finger on the trigger slowly tightened.

The bodyguards on both sides of the stage then heard a clear male voice from the communicator.

"Someone will assassinate President He in five seconds."

The expressions of the bodyguards changed when they heard that. Dozens of tall and straight figures immediately rushed onto the stage to protect President He.

At the same time, a piercing sound was heard. The bodyguards standing in front of President He fell to the ground before they could react to what had happened.

The banquet hall became chaotic again, and screams could be heard endlessly.

Ming Wei, who was hiding in the dark, frowned when he saw the bodyguards who suddenly rushed up. He looked at Fu Tingyu, who was standing among the crowd. Fu Tingyu was as calm as ever.

He aimed at Fu Tingyu, and just as he was about to pull the trigger, he saw a boy walking over with a cat in his arms.

The cat had black, shiny fur and dark green eyes.

Ming Wei's eyes widened as if he could not believe his own eyes. This cat...

The guests in the banquet hall fled in all directions, some hid under the table.

Qin Shu hugged the cat and looked towards the slender figure in front of the stage, and fast-walked over.

Fu Tingyu remembered that Bao'er was still looking for President Ba. What if she ran into the assassin... Fu Tingyu couldn't care less about President He. Fu Tingyu turned around and left in large strides.

As he turned around, he saw the girl walking towards him, but Ye Luo was not with her. His heart tightened.

He quickly walked to her and covered her eyes with his large hand. "Don't look." His other hand held hers and they made their way out.

Qin Shu followed obediently and did not look back.

After a brief panic, President He realized that someone was trying to assassinate him. "Lockdown the hotel and find the assassin," he said angrily.

The captain of the security guards immediately gave President He's order to his subordinates through the communicator.

"The target is in the southeast direction. Carefully search the second and third floors. 20 of you remain on the ground floor."

All of a sudden, all the bodyguards in the hotel went into action and ran to the second and third floors.

Ming Wei, who was hiding on the second floor, had a look of disdain on his face. To catch him would be no easy task.

However, he was a little annoyed that he couldn't complete his mission.

However, he learned of something more important.

Ming Wei glanced at the bodyguards who had already come up. Then, he quickly jumped down from the other side of the balcony in his vigorous figure. He stepped on the air conditioner and jumped down.

Chapter 180: It Happened Suddenly

"The target jumped down from the second floor. Those who are guarding downstairs, pay attention and surround him."

The group of bodyguards who had just rushed up saw the target jump down from the balcony on the second floor. They turned around and ran down quickly.

Downstairs

"He's right in front. Don't let him get away."

Ming Wei glanced at the group of bodyguards behind him. He sped up and ran out of the hotel. From the back door, he ran all the way to the corner of the street.

When he saw the SUV, he sped up a little.

When he reached the SUV, he pulled open the door and got in the passenger seat.

Ming Wei closed the car door with force. "Ah Yuan, drive. I failed the mission."

"F*ck, why are we both so unlucky tonight?"

Ah Yuan cursed and stepped on the accelerator. The car sped out.

Ming Wei turned to look at the car that was chasing closely behind. "Drive faster."

"No problem." Ah Yuan sped up. Then, he realized that the headlights were broken.

Ming Wei said excitedly, "Do you know who I saw tonight? I saw..."

But before he could finish his sentence, he saw a car coming towards them.

Ah Yuan turned the steering wheel and dodged the car coming towards them. However, because the car speed was too fast, he quickly stepped on the brake and realized that the brake was broken.

The moment the car collided with the marble fence on the right, there was a loud noise and a puff of smoke came from the car.

When the bodyguards who followed behind saw this scene, they were shocked and hurriedly parked the car on the side of the road.

At the same time

Fu Tingyu size up Qin Shu, made sure she was all right, and then let out a sigh of relief. He asked: "Why wasn't Ye Luo with you?"

"I split up with him to save time when we were looking for President Ba. But I found President Ba first."

Qin Shu proudly showed President Ba in her arms to him.

Fu Tingyu glanced at President Ba in her arms. His gaze was a little disdainful. Then he looked back at the girl. He saw how her eyes were still as bright as the stars behind those glasses lenses.

He asked in a low voice, "Are you hungry?"

Qin Shu nodded. "Yeah."

Fu Tingyu asked, "Do you want Western food or Chinese food?"

"Chinese food. Prepare a fish for President Ba while you're at it."

Qin Shu looked down at President Ba. It had helped a lot tonight.

When Ye Luo walked over, he saw President Ba in Qin Shu's arms. He didn't say anything and just stood waiting at a place that was neither too far nor too close.

Then, Shi Yan walked over. "Fourth master, I just received news that the assassin from tonight was in a car accident. The chances of survival are not high."

Shi Yan then added, "The assassin is from the Crimson Sand Organization."

He failed the mission but succeeded in killing himself. This assassin's ranking in the top ten was a little undeserved.

Qin Shu rubbed President Ba in her arms when she heard this. A barely noticeable smile appeared in her eyes. One had been dealt with, and there were still three left. None of them would get away.

Fu Tingyu's expression froze when he heard this. It was as if he had not expected an assassin to die in such a way.

"Go to a Chinese restaurant and book a table."

"I'll book it right away."

Shi Yan took out his phone and booked a table while getting the car ready.

After the car drove over, Ye Luo opened the car door.

Fu Tingyu reached out and picked up President Ba from Qin Shu's arms. Then he threw him into Ye Luo's arms.

Probably because of its former experience, President Ba didn't cry out this time and only glared at Ye Luo. Ye Luo just looked at President Ba expressionlessly and then at Qin Shu with a pitiful expression.

Qin Shu looked at President Ba helplessly and then got into the car.

Fu Tingyu got into the car after her.

After everyone was seated, Shi Yan drove to the Chinese restaurant.

Ten minutes later, in the Chinese restaurant

Before entering the private room, Qin Shu took President Ba while the latter had an expectant look. Then they entered the private room.
