Chapter 181: Shameless Auntie Asked For My "Brother's" Number

After entering the private room, Qin Shu placed President Ba on a chair at the side.

Fu Tingyu sat opposite Qin Shu at the table and glanced at President Ba as he sat down.

President Ba sat on the chair with forelimbs extended. President Ba shrank its neck when its gaze met Fu Tingyu's cold gaze.

Fu Tingyu ordered a few dishes, all of which were the girl's favorite. Then he ordered a fish also.

The waiter soon served the dishes to the table one after another.

When the fish was served, President Ba stretched out his neck and stared at the fish on the plate with his deep green eyes.

Qin Shu glanced at the hungry President Ba, then she brought the plate of fish down and placed it in front of him.

"Go ahead."

"Meow."

President Ba let out an excited cry and then began eating.

Fu Tingyu brought another plate of fish over. He held the chopsticks between his slender fingers and removed all the bones from the fish. He then placed the fish meat on a white porcelain plate at the side.

Qin Shu picked up the chopsticks and saw that the man was picking out the bones with his chopsticks. His movements were elegant and noble.

After Fu Tingyu finished picking, he placed the white porcelain plate in front of the girl.

Qin Shu looked at the fish meat on the white porcelain plate. A few pieces of fish meat were placed neatly on the plate.

How did he do it?

She picked up the fish meat from the plate with her chopsticks and put it into her mouth. She chewed. The fish meat was fresh and delicious.

Whenever she ate with Fu Tingyu, as long as there were fish, he would always remove the fish bones for her.

In her previous life, she did not appreciate it.

As long as it was something he touched, she would not eat it.

When she thought of the depressed look in his eyes at that time, she could not help but feel bad.

Fu Tingyu saw that the girl had eaten the fish that he had given her. He was very happy and it reflected in his good appetite.

The two people and the cat were all very satisfied with the meal.

After leaving the Chinese restaurant

Fu Tingyu stretched his hand out in front of Qin Shu again. President Ba had experienced this twice already. So when Fu Tingyu stretched his hand out, President Ba immediately jumped down. Then, President Ba walked gracefully to Ye Luo and waited for her to pick up.

Ye Luo looked at President Ba's proud face expressionlessly. Then, he squatted down and picked it up.

Qin Shu was amused by President Ba's action. It was getting smarter and smarter.

Fu Tingyu lowered his eyes and looked at the girl. When she smiled, her two small canine teeth looked especially adorable.

He reached out his hand and hugged the girl's shoulder. Then, he turned around and walked toward the shopping mall.

Qin Shu followed obediently.

Just as Shi Yan and Ye Luo were about to follow, Fu Tingyu said without looking back, "You guys wait here."

Shi Yan stopped and turned to look at Ye Luo. Ye Luo also glanced at Shi Yan indifferently and then looked at President Ba in his arms.

President Ba was full. He stretched, closed his eyes, and slept.

Shi Yan can not help but sigh. Even a cat lived more comfortably than he did

Fu Tingyu walked into the mall with Qin Shu. Since both of them were very good-looking and very elegant, the passersby all took a second look at them.

Most women were looking at Fu Tingyu.

And there were even some who were brave enough to ask for his contact information.

"Hey, handsome. Can I have your number?"

Qin Shu looked at the mature woman in front of her with curly hair. She had applied quite a lot of foundation on her cheeks. Qin Shu was afraid that her face would wrinkle if she smiled.

The curly-haired beauty was wearing a tight-fitting dress with a deep V-neck. If she leaned forward even a little bit, privacy would be out of the question.

She looked at Fu Tingyu with sparkling, seductive eyes.

"Auntie, you want my brother's phone number? Do you want to introduce a girl to him?"

Chapter 182: Fu Tingyu Had A Beautiful Smile

Qin Shu had a smile on her face that appeared harmless. Her clear, bright eyes also looked very innocent.

Fu Tingyu turned his head to look at the girl. Her eyes were bright, and the corners of her mouth were slightly curved upwards. It looked like she was smiling.

The curly-haired beauty felt awkward and angry at what Qin Shu had said. She also didn't look very pleased.

The curly-hair beauty was only twenty-eight years old, yet Qin Shu called her an auntie?

Did this young man have no manners?

The curly-haired beauty looked at the young man, who was just as handsome as the older man beside him, suppressed her anger, and put on her best smile. "Little brother, I'm not an auntie. The reason why I asked for his phone number is that I want to befriend your brother."

Qin Shu deliberately sized up the curly-haired beauty in front of her and shook her head in confusion. "If you're not an auntie, should I call you grandma? You look like you're at most thirty years old. Calling you grandma would be an overstatement, it's not appropriate."

The curly-haired beauty was so angry that she almost vomited blood when she heard "grandma." Did he not know that he could have addressed her as "sister?"

Fu Tingyu could not hold in his smile any longer. The corners of his mouth curved up, and his eyes, which were filled with hostility, also arched.

"My wife is going to be jealous."

Fu Tingyu said. Then he held his wife in his arms and walked away.

Qin Shu looked up at Fu Tingyu and saw his smiling eyes and curved mouth.

Was that a smile?

She seldomly saw him smile, especially a big smile like that.

To be honest, he had a beautiful smile.

It took the curly-hair beauty a while to understand what Fu Tingyu meant when he said, "My wife is going to be jealous."

He had a wife?

The curly-hair beauty looked at Fu Tingyu's back in disbelief. How handsome, and young. Wearing a high-grade custom-made suit, he's such a rich and handsome man. Why did he choose to get married at such a young age?

After entering the mall, Qin Shu followed the man for a while. She could not help but ask, "What do you want to buy?"

Fu Tingyu looked at her with his smiling eyes, "You gave me a gift last time. Naturally, I want to gift you something in return."

A present from last time?

Qin Shu thought for a while and realized that the man was referring to the lingerie.

Was he going to buy lingerie for her as well?

Soon, Fu Tingyu gave her an answer.

"Go in."

Qin Shu looked into the shop. The shop was filled with female lingerie. They came in all styles and colors. Qin Shu didn't know where to start.

The salesperson walked up and saw two handsome men. Her eyes flashed with surprise. Two men at a female lingerie shop...

"Hello, is there anything I can help you with?"

"No, thank you."

Qin Shu said. She grabbed the man's arm and pulled him out.

Fu Tingyu looked at the girl who was pulling him out. Her face was slightly red as she said in a low voice, "Bao'er, are you shy?"

Qin Shu ignored him and continued to pull him. She only stopped when they've arrived at a desolate spot.

She raised her head to look at the man and asked in a low voice, "Did you come to the mall just to buy clothes for me?"

Fu Tingyu nodded. "Yes, it's a gift. I've been wearing the one Bao'er gifted me all this time."

Qin Shu blushed. She could see it every night. Of course she knew that he had been wearing it all along.

"I'm wearing men's clothes. It's not suitable for me to go in now. Can we go at another time?"

Qin Shu's voice was very low. She was trying to make the man give up.

Fu Tingyu lowered his eyes and looked at the girl's blushing cheeks. He pondered for a long time and asked in a low voice, "Bao'er, why did you give me that gift?"

Chapter 183: Formidable Characters

He had wanted to ask the question for a long time, but he had been suppressing it.

Because they had been together for so long, Bao'er had never bought him anything so personal.

Not to mention getting him...

Qin Shu raised her head slightly. Seeing the man's serious and nervous expression, she gave him a faint smile.

The girl's smile was like the warm sun in March, warm and genial.

"Because I wanted to. There's no particular reason. Besides, it's very common for married couples to buy these things, right?"

Fu Tingyu looked at the faint smile on the girl's face. Her eyes, which were more dazzling than the stars, were filled with his figure. Her justified tone also stunned him for a long time.

Complicated feelings such as happiness, fear, and so on swirled in his heart.

What if Bao'er stopped smiling at him like this one day? What would he do then?

"Hey, look. Are the two handsome guys over there a couple?"

Someone shouted, and the passersby all looked over.

Fu Tingyu looked at the passersby with a cold gaze. Those who saw him looking froze. And the gossips ended as if someone had pressed the mute button.

Qin Shu glanced at the passersby. What Fu Tingyu and her were doing just now was indeed too misleading. She pulled the man's arm and they walk out of the mall.

Fu Tingyu still wanted to buy Bao'er some intimate clothes. But when he lowered his eyes and looked at the person who was pulling his arm, it seemed that he would not be able to buy them tonight.

After walking out of the mall, Qin Shu let go of the man's arm and strolled on the sidewalk with the man.

It was rare for them to be able to stroll on the bustling streets so leisurely. On top of that, she had taken care of Ming Wei as she wished today. It proved her capabilities.

Her mood could be said to be extremely good.

But all of this was not enough. She had to become stronger.

When Fu Tingyu turned his head, he saw a flamboyant and willful smile on the girl's face. The way her lips curved up looked perfect.

How long had it been since he had seen the girl smile like that?

When Fu Tingyu and Qin Shu had returned to their car, President Ba had already taken a nap in Ye Luo's arms. When President Ba saw Qin Shu, he simply looked up. There was no lack of nobility in his laziness.

Ye Luo looked at President Ba in his arms expressionlessly. He had an urge to throw President Ba into the trash can.

President Ba seemed to have guessed Ye Luo's thoughts. He raised his eyes and looked askance at Ye Luo. He seemed to be saying, 'I dare you.'

Qin Shu had President Ba's back, which is equivalent to Fu Tingyu having President Ba's back. And Fu Tingyu was Ye Luo's boss.

Ye Luo didn't know what to say. President Ba was indeed formidable.

Qin Shu watched at how the man and the cat stared at each other. No one would have guessed that the ruthless Ye Luo would lose to a cat.

She smiled and got into the car.

Fu Tingyu got in after the girl.

Ye Luo carried President Ba and got into the passenger seat.

Shi Yan got into the car with a smile on his face, because this was the first time he had seen Fu Tingyu walk around a shopping mall and stroll on the sidewalk.

After returning to the hotel

Fu Tingyu stayed in the living room, preparing for his meeting with President He for their future partnership.

After Qin Shu returned to the guest room, she didn't even have time to change out of her suit. She got to the writing desk and quickly turned on her laptop because she was half an hour late again.

The loss was detrimental because she had no prior knowledge of the lesson material, and she had a young professor with a unique teaching style.

After Qin Shu connected to the meeting, she saw a... candied art?

Qin Shu looked at the person making the candied art in front of her. She looked like a girl wearing a bun on her head. She was wearing a sleeveless shirt and pants that reached her thighs. They were casual clothing.

Chapter 184: Traps Everywhere

The set of clothing looked like the uniform of a martial arts school, but there didn't seem to be any martial arts school in Jiang City that used black and red materials.

The style seemed different too.

Although Qin Shu could only see her back, it wasn't hard to tell that the person was a mischievous little girl.

At this moment, a slender figure moved over from the side. Only a small part of the military green T-shirt could still be seen.

A well-defined hand showed up on Qin Shu's screen and the candied art was removed.

The young professor: Why the delay?

Qin Shu: Something happened.

The young professor was silent for a few seconds. It was probably because of the suit Qin Shu was wearing, the young professor had already guessed that she was preoccupied with something.

The young professor: no class for tonight.

Qin Shu was stunned when she heard this and wondered if the young professor was angry?

Qin Shu: Is there something you need to take care of, Professor?

Qin Shu asked tentatively.

The young professor: Yes, I need to take care of something.

He had planned to only teach for half an hour, but Qin Shu showed up half an hour late.

Qin Shu let out a sigh of relief. It was good that he wasn't angry, because it was difficult to find a suitable professor for Qin Shu.

After the young professor left the meeting, she exited the meeting room as well.

At this moment, Fu Tingyu walked in from outside. He saw the person sitting in front of the computer, dressed in a suit. There was less gentleness in her appearance and more handsome spirit.

He walked to the girl's side and looked at her.

Qin Shu noticed that the man had walked in. She raised her head and their gazes met.

"I'm going to He's mansion tomorrow. You stay in the hotel. Ye Luo will protect you."

Fu Tingyu's voice was low and protective.

Qin Shu was stunned. She was going to be looked after by Ye Luo again?

Then, she realized that something was off.

He had allowed her to attend the banquet. There was no reason why she can't also go to He's mansion as well.

She asked tentatively, "Is it inconvenient for me to go?"

Fu Tingyu said, "He's mansion is not a banquet hall. I'm afraid that you'll be bored if you go. You can go out tomorrow and have fun. Let Ye Luo accompany you."

Qin Shu thought for a while and nodded. "Okay. It's my first time coming to South Asia. I will have some fun here."

Fu Tingyu saw that the girl agreed and pulled her into his arms. He said in a low voice, "Bao'er."

"Hmm?" Qin Shu looks at the man, confused.

Fu Tingyu pressed his chin against the girl's hair and asked in a low voice, "What did you call me today?"

"Elder brother." Qin Shu turned her head. Her voice sounded uncertain, "Didn't you tell me to refer to you as my elder brother in public?"

Fu Tingyu smiled and hummed "Mmm."

Qin Shu glanced at the man and thought that he was smiling.

The next day

Morning

Fu Tingyu and Shiyan went to He's mansion.

Qin Shu wore an orange dress, a white backpack, a black mask, and white sneakers as she strolled down the street.

She gave off a youthful and vibrant aura.

Ye Luo was holding President Ba, numerous shopping bags that carried the things Qin Shu had purchased as he followed her with a poker face.

He looked up at Qin Shu, who was walking in front of him. He regretted not just locking her in her room. That would've made everything simpler.

Qin Shu didn't have to turn around to know what Ye Luo was thinking. But what she was most concerned about now was whether Fu Tingyu would run into any problems at He's mansion.

She turned back and glanced at President Ba.

President Ba's eyes were half-closed. He looked like he was about to fall asleep. When he read the meaning behind the look Qin Shu gave, he immediately became energetic and full of energy.

Chapter 185: Tricked by the Partnership

Qin Shu retracted her gaze and glanced at the shops around her. Finally, her gaze landed on a candy shop.

South Asia's handmade candy was famous. Since she was already here, she naturally had to bring some home.

She walked to a candy shop. They sold hard candy, soft candy, milk candy... that came in all kinds of flavors and colors.

She took a plastic bag and placed a little bit of each candy inside the bag. She handed the bag to the shop owner to see the cost.

Ye Luo still looked at Qin Shu with a poker face. She was an adult, yet she still liked candies?

At this time, President Ba seemed to be frightened. He jumped out of Ye Luo's arms and ran into the crowd.

After Qin Shu paid for her candies, she turned around and saw that President Ba was running away. She glared at Ye Luo. "What are you standing there for? If you don't chase him, you won't be able to catch him."

Ye Luo looked in the direction where President Ba was running to and then back at Qin Shu. He seemed to be hesitating. Should he go catch President Ba or look after Qin Shu?

“I’ll go if you don’t go.”

Qin Shu tightened her backpack straps and ran in the direction where President Ba was running.

Ye Luo was stunned for two seconds and then quickly chased after her.

They were at a street food block, and it was a weekend. So it was very crowded.

Qin Shu leaned against the door of a shop and watched as Ye Luo chase after President Ba down the block. After he entered the crowd, she walked out and ran in the opposite direction.

This place was not far from He’s mansion. It took about twenty minutes by foot and a few minutes by car.

This was also the reason why she chose this place to shop.

Qin Shu walked to the end of the block and waited for a while. She was about to hail a taxi when a luxury car stopped in front of her.

She was about to leave when the car window rolled down. She saw the person in the car. The man in the car was also looking at her.

The person sitting in the car was a man around twenty-four or twenty-five years old. His skin was excessively pale, a sickly paleness.

His well-defined face carried a trace of gentleness.

His features were like a painting, and his purple eyes added a sense of mystery.

His gaze was gentle, like that of a refined gentleman.

The color of his lips was also a little faint.

Qin Shu quickly sized him up and said, “I’m looking for a taxi.”

“I can give you a ride. All you have to do is give me a piece of your candy.”

The man in the car looked at the girl behind the black mask in front of him and then at the plastic bag in her hand.

Qin Shu, who was about to leave, stopped when she heard that. She turned around and looked at the man in the car. Even her voice sounded a little sickly.

She lowered her eyes and looked at the candies in the plastic bag. She took a few candies from the bag and handed them to him.

“You can have some candy, but you don’t need to give me a ride.”

The man in the car looked up at the girl in front of him. Her starry eyes were pure and bright. It was a pair of beautiful eyes that people wanted to see more of.

He looked at the girl’s extended hand. Her hand was slender and fair. Her nails were round and her hands were very beautiful.

Qin Shu frowned. "Don't you want candy? Don't just look at them."

The man in the car chuckled. He then reached out and picked out a hard candy from her palm. He held it in his hand.

Qin Shu looked at the hand that he extended. It was too pale, and the joints were more distinct than that of ordinary people. His fingers were also long.

She was sure of one thing when she saw the man's hand. He was most likely unwell.

The man in the car took the candy, raised his purple eyes, and looked at the girl in front of him. "Where do you want to go? I have nothing else to do, I can give you a ride."

Chapter 186: Fu Tingyu Was Framed

Qin Shu raised her head and glanced around the street. She noticed that the three taxis that had stopped by the roadside earlier were all occupied. She lowered her eyes again and looked at the luxurious car in front of her. She thought for a moment and nodded. "Thank you."

The man chuckled. "You gave me candy, and I will give you a ride. It's just mutual benefit. There's no need to thank me."

Qin Shu opened the door at the back of the car and sat inside. Then, she closed the car door.

After the man started the engine, he looked at the rearview mirror and asked, "Where do you want to go?"

Qin Shu said, "To Fu Fu Road."

"It's pretty close." The man stepped on the accelerator and drove towards Fu Fu Road as he spoke.

It was a few minutes' drive away, and they arrived in the blink of an eye.

The man parked the car steadily by the side of the road.

"Thank you."

Qin Shu thanked him, opened the car door, and got out. After closing the car door, she walked to another villa area without looking back.

The man in the car watched the girl walk away without looking back. He lowered his eyes and looked at the candy in his palm. An unnoticeable gentleness flashed in his eyes.

He opened the wrapping paper and put the candy into his mouth. He ate it slowly. He could taste a hint of sweetness in the candy.

His mood also brightened up.

He glanced at the girl who had disappeared. He saw that she was carrying a bag of candy in her hand when he was at the intersection earlier. It was really a coincidence, so he drove his car over.

Thinking of his behavior just now, he chuckled again with a hint of self-mockery. Then, he drove away.

Qin Shu squatted in the corner with a small bronze mirror in her hand. She faced the direction of the car by the roadside. After seeing the car in the mirror leave, she put away the small bronze mirror and walked out from behind the wall.

The reason why she was so vigilant was that she was afraid that the man and the people in the mansion would know each other. She was just taking precautions.

Five meters away from the He mansion was a lotus pond. Beside the lotus pond was a hexagonal gazebo.

Five minutes later-

Qin Shu was sitting on a stone bench in the gazebo. She wore a Bluetooth headset and looked at the computer screen in front of her. Her smooth and pale hands quickly entered complex codes.

A mansion like the He mansion would have a strong security system. Other than the bodyguards, they would definitely have installed surveillance cameras.

After a while, dozens of surveillance videos appeared on the computer screen.

If they had invited guests over to discuss cooperation, the meeting would definitely be held either in the living room or the study.

After Qin Shu found the surveillance camera in the living room, she saw President He sitting on the sofa in the living room. Behind him stood a row of bodyguards in navy blue uniforms.

Fu Tingyu sat opposite President He with a calm expression.

Shi Yan stood behind Fu Tingyu with a vigilant expression.

President He said "I don't want to believe that Mr. Fu would do such a thing, but I received news last night that this assassination is indeed related to you. How can I be able to trust in you and cooperate with you?"

Fu Tingyu replied. "I'm here to talk about cooperation. As for the person who assassinated you, it has nothing to do with me."

Qin Shu listened to the conversation between Fu Tingyu and President He. She realized one thing, it was that someone had framed Fu Tingyu for hiring an assassin.

No wonder Fu Tingyu didn't let her follow him. He must have received news last night that someone had framed him.

He was afraid that if she followed him, there would be an unpredictable danger.

If President He really suspected that Fu Tingyu had hired an assassin, then not only would the cooperation fail, it would also be a problem for Fu Tingyu to leave the mansion.

No matter how strong Fu Tingyu was, he couldn't defeat so many bodyguards and bullets.

Even if he could escape, he would not be able to avoid getting injured.

Qin Shu's eyes lit up when she saw the red carp in the lotus pond from the corner of her eye.

Chapter 187: Your Miserable End

Qin Shu put away her laptop and walked to the side of the lotus pond. She looked at the pond full of red carp and took out a dagger from her backpack. Just as she was about to attack, she found a dead fish under the lotus leaf.

She put away the dagger and reached out to fish out the dead fish out. She could even smell the stench from the fish.

She endured the stench and quickly turned around to leave with the fish.

Fifteen minutes later-

Qin Shu was wearing a black casual sports suit with a zipper down the front and a cap on her head. Her long hair had turned into short hair.

There was an exquisite box in her hand. It was obvious that it had been filled with valuable items.

She had brought her clothes and hat with her. As for the box, she had exchanged it with candy from the children playing by the roadside.

Qin Shu carried the box to the door of He mansion and handed it to the bodyguard inside.

“This is for President He. If you open it without permission, you will bear the consequences.”

Qin Shu wore a voice changer and spoke in a low and serious tone.

The bodyguard did not dare to be negligent. He took the box and sized it up. When he did not find anything wrong with it, he walked in with the box.

Qin Shu turned around and left when she saw the bodyguard entering the mansion.

The bodyguard walked into the living room with the box.

The atmosphere in the living room was very tense.

Fu Tingyu stood upright in the living room. His patience had reached its limit. He looked coldly at President He with a murderous look in his eyes.

Shi Yan stood beside Fu Tingyu, protecting his master at all times.

He was confident that they would be able to fight their way out if they had to.

President He’s eyes were also filled with anger. There was not a man who would let another man who had wanted to murder him get off scot-free.

Seeing this, the bodyguard lowered his head and walked straight to President He. He placed the box on the glass coffee table in front of him.

“Sir, this is for you. Someone said that you have to open it personally.”

President He looked at the exquisite box in front of him with a hint of doubt in his eyes.

Fu Tingyu’s pitch-black eyes looked at the box on the glass coffee table without a trace of emotion.

President He was puzzled and a little curious. He reached out to untie the ribbon on the box in front of him and then removed the lid of the box.

When he saw what was inside, he was so scared that he shrank back. He couldn't help but exclaim, "Ah! !!" The lid of the box in his hand fell to the ground with a loud sound.

The bodyguard standing at the side was also shocked. He was about to get into trouble.

The other bodyguards who were present immediately surrounded Presidente to protect him.

One of the bodyguards raised his leg and kicked the box on the glass coffee table away.

The box and the things inside flew out in an arc and fell to the ground.

Everyone present saw what was inside the box.

It was a dead fish. The fish's eyes were white and its intestines and roe flowed out from its stomach. A stench filled the living room.

President He had been afraid because he had been taken aback. After that, he felt that it was a prank.

Before anyone could react, the display screen in the living room suddenly lit up, but no one could be seen. A clear male voice slowly sounded.

"Do you see this fish? You will end up like it."

President He looked at the display screen when he heard the voice. His voice trembled because he was afraid. . He roared angrily, "Who are you?"

The display screen suddenly turned black.

President He, who had experienced a life and death situation felt as if he had been enveloped by fear. He was so afraid that his legs felt weak.

Meanwhile, in a corner-

Qin Shu watched President He's reaction on the monitor and couldn't help but laugh. She had candy in her mouth, and when the candy knocked against her teeth, it made a crisp sound.

The person who could make President He easily suspect Fu Tingyu was definitely not a simple person.

Chapter 188: Can't Do Anything About the Ruthless Person

Fu Tingyu looked away from the display screen. The doubt in his eyes disappeared in a flash. He glanced at President He indifferently and said in a cold voice. "President He, I shall not bother you anymore."

After saying that, Fu Tingyu turned around and left.

Shi Yan followed closely behind.

Only then did President He react. He hurriedly called out to Fu Tingyu, "Mr. Fu, wait a moment."

Fu Tingyu stopped in his tracks and turned around to look at President He. There was a hint of hostility in his eyes, causing President He's heart to tremble with trepidation.

“President He, is there anything else you would like to say?”

President He hurriedly said, “It’s all a misunderstanding. Mr. Fu, we can continue to talk about the cooperation.”

Fu Tingyu sneered, “President He, aren’t you saying that all too lightly? Are you just going to say that it was a simple misunderstanding and pretend that this had not happened? Cooperation is about trust. If President He doesn’t trust me, then even if we successfully negotiate this cooperation, similar incidents will happen in the future. Who will bear the responsibility for this then?”

President He was in the wrong. He was indeed suspicious of Fu Tingyu after listening to the words of others.

He said, “It was indeed my fault this time. I can guarantee that similar things will not happen again in the future. Let’s continue to talk about cooperation. When the time comes, I can give you priority.”

This was President He’s biggest concession.

Priority also equated to privilege and it would facilitate Fu Tingyu’s future moves.

It could be said that this would open the door of convenience for Fu Tingyu.

The corners of Qin Shu’s lips lifted when she heard that. Her anxiety also reduced as well.

She took off her headphones, closed her laptop, put it in her backpack, and picked up her backpack to find a place to change.

It’s been almost an hour. Boss was probably tired of running.

She wondered if Ye Luo would be mentally drained having to run after a cat.

15 minutes later-

Qin Shu, dressed in an orange dress and wearing a black mask on her cheeks, appeared on the food street with a backpack on her shoulders.

The candy store was right behind her.

Qin Shu took a piece of candy and popped it in her mouth. Then, she took a few steps forward and saw Ye Luo carrying Boss in his arms as he approached her steadily.

He was also carrying several bags.

When she got closer, she realized that Ye Luo’s forehead was covered in sweat. His tanned skin was slightly red because of the heat.

Qin Shu reached out to take Boss from his arms and did not forget to thank him. "You've finally found Boss. Thank you for your hard work."

Boss was really tired from running. When he was tucked in Qin Shu's arms, he stretched lazily and curled up. He closed his eyes and went to sleep.

He had never run for so long before. The key was that he felt like he was going to die when he was chased by Ye Luo.

Ye Luo looked at Qin Shu expressionlessly and said in his usual voice, "Young madam, it's time to go back."

Qin Shu looked down at Boss and found that he had closed his eyes and had fallen asleep.

She turned her wrist and looked at the time on her watch. Then she raised her head to look at Ye Luo. "It's lunchtime now. Let's go back after lunch. I'll treat you to lunch as a thank you for helping me find Boss. How about it?"

Ye Luo did not have to look at the time to know that it was already noon. The sun was shining above his head, and he was indeed hungry.

Qin Shu saw that Ye Luo did not say anything, so she took it as an agreement.

She asked, "Do you want to eat beef noodles?"

Ye Luo glanced at Qin Shu but did not say anything.

Qin Shu took it as a tacit agreement. "Beef noodles are quite delicious. If you don't believe me, you'll know after you try it later."

In fact, she had not had beef noodles in a long while and she had a sudden craving for it.

Chapter 189: No One Could Compete with Him

It was lunchtime, and the noodle shop was packed with customers.

Qin Shu led Ye Luo into a noodle shop. The shop owner had no time to take care of the new customers as the noodle shop was packed with customers. They had no choice but to find their own seats.

Ye Luo stood behind Qin Shu. He was nearly 189 cm tall, so he could see further. His unperturbed gaze swept around the noodle shop and saw two empty seats in the corner.

He turned his head to look at Qin Shu and said in a flat voice, "There are two empty seats in the right corner."

Qin Shu looked to the right when she heard that and realized that there were two empty seats. She said, "Hurry up and take a seat, or there will be no more seats."

She hurriedly walked over. She had no choice. It was lunchtime and there were a lot of people in the shop.

Ye Luo was stunned for a few seconds. It seemed like he had never heard of people fighting for a seat to eat. He glanced around the noodle shop and realized that there were quite a lot of people. If they didn't take a seat, there might really be no seats in the next second.

After he understood the situation, Ye Luo strode towards the seat on the right. He had a tall and wide figure, a cold face, and a violent look in his eyes. Those who were in his way unconsciously made way for him, allowing him to successfully take up the seat.

This was the first time Ye Luo had done something like fighting over a seat. In the past, he had always fought over being the first to hit someone.

The male customer who followed closely behind with his girlfriend saw that Ye Luo had arrived a step earlier than him and that the seat that he had set his eyes on had been snatched away. He felt a little unhappy about it.

"I saw this seat long ago. He only got the seat because he's got long legs."

Ye Luo expressionlessly glanced at the man in front of him. He was about 174 centimeters tall and was neither fat nor thin.

He said coldly, "Are you not happy about this?"

When the male customer's girlfriend saw Ye Luo's expressionless handsome face, she could not help but praise, "He's so handsome."

The male customer said angrily, "How is he handsome? Can he be as handsome as your boyfriend?"

His girlfriend lowered her head and whispered, "He's much more handsome than you..."

The male customer's face instantly darkened. "What did you say?"

His girlfriend knew that he was angry, so she didn't say anything else.

Qin Shu carried Boss and also walked over. She saw that Ye Luo had managed to get the seat.

She smiled and walked over to sit opposite Ye Luo. She glanced at the couple standing next to her, and the two of them also glanced at Qin Shu.

The woman snorted. "She must be ugly, so she's wearing a mask."

The man said, "Her eyes are very good-looking, and her skin is also very pale."

The woman narrowed her eyes and glared at him. "What do you mean?"

The male customer knew that the man who had taken the seat was not to be trifled with. He held his girlfriend's hand and said impatiently, "Okay, okay, let's go find an empty seat to eat. I'm starving."

"You just said that the woman has pretty eyes." The woman was still very unhappy.

The voices of the two people gradually drowned out the noisy noodle shop.

Qin Shu ordered two servings of beef noodles, one large and one small.

Not long after, a waiter brought over two servings of steaming hot beef noodles. Without asking, he placed the large portion in front of Ye Luo and the small portion in front of Qin Shu.

After putting the bowls down, the waiter left in a hurry because he was too busy.

Qin Shu looked at the steaming hot beef noodles in front of her. She was already hungry to begin with, but the smell of the beef noodles made her even hungrier.

She impatiently took out a pair of chopsticks from the chopsticks bucket, picked up a few strands of noodles, blew on them, and started eating.

Ye Luo glanced at Qin Shu across from him. He had not expected her to choose such a small noodle shop. There were too many people and it was noisy. They even had to fight over seats.

However, he was soon distracted by the steaming and fragrant beef noodles in front of him.

He hadn't eaten beef noodles for a long while.

Chapter 190: Sir, Can You Not?

Qin Shu saw that there were vinegar and hot sauce on the table. She put down her chopsticks, picked up the vinegar, and poured it into the noodles. Then, she picked up the hot sauce and scooped a spoonful of it into the noodles.

When she was done, she picked up her chopsticks and mixed her noodles up. Only then did she pick up a few strands of noodles, brought them near to her mouth, blew on them, and then ate them.

Ye Luo glanced at the vinegar and hot sauce on the table. He picked them up and put a little of them in his noodles as well. Then he picked up his chopsticks and ate them. The hot sauce was hotter than he had imagined, and his forehead was covered with sweat in a short while.

Qin Shu's forehead was also covered with a layer of sweat, and even her nose was covered with a layer of fine sweat.

Fortunately, the noodle shop had air-conditioning. Otherwise, the sweat on their faces might drip into the soup while eating hot and spicy beef noodles on such a hot day.

Boss was lying on a chair at the side, sleeping soundly. It would not open its eyes even for beef.

Qin Shu paid for the noodles.

Ye Luo carried several bags and held Boss in his arms and stood by the side, watching as Qin Shu paid.

A man who used force to solve problems... has now become an errand boy.

Deep down inside, Ye Luo...

After paying, Qin Shu and Ye Luo walked out of the noodle shop one after the other.

After going out, Qin Shu also did not continue to walk around. Instead, she returned to the hotel with Ye Luo.

Qin Shu watched as Boss peeled open his eyelids as it laid on the sofa. Boss was about to wake up. She stood up and left the bedroom and saw Ye Luo making a call on the sofa.

She waited for Ye Luo to hang up the phone before saying, "Get the hotel to send up a steamed fish."

Ye Luo looked up at Qin Shu and made a sound of acknowledgment. Then, he lowered his head and dialed the number for room service.

"Send a steamed fish to the suite, room 808."

Half an hour later, the service staff brought the steamed fish in.

Qin Shu put a layer of waterproof cloth on the sofa before putting the fish on it.

Boss's eyes lit up when he saw the delicious fish. Without waiting for Qin Shu to say anything, he walked elegantly to the fish and lowered his head to eat.

Although he was hungry, he still maintained his elegant eating style.

Qin Shu watched for a while with a smile on her face. She got up, walked to the square table, and sat down to watch a movie for a while.

At three o'clock in the afternoon, Fu Tingyu and Shi Yan returned to the hotel.

The door of the guest room was pushed open from the outside. Fu Tingyu's tall and slender figure walked in from the outside.

Qin Shu had just finished watching a movie when she heard movement. She turned around and saw Fu Tingyu walking toward her. He arched his eyebrows at her.

Fu Tingyu walked in front of her and sat down. He glanced at the movie that had already ended on the computer screen. It was a foreign movie called "Black Hero." It was about hackers.

Then, he saw that there was a lot of candy in the convenience bag on the table. There was also a pile of wrapper beside it. She must have had candy while watching the movie

He looked back at the girl and asked in a low voice, "How did it go today?"

Qin Shu noticed that the man's gaze stopping on the computer screen for a few seconds. She followed him and looked at the computer screen. The movie had already ended, but there was a pile of candy wrappers beside it... She had had a lot of candy while watching the movie

"I went to the food Street today and had a lot of fun, but there were a lot of people."

She tried to divert the man's attention.

Fu Tingyu had called Ye Luo before he came back, so he knew that she had had a good time today.

He looked at the pile of colored candy wrappers beside the computer. He stretched out his slender fingers and slowly counted them one by one. The pretty candy wrappers moved beneath his slender fingers.
