Chapter 43: He Looked for Her Like a Mad Man

Fu Tingyan's heart quivered for a moment. He glanced at his cell phone screen and realized that it was Yu calling him.

That's a relief.

"Grandmother, I'm going upstairs."

Fu Tingyan picked up his cell phone and stopped eating. He turned around and went upstairs.

The old madam saw her grandson's excited and furtive expression, and was more convinced that the boy was in love.

:00 p.m

Ning Meng walked into the bedroom with a glass of milk in her hand and handed it to Qin Shu. "Madam, milk."

Ever since Ning Meng entered Bright Garden, she would prepare a glass of milk for Qin Shu every night, saying that it would help her sleep.

Qin Shu reached out to take the glass of milk. She finished it in one gulp and then returned the empty glass to Ning Meng.

Ning Meng took the glass and turned around to leave. Suddenly, she remembered something and stopped in her tracks.

"Young Madam, Miss Qin came to look for you on the first day you went to the island. When she found out that you were not in Bright Garden, she wanted to take Boss home to play with it."

Qin Shu frowned. "What happened next?"

"She is your younger sister, so I couldn't say anything about it. When she went to pick up the pet cage, Boss suddenly jumped out of the cage, scratched Miss Qin's face. She cried in fear when she saw the blood. She said that she wanted to catch Boss, but it ran away after scratching her." Ning Meng was a little scared just thinking about it now. Being clawed in the face must be disfiguring, right?

Qin Shu sneered in her heart. Qin Ya had wanted to take Boss away while Qin Shu was away to seek revenge but she had gotten scratched again in the end.

No wonder she saw that Qin Ya had let her hair down just like Qin Shu today. It was to cover the wounds on her face.

Meanwhile, the scar on Qin Shu's face had already disappeared. What was at the corner of her eye now was a fake scar.

“Remember to give Boss extra food tomorrow.”

Ning Meng was dumbfounded. Qin Shu’s sister had been scratched by Boss, yet she still wanted to give Boss an extra meal?

Ning Meng walked out with a glass in her hand.

Qin Shu thought that the scar on her face had suddenly disappeared because she had been scratched by Boss.

If Qin Ya was scratched a second time, would it make the first scar disappear?

If it had also disappeared, then she would have to think of another way to return to the villa.

Qin Shu switched on her computer. What she wanted to do now was to clarify that she had not gone to the bar as an escort.

Actually, she had been on duty that night and had been deliberately locked in the classroom by someone. She had forgotten to bring her cell phone then, so she was locked in there for three hours.

In the end, she was discovered by the security guards and released.

During those three hours, Fu Tingyu had searched for her crazily and almost turned the entire Jiangcheng upside down.

The man who had found her in the school had hugged her tightly, making her feel safe for the first time.

Naturally, he had not let her come to school the next day.

That was why all the other students had believed Qin Ya when Qin Ya had slandered her the next day.

Qin Ya had told her about this matter in an exaggerated manner after that. In addition to her fear of Fu Tingyu, the stress that this matter gave her made her more and more depressed.

There were video surveillance cameras in the classroom corridor. As long as she retrieved the surveillance footage, she would be able to explain that someone was deliberately smearing her reputation.

It took quite a while for Qin Shu to find the surveillance footage from two months ago.

After she found it, she copied it directly to her phone.

After doing all that, Qin Shu stretched her back and felt free from worries. She looked at the time and saw that the man was not back yet, so she got up and went to the study.

She only realized that the man was in the bathroom taking a shower when she heard the sound of water in the bathroom after entering the study.

She went to the bathroom door. She could see the vague outline of the man’s figure through the translucent bathroom door. She thought that it must be difficult for him to shower given the injuries on his shoulder ridge and back.

She raised her hand and knocked on the door. “Shall I come in and help you?”
