Chapter 971 Did He Like Her?

It seemed as though Qin Shu was not the one who had started the fire first.

The woman on the bed turned over and faced inside. She hugged the quilt in her arms, just like last night. It was as though she could only sleep peacefully with something in her arms.

The man suddenly remembered the event over lunch. Qin Shu looked at him miserably after the food was thrown all over the ground.

Fu Tingyu frowned and stopped looking at the woman on the bed. Instead, he turned around to walk up to the couch and sat down with his legs crossed. He picked up the cigarette box on the coffee table, took out a cigarette from it, put it in his mouth, and lit it up with the lighter on it.

Fu Tingyu took a deep puff of the cigarette, and white smoke came out from the corner of his mouth. He smoked as he looked at the woman sleeping on the bed annoyingly.

Fu Tingyu smoked one cigarette after another, but it failed to calm the man down. Instead, he became angrier and angrier. It was as if there was a fire burning in his body, which made him very annoyed.

When the cigarette in his hand was about to burn out, the man pushed the cigarette butt into the ashtray. He got up, picked up his coat, put it on, opened the door, and walked out.

Since it was a winter night, it was particularly cold.

The man was now very angry, so he did not feel cold.

When Qin Shu woke up the next day, there was no one in the house.

People in the village had to work to support themselves.

Qin Shu knew the man had most probably gone out to work.

She walked into the kitchen, rolled up her sleeves, and began to cook.

She knew that he might throw away the food like yesterday, but she just wanted to cook.

This time, she decided to make something simpler. She washed the rice and saved it for later.

There was bacon hanging on the balcony. She took a kitchen knife and cut some off.

Then she took out the corn, chicken, and peas from the refrigerator.

After washing them, she cut the chicken into chunks.

She plugged in the power to the rice cooker, poured some cooking oil, placed the ingredients in, and stir-fried them.

When it was almost done, she scooped up the rice, put in some water, and evenly placed the stir-fried food on top. Then, she closed the lid and pressed the power to start cooking rice.

This way, he could eat the hot dishes when he came back.

After doing all this, Qin Shu left. Before she left, she closed the door behind her.

When she returned to the village chief's house, she saw Hao Ze and the others coming out of the village chief's house carrying bags. She recalled they were here to catch worms in the upper Nine Bay.

Were they on their way out?

The village chief saw Qin Shu and asked her, "Miss Qin, where did you go at this hour in the morning?"

"I had something to attend to. Are they heading out now?" Qin Shu looked at the four high-level Gu masters quizzically.

The village chief smiled and explained, "They aren't leaving. They are going to Nine Bay to catch insects and make Gu worms."

Qin Shu looked at them knowingly. She asked curiously, "Are there still insects in winter?"

The village chief answered, "Uh huh. There are three seasons to choose from each year if you want to make Gu worms."

Qin Shu said with an enlightened look on her face, "I see."

Hao Ze suddenly asked, "Do you want to go take a look?"

Qin Shu glanced at the high-level Gu masters in front of her and asked hesitantly, "Are you sure?"

Hao Ze smiled, "Of course."

Sun Shang stood behind Hao Ze as she said, "You are welcome to join us. The process of producing Gu worms is open knowledge to begin with."

"Then give me a minute so that I can get ready."

The moment Qin Shu finished her sentence, she ran towards the second floor.

Hao Ze turned his head and watched as Qin Shu ran.

Sun Shang also looked at Qin Shu as she went upstairs and said jokingly, "Hao Ze, could it be that you like her?"

"I didn't realize that Hao Ze's taste was so unique," Li Qian also joked.

However, the village chief smiled and said, "The people of Kua Yi Village like women like Miss Qin. She would have no trouble marrying herself off here."

Li Qian suddenly realized, "I almost forgot the aesthetic taste of Kua Yi Village is different from other parts of Miao Xin."

Hao Ze simply replied, "I'm not from around here."

o one knew what Hao Ze was thinking since he did not explain himself. He neither admitted that he liked Qin Shu nor denied taking an interest in her.

Before long, Qin Shu came out of the room. She ran down the wooden stairs and looked at them with a smile.

The five of them walked towards the entrance of Nine Bay.

The village chief did not follow them, he only sent them to the entrance before returning.

The tropical rainforest was very humid.

Before entering, the five of them stopped and put on their rain boots.

The rain boots were bought online, so they came cheap.

After Qin Shu put on her rain boots, she followed Hao Ze and the rest into Nine Bay.

The tropical rain forest was not easy to walk on, but with Hao Ze and the rest leading the way, it was much easier for Qin Shu.

Perhaps they were paying special attention to Qin Shu since she was a woman.

“Miss Qin, have you ever thought of learning how to make Gu worms since you are so interested in the subject?” Sun Shang turned around to look at Qin Shu and asked casually.

“Gu worm creation is considered a skill, right? Can I learn it too?” Qin Shu looked at Hao Ze and asked quizzically.

Hao Ze replied, “No, that’s not how it works.”

Qin Shu did not take it to heart and continued, “Are only people from Miao Xin able to learn it?”

Hao Ze replied, “No, Gu making is only for people from Miao Xin. Also, the maker has to satisfy special physical conditions. Both conditions have to be fulfilled to get started.”

Sun Shang interrupted, “Then has Miss Qin ever thought of learning?”

Qin Shu answered candidly, “No, I was just curious.”

“It might not be a good idea to learn it.” Tan Lin spoke finally breaking the silence.

“What do you mean?” Qin Shu looked at Tan Lin. Ever since they met the day before yesterday, she had not heard him speak. He had a thin figure, his skin was a healthy wheat color, and his appearance was the least outstanding among the four. Also, he looked kind.

Tan Lin turned to look at Qin Shu. “If you do not do it correctly, you might get hurt. In severe cases, your life will be endangered.”

This was the first time Qin Shu heard about the risks entailed in the job. She looked at the four people in front of her and said, "Doesn't that mean it's a very dangerous profession?"

"Not all the time." Hao Ze smiled nonchalantly.

Qin Shu asked them, "Then when you decided to go into the profession, did you consider this problem?"

"I did not consider it since I am an orphan. I went into it simply to make a living and I succeeded." Li Qian smiled gently.

"My father is a Gu master, but he was unable to reach a high-rank, so he hopes I can reach the height that he couldn't achieve," said Sun Shang.

"I was chosen by a high-ranking Gu master to be his disciple." Tan Lin's reply was simple and concise.

After Qin Shu heard their reasons for going into the trade, she realized none of them had a choice. She looked at Hao Ze, "What about you?"

This time, the man did not wait until noon to return home. He did not care if the crazy woman had left or not.

He wondered if the woman was still sleeping when he noticed the door was closed.

Did she treat his house as her own?

Fu Tingyu pushed the door open without walking in and could smell the sweet aroma of rice. It was very fragrant. It was white rice mixed with the smell of meat..

Chapter 972 Willing to Do Anything

Fu Tingyu knew the crazy woman must have cooked again without hesitation.

Fu Tingyu walked to the table and sat down. He poured himself some hot water and drank while waiting for the woman to come out so that he could talk to her again.

After waiting for a while, there was no movement in the kitchen. A trace of doubt flashed in his eyes. He put down the glass in his hand, stood up, and walked into the kitchen.

When he walked into the kitchen, he found that there was no one inside.

He saw the electric rice cooker that was emitting steam. The fragrance was coming from here.

The electric rice cooker's indicator light had already jumped to keep warm. The yellow light showed the rice was ready.

It also meant that the woman had got up very early and cooked the rice before leaving.

The man opened the electric rice cooker quizzically. The steam instantly came out, and the fragrance was even stronger than before.

When the steam dissipated, he noticed it was not just white rice. There was bacon and Kung Pao chicken. Also, rice was probably underneath the dishes.

This was the first time he had seen cooking done this way.

After hesitating for a while, he took out a clean bowl and a pair of chopsticks and filled a bowl with food and rice. He walked to the table and sat down. Then, he held up his chopsticks and sampled the food.

The essence of the dish and sauce had mixed in the rice, and blended rather well, so it tasted much better than white rice.

Before he knew it, he had eaten two bowls of rice.

When he finished eating, the man looked at the empty rice cooker and rubbed his eyebrows. He had shockingly eaten all the rice she had cooked.

He should have thrown away all the food she had cooked just like yesterday.

Fortunately, she was not here now contemplated the man.

Fu Tingyu picked up the bowls and chopsticks and walked to the edge of the sink. He began to wash the dishes and pots. This was something that he had to do every day, so he was able to do it well.

After washing, he wiped his hands clean with a towel and turned around to enter the room. He had not slept the night before and planned to catch some sleep.

He looked at the bed. Just like yesterday, the bedding was folded neatly.

He walked over and lay down on the bed. It seemed he could still smell the sweet fragrance and the smell of wine.

Since he had nothing against the smell, he did not plan to change the bedsheets and covers.

After lying on the bed for a while, he quickly fell into a deep sleep even though he was usually a light sleeper.

Qin Shu looked at Hao Ze curiously, waiting for his answer.

Hao Ze replied, "I'm talented, so I was chosen by the Long Clan."

Qin Shu reckoned Hao Ze must be very talented. As the leader of the Long Clan, the clan would undoubtedly do their utmost to groom his talent.

When they were catching worms, Qin Shu watched from the side and was unable to recognize most of the worms.

She could only recognize centipedes and other common worms.

Since it was winter, they were hard to come by, so they only caught other types of worms.

Gu masters would catch the worms and place them in a bamboo container.

The sky was getting dark, so Hao Ze and the rest did not stay in Nine Bay for long before heading down the mountain.

When they reached the foot of the mountain, the sky was already dark. Every house had its lights on.

Qin Shu followed them at a leisurely pace. When they passed by the house where Fu Tingyu lived, she turned her head to take a look. The lights were on in the house.

She wondered if the man had eaten her cooking or thrown it away just like yesterday.

Hao Ze noticed Qin Shu was a few steps behind. He glanced at the house located in a slightly more remote area and asked, "What's wrong?"

Qin Shu retracted her gaze and shook her head at him. "Nothing. The villagers here are very simple."

Hao Ze smiled. "Let's go. You must be hungry."

"Okay." Qin Shu glanced at the house and followed behind them.

When they returned to the village chief's house, they had already prepared dinner.

Qin Shu sat at the table and ate dinner. After being out the entire day, she had only eaten some dry food for lunch. She was indeed a little hungry.

Ye Luo had already eaten dinner. He was sitting opposite her, telling her the results of today's investigation.

"I've already asked all the villagers here. They insist Lord Fu has lived here all his life."

Qin Shu stopped eating and looked up at Ye Luo. "They all said that?"

Ye Luo nodded. "Yes."

Qin Shu pursed her lips. She didn't believe the man had always lived here. She could not possibly have made a mistake. He was undoubtedly Fu Tingyu.

Then why did the villagers say that he had lived here since he was young?

Ye Luo asked, "Young Madam Fu, could there be a mistake?"

Qin Shu clenched her chopsticks and shook her head hard. "Impossible. He is Fu Tingyu. There is no way I could have gotten it wrong."

"All 200 villagers said he has always lived here." Ye Luo repeated what he had learned as if to remind Qin Shu that they might really have encountered someone who simply resembled Fu Tingrui.

Qin Shu paused and hesitated for a moment. "I will prove he is Fu Tingyu."

Ye Luo dropped the subject on hearing this.

Qin Shu continued to eat the food in front of her. She felt hungry just a moment ago, but now she had lost her appetite.

She went to take a shower after dinner. Since she had been in the forest for a day, she was starting to smell strange.

There was a bath barrel here and an indefinite supply of water.

After the hot water filled the bath barrel, she took off her clothes and sat inside.

Qin Shu had not gotten any updates about concocting Reverse. She wondered if Hao Ze could make it.

Hao Ze was the only high-ranking Gu master she was acquainted with. He said it was a good time to try making Reverse now.

People only became close with others because they wanted something from them. Just like her.

If she asked him to help her try to create Gu worms, would he be willing?

The moment the idea emerged in her mind, she really wanted to give it a shot.

After showering, she put on her clothes and went to look for Hao Ze.

Hao Ze lived on the third floor and she got there in no time.

She stood in front of the door. When she came upstairs, she saw the light in the window was on, so she knew that Hao Ze was still awake.

She raised her hand and knocked on the door.

After a while, the door opened from the inside. Hao Ze was wearing pajamas, and his hair was still wet. It was obvious he had just showered and was about to go to bed.

Qin Shu felt that she came at a bad time.

Hao Ze smiled and asked, "What's the matter?"

Qin Shu was a little embarrassed. "Are you going to sleep? Then I'll look for you tomorrow."

"It's fine. Come in." Hao Ze opened the door a little more and turned to the side to let her in.

Qin Shu hesitated for a moment, but she still walked in. The doorsill here was a little high.

Hao Ze closed the door and turned around to ask her to sit down. "Miss Qin, please take a seat. I'll get you a glass of water."

Qin Shu said, "There's no need to go through so much trouble."

Hao Ze ignored her and continued what he was doing. He picked up the kettle and poured a glass of water for her and himself.

The two sat down at the table.

Hao Ze looked at Qin Shu, "Go on."

Qin Shu held the cup of water and hesitated for a few seconds before speaking, "I want to ask you to help me refine Gu worms."

Hao Ze had already read her mind. "Reverse, right?"

Qin Shu nodded. "That's right. If you help me, I will do anything for you in return."

Hao Ze asked, "Can you really do it?"

Qin Shu felt there was more to what he meant. She contemplated briefly and said, "Yes, as long as it is within my moral codes."

Chapter 973 Are You That Desperate for Men?

Hao Ze smiled as he said, "What if I want you to be my woman?"

Qin Shu was stunned. She didn't expect him to make such a request. Considering her current appearance, who would take an interest in her?

Furthermore, Hao Ze did not previously show any interest in her, so this request had come out of the blue.

She directly rejected it. "I can't do it."

Hao Ze was completely calm. "Why don't you give it some consideration?"

Qin Shu said, "I'm already married."

What she meant was that it was impossible for her to agree to his request.

Hao Ze said, "I didn't realize you were married. The people around here do marry young, but you're not from here."

Qin Shu said, "Is it any of your business?"

Hao Ze reminded her, "Do you still remember the Gu worms I showed you the night before?"

Qin Shu was caught by surprise, but she put on a calm expression and spoke quizzically, "What's wrong with those Gu worms?"

Hao Ze suddenly approached her and whispered into her ear.

Qin Shu's face was slightly red. It was not a Gu worm, but a test.

She just knew it. No one would approach a person for no reason. They all had other intentions.

As for his request, he might have a good reason for making this request.

When Qin Shu came out from Hao Ze's place, the moon was high in the sky. She could not help trembling as the cold wind gusted.

When she returned to her room, she found that it was already ten o'clock in the evening.

She picked up her coat and put it on, then pulled open the door and walked out.

The room where Fu Tingyu lived was not far away. It was only a ten-minute walk.

When she arrived, she saw the lights in the room had been turned off, which meant that the man was already asleep.

In the past, when they were in Jiangcheng, the man would only go to bed after twelve o'clock. Now, he had already turned off the lights and went to bed at ten o'clock. Although the quality of life here wasn't as good as in Jiangcheng, he could have a good rest. At least he didn't have to be so tired.

The first time Qin Shu went into Fu Tingyu's place, she was really drunk.

The second time she went in, she had deliberately pretended to be drunk.

This time, did she have to pretend to be drunk?

It was understandable if she pulled the stunt just once or twice, but if she did it again, it might cause suspicions.

Qin Shu decided against it and took out Broken Moon. Just like the second time, she used the sword to unlock the door and entered.

She walked to the door in the dark and gently pushed it open. When she closed the door, she was suddenly grabbed by her wrist and her body was held from behind. The other party was very strong, but she did not struggle.

She knew that the person behind her was Fu Tingyu.

"You treat this place as if it were your own home and come and go as you please." The man was close to her ear. There was no smell of alcohol coming from her tonight, which meant that she wasn't drunk.

In the dark room, the man's voice was low and sounded slightly teasing.

Qin Shu thought of the beginning when she said that he was her hubby, but it didn't have much effect, so she changed her tone. "I like you. I couldn't sleep at night, so I wanted to come and see you."

The man chuckled. "Didn't you used to call me your hubby? Have things changed?"

Qin Shu thought about it and said, "You will be once we get married."

Although she and Fu Tingyu had gotten a marriage license, they hadn't held a wedding banquet yet, so it could only be considered half married.

The man reached out his hand to grab her chin and moved her face toward him. He moved closer and pressed his ice-cold lips against her ear. He could sense the temperature rise and sneered in his heart. His deep voice could be heard as hot air entered her ear. "Are you that desperate for a man?"

Qin Shu subconsciously shrank her neck. Before this, the man had always resisted her approach.

However, there was clearly something different about him tonight. Not only did he take the initiative to approach her, he even used words to tease her as if he had been provoked.

After being stunned for a moment, she curled her lips again. "Just for you."

In the dark night, the man's deep eyes were hidden in the dark, and he was too lazy to continue arguing with her. He raised his hand holding her chin harder. "What do you want?"

Qin Shu was forced to raise her chin. She could feel the man's breath on her eyelashes, and she could also feel that the man's cheek was very close to hers. The moment she raised her chin a little, they would be able to kiss each other.

She answered readily, "I want to lure you home."

The man was stunned for a few seconds before he chuckled. "You say it with such confidence. It's good for people to have confidence, but overconfidence is not a good thing."

Qin Shu kept her head tilted, and her neck was a little sore. She tried to move, but the man tightened his grip on her chin again. She said, "It's not that I have confidence in myself, but I have confidence in you."

"Confidence in me?" The man did not understand what the woman meant. She was a very unreserved woman.

Qin Shu said in an extremely serious tone, "Yes, I'm very confident in you."

The man went quiet.

Qin Shu looked at the man who was so close to her. The light in the room was too dim, so she could not see the man's face clearly. She felt the man's warm breath on her eyebrows.

She suddenly stood on tiptoes and kissed him.

At first, she was just testing him. She felt the man's reaction was almost the same as last time.

The sudden kiss caught the man somewhat unprepared. An inexplicable feeling surged up, making him reluctant to push her away. At the same time, it gave her a lot of opportunities.

Just as Qin Shu was about to succeed, the man reacted. He grabbed her chin hard and forced them to separate.

The man panted slightly. "Enough, you crazy woman. Do you have no restraint?"

Qin Shu looked at the man. He was clearly enjoying himself just a moment ago, and now he was angry. It was certainly impossible to read the man's heart.

"Of course, I have self-restraint. I will only do this to you and not others. I can promise you that." She deliberately leaned close to his ear and said very seriously.

Although he could not see the woman's face clearly, he could feel that the woman was very close to him. The moment he heard this sentence, the man's heart felt hot for no reason. It felt as though it was exactly what he needed in his heart.

A thought crossed Qin Shu's mind when she sensed his distraction. She deftly broke free from his restraint. She turned around and wrapped her arms around the man's neck. This time, she was not kissing him. She was just hugging him like this.

She whispered into his ear, "I'm telling the truth. I like you. I want to kidnap you and bring you home. I'll only kiss you and cause trouble to you. Don't you like me?"

The man had just reached out his hand and wanted to push her away. The moment he heard this, he was stunned and even forgot to push her away.

It was undeniable that deep down in his heart, he like it when the woman did this to him.

Qin Shu said, "Have you ever heard of this saying? You never know why people fall in love with another person. I guess we all have a hole in our hearts, and the cold wind is pouring into our souls, so we urgently need a heart that is just right in shape to fill it."

The man listened to these words quietly. He was very moved.

Qin Shu let go of the man and looked up at him. Then, she slowly tiptoed and kissed him again..

Chapter 974 Sparks Might Just Fly

Fu Tingyu didn't know whether it was because of the woman's charm or his poor self-control. The moment she uttered a few words and gave him a kiss, he lost rationality.

He had obviously only met the woman a few times, but every word she said was able to strike a chord in his heart.

The man's hands automatically encircled her as he subconsciously responded to her kiss.

This time, there was no smell of wine, but there was a faint sweet smell at the tip of his nose. He was deeply immersed in it and could not extricate himself. It was like a poppy flower and very addictive.

Qin Shu was delighted when she sensed his response. This was a good sign. The man did not reject her because of his memory loss and did not let her get close.

On the contrary, he liked what she was doing.

Qin Shu had done this because she knew what the men liked.

It was also because when they were in bed, the man himself had said she could do whatever she wanted in front of him without any hesitation.

He was the only person to see this side of her.

The kiss lasted for a while. Both of them were healthy adults, so it was easy for sparks to fly.

The man realized that his willpower was really bad. He was so easily conquered that he almost lost the last bit of self-control.

He almost let down his guard and became completely defeated.

He could not let himself continue doing this.

The man suddenly pushed the woman away and attempted to calm his heart and unsteady breathing.

This was the first time he had pushed her away. Qin Shu felt after the man lost his memory, he still had some scruples.

She almost did it just now...

After a while, the man was incapable of calming the restlessness in his body for a moment. He looked up at the woman in the darkness and suddenly reached out to grab her slender and fair wrist before striding out.

Qin Shu didn't know what he was going to do, so she could only follow in his footsteps.

When they walked out of the room and reached the door, Qin Shu was pushed out by the man. She heard the man say, "If you're suffering from some crazy fit, just go home and take your medicine. Don't go crazy here."

Before she could finish her words, he had slammed the door shut. She was not given the chance to respond whatsoever.

After the man closed the door, he took a deep breath and tried his best to calm himself down. However, the more he resisted, the worse it got.

Fu Tingyu returned to his room. He had already taken a bath, but he walked into the bathroom and took another shower using cold water.

Outside the room, the cold wind whistled.

Qin Shu looked at the tightly shut door and sighed helplessly. He clearly desired her, yet he had the willpower to open the door and throw her out.

When did his willpower become so good?

If his willpower had been so good in the past, would she have slept until late in the morning?

Qin Shu ridiculed him in her heart. She had almost succeeded earlier and refused to feel discouraged.

Although men were creatures that thought with their lower bodies, Fu Tingyu was different. He would not easily fall in love with a woman.

She firmly believed this.

Although she could not stay tonight, it was not an entire loss, so she did not dwell on the matter of getting thrown out by Fu Tingyu.

Qin Shu got up early and followed the village chief's daughter-in-law to sell things on the street the next morning before dawn.

The village chief's eldest daughter-in-law was a warm-hearted person. She was a good daughter-in-law who was very filial to her parents-in-law. She was also very good at socializing.

On the way, the village chief's daughter-in-law suddenly mentioned something.

"Miss Qin, someone in the village asked about you yesterday and asked if you had a match. It was a little late last night, so I was busy and forgot to ask. I only remembered now."

Qin Shu smiled and replied, "I'm already married."

The village chief's daughter-in-law looked at Qin Shu in surprise. "You look quite young. Are you already married?"

Qin Shu nodded. "Yes, I got married a little early."

The village chief's daughter-in-law also said, "People in Kuanyi village get married early too. Do you know the family at the end of the village? Yu is really handsome. No other Miaoxin man can compare to him. There is a long queue of women lining up to marry him."

Qin Shu guessed that she was talking about Fu Tingyu on hearing this. He was indeed very handsome, and he also attracted a lot of trouble.

The village chief's eldest daughter-in-law continued, "The girls in the village often help wash his clothes and cook for him. I wanted to marry him, but he kicked me out."

Qin Shu felt the man did the right thing. Since she had taken the initiative to bring up the subject, Qin Shu asked casually, "It seems that he's really popular. How old is he?"

"He's 28 years old, but he doesn't look like he is that age at all. He has handsome youthful features."

The village chief's eldest daughter-in-law couldn't help but praise Yu when she recalled his face.

"Don't people around here marry young? He's already so old, why hasn't he gotten married yet?" Qin Shu asked in puzzlement.

"We don't know either. Maybe he doesn't want to get married. Let's not talk about him. We have already arrived on the street." The village chief's eldest daughter-in-law felt that she was a little too talkative. The moment they arrived at the street, she went about buying things.

Since she stopped talking about Fu Tingyu, Qin Shu started shopping for stuff too. She ended up buying some ingredients and food.

The street wasn't big, and she could walk to the end of the street very quickly.

After she went back, Qin Shu went back to her room first and then went to Fu Tingyu's place.

When she got to his place, the door was open.

She carried her things in and shouted inside, "Baby Yu."

The man was in the bathroom passing motion when he suddenly heard "Baby Yu" and trembled.

He frowned and remembered what happened last night. The man's face looked annoyed.

Qin Shu waited for a while, but no one answered her. It was probably because the man was angry about what happened last night.

She did not continue shouting. Instead, she sat down at the table and placed the dishes she bought on the table one by one. Then, she started eating first.

She ate while waiting for the man to come out.

Qin Shu had just taken two bites when the man walked out of the bathroom. The moment he saw the woman at the dining table eating leisurely, his expression darkened a little.

Yesterday, he had just chased her out, but today, she was sitting at his house eating leisurely.

Qin Shu greeted him with a smile on seeing him. "Baby Yu, come over and have breakfast. I just bought it."

The man walked over with a sullen face and sat down in front of the woman. He glanced at the steaming food on the dining table and then looked at the woman opposite him. "What exactly do you want?"

Qin Shu stopped eating the cake and answered him with a smile, "Didn't I tell you last night that I like you and want to take you home?"

The man snorted. "I think something is wrong with your brain. You are seriously ill."

Qin Shu ignored the man's words and pushed the food in front of the man. "Eat some food first. I picked them out carefully. Since I haven't eaten them before, I don't know if they are good, but I bought a lot. Just take what you like."

The man didn't go to the food-laden table. Instead, he stared at Qin Shu. She had only shown her real face once. The rest of the time, she was under disguise and had deliberately made herself look uglier.

Her skin was originally very white, but now it had darkened by quite a degree. She had also modified her appearance a little.

There must be some reason why she was doing this.

Just like how she must have some intention for getting close to him..

Chapter 975 Say So if You Want Me to Feed You

Qin Shu caught the man looking at her, so she smiled. Her two small canine teeth were especially eye-catching. "Don't look at me. Eat your food first. The food here is really special. It tastes pretty good."

When the man looked at her, he realized that she had two canine teeth. They were visible when she smiled and were white and bright. Perhaps it was because her skin color was darker at the moment, so her two canine teeth were particularly eye-catching.

For someone he had only known for a few days, she always smiled so naturally. She even kissed him so naturally.

“Try this. I feel that it tastes pretty good.” Qin Shu picked up a piece of unknown food and handed it to the man.

The man glanced at the food in front of him. He had no intention of eating it. He looked at the woman. She had a smile on her face, and her eyes were as bright as the stars.

Qin Shu looked at the man’s lips with a faint smile on her lips. “Why aren’t you eating? Do you want me to feed you?”

Judging from the way the woman was gazing at his lips, the man immediately realized she wasn’t just talking about feeding alone.

He lowered his eyes and looked at the food in front of him. It was a glutinous rice ball with bacon in it. He had eaten it before and it tasted okay.

After hesitating for a while, he opened his mouth and bit into the glutinous rice ball. Just as he was about to eat it, Qin Shu suddenly came over and bit into the half of the glutinous rice ball that was exposed.

The man paused. If they ate the same glutinous rice ball together, their lips would definitely touch. The woman’s lips were like a sweet-smelling toffee, making him want to take a bite.

But he restrained himself.

Her face was so close to him that he could clearly see her long eyelashes trembling occasionally.

The person in front of him suddenly raised her eyes. When their gazes met, they could see themselves in each other’s eyes.

The woman’s eyes were curved, and her eyes were as bright as the stars.

The man’s eyes were really very beautiful. They were dark and gorgeous.

When the man went into a daze, Qin Shu took a bite of the glutinous rice ball and pulled back. She looked at the man with a smile and chewed half a glutinous rice ball in her mouth. “It’s very delicious.”

The man looked at the woman with a smile on his face. When he ate, the corners of his mouth curled up.

The man realized that he had been staring at the woman since he sat down. He cursed in his heart. What the f * ck.

He retracted his gaze and ate the glutinous rice ball in his mouth. Only after he ate it did he realize that he and the woman were sharing the same glutinous rice ball.

He looked up again. "Crazy woman, I suggest you stop wasting your time. I won't go home with you."

Qin Shu frowned and reminded him, "Just call me Babe. I don't like being called a crazy woman and it is such a mouthful for you."

The man ignored her.

Qin Shu arched her eyebrows and smiled. "I didn't say that I would take you home now. I'll take you home when you like me."

The man answered straightforwardly, "I won't like you."

Qin Shu smiled and looked at the man with one hand supporting her chin. She said with a smile, "Don't be in such a hurry to answer. It is all just talk until you like me from the bottom of your heart and the opposite is true."

The man was stunned before he said, "I don't have so much time to play with you. Don't come to my house ever again."

Qin Shu said, "Then what if I just want to come?"

The man's face darkened, and his voice also turned cold. "Then don't blame me for being rude and throwing you out."

The corners of Qin Shu's mouth curled up. "You couldn't possibly bear to do it."

"If you don't believe me, you can try." After saying that, the man stood up and walked towards the kitchen.

Qin Shu was stunned for a moment. When she saw the man's slender figure walk into the kitchen, she also stood up and followed him in. She saw the man holding the cured meat hanging on the windowsill.

She said, "I bought corn and ribs. I can stew them for lunch. They taste good."

The man held the cured meat in his hand and said without turning his head, "Why aren't you leaving yet?"

Qin Shu walked to his side and saw him cutting the cured meat. She moved closer to him and tilted her head to look at him. "Yesterday, I cooked for you. Did you eat it?"

"I threw it away." The man didn't even look at her and continued with the work on hand.

Did he throw out her food again?

Qin Shu was a little speechless. "Why did you have to throw it away? The food did not do anything wrong. Wasn't it good?"

The man stopped cutting the cured meat and remembered the meal he had yesterday. It was indeed delicious.

Qin Shu sighed, "If you refuse to eat my cooking, then you can cook for me for lunch."

"I refuse." After the man finished cutting the cured meat, he hung the remaining cured meat back to its original place.

Qin Shu was not discouraged after being rejected. "If you cook for me, I can promise you something in return. Anything at all."

The man said, "Then please leave my house quickly."

Qin Shu acted as if she did not hear him and suddenly asked, "Have you always lived in a village?"

The man said, "Yes."

Qin Shu asked again, "I heard a major incident happened in the village before. Do you know about it?"

The man replied, "I don't remember."

Qin Shu's heart skipped a beat when she heard that. She asked, "Why don't you remember?"

The man subconsciously placed his hand on the back of his head. "Two months ago, I fell from Nine Bay and suffered some brain damage. I don't remember anything from the past."

Qin Shu raised her head to look at the man's hand movements. Her hand unconsciously reached out and pressed on the spot on the man's hand. The man's hair was black and shiny, but it was a little soft. Then, she felt a scar. The scar was about five centimeters long, the wound should be very deep. Otherwise, the scar would not be obvious.

It made her heart ache.

At the same time, she was a little happy.

Now, it was clear she did not mistake him for the wrong person. He had lost his memory and it was completely an accident.

However, why did he fall from Nine Bay?

And not from Xi Yun Cliff?

Also, Miao Xin was still very far from Xiyan.

How did he get here?

And what about Yan Shuang?

They fell down together. If they were saved, why weren't they saved together?

His hand was covered by a warm palm, which made the man's heart tremble. Then, he pushed away the woman's hand and turned around to walk out of the kitchen. He felt that the space in the kitchen was too small, and the air was stifled, so he had trouble breathing.

Qin Shu could only follow him out.

The man sat down in front of the dining table, picked up the teapot, and poured himself a cup of water. He drank it by himself, and his actions did not seem to be from a remote mountain area at all.

Qin Shu also sat down opposite the man. She heard the man say, "You can go."

Qin Shu sat there without moving, and she had no intention of leaving. "Why do you always chase me away?"

The man said, "It is not right for a woman like you to run into a man's house."

Was it inappropriate?

Qin Shu's eyes shifted and she said very seriously, "You have kissed me and touched me. Shouldn't you show some accountability?"

The man stopped drinking and looked up at the woman opposite him. "I won't be taking any accountability, so you'd better stay away from me."

Qin Shu couldn't believe the man would say something like this, even if he had forgotten about her and Xiao Jiu..

Chapter 976: Made Her Cry

Fu Tingyu had genuinely taken the initiative to touch and kiss her last night.

Whatever it was, Fu Tingyu had indeed touched her.

If she didn't understand the man well, she might have thought that he couldn't resist the temptation when he acted this way.

However, the man was not the sort who couldn't resist the temptation.

Qin Shu stared at the man for a long time, and then deliberately questioned him, "Do you think there is no need to show accountability even if you slept with me since I threw myself at you?"

The man raised his chin with his dark eyes shining. "What else?"

Qin Shu sneered and suddenly stood up. She propped her hands on the dining table and stared at him. "Do you want to leave after taking advantage of me? Stop dreaming. You've already touched me, so you have to be responsible."

The man thought she would retreat because of this, but unexpectedly... She was different from other women.

“What’s wrong with you?”

Qin Shu felt she could not let him have his way. “Say that again.”

The man frowned. “If there’s something wrong with you, go home and take your meds...”

Before he could finish his sentence, Qin Shu held his face with both hands and kissed him fiercely. The man had just drunk the tea and the first thing she tasted was the faint fragrance of the tea. It was much better than the smell of cigarettes.

When they were intimate previously, she only kissed him gently.

This time, she seemed angry, so the kiss was fierce and impatient.

The man was stunned for a moment before he grabbed the woman’s shoulder and forcefully separated them.

“Enough.” The man held back his anger.

Qin Shu supported herself with both hands on the dining table and lowered her head weakly. Compared to her previous aggressiveness, she was now completely soft. “You keep saying I am crazy but wasn’t it because of you? If it wasn’t for you, would I be like this?”

The man was stunned. The woman at this moment was just like the night she was drunk.

“Back then, if you hadn’t pulled my hand away, we would have fallen together. The result would definitely not have been like this. You simply felt it was for my own good. You didn’t think about how much pain and mental pressure I would have to bear to survive by myself.

It is so much pain for me to keep thinking about living without you.”

As Qin Shu spoke, tears flowed out of her eyes. They fell one drop after another on the table in front of the man.

When the man saw this, he felt an inexplicable pain in his heart. He wanted to hold her in his arms.

Just as this thought appeared in his mind, he had already stood up, walked to the woman, and held her in his arms.

Qin Shu allowed the man to hold her. She wrapped her arms around the man’s skinny waist and buried her head into his chest. She wiped the tears on her cheeks onto the clothes in front of his chest.

When he finally realized what he had done, the man frowned and looked down at the woman in his arms and felt a headache coming on.

Qin Shu felt as though her heart was suffocating, but after some time, it felt better. She said as she lay in his arms, “I want to eat your cooking.”

Perhaps it was because she had just cried, the woman’s voice was a little hoarse. It was low, soft, and had a hint of coquettishness. She sounded like an emotional wife demanding her hubby to cook for her to make amends.

The man sighed helplessly in his heart. Why did he provoke such a troublesome little vixen?

Previously, his life was repetitive. It was as calm as a deep pool. He thought that it would be like this for the rest of his life.

However, he did not want a woman to break his peaceful life.

The man pushed the woman in his arms away.

However, a woman suddenly appeared and disrupted the peace.

"I'll go and cook." The man's voice was cold and a little helpless.

Only then did the woman in his arms let go of his waist and obediently retreated to the side.

The man turned around and walked into the kitchen again, preparing to cook lunch.

Qin Shu smiled happily as she watched the man from behind. It was still necessary to use both soft and hard methods to handle a man.

Her gaze turned to the ingredients on the dining table in a convenience bag. She had just bought them on the street. She walked over, picked up the convenience bag, and followed him in.

In the kitchen, Qin Shu stared at the man from behind in a daze.

The man was already busy in front of the chopping board. It was different from when they were still in Jiangcheng. Bright Garden had a huge kitchen, and it had all the necessary utensils. The ingredients were also very fresh. Whether it was meat, vegetables, or seafood, they were all delivered by the suppliers every morning.

The man wore a custom-made shirt with his sleeves rolled up and an apron tied around his waist. Even though he was dignified and deeply respected around town, he was just a homemaker when he got home.

After looking at him for a while, she carried the convenience bag and walked over. She placed the ingredients she had bought on the table.

"I want to eat stewed ribs with corn."

"Okay." The man answered. He picked up the convenience bag, took out the ribs and corn, and began to wash them in the sink.

Qin Shu stood at the side and looked at the man quietly.

After the man washed the ribs and corn, he took out a clean plate and placed them on it. He glanced at the woman who was standing at the side. She was fierce just a moment ago, but now she was as obedient as a rabbit.

Cooking came easily for the man.

It was an easy dish to make. The corn had to be cut into pieces and put into the steamer. Then it had to be simmered over low heat. Also, there was no need to keep an eye on it.

Next was to wash the rice and cook it.

After plugging in the power, he pressed the button to cook the rice.

Then he cut the washed sausage into slices. When the rice was almost ready, he placed the sausages on the rice one by one and covered it with a lid.

Next, he stirred fried some vegetables.

Since it was winter, the vegetables cooled down very quickly, so he waited for the rice to be done before washing the lettuce and cucumbers.

All it took was ten minutes to prepare the vegetables.

Qin Shu stood there the whole time and watched the man skillfully cut the cucumbers. The thin and even slices showed that his knife skills were very good.

She suddenly said, "I want to eat cucumbers."

The man glanced at her. "Wait a moment, it will be ready soon."

Qin Shu said again, "I want to eat it fresh."

The man stopped cutting the cucumber. He picked up a piece of cucumber from the chopping board and handed it to her. He wanted her to eat it herself.

Qin Shu didn't do anything. Instead, she went over and ate the piece of cucumber from the man's hand.

Fu Tingyu didn't know whether it was intentional or not, but her lips also ate a little of the man's finger. In just two seconds, she pulled her mouth aside.

The man's body stiffened. A strange feeling spread from his fingertips to his limbs and bones, leaving him unable to react for a long time.

Qin Shu chewed the cucumber in her mouth. The cucumber made a crisp sound when she ate it.

After she ate the cucumber, she smiled and said, "It's a little sweet."

The man finally snapped out of his shock. He could still sense warmth on his hands and the numbness had not disappeared. He could not help but feel a little hot in his heart when he saw the woman smiling happily.

Moments ago, he had thought that she was as obedient as a rabbit. She was not a rabbit and was clearly a goblin pretending to be good.

The man withdrew his gaze and did not look at her anymore. He lowered his eyes and continued to cut the cucumber. He looked at the cucumber on the table and started to cut them. The moment he did, he recalled the way the woman looked eating the cucumber.

He was momentarily distracted and accidentally cut his hand.

He was about to use the tap water to rinse his hand, but he saw the woman rushing over. "Why were you so careless?"

Then she took his finger and put it in her mouth..

Chapter 977 Can You Have Some Self-Restraint?

Qin Shu had been observing everything the man was doing, so when he cut his hand, she saw it immediately.

Although she knew the man was unafraid of pain and these were just minor injuries to him, she felt a twinge in her heart.

That was why she had reacted so strongly.

The man looked at the woman in a daze when she suddenly ran over. Her small oval-shaped face was clearly very pretty, but she had to make it look tanned from the sun.

Since her eyes were bright and beautiful, they made her look pretty.

The color of her lips was pink. Her lips were pretty and had a three-dimensional feel. The corners of her mouth were curled up slightly.

There was undisguisable concern in her eyes now.

His finger felt warm. The strange sensation went coursing through him again.

He only realized what was going on when the woman took his hand out.

Qin Shu stared at the man's fingers. His knuckles were long and slender, and his nails were well-manicured. They looked very nice, but just as she took them out, blood flowed out again.

"It's still bleeding. Do you have a band-aid at home?"

Qin Shu was talking about home as though it was theirs. It was as if she subconsciously treated this place as her own home.

She said this sentence very naturally and smoothly.

The man subconsciously replied, "Yes."

"Wait there and don't move. I'll go look for it."

Qin Shu let go of his hand and ran out quickly.

The man also followed her out because he hadn't told her where to find the first aid kit.

Qin Shu walked straight into the room and scanned the room. She saw the cabinet on the right side of the wall. She walked over and opened the cabinet door. She saw a small first aid kit quietly sitting inside. Compared to the first aid kit in Bright Garden, this one was obviously half the size.

The man also walked in and saw the woman opening the cabinet door. A hint of confusion flashed in his eyes. How did she know that he had placed the first aid box here?

Qin Shu hurriedly took out the first aid kit and turned around to see the man. After being stunned for a second, she walked to the bed and placed the first aid kit on the bed. She opened the first aid kit. Since it was small, the medical supplies inside were also lacking.

She took out the band-aid from the small drawer, tore open the packaging, turned around, and nimbly held up the man's injured finger. She used a cotton pad to gently wipe the blood on it.

The man stared at the woman for a long time and asked, "How did you know that the medical kit was in the cabinet?"

Qin Shu replied without raising her head, "You have this habit of putting things. The household medical kit will be placed in the room. You don't like to bend down to take it because it's a waste of time. You like to place it where you can reach it with your hand, and somewhere accessible. It's best to put it in the place closest to the bed or the place closest to the sofa."

In the past, the first aid kit was placed in the room next door.

She had once accidentally hurt her hand and lost a lot of blood.

When the man went to get the first aid kit, he wasted some time searching for it and she lost a lot of blood while waiting. After bandaging her wound, he instructed the maid the first aid kit must be placed in the room. He could get it very quickly if it was placed by the bed or the sofa.

In the end, he was worried the maid would do it wrongly, so he did it himself. It eventually became the kind of habit that refused to change.

The man was stunned again. Did she even know about this little habit of his so clearly?

After Qin Shu wiped off the blood from his hand, she pasted the band-aid over the wound and heaved a sigh of relief. "It's done."

The man lowered his head to look at the finger with the band-aid, then looked at the woman in front of him with a curious look.

Qin Shu noticed he was staring at her. She asked in puzzlement, "What's wrong?"

"I'll go stir-fry the vegetables." The man withdrew his gaze and turned around to walk out.

Qin Shu followed him out with puzzlement.

The vegetables were stir-fried very quickly. It didn't take long for them to be ready.

The corn and stewed pork ribs were also ready by now.

The man held a plate and took the cured meat before placing them into the plate piece by piece with his chopsticks.

Qin Shu helped to carry the dishes. On the table, there were three dishes and a soup.

She sat down at the table and waited for the man to fill the bowl with rice.

The man brought two bowls of rice and two pairs of chopsticks. He placed a bowl of rice in front of Qin Shu. "Eat up."

Then, she sat down as well.

Qin Shu looked at the steaming white rice in front of her and picked up the chopsticks. She then looked at the man opposite her. It had been too long since they sat down to eat together. Now that they were finally sitting down to eat together again, she was very happy.

She pushed the rice in front of her forward. "Give me some food."

In the past, it was always the man who took the initiative to give her food. She felt he always gave her food when they ate and treated her like a child.

After being separated for so long, she really wanted the man to help place food in her bowl.

But now, she could only take the initiative to ask the man to do it for her.

The man looked up at her and saw the look of anticipation on her face. "Don't you know how to do it?"

Qin Shu's eyes curved into a smile. "I like it when you help me."

The man went quiet before he said, "Why are you like a child?"

Qin Shu continued smiling. "I only act this way to you."

The man had heard this sentence more than once. He chuckled softly. "Then how do you act in front of others?"

Qin Shu said, "No one else has seen this side of me."

The man paused for a moment and thought of the first time they had met. The woman had cried, thrown a tantrum, acted coquettishly, acted arrogantly, and acted like a child in front of him. Also, she was like a vixen.

He thought about all the ways she had kissed him.

He asked, "Have you kissed anyone else?"

"No." Qin Shu then added, "Are you happy?"

The man was stunned on hearing this, and an inexplicable sense of joy rose in his heart.

It was a strange unexpected sensation.

"Women should be more dignified. You can't kiss random men." He withdrew his gaze and glanced at the three dishes and one soup in front of him. He picked up a bit of each dish and put it into her bowl.

When Qin Shu heard this, she couldn't help but laugh. "I will only kiss you."

After saying this, she clenched her chopsticks, picked up a piece of bacon, put it into her mouth, and started eating. It had been a long time since she had eaten a meal personally prepared by the man. It felt even more delicious than before.

The man stared at the person in front of him for a while before he retracted his gaze and continued eating the rice in his bowl.

Qin Shu raised her head to look at the man in front of her. She tightened her grip on her chopsticks, picked up a piece of ribs, and placed it into his bowl. "You eat more too."

The man looked at the ribs that had suddenly appeared in his bowl and raised his eyes to look at the woman in front of him. Qin Shu arched her eyebrows at him.

“Let’s eat.” The man withdrew his gaze and looked at the spare ribs in the bowl. He squeezed his chopsticks, picked them up, and put them into his mouth to eat.

When Qin Shu saw this, she could not help smiling.

Qin Shu ate two full bowls of rice during lunch.

missing that she ate so much and enjoyed such a good meal.

She took out a tissue and wiped the grease at the corner of her mouth in satisfaction.

When the man was clearing the dishes, he glanced at Qin Shu. His mood lifted when he saw the satisfied look on her face. He carried the dishes into the kitchen to wash them.

There were only a few dishes, so he was done cleaning them in no time.

Qin Shu stood by the door and watched. She felt as though she had returned to the past cook for her and wash the dishes.

Chapter 978: Too Late to Regret

Fu Tingyu had lost his memory, so he would not be able to regain it in the short term.

The man had said that he had fallen in love with Qin Shu at first sight.

In that case, Qin Shu would let him fall in love with her again after losing his memory. That way it would be much easier to bring him home.

What made her more confused was something the man had mentioned. He knew he had lost his memory, but it was because of a fall from Nine Bay.

The villagers of Kuan Yi Village were all adamant that he was from here and had lived here since he was young.

It was obvious that there was something wrong with the people in this village.

Before she could figure out what was wrong, she could not let the villagers know that she knew Yu and was his wife.

After the man finished washing the dishes, Qin Shu asked him, “Do you have anything to do in the afternoon?”

“Nothing.” The man lowered his eyes and wiped the water droplets on his hands with a dry towel.

Qin Shu spoke softly, “I’ve only been here for a few days, so I’m not familiar with this place at all. How about you take me out for a walk?”

The man turned his head to look at her, “Do you pester other men this much?”

Qin Shu shook her head. "No, I'm 24 years old this year. You brought me home when I was 17 years old. I've stayed by your side and never left ever since."

The man stared at her, not understanding why what she meant.

Since he did not respond, Qin Shu asked him, "You don't believe me, do you?"

The man said, "Why should I believe you?"

Qin Shu glanced at the man's lower body. "You have a red mole there."

"Huh?" The man did not understand what she meant at first.

Qin Shu leaned over and whispered in his ear, "It's at the edge of your thigh."

The man's face darkened. He subconsciously thought she must have secretly watched him bathe. Since she was capable of climbing into his bed, watching him bathe was nothing.

"Don't you have any restraint? How could you secretly watch a man bathe?"

"Do I need to do it in secret?" Qin Shu snorted coldly. "You were the one who pulled me along when you took a bath."

Qin Shu realized she had made a mistake. "No, I only found out about your mole when I was 19."

The man suddenly grabbed her wrist and pulled her into his arms. He looked down at her. "Tell me, what do you want? I'll give it to you if I can. There's no need to spend so much effort."

Then, he added, "I forgot to say that I'm just an ordinary poor man. I can't give you anything."

Qin Shu immediately replied, "I only want you. I don't want anything else."

The man stared at her for a while and asked another question, "What's your purpose here? Why are you disguising yourself?"

Qin Shu told him the truth, "I'm here to find Gu worms and save my friend. You know him too. I'm disguising myself because you don't like others to see my face without makeup, so I made myself less pretty."

The man asked, "Ugly?"

Qin Shu touched her face, "Isn't this ugly?"

The man said, "The people here like people like you. You can marry yourself off easily, and they don't like people with very white skin."

Qin Shu went quiet briefly before she continued, "What kind of strange taste is that?"

The man didn't answer her question. After thinking about what she had just said, he asked, "Were we really together ever since you were 17?"

Qin Shu nodded vigorously. "Yes."

The man asked again, "Then if I want you now, you probably won't refuse, right?"

Qin Shu did not understand what he meant. "What do you mean?"

The man did not answer. He threw away the towel in his hand, bent down, carried her horizontally, and walked into the room expressionlessly.

Qin Shu instinctively hugged his neck to maintain her balance. When she realized he was carrying her into the room, she suddenly realized it was not just talk this time.

Sleeping together was completely normal among married couples.

However, when she looked at the man's expression, she felt that it wasn't that simple.

"What exactly do you want to do?"

"Didn't I just say that I want you?" The man strode into the room and threw her onto the bed. The wooden bed creaked when he threw her onto it.

After he threw her onto the bed, the man then pressed himself onto her and slowly unbuttoned his clothes as he sized her up to see her reaction.

Qin Shu didn't show any panic. She propped her hands on the bed and looked at the man above her. She asked, "Tell me the reason for doing this first."

"Didn't you say that I'm your hubby? If that's the case, isn't it natural for me to do this?"

Qin Shu grabbed his hand and stopped him from doing what he was going to do next. "Wait a minute."

"Don't you want to?" The man chuckled as if he had already guessed this result.

"No, if you're doing this for some reason, I can't bring myself to do it."

If it was last night or the night before last, she wouldn't have rejected him.

But today, he clearly had some sort of motive for doing this, and she felt a bit of a grudge in her heart.

The man grabbed her wrist and pressed it on top of her head, sneering, "If you reject me now, what does it say about your earlier actions?"

Qin Shu could sense his actions and felt he was doing this on purpose. She suddenly understood what he was trying to do.

"Baby Yu, as long as you come home with me, I have a way to prove that you are my husband. You don't have to test me this way."

The man stopped moving. He looked up at her when she figured out what he was trying to pull. He sneered, "Everything can be faked these days."

Qin Shu didn't want to argue about this and asked him instead, "Then did you have to resort to this? Don't you believe me?"

The man replied, "Yes, I have to do this."

Qin Shu let go of his hand and lay down. "Then you can do it."

The man was just testing her. He had never thought of doing this.

He paused for a moment before standing up and walking out the moment she reacted this way.

Qin Shu watched as the man suddenly walked out. She laid on the bed for quite a while. Sure enough, this method did not work.

Rather than telling him the truth about the past, it was more effective to approach him slowly and give him time to accept her.

She sat up, tidied up her clothes, and walked out.

When she went out, she realized that the man had left again. As for where he went, she did not know.

When she chased after him, she could no longer see him.

She looked at both sides of the road and saw there was not a soul in sight. She could not help but complain in her heart, "If you don't believe it, then don't believe it. I'm not even sad yet. Why are you running away?"

She turned around and returned to the front of the house, closed the door, and returned to the village chief's house.

Ye Luo was waiting for Qin Shu in the room. He knew that she was not in the room. She must have gone to look for Fu Tingrui.

He was holding Boss in his arms while Boss curled up comfortably.

Qin Shu pushed the door open and walked in. She saw Ye Luo sitting in front of the table. She closed the door and turned around to walk over.

Ye Luo asked, "Young Madam Fu, how's the situation?"

Chapter 979: Has To Be Him

Qin Shu walked to the table and sat down. She poured herself a cup of hot water to moisten her throat, only then did she speak: "He said that he fell from Nine Bay two months ago and doesn't remember anything from the past. In addition, he has the same characteristics as Fu Tingyu. I am sure that he is Fu Tingyu."

After interacting with him a few times, she was even more certain that he was Fu Tingyu. Her gut feeling had to be right.

"Then why do the people in the village all say that Lord Fu grew up here?" Ye Luo asked.

Qin Shu said: "There's something wrong with the villagers. This morning, I went to the street with the Village Chief's daughter-in-law and talked about him. She said a few words and didn't want to bring it up again. There's obviously something wrong."

Ye Luo recalled the villagers' statements. They were all the same version, so there was obviously something wrong.

No matter how good a person was, there would be people who disagreed.

“I will use the fastest time to convince him to come back to Jiangcheng with me, then I will think of a way to recover his memories.”

As long as Fu Tingyu was willing to go back with her, everything would be easy.

Moreover, she could feel that he still had feelings for her, even if he lost his memories.

Ye Luo thought of something, “Madam, those high-level Gu masters are returning to Miao Capital tomorrow.”

Qin Shu was caught off guard, she had not found a suitable person to make Gu worms, “They are leaving so soon?”

Ye Luo nodded: “Yes, I heard them talking to the Village Chief today.”

Qin Shu gripped the teacup in her hand, she could not fulfill Hao Ze’s request.

Thinking of the other three, she suddenly thought of the plain-looking Tan Lin.

Since Hao Ze was not viable, she would go to Tan Lin to try.

Qin Shu was also a person of action. She thought and did the same thing. If she did not try, how would she know if it would work?

She stood up and went straight to Tan Lin’s room.

Between Tan Lin’s room and Hao Ze’s was Sun Shang’s room.

After knocking on the door, the door opened in a short while,

Tan Lin saw Qin Shu standing at the door and was a little surprised: “Is anything the matter?”

Qin Shu nodded vigorously: “Yes, can we go in and talk?”

Tan Lin was stunned, he opened the door and let her in, before closing the door.

“Take a seat.” Tan Lin walked to the table and sat down.

Qin Shu sat opposite him. She did not beat around the bush and directly asked:

‘Can you help me make Gu worms, one that is called Reverse?’

Tan Lin answered straightforwardly: “No.”

Qin Shu was prepared to be rejected when she came, so she was not discouraged, she continued: “I can give you a reward, or other conditions, as long as I can do it, I can give it to you, I hope you can consider.”

Tan Lin said: “It has nothing to do with this. Reverse can only be made by Long Clan’s Gu masters, no other clan’s Gu masters can do it.”

Qin Shu was stunned, she thought that as long as it was a high-level Gu master, Reverse could be made, but now she knew that Reverse not only needed a high-level Gu master to make it but also Long Clan's Gu master.

She suddenly remembered what Hao Ze said, Reverse had disappeared for a long time and he could try it now.

Because he needed a bowl of blood.

She suddenly raised her head and looked at Tan Lin: "It's because of a bowl of blood, isn't it?"

Tan Lin nodded. "Yes."

Qin Shu seemed to have figured something out. That blood was very likely related to the Long Clan.

"Thank you for disturbing you for such a long time."

Qin Shu stood up and was about to leave when she heard Tan Lin say: "You can try asking Hao Ze. "

She stopped in her tracks and turned to look at Tan Lin. She smiled at him and said, "Thank you."

Then, she opened the door and walked out.

When she passed by Hao Ze's room, Qin Shu stopped to take a look. The door was tightly shut, so she did not know if Haoze was there.

She had already looked for him, but she really could not fulfill that request.

However, the door opened at this time, and Hao Ze was standing at the door.

Qin Shu was a little embarrassed, she wanted to turn around and leave, but it was too late.

She said: "I really can't fulfill that request of yours."

Hao Ze saw her embarrassment: "Tomorrow, I will return to Miao Capital."

Qin Shu said: "I heard."

Hao Ze asked: "Do you want to go to Miao Capital together?"

Go to Miao Capital?

She definitely had to go to Miao Capital.

Did Long Clan not still have a high-level Gu master?

It would be even better if he could help.

But...

Thinking of Fu Tingyu, she had yet to make him fall in love with her again and had yet to convince him to follow her home.

But Jun Li was also waiting for her to save him.

She raised her head to look at Hao Ze, "I will go to Miao Xin."

"Mm, when you go, you can look for me."

Hao Ze took out a business card from his pocket and handed it to her, "My Business Card."

"Thank you." Qin Shu took it and looked at it. Long tribe's high-level Gu master, Hao Ze, below it was a string of numbers.

Hao Ze said: "I forgot to remind you, Only Long Clan Gu masters have the qualifications to make Reverse, Yang Jin will not help you."

Qin Shu suddenly raised her head to look at Hao Ze, unable to understand what he was thinking, "Do you mean it is impossible for me to get Reverse?" Hao Ze said: "It's up to you. I'll wait for you in Miao Capital."

Qin Shu took the business card and glanced at Hao Ze. He still had the gentlemanly and reasonable look. He looked slightly older than Fu Tingyu and had the composure of a man of the same age.

His meaning could not be clearer. She had to be his woman.

How was that possible?

Qin Shu retracted her gaze and turned to leave.

Hao Ze stood at the door and stared at Qin Shu's departing figure for a long time before he retracted his gaze. He turned around and walked in, closing the door.

After dinner, the sky was already dark. Every house had lights on.

Qin Shu wanted to go to Miao Capital and spend more time with Fu Tingyu. She had to bring him away from here.

She came to the front of the house. The lights were on inside the houses. At this time, most of the villagers were not asleep

She raised her hand and knocked on the door. After a while, the door opened from the inside. A tall and slender figure stood inside the door. He was wearing Miao Xin's clothes. It was very different from a suit, and it had a unique flavor.

"Why are you here again?" The man's face was calm, and no one could tell whether he was happy or angry.

"I'm here to look for you. Let me in first. It's so cold outside." Qin Shu rubbed her hands together, indicating that it was very cold.

The man hesitated for a moment, then turned his body to let her in.

Qin Shu's eyes curved, and she quickly walked in.

The man closed the door, blocking the cold wind outside.

Qin Shu glanced at the dining table. It was still the same tea set. She turned back to look at him: "Have you eaten dinner?"

"Yes, what's the matter?"

The man walked to the table and sat down. He took out a cup and placed it on the opposite side. He picked up the kettle and poured her a cup of tea.

Qin Shu sat down opposite him. She supported her chin with one hand. She looked at him. If she were to go to Miao Capital the next day, she would be reluctant to leave him. There was something strange about the villagers here. She cannot leave him here.

"Are you willing to go with me?"

"This is my home. Why should I go with you?" The man picked up the cup of tea in front of him and took a sip. He looked up at her.

How is this your home?

Everyone in the village is lying..

Chapter 980 Knock Out Lord Fu And Take Him Away?

Even though Qin Shu felt this way, she knew that he did not know about his amnesia, so she could not say that.

"I might have to leave this place tomorrow. I have something important to do. I want you to come with me."

The man paused in his action of drinking tea, then continued drinking tea as if he did not care.

The man's calm reaction made Qin Shu feel a little uncomfortable. She comforted herself that he was acting this way because he did not remember. She had spent too little time with him.

The man's voice deepened: "I told you, I won't leave this place."

She did not give up and asked again: "Are you really not willing to leave with me?"

The man moved the glass of water away and raised his chin to look at her: "It's just a question. How many times do you have to ask? If you want to leave, I won't stop you."

Hearing that, Qin Shu explained anxiously: "I have important things to do. I can't stay here forever. Go to Miao Capital with me first and then go home with me, okay?"

"I'm not leaving, and I won't go home with you. If you don't want to stay, then get out of here."

The man put down the glass of water with force. It made a "Bang" sound when it touched the wooden table. Then, he stood up and strode into the room.

When Qin Shu came back to her senses, she ran over to stop him, but she was too late. The door was closed forcefully, shaking the room.

She tried to push the door open, but it was locked from the inside.

He was obviously angry.

Did she say something wrong?

Or did she say something too harsh?

Qin Shu thought about it carefully, but she did not think that she said something wrong or too harsh.

She raised her hand and knocked on the door: "Baby Yu, open the door."

She waited for a long time, but the man did not open the door.

She could only return to the Village Chief's house and let Ye Luo prepare to go to Miao Xin the day after next.

She was prepared to spend another day to make the man comfortable and go with her.

Qin Shu lay on the bed, unable to sleep because she was worried that he would not be willing to go with her. Another reason was Jun Li. His condition could not be delayed.

He was destined to not sleep well that night.

The man sat on the sofa and smoked dozens of cigarettes. His heart was getting more and more irritated. He glanced at the tightly shut door. He thought that the crazy woman would not compromise so easily.

He did not expect that she would leave after knocking on the door a few times.

He put out his cigarette and walked to the side of the bed. He lay on the bed with his hands on his head. He opened his eyes and looked at the dark room.

The night was quiet, but he did not feel sleepy at all.

She was going to Miao Capital. In the future, no one would bother him. It was just right.

The man turned over. He did not know if he was hallucinating, but he could still smell the scent of a woman on the quilt. There was a faint sweet smell, which made him even more confused.

He did not sleep well until four o'clock in the morning.

The next morning

The man had the habit of waking up early, but because he did not sleep well the previous night, he woke up an hour later than usual.

He got up and slowly put on his clothes, then went to wash up.

Then he started to prepare breakfast.

Qin Shu did not sleep well last night either, so she sat in front of the table and drank tea to wake up.

Ye Luo carried Boss in and saw Qin Shu sitting in front of the table looking like she did not sleep well. He did not need to guess to know that she was upset about Lord Fu. He carried it over and sat down opposite her. He put Boss on his lap and let it continue sleeping.

“Madam, why don’t we knock Lord Fu out and take him away?” Ye Luo suggested.

Qin Shu raised her eyebrows and looked at Ye Luo. She could not help but laugh: “You dare to knock him out?”

After so many years, Ye Luo’s violent and impatient nature had not changed at all. Knock him out and take him away?

Ye Luo said expressionlessly: “With Madam’s support, I dare.”

Qin Shu could not help but laugh again. “Ye Luo, I didn’t realize that you’ve learned to shift the blame now.”

Ye Luo said: “I don’t dare.” “What else do you not dare? If you were alone and encountered such a situation, your Lord Fu might have already been knocked unconscious and carried home by you.”

Qin Shu did not doubt the possibility of Ye Luo doing this. Ye Luo was a person who was afraid of trouble and preferred to end things directly. For example, back then, he locked her in her room for the same reason.

Ye Luo was a little embarrassed, but his face was still expressionless: “Then Madam, are you confident that you can persuade Lord Fu to go with you?”

Qin Shu shook her head: “Not yet, I’ll try again.”

Thinking about how she had asked him to leave with her the previous night, the man was very angry.

So she was not confident that he would willingly leave with her.

Today, she would take the whole day to pester him. Perhaps the man would be soft-hearted.

Qin Shu went to the man’s house again. She had been there a few times during the day and night, so she was already familiar with the way.

When she went to the man’s house, the door was open, which meant that he was still at home.

She walked in and smelled an aroma. It was the fragrance of food.

She walked into the kitchen and saw the man standing in front of the stove. He was wearing Miao Xin’s clothes, but there was no scarf. His short black hair was shiny, and there was a scar on the back of his head, the scar was five centimeters long.

He must have lost his memory because he fell from Yun Ya and hit his head.

The man was washing his hands by the pool, and the sound of water could be heard.

She took light steps to hide the sound of her footsteps and walked over step by step. When she was behind him, she stopped. Suddenly, she stood on her tiptoes and stretched out her hands to cover the man’s eyes, not making a sound.

The man was washing his hands and preparing to eat when his vision went black. His eyes were suddenly covered by a warm palm. A faint sweet smell spread out from the tip of his nose. Even if he could not see it, he knew that the crazy woman who said she was going to leave was here.

Besides her, no one else dared to get so close to him.

“Why are you still here?” The man was calm and somewhat distant.

Qin Shu let go of his eyes and hugged his waist instead: “I want to take you with me.”

“Are you not done?” The man impatiently pried her hands away from his waist. He turned around and walked to the electric rice cooker to get a bowl for himself.

Qin Shu followed him. When she saw the steaming millet porridge in the pot, she licked her lower lip.

When the man raised his head to pick up the chopsticks, he saw her licking her lips. His throat tightened and he immediately looked away.

“You cooked porridge. I want to eat it too.”

Qin Shu stood beside the rice cooker and looked up at him. Her intention was very obvious. She wanted him to serve it to her.

The man looked down at the steaming millet porridge in his hand and handed it to her, “Finish it and leave.”

Qin Shu took the bowl from the man and grinned at him. Then, she took the bowl and walked out of the kitchen. She did not respond to him asking her to leave after eating.

The man stared at the woman’s back for a while, then took out a clean bowl and took a bowl of millet porridge. He took a pair of chopsticks and took out the two dishes on the table.

When he came to the living room, the man put the two dishes in the middle and sat down.
