

I signed In For A Billion Dollar Mansion From The Very Beginning Chapter 205-209

Chapter 205: Another sports car worth hundreds of millions!

If this sports car was a limited edition sports car, like if there was only one ever produced, then the value of this sports car would be immeasurable.

Today was a launch event, which was equivalent to an auction!

After Shirley finished speaking, many of the tycoons present nodded.

Many people were already eager to bid.

“Everyone, the name of the first sports car is Bugatti Galibier. This sports car’s exterior is completely black and extremely cool. As usual, it’s in the style of our Bugatti company. This Bugatti sports car uses a 16-valve cylinder engine and has a four-wheel-drive system, a high-performance carbon-fiber ceramic composite brake system, and a new suspension system. After that, the Bugatti Galibier will have absolute strength to challenge the four strongest flagship thrones in history!”

“This sports car has standard carbon-fiber ceramic brakes, and the pressurized output power of this sports car’s engine is between 189 to 986 horsepower. It can usually use conventional gasoline fuel, but biofuel can also be used as a fuel source when needed.”

“And the price of this sports car will start at 18 million!”

“There are a total of 50 such sports cars in the world. Currently, there is only one such sports car at the venue. The remaining 49 sports cars will be officially sold in half a year.”

“If anyone wants to buy this sports car, you can start bidding,” Shirley said, looking around.

It had to be said that although the Bugatti Galibier sports car was only 18 million yuan, this sports car was very handsome, cool, eye-catching, and high-end.

Only a true tycoon could have such a sports car.

If one bought it now, it would be equivalent to having this exclusive sports car for half a year.

The moment Shirley finished speaking, Lin Fan started bidding.

“20 million,” said Lin Fan, looking like he didn’t lack money.

“21 million.” Pittman started bidding as well, looking confident.

The other tycoons also started to bid.

“22 million.”

“22.5 million.”

“23 million.”

“...”

Under everyone’s bidding, Lin Fan raised the sign in his hand again.

“40 million,” said Lin Fan.

Lin Fan’s expression was calm. To him, 40 million was a lot but it wasn’t much.

Since he wanted to buy this car, he had to make the final decision.

If Pittman wanted to follow up, that was fine.

If Pittman chickened out, Lin Fan could buy this sports car.

With Lin Fan’s current status, even if he bought it for 40 million, the company wouldn’t accept it all. They would at least give Lin Fan back 30 million.

Other than Shirley, no one present knew that Lin Fan was the third-largest shareholder of the Bugatti Corporation.

After Lin Fan made his bid, Shirley's eyes were filled with surprise.

"Oh my god... Mr. Lin offered 40 million!"

"A car like the Bugatti Galibier is indeed worth 40 million. Does anyone want to increase the price?" Shirley looked around.

In just two minutes, the auction price of this sports car went from 18 million to 40 million. It instantly more than doubled.

For the Bugatti Corporation, such a price was already very profitable.

Lin Fan looked at Shirley and smiled calmly.

The price of 40 million made the entire venue quiet.

Many tycoons could not help but sigh.

They were already very rich, but they had never seen anyone bid like Lin Fan.

He could just double the price of the sports car. Furthermore, this sports car was not out of production.

On the other side, Pittman looked at Lin Fan angrily.

However, his rationality told him that it was not worth it to buy this sports car for 40 million.

Although his family was rich, he could not spend money like this.

Pittman felt that he was still very rational.

Until the next moment...

Su Xiaoyu saw Pittman's expression and smiled. Her beautiful eyes looked at Lin Fan and her red lips kissed his cheek.

"Master, thank you ~" Su Xiaoyu said deliberately.

Then... Pittman exploded.

Damn it, was his family the kind of people who lacked money?

So what if it was 40 million? Lin Fan was just deliberately raising the price to make him retreat.

Lin Fan probably didn't have much money left.

Immediately, Pittman shouted, "50 million!"

Impulse suppressed rationality. Pittman could not care less.

He had to buy it. He could not lose face in front of Su Xiaoyu.

"Mr. Pittman bids 50 million!" Shirley smiled even more happily and secretly gave Lin Fan a thumbs up.

Look, this was the third-largest shareholder of their company.

The moment he arrived, he made this idiot Pittman spend 50 million on this car.

Pittman looked at Lin Fan aggressively and sneered in his heart. He wasn't stupid.

If Lin Fan still wanted to increase the price, he wouldn't follow. He wanted to make Lin Fan lose money.

50 million was enough to make Pittman's heart ache.

Pittman looked at Lin Fan and put on airs, wanting Lin Fan to continue bidding.

Who would have thought that Lin Fan wouldn't even look at Pittman?

After hearing the bid of 50 million, Lin Fan didn't have any expression or actions. Instead, he ate cucumbers with Su Xiaoyu.

Lin Qianwei couldn't help but laugh as she looked at Lin Fan.

How could her boss be so bad?

Pittman bought this car for 50 million. After deducting the cost of 10 million, he would have a profit of 40 million.

After the shareholders split the profits, Lin Fan could receive a few million yuan.

In just a few minutes, Lin Fan earned another few million.

"Fifty million once, fifty million twice, fifty million thrice. Sold!" Shirley looked at Pittman.

Chapter 206: Another sports car worth hundreds of millions!

Pittman watched as his 50 million dollars disappeared just like that.

Then, he looked at Lin Fan and Su Xiaoyu's nonchalant gazes.

Pittman felt like he had been tricked.

Damn, Lin Fan and Su Xiaoyu didn't seem to care at all.

Pittman was already cursing in his heart, "Lin Fan, f*ck your mother!"

He really did not know how to describe this sentence in French, but after Pittman woke up, he immediately understood that he had been fooled.

The first car had already been auctioned off, and Pittman could not go back on his word even if he wanted to.

Immediately after was the second sports car launched by Bugatti.

Bugatti SuperVeyron.

It was called the Bugatti SV for short.

When this car appeared, it had shiny LED headlights and carbon fiber spoilers. It had top-notch functions.

The starting price was 35 million.

After a few tycoons bid, Lin Fan bid again.

“40 million,” said Lin Fan.

“F*ck, I’ll follow up again. I’ll let go after one more time. This time, I have to take revenge.” Pittman looked at Lin Fan and gritted his teeth. Not only had he failed to flirt with Su Xiaoyu, but he had also been tricked.

“43 million.” Pittman raised his sign again.

Then... Lin Fan stopped bidding.

The surrounding tycoons stopped bidding.

After all, the goal of the tycoons present was to buy today’s limited-edition luxury car which would only appear at the finale.

Pittman:”...”

Pittman: “F*ck... This doesn’t make sense. Why didn’t anyone continue bidding after I did?”

Finally, after a few new car models were released.

Pittman finally understood.

It seemed like Lin Fan's target was the last sports car for today.

This sports car was also everyone's target.

Pittman wasn't short of money. He sat down again and looked at Lin Fan.

He had already decided that no matter what, he wouldn't let Lin Fan buy the last sports car today.

After all, why did Lin Fan come to the Bugatti launch event? It was for the last sports car.

He was determined to get this sports car. He would definitely use his family's deep financial resources to buy the last sports car.

Although Pittman's heart ached from spending tens of millions in the beginning, it was because of this that he started to hate Lin Fan a little.

Finally, the last car to be released arrived.

Shirley's interest was piqued.

The highlight of the day had finally arrived.

"Next, I'll introduce today's finale car to everyone."

"The car's name is Bugatti Ettore Bugatti."

"This is a legendary limited edition Bugatti car. There's only one in the world, and the performance of this sports car is so strong that it can't be criticized. It was developed based on the Veyron 16.4 Grand Sport Vitesse. With the maximum horsepower of 1200 hp and the torque output of 152.9 kgm, this 8.0L W16 engine can push the car from 0 to 100 km/h in just 2.6 seconds, and the maximum speed it can reach is 408.84 km/h.”

After the red curtain on the sports car was opened,

A truly luxurious all-black sports car appeared in front of everyone.

This sports car was a limited edition sports car!

There was only one in the world!

Furthermore, this sports car’s handsomeness, safety, performance, and many other aspects completely defeated all the previous sports cars!

All the rich people present exclaimed.

This was a true world-class sports car!

It would also be the most magnificent sports car in the history of the Bugatti.

The magnificence of this sports car had even exceeded that of the Bugatti La Voiture Noire!

Chapter 207: Shocking Everyone, Lin Fan’s True Identity!

“D*mn, this sports car is too handsome.”

“Another limited edition sports car. It’s probably worth hundreds of millions!”

“I’m afraid the price of this sports car is not ordinary. I’m afraid only a true top boss can afford to drive such a sports car.”

Many tycoons exclaimed. They didn’t know who could have such a sports car.

However, Pittman was already determined to win.

He knew that this was a sports car that Lin Fan had to buy.

Only by buying this sports car would everyone be surprised.

He could also really show off in front of Su Xiaoyu.

Then, Shirley looked at Lin Fan.

“Everyone, this Bugatti Veyron Ettore Bugatti is priced at 223 million!”

“There’s only one such sports car in the world, and this sports car produced by the Bugatti Corporation is not for sale.”

“Because this sports car is tailor-made for one person.”

“His name is... Lin Fan!”

“Congratulations, Mr. Lin, for possessing the limited edition Bugatti Veyron Ettore Bugatti!”

After Shirley finished speaking,

Everyone present gasped in shock.

Everyone couldn’t help but look at Lin Fan.

They hadn’t expected that this sports car was specially designed for Lin Fan alone!

The Bugatti Corporation’s top sports car belonged to Lin Fan!

At the same time, Lin Fan’s photo appeared on the huge LED screen.

Then, the atmosphere in the venue was stirred up.

Many tycoons exclaimed.

“D*mn, awesome. The Bugatti Corporation hired the best designer to design this sports car for Lin Fan.”

“223 million. That’s too strong... If it were me, I wouldn’t be able to afford such an expensive sports car.”

“What does this mean? It means that Lin Fan’s assets are higher than ours. To be able to take out 223 million yuan to buy a sports car, Lin Fan alone has assets worth tens of billions!”

“What kind of business does Lin Fan do? No matter what kind of business he does, he’s a real big boss.”

Many tycoons looked at Lin Fan with even more enthusiasm.

In their eyes, Lin Fan’s background was indeed unfathomable.

Lin Fan smiled and nodded.

He could just contact the Bugatti Corporation and ask them to send this sports car to his garage.

As for a car, it was just a means of transportation.

What surprised Lin Fan was that a person called Pittman appeared midway. He wanted to flirt with Su Xiaoyu but failed and tried to show off.

In the end, Pittman bought two sports cars and spent more than 80 million. The dividends that Lin Fan could get from this 80 million over dollars were almost 7-8 million.

Pittman’s eyes were blank as he looked at Lin Fan. He was even angrier.

He had thought that he could buy this sports car and show off in front of Su Xiaoyu.

However, he failed.

Because this sports car was tailor-made for Lin Fan.

Pittman also liked this sports car very much, but he had no choice.

If he wanted to buy this sports car, he could only look for Lin Fan and buy it at a higher price.

Immediately, Pittman's face darkened.

Lin Fan and Su Xiaoyu made him buy two Bugatti sports cars for 80 million yuan.

Furthermore, these two Bugatti sports cars were only so-so. They were not out of production.

Pittman felt as if he had been played.

He had never been played by such a woman and man before.

In that case... he couldn't be blamed!

"Gather the security guards and prepare to attack."

"Tonight, I'm going to make Su Xiaoyu my woman."

"Also, I want Lin Fan to pay the price."

"So what if he's a celebrity from China? No one can leave this place after playing me." Pittman's gaze was dark.

If he could not get Su Xiaoyu on the surface, he still had other methods.

When overseas, anyone could be in danger, even big bosses. For example, some time ago, the big boss of JD.com was imprisoned overseas.

After most of the people at the launch event left, everyone gradually dispersed.

Pittman walked in front of Lin Fan.

“What’s the matter?” Lin Fan looked at Pittman.

“I just want to sincerely invite Miss Su to have dinner with me tonight. Would you be willing to?”
Pittman looked at Su Xiaoyu.

“No.” Su Xiaoyu rejected him simply.

“That’s good. The two of you are working together to fool me.”

“I want you two Chinese to know that this is not China!” Pittman said.

Unknowingly, a group of Pittman’s security guards had already surrounded Lin Fan and Su Xiaoyu.

This was Bugatti’s office. Even with Bugatti security, they could not rush over immediately.

At this moment, a fat man in black wearing sunglasses held a beer bottle and smashed it at Lin Fan’s head!

Pittman got the people around him to attack Lin Fan.

And if they fought like this, it would at most be defined as a brawl.

He wanted to make Lin Fan pay the price here first.

Even if this was Bugatti’s office, no one could stop this fat man in black.

Pittman wanted to knock Lin Fan out and take Su Xiaoyu and Lin Qianwei away.

It had to be said that Lin Qianwei was also very pretty.

And no one else could care about these things.

Chapter 208: Shocking Everyone, Lin Fan's True Identity!

Pittman didn't think that the Bugatti Corporation had anything to do with Lin Fan.

He would knock Lin Fan out here and take the two girls away in the chaos.

After a night, it would be useless whether Lin Fan called the police or called for backup.

One night was enough for many stories to happen to Su Xiaoyu and Lin Qianwei.

So what if they were exposed the next day?

It was still the same sentence.

This was a foreign country.

As a member of the Pitt family, Pittman had power and influence.

At that time, Lin Fan might not be able to win even if he sued Pittman.

The Pitt family had the best legal team.

And this was not the first time Pittman had done this.

After knocking Lin Fan out, he could take the two girls away in the chaos. Who would notice?

When they arrived at Pittman's place, there would be no response to their cries for help no matter what.

And this Pittman could be said to be very sinister.

He first spoke to Lin Fan to distract him before letting a fat man in black hit Lin Fan with a beer bottle from behind.

The impact of the beer bottle hit his head directly and he could have fainted.

Pittman looked at Su Xiaoyu's figure and lusted even more.

He had to get her today!

Lin Fan, Su Xiaoyu, and Lin Qianwei were in a hopeless situation.

Lin Fan was indeed a major shareholder of the Bugatti Corporation, but what happened exceeded everyone's expectations.

If Lin Fan was really knocked out here, the manager of the Bugatti Corporation would definitely come to see him immediately.

Without Lin Fan, who here would remember Su Xiaoyu and Lin Qianwei?

When Lin Fan woke up in the hospital, who knows where Su Xiaoyu and Lin Qianwei might have gone?

No one knew what would happen to the two of them.

BOOM!!!

The beer bottle fell suddenly.

At this moment, Lin Fan's body, which he had been training for a long time, had already reacted.

In reality, when someone was behind Lin Fan, he had already sensed it.

The beer bottle fell, but before it could land on Lin Fan's head, Lin Fan kicked the fat man in the stomach.

Then, he threw a right hook at the fat man's head.

The fat man in black fell to the ground.

In less than an instant, the security guards around Pittman had been knocked down by Lin Fan.

Lin Fan's physique was already very good. How could he lose out?

After knocking down the security guards around Pittman, Lin Fan picked up the beer bottle on the ground.

In reality, Lin Fan had been angry from the start.

Initially, he could not find a reason to attack. Now, Pittman had taken the initiative to deliver himself to him.

He was participating in the Bugatti Corporation's launch event, so of course he had to protect the two girls beside him. One was his dog, and the other was his manager.

At first, Pittman was still polite. Lin Fan had only cheated Pittman of tens of millions. This was purely because Pittman's IQ wasn't high enough and he was stupid.

The launch event had already ended. Who would have thought that Pittman would go even further? Seeing that Lin Fan and the others had no background and were easy to bully, he actually attacked them.

Pittman's expression was one of horror.

He couldn't imagine that the security guards he brought would be defeated by Lin Fan so easily.

Looking at Lin Fan holding the beer bottle, Pittman said, "How dare you..."

Lin Fan held the beer bottle and walked towards Pittman.

He was angry.

And furious.

“Remember, Su Xiaoyu is my wife’s good friend.”

“Remember, there are some girls you can’t afford to offend, much less touch.”

“This is a foreign country. So what? Are you looking down on the Chinese?”

Lin Fan held the beer bottle and walked forward.

He swung his arm.

The beer bottle smashed into Pittman’s head.

The beer bottle was smashed.

Pittman fell to the ground on the spot, his expression filled with fear and anger. “F*ck you... How dare you touch me...”

Lin Fan looked at Su Xiaoyu and smiled brightly.

Fortunately, he protected Su Xiaoyu well.

If Su Xiaoyu’s father were to personally take action, these people might not be able to live in this world.

Not long after, many people from Pittman’s family arrived.

Pittman’s father was also here.

Seeing Pittman in this state, Pittman's father was especially angry.

"Dad, it's this person. He's the one who touched me." Pittman looked at Lin Fan with anger.

And this Pittman's father had a dark expression.

The dozens of bodyguards behind him were already restless.

Just as they were about to attack...

The doors of the Bugatti office opened!

A ray of light shot in from afar.

Many men in black split into two columns and walked neatly in front of Lin Fan.

In the middle of the men in black.

It was the current CEO of the Bugatti Corporation.

The CEO of the Bugatti Corporation was here personally!

As one of the top luxury sports car companies in the world, the boss of Bugatti was much better than Pittman's father.

When Pittman's father saw the Bugatti CEO arrive, his expression changed slightly.

The CEO of the Bugatti Corporation walked in front of Lin Fan and smiled warmly. "Boss Lin, sorry for being late."

"I didn't expect that Boss Lin would encounter such a thing when he participated in our launch event. It's our fault." The CEO of the Bugatti Corporation smiled.

Chapter 209: Shocking Everyone, Lin Fan's True Identity!

He knew Lin Fan's status.

Lin Fan was the third-largest shareholder of the Bugatti Corporation!

And... this was only the beginning.

When Lin Fan arrived at the Bugatti Corporation, LV and Chanel had already contacted the boss of the Bugatti Corporation.

They wanted the Bugatti Corporation to protect Lin Fan.

Lin Fan was also a major shareholder of two top luxury goods companies.

Other than that, Lin Fan's identity and background were immeasurable.

When the CEO of the Bugatti Corporation arrived,

Pittman's father still said, "I didn't expect to alarm the CEO of the Bugatti Corporation here. However, what happened today shouldn't have anything to do with you. Therefore, this is a private matter between our family and Lin Fan. Lin Fan, please apologize to my son immediately and compensate him."

"You injured my son and his security guards. If you don't apologize and compensate him, I will call the police to detain you and officially sue you in court," Pittman's father said.

The CEO of the Bugatti Corporation smiled and looked at Pittman's father. He said, "Lin Fan is the third-largest shareholder of the Bugatti Corporation and the second-largest shareholder of Chanel and LV. Boss Lin's matters are our company's matters."

When the boss of the Bugatti said it, Pittman's father's expression changed.

When the Bugatti CEO arrived, Pittman's father's aura had already weakened.

If the CEO of Bugatti hadn't come, Pittman's father would have already taken Lin Fan down.

Now, he knew that Lin Fan was the third-largest shareholder of the Bugatti Corporation.

If this news wasn't explosive enough, then the fact that Lin Fan was the second-largest shareholder of Chanel and LV was enough to shock Pittman's father.

This meant that Lin Fan was a big boss of three top luxury goods companies.

This was Lin Fan's background.

Compared to Lin Fan, the Pitt Family couldn't compare to anything.

With Lin Fan's status, Pittman's father couldn't arrest him like this.

As for going to court to sue him, the chances of winning were even lower.

As a major shareholder of the three luxury goods companies, Lin Fan paid countless taxes every year.

Even if Pittman was beaten up, it was impossible for him to convict Lin Fan of anything because of a fight.

If they offended Lin Fan... then the Pitt Company might collapse completely!

What kind of influence did LV, Chanel, and Bugatti have?

If these three companies joined forces to deal with the Pitt Company, then what awaited the Pitt Company might be destruction!

If it was not easy to understand, one could imagine that in China, Alibaba, QQ, and JD.com worked together to deal with a small company. Who could defeat them?

At this thought, Pittman's father could not help but break out in a cold sweat.

But things had already turned out like this. If he wanted to say anything else, Pittman's father could not bring himself to do so.

“Let’s go,” Pittman’s father said. He glanced at Pittman. If it wasn’t for Pittman, how could he have offended a big shot like Lin Fan?

Seeing Pittman’s father leave with his men, the surrounding tycoons who had not left looked shocked.

Oh my god... How could Lin Fan be so amazing?

Pittman was beaten up. When Pittman’s father arrived, he did not dare to say anything and left with his men.

Even the CEO of the Bugatti Corporation was here. What status did Lin Fan have?

As these tycoons were far away, they didn’t hear the CEO of the Bugatti Corporation clearly. They didn’t know Lin Fan’s background and identity.

Seeing that everyone was about to leave,

Lin Fan spoke.

“The two girls beside me were bullied, and you haven’t apologized or compensated me. When did this matter end?”

“Everyone else can leave. As for Pittman, take him down on the spot!” Lin Fan said as he looked at the CEO of the Bugatti Corporation.

If he hadn’t dodged the man in black’s attack and hit Pittman with a backhand, how far would things have gone today?

When he was overseas, Lin Fan never wanted to be bullied, much less the people around him.

Pittman’s father didn’t want to pursue things with Lin Fan.

But no one had asked Lin Fan for his opinion!
