

I signed In For A Billion Dollar Mansion From The Very Beginning Chapter 290-294

Chapter 290: Crisis, Someone Wants to Kill Lin Fan!

After filming for so long, Lin Fan was too busy and forgot to sign in.

Fortunately, he finally remembered that there was such a thing as signing in today. He had thought that he had suffered a huge loss, but the system was very awesome and allowed Lin Fan to sign in to become the largest shareholder of Estee Lauder.

Estee Lauder was the world's largest skincare, cosmetics, and perfume company.

The scale of the company was spread all over the world.

Estee Lauder's market value was more than 390 billion yuan.

Although Lin Fan was a major shareholder of LV and Chanel, he wasn't the company's CEO.

This time, Lin Fan had become the largest shareholder of Estee Lauder and was equivalent to the company's CEO.

Lin Fan had a lot of say in Estee Lauder.

Just as he became the largest shareholder of Estee Lauder, he received a call.

"Hello, Boss Lin. I'm your assistant, Su Muqing. I'm very honored to be your assistant." Su Muqing's sweet voice sounded.

"Mmm." Lin Fan nodded.

"Boss Lin, the company has already arranged a car for you. You can go to the company at any time and hold a shareholders' meeting," Su Muqing said with a smile.

"Now is fine," said Lin Fan.

The importance of this was different from when he signed in to other companies in the past.

In LV and Chanel, Lin Fan was only the second-largest shareholder. He could just lie down and earn money.

But it was different at Estee Lauder. Lin Fan was already a CEO. Even if he wanted to retreat behind the scenes, he had to meet the company's employees first and have a meeting with the company's higher-ups.

"Boss Lin, your car is already downstairs," Su Muqing said.

In reality, before Lin Fan signed in, the system had already tacitly acknowledged Lin Fan as a major shareholder of Estee Lauder.

Some time ago, the higher-ups of Estee Lauder had already completed the corresponding procedures.

Su Muqing also knew that her future boss would be Lin Fan.

Therefore, Su Muqing had made sufficient plans from the start and sent out a car in advance.

Lin Fan was at Yuehua Entertainment. When he confirmed that he was going to a meeting, Su Muqing was already waiting for him downstairs.

When Lin Fan went downstairs, he saw ten Rolls-Royces parked at the entrance of Yuehua Entertainment.

Beside the ten Rolls-Royce sports cars stood bodyguards in black suits.

Beside the car at the very front stood a very pretty girl.

The girl was wearing a suit and standard work clothes. She was holding a folder.

She was cheerful, gentle, and quiet.

A breeze blew through the girl's long hair. Su Muqing stood there. She looked simple, but she was dazzling.

"D*mn, how can there be such a beautiful girl?"

"And there are ten Rolls-Royces here. Rolls-Royces are sports cars. One costs tens of millions."

"Who are they welcoming with such a grand entrance? It's too blissful to be welcomed by such a beautiful girl."

"Which big boss is going out? He has such a beautiful girl by his side, I'm so envious. Who can stand this?"

Then, these passers-by saw a familiar figure.

Lin Fan!!!

When they saw Lin Fan, everyone revealed looks of disbelief.

"Lin Fan is so handsome. I've finally managed to see Lin Fan in person."

"Oh my god, is such a grand entrance to welcome Lin Fan?"

"That girl is Lin Fan's assistant. Lin Fan's assistant is also so beautiful. I'm so envious."

"Previously, Lin Fan's assistant, Miss Lin Qianwei, was already very pretty. Now, there's an even prettier lady."

When Lin Fan walked out, he saw Su Muqing.

His first impression was that this girl was very beautiful.

The second feeling was that she was not as beautiful as his wife.

It was already autumn. Red leaves fell from the sky and landed beside Su Muqing.

When Su Muqing received Lin Fan, she smiled gently and said, "Good afternoon, Boss Lin."

"Mmm, good afternoon."

"Let's go to the company's headquarters and have a meeting." Lin Fan smiled brightly and sat in the front passenger seat of the car. He put on his seatbelt.

The first impression Su Muqing gave Lin Fan was that other than being pretty, this girl was very capable.

She could predict that Lin Fan was going to attend a meeting with everyone in the company today and could even send out a car in advance to wait for Lin Fan and the many bodyguards around him.

Su Muqing sat in the driver's seat while Lin Fan sat in the front passenger seat.

Many people in the company knew about this.

A very beautiful woman came to pick Lin Fan up.

With such a beautiful girl by his side, many people were envious.

In the company, there was a male celebrity who liked Xia Wanqiu.

He knocked on Xia Wanqiu's office door and showed her the photo of Lin Fan and Su Muqing entering the same car.

"Um, I just took this photo. Will Lin Fan..." the male celebrity said.

Xia Wanqiu took the photo and smiled sweetly. "He's very busy with work. It's no big deal to hire a few more assistants."

"Also, he's my boyfriend. I believe in him. As his girlfriend, I should give him some space ~"

Looking at Xia Wanqiu's explanation, the man was speechless.

Xia Wanqiu didn't mind that Lin Fan had too many girls around him.

Only she and Lin Fan knew that her relationship with Lin Fan wasn't so easy to break.

Speaking of pretty girls, Su Xiaoyu and Lin Kexin were very pretty as well.

In the sports car.

Lin Fan looked at Su Muqing and asked, "There must be something urgent if you have to come here to welcome me."

Su Muqing smiled sweetly. "Boss Lin is really smart. It's indeed an emergency, but I want to make my position clear. I'm your assistant. I'll only serve you and protect you."

Lin Fan leaned against the passenger seat and said, "If there's anything urgent, just say it."

Su Muqing explained, "Boss Lin, you're the boss of Estee Lauder and have the greatest say in the company."

"A few days ago, the company's number one CEO chose to quit and transferred all his shares to your account."

"From this moment on, there have been some divisions in the company."

"Because we're both Chinese, and Estee Lauder was founded in New York."

"Half of the shareholders are dissatisfied with your status and think that you have mediocre experience and don't have the ability to take over Estee Lauder."

“Half of the shareholders are the silent kind. They’re fine with anything as long as they can get dividends.”

“There aren’t many people in the company who really support you. Now, these major shareholders have already arrived in Shanghai,” Su Muqing said with a smile.

“So half of the shareholders aren’t convinced by me? Is that what you mean?” Lin Fan said as he looked out of the car window.

Although on the surface, Lin Fan had already become a major shareholder of Estee Lauder, in reality, some people in Estee Lauder weren’t convinced by Lin Fan.

These people might even take over Lin Fan.

After all, Lin Fan only had 19% of the company’s shares. If these major shareholders were to group together in the company’s major decisions in the future, their shares would exceed 19%.

In that case, Lin Fan wouldn’t have absolute say in the company.

It was not easy to become the CEO of Estee Lauder.

If that was the case, it would be difficult for Lin Fan to become the company’s CEO.

This was also the reason why Su Muqing came here to wait for Lin Fan.

“Yes.” Su Muqing nodded.

“I understand. Since the company’s shareholders want to give it a try, let them give it a try.” Lin Fan raised his eyes and a sharp glint flashed across them.

He was indeed a slacker usually and was not interested in the company’s matters.

Today, Lin Fan had become the CEO of Estee Lauder, but he might be ostracized by other shareholders.

What Lin Fan needed to do now was to obtain the approval of everyone in the company.

And at this moment...

A large truck rushed over.

Crack!

A Rolls-Royce driving behind Lin Fan was instantly shattered.

And the security guard inside the Rolls-Royce... was killed!

Chapter 291: Lin Fan's Arrival Shocked Everyone in Estee Lauder!

Buzz!

When he saw this scene, Lin Fan's scalp turned numb.

Someone wanted him dead!

If it was a normal business competition, it would not matter.

But the current situation had already exceeded the most ordinary commercial competition.

Someone wanted Lin Fan dead. It was that simple.

Su Muqing immediately sped up and brought Lin Fan out of the chaos.

There might be a second and third large truck.

If it wasn't for the fact that Su Muqing drove more than ten identical Rolls-Royces when she picked Lin Fan up.

Then, the one who would die now was Lin Fan.

“Boss Lin, I’m sorry. It was my negligence that caused this situation.” After Su Muqing got off the car, she bowed slightly in front of Lin Fan apologetically.

“I thought that the people from the company would target you, but I didn’t expect them to want to kill you. CEO Lin, I’m your assistant and will always protect your safety,” Su Muqing said.

She seemed like a gentle, simple girl, but she did things with no hesitation.

“It doesn’t matter. It’s not your fault.”

“Give me a list of the company’s shareholders. If the company’s shareholders are behind this, everyone is a suspect,” Lin Fan said, taking the list from Su Muqing.

“The company’s largest shareholder, Lin Fan, holds 19% of the shares.”

“The company’s second-largest shareholder, Wang Qing, holds 16% of the shares.”

“The company’s third-largest shareholder, Claren, holds 11% of the shares.”

“...”

When he looked at the information on the list, Lin Fan realized that the second-largest shareholder of Estée Lauder was also from China.

There were four major families in Shanghai, the Wang family, the Huo family, and two other families.

And the Wang family was clearly a famous existence among the four great families of Shanghai.

Now, the son of the Wang family, Wang Qing, was extremely capable. It was said that he had obtained a certificate from Harvard University very early on.

Now, Wang Qing had become the second-largest shareholder of Estee Lauder.

Today, when Lin Fan was about to go to the company for a shareholders' meeting, he was almost hit by a large truck on the way there.

Although nothing had happened to Lin Fan, one of the bodyguards Su Muqing brought had been killed.

Immediately, Lin Fan felt a sense of danger.

Lin Fan had already arrived at the entrance of Estee Lauder's branch in China.

Su Muqing stood beside him.

Even if that person wanted to kill Lin Fan, they couldn't do it in Estée Lauder's office.

Lin Fan immediately called Yun Qian.

"Brother Yun, someone wants to kill me," Lin Fan said.

"What? What happened? Do you want to call the police?" Yun Qian's expression immediately turned solemn.

"There's no point in calling the police. I'm now the largest shareholder in Estée Lauder. The handover was just completed a few days ago, but the people in the company might not be convinced by me. I thought at first they'd use normal business tactics against me, like making me a figurehead."

"But now, someone wants to attack me directly. A big truck was on the road today and it came straight at my car. Unfortunately, it missed and hit a bodyguard's Rolls-Royce. The bodyguard is dead," Lin Fan said.

"Brother Lin, I didn't expect you to be the biggest shareholder of Estée Lauder now."

"I should have celebrated for you, but I never thought that someone would want to kill you. Where's the truck driver? Did you find out anything? Brother Lin, if you need my help, just call me," Yun Qian said.

“Brother Yun, I was waiting for you to say that.”

“The truck driver is still in the hospital. I don’t think I can get anything out of him. In addition, I’ve sent you the license plate number of the truck and the name of the truck driver. There’s also a list of the major shareholders of Estee Lauder. I want you to help me investigate these people, especially this Wang Qing,” Lin Fan said seriously.

“Brother Lin, I’ll try my best to investigate. There are many people who are foreigners. It might be difficult to find out about them, but leave this Wang Qing to me,” Yun Qian said.

“By the way, help me check on someone else, Su Muqing,” Lin Fan added.

Lin Fan had no idea where Su Muqing came from.

Su Muqing claimed to be his assistant and was waiting for him downstairs.

Coincidentally, there was a serious car accident today. Fortunately, nothing happened to Lin Fan.

But this also made Lin Fan wary.

There were not many people around him who could be trusted now.

He opened his phone’s contact list and looked at several familiar names.

Xia Wanqiu, Su Xiaoyu...

Lin Fan chose to call Lin Qianwei and said, “Qianwei, drive a company car and pick me up here around seven in the evening. I’ll text you the address.”

Lin Qianwei nodded. “Okay, boss.”

At this point, his own people were still more trustworthy.

Lin Qianwei was Lin Fan's subordinate. She would not ask for a reason when she did things. She would only do as she was told.

Lin Fan was a little suspicious of Su Muqing and every other shareholder in the company.

However, although he was suspicious, Lin Fan did not say anything.

There was no point in saying anything when there was no proof.

It could just as easily have been a simple traffic accident.

After calling Lin Qianwei, Lin Fan looked at Su Xiaoyu's name on his contact list.

He originally wanted to call Su Xiaoyu too, but decided against it.

He did not want to implicate Su Xiaoyu. At the very least, he had to find out who wanted to attack him first.

If it wasn't for the fact that he couldn't get through to CEO Ma, Lin Fan would have already contacted him.

Lin Fan had to attend this shareholders' meeting.

Just as he walked into Estée Lauder, a manager immediately came to welcome Lin Fan.

"Good afternoon, Boss Lin!"

"Good afternoon, Boss Lin!"

"..."

Everyone greeted him as he walked in.

As Lin Fan walked through the company door, many employees looked at him politely with admiration in their eyes.

Lin Fan was their idol and a big star in Shanghai.

What shocked these employees now was that Lin Fan had even become Estée Lauder's big boss.

Estee Lauder was a huge company with a market value of 400 billion yuan.

Of course, these ordinary employees couldn't know that someone was targeting Lin Fan.

Many of the employees were from the Chinese branch office. It could be said that all the young people in China knew Lin Fan.

"Lin Fan is so handsome..."

"You can't call him Lin Fan. You have to call him Boss Lin. Boss Lin is good at filming and has such a good character. Now, he's actually our Estee Lauder's big boss."

"Heavens, how much money does Lin Fan have? Boss Lin has directly become the big boss of Estée Lauder. In that case, Boss Lin won't stop filming dramas in the future, right?"

"I also like CEO Lin's television dramas. The second season of Joy of Life is too good."

In the company, almost all the employees greeted Lin Fan.

The company's shareholders were already seated in the office, waiting for him.

The atmosphere in the office was tense.

Lin Fan stood in the doorway of the office.

He shall meet the shareholders of Estée Lauder!

Someone had tried to kill him and failed the first time.

Then Lin Fan would kill this person before he attacked a second time!

Chapter 292: Lin Fan is the CEO of Estée Lauder. Counterattack!

When he walked into the office, Lin Fan looked at the many shareholders present.

Most of the shareholders were standing.

Some other shareholders had already sat down.

The first thing he saw was familiar faces.

The information given by Su Muqing had photos of the shareholders of this company.

Wang Qing, the second-largest shareholder, and Claren, the third-largest shareholder.

Claren approached Lin Fan warmly. He bowed respectfully and smiled. "Welcome to Estée Lauder, Boss Lin."

As a foreigner, Claren was very warm to Lin Fan.

There were also some foreign shareholders who came up to Lin Fan and shook his hand.

"Hello, Boss Lin. I'm a shareholder of the company. My name is Smith."

"Good afternoon, Boss Lin. I'm a shareholder in the company. My name is Tom. I really like the television series you filmed, The Legend of Sword and Fairy."

"Boss Lin, my name is Jerry. You're my idol. I thought I would never see you in person. I didn't expect you to become the big boss of the company today."

After many shareholders shook hands with Lin Fan with a smile, the company's second-largest shareholder, Wang Qing, also walked up to Lin Fan.

“Hello, Boss Lin.” Wang Qing smiled.

“Hello, Boss Wang. I don’t know much about the company yet. I hope we can help each other in the future.” Lin Fan smiled and said a few pleasantries.

There was no emotion in the eyes of the shareholders in front of Lin Fan.

Whether it was the second-largest shareholder, Wang Qing, or the third-largest shareholder, Claren, they all acted as if nothing had happened and shook hands with Lin Fan.

However, to Lin Fan’s surprise,

After Lin Fan finished speaking, Wang Qing smiled and said, “Since Boss Lin doesn’t understand the company’s affairs, won’t you lead the company astray if you become the boss?”

“That’s right, Boss Lin. We admire your ability. We don’t know why the former CEO transferred his shares to you, but do you really have the ability to be the CEO of a company?”

“Boss Lin, it’s said that you’re an actor. You have to film dramas while taking care of the company. I’m afraid you’ll be too busy to do that, right?”

“Why don’t you sell your shares? It’s too stressful at work. I’m afraid you won’t be able to take on this position.”

Many shareholders took the opportunity to speak.

Lin Fan’s eyes narrowed.

What he had said to Wang Qing was just to purposely expose a weakness to make Wang Qing deliberately target him.

It was just a simple probe, but it immediately exposed Wang Qing’s attitude.

Unexpectedly, Wang Qing also decisively targeted Lin Fan.

And these shareholders were all Chinese.

These people who were targeting Lin Fan were all on Wang Qing's side.

The shareholders who had greeted Lin Fan earlier stood on the other side.

Lin Fan sat down, his face calm.

If he could deliberately expose his flaws, he could solve this problem.

Lin Fan's initial probing also revealed many things.

Lin Fan sat down and waved his hand. The room fell silent.

"I'm now the largest shareholder of Estée Lauder, which means that I'm now the boss of the company. There's a very clear share transfer document here to prove that I can become the largest shareholder of the company. Do you need to take a look?" Lin Fan took out the share transfer document and looked at everyone present.

There was silence.

Because everyone knew that the original big boss of the company had transferred the shares of Estee Lauder's largest shareholder to Lin Fan.

It was an undeniable fact.

"Everyone has doubts. I can understand that. After all, it's all about the development of the company."

"But from a business standpoint, I don't think it's up to you to tell me if I'm suitable for this position," Lin Fan said, looking at everyone.

“As the CEO of a company, if I can be scolded in front of some ordinary employees, what’s the point of me being the CEO?”

“Did you take down the list of people who pointed at my nose and said that I’m not qualified for this position?” Lin Fan looked at the girl beside him, Su Muqing.

“Yes. Huang Hao, Wang Yuntian, and Wang Zilong.” Su Muqing nodded.

“If I remember correctly, you’re not shareholders of the company. Inform the human resources department that you’ve been fired.” Lin Fan looked up at the three people behind Wang Qing.

When Lin Fan said that he wanted to fire these three people, Huang Hao, Wang Yuntian, and Wang Zilong’s eyes revealed disbelief.

Lin Fan actually dared to fire them in front of all the shareholders?

“Don’t you dare!”

“The three of them are my subordinates,” Wang Qing said, his eyes turning cold.

“Your subordinates are also from the company. I’m the CEO of the company. Boss Wang, know your place. When did it become your turn to speak to me like this?” The teacup in Lin Fan’s hand landed on the table with a clear sound.

“Fire these three people!”

“Muqing, as a CEO, don’t I have at least this bit of authority?” Lin Fan asked.

“Boss Lin, what you did was reasonable.” Su Muqing nodded.

“Lin Fan, is that reasonable? You’ll be subject to labor arbitration if you fire employees and use your authority recklessly.” Wang Qing looked at Lin Fan. He really couldn’t stop Lin Fan’s authority. There were so many employees in the company. As the boss, Lin Fan could fire anyone he wanted, except for a major shareholder like Wang Qing.

“Labor arbitration?” Lin Fan smiled.

At that moment, Su Muqing walked out, holding a recording pen and playing the voices of the three people who had been talking to Lin Fan.

Lin Fan smiled and spread his hands. “You’re always welcome to use labor arbitration against me.”

With this recording, even the labor arbitration would not support these people.

Lin Fan was not weak when he came to this company.

From the first moment he entered, Lin Fan had been very domineering.

Lin Fan was already certain that even if the person who wanted to kill him was not Wang Qing, he would still kick Wang Qing out of this company completely.

He had accepted the position of Estée Lauder CEO to help the company make money.

Not to play these games and office politics.

However, since someone wanted to play, Lin Fan would still play along.

“I’m new to the company. There’s a lot I don’t understand.”

“Now, I will announce the company’s strategy. We will follow our original strategy for the time being,” Lin Fan said. “One more thing. Anyone in this room who wants to oppose me can bring it up.”

As expected, Wang Qing started to speak again.

As a member of the Wang family, Wang Qing was not a simple person.

Wang Qing looked at Lin Fan and said, “Boss Lin, you’re right about one thing. Whether one can lead the company depends on their individual ability.”

“Now, the company needs a sum of money to finance it. It will probably cost about a billion yuan. I wonder if you can gather this billion yuan in three days. If you can, then we won’t doubt your ability.”

Wang Qing’s words made Lin Fan smile. It reminded him of how Zhou Yu had used 100,000 arrows to force Zhuge Liang to borrow arrows with thatched boats.

But now, Lin Fan was not Zhuge Liang.

Although he could not compare to Zhuge Liang’s achievements, ordinary people could not compare to Lin Fan’s resources and platforms.

Wang Qing was making things difficult for Lin Fan.

Even a hundred-billion-yuan corporation like Estee Lauder would need time and find it difficult to raise a billion yuan at once.

He had only heard of companies financing Ofo. Where would a company finance Estee Lauder?

Even if one invested a billion yuan in cash into Estee Lauder, they wouldn’t hold many shares.

For example, did a big company like Alibaba or Tencent, need other companies to raise hundreds of millions of yuan to finance it?

Therefore, it was much more difficult to raise funds.

Wang Qing felt that Lin Fan would not be able to complete this mission at all.

Coming here and targeting Lin Fan was only the first step.

The second step of the plan was to give Lin Fan a difficult mission so and force him to accept it. When Lin Fan failed the mission, he would leave a bad impression on the shareholders.

In that case, he wouldn’t be far from controlling the company.

“Boss Wang, your mission is too difficult.”

“Boss Lin has just taken over our company and isn’t even familiar with the company’s business. Yet you’re asking him to raise a billion yuan.”

“You’re making things difficult for Boss Lin. We can’t accept that condition.”

Claren spoke, wanting to reject Wang’s suggestion harshly.

As far as they were concerned, it was an impossible task.

When Wang Qing heard this, he was even more amused. “In order to prove Boss Lin’s ability, of course we have to come up with a slightly more difficult mission. If Boss Lin can manage our company worth hundreds of billions, he won’t reject it, right?”

To their surprise, Lin Fan drank a cup of tea and took out his phone to send a message. “I accept,” he said with a smile.

Hearing Lin Fan accept it, the smile on Wang Qing’s face became even more obvious.

He thought Lin Fan would back down, but he didn’t expect him to accept.

Wasn’t this asking for trouble?

He had accepted this mission in front of so many shareholders. If he could not complete it, it would be embarrassing.

Even Su Muqing was shocked.

She admired Lin Fan a lot.

The former CEO of the company also felt that Lin Fan was not bad.

Therefore, when the former CEO transferred the shares to Lin Fan, he specially got the second daughter of the Su family to be Lin Fan's assistant.

When Su Muqing heard the news, she came directly.

She was the second daughter of the Su family and a very smart girl.

As soon as she analyzed the company's information, she immediately sensed that something was wrong.

To Su Muqing, Lin Fan was a very rational person. Why would he agree to such a request?

Even her Su family could not take out a billion yuan in cash.

"Boss Lin..." Su Muqing wanted to persuade Lin Fan.

Looking at Su Muqing's eyes, Lin Fan smiled. It seemed that the girl in front of him had nothing to do with wanting to kill him.

Eyes don't lie.

Sometimes, a look could gain half of Lin Fan's trust.

"Is Boss Lin going back on his word?"

"If Boss Lin goes back on his word in front of so many people, it would really be disappointing." Wang Qing laughed and looked at Lin Fan.

"Wait a moment. Wait three seconds."

"Three..."

"Two..."

“One...”

“That’ll do,” Lin Fan said casually.

Everyone was confused.

At that moment, the manager of the finance department received a message.

“Oh my God, how is this possible? How is this possible...”

“Boss Lin is too amazing!”

“In just three seconds, our company actually raised a billion yuan!!” The finance manager said, looking at Lin Fan with admiration.

A billion yuan was not a lot for Estee Lauder, but it was very difficult to raise a billion yuan in three days.

But Lin Fan had only used three seconds to complete an impossible mission!

Everyone’s eyes turned deathly still at this moment!

Chapter 293: Is This Boss Lin’s Ability?

Wang Qing gave Lin Fan an almost impossible mission.

Three days to complete the financing of Estée Lauder.

A billion-yuan financing was hard to achieve in three days.

The biggest difficulty was that Estee Lauder was already a mature company.

If one invested in Estee Lauder, that meant their money could go down the drain.

Estée Lauder didn’t need the billion yuan.

Any company that invested a billion yuan might not make much profit.

It was like you saying that you wanted to buy Tencent shares with a billion yuan. See if Tencent would pay attention to you.

If he was given more time, Lin Fan might be able to raise this billion yuan.

But with only three days, it was almost impossible to complete this mission.

However, everyone present, all the shareholders of Estée Lauder, including the girl behind Lin Fan, Su Muqing, did not expect Lin Fan to raise a billion yuan in just three minutes.

Lin Fan sent only one text. He didn't even call.

How could such a scene not shock everyone?

After the finance manager finished speaking, everyone's expressions changed drastically.

Astonishment. Shock. Full of disbelief.

There was a certain fanaticism in Claren's eyes.

Lin Fan could easily mobilize a billion yuan, which showed how terrifying his foundation was.

One small detail was all it took for Claren to think otherwise about Lin Fan.

Any company had always been ruled by those with ability.

Only truly capable people could become the CEO of a large company.

Alibaba and Tencent's CEOs, CEO Liu of JD, and CEO Wang of Wanda Group were all top talents.

As long as Lin Fan was capable, it was enough for him to become the CEO of Estée Lauder.

“OH MY GOD!”

“Oh my god, Boss Lin is too amazing. In less than three minutes, Lin Fan has already raised a billion yuan. What a terrifying speed.”

“What exactly did Boss Lin do? I suddenly want to worship him.”

“This is the big boss of our company, Boss Lin. Someone suspected CEO Lin’s ability, but he was immediately slapped in the face.”

“I’m really not exclaiming blindly. It’s mainly because it’s so difficult to raise a billion yuan. It takes time for anyone to raise a billion yuan, but why is Boss Lin so awesome?”

“Isn’t that obvious? Boss Lin has become a major shareholder of Estée Lauder. Do you know what the shareholding ratio is? 19%!!!”

“The market value of our Estée Lauder is about four hundred billion yuan. Think about how much 19% of the shares are worth...”

...

Claren, the third-largest shareholder of Estée Lauder, looked at Lin Fan with approval. “Boss Lin is too awesome. I definitely wouldn’t be able to raise a billion yuan so quickly.”

Even Claren said something like that. Half of the shareholders in the company were applauding Lin Fan.

It had to be known that the fact that the former big boss could hand the company over to Lin Fan meant that Lin Fan had extraordinary ability.

How would small shareholders like them dare to interfere in the battle with Lin Fan?

Lin Fan had fired the few people around Wang Qing as a warning.

Today, Lin Fan could fire these ordinary employees without shares.

By tomorrow, it was not impossible for the company to remove those shareholders.

No one was stupid enough to offend Lin Fan.

As long as Lin Fan could help the company make money, that was enough.

Many shareholders only wanted dividends.

Seeing that half of the shareholders were clapping, Wang Qing's face was as black as it could get.

He originally wanted to mess with Lin Fan, but Lin Fan easily resolved it.

"Boss Lin, it's just a financing. It's nothing."

"We will have to see what you're really capable of if you want to prove yourself."

"After our company changed CEOs, our share price has already fallen by three percent today. It's a huge drop. I wonder if Boss Lin can come up with a satisfactory solution."

"If Boss Lin isn't capable, then the outside world won't be optimistic about Estée Lauder. The company's share price will also continue to fall," Wang Qing said.

Hearing Wang Qing's words, many shareholders revealed thoughtful expressions.

The company's share price was too important.

If the share price fell, it meant that part of the company's market value would evaporate.

Moreover, this also meant that the company was going downhill. The outside world was not optimistic about the company, so it was normal for the share price to fluctuate.

But at this special moment, Lin Fan's leadership ability was especially important.

If Estée Lauder's share price continued to fall, it would affect the interests of the entire company. At that time, Lin Fan would be responsible.

Financing could only indicate part of a person's ability.

The decline in the stock price was what really tested Lin Fan.

"Everything takes time. It's not unusual for the company's stock price to fluctuate. But since I'm now the CEO of Estée Lauder, I will naturally give everyone a satisfactory result."

"Now, adjourn," Lin Fan said.

"Then let's wait and see." Wang Qing smiled meaningfully and left with the shareholders.

After the shareholders left, Lin Fan remained in his seat and pondered.

He now understood the general situation of the company.

More than half of the shareholders were on his side, and another half were on Wang Qing's side.

And a large portion of these shareholders was also watching the show and did not choose to join the battle.

In fact, very few people supported Lin Fan.

After receiving the financing of a billion yuan today, many shareholders also saw Lin Fan's ability.

But that alone was not enough to secure his position.

In order to truly become the big boss of the company, apart from the shares, there was also the will of the people.

Lin Fan had to make these shareholders completely convinced of his ability and not dare to play any tricks.

For example, in Water Margin, there were 107 mighty warriors. There were many people who were stronger than Song Jiang.

Since he was the leader, he had to make the people below him convinced of his abilities.

Otherwise, it would be impossible for anyone else to become the leader of Liangshan.

“Boss Lin, have some tea.” Su Muqing smiled sweetly, stood beside Lin Fan and made him a cup of tea.

“Thanks,” Lin said, taking the tea.

“Boss Lin, do you want me to massage your temples? You look quite tired,” Su Muqing said softly. “I know many massage techniques~~”

‘No need,’ Lin Fan said, rejecting Su Muqing’s suggestion.

“Now, bring me the details of all the shareholders of the company and the relevant information about the company’s stock price,” Lin Fan said.

He had thought that by signing in and receiving the shares of a large company, he could make money lying down.

It didn’t seem so easy to do so now.

In that case ...

Lin Fan would first establish his prestige in Estée Lauder!

Chapter 294: CEO Ma’s Call

Meanwhile, in two major European companies.

LV Corporation Headquarters.

The CEO of Chanel was there too. He looked at the CEO of LV. They looked at each other.

As the CEOs of two major luxury brands, they were a little shocked when they saw the message from Lin Fan.

“Boss Lin has already become the largest shareholder of Estée Lauder. Boss Lin is now the CEO of Estée Lauder,” the CEO of Chanel said.

“That’s right. Boss Lin sent me a message just now. He said that he’s in some trouble at Estée Lauder and wants us to help raise a billion yuan,” the CEO of LV said.

“Is Boss Lin going to build an industrial chain for luxury brands all over the world? First our company, then LV, then Bugatti, and now in the field of cosmetics, Estée Lauder,” the CEO of Chanel sighed.

“The CEO of Estée Lauder has been replaced by Boss Lin, but Estée Lauder’s people seem to be a little dissatisfied. I’m afraid those unhappy shareholders are in a sorry state.” The CEO of LV smiled.

Lin Fan’s identity and background made these two big bosses not dare to underestimate him.

Estée Lauder was also one of the top luxury brands, but they dared to face Lin Fan head-on.

One could imagine what would happen to those who fought with Lin Fan.

....

“Damn it, I’ve been scheming for so many years, and I’ve already controlled a lot of the company’s shares. I was just waiting for the right moment. Who knew that Lin Fan would appear out of nowhere?”

“Why should the shares of the company fall to Lin Fan after I’ve worked so hard for so long? I’m not convinced,” Wang Qing said and slammed the table.

“Lin Fan actually managed to raise a billion yuan. Do you know where this billion yuan came from?” Wang Qing looked at his assistant and asked.

“Boss Wang, I just found out that this billion yuan was transferred from overseas.”

“And the other party’s company’s account name is LV. LV is actually willing to pay a billion yuan for Lin Fan. Boss Wang, don’t tell me Lin Fan knows the CEO of LV Company?” the assistant asked.

When Wang Qing heard this, his eyes darkened.

“That’s a possibility. Maybe Lin Fan is also a shareholder of LV.”

“This Lin Fan is something... No matter which company he’s a shareholder of, Estée Lauder is mine.”

“As long as I can obtain Estée Lauder, my status in the family will rise and I can inherit the Wang Consortium. Moreover, I can marry the second daughter of the Su family. I heard that she’s very beautiful, but I don’t know her name yet,” Wang Qing said.

At the mention of the second daughter of the Su family, Wang Qing was a little excited.

The second daughter of the Su family was as beautiful as she could be.

And very few people had seen the second daughter of the Su family.

The eldest daughter of the Su family was called Su Wan’er. She was very beautiful.

As for the second daughter of the Su family, it was said that she was so beautiful that the moon hides her face and the flowers blush in shame at the sight of her and even more beautiful than Su Wan’er.

Wang Qing did not even know her name.

All he knew was that his father had promised him.

As long as he could obtain the status of Estee Lauder's big boss, he could go to the Su family to propose marriage.

"In that case, I can only use extreme measures."

"If he's dead, he can't be the CEO of the company," Wang Qing said with a cold gaze.

He would do anything for money and his own benefits.

Being able to become the CEO of Estée Lauder meant that he could obtain endless benefits.

And it was a symbol of status.

....

Lin Fan was deep in thought in his office.

He didn't actually know that much about business.

If he really got into business, with Lin Fan's current knowledge, he would have to study for a long time.

Coincidentally, Lin Fan found a lottery ticket given by the system that he hadn't used before.

"Ding! Lottery successful."

"Congratulations Master for getting +10 scriptwriting ability."

"Congratulations Master for gaining +10 directing ability."

"Congratulations Master for gaining +40 business ability."

"Your panel has been automatically opened."

Master: Lin Fan.

Culinary skills rating: 132

Directing skill rating: 97

Screenwriting Ability: 128

Business Capability: 41

After seeing this series of statistics, Lin Fan was a little angry.

He'd added 40 points to his business capability, but his total was only 41?

In other words, without the system, his business ability was only 1?

Damned system. Who are you looking down on?

"What level is business ability 41?" Lin Fan asked.

"Ding, average business ability."

"It's equivalent to one percent of Su Xiaoyu's business ability." The system's voice sounded.

Lin Fan: "..."

Lin Fan could accept average business ability.

After all, he had little contact with this industry.

But what did one percent of Su Xiaoyu's business ability mean?

When Lin Fan asked again, the system no longer answered.

The information given by the system was always correct.

Lin Fan knew that when his culinary skills reached 132, the feasts he made were already shocking.

In fact, some of the big chefs only scored in the nineties. That was already very good.

However, his business ability of 41 was only equivalent to 1% of Su Xiaoyu's.

In other words, Su Xiaoyu's business ability score was 4,100.

Good grief, how smart must Xiaoyu be?

No wonder Xiaoyu's family was the richest in the world.

Lin Fan recalled the last time he met the Huo family. He had just defeated Huo Xinyu in the casino. In the end, before Huo Xinyu could counterattack, she had already admitted defeat.

The Huo Corporation's share price fell by 10% that day and had yet to recover.

Coupled with the fact that Su Xiaoyu was waiting for him at the door that day.

Su Xiaoyu explained that she was just passing by.

Now Lin Fan understood everything.

Su Xiaoyu helped him deal with the Huo family.

Before he could make a move, the Huo family had already collapsed.

So his own dog was that good, too.

Lin Fan smiled, happy for Su Xiaoyu.

However, Lin Fan had to rely on his own abilities to truly establish himself in Estée Lauder.

He couldn't rely on Su Xiaoyu's help all the time when things happened.

Only by growing bit by bit in storms could he truly become stronger.

Ignorance was not scary. As long as one was willing to study hard, there was nothing that could not improve.

For example, Lin Fan's Chinese chess skills were already very good without the help of the system.

There were still more than four months to go before he had to see Xia Wanqiu's father. Lin Fan also believed that on that day, he could really spar with Xia Wanqiu's father in Chinese chess.

At that moment, CEO Ma called.

There were a lot of things he didn't understand in business. He could ask CEO Ma.

The current problem was the decline in Estée Lauder's share price.

If the stock price fell too much, Lin Fan's position as the CEO would be unstable without anyone attacking him.

As long as Lin Fan could solve this problem, he would be able to gain a foothold in the company!
