

I signed In For A Billion Dollar Mansion From The Very Beginning Chapter 350-354

Chapter 350: Who Doesn't Want to Be a Landlord?

Li Guoqing's expression was a little ugly. "Lin Fan, I didn't expect you to be so powerful. You drive a sports car worth more than 300 million. In other words, you spent 500 million to buy sports cars."

"I'm just a little curious. You can't make so much money as a celebrity, right? Besides, your family background isn't too good. Can you share with us how you did it?" Li Guoqing asked.

In fact, Li Guoqing looked at Lin Fan with anger in his eyes.

He had liked Su Xiaoyu for so many years and wanted to show off. Now, all the limelight had been snatched away.

How could he survive after being publicly humiliated like this?

He asked Lin Fan this mainly because he wanted to know where Lin Fan got the money from.

It was impossible for an ordinary family to have more than 500 million yuan to buy cars.

There was a huge sum of money with unknown origins in China. If Lin Fan suddenly had a huge sum of money and couldn't prove where he got the money from, they could arrest him.

Lin Fan smiled but said nothing.

At that moment, Bing Tang held her phone and was shocked by the message she received.

Because... the Bugatti Corporation had released its latest list of shareholders.

Bing Tang covered her chest and looked at Lin Fan with her beautiful eyes. "Ahhh, Lin Fan is so awesome. Look at the name of the shareholders of the Bugatti Corporation... The third-largest shareholder is Lin Fan!"

"Lin Fan is actually the third-largest shareholder of the Bugatti Corporation. That's impressive," said Bing Tang.

“?!” Li Guoqing took the phone and saw the message.

He was stunned.

Completely stunned.

What kind of company is Bugatti?

A world-renowned luxury sports car brand!

It was famous and top-notch all over the world!

The Bugatti brand was as famous as sports car brands like Rolls-Royce, Maserati, Ferrari, and Maybach.

Not to mention how much the Bugatti company made, the Bugatti brand was world-renowned!

And Lin Fan was the third-largest shareholder of the Bugatti Corporation.

This was enough to show why Lin Fan was so rich.

How could the third-largest shareholder of a company worth hundreds of billions not have money?

With just a few hundred million, he could make his money work for him and earn more and more money.

Zhao Ximing exclaimed, “F*ck, the third-largest shareholder? Then Lin Fan, you’re a big boss. You’ve already become made it big!!”

Bing Tang nodded obediently. “You’re really... amazing. It’s hard to be a major shareholder in Bugatti, but you are. With a position like that, it’s no wonder Bugatti was willing to customize a sports car for you.”

“Most people buy a sports car like a Bugatti for a base price of tens of millions. What a rare stroke of luck to have a top Bugatti designer personally design a sports car for you.”

Bing Tang looked at Lin Fan, liking him more and more.

And Lin Fan was really... so handsome!

At this moment, Su Xiaoyu got out of the car and looked at the classmates with a faint smile. “Lin Fan has hundreds of school district houses. He can earn a lot of money just by collecting rent every year. These are all trivial matters.”

Bing Tang was speechless.

Zhao Ximing was speechless.

Li Guoqing was speechless.

The classmates were all speechless

This was simply destroying their world view.

Many of the students present had to consider for a long time when deciding which hotel to stay in Shanghai.

Hotels in Shanghai were expensive, especially those in the city center.

A few hundred dollars a night was considered cheap.

They had to consider carefully before renting a house in Shanghai, let alone buying a house.

If one rented an entire apartment in Shanghai that was more than ten square meters, it would cost at least 3,000 yuan.

It might be slightly cheaper when renting together with others, but the rent in Shanghai was ridiculously high.

It was too difficult to survive in Shanghai with a monthly salary of 5000 yuan.

The property prices in Shanghai were even higher. Ordinary people could only shrink back when looking at them.

As for the school district houses in Shanghai... that was the dream of countless people.

A school district house in the city center would cost at least five to six million.

Lin Fan owned hundreds of school district houses.

Su Xiaoyu had said it herself.

In everyone's eyes, Lin Fan was simply a huge landlord!

Zhao Ximing looked at Lin Fan with admiration. "How good must a landlord's life be? He collects rent every month. This money can't be used up. I finally know why Lin Fan can open a company. With hundreds of school district houses, I can go to heaven!"

Li Guoqing did not say anything. Buying a few hundred school district houses would cost at least a billion yuan...

These were Lin Fan's assets.

Compared to these assets, being a star certainly couldn't make him much money.

Hence, Lin Fan opened an entertainment company.

Opening an entertainment company made more money than being a celebrity.

Lin Fan... awesome!

Li Guoqing stopped talking. The limelight had been stolen.

In the future, he would probably never be able to compare to Lin Fan in front of Su Xiaoyu.

This was the difference between people.

Some people were difficult for one to surpass in their entire lives unless they were cheating.

Li Guoqing was even more impressed.

To be able to come so far from an ordinary working-class family, Lin Fan was too amazing!

Li Guoqing could not imagine how Lin Fan did it, but Lin Fan must have put in a lot of effort that ordinary people could not surpass. He was also very lucky and had the help of benefactors.

It couldn't be that Lin Fan was a cheater, right?

Lin Fan shook his head. "To be honest, what's so good about being a landlord? I have to collect rent for two hundred school district houses every month. If we take a month to have an average of 30 days, it is equivalent to collecting rent from an average of seven houses a day. It's troublesome and tiring."

"I really don't want to collect rent if I can help it." Lin Fan sighed.

Asking you to collect rent, collecting from six or seven houses a day, all kinds of communication, all kinds of records, was also very troublesome.

If every tenant had some problems, Lin Fan would have to deal with them.

How much trouble that would be.

Moreover, the money was too little. The rent was only tens of thousands a month, and the rent from six houses only added up to about 200,000 yuan.

"I can only collect about two hundred thousand yuan a month in rent. The income is not proportional to the labor," Lin Fan said. He did feel that... the money was too little.

Su Xiaoyu nodded after hearing that. "It's not proportional. It's too tiring to collect rent. You're only collecting this little money."

Su Xiaoyu did not need to collect rent. The interest on her bank account alone was at least hundreds of thousands a day. Coupled with the increase in value of various fixed assets, such as real estate,

Su Xiaoyu easily earned a large sum of money just by moving her fingertips. One even had to chat on WeChat to collect rent.

Listening to Lin Fan and Su Xiaoyu,

Zhao Ximing, Bing Tang, Li Guoqing, and the other classmates all looked at Lin Fan with murderous eyes.

Lin Fan was attracting hatred!!

He could earn more than 200,000 yuan a month by collecting rent. Lin Fan actually thought that it was too little.

Lin Fan actually thought that so much money was too little!!!

How would they survive in the future?

Even Li Guoqing did not dare to underestimate so much money.

It was the dream of many to be a landlord.

Who wouldn't want to be a landlord, wear flip-flops and a tank top, look at girls' long legs every day, collect rent, and be relaxed and happy?

In the end... they really saw someone who didn't want to be a landlord today.

Lin Fan, you're destroying my world view!

Chapter 351: This Is A Villa Worth 300 Million Yuan

Many people were working-class, so countless people dreamed of being a landlord.

If anyone's house was demolished, they would be overjoyed.

Because... demolition meant getting rich.

In today's market, having a house meant having money.

With more houses, one could have a steady stream of income.

However, Lin Fan had already reached a stage where he was unwilling to be a landlord.

The money he could get as a landlord was too little.

He could earn more than 200,000 yuan a month just by moving his fingers. Lin Fan couldn't be bothered to do it.

This was the world of the rich.

It was a world beyond their imagination.

Bing Tang, Zhao Ximing, Li Guoqing, and the other classmates had envy and jealousy in their eyes.

Li Guoqing's annual salary was also very high. It was eight million yuan a year, but he had to work really hard.

However, Lin Fan could get more than 200,000 yuan a month. The rent he could get in a year was about seven to eight million yuan.

The pocket money that Lin Fan casually earned was already more than his annual salary.

Most importantly, the assets Lin Fan owned were unimaginable.

Hundreds of school district houses. The value of these school district houses in the future was not something this amount of rent could compare to.

Zhao Ximing looked at Lin Fan and sighed. "Lin Fan, if you say that again, we're going to beat you up. You're already so powerful that we can't compare to you."

Bing Tang nodded. "Huh. Brother Lin Fan is amazing. Now he's got a company and all these houses. He can make a lot of money."

When Bing Tang confirmed that Lin Fan was very rich, she changed the way she addressed him to Brother Lin Fan.

Who wouldn't want to get closer to such a big shot?

Money wasn't everything, but money could solve a lot of problems.

For example, women, status, identity.

In the eyes of Bing Tang, Lin Fan was a big shot, the kind of big shot that she would always worship.

Li Guoqing looked at Lin Fan and asked, "Lin Fan, do you really have a villa in Tomson Riviera?"

Lin Fan nodded. "Yes, but it's not just one. I have two villas. You're all classmates of Xiaoyu. Stay at the villa today and catch up with your classmates."

With difficulty, Li Guoqing raised his head. "Two villas?"

But he was unusually shocked.

Bloody hell, we're talking about two villas!

Any random villa in Tomson Riviera would cost hundreds of millions.

His family had gone to great lengths to buy the smallest villa. That was worth more than fifty million.

A small villa that was a few hundred square meters was on a completely different level than the large villas in Tomson Riviera.

Lin Fan smiled. "Yes."

When he walked to the entrance of Tomson Riviera, the security guards saw Lin Fan and immediately bowed.

"Welcome, Mr. Lin!"

"Welcome, Mr. Lin!"

Lin Fan led Su Xiaoyu's classmates into the district.

When they arrived at Tomson Riviera, Su Xiaoyu's classmates had an eye-opener.

"F*ck... This is the most luxurious area in the entire Shanghai, and also the most famous villa area, Tomson Riviera. What can compare to it?"

"The scenery is so good here. The trees are so lush and green. And the air is fresh. There are some small animals too. Look, there are peacocks!"

"Holy sh*t, I saw a football field here... Which rich guy built a football field here?"

"All I'm saying is that this really is paradise. The greenery, the view, the air, the villa. They're all so luxurious."

"I see the cars parked here. Rolls-Royce, Ferrari... This place is full of sports cars!"

“They’re all rich people. Indeed, the people who can live in the Tomson Riviera District are all rich.”

“I’m crying with envy. When can I afford a place like this? Probably in my next life.”

“Lin Fan is really awesome to be able to afford a villa here!”

....

Seeing how surprised everyone was, Lin Fan smiled.

Su Xiaoyu smiled sweetly beside Lin Fan.

When they reached the center of the district, two large villas appeared in front of everyone.

One villa was two stories, smaller, and about a thousand square meters.

One was a three-story villa and more than two thousand square meters.

“These are the two villas I bought. The renovations are done. Everyone, follow me in.” Lin Fan smiled and walked into the three-story villa.

In Lin Fan’s opinion, it was better to rent out that small villa. At least he could earn some money.

Tomson Riviera was a symbol of status and nobility. Those who could live here were either rich or celebrities.

However, the rent was a little cheap. Lin Fan felt that the villa here could be used by Lin Qianwei, Su Muqing, and Lin Kexin.

If the villa was occupied for a long time, it would be better. It would be more lively.

How much money could he earn by renting it out? Lin Fan immediately decided to let Su Muqing and the others stay in the villa.

This way, it would be more convenient for him to go out to work with Su Muqing. After all, Su Muqing had already become Lin Fan's capable assistant.

Looking at the two villas, Bing Tang, Zhao Ximing, Li Guoqing and all the other classmates were stunned.

There really were two villas!

Moreover, these two villas were too big!

It was lavishly decorated, with cobbled paths, doors made of gold arches, and doors and windows made from well-known foreign brands. It was very artistic.

He opened the door with his fingerprints. When they followed Lin Fan into the villa,

Everyone present was dazzled.

"It's really... too cool."

"This is a three-hundred-million-dollar villa. Luxurious. It's simply too luxurious!"

"It's dazzling. This villa is too big. I love it."

"Lin Fan is awesome. To be able to have such a huge villa is probably a goal that we can't reach in our lives."

After walking into the villa, the many classmates were deeply shocked.

This included Li Guoqing. This was also the first time he had entered a villa worth more than 300 million yuan.

Su Xiaoyu was already used to it, but these people were not.

They felt what it meant to be high-end and grand.

After living in a house like this, who would care for those small houses?

Lin Fan's actions made many of Su Xiaoyu's classmates admire him even more.

Zhao Ximing, Bing Tang, and Li Guoqing felt deep admiration for Lin Fan.

Especially Bing Tang. Along the way, she held Su Xiaoyu's arm and exclaimed in amazement in the villa, as if she had discovered a new world.

The world here was completely different from the world outside.

Before long, however, there was a knock on the door.

When he opened the door, he saw a girl standing there, wearing a cat-eared hat.

"Meow, meow?" Xia Wanqiu walked in and looked at Lin Fan with her beautiful eyes.

She was wearing a simple white dress and sneakers today. She had long, straight black hair and did not put on any makeup, but she still looked beautiful.

When she walked in, she stunned everyone.

"Wife, come, come. You're finally here. I haven't seen you in a long time." Lin Fan smiled. When he saw Xia Wanqiu, his mood changed completely.

"Who's your wife?" Xia Wanqiu blushed and lowered her head, letting Lin Fan hug her.

Seeing this,

Zhao Ximing, Li Guoqing, Bing Tang, and the rest of the classmates all felt a little loveless.

How could Lin Fan's girlfriend, Xia Wanqiu, be so good-looking?

And ...

How could they publicly display their affection without considering the feelings of single people!

Chapter 352: Lin Fan's Vegetable Salad Can Be So Delicious Too!

"Of course you are." Lin Fan smiled and took Xia Wanqiu's hand before walking in.

Inside the villa, everyone was envious.

Lin Fan's girlfriend was really good-looking.

Such girls were rare.

Who could resist a girl who could look so good without makeup?

In addition, Xia Wanqiu's figure was almost perfect.

Fat where it should be fat, thin where it should be thin.

"Everyone, continue playing. I'll go prepare dinner for everyone." Lin Fan smiled.

After all, they were Su Xiaoyu's classmates. Lin Fan still gave them enough face.

If these people weren't Su Xiaoyu's good friends, Lin Fan wouldn't have prepared dinner.

Most importantly, Xia Wanqiu was there too.

It was only right and proper to make dinner for his wife.

It just so happened that not many classmates came, so it was not a big deal to make a big meal.

Lin Fan made some home-cooked dishes this time.

Braised fish, fish-flavored shredded pork, Kung Pao chicken, and so on were all familiar names. There was also some rice.

He prepared vegetable salad for Xia Wanqiu and Su Xiaoyu.

Then ... a knock came again.

Bing Tang, Zhao Ximing, and Li Guoqing looked at the door and were stunned.

Another pretty girl!

Lin Fan's assistant, the second daughter of the Su family, Su Muqing.

Moreover, this girl looked different from Xia Wanqiu and Su Xiaoyu.

Xia Wanqiu and Su Xiaoyu both had the temperament of celebrities. Xia Wanqiu and Su Xiaoyu both had one characteristic, which was that they would be very cute when they acted as cats and dogs.

Su Muqing was different. She brought peace and sunshine.

She just stood there without saying a word. She was the school belle goddess in the memories of countless people.

"Boss Lin, I'm here." Su Muqing smiled gently and looked at Lin Fan.

"Yes, come in. Let's have dinner together." Lin Fan smiled and looked at Su Muqing.

"Boss, there's still me." Lin Qianwei walked in.

"Alright, come in together." Lin Fan smiled.

Zhao Ximing was speechless.

Bing Tang was speechless.

Li Guoqing was speechless.

Every girl who came here was too beautiful.

Lin Fan... How could he be so proud?

Lin Fan was also quite popular.

Those who came here were all good-looking girls.

They were all top-tier beauties.

Then a knock came again.

This time, it was the superstars, Lin Kexin, and Chu Yaoyao.

The two girls also walked in. Lin Kexin muttered, "Can we have dinner too?"

Seeing so many celebrities, the many classmates were already stunned.

This was how popular Lin Fan was.

So many girls had come at once.

"Of course. Since you're all here, I'll also say something. From now on, you'll live in the villa opposite here. You can stay in this villa together."

"Pick your own room. You're all from the company. It'll be convenient for me to look for you in the future." Lin Fan smiled and looked at the girls present.

These girls were all very close to Lin Fan and had a lot of weight in the company.

Lin Fan was the boss now. Su Muqing and Lin Qianwei were responsible for many things in the company.

In the beginning, Lin Qianwei was only Lin Fan's manager. Now, her status had also increased.

Needless to say, Su Muqing was capable enough to be a CEO, but she was willing to be Lin Fan's assistant.

As for Lin Kexin and Chu Yaoyao, they were also very beautiful girls with great potential.

If they lived together, it would be pleasing to the eye.

Although Lin Fan was more devoted to his relationships, it was good to see beautiful women. At least they were pleasing to the eye.

Some people might say that Lin Fan was not devoted and even liked to look at beauties.

Was Lin Fan going to let a group of grandmas live in the villa opposite him?

Besides, that villa was empty. It would be easier to work in the future.

After hearing Lin Fan's words, Su Muqing, Lin Qianwei, Lin Kexin, and Chu Yaoyao's eyes lit up.

Other than Lin Qianwei, the other girls came from good families.

However, no matter how good their family background was, these girls could not afford to live in such an expensive villa.

Who could afford a villa worth more than a hundred million?

Lin Kexin was a big celebrity. It was extremely difficult for her to stay in a villa that cost more than 100 million.

And today, they all had the opportunity to live in a villa.

Other than staying in Lin Fan's villa, they could see Lin Fan often too.

That's a wonderful perk.

"Boss Lin, thank you~~ It'll be more convenient for you to call me if you need anything in the future. However, I can't stay in your house for free. I have to pay rent," Su Muqing said.

"That's right. We have to pay rent. Otherwise, we'll become freeloaders." Lin Kexin nodded.

"The rent is very expensive. According to the rent in Tomson Riviera, the rent here is at least a few million yuan a year. Ordinary people can't afford to rent it. How much money do you make in a year? Forget about the rent. I'm not short of this money. However, since you live inside, you'll be responsible for cleaning and taking care of the flowers and plants." Lin Fan said.

Everyone nodded thoughtfully as they listened to the millions in rent.

Millions. Who could afford that?

At this moment, Lin Qianwei spoke, "Boss, although I really can't afford to pay a few million yuan in rent, I can't live here for nothing~ I'll transfer 10,000 yuan in rent to you every month. What do you think, Boss?"

That was also within her means and she was willing to bear part of the rent.

After hearing Lin Qianwei's suggestion, Su Muqing nodded. Lin Kexin and Chu Yaoyao also agreed.

"Alright, so be it." Lin Fan smiled. This could be considered as renting the house to his own people at a low price. In fact, he wasn't too interested in the money, but if they wanted to pay, Lin Fan had no choice.

“Come, let’s have a feast.”

“Lin Kexin, Chu Yaoyao, remember to bring Ranran here to stay. Get a professional chauffeur to be in charge of sending her to school,” Lin Fan said.

“Okay ~” Lin Kexin nodded.

“Then what are we having for dinner?” Lin Kexin asked.

“You all will eat vegetable salad. Your figures are important. The company will still rely on you to make money in the future.” Lin Fan smiled.

“Ahhh, vegetable salad. I’m aggrieved... Wanqiu, do you want to tell Lin Fan that we can have a feast and eat meat together?” Lin Kexin looked at Xia Wanqiu pleadingly.

Only Xia Wanqiu could persuade Lin Fan. How would they dare?

Lin Fan’s dishes were so delicious that they couldn’t help it.

But vegetable salads didn’t have much taste. It couldn’t compare to those big fish and meat dishes.

Xia Wanqiu held the vegetable salad and smiled faintly. She glanced at Lin Fan and said, “You all have to listen to Lin Fan ~ Actually, Lin Fan’s vegetable salad is also very delicious. Those fish-flavored shredded pork are for Xiaoyu’s classmates.”

Lin Kexin picked up the vegetable salad helplessly.

After only one bite, Lin Kexin’s eyes widened.

Chu Yaoyao was also stunned.

This... how was this possible?

Even Lin Fan’s vegetable salad could taste so good!!

Chapter 353: A Random Livestream Has Such High Popularity

Zhao Ximing, Li Guoqing, and Bing Tang's eyes widened.

Many of Su Xiaoyu's classmates were also dumbfounded.

They had only taken a bite of Lin Fan's feast and were already deeply attracted by it.

They had never eaten such a feast before.

"Did Lin Fan really make this feast? Why is it so delicious?"

"Lin Fan's feast is comparable to a five-star meal..."

"That's right. If Lin Fan becomes a chef, he'll definitely become popular!"

"I remember now. Lin Fan used to run a restaurant. Is that restaurant still open?"

The classmates looked at Lin Fan expectantly.

He just smiled and shook his head.

There was no longer any need to open that restaurant.

Even if he opened the restaurant, he wouldn't be able to cook a feast for his customers himself.

After dinner, the classmates were ready to rest.

Lin Fan returned to his room and prepared to study Chinese chess.

For the past six months, Lin Fan had been studying Chinese chess.

Lin Fan had already memorized the game-ending techniques of Chinese chess and the various Chinese chess records using his own capabilities.

He had not relied on the system to improve his Chinese chess skills. He had relied entirely on himself.

Lin Fan had already memorized all the chess moves, the openings, the midgames, the deadlocks, and all kinds of matches by heart.

At this moment, Xia Wanqiu pushed open the door and walked in.

“Meow, meow?” Xia Wanqiu looked at Lin Fan.

“Still playing Chinese chess?” Xia Wanqiu asked.

Lin Fan nodded, glanced at Xia Wanqiu, and smiled brightly.

He had studied Chinese chess for so long for no other reason. Lin Fan could not earn much money with Chinese chess. He just wanted to get Xia Wanqiu’s father’s approval.

As long as he could obtain Xia Wanqiu’s father’s approval, Lin Fan felt that anything was worth it.

He had already made a lot of money and now he had his own company.

And did Lin Fan have any other dreams?

It was good to have money to spend and be with his girlfriend.

As for the money, Lin Fan couldn’t spend it all.

In Lin Fan’s eyes, there was not much difference between tens of billions and hundreds of billions or trillions. It would forever be a wealth that he could not finish spending in his lifetime.

Lin Fan was not interested in becoming the richest man in the world.

He had so many companies that he could do nothing and just collect dividends. Even if he spent his life like this, he would earn so much money he could not finish spending it all in his lifetime.

Therefore, what Lin Fan wanted to do now was to marry Xia Wanqiu and live happily with her.

That was why Lin was playing Chinese chess.

Lin Fan knew that Xia Wanqiu's father liked to play Chinese chess, so he was willing to learn.

If he wanted to marry Xia Wanqiu, he had to get her parents' approval.

Xia Wanqiu's father was only the first stage.

This first stage was quite important.

Lin Fan's Chinese chess skills were also crucial.

"Lin Fan, when you play Chinese chess, you don't just have to read more and memorize more chess records. Although these are very useful, the most useful thing is to practice and play against others."

"Only then will the improvement be more obvious. Otherwise, it might be difficult to improve your level of Chinese chess with just theoretical knowledge," Xia Wanqiu said.

Lin Fan nodded. "Sounds reasonable. I'll do my best."

Seeing how serious Lin Fan was, Xia Wanqiu walked up to him and kissed his cheek gently. Her heart ached as she said, "I'm a little heartbroken to see that you're working so hard."

Looking at the girl in front of him, Lin Fan smiled brightly and gently kissed Xia Wanqiu's red lips. He smiled and said, "Don't worry, this is what I should do in order to marry you. It's that simple."

Xia Wanqiu blushed and pursed her red lips.

Lin Fan had become so bold now that he kissed her directly.

Xia Wanqiu said gently, "Then rest early. I'm going to rest too~"

After Xia Wanqiu left, Lin Fan completely entered a state of playing Chinese chess.

He clicked on QQ Games' Chinese chess game.

This Chinese chess game was something anyone could play.

Lin Fan had played it before. The levels of this Chinese chess game were 1-1, 1-2, 1-3. They were also relatively low.

After that came 2-1, 2-2, 2-3, and so on.

When one reached Level 9-1, this person who played Chinese chess was already very masterful.

By 9-2, 9-3, they could already be considered professional level.

And surpassing 9-3 was already the level of top-notch artificial intelligence. It was also a level that humans could not reach now.

It was precisely because 9-3 was above human standards that it had a title. It was called the God King!

Someone who could play Chinese chess so well had yet to be born.

Lin Fan's Chinese chess level was 3-2. He had reached it previously and had a total of 18 consecutive wins.

After reaching 3-2, Lin Fan felt that there were still many shortcomings in his Chinese chess skills, so he started to learn.

Today, Lin Fan felt that he should have learned enough Chinese chess skills.

He turned on the game and went to war!

Lin Fan wouldn't be afraid or flinch.

This was the first game he was going to play after studying Chinese chess.

Although he was playing against players on the Internet, the strength of players at different levels was different.

If he was lucky, he might even encounter professional Chinese chess players.

Just as Lin Fan was about to play Chinese chess, he thought of starting a livestream.

If he started a livestream, it would be a huge income.

With that in mind, Lin Fan asked for his sister, Lin Yushi's, livestream room number and password.

"Sis, let me borrow your account to start a livestream," Lin Fan said.

"Huh?" Lin Yushi looked at Lin Fan in surprise while video calling him.

"Brother, you're going to do a livestream. Are you going to sing again?" Lin Yushi was looking forward to it. No one disliked Lin Fan's singing, and Lin Yushi was no exception.

"I'm not singing. I'll be playing Chinese chess." Lin Fan smiled.

"Brother, here, I'll lend it to you. I'll text you how to log in and send you the password." Lin Yushi smiled.

After getting the login details for the livestream, Lin Fan opened Douyu livestream.

On Douyu livestream, Lin Fan opened the Chinese chess game on time.

And, of course, there was the camera.

After turning on the camera, fans immediately rushed in.

“What the f*ck? It’s a man? Could he be Lin Yushi’s boyfriend? Unfollow, unfollow. She already has a boyfriend?”

“The idiot upstairs, this is Lin Fan, the superstar Lin Fan! Lin Yushi is his sister.”

“D*mn, Lin Fan is livestreaming.”

“Ahhh, I just want to know how Lin Fan can be so handsome. It doesn’t make sense.”

“Does Lin Fan want to sing? I’m already prepared to record it. Lin Fan sings very well!”

“6666666.”

Before Lin Fan could say anything, a huge super rocket appeared on the screen.

[Little Star gifted a super rocket!]

[The cute kitten gifted ten airplanes!]

[Lin Fan’s loyal fan gifted a rocket!]

Lin Fan did not expect that he would be so popular just by randomly starting a livestream!

Chapter 354: Lin Fan Is Too Amazing, The Livestream Is Shocked!

Instantly, the gifts filled the screen.

Because the person livestreaming was Lin Fan.

It was unknown how much traffic Lin Fan’s livestream could attract.

Three minutes into the livestream, the popularity of Lin Fan's livestream had already reached 100,000!

Lin Yushi's livestreams were not very popular, but Lin Fan's livestream was very popular.

Without any publicity, the livestream was already so popular.

"Everyone, don't send gifts like this anymore. I'm just here to do a livestream." Lin Fan smiled.

He just felt that the fans were too enthusiastic about sending gifts. If they continued to be so enthusiastic, not to mention anything else, the livestream would lag crazily.

After Lin Fan finished speaking, there were even more gifts in the livestream!

He had just started livestreaming and there were already so many gifts.

"The main purpose of this livestream is to play Chinese chess. I'm not going to do anything else. I just want to relax. I'm a little tired from work," Lin Fan said, starting the first round of Chinese chess.

Many people understood the rules of Chinese chess.

For example, the cannon had to jump over one piece to capture an opposing piece. The horse had to move in an L shape. The elephants can move two spaces in any diagonal direction. The opposing generals cannot meet each other. Many viewers knew the most basic rules.

Hearing that Lin Fan was going to play Chinese chess, the audience in the livestream was a little dumbfounded.

"D*mn, Brother Fan is going to play Chinese chess."

"I happen to know how to play Chinese chess too. Haha, Brother Fan, do you want me to teach you?"

"Boohoo, I don't understand Chinese chess. What should I do? But I just want to see Lin Fan. The main thing is that Lin Fan is really handsome."

“Lin Fan is handsome, handsome, handsome!!”

Lin Fan thought that not many viewers would watch him play Chinese chess.

However, to his surprise, the audience who came to watch Lin Fan play Chinese chess increased instead!

When these fans found out that it was Lin Fan who was livestreaming, they all rushed into the livestream.

With Lin Fan’s current popularity, too many viewers liked him.

“Ahhh, it’s really Lin Fan livestreaming!”

“I like all four of Brother Fan’s television dramas very much. I wonder what kind of television drama Brother Fan is going to film next?”

“I’m looking forward to it. Brother Fan has also started playing Chinese chess, but Chinese chess is very difficult. I thought Brother Fan would do some charity activity.”

“Brother Fan, is Xia Wanqiu around? I want to see Xia Wanqiu. Xia Wanqiu is really beautiful. I’m envious that you have such a beautiful girlfriend.”

“Lin Fan, Lin Fan, Lin Fan!!!”

Countless comments flashed across the livestream.

The popularity value of Lin Fan’s Douyu livestream had increased to one million!

A million popularity points was the level of popular livestreamers!

Lin Fan’s livestream of Chinese chess was actually quite boring. The audience who could watch Chinese chess was very good, but even so, he had a million popularity points!

In Douyu.

When the reviewers of the company saw Lin Fan start a livestream, they exclaimed, "Damn, Lin Fan started a livestream. Why did he start a livestream so suddenly..."

Another reviewer nodded, full of affection. Even the reviewer liked Lin Fan. Almost no one disliked his face.

"Should we report this to the supervisor?" the employee asked.

"I think we should report it. Lin Fan seems to be playing Chinese chess. Why don't we talk to the supervisor and see if we can immediately change the recommendation spot to promote Lin Fan?"

"Lin Fan came to our company to livestream. Although he used Lin Yushi's account, look at this popularity. It's too scary. In just six minutes, it has risen to the level of a million." Another employee nodded.

The employee was also a little excited. "Who asked Lin Fan to bring his own fans? He's always been so outstanding. It's only right."

After the two employees decided, they immediately reported it to the supervisor.

The supervisor was also dumbfounded. After opening Lin Fan's livestream, he said, "Damn... The popularity of the livestream has already risen to 1.3 million. It hasn't even been ten minutes, right?"

"Since Lin Fan has started a livestream, let's promote it. Immediately put up Lin Fan's photo on the Douyu app and the Douyu homepage. Also, promote his livestream under Chinese chess livestreams. This is a great opportunity for our Douyu Company to promote ourselves!"

Under the supervisor's decision, Douyu immediately chose to promote Lin Fan.

With Douyu's proactive publicity, the screens of all major livestreams showed that Lin Fan had started livestreaming.

An announcement throughout the Internet!

In an instant, countless viewers knew that Lin Fan was livestreaming.

Everyone in the various livestreams swarmed into Lin Fan's livestream.

Lin Fan was playing Chinese chess.

There were also many Chinese chess fans, including some experts who liked to play Chinese chess, who entered the livestream.

What they saw was Lin Fan's 19th Chinese chess match.

This was because Lin Fan had already obtained 18 consecutive victories previously, and this Chinese chess game could also decide if Lin Fan could achieve 19 consecutive victories.

"Checkmate!"

Lin Fan said. The horse jumped forward and ended the opponent.

Lin Fan had won!

Lin Fan won his nineteenth game of Chinese chess.

At the same time, Lin Fan's level had also increased to 3-3. Although it was not very high, Lin Fan's Chinese chess skills had also won over some of the audience.

"6666666."

"I'm watching Lin Fan abuse noobs online. Lin Fan's Chinese chess skills seem pretty good. The other party can't beat Lin Fan at all."

"D*mn, Lin Fan is a little awesome. He sings and shoots well. How can he be so good at Chinese chess too?"

More and more fans flooded into the livestream.

Lin Fan continued to play Chinese chess and did not pay attention to the fans in the livestream.

The training now was a challenge for Lin Fan.

Lin Fan could only improve his Chinese chess skills in actual matches before he could meet Xia Wanqiu's father.

This was Lin Fan's strict attitude towards himself.

Lin Fan won the twentieth round again.

This time, Lin Fan still checkmated his opponent!

He checkmated his opponent in 17 moves.

Seeing Lin Fan's amazing Chinese chess skills, the audience who watched the entire match were deeply shocked.

There were many Chinese chess fans among them, and their standards were not bad.

When they saw Lin Fan's opening, the layout of the midgame, and the way he played the entire chess game, they were already stunned.

"Lin Fan... is so powerful."

"D*mn, I haven't realized that Lin Fan has already won 20 consecutive rounds!"

"It's really a twenty-game winning streak. Lin Fan's opening and midgame were done perfectly!"

"Although the opponent's strength is indeed not good, for Lin Fan to be able to obtain a 20-win streak, his standard is not ordinary."

“Previous poster, stop bragging. What’s so good about Lin Fan? Isn’t he just bullying noobs? I can do it too. Could it be that Lin Fan can win 30 or 40 consecutive victories?”

“That’s right, just brag. If Lin Fan can win 40 consecutive matches, I’ll livestream myself eating sh*t upside down!”

...

Two hours later ...

Lin Fan won another 20 consecutive victories!

Lin Fan had already won 40 consecutive rounds!

Moreover, Lin Fan’s rank had already reached 6-3!

The entire livestream was in an uproar!

No one expected that not only did Lin Fan know how to play Chinese chess, but his Chinese chess skills were also so good!

In the Chinese chess app, it was extremely difficult to achieve a 40-game winning streak.

But Lin Fan... did it!

So Lin Fan’s Chinese chess skills were also at the level of a master!
