

I signed In For A Billion Dollar Mansion From The Very Beginning Chapter 355-359

Chapter 355: Meow Meow?

In just two hours, the popularity of Lin Fan's livestream had reached 10 million!

Ten million popularity!

Such popularity made many big streamers feel intimidated.

Only very few big streamers could achieve a popularity of ten million.

For example, the once glorious Paratrooper One Lu Kaikai, had once set a record for livestreamers.

But Lu Kaikai stopped being a livestreamer and his name became a legend.

The real popular person in the livestreaming world, the person who stood at the peak, was a professional player surnamed Lu.

And now, in the Douyu livestreaming world, Lin Fan had already gained so much popularity after casually livestreaming for two hours!

Because his name... was Lin Fan!

At the same time, the fact that Lin Fan's livestream had reached ten million popularity shocked everyone in Douyu.

In Douyu, the executives gathered, their faces filled with disbelief.

"That's ridiculous. In two hours, Lin Fan has ten million popularity."

"Look at the bullet comments. It's so dense that you can't see it clearly. This is the traffic and popularity that Lin Fan brings."

“Most importantly, how can Lin Fan be so good? Damn, isn’t he a big star? Why is he so good at Chinese chess?”

“That’s right. Lin Fan’s popularity is indeed too high. It’s a pity that he’s not our streamer. Otherwise, with a little promotion, he would definitely be the most popular streamer on the Internet!”

“Is there a need to promote him? Lin Fan is already the most popular celebrity on the Internet. All the television dramas and movies he filmed have been recognized by the audience.”

“This is Lin Fan’s popularity. He originally thought that he just wanted to casually entertain himself. Who knew that Lin Fan was a technical player? He’s so good at Chinese chess.”

Many executives were watching Lin Fan play Chinese chess.

Lin Fan turned on the camera. He had no idea how many fans were in the livestream and staring at his face.

The main thing was that there were very few people who were as handsome as Lin Fan.

At the same time, in Lin Fan’s livestream, many big streamers came to give gifts.

[Little Tuan Tuan gave Lin Fan ten super rockets!]

[Little Sima gave Lin Fan five super rockets!]

[DDP gifted Lin Fan 20 super rockets!]

[Faker gave Lin Fan three super rockets!]

[Little Momo gave Lin Fan 20 super rockets!]

....

Countless gifts flooded the screen.

These people were popular Douyu streamers.

When they heard that Lin Fan was livestreaming, they were extremely excited.

All the big streamers had come to give Lin Fan gifts.

Lin Fan didn't look at how many gifts there were backstage, but there were so many gifts that the livestream was about to explode.

One super rocket cost 2,000 dollars. Ten would cost 20,000 dollars.

There were also many small gifts like airplanes and rockets that no longer appeared in the livestream.

The main thing was that there were far too many people giving gifts!

Seeing so many people supporting him, Lin Fan smiled.

"Thank you all for the super rockets. Thank you very much."

"But don't give me too many gifts. I'm richer than most people. I just want to play Chinese chess and chat with you guys." Lin Fan smiled and said seriously.

He had not thought to collect so many gifts.

Lin Fan felt a little helpless after receiving so many gifts at once.

He liked money, but he did not start his livestream with the purpose of making money.

The fans kept sending gifts but these fans had limited money.

After all, no matter how rich the fans were, they could not compare to Lin Fan.

Lin Fan's current assets were indescribable.

"666666, I like Brother Fan's honesty."

"Brother Fan, continue playing Chinese chess. We like to send gifts. If I earn 5,000 yuan a month, I'll use 4,900 yuan to buy gifts for Brother Fan, and 100 yuan for instant noodles and pickled vegetables."

"We all know that Brother Fan is rich. Hahahaha, Brother Fan is telling the truth, but we... don't mind!"

"Brother Fan, what's the next television drama you'll be filming? I'm looking forward to it!"

"Brother Fan, and when are you going to hold a concert? I want to hear you sing. The main reason is that your singing is too good. I often listen to your songs on repeat now."

[Xiaomo gave Lin Fan 30 super rockets!]

[Brother Happy gave Lin Fan 20 super rockets!]

[Dongbei Luandun gave Lin Fan two super rockets!]

[Lin Fan's loyal fan gave Lin Fan 50 super rockets!]

....

The gifts were piling up.

The fans' enthusiasm was growing.

Actually, all of these fans knew that celebrities were richer than them.

However, they were still willing to give Lin Fan gifts.

Because they liked Lin Fan to the point of fanaticism. That was all.

Lin Fan took a glance and shook his head, realizing that he might as well not have said all this.

He wanted to dissuade the fans from sending gifts, but they went even crazier.

Immediately after, a message completely made the livestream explode!

[Xia Wanqiu gave Lin Fan a hundred super rockets!]

[Congratulations to Xia Wanqiu for becoming the first emperor of Lin Fan's livestream!]

Even Xia Wanqiu came to give Lin Fan gifts.

A hundred super rockets in one go.

And a hundred super rockets cost two hundred thousand!

This was how much face his girlfriend gave him.

Who would have thought that just by coming to watch a livestream, they would be fed dog food?

The comments in the livestream also turned into one sentence.

[Hello, Sister-in-law!]

[Hello, Sister-in-law!]

Xia Wanqiu looked at the comments in the livestream and smiled.

Lin Fan also smiled. “Wife, it’s time to sleep. Don’t send gifts anymore. I’ll play Chinese chess for a while more. I’ll rest later.”

The fans all stood up in the livestream.

This was a public display of affection!

Xia Wanqiu would definitely be able to hear Lin Fan’s words in the livestream.

Xia Wanqiu sent Lin Fan 100 super rockets and became an emperor.

An emperor costs a fortune.

Xia Wanqiu became the first emperor in Lin Fan’s livestream.

Xia Wanqiu was also the person who gave Lin Fan the most gifts that night.

The 200,000 yuan gift was directly given out.

Lin Fan stopped Xia Wanqiu from giving any more gifts and even openly called her his wife.

Who could withstand this?

All the fans couldn’t take it anymore.

The bullet comments in the livestream went from “Hello, Sister-in-law” to—

[I want to see Sister-in-law!]

[I want to see Sister-in-law!]

[Brother Fan, is Sister-in-law home? Can you let her come out for a while?]

Lin Fan looked at the bullet comments and smiled bitterly.

“Qiuqiu went to rest. Everyone should continue watching me play Chinese chess,” Lin Fan said.

Just as Lin Fan was about to start the next game of Chinese chess, Xia Wanqiu walked into the room.

In the livestream, Xia Wanqiu gently poured a glass of water for Lin Fan in front of tens of millions of viewers.

“Meow, meow?” Xia Wanqiu asked.

“I’ll sleep later, just a little longer,” Lin Fan said.

“Meow, meow...” Xia Wanqiu left and made a cute gesture.

It was this cute action that melted the hearts of all the viewers in the livestream.

When had they ever seen Xia Wanqiu like this?

Xia Wanqiu had never been like this before.

Today, they saw Xia Wanqiu meowing at Lin Fan. She was simply... too cute.

Countless fans were envious and jealous.

Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu’s relationship was still so good.

Girls only knew how to wheedle and act cute in front of the person they loved.

They had also seen Xia Wanqiu’s cute side today.

Chapter 356: How Can Lin Fan’s Chinese Chess Skills Be So Ridiculous!

Seeing Xia Wanqiu like this, Lin Fan felt very sweet.

He really wanted to turn off the livestream and rush to Xia Wanqiu's room. Then...

But he couldn't yet.

It was not long before he had to meet Xia Wanqiu's father.

Lin Fan had to improve his Chinese chess skills before he met Xia Wanqiu's father.

"Okay, okay, enough chatting. I have to focus on playing Chinese chess."

"Qiuqiu will be angry if I sleep late later." Lin Fan smiled.

He and Xia Wanqiu were already living together. This news had long been trending and the fans knew about it.

Even if Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu lived together and had sex, the fans wouldn't run away.

It was mainly because Xia Wanqiu had long been Lin Fan's girlfriend, and Lin Fan had even publicly proposed to Xia Wanqiu at the Zhejiang Television Gala.

Such a scene had long been imprinted in the hearts of the fans.

In the eyes of the fans, other than being Lin Fan's girlfriend, Xia Wanqiu was also his fiancée.

With such a relationship, there was nothing wrong with living together.

Moreover, when the fans watched the livestream, they realized that although the two of them were living together, they were not sleeping together.

The fans were also a little disappointed by such a discovery.

Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu should have gotten married a long time ago.

If only they could have a baby.

After showing off their love, Lin Fan prepared to start his 41st Chinese chess game.

Now his rank was 6–3 with a 40-game winning streak.

Lin Fan didn't know what level he could reach with his own abilities, but he would keep working hard.

He knew that Xia Wanqiu's father was at a professional level.

Although Xia Wanqiu's father was not a professional Chinese chess player, Lin Fan could be evenly matched against Xia Wanqiu's father when he reached a professional level.

In Chinese chess, the most important thing was experience.

In Chinese chess, there were many complicated ways to play, and each move could lead to a different outcome.

The two sides sparred, in terms of brainpower, the way they set up their pieces, and their understanding of Chinese chess.

After opening the Chinese chess game, Lin Fan also focused on his 41st match.

Lin Fan's opponent this time was also 6-3.

This time, the opponent went first and chose the central cannon opening.

If one went first, he would have a small advantage. He would have the initiative and the power to attack.

And in this match, the opponent began to attack wildly.

However, all the attacks were blocked by Lin Fan.

Lin Fan's setup was flawless.

Moreover, Lin Fan didn't have much time to think about his moves. Every setup, every defensive move, and every attack by the opponent formed a chess record in his mind.

Six minutes later, his opponent couldn't take it anymore.

"D*mn, how can this id called Linfan be so impenetrable when he's playing Chinese chess?" His opponent looked stunned as all his attacks were blocked.

"Holy sh*t, my little chariot."

"D*mn, my cannon was captured!"

"D*mn, d*mn, my other chariot was also captured!"

"F*ck, all my pieces were captured!"

....

The opponent lasted eight minutes and surrendered.

His pieces were all captured by Lin Fan.

Except for the pawns who were not captured, the chariots, carts, horses, elephants, and advisors were all captured.

On the other hand, Lin Fan only lost a few pawns, a cannon, and a horse...

Lin Fan had completely won!

He had completely won this match in 8 minutes!

A line of text also appeared on the top of the QQ Chinese chess app.

[Congratulations to Linfan for achieving 41 consecutive victories!]

Unknowingly, three more hours passed.

This time, Lin Fan played Chinese chess very quickly. He kept playing against different opponents.

In three hours, he played dozens more games of chess.

And now, Lin Fan's rank had already rushed to 8-2.

Lin Fan's winning streak also went from 41 to 81 wins in a row!

He was winning every match.

They were all hearty victories.

Before 8-2, Lin Fan was slaughtering his opponents like he was bullying noobs.

No matter what kind of opponent it was, it was difficult to resist Lin Fan.

And it was already two o'clock in the morning.

Lin Fan was so engrossed in playing Chinese chess that he lost track of time.

It was two o'clock in the morning. A lot of the audience should have gone to rest already.

But today happened to be Friday, and many of the audience members had the next day off.

Therefore, Lin Fan's livestream was still very popular.

At this moment, Lin Fan's livestream exploded!

"Awesome, awesome, awesome..."

"D*mn, how did Lin Fan do it? 81 consecutive wins. Lin Fan has already obtained 81 consecutive wins!"

"What level is Brother Fan at? F*ck, is he an artificial intelligence? Why is he slaughtering his opponents in Chinese chess? I suspect that Brother Fan is cheating."

"Even if he cheats, he might not be able to win 81 consecutive victories. There would be a chance of drawing. However, Lin Fan has been winning continuously and can defeat his opponents every time."

"Lin Fan's Chinese chess skills are really high... Is he still human?"

Lin Fan picked up his beer and took a sip.

Come on, get on with it!

He felt his blood boil now.

This was not because Lin Fan was arrogant, but because he felt that all the knowledge he had learned had been used when he played actual matches today and entered his mind.

The knowledge in the books would be converted into experience and completely digested in Lin Fan's mind.

Lin Fan realized that he had already forgotten almost all the knowledge points such as the thirty-six ways to checkmate in Chinese chess that he had learned in the books.

It was like how Zhang Wuji had forgotten all his moves.

Forgetting the moves was the real way to learn.

Because he had already mastered these moves!

Lin Fan had obtained an 81-game winning streak, and his winning streak was still ongoing!

This record even alarmed the various big shots in the Chinese chess world!

And many groups in the Chinese chess world were shaking.

“Does anyone know who this Linfan is? Oh my god, he has already won 81 consecutive victories. On our software, the highest winning streak is only 61 consecutive victories.”

“How can anyone win 81 consecutive matches?”

“I suspect this person is cheating. He can’t be that good otherwise.”

“Yeah, Linfan must be cheating. But we don’t really know who this guy is yet. He’s definitely cheating. After all, humans are no match for artificial intelligence right now.”

“Linfan’s awesome. Maybe he’s running a smurf account to bully noobs. He could have done it.”

At the same time, a discussion was also started in a rank 8 Chinese chess group.

“Linfan’s got an 81-game winning streak. Should we stop him?”

“With all due respect, players below rank 8 don’t really know how to play. They don’t understand the essence of Chinese chess. Our group is made up of elite Chinese chess players. It’s time to take action.”

At this moment, the group leader came out.

The group leader’s ID was called Gossip. Gossip was also a Chinese chess streamer on Douyu. He was very strong.

“Linfan, 81 consecutive victories? What’s there to brag about? Is it hard?”

“There aren’t many experts above rank eight in the first place. More than half of them are already gathered in our group. Now... let’s all move out.”

“Attack Linfan. Let Linfan know there’s always someone better.”

“Let’s start matchmaking together now. Whoever matches with Linfan, screw him over immediately!”

A smile touched Gossip’s lips.

Linfan was just a rookie.

81 consecutive wins were indeed nothing to be proud of. He didn’t even have to take action himself.

If Lin Fan had not cheated, the various Chinese chess experts in that group would be able to bully him a hundred times.

With that in mind, the group leader Gossip went to bed.

After waking up, Lin Fan would be completely defeated by the 60 people in the group!

Chapter 357: Who Exactly Is This Person?!

Linfan had already obtained 81 consecutive victories in Chinese chess.

It had not yet been broken by anyone.

Linfan had been playing Chinese chess continuously and a draw had never appeared.

When the sixty group members in Gossip’s group were mobilized, they began to match with Lin Fan.

As long as they could meet Lin Fan, they could have a big battle.

Among these experts, they did not think that Lin Fan was very powerful.

There was indeed nothing to brag about when it came to beating noobs all the way to an 81-game winning streak.

A true expert would not care about these consecutive wins.

On the other hand, the ID Linfan kept appearing on top of the app, taking over the announcements.

Congratulations to Linfan for his 82-game winning streak!

Congratulations to Linfan for his 83-game winning streak!

Congratulations to Linfan for his 84-game winning streak!

After Lin Fan obtained an 84-game winning streak, the audience in the livestream gasped again.

“F*ck, Lin Fan won 84 consecutive victories. Oh my god.”

“Lin Fan has played Chinese chess to rank 8-3.”

“Is this Lin Fan’s talent? Why can he be so good at Chinese chess?”

“Maybe Lin Fan has trained hard. Look at Lin Fan’s every move and every choice in the midgame. He can beat his opponent to a pulp. It can be said that I haven’t seen Lin Fan’s match until now.”

“He’s already at rank 8-3. How can Lin Fan not find his match? I can only say that Lin Fan’s attainments in Chinese chess are already too high!”

Meanwhile, the members of Gossip's group were quickly dispatched.

Lin Fan quickly matched up with an 8-3 expert from Gossip's group. Her name was Zhao Xinyi.

Zhao Xinyi's strength was obvious.

She was a female Chinese chess player and was only slightly inferior to Gossip in the Chinese chess group.

Chinese chess was a sport that consumed mental and physical energy. Zhao Xinyi had won the women's Chinese chess championship and was famous.

She usually liked playing Chinese chess and would livestream it.

Among the experts of Gossip's group, Zhao Xinyi's strength could be said to be ranked at the top among the more than 60 members.

Originally, these 60-odd members wanted to see who could match with Lin Fan and give him an opening gambit.

In the end, the group member who had matched with Lin Fan was Zhao Xinyi.

She was equivalent to a general in the Chinese chess group!

Although Zhao Xinyi was a girl, ordinary boys could not beat her in Chinese chess.

The woman who won the Chinese women's Chinese chess championship was enough to make people respect her.

Of course, the people in the group did not know who the ID Linfan was.

"D*mn, Linfan matched up with Zhao Xinyi. Beat him up!"

“Although Zhao Xinyi’s strength is at 8-3, her overall strength is not something that this Chinese chess software can measure.”

“Originally, we could have attacked, but it seems like there’s no need to now. With Zhao Xinyi attacking, Lin Fan will definitely not be a match for her.”

“That’s right, Lin Fan’s 84 consecutive victories should end here!”

Lin Fan didn’t care who his opponent was.

He was just playing Chinese chess seriously. He made every move seriously.

He would not give his opponent any chance. The current Lin Fan was in a wonderful state. All the chess records he had learned were used in actual play. He practised them and deepened his impression of them.

His Chinese chess skills were also improving rapidly. Others were learning and improving themselves at the same time.

While playing Chinese chess, Lin Fan applied all the theories he had learned to practice.

Lin Fan made the first move in this game of chess. As usual, Lin Fan directly set up an attack stance and started with a central cannon.

Meanwhile, Zhao Xinyi assumed a defensive posture like a real iron wall to block Lin Fan’s attack.

When the audience in the livestream saw Zhao Xinyi, some of them immediately recognized her.

“Who is Zhao Xinyi? She is very strong. Even if Lin Fan is stronger than her, there is a high chance of a draw in Chinese chess. As long as there are no loopholes in the defense, there is a high chance of a draw.”

“Once it’s a draw, Lin Fan’s 84 consecutive victories will really be broken. Sigh, but Lin Fan is already very strong. To be able to reach this stage is already something that many of us can’t do.”

The audience in the livestream were a little excited.

It could be said that Zhao Xinyi was the first powerful opponent Lin Fan had encountered.

Then how far could Lin Fan go with Zhao Xinyi?

In the eighteenth round, Lin Fan’s cannon came out and the chariot charged out, aiming at Zhao Xinyi’s general.

Check!

Zhao Xinyi felt some pressure.

After only eighteen rounds, she was already at a disadvantage.

Lin Fan found a loophole and broke through the perfect iron wall!

Zhao Xinyi’s forehead was covered in sweat. “How can this Lin Fan be so powerful?”

Then Lin Fan’s chariot left its original spot.

Second check! And he could even do so while capturing her cannon!

Zhao Xinyi chose to defend with her elephant.

Then... her cannon was captured by Lin Fan’s chariot.

Lin Fan had created a huge gap in the originally impenetrable defense.

Round twenty, Horse jump check!

The horse, the cannon, the chariot. The three pieces gathered to launch a seamless attack on the enemy general.

At round twenty-three ...

Checkmate!

Lin Fan could be said to have crushed Zhao Xinyi!

Lin Fan crushed Zhao Xinyi.

“So strong...” Zhao Xinyi looked at Linfan’s ID and sighed.

Before she could even find a chance to attack, Lin Fan had already taken her down.

How did Lin Fan’s Chinese chess skills reach this level?

There were no loopholes. His attack was strong.

“I lost.” Zhao Xinyi sighed. She had met a real opponent today.

After Lin Fan beat his opponent, a full-screen announcement appeared at the top of the Chinese chess software.

Congratulations to Linfan for getting 85 straight wins!

The audience in the livestream was also in an uproar.

“No way, Lin Fan defeated Zhao Xinyi in 23 rounds? Isn’t Zhao Xinyi the female Chinese chess champion of China? She should be very powerful.”

“There’s nothing we can do. Brother Fan is stronger. He didn’t make any mistakes. After all this time, he didn’t make any mistakes at all.”

“D*mn, that’s too scary. Lin Fan’s Chinese chess skills are... a little high.”

“I love Lin Fan so much. What is an all-rounded talent? This is called an all-rounded talent.”

“Awesome PLUS!”

After Lin Fan obtained the 85th consecutive win, he advanced quickly and started the next match.

In Gossip’s group, many group members were dumbfounded.

“Zhao Xinyi lost. She lost completely.”

“I watched the battle for a long time. I realized that this person with the ID Linfan is very skilled.”

“Zhao Xinyi doesn’t have any way to fight back. How is that possible...”

“Who... exactly is this person?!”

Chapter 358: Earning 40 Million After One Night of Livestreaming

Liu Xinyi said in the group chat, “I lost. This person with the ID Linfan is very skilled and doesn’t have any flaws.”

Liu Xinyi’s words did not trigger the fear in the group members.

Instead, it made the group members feel a little excited.

They were not afraid.

In Chinese chess, winning or losing was perfectly normal.

There were so many people in the group. It was normal for someone to defeat Lin Fan.

And then...

After half a night of killing.

Lin Fan had obtained 140 consecutive wins on the Chinese chess app!

Up until now, Lin Fan's win rate was 100%.

Besides... no one in the entire group was a match for him.

There were more than 60 people in the group. Other than the group leader Gossip, all of them had been defeated by Lin Fan.

On the bullet comments of the livestream, the fans were already going crazy.

It was now 4.30 a.m.

Lin Fan streamed until early morning. Up until now, he had won every match!

The popularity of the livestream increased to 15 million!

At early morning, the fans had the least number of comments, but Lin Fan's livestream was still so popular.

"6666666666666666!"

"Lin Fan, you'll forever be my idol!"

"Is he going to slaughter the experts of the Chinese chess world? I saw Brother Fan defeat many experts today. They were all crushed."

“No one can pressure Brother Fan. That doesn’t make sense.”

“How did Brother Fan master Chinese chess? I’m crying.”

“I admire Brother Fan too much. His acting skills, his ability to direct, his ability to write scripts, and today’s Chinese chess... Oh right, Brother Fan even knows how to cook feasts. I’m already crying. Is this Brother Fan’s standard? Who can compare to him? Is there anyone who can stop Brother Fan’s winning streak?”

[Little Yue’er gave Lin Fan 50 super rockets!]

[Lin Fan’s loyal fan gave Lin Fan 60 super rockets!]

[Cute Xiaoyu sent Lin Fan 200 super rockets!]

...

The livestream had gone completely crazy.

Moreover, someone even gave Lin Fan 200 super rockets.

Of course, it was not Su Xiaoyu. Su Xiaoyu was already asleep. All dogs needed to sleep.

Lin Fan’s fans were too enthusiastic.

Lin Fan had been livestreaming until so late. He stretched and said to everyone, “Thank you, fans, for your gifts. I’m going to take a shower and get ready to rest. I’ll continue playing Chinese chess tonight and see how far my winning streak can go.”

After Lin Fan finished speaking, he bid farewell to the audience in the livestream.

“6666. In other livestreams, the fans will torture the streamers to death. In Lin Fan’s livestream, the streamer will torture the fans to death.”

“The other celebrities all only livestream for dozens of minutes. Brother Fan livestreamed all night for us.”

“I love it, I love it. Good night, Brother Fan!”

Just as many of the audience were about to leave, Lin Fan suddenly clicked open a song.

“Thank you all for your gifts.”

“I don’t know what I can bring you. I’ll sing a song for you tonight, as a final farewell song.”

“I’ll sing ‘My Old Deskmate,’” Lin Fan said with a smile.

The fans who were about to go to bed were no longer sleepy after hearing Lin Fan’s words.

Lin Fan was going to sing!

As the familiar accompaniment sounded, Lin Fan also started singing in the livestream.

[Will you remember it tomorrow?

The diary you wrote yesterday

Will you still miss me tomorrow?

You who used to cry the most]

...

A few minutes later, Lin Fan finished singing the song.

The viewers in the livestream were also completely satisfied.

After Lin Fan sang a song before the end of the broadcast, the fans began to crazily send gifts again.

The dense comments made Lin Fan almost unable to read them.

However, the comments were all filled with [One more song].

Seeing how much his fans liked to hear him sing, Lin Fan smiled and stopped singing. He chose to turn off the livestream.

“Sigh, why did he turn off the livestream? I can’t sleep tonight after this. Who would have thought that Brother Fan would sing a song? Although I’ve heard it many times, I always feel different when I listen to him sing in person.”

“Lin Fan’s singing is amazing, but I’m looking forward to Lin Fan’s livestream tomorrow!”

“I’ll watch Lin Fan’s livestream tomorrow night. Love it!!”

After turning off the livestream, Lin Fan briefly looked at the gift earnings.

It would have been better if he hadn’t looked at it. Lin Fan was already stunned when he saw the gift earnings from the livestream.

This was... more than 80 million?!

Although it was before splitting the profits with Douyu, he had received more than 80 million yuan in one night!

After splitting the profits with Douyu, they would each earn more than 40 million yuan.

The fans... were too enthusiastic, right?

Lin Fan had so many gifts from a livestream. If he went to livestream to sell goods, he could earn a lot of money.

And this was just a simple livestream. With a little publicity, who knew how much money could be made?

He might not even earn that much money from writing a script.

However, the derivative gains from writing scripts and filming television series and movies could not be compared.

Lin Fan looked at the 40 million yuan excitedly.

He didn't need the money, but it could all be wired directly to his sister's account.

In that case, his sister, Lin Yushi, would become a rich woman.

After taking a shower, Lin Fan fell asleep.

When he woke up, it was 12 noon.

After lunch, Lin Fan sent a screenshot of the gifts worth 80 million yuan to Lin Yushi and also sent it to the group he created.

Lin Yushi was stunned. "Ah, Brother, why did you accept so many gifts?"

Lin Fan smiled. "It's all pocket money for you. Just keep it."

Lin Yushi acted cute. "I don't want so much money. I'll save it for you. Brother, you're super handsome. I love you~~"

Lin Fan knew that Lin Yushi usually didn't spend money recklessly. The money she earned from her livestreams was also 20,000 to 30,000 yuan a month. It was enough. "You're already so old. If you need money, just ask me."

Lin Yushi nodded. "I know, I know. I won't be short of money in the future. I'm a little rich woman, hehe."

"Brother, you're so outstanding that I don't want to find a boyfriend anymore. Who can compare to my brother?"

Lin Fan laughed. It felt good to be praised by his biological sister. "No, you still have to find a partner. But you have to find one with a good character. I'll help you appraise him."

In the group, there was also an uproar.

Xu Yang said, "I'm green with envy."

Lin Jingjing said, "I'm green with envy."

Lin Kexin: "+1."

Su Muqing said, "Boss Lin is really impressive."

Pang Duoduo said, "D*mn, we can have a feast. No, we can have feasts for life!"

Su Xiaoyu said, "Oh, Master is going to cook a feast tonight!!!"

Xia Wanqiu "~~~"

Many celebrities cried with envy.

They had to film for a long time to earn so much money.

Meanwhile, Lin Fan had only been livestreaming for one night and had earned so much just from playing Chinese chess.

There was no way to compare people with one another.

Chapter 359: Come, Fight!

At the headquarters of Douyu.

The manager reported the news that Lin Fan had received 80 million yuan worth of gifts in one night to his supervisor.

The supervisor: “???”

The supervisor was a little dumbfounded. “Lin Fan received 80 million after one night of livestreaming? That’s too terrifying. It doesn’t make sense.”

The manager nodded. “Yeah, but that’s how good Lin Fan is. He’s so popular. No one else compares to him.”

The supervisor was a little surprised. “It’ll be great if Lin Fan comes to become a livestreamer. Contact Lin Fan immediately and change the profit split ratio from now on. Lin Fan will get 90%, and we’ll only get 10%.”

The manager was a little puzzled. “Why? If we can get 50%, won’t we earn more?”

The supervisor shook his head and said, “After all, Lin Fan isn’t our streamer. Being able to get so many gifts has nothing to do with Douyu.”

“Believe it or not, if other livestreaming platforms see that Lin Fan is so powerful, they will definitely come and rope him in. I want to tell you that Lin Fan is now the CEO of two major entertainment companies. He can even set up a livestreaming platform himself. Do you believe me?”

“As long as we can rope Lin Fan in, even if we don’t get that 10% of profits, our company can pull in a lot of traffic if Lin Fan comes over to livestream. Do you understand?”

Then it dawned on the manager.

Lin Fan was worth much more than 80 million!

After some discussion, Douyu finally decided to give all profits from the gifts to Lin Fan.

This was the best way to rope Lin Fan in.

Moreover, Douyu had also chosen to increase Lin Yushi's contract fee. As long as Lin Yushi could be tied to Douyu, Lin Fan would definitely start livestreaming on Douyu in the future.

That day, 81.23 million yuan was transferred to Lin Yushi's account.

Lin Yushi transferred 81 million yuan to Lin Fan.

Lin Fan: "???"

Lin Yushi said, "Brother, I'm not short of money. It's all yours. I'll look for you when I'm short of money~"

Seeing how good his sister was, Lin Fan could only shake his head.

He wanted to give all the money to Lin Yushi. After all, Lin Fan was not short of money now.

Meanwhile, Lin Yushi was thinking for Lin Fan. Of the 81,230,000 yuan, she only left 230,000 yuan for herself.

Lin Fan said, "Okay."

Lin Yushi said, "I'm a rich woman now. 230,000 yuan is enough for me to spend for years."

Lin Fan said, "Buy all the cosmetics you want. Skincare is the most important thing for girls."

Lin Yushi said, "Ghastly face.jpg. Brother, you just gave me so many cosmetics last time~~"

Lin Fan smiled and said nothing more.

Some women were gold diggers who wished they had more money to spend.

On the other hand, Lin Yushi didn't care at all. It was one thing for her to be outstanding in her studies, but even her character was so good.

Still, it was nice to have a sister to spoil.

In Gossip's group.

"Gossip. We were all thrashed by Linfan. I suspect Linfan was cheating."

"How did he get a 140-game winning streak? That's already breaking records."

"That's right. Even Liu Xinyi lost. I suspect that this person is cheating. Otherwise, he wouldn't be so powerful. He must be a Gundam. He might have used computer software to play against us."

"I curse his whole family to die!"

"I thought Linfan was pretty awesome. Who knew he was a cheater?"

For a moment, the group was discussing Lin Fan's cheating.

They didn't know that Lin Fan was livestreaming. They only knew that the ID Linfan had won 140 consecutive victories.

Moreover, Lin Fan's rank had already increased to 9-1.

What level was 9-1?

It could be said that 9-1 had already touched the threshold of professional Chinese chess players!

Most professional Chinese chess players were at rank nine.

An excellent professional Chinese chess player would be at rank 9.

Above rank 9 was God.

However, at the moment, no one could break through 9-3 unless they hacked and used computer software.

When people played Chinese chess with one another, there were many flaws.

In rank 9, it was easy for many people to draw their Chinese chess matches.

It was too difficult to defeat their opponents. This also led to most professional players being at this rank.

However, it was unheard of for someone to maintain a 140-game winning streak to reach 9-1!

After hearing such news, Gossip was shocked.

Although the strength of these group members in his group was not top-notch, they were definitely not weak.

But none of them had been able to defeat Linfan.

Who exactly is Linfan?

Gossip said, "If Linfan really cheated, the officials will definitely ban him. We still don't know if Linfan is cheating. If he isn't cheating, then this person's Chinese chess skills are not ordinary."

"Tonight I, Gossip, will challenge Linfan to a duel!"

"I'll let Linfan experience what it means to have a baptism of fire."

“I’ll let him know how powerful professional Chinese chess players are. Tonight is the moment to end Lin Fan’s 140-game winning streak!”

Gossip’s post immediately caused an uproar in the group.

Everyone was an expert. Without concrete evidence, they couldn’t say that Lin Fan was cheating.

If he used cheats and used computer software to play Chinese chess, the current humans would not be able to defeat the computers in Chinese chess.

But it was obvious when computer softwares played Chinese chess.

Whether it was a real person playing Chinese chess or a computer, it could be felt by professional players.

Soon the news spread.

Gossip. A professional Chinese chess player. A famous presence in Chinese chess.

Gossip had already reached the level of a professional player, one level higher than someone like Liu Xinyi.

In Chinese chess, there are only two levels.

There was a huge difference between amateur players and professional players.

After spreading the news, they quickly discovered that Lin Fan did not cheat.

“D*mn, the ID Linfan happens to be the big star, Lin Fan. His 140 consecutive wins were all livestreamed, so he’s not cheating.”

“Lin Fan is really at this level. D*mn, then he’s very powerful.”

“But it’s impossible for Lin Fan to win against Gossip. Even the most powerful person in our group can’t win against Gossip.”

1

“Gossip is a professional Chinese chess player. Lin Fan is just an amateur. He might really lose.”

“There’s no way to compete with professional players in sports like Go and Chinese chess that rely on brainpower and experience. ”

After confirming that Lin Fan did not cheat, the professional player Gossip issued an invitation to Lin Fan.

Lin Fan would taste the baptism of professional players in this battle!

He would also witness the power of professional players.

Luntai, Tieba, Weibo, the group, and all the major discussion centers of Chinese chess began to advertise it.

During the livestream at night, Lin Fan found out about this.

After knowing that a professional player sent him a challenge, Lin Fan was overjoyed.

He had no idea what his level was now.

What was certain was that Xia Wanqiu’s father was also at the level of professional players in Chinese chess.

If he wanted to defeat Xia Wanqiu’s father, he had to reach a professional level in Chinese chess.

And tonight was the best opportunity for Lin Fan to test himself.

In his 141st game,

he would be fighting against a famous professional Chinese chess player in the country!

Everyone knew the power of Gossip.

After entering the room invited by Gossip, Lin Fan started the livestream and prepared to experience the baptism of a professional player.

He shall see...

whether he could defeat a professional player at his current level!
