

I signed In For A Billion Dollar Mansion From The Very Beginning Chapter 365-369

Chapter 365: Wang Tianyi, Come and Fight!!

The audience in the livestream was even more surprised.

“Ah ah ah, I’m going to die. Lin Fan and Wang Tianyi’s Chinese chess is really nice. Is this a fight between immortals?”

“Wang Tianyi is powerful. I’m just worried that Lin Fan might lose again.”

“Sigh, it’s fine. There’s definitely a difference in strength. After all, Lin Fan just played Chinese chess for less than half a year. But Wang Tianyi is already a veteran. Who can compare to Wang Tianyi at his peak?”

“It’s good that you did your best. Lin Fan, you can do it!”

“Yeah, Brother Fan, you can do it!!!”

There were countless [Keep It Up, Lin Fan] comments on the screen.

At the same time, the commentary platform was cheering for Lin Fan.

There were also countless Chinese chess fans, including Gossip. Professional players like Liu Xinyi were all cheering for Lin Fan.

In this year’s Chinese chess competition, Wang Tianyi had never lost a single game.

This was his overwhelming strength.

In Chinese chess competitions, no one would say something like “I can do it too”.

No professional player could take down Wang Tianyi.

All the famous professional Chinese chess players had been defeated by him.

Some people who didn't know Chinese chess would say that he could use an app on his phone to play chess with a master at the level of Wang Tianyi.

In reality, at Wang Tianyi's level, the Chinese chess master on the phone was no longer his match.

The reason why AI was better than humans was because AI had powerful algorithms.

But did someone really think that a few megabytes worth of Chinese chess software on their phone could defeat professional players?

This kind of AI also needed to be trained for a long time, and it had to be supported by a powerful database. It had to do hundreds of billions of calculations in a second and choose the best outcome to defeat the chess player.

Soon, the second round started.

Lin Fan sat down and took a deep breath.

Facing the unfathomable Wang Tianyi, Lin Fan felt extremely pressured.

Of course, other than pressure, there was also motivation.

After all, Wang Tianyi was a top professional Chinese chess player. It was not embarrassing to lose to him.

Most importantly, Lin Fan had learned to grow from this game of Chinese chess.

The commentator's voice rang out. "Ladies and gentlemen, this is the venue of the 21st China Chinese Chess Cup competition. The second round of Lin Fan and Wang Tianyi's match is about to begin. Currently, Wang Tianyi is leading by 1:0. I hereby announce that the competition has begun!"

The audience was in an uproar.

“Lin Fan, you can do it!!”

“Wang Tianyi, you can do it too. If you defeat Lin Fan, you can win the championship for six consecutive years!”

“Wang Tianyi, Wang Tianyi, Wang Tianyi!!”

Su Xiaoyu also joined the shouting of the crowd. “Lin Fan, you can do it!!”

Lin Jingjing waved her support sign. “Lin Fan, you can do it!!”

Lin Qianwei also shouted happily, “Boss will win!!”

Even the usually quiet Su Muqing started cheering for Lin Fan. “Boss, you can do it! Charge!!!”

Xia Wanqiu didn’t shout out. She stood up and looked at Lin Fan expectantly. She stood in front and waved Lin Fan’s support sign with both hands.

If Lin Fan could win this time... she would let Lin Fan be on top occasionally in the future.

The second round began!

Lin Fan attacked first!

At first, Lin Fan chose to attack fiercely.

His continuous attacks could make people breathless.

Don’t forget that the current Lin Fan was also a top professional Chinese chess player.

Once Lin Fan took the opportunity, he would attack like a storm.

The commentator was also shouting excitedly, "It's Lin Fan's turn to attack now. Lin Fan's cannon has rushed up. The horse has also jumped up. There's also the chariot, check!!"

"This is Lin Fan's first time checking Wang Tianyi! It's a huge pressure. How should he defend against Lin Fan's attack?"

"Ah! Wang Tianyi defended it!"

"Oh my god, Wang Tianyi made a wonderful move. Lin Fan's chariot was captured!"

"Lin Fan's brilliant counterattack captured Wang Tianyi's chariot. The two sides are in a stalemate!!"

"It's already been a stalemate for 20 minutes. Lin Fan and Wang Tianyi aren't giving in to each other. How will this chess game continue?"

"Everyone, this is the first time since this competition that someone has been able to force Wang Tianyi to this extent. Lin Fan is now at an advantage!!"

"Goodness, Lin Fan's horse and cannon have been captured. Lin Fan is at a disadvantage!"

"How did Wang Tianyi play chess? Why can't I understand? Lin Fan suddenly became at a disadvantage. Wang Tianyi seemed to have set up a trap from the start. Lin Fan didn't predict Wang Tianyi. Sigh, Lin Fan made a mistake!!"

"It's a stalemate again. Wang Tianyi can't defeat Lin Fan either, but Lin Fan has lost his best chance to attack."

Ten minutes later...

The commentator sighed. "Lin Fan lost. In the early stages, he maintained a good offensive advantage, but Wang Tianyi is still too experienced. He taught the newcomer a lesson. Lin Fan has lost this round."

"Let us congratulate Wang Tianyi for winning again."

"Now, I have to remind everyone..."

“In the current battle, Wang Tianyi has won 2:0 against Lin Fan. Furthermore, Wang Tianyi has already obtained the match point! As long as Wang Tianyi wins again, Wang Tianyi will win and become the champion of the Chinese Chess Cup for six consecutive years!”

“Could it be that... even Lin Fan can't stop Wang Tianyi?”

“Times haven't changed after all.”

“Wang Tianyi hasn't even drawn a single round in this competition. Until now, he hasn't lost a single round. This is Wang Tianyi's powerful strength.”

“The next round of the competition will begin in an hour. I hope Lin Fan can do his best!!”

After Lin Fan lost the second round, he felt a little tired.

He had really tried his best in this round.

Unfortunately, his calculation skills still did not surpass Wang Tianyi who tricked him and turned his advantage into a disadvantage. In the end, he lost the competition.

Wang Tianyi didn't have any flaws and Lin Fan could feel how strong professional Chinese chess players were.

When he returned to the lounge, Lin Fan didn't see anyone. He closed his eyes and carefully reviewed everything.

The hard work during this period of time, the experience on the professional stage, and all the Chinese chess knowledge went through Lin Fan's mind.

His strength should not be limited to that.

He was still young, and his calculation ability was definitely not weaker than Wang Tianyi's.

But why did he lose twice in a row?

If he lost another match, Lin Fan would lose three times in a row and Wang Tianyi would become the champion.

Lin Fan turned on his phone and saw that many celebrities from Jiaying Entertainment had posted on Weibo.

Xia Wanqiu, Su Xiaoyu, Lin Kexin, Chu Yaoyao, Lin Jingjing, Su Muqing, Lin Qianwei, Tang Xinran, Pang Duoduo, Xu Yang, Lin Qingxuan...

All the celebrities were supporting Lin Fan.

Xia Wanqiu even posted a selfie and tagged Lin Fan.

[Lin Fan, you can do it ~ ~]

These simple words had endless power to support Lin Fan.

Lin Fan suddenly felt that he couldn't lose in the finals.

Xia Wanqiu was behind him. How could he lose?

If he lost here, he would be indignant.

Lin Fan walked out and saw the audience.

"Lin Fan, you can do it!"

"Lin Fan, you can do it!!"

"Lin Fan, you can do it!!!"

Fans were all over the venue, holding signs with his name on them and cheering Lin Fan on.

Xia Wanqiu stood at the front and looked at Lin Fan.

Lin Fan smiled and made up his mind.

Now, he was on the verge of defeat.

He could not lose another match.

Lin Fan looked up and his gaze became even more determined.

This time, he would use all the knowledge he had learned to fight Wang Tianyi!

Wang Tianyi, let's fight!!!

Chapter 366: Lin Fan Turns Victory into Victory, Beating Wang Tianyi!

The commentator enthusiastically explained the current scene on stage.

"Everyone, this is the third round of Lin Fan versus Wang Tianyi. Wang Tianyi has won 2:0!"

"As long as Wang Tianyi can win another round, the final champion of the Chinese Chess Cup will be Wang Tianyi. Lin Fan has already entered a hopeless situation. I wonder how far he can go in chess?"

"Now, I announce that the third round of the competition begins now!"

When the third round started, Lin Fan sat down.

This time, Lin Fan didn't just use all his strength. He would also do his best to win this competition.

The current him felt that he had completely sublimated.

His Chinese chess skills had also improved unprecedentedly.

In the third round, Wang Tianyi still took the initiative.

Wang Tianyi still used a crushing attack and started attacking Lin Fan.

But this time, all the chess pieces seemed to have connected in Lin Fan's eyes.

Lin Fan chose to defend and counterattack.

This time, he had no way out.

Lin Fan wanted to win this competition.

Xia Wanqiu was his girlfriend. Even Xia Wanqiu had come to cheer for him. How could Lin Fan not work hard?

As long as he could win this match, Lin Fan still had a chance of winning.

The commentators on the commentary platform were also excitedly explaining this match.

"Everyone... the third match has begun."

"It's been ten minutes. Oh my god, Wang Tianyi started a fierce attack. It's still the same as the first round. I wonder if Lin Fan can hold on."

"Twenty minutes have passed. Is it a draw or a draw now? The two sides are in a stalemate!"

"It's been 30 minutes. Wang Tianyi has started an all-out attack. Lin Fan is defending. His defense is quite good!"

"It's been 50 minutes and Lin Fan and Wang Tianyi's chariots have both been captured. It's still a draw and we still can't tell who's better. This game of Chinese chess has been played for too long."

The commentators and analysts were all nervously watching Lin Fan and Wang Tianyi's third game.

All the audience was also waiting in the livestream and venue.

Xia Wanqiu also felt her breathing become nervous.

For the first time, they played a game of Chinese chess for 50 minutes straight.

The audience in the livestream was also waiting nervously.

The professional Chinese chess players were also watching Lin Fan and Wang Tianyi's match.

"I feel that Lin Fan is having a hard time playing this game of Chinese chess. The pressure on Wang Tianyi's attack is too great."

"That's right. Wang Tianyi is just too good at Chinese chess. Lin Fan probably can't withstand Wang Tianyi."

"Wang Tianyi is a legend in Chinese chess. If Lin Fan can't take it, I'm afraid Wang Tianyi will win 3:0. He will win all the championships, right?"

"It's over. I feel that Lin Fan is going to lose again. He lost to Wang Tianyi 0:3."

"Previously, when Lin Fan obtained more than 170 consecutive wins, I thought that Lin Fan could fight Wang Tianyi. Now, it looks like his level hasn't reached Wang Tianyi's level."

Su Xiaoyu looked at the LED screen. It was Lin Fan and Wang Tianyi's match.

Su Xiaoyu could not help but become nervous. She pressed her palms together. "Is Master going to lose?"

Lin Kexin shook her head. "No, he won't lose again."

Xu Yang sighed. "Lin Fan seems to have entered a disadvantage. It's a little difficult to win again."

Xia Wanqiu stood up and looked at Lin Fan, waving his support sign.

The fans were also cheering for Lin Fan.

The audience in the livestream was all encouraging Lin Fan.

When the competition reached 65 minutes, Lin Fan started to fight back!

The cannon directly checked Wang Tianyi!

From now on, Lin Fan would turn his disadvantage into an advantage.

Lin Fan was starting to take the lead!

“Oh my god, everyone, Lin Fan is starting to take the lead!”

“The competition has been going on for 65 minutes and Lin Fan has finally started to attack!”

“Lin Fan is checking Wang Tianyi, checking Wang Tianyi, and checking Wang Tianyi again!”

“Oh my god... it’s a sure-kill!”

“Lin Fan beat Wang Tianyi!”

“The third round lasted a total of 70 minutes. Congratulations to Lin Fan for winning the third round!”

“How did Lin Fan do that? I didn’t even react in time. Lin Fan performed several checks in a row!”

“Currently, Lin Fan is 1 to 2 behind, but Lin Fan has finally broken Wang Tianyi’s undefeated legend. There might be a huge reversal in this match!”

The commentator's voice rang out, and the audience cheered.

The audience in the livestream was even happier.

"Lin Fan won the third round!"

"Although I don't know how Lin Fan did it, he really won. He turned defeat into victory. Lin Fan is too awesome."

"6666666666!"

"Do you think Lin Fan can win the championship in the end? He might really have a chance to defeat Wang Tianyi."

"Brother Fan is awesome. He can win the championship for five consecutive years in Chinese chess. I don't know how Brother Fan did it, but he's very awesome."

....

In the group chat of the Chinese chess experts, Gossip said, "Lin Fan's layout is too strong. He had calculated the layout of the entire Chinese chess game from the start. Lin Fan had done all of that."

"Even Wang Tianyi didn't expect Lin Fan to play so well this time. If Wang Tianyi can calculate about 20 moves in Chinese chess, then Lin Fan has already calculated 30 moves in Chinese chess. In other words, from the moment Lin Fan started playing, he had already calculated the various results in this game. He found the easiest way to win and won in one go!"

Gossip was also shocked.

He was shocked by Lin Fan's planning ability. Only people like them who knew Chinese chess knew what Lin Fan had done.

A professional Chinese chess player would never make a useless move. When two people play against each other, they only needed to be one step ahead of their opponent to win.

Liu Xinyi was also dumbfounded. "Brother Gossip, it can't be... How can Lin Fan calculate all the various results within 30 steps with every step he takes? This level is even better than a professional player."

"For ordinary professional players like us, it's already very amazing that we can remember 15 steps at most. It's already very amazing that Wang Tianyi can see 20 steps ahead, but Lin Fan can predict 30 steps later..." Liu Xinyi's mouth widened.

"That's right. Look at how Lin Fan started this game of Chinese chess. Every layout in the middle is extremely exquisite. I feel that Wang Tianyi has really stimulated Lin Fan's potential," Gossip said.

"If Lin Fan continues in this state, I think... he might be able to defeat Wang Tianyi!"

"There might be a new champion this year!"

Chapter 367: Champion, Lin Fan!

Su Xiaoyu giggled. "I won. I knew Master could win!"

Pang Duoduo looked at Su Xiaoyu and sat beside her. "Hehe, Brother Fan is the best. Um, Sister Xiaoyu, can you give me some of your snacks? Girls get fat from eating snacks."

"!!!" Su Xiaoyu: "Everything else is fine. If you snatch my snacks, the dog will bite you."

Pang Duoduo looked at Su Xiaoyu pitifully. "Sigh, Sister Xiaoyu, I just want to eat snacks. If I don't eat them, I'll be hungry. The main thing is that potato chips are a high-calorie food. You'll definitely get fat if you eat them. You won't look good if you get fat."

Su Xiaoyu hugged the potato chips in her arms. "No, no. Potato chips are super delicious. Also, how am I fat?"

Su Xiaoyu was wearing a JK dress and had a pair of fair and slender long legs. After working with Lin Fan, Su Xiaoyu's figure had become even better.

Even her breasts had become bigger. Who wouldn't like that?

Furthermore, Su Xiaoyu was a girl who knew how to dress up. She could wear any style. She looked even better in uniforms.

Pang Duoduo looked at Su Xiaoyu bitterly.

Why was she not fat at all after eating snacks every day, but he became as fat as a pig after eating some snacks?

While everyone was cheering, the fourth round of Chinese chess started.

Everyone thought that the fourth round of Chinese chess would last for more than an hour, but to their surprise, the fourth round only lasted for 40 minutes.

In only 40 minutes, Wang Tianyi had already lost.

Wang Tianyi, who was sitting at the Chinese chess table, doubted his life.

He felt that Lin Fan's chess level had suddenly changed unprecedentedly.

It was as if someone had suddenly been enlightened and had undergone a true transformation.

Lin Fan's chess skills had improved qualitatively in every game.

"Lin Fan is indeed very strong..."

"I knew I wasn't wrong about you. Your Chinese chess skills are now one of the best in the country," Wang Tianyi said as he looked at Lin Fan.

Lin Fan smiled and patted Wang Tianyi on the shoulder.

He was very serious now. There was still one last round.

He had to win the last game of Chinese chess.

If he could not take it down, all his previous efforts would be in vain.

His opponent, Wang Tianyi, was also very strong. He could not underestimate him.

Looking at Lin Fan's back view as he left, Wang Tianyi was a little shocked.

He was the national champion for five consecutive years, but this year, he had met a powerful opponent.

Lin Fan!!

"You... won't lose this time, right?" The assistant looked at Wang Tianyi and asked.

"Lose? I won't lose."

"Although Lin Fan's Chinese chess skills are very good, in the Chinese chess industry, other than skills, he can also rely on tricks and experience. These experiences and tricks are something Lin Fan can't compare to."

"In the fifth round, I will let Lin Fan know what the true essence of Chinese chess is. I will also unleash all the things I learned from Chinese chess and have a true battle with Lin Fan."

"Since I have the first move in the fifth round, I will use a brand new tactic to defeat Lin Fan and defend my position in the Chinese chess world." Wang Tianyi's eyes were filled with confidence.

This was the confidence of someone who had been through a lot.

There were many tricks in Chinese chess. As long as they changed their tricks, if the other party could not deal with it well, they would lose this match.

As the champion for five consecutive years, Wang Tianyi was very confident in his strength.

Then, he went to make preparations.

Now, on the commentary platform, the announcer was excitedly analyzing the situation on stage for the audience.

“Everyone, it’s time to stand up. I’ve never seen such an interesting Chinese chess competition.”

“Lin Fan’s superb Chinese chess skills and his smooth tactics allowed him to win two rounds in a row against Wang Tianyi.”

“The current score is 2:2!”

“As a newcomer to the Chinese chess world, can Lin Fan shake Wang Tianyi?”

“Whether we can change the structure of the Chinese chess world depends on Lin Fan!”

...

After resting for ten minutes, Lin Fan had just walked out of the washroom when he saw a familiar figure standing at the entrance.

Su Xiaoyu was wearing a JK dress and her figure was still as good as ever. She was holding an ice cream in her hand.

“Master, you have to work hard.” Su Xiaoyu looked at Lin Fan and smiled. She stood there obediently.

“Mmm.” Lin Fan nodded.

“Master, do you want ice cream?” Su Xiaoyu asked again.

“Alright.” Lin Fan took Su Xiaoyu’s ice cream and walked along the corridor with her.

The setting sun shone down. Unknowingly, it was already afternoon.

There was no one around except Lin Fan and Su Xiaoyu.

Although Su Xiaoyu looked very naive and silly, she was the smartest.

She knew that Lin Fan would definitely come to the washroom, so she waited for him here in advance.

She just wanted to... look at Lin Fan more.

She really hoped that Lin Fan could look at her more.

But Lin Fan didn't. After eating the ice cream, they chatted for a while.

"Then I'll get ready to compete," said Lin Fan with a smile.

"Master, do you want me to stick to you? If I stick to you, you'll be able to compete better later. You'll definitely be able to win the championship!" Su Xiaoyu looked at Lin Fan and mustered her courage to walk in front of him.

"Stick what?" Lin Fan asked.

"Mmm... it's a hug." Su Xiaoyu's cheeks were slightly red.

"No need."

"Chess relies on strength," said Lin Fan as he turned to leave.

Su Xiaoyu looked at Lin Fan with a hint of sadness in her beautiful eyes.

Was it still... impossible?

If Xia Wanqiu was here, he would definitely come up, right?

Finally, under the attention of everyone, the fifth round of Chinese chess began!

Wang Tianyi used his latest tactic.

Lin Fan felt some pressure.

This was Wang Tianyi's final trump card.

However, when he thought of Xia Wanqiu, Su Xiaoyu, and the encouragement his companions gave him, Lin Fan felt a little more confident.

Faced with Wang Tianyi's various tactics and tricks, Lin Fan just smiled calmly.

This game of Chinese chess only lasted 20 minutes.

Lin Fan had already obtained an overall advantage.

Wang Tianyi looked at Lin Fan in disbelief and asked, "Lin Fan, I really didn't expect you to be able to calculate 30 steps ahead in Chinese chess. My tricks and experience are useless to you."

Wang Tianyi felt a sense of despair. It was like playing Chinese chess with the best human machines. Human machines could be calculated to tens of billions or hundreds of billions of times. How could humans compare to artificial intelligence?

Lin Fan had strong calculation skills and could calculate the various changes in Wang Tianyi's Chinese chess.

He smiled and said, "Teacher Wang Tianyi, actually, when I play Chinese chess, I can calculate a hundred steps ahead. Now, I can remember the layout of Chinese chess within a hundred steps, the chess manual, how to move, and what changes there are."

Wang Tianyi smiled bitterly after hearing that.

Damn... How could Lin Fan be so awesome?

He directly calculated a hundred steps ahead.

In other words, Lin Fan had already seen the ending from the moment he started playing Chinese chess.

Because Lin Fan's chess skills were still lacking in the first two rounds, he lost to him.

After the two rounds ended, Lin Fan underwent a brand new transformation.

The commentator watched the last scene in disbelief.

"Dear audience... the results of the competition are out."

"Lin Fan won the fifth match!"

"How is that possible... Lin Fan fell behind 0:2 and achieved the final reversal, allowing two to catch up and obtain the final victory."

"I announce that Lin Fan is the overall champion of the 21st Chinese Chess Cup!"

Chapter 368: Can They... Show Off Their Love Like This?

The fans present were also completely ignited at this moment.

The light shone on Lin Fan.

Lin Fan's figure appeared on the LED screen.

Lin Fan became the center of attention.

"Champion!"

“Champion!”

“Champion!!!”

The fans who supported Lin Fan were all shouting.

This moment was a great miracle.

After a day of intense fighting, Lin Fan defeated Wang Tianyi and won the championship.

The professional players were all surprised.

Gossip. Liu Xinyi and the others widened their mouths in disbelief.

Gossip said, “Oh my god... Lin Fan really did it. When he fell behind 0:2, he achieved an almost impossible reversal. What kind of chess expert is Wang Tianyi? He was the champion professional chess player for five consecutive years but he lost to Lin Fan.”

Liu Xinyi nodded. “When I played chess with Lin Fan back then, I felt that he was really strong. Now that I’ve seen him today, it’s true. I’ve never seen such a strong person. As expected, Lin Fan defeated Wang Tianyi and the legends.”

The other professional players also sighed.

“Am I seeing things? Lin Fan really pulled Wang Tianyi down from his pedestal. Who asked Lin Fan to be so awesome...”

“That’s right. Lin Fan can be said to be the number one person in Chinese chess now. He did it.”

“Lin Fan is forever my idol. I’m even worshiping him now. He must have put in a lot of effort to be able to do so much. If I were to fall behind 0:2, my confidence would have crumbled long ago.”

“Did you guys notice? Lin Fan only lost one or two rounds to Wang Tianyi in Chinese chess. The rest of his results were all wins!”

...

Just as everyone was sighing,

Su Xiaoyu also cheered as she looked at the final score on the screen. "Master is the champion~"

Pang Duoduo laughed and abandoned the snacks in his hand. "Champion, champion. Brother Fan is the best!"

Xu Yang sighed and said, "Why is Lin Fan so amazing in everything he does? He even won the Chinese chess championship for him."

"But fortunately, Lin Fan has been playing Chinese chess for the past few days and hasn't shown off his love. Thank goodness, thank goodness." Xu Yang smiled.

"Yeah, if Brother Fan shows off his love, I won't be able to take it," said Fatty Duoduo.

Wang Tianyi looked at Lin Fan and extended his hand. "Lin Fan, congratulations on becoming the champion. You're already the number one person in the Chinese chess world."

Lin Fan shook Wang Tianyi's hand and smiled. "Brother Wang, it's all thanks to your help that I can get to where I am today. As for the number one person in the Chinese chess world, it's not important. I'll treat you to a feast later."

Wang Tianyi laughed. "Alright."

The commentator on stage looked at Lin Fan and smiled as well. "Everyone, let's congratulate Lin Fan for becoming the final champion of the 21st Chinese Chess Cup!"

"Let's invite the staff to award Lin Fan a trophy!"

“At the same time, if you become the champion, you can also receive a 1.5 million yuan reward!”

Lin Fan, who was standing in the middle of the stage, became the center of attention.

At this moment, Lin Fan was the center of attention.

After participating in a Chinese chess competition, Lin Fan even received 1.5 million yuan.

The commentator looked at Lin Fan and asked, “Lin Fan, do you have any victory speeches now?”

After all, Lin Fan was a big star. He wrote scripts, was a director, and even took roles as an actor. Now, Lin Fan had suddenly changed careers to Chinese chess and even won the championship.

Lin Fan smiled and said, “Actually, I didn’t know how to play Chinese chess at first. In the beginning, I didn’t know how to play Chinese chess either. It was Xia Wanqiu who kept encouraging me and helping me that I became who I am today.”

“With her around, I walked to where I am today and won the championship.”

“It just so happens that she’s here today. I want to invite her on stage.”

Lin Fan looked at Xia Wanqiu.

Xia Wanqiu also looked at him.

They looked at each other affectionately.

Xia Wanqiu walked up to the podium step by step and stood beside Lin Fan.

Today, Xia Wanqiu was wearing a simple half-sleeved shirt and denim pants, outlining her perfect figure.

Coupled with the fact that she had put on some light makeup, she attracted a lot of attention.

She became even more beautiful on the stage.

Seeing such a beautiful Xia Wanqiu, Lin Fan smiled brightly and gently held her hand. "Thank you for your encouragement and support. I've done it."

Xia Wanqiu smiled sweetly, her cheeks slightly red. "No, all of this is the result of your hard work."

Lin Fan said seriously, "No, without you, I wouldn't have achieved what I have today. A successful man should have a very good wife behind him."

Xia Wanqiu blushed even more and turned around. "Scumbag."

The commentator: "..."

Wang Tianyi: "..."

Xu Yang: "..."

Duoduo: "..."

Could this f*cking... show off their love?

Furthermore, it was in front of so many people and millions of viewers in the livestream.

Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu were showing off their love in front of everyone again.

He held her hand and even called her his wife.

Xia Wanqiu acted coquettishly like a girl and called him a scumbag.

Who could stand this?

Such a public display of love had killed countless singles at the scene.

Even if it was just after Chinese Valentine's Day, he could not bully singles like this.

Although the commentator was also hurt, he could not let the venue fall silent.

After the awards were announced, a large number of media outlets surrounded them.

This was a good interview opportunity.

A girl held the microphone and looked at Lin Fan. She asked, "Lin Fan, why did you start learning Chinese chess? Is it because of your hobbies?"

Lin Fan: "That's not it. Learning Chinese chess can improve one's intelligence. Most importantly, my future father-in-law likes to play Chinese chess and is very good at it. I'll learn it so that I can meet my father-in-law in the future."

The girl: "..."

She felt like she had suffered 10,000 points of damage.

He even mentioned the father-in-law.

A reporter also looked at Lin Fan and asked, "Lin Fan, you received a reward of 1.5 million yuan. What are your plans?"

Lin Fan: "Actually, I'm not interested in money. It doesn't make a difference if I earn a few million. There are just some fluctuations in the numbers. In reality, it's better to write a script than to get the money from the Chinese chess champion."

The reporter: "..."

It wasn't just the reporters. There were also many viewers and fans.

They all knew that Lin Fan was rich. After all, Lin Fan was a superstar and he even opened a company.

But she hadn't expected Lin Fan to be so rich that he wasn't interested in the prize money.

He didn't even care about the 1.5 million yuan he earned from participating in the Chinese chess competition.

1.5 million yuan was a fortune that they could only earn in ten to twenty years.

Many people could only earn more than 1.5 million yuan in their entire lives. Some might not even be able to earn it.

But Lin Fan felt that... 1.5 million was nothing.

In fact... he might as well write scripts if he wanted to earn money.

Was this the life of a rich person?!

Chapter 369: Meeting Family

A group of reporters was interviewing Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu.

Lin Fan held Xia Wanqiu's hand and replied to them calmly.

After the interview, Lin Fan looked at Xia Wanqiu. "Then let's go home ~"

Xia Wanqiu nodded lightly. "Yes."

Lin Fan felt his hand turn cold.

It felt pretty good to hold Xia Wanqiu's hand.

So girls' hands were cold.

Suddenly, Xia Wanqiu let go of Lin Fan's hand.

Everyone looked at Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu's backs excitedly.

Could it be that Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu's relationship had a conflict?

Did singles like them have a chance?

Then, under everyone's gaze, Xia Wanqiu held Lin Fan's arm with both hands and smiled sweetly. "You won the championship today. You're the boss today ~ In the future, you'll occasionally be on top."

Lin Fan looked at Xia Wanqiu. "Then tonight... can I be on top too?"

Xia Wanqiu blushed and said coquettishly, "Bad person, you only know how to bully me. You can't."

Lin Fan sighed. He had been dating Xia Wanqiu for so long but he still couldn't get closer to her.

All men wanted that kind of thing.

However, he could not bear to bully Xia Wanqiu.

The feeling of being held by her was really different.

As he walked, Lin Fan felt a little smug.

Although he was not a playboy, he was not a saint either. The feeling of walking with Xia Wanqiu was just so different.

This was also completely incomparable elsewhere.

This was the first time Lin Fan had felt this way in his entire life.

After walking for a while, Xia Wanqiu stopped and looked at Lin Fan. Her cheeks were even redder. "If you bully me again, I won't hold your hand."

Lin Fan smiled and looked at Xia Wanqiu. "You can only blame yourself. Who asked my wife to be so pretty?"

Xia Wanqiu pouted. "Hmph! I'm not your wife yet. Don't call her that."

Lin Fan said seriously, "I just said that I'm the biggest today."

Xia Wanqiu acted like a cat. "Hmph, even you can't bully me ~"

Wang Tianyi, the runner-up in Chinese chess, felt a little disappointed.

In the past, he would always come to interview the runner-up.

Even the runner-up was the national second place in Chinese chess.

Not only did no one interview him today, but he also saw such a scene.

Damn... was this life?

Soon, Lin Fan's victory in Chinese chess had already reached the top of Weibo's trending topics list.

Lin Fan was the number one player in Chinese chess!

The comments on Weibo were all of surprise.

Although Lin Fan had many fans, the netizens on Weibo wouldn't know what he would do immediately.

After winning the championship, the netizens on Weibo were shocked.

“No way, f*ck, f*ck... Lin Fan won the championship?”

“Is the champion of the 21st Chinese Chess Cup really not joking?”

“This is true. Lin Fan really won the championship. He defeated Wang Tianyi.”

“This is the replay of the five Chinese chess games. I took a look just now. Lin Fan’s Chinese chess skills are a little amazing...”

“The champion, Lin Fan, is too strong. Isn’t he a big star? Isn’t he filming a television drama? How can he be so outstanding?”

“Lin Fan said that he’s not interested in money. I’m crying. This is the life of a rich man.”

After Lin Fan won the championship, many Chinese chess fans followed him.

Many people who liked Chinese chess admired Lin Fan.

It was already a miracle that he could defeat Wang Tianyi!

In the Chinese chess world, someone had finally broken Wang Tianyi’s record of five consecutive championships. A new king had ascended the throne!

Lin Fan was currently the number one person in the Chinese chess world!

That afternoon, a Chinese chess company contacted Lin Fan.

“Hello, Mr. Lin. We are a Chinese chess company. We want to sign a contract with you. You can officially become a professional player. You can also register your ranking. According to your points, you should be first in the Chinese chess world now.”

“The contract value is only four million a year. You just need to participate in some competitions on a daily basis. What do you think?” the person in charge of the management company asked.

Lin Fan replied, "No need. I don't sign a contract with any management company. In the future, I won't participate in Chinese chess competitions."

Lin Fan came to play Chinese chess to improve his Chinese chess skills.

He knew that Xia Wanqiu's father's Chinese chess skills were at a professional level. That was why Lin Fan wanted to raise his Chinese chess skills to a professional level.

At this point, there was no need for Lin Fan to participate in other Chinese chess competitions.

The contract fee of four million yuan was undoubtedly binding Lin Fan. Hence, he chose to reject it.

The person in charge of the economic company paused and said, "Mr. Lin, then can I invite you to participate in some important competitions in the future?"

Lin Fan thought for a moment and said, "You can inform me when the time comes. However, I might not have time to go."

The person in charge of the economic company nodded. "That's great. The Chinese chess world can't do without a talent like you."

After hanging up, Lin Fan arrived at Jiaying Entertainment and prepared for a meeting.

The person in charge of Emperor Entertainment, Zhao Xing, also came to Jiaying Entertainment to listen to Lin Fan's next stage of his plan.

Lin Fan said, "Everyone, it's about time. The training of the employees of Emperor Entertainment has been completed. Now, we're preparing to start the first stage of the plan."

"The Emperor Entertainment Company and Jiaying Entertainment created two television dramas together."

"The name of the first television drama is Drawing Sword. I've already written the script and sent it to you. We'll start filming according to this script. If you have any doubts, you can ask Teacher Tian Zheng."

“For the television drama Drawing Sword, it’s a war-themed television drama. If you want to film a popular television drama, you have to first find a suitable veteran actor to film it. You don’t need popular celebrities.”

“Zhao Xing, I’ll leave this mission to you. Do your best to film Drawing Sword,” said Lin Fan.

“The name of the second television drama is Twenty Your Life On. It’s an urban inspirational growth drama. It opens from the perspective of four girls who are about to graduate from university and enter society. It tells the story of youth troubles and growing up confusion. It can make the audience feel very immersive.”

“The main leads of this television drama: Lin Kexin, Chu Yaoyao, and Su Xiaoyu. You can find other actors yourself, but you have to arrange for these three people.”

“Also, the company wants to start the Star Creation Plan and make Su Muqing a big star. She will also act in the television drama ‘Twenty Your Life On’. I’ve also given the script to Teacher Tian Zheng. He will be fully responsible for the script.”

“In less than three months, our company will release two extremely popular television dramas on screen,” said Lin Fan with a smile.

On one hand, he could earn more money by opening a company. On the other hand, there were many things that he did not need to do personally.

He only needed to be responsible for the core part.

When the two television dramas started filming at the same time, when they were released, it would cause a true television drama craze.

These were two television dramas with completely different styles. If they became popular, it would completely stabilize the status of Emperor Entertainment Company and Jiaying Entertainment in the entertainment industry.

Most importantly, he could earn a lot of money.

The company’s employees nodded, looking forward to it.

Lin Fan's company was officially operational.

At this moment, Xia Wanqiu looked at Lin Fan with her beautiful eyes. "Xiaoyu has already gone to film. What about me?"

Lin Fan went forward and smiled. He gently patted Xia Wanqiu's head. "Accompany me to your house and meet your father. I think... it's time for your family to accept me."

"After they accept me, we can get married."
