

I signed In For A Billion Dollar Mansion From The Very Beginning Chapter 370-374

Chapter 370: Drama

Unknowingly, two months had passed.

Don't ask him where he had been for the past two months.

Lin Fan had originally planned to go home with Xia Wanqiu, but her father had been overseas for two months and had just returned to Jiang City.

If Lin Fan wanted to see his future father-in-law, he had to wait for him to return.

In these two months, "Drawing Sword" and "Twenty Your Life On" had been filmed and produced. They were just waiting for the company to negotiate the price.

As long as a suitable television station wanted to buy these two television dramas, they could choose to release them.

In the company, Lin Fan was working in front of his office.

Tian Zheng entered in surprise. He looked at Lin Fan and said, "Boss Lin, our two television dramas have already been completed. Furthermore, I just took a look. The two television dramas, Drawing Sword and Twenty Your Life On, were done too well. As expected of the team you brought out. The scripts, characters, and stories in them are all quite interesting."

"The protagonist of Drawing Sword, Li Yunlong, is played by an experienced actor. His acting can be said to be quite interesting. The rhythm and atmosphere of the entire television drama are perfect. I believe it will definitely attract the current audience."

"I really don't know how to praise the television drama 'Twenty Your Life On'. Such a script... I couldn't sleep for a day and night when I first saw it. At my age, I still like the script you wrote. As for the effect of filming, it's even better. Do you know that the boys in the post-production team watched the television drama for half a day before they started working? The female leads and supporting roles in this television drama are all super beautiful, so much so that these boys forgot to work."

“Boss Lin, I believe that these two television dramas will definitely be able to sell for a good price and become popular. You can take the time to see the results of these two television dramas,” Tian Zheng said.

Lin Fan nodded. “Sure. Then I’ll come and take a look when I have time.”

When Lin Fan walked out of the office, he saw the company.

Many employees gathered around to discuss.

“Ah ah ah, the television drama Twenty Your Life On is too good. Although I only watched one episode, this television drama is really interesting. The female characters in it are really as beautiful as they can be.”

“Lin Kexin was really stunned in the television drama ‘Twenty Your Life On’. It was the first time she dressed up so well. The aura of the school belle was completely revealed. I love it.”

“Do you guys know that Su Xiaoyu is also super pretty? I looked at the stills and a short video. I realized that Su Xiaoyu also has the potential to be the school belle. I really love her long legs.”

“Su Muqing is our goddess. These three girls usually look very good, but in television dramas, they’re so beautiful with a little makeup. I suspect that this isn’t a youth-type television drama, but a television drama that compares who looks better.”

“But I haven’t watched the film yet. Can you give me more details?”

“You can’t reveal the details. Although we’re from the same company, we have to wait for the television drama to premiere. As for when it will premiere, you have to ask Boss Lin.”

Looking at so many people discussing, Lin Fan walked out and smiled.

“Boss Lin.”

“Boss Lin.”

Many employees saw Lin Fan and were very respectful.

Lin Fan smiled and said, "Get off work early today. You've worked hard for the past two months. These two television dramas will be released as soon as possible."

Pang Duoduo cheered, "Long live Brother Fan!"

He continued, "Brother Fan, I don't want to leave. I just want to stay in the snack area and rest area. Can I leave after work?"

Lin Fan nodded. Pang Duoduo still couldn't forget his gluttony at work.

After the employees cheered, they left.

The company became quiet.

Lin Fan turned on his computer and opened the video Tian Zheng had given him.

He first looked at Drawing Sword.

It was grand and the battle scene was very imposing. Furthermore, the pace was very fast and the actors' acting skills were also very good. Lin Fan gave this television drama a very high score in his heart.

Lin Fan opened "Twenty Your Life On" again.

After watching for five minutes, Lin Fan was stunned.

This television drama was simply a masterpiece.

Although he was only responsible for the creation of the script, the effect of this television drama was surprisingly amazing.

The female lead of this television drama was Su Xiaoyu.

When Su Xiaoyu appeared, she was wearing half sleeves and shorts. She was dressed simply, and her long and slender white legs were exceptionally eye-catching.

He fantasized in his mind that he could play with her legs for years.

Lin Kexin still played to her strengths. As the school belle of Beijing Film Academy, she was not inferior to Su Xiaoyu.

When Lin Fan saw Su Muqing, one of the scenes was of her bathing. Of course, he could only see her legs and arms. He couldn't see anything else. After all, it was impossible to take photos of Su Muqing bathing.

She was wearing her school uniform. Under the sunlight, she was gentle, quiet, and sunny. However, she had a different aura.

If the audience saw this, who knew how many people would like Su Muqing?

Su Muqing was different from other girls and did not bring people any surprise.

She did not have stunning looks and was born with a pure face.

Standing there, she could attract everyone's attention.

She was like a gentle and quiet girl, obedient and sensible, and likable.

Lin Fan thought about it. If only his life story was a novel. If only it was a harem novel.

There were so many pretty girls. If he accepted all of them, he could change them every day. How blissful would his life be?

However, he could only think about it. After all, his life was not a novel. This country did not support harems.

At this thought, Lin Fan couldn't help but want to sneeze. He picked up the toilet paper.

On the screen was a photo of three girls wearing long legs.

At this moment...

Xia Wanqiu walked in.

She saw Lin Fan holding toilet paper and the scene playing on his computer screen.

Xia Wanqiu was furious. She looked at Lin Fan fiercely.

Initially, she thought that Lin Fan was working. Unexpectedly, Lin Fan was looking at a beauty's long legs and even picked up toilet paper.

Although Xia Wanqiu was also very innocent, she knew those things.

Lin Fan saw Xia Wanqiu behind him in the reflection of the mirror.

He was shocked.

That was it...

For some reason, he felt like he had been caught doing something bad.

If the cat found out, she would definitely be angry.

Which girl didn't care about her boyfriend peeking at other girls' long legs?

It was even paused.

Anyone would be jealous.

Being jealous meant being angry and arguing.

Some fierce girls would even pick up their weapons and hit others.

Just as Lin Fan was about to explain, Xia Wanqiu walked in front of him.

“Meow, meow?” Xia Wanqiu looked at Lin Fan with her beautiful eyes.

“Mmm... watch a television drama,” said Lin Fan as he silently put down the toilet paper. He just wanted to wipe his nose. He couldn’t explain it clearly now.

“There’s no need to explain,” Xia Wanqiu said softly. Her red lips gently tapped Lin Fan’s cheek and her face was slightly red.

“Huh?” Lin Fan looked at Xia Wanqiu strangely. This wasn’t what he had expected.

“Hug~ Okay?” Xia Wanqiu smiled sweetly with a cute expression. She stood in front of Lin Fan, her hands placed somewhere.

She wasn’t angry or even questioning Lin Fan.

She just gave in and wanted to stick to Lin Fan like a cat.

Lin Fan stood up and took a step forward. He hugged Xia Wanqiu’s slender waist and gently smelled her fragrance. “Wife, I was wrong.”

Xia Wanqiu was hugged by Lin Fan and said aggrievedly, “You know your mistake. I’ll punish you.”

Lin Fan hugged Xia Wanqiu and felt the soft and warm fragrance in his arms. “Mmm, how do you want to punish me?”

Xia Wanqiu blushed and lowered her head gently. “Go buy me a miniskirt, a JK skirt, and shorts. I can also... wear them for you ~”

Lin Fan: “!!!”

Who could stand this?!

Chapter 371: How Rich Is Lin Fan?

Today was a very important day.

Don't ask where the system had been for the past few months. If you asked, it would be that Lin Fan hadn't signed in for a while and had been accumulating his chances. This way, he could get better things all at once.

This was just like rolling for characters one at a time. It was completely different from doing ten consecutive rolls at once.

Lin Fan hadn't used most of the skills he had received from the lottery previously.

And today, Lin Fan was still in the company.

A girl called Lin Weiwei came to the entrance of Jiaxing Entertainment.

After showing her identification, Lin Weiwei quickly obtained the permission of the security guard at the entrance.

Lin Weiwei, who was only 22 years old, was very outstanding.

She was from Central TV and was here to look for some very meaningful television dramas that could be screened on Central TV.

The television dramas that Central TV sought needed very perfect and positive television dramas to guide the audience's values.

Ordinary pure television dramas, Xianxia dramas, and so on could not be watched by Central TV.

Lin Weiwei heard that Jiaxing Entertainment had just made a war-themed television drama called Drawing Sword and wanted to talk about it.

The name Drawing Sword had a very good meaning, and this was a television drama filmed by Jiaxing Entertainment.

Jiaxing Entertainment's television dramas were equivalent to the peak of this industry!

The current Jiaxing Entertainment already had such influence.

All in all, it was because of Lin Fan.

This was Lin Weiwei's first time at Jiaxing Entertainment and she felt the holiness of this place.

"This is Jiaxing Entertainment. Don't disappoint me. The leader asked me to find a good war-themed television drama to review history. I wonder how Jiaxing Entertainment's latest works are." Lin Weiwei was a little excited.

"Also... how can this Jiaxing Entertainment be so big? It's even bigger and more luxurious than the place where Central TV works." Lin Weiwei looked around with envy and jealousy.

The most attractive thing about Central TV was its name. Anyone who came from Central TV represented status and value. They were all different from ordinary places. For example, could the hosts of Central TV and wedding shows give people the same feeling?

"The distance between the work desks here is also very big. Hmm... it feels really good. This is the best entertainment company. It feels completely different from other entertainment companies," Lin Weiwei said.

Lin Weiwei saw many celebrities at their desks. Some were studying scripts, and some were working seriously.

Furthermore, everyone was chatting and laughing. The environment and atmosphere were very good.

The people here were very warm and polite.

At this moment, Su Muqing walked in front of Lin Weiwei. "Hello, I heard that you're a staff member of Central TV. My name is Su Muqing and I'm Boss Lin's assistant."

Lin Weiwei was a little surprised. She looked at Su Muqing and said, "Wow, you're Lin Fan's assistant, Su Muqing. I heard that you were very pretty in the past. Now that I've seen you, you're really pretty."

They were all girls, and girls would also look at beauties. Su Muqing's beauty was different from that of other girls, but it was more attractive, especially to boys.

If it wasn't for the fact that Lin Fan's girlfriend, Xia Wanqiu, was even prettier, many people would have suspected that Lin Fan had a great beauty like Su Muqing as his assistant.

There was a saying that if an assistant had something to do, he would do it.

Su Muqing smiled sweetly. "May I know why you're here? I'll report to Boss Lin."

Lin Weiwei said seriously, "I want to see the finale of the television drama Drawing Sword. Central TV is very interested in the television drama Drawing Sword released by Jiaxing Entertainment. If I can take a look, I can discuss the price with Boss Lin."

Su Muqing nodded. "Of course. There are a total of two episodes. You can watch them if you want, but you can't bring any communication or photography equipment in."

Lin Weiwei nodded. "Of course. Central TV won't reveal any information about the show."

When Su Muqing heard that Central TV was going to buy the premiere rights for "Drawing Sword", she was very happy.

Central TV was different from other television stations. Now that Central TV was here, it further proved the influence of Jiaxing Entertainment.

If Central TV could film this television drama, then "Drawing Sword" would be even more popular.

Lin Weiwei passed through the entertainment area, resting area, and fitness area. It was an eye-opener.

The environment here... was really too good.

If ordinary people wanted to work out, they had to go to the gym to get a card.

But there was no need for that at Jiaxing Entertainment.

Jiaxing Entertainment could provide a gym membership.

“Ah... this place is really too good. You can even work out here, but you have to get off work to work out here, right?” Lin Weiwei looked at Su Muqing. Even if she was an employee of Central TV, she could not help but be curious.

Su Muqing explained, “That’s not it. For the sake of the employees’ health, the employees of Jiaxing Entertainment have to train here for an hour every day. Half an hour in the morning and half an hour in the afternoon ~ You can use the company’s equipment freely after work as long as it’s not damaged.”

Hearing Su Muqing’s words, Lin Weiwei was a little tempted.

She had never heard of such a good boss. The bosses of other companies were all thinking about how to squeeze their employees dry and make them work overtime for free.

Jiaxing Entertainment even let their employees exercise during working hours. This was equivalent to... giving them gym equipment, letting them exercise, and giving them a salary.

“Sigh, I’m so envious. Boss Lin is so good,” Lin Weiwei said.

“Then the entertainment area and rest area here also cost money, right? I saw a lot of snacks here. There are all sorts of drinks, coke, sprite, Fanta, potato chips, and so on. There’s also a restaurant. The food in the restaurant looks delicious too,” Lin Weiwei said.

Su Muqing smiled and said, “The snack area is in the resting area. All the snacks are free. There are drinks, brewed tea, West Lake Longjing tea, Da Hong Pao, and all sorts of tea leaves. There’s no limit to the supply ~ It’s just that most of the staff and celebrities rarely eat them. They’ll get fat if they eat them. It’s the same for the restaurant. There are professional nutritionists who customize nutritional meals for celebrities.”

Lin Weiwei was even more surprised.

Snacks were provided for free. This was simply a paradise for some people.

Which foodie wouldn't like the working environment here?!

"Boss Lin is too good. I even want to work here." Lin smiled.

Su Muqing also smiled brightly. "Jiaxing Entertainment welcomes any talent ~"

Lin Weiwei looked at Su Muqing. "Can I ask you a question? You can choose not to answer. This question is more personal."

Su Muqing: "You can answer questions that don't involve company secrets."

Lin Weiwei: "Um, how much do you earn as Boss Lin's personal assistant?"

Su Muqing thought for a moment. "About 300,000 a month."

Lin Weiwei: "!!!"

D*mn it...

Just how rich was Lin Fan?

Nowadays, an assistant could earn 300,000 a month!!!

Chapter 372: Shocking Central TV!

Lin Weiwei swallowed her saliva and said in shock, "Being an assistant for... 300,000 a month?"

"Wouldn't that be an annual salary of 9 million? 9 million a year. You can buy one or two houses in Shanghai."

Lin Weiwei was extremely shocked. How could a personal assistant, who was not a top CEO, have a monthly salary of 300,000 yuan?

Such a salary could only be described as exaggerated.

In any entertainment company, who would give an assistant 300,000 yuan a month?

Unless... this assistant was Lin Fan's lover.

Lin Fan must be providing Su Muqing with such a high income for certain reasons.

This thought flashed through Lin Weiwei's mind, but she didn't say it out loud.

"Actually, it's alright. My monthly salary was only 10,000 yuan. Boss Lin insisted on raising my salary." Su Muqing smiled sweetly. She was extremely happy to be Lin Fan's assistant.

"I'm green with envy." Lin Weiwei looked at Su Muqing and felt envious.

"Now that Boss Lin has signed an artiste contract with me, um... my annual income shouldn't be less than 10-20 million, I think?" Su Muqing smiled even more sweetly.

"..." Lin Weiwei.

Lin Weiwei didn't know what to say. Lin Fan was treating Su Muqing too well.

Of course, Lin Weiwei did not know who Su Muqing was.

She was the second daughter of the Su family. To describe her in one word, she was a genius young lady.

Although she was not as genius as Su Xiaoyu, Su Muqing could do everything no matter how big or small.

Lin Fan was a major shareholder in many companies. When something happened, Su Muqing could help him resolve it.

It could be said that Su Muqing was Lin Fan's personal assistant. All her time belonged to Lin Fan.

Whether it was food, daily life, fun, or any work in the entertainment industry or his businesses, she could help Lin Fan share his burdens.

Furthermore, Lin Fan trusted her 100%.

She was fully devoted to Lin Fan.

It was only right to give her such a high salary.

Of course, the most important reason was that Lin Fan was rich.

He only had to pay her nine million yuan a year now.

If Su Muqing became an artiste of Jiaxing Entertainment, who knew how much money she could earn for the company every year?

Most importantly, having such a beautiful woman as his assistant was also pleasing to the eye.

Although Lin Fan didn't have any special thoughts about Su Muqing, wouldn't it be nice to look at a beauty with long legs every day?

Lin Weiwei said, "I'm crying. I'm so envious. If you have time, can you ask Boss Lin if he still recruits assistants?"

Su Muqing smiled sweetly and said, "I'll help you ask when I have time."

Lin Fan had two assistants now. One was Su Muqing and the other was Lin Qianwei.

Lin Qianwei didn't know much about business and could only do simple work, such as arranging schedules and so on.

Su Muqing could do a lot. She knew all sorts of tricks, poses, and angles.

Lin Weiwei looked at Su Muqing and said, "Boss Lin gives such good benefits and such a high salary in the company. Won't the company lose money?"

Su Muqing smiled sweetly. "No, because Boss Lin is omnipotent ~"

Lin Weiwei nodded. "In that case, all the more I want to see the television drama Drawing Sword. Speaking of which, was this television drama also directed by Boss Lin?"

Su Muqing shook her head gently and said, "The television drama Drawing Sword was written by Boss Lin, but he didn't participate in the entire filming process. Boss Lin has already nurtured many talents in the company, so there's no need for him to personally experience these things."

Lin Weiwei's eyes lit up. "I know that Boss Lin's scripts are especially interesting. Boss Lin's Xianxia dramas, historical dramas, and four television dramas are all very outstanding. Now that he has released war dramas and youth-type television dramas, I'm looking forward to it."

Su Muqing brought Lin Weiwei into a more private room. It was absolutely private here.

Before the screening of "Drawing Sword" was confirmed, it was absolutely not allowed to be leaked.

The film was also for the various television stations to watch. If any television stations wanted to work with them, they could watch the film and decide on the final price.

As a staff member of Central TV, Lin Weiwei was in charge of such matters.

Lin Weiwei was also a very outstanding staff member of Central TV. Otherwise, she would not have received such a mission.

She had a lot of experience in choosing television dramas for Central TV.

After all, Central TV represented authority. The television dramas it wanted to broadcast were for the public.

An hour and a half later, Lin Weiwei walked out.

When she saw these two television dramas, her beautiful eyes were blank.

Television dramas related to war, especially the anti-Japanese World War II war films, were extremely popular in the country.

However, these dramas would bring the audience incorrect values.

For example, wasn't defeating the Japanese an insult to the audience's intelligence?

Lin Weiwei wanted to find a television drama that was more historically accurate and suitable for the general public.

Such a war theme was very difficult. No one in the country could film it well.

Lin Weiwei had gone to almost all the entertainment companies.

These war films were not satisfactory.

When she saw the war film produced by Jiaying Entertainment, she was deeply surprised.

Because...

The television drama Drawing Sword was filmed too brilliantly!

"I can only say that the television drama Drawing Sword is completely different from other dramas."

"Such a television drama has a clear rhythm and a strong sense of conflict. It also suits the preferences of the general public. The entire television drama revolves around Li Yunlong. After watching two episodes, I feel that... Boss Lin is really amazing. He wrote a script about war so well," Lin Weiwei said.

Lin Weiwei's heartbeat quickened.

She was a girl and did not like to watch war movies.

However, the television drama created by Lin Fan's company was really... too good!

From the first episode onwards, Lin Weiwei was already mesmerized.

If this television drama was bought by Central TV and really broadcasted, who knew how high the viewership would be?

The television dramas created by Jiaying Entertainment were all top-notch.

Until now, Jiaying Entertainment had never produced a lousy movie.

Every television drama would influence the entire direction of the entertainment market.

Drawing Sword was still the same.

Lin Weiwei immediately made a decision.

No matter what, Central TV had to buy the premiere rights to this television drama.

In the past, many television stations were unwilling to buy the premiere rights of Jiaying Entertainment's television dramas. Those television stations were still regretting it now.

Central TV could not miss such an opportunity!

Lin Weiwei looked at Su Muqing and said, "Miss Su, Central TV has already decided to buy the premiere rights of Drawing Sword and wants to buy the broadcast rights of this television drama permanently."

“As expected of a company led by Boss Lin. The television dramas filmed by Jiaxing Entertainment are still so interesting!”

Chapter 373: Negotiation

Lin Weiwei looked at Su Muqing. “Can you discuss the price with Boss Lin now?”

“If the television drama Drawing Sword is broadcasted on Central TV, it will definitely be more popular and more publicized. It will also be very beneficial to Jiaxing Entertainment.”

Su Muqing smiled and sat down. She said, “Leave the premiere of Drawing Sword to me. I can report the final price to Boss Lin.”

Lin Weiwei was a little surprised. Of course, this kind of negotiation should be left to the boss. After all, it was a huge sum to buy the permanent premiere rights of “Drawing Sword”.

And today, Su Muqing could talk to her about selling the premiere rights of “Drawing Sword”.

At first, Lin Weiwei thought that Su Muqing was just an assistant and did not know much.

But after chatting for a while, Lin Weiwei quickly realized how amazing Su Muqing was.

No wonder Su Muqing could become Lin Fan’s assistant. It wasn’t just because she was beautiful, but because her strength was extraordinary.

Lin Weiwei looked at Su Muqing and said, “Miss Su, Central TV can pay 200 million yuan to buy the premiere rights of this television drama. Central TV has never spent 200 million yuan to buy a television drama before.”

Lin Weiwei came up and asked for 200 million.

In reality, using 200 million to buy the premiere rights of a television drama was definitely a very high price.

At first, Lin Weiwei had already expressed her sincerity.

However, after hearing Lin Weiwei's price, Su Muqing just smiled and said, "Miss Lin, if it's just this price, I'm afraid there's no way to buy the premiere rights of 'Drawing Sword'."

"Although Central TV is famous, television dramas can be broadcast on any television station. On any television station, television dramas have their own unique influence."

"Also, Central TV wants to buy the permanent copyright of Drawing Sword. In other words, if the full copyright is sold to Central TV, Central TV can premiere it infinitely in the future. I'm afraid Boss Lin won't agree to the price of 200 million," Su Muqing said with a smile.

Jiaying Entertainment's previous The Legend of Sword and Fairy 3 had sold for 600 million yuan in premiere rights.

The facts proved that the market completely recognized The Legend of Sword and Fairy 3.

The subsequent benefits of The Legend of Sword and Fairy 3 could not be measured by these hundreds of millions.

For example, a game company had specially bought the copyright of The Legend of Sword and Fairy and created a game.

Such a game was also profitable.

The copyright fees derived from filming a popular television drama could not be compared to other profits.

After Lin Weiwei heard that, she said, "300 million, Miss Su. I believe the price of 300 million should be very sincere."

Hearing Lin Weiwei say that, Su Muqing smiled and said, "Miss Lin, do you know how much the total production cost of 'Drawing Sword' is? It's 230 million. When Jiaying Entertainment launches a television drama, we will pay more attention to the special effect of this television drama. In order to show higher-quality effects, we need to spend more money. The film crew will never save money on this, nor will we treat the actors badly."

Even if it was a price of 300 million, Su Muqing still rejected it.

Lin Weiwei frowned slightly.

If he wanted to buy the premiere rights of other entertainment companies, 300 million was enough.

But Jiaxing Entertainment was different.

Every television drama produced by Jiaxing Entertainment had already become popular.

If nothing went wrong, Drawing Sword would definitely become popular.

300 million was still not enough to buy the copyright.

Su Muqing held control of the price tightly.

Even if it was 300 million, Su Muqing had no intention of giving in.

“Miss Su, to be honest, Central TV’s bottom line is 600 million, so this is also my last bid. The highest is 600 million.”

“Above 600 million, no matter what the price is, Central TV won’t buy it anymore. I hope you can understand. After all, Jiaxing Entertainment isn’t the only company that knows how to make war films,” Lin Weiwei said. She immediately increased the price from 300 million to 600 million.

The permanent broadcasting rights of a television drama were worth 600 million, which was acceptable.

Lin Weiwei had already said her bottom line.

She also sincerely said the highest price that Central TV could offer.

600 million yuan. What kind of concept was that?

Drawing Sword only took two months to film and half a month to produce, but it could be sold for such a high price.

Of course, this was also the result of all the staff's hard work.

Lin Weiwei looked at Su Muqing.

If Su Muqing still did not agree, Central TV could buy it from other entertainment companies.

Anyone from an entertainment company might have agreed.

How many people could reject such temptation?

When Lin Weiwei thought that Su Muqing would definitely agree, Su Muqing said casually, "Then I'm sorry. Our company's bottom line for the television drama Drawing Sword is 650 million. If it's lower than this price, the company won't sell the permanent broadcasting rights for Drawing Sword."

"Jiaying Entertainment is deeply grateful for Central TV's willingness to buy the copyright of this television drama, but if it's lower than this price, there's no way to negotiate. I also can't explain it to Boss Lin," Su Muqing said.

"Also, this television drama was personally written by Boss Lin. Boss Lin never writes rubbish scripts. Every script he writes is a masterpiece that can attract the current audience. I also believe that if Central TV can buy this television drama, what kind of influence will it have?" Su Muqing looked at Lin Weiwei.

Lin Weiwei thought for a moment and revealed a thoughtful expression.

Who knew that when the price reached 600 million, Su Muqing would still raise the price?

Otherwise, there would be no way to succeed.

Lin Weiwei said, "Miss Su, I need to ask our leader about this. I'll reply to you later."

Su Muqing nodded. "Okay."

After a while, Lin Weiwei called the leader.

“Boss, I’ve already watched two episodes of the television drama Drawing Sword. I have to say that I saw the strength of Jiaying Entertainment today. Although such an entertainment company is not big, it’s very difficult for other entertainment companies to compare to it.”

“Jiaying Entertainment offered 650 million, which is 50 million higher than our estimated price. The other party’s negotiator is very strong. Leader, I’m sorry. They have been holding this price to the death, so I’m here to ask you to see if we can close the deal,” Lin Weiwei said.

“Who is the other party you’re negotiating with?” The CEO’s voice sounded.

“Su Muqing,” Lin Weiwei replied immediately.

“Su Muqing, the genius second miss of the Su family, proficient in business. Weiwei, you’ve met your match.”

“The company also believes in your judgment. If you think it’s worth 650 million, you can buy the full rights to the television drama Drawing Sword.” The CEO’s voice sounded.

Lin Weiwei nodded slightly, feeling a little surprised.

She was getting more and more curious about Lin Fan’s existence.

Even the assistant was the second daughter of the Su family.

As one of the four major families, the Su family had hundreds of billions of assets. However, the Su family’s precious second daughter was willing to come to Lin Fan’s side to be his assistant.

Even Lin Fan’s assistant was so strong.

How amazing was Lin Fan himself?

Lin Weiwei admired such a legendary figure.

To be able to bring a brand new entertainment company to its current state showed Lin Fan's ability!

Chapter 374: Lin Fan's Shock, Is This His Employee?

Lin Weiwei returned to her room and looked at Su Muqing, who was sitting opposite her. She nodded slightly and said, "The company has allowed it. Central TV is willing to pay 650 million yuan to buy all the copyrights to Drawing Sword."

Seeing that Central TV agreed so quickly, Su Muqing nodded gently. "Miss Lin, Jiaxing Entertainment has another request. For the television drama Drawing Sword, the company is only willing to sell the full rights for 20 years. Jiaxing Entertainment has the right to use Drawing Sword to generate other follow-up income. Of course, we won't destroy our own reputation."

"At the same time, we promise that Drawing Sword will only be broadcasted on Central TV. Twenty years later, Central TV can buy the right to reproduce Drawing Sword at the lowest price."

Su Muqing said. She knew the importance of a television drama to the company.

Even Central TV was unwilling to sell its permanent broadcasting rights.

Just like a television drama, no matter how long it took, it would be a legend.

For example, the 1986 version of Journey to the West, and television dramas like My Fair Princess.

Classic works would not be afraid of the precipitation of time. Instead, it would become a masterpiece in the hearts of the people because of the precipitation of time.

After thinking for a long time, Lin Weiwei chose to agree.

"Then it's settled. Negotiating with you is really too much pressure for me. However, Central TV values talent and is still willing to buy this television drama. Miss Su, nice working with you ~" Lin Weiwei said.

"It's our honor to be able to work with Central TV. We can arrange a signing ceremony for you later. I'll report to Boss Lin first." Su Muqing smiled.

She knocked on Lin Fan's office door and walked in with a contract.

This contract was the contract to sell the copyright to Drawing Sword.

“Boss Lin, Central TV is willing to buy the full rights to Drawing Sword. The contract has been drafted and the negotiations have ended. Do you think you can sign the contract?” Su Muqing asked with a smile. As Lin Fan’s assistant, of course, Lin Fan had to make the final decision on such a big matter. She wouldn’t decide for him.

Lin Fan picked up the contract. “How much is it? Let me see.”

It would have been fine if he hadn’t looked. When he did, Lin Fan was shocked.

Central TV was actually willing to pay 650 million!

“650 million? Muqing, my original expectations were only 200 million because the remuneration for the television drama Drawing Sword isn’t high. The production cost isn’t high either. It’s only a small production cost of 40 million,” said Lin Fan.

In other words, the company only spent 40 million yuan to produce Drawing Sword.

An anti-war film did not have a high requirement for special effects.

For example, if he wanted to film a shooting scene, he couldn’t use lasers or special effects like magic bullets.

Just the simple special effects of a gunfight did not cost much.

The filming of “Drawing Sword” was all done by veteran actors. There were also many newcomers, and the price was not high.

It was not difficult to produce a television drama from World War II. There were many such divine dramas in the country. The only difficult thing was to restore history and write interesting scripts that matched the audience’s aesthetics.

Other screenwriters couldn’t do it, but for Lin Fan, it was easy.

Lin Fan continued, "Even if it's 200 million, our company has earned a lot. We've earned a net profit of 160 million. If the television drama can become popular, we can even nurture some actors and promote it for the company."

Su Muqing widened her innocent eyes and said, "Well... but it's 650 million."

Lin Fan walked forward and looked at Su Muqing. "Muqing, did you tell the other party that our company spent more than 200 million on this television drama?"

Su Muqing's gaze became even more innocent. She nodded and lowered her head like a girl who was being obediently reprimanded.

Lin Fan smiled. "Well done."

"After deducting the cost and selling it for 650 million, our company can earn a net profit of 610 million."

"I originally thought that I would have to sell the full rights permanently. I didn't expect you to only sell it for 20 years. What do you want me to say?" Lin Fan smiled and was a little happy.

Let Su Muqing negotiate and the price would increase by more than three times.

If Lin Fan went to negotiate, it might not be as good as Su Muqing's negotiation.

Su Muqing was the kind of person who could lie without blushing. When she talked to Lin Weiwei about the price, she made sense.

But in reality, it was not like that at all.

Su Muqing stretched out her hand and blinked her big clear eyes. She said, "Boss Lin, punish me ~ ~ I didn't do it well."

Lin Fan walked forward and gently patted Su Muqing's hand. "With such an assistant, who would be worried about starting a company? You followed me and said that you wanted to learn from me, but in the end, you wanted me to learn from you."

Lin Fan sighed. If he were to negotiate personally, he definitely wouldn't be able to reach such a price.

Other than Su Muqing, only the genius girl Su Xiaoyu could negotiate such a price.

Su Muqing giggled. "But I like to be by your side ~ The salary is not bad."

Lin Fan was helpless. "Alright, stop. Your family owns a company worth hundreds of billions. It's countless times bigger than Jiaying Entertainment. Your family has so much money. Do you care about a job with an annual salary of tens of millions?"

Su Muqing nodded obediently. "Yes, yes. Of course, I care. When I was at home, they didn't believe me. They gave all their work to my sister. Then, I lost my job."

"That's why I wanted to be your assistant ~ Even if I can't earn much money, I can. But I didn't expect my boss to be so handsome and nice. Other people earn a few thousand yuan a month as an assistant, but I earn 300,000 yuan a month. It can prove my value, so I'm very happy."

When Su Muqing said this, her eyes were slightly red. It seemed like she had been bullied at home and came out to work with Lin Fan.

Lin Fan gently rubbed Su Muqing's head and smiled. "It's fine. Follow me and I'll protect you. I'll give you a raise this time. In the future, I'll give you 500,000 a month."

Su Muqing didn't refuse and hurriedly bowed to thank him. "Thank you, Boss ~"

Seeing how innocent Su Muqing was, Lin Fan's smile became even brighter.

Raising the salary for Su Muqing was a small matter. She went to negotiate and earned more than 400 million yuan for the company. Furthermore, Su Muqing could still be busy with Lin Fan's other companies.

Now that Lin Fan had nurtured her to be a superstar, after she became popular, her value would increase countless times.

To put it simply, with such a beautiful assistant, she looked good and was innocent. She was capable and could warm the bed, although Lin Fan didn't need her.

Receiving a beautiful assistant like Su Muqing, Lin Fan smiled and felt different.

No other value could compare to a girl like Su Muqing.

With Su Muqing around, Lin Fan would make a killing!
