

I signed In For A Billion Dollar Mansion From The Very Beginning Chapter 450-454

Chapter 450: Increase in Salary

“Third, it’s about salary and treatment. I can officially announce that all the employees who make outstanding contributions in the company will have their salaries increased. There will be an announcement regarding the details and standards of the salary increase.”

“If any artiste can reach my standards, their remuneration will increase. Of course, there’s one thing I have to say. There are many artistes in the company. Every artiste will have their own manager. A manager is supposed to be in charge of an artiste’s work arrangements. However, let me put it this way. No artiste from Jiaying Entertainment is allowed to take on endorsements without permission. They are not allowed to take on any other dramas without permission. Anyone who violates this will be fired,” said Lin Fan.

As a big company, some rules had to be set.

Jiaying Entertainment wanted to be a top entertainment company.

Lin Fan also wanted all the celebrities to be proud of joining Jiaying Entertainment.

If an artiste from Jiaying Entertainment went out to take on lousy films for money, it would affect the audience’s image of this artiste.

These advertisements would damage an artiste’s future and the audience’s impression of them.

It was the same for accepting lousy films.

It was the same for accepting endorsements. Not all endorsements could be accepted.

Jiaying Entertainment’s artistes could accept endorsements, but they had to accept some high-end endorsements. At the very least, they had to be classy.

There were no rules. After Lin Fan set the rules, the employees just had to follow them.

Otherwise, if Jiaying Entertainment’s artistes accepted a lousy movie today and a lousy movie tomorrow, what was the point of Lin Fan nurturing them?

The reward from Jiaxing Entertainment matched Lin Fan's thoughts.

He could give his employees more salaries, but he also had to mobilize their enthusiasm.

After all, expanding the company and becoming stronger was what Lin Fan really wanted.

Lin Jingjing nodded. "Wow, I'm going to get a raise. Excited ~"

Pang Duoduo even cheered. "Long live Boss Lin! Long live, long live!"

When this guy licked, he could really say anything.

Xu Yang was excited. He looked at Lin Jingjing. If he could increase her salary, he would have the money to buy her a sports car.

After all, Lin Jingjing was his girlfriend.

Everyone understood some of the rules that Lin Fan had set.

Lin Fan looked at everyone and continued, "The fourth point is also very important. Before the age of 28, celebrities of Jiaxing Entertainment are not allowed to date without permission. Of course, I won't break up the current relationship."

Dating would undoubtedly kill an artiste who was on the rise.

It was the same for both male and female artistes.

Of course, after the age of 28, if he wanted to fall in love, the company would not pursue it.

After the meeting, the employees of Jiaxing Entertainment were all abnormally happy.

Because... their salary would be increased again!

Of course, not everyone would have an increase in salary. The detailed list was not out yet, but everyone was very happy.

This was like a company's boss saying that he wanted to see the employees' performance and increase their salaries. Every employee would look forward to it. Would it be their turn?

Even the security guard at the door was abnormally serious. He stood straight.

4 pm.

The first person to push open Lin Fan's office door was Xia Wanqiu.

"Meow, meow?" Xia Wanqiu made a cute gesture and stuck her head out of the door.

"Come in quickly." When Lin Fan saw Xia Wanqiu, he smiled and held her hand.

Xia Wanqiu blushed and gently shook off Lin Fan's hand. "Official, the company doesn't allow you to date. Otherwise, you'll be fired."

Lin Fan: "???"

Lin Fan forcefully closed the office door and grabbed Xia Wanqiu's hands. He smiled and said, "Wife, I have the final say in this company."

Xia Wanqiu looked at Lin Fan in a daze and smiled like a little bird. "But as a boss, I have to set an example ~"

Xia Wanqiu was wearing a pink dress and jeans. She was wearing a small pink hat. Her waist was thin and her legs were long. She was pressed against the wall by Lin Fan and her heart was thumping.

Xia Wanqiu blushed, but her words were clearly teasing Lin Fan.

Who could resist such words from such a beautiful woman?

If he wasn't in the company, Lin Fan would have already gone all the way.

Lin Fan took a step forward and hugged Xia Wanqiu's slender waist. A fragrance assailed his nostrils and a soft touch came, making Lin Fan feel like he was in a fairyland.

Xia Wanqiu didn't resist and floated into Lin Fan's arms.

Then... he was picked up by Lin Fan.

"Wife, I called you over this time mainly because of the increase in salary," said Lin Fan with a smile.

"Huh?" Xia Wanqiu leaned into Lin Fan's arms like a little bird. She pouted. "What salary do you want? I'm already yours..."

Lin Fan couldn't take it anymore.

He kissed her on the spot.

Fifteen minutes later, there was a knock on the door.

Lin Fan let go reluctantly.

A girl's lips were really soft.

"Let's go ~ ~ You can pay as you see fit," Xia Wanqiu said softly and slipped out of the door.

Lin Fan had wanted to talk about serious matters but Xia Wanqiu was so beautiful that he had long forgotten about it.

The second person to enter was Su Muqing.

"Come, sit." Lin Fan looked at the stunned Su Muqing and returned to his gentlemanly self.

“Alright.” Su Muqing sat opposite Lin Fan obediently. After all, she was Lin Fan’s assistant.

“I’ll cut to the chase. From today onwards, your annual salary will be increased to 9 million. Also, the remuneration for every television drama and movie you film will be calculated separately,” said Lin Fan.

Su Muqing was stunned. How could he increase her salary like this? She directly received an annual salary of 9 million.

This was too exaggerated.

Su Muqing shook her head and looked at Lin Fan. “Boss Lin, this salary is too high. It’s even higher than the salary of the CEO of many companies. Coupled with the salary, it’ll be even more ridiculous.”

Lin Fan smiled and said, “It’s not high. Just accept it. How old are you this year?”

Su Muqing raised her head and looked at Lin Fan. “18 years old. I haven’t celebrated my 19th birthday yet.”

Fine, Su Muqing was so outstanding, but she was only an 18-year-old girl.

The key was how Su Muqing finished Tsinghua University at the age of 17...

This girl was too outstanding. No wonder she could handle so many things in the company so well.

Lin Fan said seriously, “The artistes in the company can’t fall in love. You’re only 18 years old this year. When you’re 28 years old, it’ll take at least 10 years. It’ll mean that you’ll have to work for me for 10 years. It’ll be equivalent to handing over the best youth of your life to me. Therefore, it doesn’t matter if the salary is higher.”

“Alright, let’s go out,” said Lin Fan with a smile. He didn’t explain further. After all, Su Muqing was capable. He could accept giving her 9 million a year. Of course, this was only her basic salary. If he added on the film remuneration, she would get a lot more money.

Su Muqing nodded her head and walked out of Lin Fan's office. She said softly, "But... I never wanted to date anyone."

Her beautiful eyes were a little sad. She wasn't staying by Lin Fan's side for her salary.

But Lin Fan already had a girlfriend...

It was already good enough that she could be Lin Fan's assistant. What was the point of thinking so much?

She was already proud to be Lin Fan's assistant for ten years!

Let alone Lin Fan not letting her date, even if he asked her to date, she wouldn't.

Every girl would have a boy she liked living in her heart.

Chapter 451: Lin Kexin's Sacrifice?!

The third person to enter was Lin Kexin.

When Lin Kexin sat in front of Lin Fan, he was stunned again.

There was only one way to describe Lin Kexin.

Lin Kexin... was too beautiful.

She was the school belle of Beijing Film Academy and had just graduated this year. Her popularity was quite high.

"Hello, Boss Lin ~" Lin Kexin took the initiative to sit down and greet him.

"How old are you?" Lin Fan asked.

"21," Lin Kexin replied.

“Height and weight?” Lin Fan asked.

“Height 168 cm, weight 43.8 kg,” Lin Kexin continued to answer. She was just a little puzzled. Why was Lin Fan concerned about her age, height, and weight? However, she didn’t dare to ask and still answered honestly.

“Do you have a boyfriend? Or a crush?” Lin Fan continued to ask.

Lin Kexin was stunned.

She didn’t know what Lin Fan wanted to say, but she felt her heart race.

Oh my god, could Lin Fan have fallen for her? Or was her boss going to sleep with her?

After all, Lin Fan was so handsome and awesome. He was also Lin Kexin’s idol.

But didn’t Lin Fan have a girlfriend?

Lin Kexin understood immediately!

Boss Lin wanted to find a new one. After all, domestic flowers didn’t smell as good as wildflowers.

Xia Wanqiu was so busy with work. It was understandable if Lin Fan wanted to do something with her. After all, men had such thoughts. What did it mean by having multiple wives and concubines? What a wonderful life.

Lin Kexin’s thoughts went astray. What if Boss Lin wanted to do it in this office... Should she agree or not, or should she refuse...

“Think about what?” Lin Fan was a little puzzled and pulled Lin Kexin back to reality.

“Oh, oh, I don’t have a boyfriend,” Lin Kexin hurriedly replied.

Then, Lin Fan stood up and walked towards Lin Kexin.

Lin Kexin's breathing quickened. Boss Lin was really here.

What should she do? Lin Kexin was a little flustered.

She chose to close her eyes... and pretend that nothing had happened. Boss Lin could do whatever he wanted...

However, Lin Fan pushed open the door. "I'm going to the toilet. Wait a moment."

Lin Kexin: "..."

Boohoo, what should I do?

At that moment, she thought she was about to be danger.

But Lin Fan didn't have such thoughts at all.

When Lin Fan returned, he looked at Lin Kexin and felt that she was a little strange. "Are you feeling unwell?"

Lin Kexin shook her head. "No, no."

Lin Fan continued, "Mmm, you're very pretty. You don't have a boyfriend and your height and weight are also up to standard. Also, I remember that you're the school belle of Beijing Film Academy, right?"

Lin Kexin was shy. "Boss Lin, there are many girls who are prettier than me. I'm actually... not the school belle. It's all nonsense."

Lin Fan smiled. "You don't have to belittle yourself. You were very popular previously, but after what happened to Huace Pictures and you, your popularity dropped a lot. Although it increased later on, it still didn't meet my expectations. I suggest that you participate in some variety shows during this period of time. If you participate in variety shows, it should be okay."

Lin Kexin nodded. "I'll listen to Boss Lin's arrangements ~"

Lin Fan continued to ask, "What was your basic salary previously?"

After all, there were too many celebrities in the company, especially these key celebrities. Lin Fan couldn't remember the basic salary of many celebrities.

Lin Kexin shook her head. "No, Boss Lin. I was saved by you from Huace Pictures. You spent 200 million yuan. I haven't earned so much money for the company yet, so no matter how many endorsements or variety shows I take on, I'm willing to do them as long as I can earn money for the company."

The main reason why she said that was because she lacked money.

Due to the special dividend mechanism, she could only get 20%.

Furthermore, she didn't have any remuneration. This was the contract Lin Fan had signed with her back then. After all, Lin Fan had spent 200 million to terminate the contract. He couldn't lose money.

Even though Lin Kexin tried her best to take on endorsements, after deducting the taxes, she only earned one to two million yuan.

She did not have any remuneration either.

Even so, Lin Kexin did not have any complaints as she could live in the villa Lin Fan gave her and there would be delicious food every day.

But she was still short of money.

Her brother had a strange illness.

He needed an astronomical medical fee every day to survive.

1

And the daily medical fees were tens of thousands, or even hundreds of thousands.

Lin Kexin was indeed rich previously, but now, she was completely broke.

The company had new rules. Artists could not take on endorsements and act casually. Lin Kexin did not know what to do for a moment.

If there was no money to renew it, her brother would die.

Furthermore, Lin Kexin had already borrowed more than a million yuan from Chu Yaoyao. She still couldn't afford it.

Lin Kexin's family still had to live. All the money Lin Kexin earned had been sent home.

Lin Fan frowned. "How much do you earn?"

Lin Kexin said, "There's no remuneration, only 20-80% of the endorsement fee."

Lin Kexin was about to cry. She felt wronged, but she could not confide in others.

There was no reason for others to lend her much money. She did not dare to trouble others and just wanted to work hard.

"Why are you crying?" Lin Fan asked.

Then, Lin Kexin told Lin Fan everything about her family.

After Lin Fan heard that, he understood. Looking at Lin Kexin's red eyes, Lin Fan patted her head.

"Alright, stop crying," said Lin Fan.

Lin Kexin raised her head and looked at Lin Fan with red eyes.

Therefore, even if Lin Fan wanted to sleep with her, she would agree.

This was her only job. If Jiaxing Entertainment wanted to stop her from taking endorsements, she had no choice and could not get any money.

No other entertainment company would pay a sky-high penalty for her.

Her life could be said to be in Jiaxing Entertainment.

“I called you here today mainly because I have two things to tell you.”

“First, from next year onwards, the company will focus on nurturing you. Lin Kexin, I can tell you that I want to make you a top celebrity in China,” said Lin Fan.

Lin Kexin was too happy. “Thank you, Boss Lin!!”

Lin Fan continued, “The second thing is your salary. From today onwards, sign a new contract. The previous unequal contract will be invalid. However, the premise of the new contract is that you will always be an artiste of Jiaxing Entertainment. I don’t want the artiste I nurture to go to someone else’s company.”

Lin Fan smiled. “From now on, you will receive a salary of 30% for any movie you film. The company will take 70%. Due to the company’s new rules for endorsements, you won’t be able to take on so many endorsements. However, you will have a basic salary. Even if you don’t film for a year, you will still have a basic salary. It’s equivalent to a contract fee for you.”

Lin Kexin raised her beautiful eyes, not expecting much.

After all, this was the entertainment industry, not the livestreaming industry.

The contract fee and basic salary would not be too high.

However, she did not know if the money she earned would be able to save her brother.

Lin Fan took out a contract and said, "Your contract fee is ten million a year. This is also your basic salary. I can transfer it to your account now. However, this contract stipulates that for ten years, you will be an artiste of Jiaxing Entertainment."

Hearing Lin Fan say that, Lin Kexin was stunned.

Was this... really possible?

A basic salary of ten million.

In that case, her brother could be saved!

In Lin Kexin's opinion, Lin Fan was her benefactor!

Lin Kexin took the contract with trembling hands. Looking at the things on the contract, she cried tears of joy.

This was true!

Lin Fan's promises to her were all true!

Lin Kexin couldn't say anything. She didn't even know how to thank Lin Fan.

After all, a basic salary of 10 million meant that the company would have to spend a lot of money.

Lin Kexin jumped up happily and pounced into Lin Fan's arms. She kissed Lin Fan's cheek and wrapped her arms around his neck. She was touched.

She really didn't know how to thank Lin Fan. Lin Fan had simply saved her family.

"Boss Lin, thank you, but I don't know how to thank you. I will definitely work hard to repay your kindness to me!" Lin Kexin said happily in Lin Fan's arms.

Then, Lin Kexin realized what she had done and hurriedly let go of Lin Fan's neck.

She had actually taken the initiative to take advantage of her Prince Charming just now.

Lin Fan felt the soft and warm fragrance in his arms and pushed Lin Kexin away. He said with a dark expression, "Be careful in the future. There won't be a next time."

Seeing that Lin Fan wasn't furious, Lin Kexin said excitedly, "I know, I know. There won't be a next time!!"

Chapter 452: Lin Fan is Really the Right Person

Lin Kexin smiled and walked out of the office, her cheeks red.

What kind of experience was it to kiss her Prince Charming? She had really felt it just now.

The next person to enter was Lin Jingjing, Lin Fan's little fan.

"Boss Lin." Lin Jingjing stood obediently in front of Lin Fan. Her eyes were filled with admiration when she saw Lin Fan.

"Sit," said Lin Fan.

"Jingjing, we've known each other for a long time, so I won't stand on ceremony with you. What's your basic salary for coming to Jiaxing Entertainment?" Lin Fan asked.

"Boss Lin, I don't have a basic salary. Occasionally, I'll be a voice actor. A movie will earn me about 40,000 yuan. If I act, I won't film much and won't earn much," Lin Jingjing said honestly.

Only then did Lin Fan remember that when he established Jiaxing Entertainment, he didn't give all the celebrities a basic salary.

This basic salary was the so-called contract fee.

Unless an artiste was poached from elsewhere at a high price, they could pay a considerable contract fee. However, Jiaxing Entertainment's artistes basically did not have a contract fee.

Their salaries were also calculated according to their remuneration. Of course, for the dramas filmed by Jiaxing Entertainment, their artistes earned a higher share of the profits, while the artistes from other companies did not earn as much.

Lin Fan nodded. "Mmm, the salary isn't very high. Have you released a new song recently?"

Lin Jingjing shook her head. "Sigh, no. It's very difficult to produce a song. Ever since I heard the song you sang, I'm not satisfied with the song I made."

Lin Fan said, "It's fine. If we have time in the future, let's spend some time and I'll write you a few songs."

When Lin Jingjing heard that, her eyes lit up. "Thank you, Boss Lin ~ Boss Lin is too great. With Boss Lin helping me create songs, the audience will be able to hear very nice songs!"

Lin Fan smiled and nodded. "Jingjing, from today onwards, Jiaxing Entertainment will give you a contract fee of five million a year. Although this price isn't very high, this is your basic salary. Jiaxing Entertainment will help you manage your records, songs, and 70% of your income. The remuneration for any drama you film will be calculated separately. However, there's a request. Sign a ten-year contract with Jiaxing Entertainment. In other words, you will be a long-term member of Jiaxing Entertainment in the future."

Lin Fan thought that five million wasn't a lot, but Lin Jingjing's breathing quickened.

"Oh my god, five million... Boss Lin, this is too much." Lin Jingjing never dreamed that Lin Fan would give her such a high salary.

In reality, Lin Jingjing often did dubbing and occasionally acted. However, her main profession was singing. Lin Jingjing's voice was very nice and Lin Fan enjoyed her singing.

Her voice was naturally very nice, but even so, Lin Jingjing could not earn so much money. Could she earn millions with one song? It was very, very difficult.

Even if she went to hold a concert, she would not be able to earn so much money. Her annual income was at most a few million to ten million.

Now, her basic salary alone was five million.

It was simply... too blissful.

Even if she didn't do anything, she could get an annual salary of five million yuan at Jiaying Entertainment.

An annual salary of five million meant that her monthly salary was more than 400,000!

Lying down every day to earn more than 10,000 yuan, Lin Jingjing felt that her future would be very beautiful.

Of course, she wouldn't really lie down and earn money. Lin Fan was so good to her, so of course she had to work hard.

Lin Fan smiled and said, "Not much. Work hard. I don't want my people to be poached by other companies."

Lin Jingjing giggled. "Thank you, Boss Lin ~ Boss Lin. Jingjing will definitely work hard in the future to repay the company!"

Lin Fan smiled. "Alright, then sing a song first. I'll listen to it first."

Lin Jingjing blinked. "Alright, alright. Then I'll sing. It's just that I don't sing that well."

Then... the time for a song passed.

Lin Fan sat on the chair and listened to Lin Jingjing's singing silently.

After singing, Lin Fan felt that Lin Jingjing's future was limitless!

As long as she was nurtured well, Lin Jingjing would be a big singer in the future.

....

Then, Xu Yang walked in.

Usually, Lin Fan and Xu Yang were brothers. However, they could still be very clear about work.

“Xu Yang, let’s not talk about anything else.”

“An annual salary of ten million yuan. My salary and endorsements are the same as before,” Lin Fan said simply.

Xu Yang’s eyes lit up. “Lin Fan, how rich are you? You’re giving away 10 million for nothing?! Even if it’s in the past, we’ll still stay in Jiaxing Entertainment and work hard.”

Xu Yang was actually worried for Lin Fan. Even if the leader gave Lin Fan 500 million, he couldn’t spend it like this. Filming movies after that would cost a lot of money.

If it was all used to increase the benefits of his employees, where would Lin Fan find the money?

Although Lin Fan didn’t lack money and had so many companies behind him, this didn’t conflict with Jiaxing Entertainment.

Xu Yang would not feel good if Jiaxing Entertainment lost money.

Working here, there were no unspoken rules. It was all based on ability. He also liked the atmosphere here.

Lin Fan said, “The past is the past, the present is the present. I can guarantee that every one of you will become a big star in the future. I have to tie you guys up first. I can’t let you guys run away in the future.”

Xu Yang laughed. “Alright, I believe you. If anyone dares to run away, I’ll break their legs first.”

Then, it was Chu Yaoyao, Pang Duoduo, and the others.

Lin Fan calculated. He had spent 10 million on expanding Jiaxing Entertainment and 60 million on increasing the salaries of the celebrities.

He had only spent 70 million.

He still hadn't spent enough. It was best if he spent all the money he had. When the time came, he could make a television drama or movie and get a rebate.

The more the cost, the more the return.

At this thought, Lin Fan set another rule in the company.

When the employees of Jiaxing Entertainment found out, their eyes widened.

"D*mn!!"

"Our company is too good. I'm crying, I'm crying. The company's normal working hours are from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. As long as it's past 6 p.m., we'll give triple overtime pay. And if there's no special situation, we won't let overtime exceed 10 p.m."

"The company has also booked a special bus for the employees to pick them up for free. If it's not on the way, there's even a car to pick them up. Of course, the employees can drive themselves to and from work. Wow, is this our company's new benefit?"

"This company... is simply amazing. I'm glad I live in such a company!"

"D*mn, the company even gave us all, even our families, insurance. I love it!"

The employees of Jiaxing Entertainment were all too happy.

When Xia Wanqiu saw this decision, she smiled.

Indeed, Lin Fan was different from others.

Other entertainment companies were all thinking about how to squeeze employees dry.

Only Jiaxing Entertainment was doing this for their employees!

Such a working environment and such benefits made the employees full of motivation every day. It made Xia Wanqiu feel that she liked the right person.

Chapter 453: The Plan to Cultivate New Stars

Lin Fan was in his office, thinking about how to spend money within reason.

The company now had 200 employees, including the technical department, the directing team, and other staff.

What Lin Fan needed to do was to think of a way to spend more money so that he could earn more.

Unknowingly, it was time to get off work.

Just as the employees were about to get off work, they received news from Lin Fan.

“Everyone, don’t leave after work today. I’m giving everyone a special card from Walmart. There’s 1,500 yuan in cash every month. Everyone has worked hard. After work today, every employee of Jiaxing Entertainment can take this card and go shopping at Walmart!”

“Also, I want to say that these cards are all real-name cards. If I find out that any employee didn’t spend all the money in them at the end of the month, I won’t give them a renewal of 1,500 yuan in the second month. For everyone’s health, it’s necessary to eat more vegetables and fruits. When your results are better, there will be even more special supermarket cards,” said Lin Fan with a smile.

Hearing Lin Fan say that, the employees of Jiaxing Entertainment were too excited.

To them, things in the supermarket were very expensive.

However, many things in the supermarket were necessities for life. Every family needed them.

Whether it was buying groceries or fruits, they could buy them from the supermarket. Walmart's things were also quite safe.

Who would have thought that Lin Fan would give all the employees of Jiaxing Entertainment so many benefits?

"Ah ah ah, Boss Lin is too good. He's too considerate of his employees."

"That's great, that's great. I have to work well in the company in the future. I can't be a burden."

"That's right. Boss Lin treats us so well. This is probably the best company. If we don't work hard and get fired, we won't be able to find such a company again."

"There are really too few companies like this with human emotions. The key is that Boss Lin is so capable. This is the boldness of a big boss. No one else can compare to him."

Then, many employees of Jiaxing Entertainment went to Walmart to shop.

Lin Fan's series of policies completely increased the company's benefits.

One person could spend 1,500 yuan a month, 15,000 yuan for ten people, 150,000 yuan for a hundred people, and 200 people only cost 300,000 yuan.

To Lin Fan, it was still a drop in the bucket.

300,000. Even if it was multiplied ten times, it would only be 3 million.

It seemed like he had to spend more money.

If he didn't spend money, how could Lin Fan get more rebates from the system?

The next day.

Lin Fan went to the technical department, backstage production team, and special effects team.

Any television drama that was filmed well-required editing, dubbing, and much other tedious work.

Xue Kexin was also working here.

“Hello, Boss Lin.” Xue Kexin smiled respectfully.

“Hello, Boss Lin.”

“Hello, Boss Lin.”

Many staff stood up. When they saw Lin Fan coming to inspect, their expressions were tense.

“There’s no need to make the atmosphere so serious. I’m here to tell everyone something. Although I don’t like to work overtime, when Jiaxing Entertainment really starts working in the future, your workload will be very big.”

“When the time comes, you might work in the company or at home. No matter where you are, the company will give you enough overtime pay. Of course, in order to satisfy the needs of your work, every backstage production team staff, no matter which department, can get an Apple MacBook Pro 16-inch laptop.”

“I hope you guys can work hard in the future,” said Lin Fan with a smile. He waved his hand and the staff behind him opened a box.

The box was filled with the latest Apple laptops, and they were all top-notch. A computer cost more than 20,000 yuan.

“Wow... I’ve always wanted to buy such a good computer, but I can’t afford it.”

“Boss Lin actually gave us such a useful computer. Thank you, Boss Lin. We will definitely work hard!”

“Ah ah ah, I’m Boss Lin’s fan. Boss Lin is too good to everyone. I can treat such a good company as my home!”

“My 24-hour life belongs to the company! Even my life belongs to the company!”

As the saying went, it depended on how much the company paid and how much the employees contributed.

Initially, there were some lazy employees who did not dare to slack off after seeing how good the company’s benefits were.

Everyone was working hard. How could they have the cheek to slack off? If they were fired, they would really lose out.

Lin Fan had given them enough money and these employees were willing to risk their lives for the company.

Jiaxing Entertainment had a new lease on life!

After a series of arrangements were made, Jiaxing Entertainment began to recruit people and expand its scale.

Lin Fan also started his seclusion mode.

For half a month, Lin Fan had been writing new scripts.

Lin Fan was trying his best to create scripts for television dramas and movies.

At the same time, Lin Fan would absorb the opinions of many screenwriters. Some of the outstanding screenwriters in the company were also writing all sorts of outstanding scripts.

Two of the good scripts were handed over to Lin Kexin and Chu Yaoyao to act in. Fatty Duo and Xu Yang also started acting.

The entire Jiaxing Entertainment started working.

In reality, even if Jiaxing Entertainment didn't need Lin Fan to direct, the television dramas they produced were all top-notch.

Of course, if Lin Fan personally directed it, the drama would be even better.

Right now, the members of the various departments of Jiaxing Entertainment were all quite strong.

Half a month later, Lin Fan's new script was almost completed.

Lin Fan encountered a new problem.

That was, Jiaxing Entertainment's artistes were not enough!

After a new batch of directors and screenwriters joined the company, there were many outstanding scripts.

So many outstanding scripts had been changed by Lin Fan into top-notch works.

But there were too few artistes in Jiaxing Entertainment.

If there were no good actors, it was useless to just have a good script.

Although it was fine to work with celebrities from other companies, he would not earn that much.

Lin Fan decided that it was time to start nurturing newcomers!

"Su Muqing, how's the plan to nurture newcomers going?" Lin Fan asked.

Su Muqing raised her beautiful eyes and said, "Boss Lin, Jiaxing Entertainment has always been recruiting new people and looking at newcomers from various management companies. But in the current entertainment industry, it's very difficult for newcomers to stand out. There are also fewer newcomers with potential. Most of the newcomers are studying at Beijing Film Academy."

Lin Fan nodded. "Sure, then we'll start with Beijing Film Academy. This time, I'll personally make a trip there to see if there are any suitable newcomers. If there are, you can directly sign in to Jiaying Entertainment to film new movies and new dramas. We need many newcomers and these newcomers are also a source of longevity for the company."

Then, Lin Fan decided on his itinerary.

When the beautiful girls and handsome guys from Beijing Film Academy heard that Lin Fan was coming to Beijing Film Academy, they all exploded!

The legend of the current entertainment industry, the big boss of Jiaying Entertainment, Lin Fan, was going to personally come to Beijing Film Academy!

Chapter 454: How Can Lin Fan Be So Handsome?

Beijing Film Academy was the most famous film academy in China.

It was a school that countless people wanted to join.

Being able to enter this school represented honor, hope, and future.

Many famous celebrities had walked out of Beijing Film Academy.

Furthermore, Beijing Film Academy had a unique education method. Many students could learn a lot here.

After graduation, these students could enter the entertainment industry to film.

Of course, even in Beijing Film Academy, there were very few people who could become famous.

When Lin Fan was about to come to Beijing Film Academy, many students exploded.

Especially the girls. When they heard Lin Fan's name, their eyes lit up.

The current Lin Fan represented the highest level in the entertainment industry.

Although Lin Fan's Jiaxing Entertainment wasn't very famous, all the television dramas produced by Jiaxing Entertainment were extremely popular.

"Joy of Life" and "The Legend of Sword and Fairy" had long become popular on the Internet.

What made these students admire Lin Fan the most was that Lin Fan's acting skills were exceptionally outstanding.

"Oh my god, I heard that Lin Fan is coming to our school."

"Lin Fan? Really? It's that superstar, Lin Fan. At the same time, he's the chairman of Jiaxing Entertainment. I heard that he's also the vice president of Alibaba and a major shareholder of LV and Chanel..."

"Wow, Lin Fan is my idol. I want to see Lin Fan once, but I have no choice. Why do you think Lin Fan came to our school this time? He can't be here to play, right?"

"I think... Lin Fan might be here to look for someone in our school. I heard that Jiaxing Entertainment is recruiting artistes now and seems to be building some kind of star creation plan. I think it's pretty good. Maybe Lin Fan is coming to our school personally to see if there are any students with potential."

While they were still in class, many students had already started discussing in whispers.

The school did not hide this news.

Hearing the students say that, a male teacher wearing glasses said, "Nonsense. Didn't I tell you before? Most of these entertainment companies are here to scam newcomers. Now, many management companies are launching star creation plans to trick you into signing a contract with them. Then, they'll freeze you for five years. Once the contract is frozen, if you want to make a comeback, you'll have to pay an astronomical penalty. This is a way for some entertainment companies to earn money."

The male teacher's name was Shen Rui, and he was also a high-level teacher at Beijing Film Academy. He knew the routine of this industry very well.

A girl called Chu Yi asked, "Teacher, since these management companies have such methods, how can they enter our school?"

Shen Rui said, "These entertainment companies contacted the school directly. As teachers, we can't stop them. Beijing Film Academy can't reject the cooperation of all the entertainment companies. After all, there have been celebrities who have filmed many outstanding works in school over the years, such as your Senior Sister Lin Kexin."

Chu Yi nodded. "I understand. In other words... there's still a chance. What if Lin Fan is different from those entertainment companies?"

Shen Rui shook his head. "Do as you deem fit. If an entertainment company really wants to work with you, you can show me the contract first. Try not to be deceived."

Many students nodded.

The next day.

Lin Fan drove the Bugatti Veyron Ettore Bugatti to the entrance of Beijing Film Academy.

The Ettore Bugatti stopped at the entrance of Beijing Film Academy and quickly attracted everyone's attention.

If this car was on the streets, people might not recognize it.

If they were at the entrance of Beijing Film Academy, the security guards at the entrance and the students passing by would know them.

Because... this was Lin Fan's exclusive sports car!

"Wow, isn't this the Ettore Bugatti? I heard it's worth more than 200 million. It's a limited edition sports car..."

"Yeah, this sports car is too cool. It should be Lin Fan's car. Lin Fan is really here!"

“I love it, I love it. I thought it was a rumor. I didn’t expect to really see Lin Fan here. Lin Fan came to our school!”

“Lin Fan, Lin Fan, Lin Fan!”

Before Lin Fan got off the car, many girls were already cheering.

With Lin Fan’s current popularity, he could attract countless people in Beijing Film Academy.

Under the expectant gazes of many girls, Lin Fan slowly got out of the car.

The world stopped at this moment.

Everyone looked at Lin Fan.

This scene seemed to freeze.

Lin Fan... was too handsome.

A few girls were stunned on the spot.

They knew that Lin Fan was handsome, but they never expected him to be so handsome.

Indeed, in reality, it was completely different from in movies.

The security guard at the door stood respectfully in front of Lin Fan.

“Mr. Lin!” The security guard bowed slightly and said.

“Welcome to Beijing Film Academy, Mr. Lin!” another security guard said.

“Mr. Lin, don’t worry and park your car here. We will have someone to watch your car 24 hours a day and protect your sports car.” The security guard smiled.

Lin Fan nodded.

Then, Lin Fan walked towards the entrance of Beijing Film Academy.

The security guards heaved a sigh of relief. Of course, they had to protect Lin Fan's sports car 24 hours a day. After all, Lin Fan's sports car was worth more than 200 million.

If anything went wrong, they would not be able to afford it.

Just now, the principal of Beijing Film Academy had come personally.

Principal Jiang Changjian looked at Lin Fan and extended his hand from afar. "Boss Lin, I've heard a lot about you. I heard that you were coming to Beijing Film Academy and didn't welcome you. Please forgive me."

Boss Lin smiled. "There's no need to welcome me from afar. It's my honor that the principal came to welcome me personally."

Lin Fan also said a few polite words. He was already immune to such pleasantries.

Jiang Changjian looked at Lin Fan and smiled. "I wonder if Boss Lin will..."

Lin Fan said, "Principal Jiang, I won't say any polite words. I came to Beijing Film Academy this time to discover better seedlings. Jiaxing Entertainment wants to enter the movie industry in the future. At the same time, they will also develop in the television industry. Therefore, Jiaxing Entertainment needs fresh blood."

Lin Fan was very serious. Furthermore, Jiaxing Entertainment didn't have enough manpower now.

He needed more newcomers to nurture them and make them into big celebrities.

Only then would Jiaxing Entertainment really develop.

When Jiang Changjian heard that, he said, "I understand. The leader also said that I have to fully cooperate with you. Boss Lin, you can choose any student from Beijing Film Academy!"

"As long as these students have a chance to stand out in the future, I will help them. This is an honor that belongs to these students and our school!"
