Chapter 470: Breaking Record! Another Television Drama With Hundreds of Millions of Views!

“The Legend of Condor Heroes” had only aired for two days.

In these two days, it shocked the entire Internet again.

Weibo, Zhihu, all the major video sites, forums, Bilibili, Tieba, Tiktok, they had all gone crazy.

“Shocking. The best martial arts television drama in the history of China was personally directed by Lin Fan!”

“The Legend of Condor Heroes, which Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu starred in again, has only been broadcasted for two days and it’s already receiving good reviews!”

“The Legend of Condor Heroes was personally written and directed by Lin Fan. I have to say that Lin Fan’s creative and directing skills are too strong.”

All the forums were discussing the television drama “The Legend of Condor Heroes”.

Whether it was the actors’ acting skills or the scene production, the conflict in the plot had already exceeded everyone’s imagination.

The popularity of such a domestically-produced martial arts television drama exceeded everyone’s imagination.

Even Jiang Kun and Lin Weiwei from the Yangzhou Film Administration were a little surprised.

“Director Jiang, Director Lin Fan’s ‘The Legend of Condor Heroes’ has already become popular. This television drama is really popular. Why can Lin Fan create such good results every time he shoots a television drama?” Lin Weiwei said.

Chief Jiang smiled and said, "This must be a young man with potential. I have to say that Lin Fan's attainments in television dramas are already very high. Previously, Jiaxing Entertainment's war drama 'Drawing Sword' became one of the most classic war dramas. The audience also liked it."

Lin Weiwei nodded slightly and admired Lin Fan more.

After all, it was normal to film a popular television drama, but if every television drama could become popular, it could only be said that this person was too amazing!

Chief Jiang took out a cigarette. "But this is just a television drama. I'm very happy that it's popular. Most importantly, what kind of results can Lin Fan's movie 'Kung Fu Hustle' achieve? After all, there are many films competing with 'Kung Fu Hustle' during the Spring Festival period."

To put it bluntly, television dramas were for the audience of their own countries. It was very difficult to go overseas.

Many people had seen their own domestic television dramas, but how many foreign television dramas had they seen? However, there were also some American dramas. However, in the end, it was still very difficult for television dramas to go overseas and face huge cultural differences.

In comparison, movies were quite easy.

As long as it was a good movie, it would not be a problem for it to spread around the world.

A good movie could cross international boundaries!

However, there were no good movies in China at the moment!

There were even fewer good movies that spread overseas.

Even some of the movies with high box office sales in China were mostly foreign movies.

For example, Marvel, Harry Potter, and so on were classic examples.

However, it was very difficult to film a good movie.

With the current situation in the country, it was very difficult for domestic movies to stand out. They could not compare to foreign movies at the box office.

Occasionally, if he was lucky, there might be some good domestic movies.

This was also the main reason why Chief Jiang was worried.

He did not hope that domestic movies could go global, but at least he had to make the domestic audience like domestic movies first.

It would raise China's movies to another level.

This movie was personally directed by Lin Fan. Chief Jiang had high hopes for the movie produced by Jiaying Entertainment. Of course, he was also very worried.

Lin Weiwei nodded and giggled. "Chief Jiang, don't worry. That's Lin Fan's first movie. It might really become popular. Even if it doesn't, it's still his first movie. It's understandable ~ We can continue filming in the future!"

Chief Jiang took a puff of his cigarette and said, "That's true. I was too anxious. After all, Jiaying Entertainment has just started in the movie industry. We can't be too anxious."

...

Zhejiang TV.

The manager of Zhejiang TV looked at the data of "The Legend of Condor Heroes" and was a little stunned.

This viewership was a little terrifying.

"D*mn..." the manager said.

“This, this, this... Lin Fan is too awesome. On the first day, the viewership ratings of ‘The Legend of Condor Heroes’ were only 1.3%, but on the second day, the viewership ratings of ‘The Legend of Condor Heroes’ were as high as 4.8%!”

“It’s only the second day. How can there be such high viewership? It seems to be similar to the Legend of Sword and Fairy back then. No, it’s even higher than the viewership of the Legend of Sword and Fairy. It’s only the second day of broadcasting, but there’s already such high viewership!” The manager of Zhejiang Television did not expect the viewership of “The Legend of Condor Heroes” to be so high.

“Manager, not only that, look at the comments on this television drama on the Internet. It can be said to be close to the peak of Immortal Sword back then. Lin Fan’s television drama will always be popular. This television drama is no exception. All the indexes are rising. The Baidu search index has already reached ten million...” an employee said.

“D*mn, Lin Fan really didn’t disappoint me. He announced the viewership ratings of ‘The Legend of Condor Heroes’. Since he wants this television drama to become popular, our television station will add fuel to the fire!” The manager decided.

After it was announced, it immediately became a trending topic on Weibo.

[The Legend of Condor Heroes has a viewership rating of 4.8 in just two days!]

Other than that, there was also the official Weibo post of Tencent Arts and iQiyi.

On the first day alone, “The Legend of Condor Heroes” had already exceeded 100 million views on the Internet!

Of course, this was only the number of views, not the number of viewers. However, this also meant that The Legend of Condor Heroes was extremely popular!

“Oh my god, this is too exaggerated. How can Director Lin Fan’s Legend of Condor Heroes be so popular?”

“That’s right. This television drama is really good. The viewership is so high, and even the viewership is so terrifying.”

“As far as I know, there are only three television dramas with over 100 million views in two days. The second season of Joy of Life, the Legend of Sword and Fairy series, and this ‘The Legend of Condor Heroes’!”

“That’s right. Jiaxing Entertainment has filmed other television dramas before, but they have never been as popular as this television drama.”

“He might be able to create the peak of the Immortal Sword series again. I heard from the comments on the Internet previously that Lin Fan has already exhausted his talent. In the end, the Immortal Sword series is only the beginning!”

“Is this what a big boss is like? The television dramas they film will always become popular!”

Faced with the overwhelming praise online, Lin Fan just smiled.

He was not too surprised. This television drama was indeed not bad, and the artistes filmed it quite diligently.

However, this was only the beginning.

The true highlight of “The Legend of Condor Heroes” was the middle and late stages of the plot!

If this result alone surprised everyone, then everyone was too surprised.

After all, the climax of this television drama had not really arrived yet!

Chapter 471: Kung Fu Hustle Released During the Spring Festival!

Two weeks later.

“The Legend of Condor Heroes” was already in the middle of broadcasting.

The discussion on the Internet had reached a terrifying number.

It could be said to be a national discussion!

Generally speaking, the main force of television dramas was women. Because men were busy with work and had complicated careers, they were not very interested in television dramas.

But this was also classified.

For example, women liked dolls more, men liked toys more, and so on. The way men and women thought was also different.

For example, women would be more inclined to watch television dramas about romance, while men would be more inclined to war and martial arts dramas.

Therefore, some television dramas could attract a large number of female viewers, and some television dramas could attract male viewers.

There were very few television dramas that could attract both genders at the same time.

In order to prevent this from happening, some entertainment companies would let popular young actors act as the male lead in war films and martial arts films.

This way, there would be male and female audiences who liked a television drama together, but the effect was not ideal.

However, there was no such polarization in "The Legend of Condor Heroes".

What was a phenomenal television drama? It ignored gender differences and attracted all men, women, old, and young!

Now, it had reached a very terrifying number.

The viewership ratings reached 6.8%.

The viewership had already exceeded 600 million!

In total, the popularity of The Legend of Condor Heroes had reached more than a billion!

The popularity of the discussion did not represent the number of people, but the popularity of one billion was still unimaginable.

This meant that at least 60 to 70 million people had joined the discussion!

The audience for The Legend of Condor Heroes had already reached 60 to 70 million.

Jiaying Entertainment had achieved a true victory.

The employees of Jiaying Entertainment were all a little happy.

“He’s really popular now, but I don’t think Boss Lin is that happy. Or could it be that all of this was within Boss Lin’s expectations?” Xue Kexin smiled in admiration.

“That’s right. That’s Boss Lin. Before he filmed this television drama, he probably had such expectations. If the next drama, ‘The Condor Heroes’, is broadcasted, it might be even more popular than now,” Lin Jingjing said.

“Boss Lin is really... omnipotent. The viewership ratings exceeded 6.8%. I don’t even know how he did it. Although it hasn’t exceeded The Legend of Sword and Fairy, Boss Lin’s first martial arts drama has already created such results,” Xue Kexin sighed.

“Boss Lin is simply like a god, creating results that countless people can’t catch up to.” Lin Jingjing smiled sweetly.

After all, that was Lin Fan.

Lin Fan’s television dramas could always give people surprises.

Even the employees of Jiaying Entertainment were paying attention to this television drama. Even the internal employees were watching it.

After all, the effect of filming on the spot and on camera was definitely different.

During this period of time, the employees of Jiaxing Entertainment were extremely busy.

All sorts of endorsements and advertisements swarmed over.

Although Lin Fan didn't let Jiaxing Entertainment's artistes take on endorsements, this didn't mean that they couldn't.

Lin Fan agreed to endorse many good quality products.

He would be busy for a long time every time he accepted an endorsement.

The entire company was already busy.

Lin Kexin and Xu Yang had many endorsements.

There were also many celebrities from Jiaxing Entertainment who became more popular and participated in various variety shows.

Even Xia Wanqiu participated in the Keep Running Yellow River chapter, and Su Xiaoyu participated in the variety show of ace versus ace.

The two girls were extremely busy. Only Su Muqing was by Lin Fan's side. She didn't accept any endorsements.

After all, compared to other celebrities, she was not very popular. It was mainly because Su Muqing had not appeared in the television drama, The Legend of Condor Heroes.

Lin Fan did a simple calculation...

In the two weeks or so that the television drama was broadcasted, Jiaxing Entertainment had earned more than 30 million!

The endorsement fee had already reached such a terrifying figure.

The number of fans of all the celebrities was increasing.

The overall popularity was also rising crazily.

Jiaying Entertainment's reputation was also rising crazily.

The celebrities of Jiaying Entertainment also became popular.

There were also celebrities from other entertainment companies who were lucky enough to act in the television drama The Legend of Condor Heroes. Their popularity also increased by a level.

When they saw this result, the people from Mavericks Entertainment fell silent.

CEO Tang Yuan and shareholder Lin Ying were silent.

They hadn't expected Lin Fan to achieve such results.

"CEO Tang, I didn't expect that someone would be able to film two television dramas and a movie at the same time and make this television drama so popular and interesting... Although I really don't want to say this, the television drama Condor Heroes is indeed interesting enough. I follow it every day..." Lin Ying said.

Tang Yuan glanced at Lin Ying, who immediately stopped talking.

After a long time, Tang Yuan sighed.

"Lin Fan's uniqueness is something that we can't surpass. On television, he's the best person in China. No one can surpass him. The only person who can surpass him is probably himself." Tang Yuan was defeated.

"Boss Lin, what should our company do next?" Lin Ying asked.

Tang Yuan raised her beautiful eyes, as sharp as an eagle locking onto its prey. “There’s no need to be afraid. Lin Fan is indeed invincible in the field of television dramas, but in the movie industry, no one can stop Mavericks Entertainment.”

“I want to see what kind of results Jiaying Entertainment can achieve with the movie they filmed in two months. This is also a good opportunity for us to trample on Jiaying Entertainment!” Tang Yuan smiled.

In the movie industry, Mavericks Entertainment had never been afraid of anyone.

This was the confidence of Mavericks Entertainment.

The confidence of the strongest entertainment company in China!

“After all, our company’s ‘I Am Really Invincible in Douluo’ is a very good animation. It cleverly used the Douluo theme and even obtained copyrights from Tang San. No matter what, this movie won’t lose to Lin Fan’s temporary movie!”

Tang Yuan smiled confidently.

...

On the same day, there were still ten days before the Chinese New Year. Lin Fan officially decided to announce the news of the movie ‘Kung Fu Hustle’.

Jiaying Entertainment’s movie ‘Kung Fu Hustle’ was released at the same time in cinemas all over the country!

It was scheduled for the Spring Festival!

When the news was announced, the entire Internet exploded again.

‘Kung Fu Hustle’ would be Jiaying Entertainment’s first movie!

This movie was scheduled for the Spring Festival, which meant that he would be under a lot of pressure. His first movie might not be able to achieve very good results.

There were only ten days left. Jiaxing Entertainment did not have time to promote this movie. After all, they had been too busy recently.

When this news broke out, all the major entertainment companies were stunned.

Jiaxing Entertainment chose to release a movie during the Spring Festival. To Lin Fan, who didn't have enough experience in producing movies, wasn't this courting death?

Chapter 472: Filming Screening Rate, Attitudes From All Sides

As Jiaxing Entertainment released the latest news, all the major cinemas reposted it.

As for the movie, 'Kung Fu Hustle', it was officially scheduled for Chinese New Year!

With Lin Fan and CEO Wang's relationship, this was nothing.

Of course, the Spring Festival meant that the competition would be quite intense.

There was no doubt that only big directors and big companies could film movies that could be released during the Spring Festival.

Ordinary movies could not even be released in cinemas, let alone during the Spring Festival screening.

However, the main leads of 'Kung Fu Hustle' were not Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu, but Xu Yang.

Xu Yang became the male lead of 'Kung Fu Hustle' and Su Muqing acted as the female lead, but there were very few scenes in the preview.

"Little Li, all the cinemas in Wanda should screen more seatings of 'Kung Fu Hustle'. Boss Lin is also my friend. You can't treat 'Kung Fu Hustle' as if it's the most ordinary movie," CEO Wang of Wanda personally said.

To CEO Wang, 100 million was a small goal. However, when it came to Lin Fan, CEO Wang valued it very much. Lin Fan had personally come to tell him that he wanted to release a movie and CEO Wang would give him face.

The more screenings there were, the higher the exposure. Of course, the essence of a movie's box office earnings was still the quality of the movie.

"CEO Wang, I understand. It's just that Lin Fan hasn't filmed a movie before. I'm afraid..." Li Zhengyi said with a hesitant expression. After all, he was in charge of Wanda Cinemas all over the country. If the number of films filmed for 'Kung Fu Hustle' increased, the number of films filmed for other outstanding movies would decrease. It was already quite good that Lin Fan's first movie could be filmed in cinemas and during the Spring Festival. If the quality of 'Kung Fu Hustle' didn't work out, they would lose a lot of money. They might even lose more than a billion yuan.

There were too many outstanding movies during the Chinese New Year period. Although the movie market was average now and all kinds of movies could be filmed, the quality of the movies that could be released during the Chinese New Year period was still not bad and could obtain good box office sales.

"A loss of one billion..." CEO Wang was also a little hesitant. This was not a small sum.

"CEO Wang, why don't we give Boss Lin face and screen 'Kung Fu Hustle' for more than three days? As for the subsequent screenings, let's see how the quality of Boss Lin's movie is. If the quality is high, we can increase the screening frequency. If the quality is low, let's lower it," Li Zhengyi said.

"Alright, make the arrangements. I still have work to do. I'll get going first," CEO Wang said and waved his hand.

"Alright." Li Zhengyi nodded. He felt pressured to be in this position. After all, the cinema also had to earn money. It was impossible to increase the number of screenings for someone just because he had a good relationship with them. This would cause them to lose a lot of money.

Li Zhengyi felt that Lin Fan's movie was very difficult to become popular. After all, television dramas and movies were completely different concepts. Usually, the first movie a company filmed would fail. It would be very difficult for the audience to like it.

A television drama could slowly advance the plot, but a movie could not. The audience, pace, and plot of the movie would be more demanding. If it was not handled well, it would completely collapse.

“CEO Li, that’s CEO Wang. How dare you say that about CEO Wang’s request? I’m impressed.” A manager followed beside CEO Li.

“I’m in charge of the screening of the entire Spring Festival movie lineup. There are some things that I still have to say. To be honest, I don’t think Lin Fan’s movie will become popular. The first movie is just to test the waters. It’s already not bad if it can be screened during the Spring Festival. Lin Fan also wants to use his connections to increase the number of screenings. If it wasn’t for CEO Wang, I wouldn’t even let him appear during the Spring Festival. Let’s give Jiaxing Entertainment 10% of the screening rate for the first three days,” Li Zhengyi said.

“10%? But this was personally proposed by CEO Wang...” the manager said.

Li Zhengyi smiled. “It’s fine. If there’s a problem, I’ll take responsibility. I can’t stand people who rely on connections. If the movie doesn’t have quality, it’ll be good enough to give him a 10% screening rate. If the movie’s box office doesn’t work in three days, the screening rate will be reduced to 1%.”

Li Zhengyi was very confident. He felt that nothing would happen if he did this.

If the movie was not popular, the screening rate would naturally decrease. This was something that everyone knew.

Only some outstanding movies would have their screening rates increase to 20% or 30%.

At that time, even CEO Wang would not be able to blame him.

Although CEO Wang was his immediate superior, earning money was still the most important thing. Could it be that he would rather lose more than a billion yuan because of Lin Fan? This was a stupid thing to do.

...

At the same time, the people from the various entertainment companies were all a little shocked.

After all, Jiaxing Entertainment did not even have time to advertise. The Spring Festival was in ten days.

Without publicity, how could 'Kung Fu Hustle' become popular without holding a press conference and promoting it to the fans?

At Yuehua Entertainment, CEO Li sighed. "Lin Fan is still too anxious. Although his ability is not bad, it's difficult to release a movie in such a hurry..."

CEO Liu of Huace Pictures raised his finger. "Hehe, Lin Fan is indeed very capable, but he shouldn't have entered the movie market. Jiaxing Entertainment hasn't even completely stabilized the television drama market and they're already stepping into the movie industry. They're even specially competing with other movies for screening times during the Spring Festival. I wonder how many people they'll offend this time."

It could be said that the outside world wasn't optimistic about Lin Fan's martial arts.

On all the forums, Tieba, and Zhihu, there were big names who commented on 'Kung Fu Hustle'.

"Jiaxing Entertainment's television dramas are not bad, but it seems that the recently popular television dramas of Jiaxing Entertainment all rely on Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu as the main leads, right?"

"Only these few people can do it. Lin Fan wants to film a movie while filming a television drama. Is he trying to earn money?"

"Of course. It's to trick innocent passers-by. I think this movie is very ordinary. What's there to see in Kung Fu Hustle? It's just going to be about martial arts. I won't watch this lousy movie anyway."

"The old fans of 'The Legend of Condor Heroes' won't want to watch Kung Fu. If it was a movie starring Lin Fan personally, I would want to watch it. What's there to watch if this isn't Lin Fan? I can say very clearly that I would rather starve to death than watch 'Kung Fu Hustle'!"

...

Before the movie was released, it was already labeled as bad.

There were already many people on the Internet who were rushing for 'Kung Fu Hustle'. They felt that such a movie was made to earn money.

China's movie market was indeed ordinary, but it was very difficult to deceive the audience.

Soon, it was almost time for the premiere.

'Kung Fu Hustle' also released a simple promotional video and a list of main leads.

It would have been fine if it hadn't been released. Once the list of main leads was released, negative comments flew everywhere online.

"Who is Su Muqing? The supporting actress who acted as Twenty Your Life On?"

"Su Muqing looks alright, but her acting skills are... indescribable."

"Even Xu Yang is acting in the movie? How good can this movie be? I'm not watching it anymore."

"If I watch this lousy movie, I'll call myself a dog!"

Chapter 473: Master, Do You Like Me?

Jiaying Entertainment.

Faced with the rumors on the Internet, the employees were a little indignant.

Only the employees of Jiaying Entertainment knew how much effort it took to film this movie.

Lu Benkai punched the table, hurting himself. "D*mn, this movie was personally directed by Boss Lin. I didn't interfere the entire time, but someone actually said that this was a lousy movie. Did they see this movie and give such an evaluation?"

Xue Kexin nodded. "Our post-production team spent a lot of effort to complete the special effects of this movie. We followed Boss Lin's instructions step by step."

"We even hired a very professional voice actor. Even Lin Jingjing personally came to dub," Xue Kexin said seriously.

Lu Benkai sighed. "I remember that Xu Yang was injured once when he was filming this movie. Everyone was very serious about filming the movie. There were also many extras who rarely rested during the 18 hours of continuous filming. Many scenes were filmed over and over again. Everyone was exhausted."

Liu Mou sighed. "These extras are really professional. Without them, it would be difficult for us to film a movie so well."

Liu Mou and Lu Benkai looked at Su Muqing and said, "Muqing, especially you. Although you don't have any lines, the scenes you filmed were all personally instructed by Boss Lin. He even demonstrated what to do. Do you want to tell Boss Lin and see what we can do? If the public opinion on the Internet is like this, no matter how good the movie is, I'm afraid it'll be difficult to get tickets..."

Su Muqing shook her head. There was no concern in her pure eyes and she did not look angry at all. "I've already asked Boss Lin. He said that we don't have to care about these public opinions. When the movie is released, everyone will know how good this movie is."

"Boss Lin also said... facts speak louder than words!"

...

In the office, Lin Fan received a call from his mother.

"Mom," Lin Fan said on the phone.

"Lin Fan, when will you come home? Your father and I are waiting for you at home. Also, we've seen your television drama recently. Your father and I are both watching 'The Legend of Condor Heroes', especially your father. He's been watching it happily every day in front of the television," his mother said.

"Mom, I might not be able to go back for the new year. I'm still busy with work in the company and the company's new movie is about to premiere," said Lin Fan with a smile.

"Ah? You're not coming back for the new year? That's fine. I saw that many people on the Internet are criticizing your new movie recently. It's fine. Don't feel any pressure. Mom sent you some potatoes and cabbages from the village. Remember to get the express delivery." His mother's voice rang out.

Lin Fan nodded. "Don't worry, Mom. I'll eat."

Lin Fan's mother continued, "You're really together with Xia Wanqiu? She is such a good girl. She even came to our house in junior high school. At that time, I felt that this girl was suitable for you, haha."

Lin Fan nodded. "Mmm, we're together."

Lin Fan's mother was even happier. "Alright, alright. Then when you're not busy, remember to bring her back for me and your father to take a look."

Lin Fan said, "That's nothing. We haven't even gotten married yet."

Lin Fan's mother waved her hand. "Haha, let's not talk about it. It's good to get married early. Your father and I are old. It would be great if we could have grandchildren early."

After hanging up, Lin Fan sighed.

He also wanted to go home and take a look. He had no choice.

There was a knock on the door.

Su Xiaoyu skipped in with a cup of milk tea and handed it to Lin Fan. "Here, this is the first cup of milk tea in autumn. I'm treating you."

Lin Fan took the hot milk tea and smiled. "You actually bought milk tea for me. You've grown up."

Su Xiaoyu blinked her eyes like a little bird. She held the milk tea and straw and shook Lin Fan's arm. "Mmm... the straw is so hard. It can't be inserted. Master, help me."

Lin Fan looked at Su Xiaoyu helplessly and helped her insert the straw into the milk tea. "Alright, has it been hard on you during the recording these few days?"

Su Xiaoyu nodded and said aggrievedly, "That's right. It's so tiring. If I had known earlier, I wouldn't have recorded the variety show. There's also a male guest who wants to touch my leg. That male guest always likes to take advantage of others."

Lin Fan immediately put down the milk tea and stood up. Even his aura had changed.

“Who?” Lin Fan asked.

“Aiya, Master, he didn’t succeed. That day, I was wearing a dress that reached my knees. That male guest wanted to place his hand on my leg. Hmph, I rejected him.” Su Xiaoyu blinked like a little fox, looking like a smart and quick-witted student.

Seeing that Lin Fan was angry, Su Xiaoyu giggled. “There’s no one here ~ I just wanted to see Master’s reaction. Now that I see that Master still cares about me, hehe.”

Lin Fan finally relaxed. He walked forward and patted Su Xiaoyu’s head. “Don’t joke about such things in the future.”

Seeing how good Lin Fan was to her, Su Xiaoyu was a little touched. She looked at Lin Fan blankly. “Master, you weren’t even so good to me in the past. Now that you’re so good to me, do you like me? Then... just be my boyfriend ~ Although you already have Sister Wanqiu, I’ll be your little lover ~”

“Lover?” Lin Fan smiled bitterly and knocked Su Xiaoyu’s head. “Are you dreaming? Do I look like a scumbag?”

Su Xiaoyu shook her head innocently. “Master isn’t a scumbag. Master is being sincere ~ It’s normal to be unable to withstand beautiful girls.”

Lin Fan thought about it and couldn’t refute it. Su Xiaoyu was indeed very pretty. The people who liked her could line up from Shanghai to the capital. He wasn’t joking.

He said righteously, “Don’t mention being a lover anymore. I’m not that kind of person. Don’t think too much. I’m only good to you because you’re an artiste in the company.”

Su Xiaoyu blinked. “Master is lying. Your eyes are always darting around. After looking at my eyes, you secretly looked at my breasts and long legs. Men are all pigs. They only know how to peek at girls when they’re not paying attention.”

Lin Fan chuckled and retorted, “Do you have breasts?”

Compared to Xia Wanqiu, Su Xiaoyu’s greatest disadvantage was obvious.

Su Xiaoyu was not angry. She pouted and said, “Master, you can try. We’re all girls. How can there be nothing?”

Lin Fan had lost.

He was already shameless enough and directly hit a girl’s weakest spot. He didn’t expect Su Xiaoyu to counterattack like this.

Who dared to touch it?

If he touched it and the cat saw him, how could he survive in the future?

Lin Fan hadn’t even settled his wife and he wanted to touch the other women around him. What if Su Xiaoyu was just testing him and Xia Wanqiu found out? Wouldn’t he lose out if he couldn’t even touch Xia Wanqiu?

Looking at Lin Fan’s terrified expression, Su Xiaoyu’s lips curled up slightly. She took the milk tea and skipped away.

Sitting in his office, Lin Fan sighed.

A woman who could flirt was really too terrifying.

In the past, Su Xiaoyu was not so good at flirting. Now, he felt that he could not take it anymore.

Lin Fan helplessly calmed his lower body. He had already thought it through. After the movie was released, he would take down the cat first!

Chapter 474: Kung Fu Hustle Released, Shocking Everyone!

There were only three days left until the premiere.

In these three days, the staff of Jiaxing Entertainment started to get busier and more nervous.

According to previous years, everyone should be on vacation.

Or rather, any superstar could appear at the Spring Festival Gala.

However, Jiaxing Entertainment's artistes did not appear at the Spring Festival Gala this year. After all, the Spring Festival Gala had to be prepared a long time in advance.

During this period of time, Jiaxing Entertainment had been busy. How could they have time to participate in programs like the Spring Festival Gala?

There was no time to attend the Lantern Festival Gala, the Spring Festival Gala, or the banquets of the various television stations.

Everyone's goal in Jiaxing Entertainment was to film 'Kung Fu Hustle'.

This was Jiaxing Entertainment's first movie. If it failed, everyone's confidence would be affected.

The Spring Festival atmosphere was getting stronger and stronger. There were also couplets pasted at the entrance of Jiaxing Entertainment. Occasionally, the sound of fireworks could be heard outside.

Today, Lin Fan announced a major decision.

"Everyone, although the movie 'Kung Fu Hustle' is very important, everyone has finished their work. I hereby announce that all employees of Jiaxing Entertainment are officially on vacation. The airline tickets will be reimbursed. Those who should go home, go home immediately and accompany your families and parents. After the Lantern Festival is over, you can come back to the company to work," said Lin Fan.

When they heard this news, the company's employees did not do anything.

Jiaxing Entertainment gave their employees too good benefits, and the atmosphere here was very good.

Coupled with the fact that the company was very nervous about the movie 'Kung Fu Hustle', no one wanted to leave.

Hearing Lin Fan's holiday notice, none of the employees were happy.

Accompanying his family was important, but work was equally important.

"Boss Lin, but..." Su Muqing raised her beautiful eyes and looked at Lin Fan.

"There aren't so many buts. You should also go home for the holidays to accompany your family," said Lin Fan with a smile. He looked at Su Muqing. "Even my assistant has to have some holidays occasionally. Even if you don't have holidays, give me some personal space as your boss, haha."

After Lin Fan finished speaking, he saw that no one had any reaction. Lin Fan was angry. "I said that the company is on holiday. From today onwards, the company will be locked up. If you don't want to go home, stay in the company. I'll lock you all up."

Lin Jingjing nodded. "Then I'll go home. I'll bring my parents and grandfather to watch the movie together."

Xu Yang smiled as well. "Alright, we'll be leaving then."

Many celebrities also chose to go home and enjoy the Chinese New Year holiday.

Only the two girls from Jiaying Entertainment did not leave.

One was Xia Wanqiu, and the other was Su Xiaoyu.

Su Xiaoyu blinked and looked at Lin Fan. "Oh, there are only three people left. Will I be a third wheel for the two of you?"

Lin Fan smiled and said, "Of course. You're the third wheel."

In the end...

A minute later.

Xia Wanqiu and Su Xiaoyu held hands and left, leaving Lin Fan alone in a daze.

Wasn't Su Xiaoyu the third wheel? Why did it feel like he was the third wheel?

....

Tomson Riviera, villa.

Lin Fan, Xia Wanqiu, and Su Xiaoyu also enjoyed a very good Chinese New Year holiday.

Perhaps someone would ask why Lin Fan didn't go home to accompany his parents.

The main thing was that the movie was about to be released and there were still many things to do at the company. If he went home, he would not have time to deal with the company's matters.

Especially at this juncture, there would be many people who wanted to mess with Lin Fan.

There were also many people who wanted to see Jiaying Entertainment make a fool of themselves.

New Year's Eve was here.

In the villa, Lin Fan made a beautiful feast.

Then, Lin Fan, Xia Wanqiu, and Su Xiaoyu ate happily.

Especially Su Xiaoyu. She felt so blissful.

A strong sense of the new year filled the three of them.

Although Lin Fan and Su Xiaoyu weren't a couple, Lin Fan was already used to this kind of life. Su Xiaoyu didn't have a good relationship with her mother, so she celebrated the Chinese New Year with Lin Fan.

The first day of the new year.

All the Spring Festival movies were released!

They were all available at the same time!

After seeing the filming for the Spring Festival, Lin Fan frowned. "The screening rate doesn't seem to be high."

Su Xiaoyu did the math. "Yes Master. There's only a 10% screening rate. Looks like the cinema doesn't think highly of Master's movie."

Xia Wanqiu blinked and said, "It's fine. Then let's go watch the movie together ~ I don't know what I acted in this movie. Xu Yang and Su Muqing's acting skills are quite good..."

Lin Fan smiled and said, "Alright, let's go watch a movie!"

"But if I go to the cinema to watch a movie, there will be too many people. Let's go to the private cinema at home. I have films," said Lin Fan with a smile.

The private cinema at home was even more advanced than the cinema.

However, there weren't as many seats as in the cinema. There was only a soft sofa and a big screen.

Lin Fan sat in the middle naturally.

Then... Xia Wanqiu sat on the left while Su Xiaoyu sat on the right.

Why did this feel like he was hugging two women?

Lin Fan smiled bitterly. Couldn't Su Xiaoyu be intimate with Xia Wanqiu at home?

It was very difficult to do anything during the movie.

At the same time, all the cinemas were filled.

Although there were countless haters on the Internet defaming Lin Fan and the movie 'Kung Fu Hustle', many people who liked Lin Fan wouldn't go on Weibo, Zhihu, or Tieba.

Just like many people who read novels and never commented, it could not be denied that these people had always been around.

“That’s right. This movie was filmed by Lin Fan. Although many people on the Internet are criticizing Lin Fan, I know how strong Lin Fan’s ability to be a director is. I’ve seen every television drama he directs. It’s far beyond the level of others. Maybe Lin Fan’s movie is also very good.”

“No matter what the people on the Internet say, let’s go take a look first. If it’s really not good, I’ll still criticize the movie ‘Kung Fu Hustle’.”

“Let’s go, let’s go. Although it wasn’t Lin Fan who acted, Xu Yang’s acting was alright. Although Xu Yang isn’t as handsome as Lin Fan...”

“Sigh, I can barely watch it. I really can’t find any good movies.”

....

Then, the movie started.

There were no scenes of Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu in the movie ‘Kung Fu Hustle’.

Many people on the Internet had said that the main reason why Jiaxing Entertainment’s television dramas were so popular was because Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu acted in the same drama at the same time.

Without Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu, Jiaxing Entertainment wouldn’t be popular no matter what they filmed.

In the first movie of ‘Kung Fu Hustle’, the attendance was only about 60%.

In other words, it was not full at all.

The public didn’t have high expectations for Lin Fan’s movie.

This was because there were more movies in the country that were made to earn money.

After the first screening was over...

At the same time, all the cinemas in the country were in an uproar!
