

BLACK PLAIN 100

Chapter 100: A High Level Beauty Treatment!

Quickly, ten days passed, and Minos and Ruth had already fully recovered from the fight against Leroy's duo.

Minos has had no injuries in that fight, worse than the ones he constantly receives from fighting Ruth.

As for his beautiful companion, all her wounds had healed, and none of them had left any scar on his beautiful white skin.

With Ruth's grade-2 spiritual pills, even severe injuries could be treated, leaving minimal scars on her body. Therefore, she was not concerned about having her beautiful body stained by scars.

As in the Spiritual World, even if someone got some scars after the fights, that could still be resolved each time the cultivator went up to the next stage. Not only did the body receive a spiritual cleansing that removed the toxins present in the cells, but it also reduced blemishes, scars, marks, etc.

The advancement in cultivation could be seen as a top-notch beauty treatment!

Even an ordinary person could become beautiful after reaching a certain level of cultivation. This was also one of the reasons why people were so happy to increase their strength.

After all, who doesn't like to feel good about their own appearance?

Even the fat in the body could be eliminated by moving from one stage to another!

Of course, people could still put on weight, but that could be easily resolved by stepping up, and from there, following an appropriate lifestyle to maintain their new appearance!

However, this was valid only in the lower stages, when the cultivation was very small. At high levels, the cultivator could alter several characteristics at higher levels just using his spiritual energy.

Of course, miracles couldn't be done. A person with Oswald couldn't just ignore his age and look young.

But someone could still keep his weight under control, reduce wrinkles, blemishes, scars, hair color, etc. All of this through the continuous use of spiritual energy.

Anyway, Ruth and Minos were very well. They had not encountered any other problem like the previous one at that time.

At this point, they had already traveled more than two-thirds of the way to the capital of the Cromwell Kingdom, where the Spiritual Tournament was to take place.

In the meantime, it had been dawn a few hours ago in the city where Minos and Ruth were. Right now, the two of them were in the hotel room that they had rented while they had their morning fun.

They have been doing this a lot lately, as there are no more wild and natural areas in their path. With that, every day, Minos and Ruth were sleeping in different cities, having plenty of time for their sexual activities...

But they were not neglecting their culture or training.

The two cultivated daily while they stopped to train their fighting techniques every other day. They also continued to have their fighting sessions constantly, as this provided very challenging training for Minos.

He was used to stealing the spiritual energy of his enemies and limiting their speed, so he could end up believing that he was invincible for having such facilities. That way, fighting someone like Ruth could help him build his character, so he wouldn't make the common mistake of overestimating himself!

There were countless high-level cultivators in the Spiritual World and even those who had techniques as good as Minos.

So, it was an excellent way for the young Stuart to prepare for his future, in which he would undoubtedly face this type of opponent!

Anyway, at this very moment, Minos and Ruth were 'playing' on the big bed in the room where they were.

The sensual young woman was riding on Minos' lap. At the same time, she lifted her beautiful cheeks up and down her ass, making noises of beating meat ringing across the room.

Pah! Pah! Pah!

There were many drops of sweat on her back while her straight black hair rose and fell in the air.

It was a magnificent scene, one that would surely make anyone stop admiring it for a second if they saw it.

Ruth's naked body was almost hypnotic. It had proportions that could be described by just one word. Perfect!

Her full breasts were not so big, but it was still much more significant than average. It was perfectly firm and round, while its pink nipples were so graceful that it would make any man want to suck on them.

Pah! Pah!

"Ahn ~ Mmmm ~"

Ruth's sweet moans sounded as she and Minos continued their meat-stroking movements when her hole began to squeeze young Stuart's stick further.

"Ohh... I'm going to come..." Minos said in a slow voice, looking at Ruth's beautiful face.

"Mmm ~ I'm getting there too ~" She replied before bringing her cherry lips to Minos's mouth and then kissing him passionately.

"Mmmm ~ I'm coming ~"

Ruth squirmed as she broke the kiss with Minos to let out a last moan before finally releasing her juices, which soon mixed with young Stuart's seeds.

She then threw herself at Minos' chest and smiled happily.

For her, whenever she felt that way, she thanked him for having been sent to the Black Plain to accompany Minos. Before that, Ruth would never have thought about how good sex could be!

'Ahh! What will my master think after discovering what I've been doing with Minos?' That question crossed Ruth's mind. 'Did she already expect that this could happen?'

Ruth knew that Maisie, Minos's mother, would know what had happened between the two of them the moment she saw her.

There were several ways to discover this. Among its, two were the simplest, whether it was, first, from the smell, and second, from the person's aura.

For the smell, as long as the case happened in a matter of a few hours, it would be effortless to find out, especially if the person knew the natural smell of the two people involved.

As for the aura, this was more lasting and could take weeks to disappear. And for someone who was in the 7th stage of cultivation, like Maisie, to feel these 'marks' left in the aura, it would be as easy as breathing!

After that, Minos and Ruth settled their affairs and then left the hotel to walk around the city.

They would buy some things before continuing their journeys, such as spiritual pills, maps, simple blueprints, and food.

After all, it would still be at least another 20 days before they arrived in Capital City, where the competition would occur.

"Ruth, after the Spiritual Tournament, what are you going to do?" Minos asked as they passed through the city's streets they were crossing.

She then looked him in the eye and said. "After the Spiritual Tournament ends, I have up to 3 months to return to the Gray Cloud Sect. If I miss this deadline, I can be punished for it."

"Because of that, if you want me to accompany you back to the Black Plain, then we will have to travel in a hurry, stopping just to rest."

Minos then smiled and said. "I sure want you to come back with me."

Hearing Minos' flirtatious speech, Ruth smiled contentedly as she displayed a flushed face. She also wanted to enjoy this time with Minos.

Ruth was a virgin until recently that she had never thought of men in her life. So it was complicated for her to think about doing these things with men other than Minos, at least in a short time.

And sex with Minos was so good. It made her even less interested in other men. Minos was also very talented, strong, and intelligent. And by putting all this together and all the things she had seen him do, it made her feel even proud to have a relationship like this with him...

As the two strolled next to each other, suddenly Minos heard a voice not far away, calling for his name.

"Minos?"

Upon hearing this, both Minos and Ruth turned to see if this call was for them. And in doing so, the young Stuart soon saw a young woman with blue hair, in a green dress, and an appearance that could be classified as excellent in the North of the Central Continent.

She was accompanied by three more people, another young woman who did not appear to be older than she, a woman, and a middle-aged man.

Both the woman and the man wore armor with the same symbol, a blue circumference with a large golden 'M' in the center.

This was the symbol of the Miller family, one of the two great noble families in the Brown Kingdom!

Seeing the young woman, Minos stopped for a second or two and then responded while frowning slightly. "Abby?"

Abby was the name of one of the few friends that Minos had at the period of the Spiritual Academy, in the City of the Setting Sun, where he studied before his father's 'accident' happened.

They were both from the same classes and got along very well at that time, but since Minos suffered his accident, being unconscious for six years, they had not seen each other for a long time!

Minos was in a rush, while Abby probably thought she would never see him again.

But who knew... Fate had put them face to face again!
