

BLACK PLAIN 124

Chapter 124: Excited to return (*)

Finally, it was time for the last fights to happen!!

Two fights were scheduled to take place on this day of competition, starting with the battle between Minos and Mona, and lastly, there was the fight between Troy and Kara.

No one had any doubts about who would win the first fight, but the second would still be a good event. As much as most believed that the beautiful young ginger had no chance against Troy, many thought this would be a great fight.

And it didn't take long, and soon the results had already been decided!

In the first fight of the day, Minos easily defeated the young girl from the Miller family, defeating her in just one move, just as he had done with Abby some time ago.

It was so fast that many people in the crowd almost regret buying the ticket. But luckily, there was still the second fight between Kara and Troy.

With that, Minos was the first competitor to qualify for the final of the Spiritual Tournament, while Mona would dispute the third place with the loser of the other fight.

After that, Troy's fight soon followed, considerably cheering up the audience who had come to watch these fights.

When the fight started, Kara and Troy were exceptionally paired. However, over time, the difference in cultivation was present when Kara was almost exhausted, while Troy still had a good amount of energy left.

With that, Troy Newman won the second fight of the day, qualifying to fight for first place against Minos on the last day of the competition. Meanwhile, Kara Carline was going to fight Mona to decide who would be in third place.

"Ahh, and to think that the Spiritual Tournament is going to end tomorrow..." Someone said as he left the arena after the fights were over.

"Hmm, it surely is a pity! Now we will have to wait eight years for this tournament to happen again..."

"I wonder if there will be other geniuses like Minos and Troy in the next edition..."

"Who knows... But I think it is difficult. After all, it is not common for so many geniuses to appear in one edition. There were 4 of them in this tournament, who were Davy, Minos, Kara, and Troy."

"Hmm, indeed. I don't remember any previous edition with so many talents at once..."

"Even that boy, ehh, Dennis Red, when he participated and won the tournament, he was only at level 43. If he was competing in this edition, he might not even have made it to the semifinals!"

"Hmm, I remember this, that boy from the Brown Kingdom, hehe, I had the honor of seeing some of his fights! I wonder how he is now..."

While spectators of the Spiritual Tournament discussed the current and previous editions, Minos and Ruth were already returning to the hotel where they were staying.

The young Stuart was not tired or anything. After all, he had won his fight without any effort. However, he wanted to cultivate and rest for tomorrow's fight.

By his own projections, this would be a very disputed fight between the two, and probably the most likely result would be a draw. But it didn't matter to Minos. He was here to make contacts, and this he had already done.

Continuing in the competition was just a physical test for him!

And since he had already started to do this, then it would be better to go all the way!

Abandoning something in the middle of the road was not part of Minos' customs.

But he didn't care if the result was him coming in second. No, that was the smallest part, even staying in other positions would not bother Minos.

Anyway, Minos and Ruth were also getting ready to make their trip back to the Black Plain tomorrow!

The young Ruth would only have three months to return to the Gray Cloud Sect, so they had to run back to the Dry City. The trip at full speed would take three weeks, and after that, she could stay a maximum of about two days in the city of Minos.

After that time, she would return all the way to the capital of the Cromwell Kingdom and then proceed to her City of Clouds, in the Flaming Empire.

After finishing cultivating, Minos opened his eyes and stepped out of his meditative position as he saw Ruth watching him. She then said. "It looks like it won't be long before you reach level 40..."

"Hmm, I think this will happen when we arrive at the Black Plain." He replied with a smile on his face.

This was a significant advance for him. After reaching level 40, he could finally probe his opponents' strength without having to worry about depending on others for that.

His spiritual power would also increase in several folds since level 40 had 40% more spiritual energy than level 39.

But not only that, by being able to use the energy of heaven and earth, Minos would also increase the strength by a large margin of his attacks since he could add free energy to his techniques after reached this level!

Of course, that last characteristic was not so significant at level 40. After all, a person at that level had a very small amount of spiritual energy and was unable to use free energy in nature in large quantities!

Also, the region's strength where the cultivators were, influencing the amount of free energy that could be used. After all, the energy was not concentrated in some places, but rather spread over nature unevenly!

This meant that fights in regions of greater spiritual concentration were even more devastating than those in other regions since users above level 40 always used that free energy in their battles!

This effect was no notable for where Minos was. This north of the Central Continent barely had decent regions with medium spiritual concentration, with a low spiritual density in most of this territory!

Minos then said. "Tomorrow after the fight, we will immediately leave the city. I don't want to stay here and be harassed by those sects from your empire..."

"Hmm, this is going to be better. But the award ceremony will not take place until the next day. Aren't you interested in spiritual crystals?"

"No, even if I take first place, there are only 500 medium-grade crystals. That amount can do almost nothing for me these days. And even if it's not bad to receive that amount, it can cause me more problems than benefits..."

"OK."

After saying this, Minos went to Ruth and started kissing her while he took the girl's dress with his hands.

They kissed for a while until the two were completely naked and the beautiful sensual body of the young woman could be seen.

Two peaks of her were utterly erect, while her big bottom was there invitingly for Minos, while her little sister was shining, with the fluids released by the young woman's body.

She was already so used to the whole of Minos that even though they had just started their activity, she was already properly wet for him...

Minos then placed his partner in an ideal position in which the two could please each other. In doing so, his hard stick was in front of Ruth's face, while Ruth's pretty little sister was in the perfect place to be kissed by young Stuart.

"Ahhh ~"

Ruth let out a groan of pleasure as soon as Minos's tongue touched the inside of her. She could feel a flow of pleasure traveling through her body while she trembled softly. This was indeed a heavenly sensation for her!

After that, she wasted no time and soon began to suck on Minos' stick, making it go in and out of her throat, reverberating the characteristic sounds of this act.

Slurp!

Slurp!

The two stayed in that position until they both reached their first orgasm. With that, Minos and Ruth could not wait any longer, and soon the young woman turned around, sitting on young Stuart's erect mast.

This was a position that Ruth liked a lot since she could control how deep Minos's member went into her body...

"Mmmm ~ Mmmm ~"

Pah!

Pah!

The two kissed, and sounds of pounding meat could be heard? in their room while Minos's rod entered and exited Ruth's hole, as if in a piston motion.

Ruth happily rubbed her waist in Minos's intimate area, moaning heavenly as she felt her body heat rise.

She could feel her little sister throbbing in pleasure, squeezing young Stuart's stick harder and harder as if she were trying to 'milk' him.

And the two made these movements with as much intensity as they could, leaving sounds of breathing in the air, creating a sexual symphony, which had moans, breathing, beating flesh, and the sound of liquids coming out of the young woman's cavity, each time the member of Minos came and went...

The beautiful back of Ruth already exuded several drops of sweat, giving a shine that further embellished the almost perfect silhouette of Minos' partner.

Her butt glowed as if she were happy for what she was doing, at the same time, when the girl's fragrance was beginning to enrich the air in that room...

"Ahhh ~ I'm coming ~"

After a few minutes, Ruth climaxed again, while her little sister let out more juices and squeezed Minos' stick even tighter.

"Ohhh ~"

Almost as a reflex, Minos also reached the orgasm, releasing a large amount of his fluids into the young woman's uterus, who was still happily riding on him.

...

The two continued this for hours and then fell asleep together, sleeping peacefully for the rest of the night. After that, the day started to clear, and today he would finally finish his affairs in the Cromwell Kingdom!

Minos was excited to return to his territories and see the changes that would undoubtedly have occurred. From the time he was away, the next harvest was due to happen, and that would allow many things to be done in the Dry City!

Anyway, today he was ready to have the biggest fight of his life against a level 44 cultivator!
