

BLACK PLAIN 143

Chapter 143: Losing an Arm!

While the almost transparent strands followed Minos' neck path, everyone fighting in the vicinity saw this scene. The two men of the Silva family already had smiles on their faces, seeing that the end of the young Stuart was near.

At the same time, the 100 or so soldiers had expressions of fear for what was about to happen. The wires thrown by Sarah were getting closer and closer to Minos' neck, and it was almost impossible for him to deflect!

"No!"

Many of them screamed in despair.

Minos was the hope of this place, so if he died, it could all be over! 'Damn it! We cannot let the young master die!' That was the thought in the minds of almost all of them...

Seeing her blow almost coming in contact with her target, Sarah smiled for a moment and thought to herself. 'Fool! Now you will die, and all of this will belong to our Silva family!'

She was convinced that the fight would end at this point, feeling as if a weight had been lifted off her shoulders. She smiled happily as she felt the breeze of the wind spread her hair in the air.

Vuup!

Pow!

Suddenly something shocking happens, when an arm flew over the place!

When the wires were about to sever Minos' head, a spiritual beast over 2 meters high appeared in front of him, preventing the attack!

"AHHHH!"

But not only that, in a fraction of a second, the big fox with six tails ran at full speed to where that woman was, using her claws to try to kill this enemy!

However, despite being at the lower level, Sarah still managed to control her forces in time, and instead of being killed by Emlyn's potent attack, only one of her arms had been lost.

Sarah was thrown away, hitting her back hard on a rock, while her arm was already dropped where she was previously.

"Hells! Where did that miserable beast come?" She cried out, trying to suppress the pain of losing one of her limbs.

The blood was flowing uncontrollably from her shoulder as she grew paler and paler. And although she could use her spiritual energy to seal the wound, in the short time she was in shock from the attack, she still lost a good deal of her blood!

When they saw this shocking change of ways, only the butler Dillian was in peace. He already knew that Emlyn was hiding in that place, so he was sure that nothing would happen to Minos.

But for the Black Plain Army soldiers and the two men of the Silva family, this was very unexpected!

Not only had Minos been saved from losing his head, but his aggressor, Sarah, had been the one who fell apart in this exchange!

"Shit! What spiritual beast is this?" Austin asked angrily.

But Dennis only responded with an even more fearful statement. "Forget it. The most important thing is that this beast is already in the 6th stage!"

At the same time, when the two men were talking about the appearance of this spiritual beast, which had six tails and only three legs, Minos' soldiers were also already exclaiming in shock.

"But what is this? Where did this beast come?"

"Hey! Isn't that fox that was in the Yellow City?"

"Idiot! The one from before had only five tails. How can she create a new member like that out of the blue?"

"No, it sure is the same fox. See, it doesn't have one leg, and it's also very similar to that other one!" Sergeant Humbert said that firmly.

He had seen it when Emlyn ate the bandit Gul, and it had deeply shocked Humbert. So, he would never forget Emlyn's appearance!

After exclaiming in shock, they all turned their attention to the battles they were fighting.

Boom!

Explosions came again, at the same time when Sarah felt many attacks coming towards her. This was a good chance for the 50 soldiers who were fighting it!

She had lost much of her spiritual energy and also one of her arms. As a result, Sarah Silva's vulnerability had appeared to these soldiers, who were shaking with anger at this enemy.

Not only had she avoided almost all the blows of these people before, but she had also almost taken the life of the young master from these soldiers. "Die your bitch!"

Various techniques were released, creating many forms of energy, which went through the air towards weakened Sarah!

Rumble!

'Bastards! If it weren't for that damn beast...' She was cursing all these people simultaneously, in which she used all her remaining energies to defend herself.

She could not take the attacks launched by 50 people lightly. No, that would be absurd. After all, her level was not yet high enough for her to do such a thing. The difference in energy between the levels was not so significant until reaching the Spiritual King stage.

Therefore, fighting many opponents of various lower levels in the 5th stage of cultivation would still be an arduous task!

Anyway, while Sarah wielded her strength to defend herself from the group that attacked her, Emlyn had sat in the middle of the battlefield, looking at what was happening. She would do exactly as Minos had recommended, only to interfere if the life of one of the members of the Black Plain Army was in danger.

Swoosh!

Minos ran towards where the blond man was while already releasing his attack technique, making a movement to and fro with his sword.

He had not been surprised by the previous danger and was just focusing on ending this fight.

Dying during a battle was very likely, and going through a near-death situation could immobilize some individuals. But Minos knew it was stupid. Thinking about what might have happened would be crazy. After all, you can't change what has already happened!

In this way, he had left what had happened in the past and immediately went on with his battle.

Minos then quickly appeared next to Austin, cutting the air with his sword in the horizontal direction!

Swoosh!

"Ahhhh!"

The blond man was running out of energy, and it was complicated for him to defend himself from so many attacks at the same time. At this point, he finally found that Minos had appeared next to him, but it was too late to dodge.

While he let out a sad cry, the blade created by Minos had cut off one of Austin's legs, causing him to fall off balance and fall to the ground!

"Ahhh! Miserable, I'm going to kill you!"

However, while Austin screamed wildly, still lying on his back on the ground, the obliterated part of a war hammer suddenly descended from the sky, heading towards the head of the Silva family member!

One of the soldiers who were at level 41 took this chance, using all his remaining energy to carry out that last blow.

He lifted his big war hammer over his head while using all the strength in his body to hammer Austin's head!

Thud!

A dull thud came from that place when Austin's brains finally began to spread around!

It was as if a watermelon had been crushed!

Blood and pieces of gray mass flew around while the rest of Austin's body trembled.

This was a horrible scene to see!!

As he lifted his hammer from the ground, Austin's crushed head came into view. It was completely unrecognizable, as if it were a mixture of that man's white skin, with blond hair, white bones, brains, and blood everywhere.

One of his eyes had been completely crushed, while the eyeball could still be seen stuck in the middle of that crushed flesh!

Austin had died!

He was still thinking about his missing leg when the hammer of one of Minos' soldiers had descended on his head. He was almost out of energy, and having lost a leg had destabilized him, to the point that he was very vulnerable!

Minos then shouted aloud, looking at the 25 soldiers in his vicinity. "Of the rest of you, ten help kill that level 49 woman, and the rest will deal with that other guy!"

"Yes, young master!"

As they saw this, the two remaining members of the Silva family were increasingly fearful. They had underestimated the strength of their enemies!

'Damn it! We should never have tried to blame the young Darell's death on that person!' Dennis deeply regretted it.

He was still slightly better than the leader of his group, Sarah, since he had not been so hurt by the soldiers who were attacking him.

However, the situation was getting worse and worse for him. And when he saw his partner Austin die, Dennis was sure that his end was near. Trying to escape was stupid. After all, there was a 6th stage beast in this place.

And as for the sacrifice, well, he didn't have what it took to do that. And even if he did, that spiritual beast could still protect Minos, so his suffering would be meaningless...
