

BLACK PLAIN 166

Chapter 166: Viola 1 (18+)

Time quickly passed, and it was already night in the City of Waters.

The sky was clear, with many stars visible to anyone in the city, and the weather was delightful.

The city had almost the same movement as at any other time of the day, with many people coming and going through the streets. Most of this movement, of course, was from visitors who passed through this place, either to deliver or receive items from the local port.

At this time, many restaurants were already open for the night shift, and in some parts of the town, one could even smell the pleasant aroma of the local cuisine.

It wasn't extravagant, but there were decent cooks in this place. And when a grade-2, low-level cook was cooking, well, the aroma of the dishes would be almost as strong as the medicinal fragrance released after a pill was formed.

With that, those who passed close to the central area of the city, where the best restaurants in this place were, would undoubtedly smell the pleasant fragrance coming from these stores.

Finally, the town lights were already illuminating the streets when finally a young woman with green hair went to a building in the west region of the City of Waters.

She was dressed in a black dress. Her green hair was loose, which was pushed by the wind from time to time while walking with a smile on her cherry lips. She then proceeded towards the interior of the building in front of her.

There was a sign made with lighting arrays in this place, with the words. 'Hotel Dixon.'

This was Viola, who was coming here to receive Minos' 'thanks'...

After finishing her affairs, Viola went to her residence, inside the government mansion of the City of Waters, and took a hot shower to relax before finally leaving to come here.

She was a little excited about what was coming next since she moved here. She no longer had as many good 'options' as she had when she was at the Stokes headquarters.

An experienced and libertine young woman like her had her own standards, but it was difficult to reach them in a smaller place like this where she was living now. There weren't many talented people around here, and that was a big problem for someone who could be considered addicted to sex, like her...

And in relation to that, sex had nothing to do with someone's talent, but it was undeniable that more talented people had more energy, a better appearance, and even more taste for the thing... And all of that could contribute to the 'performance' during the activity.

Anyway, Viola quickly went to the floor where Minos' room was.

Pa! Pa! Pa!

After arriving at the site, she knocked on the door of Minos' room three times when the young Stuart finally came to see her.

When opening the door of his room, Minos was just wearing his trousers, leaving his chest well-defined exposed for the beautiful Viola to admire him. He had finished his bath just before she arrived, so he was not finished dressing yet...

"Hehe, if you had arrived 1 minute earlier, I would still be in the shower..." He said with a smile while drying his brown hair with a white towel.

When she saw the young man in front of her, Viola felt a warmth between her legs, and her heart rate quickly rose. She truly wanted to jump on Minos right now, but she wanted to be calm.

Before sex, exhibiting certain behaviors could end up scaring the other person, and she didn't know how he would react to her intense desire.

However, even though she did not jump at Minos, like a wild animal thirsty for sex, Viola still approached him slowly.

She touched the young man's abdomen in front of her with one of her hands while holding his neck with the other, saying in his ear. "Then it looks like I arrived on time! We now have fewer clothes to take from our bodies..."

After saying this, she advanced towards Minos' lips as the two entered the room and the door of that place was closed.

'But what a naughty girl!' Minos thought to himself as he tasted Viola's tongue.

And, while doing that, his hands were already exploring the 'territory' of the sensual Viola, as the young Stuart's fingers were already starting to remove some pieces of clothing from this ardent woman.

"Mmm ~"

As they kissed fervently, Minos finally ran the fingers of one of his hands on Viola's little sister. It was completely soaked, and each time he touched her, the young woman made sweet sounds, still kissing his mouth.

'Huh? Is she like this already?' He opened his eyes in surprise, feeling how excited Viola was.

At the same time, the beauty of green hair had already felt the volume grow in Minos' trousers when she finally put one of her hands inside his clothes.

"Oh!"

She broke the kiss with Minos and made a surprised sound when she felt his rod. 'It is big! It seems that I got lucky this time...' She thought while having a perverted smile on her beautiful face.

And without any conversation, Viola knelt on the floor, pulling Minos' trousers down quickly.

In doing so, Minos' 7-inch rod swung from side to side, right in front of Viola's impressed face. Seeing this, she placed one of her hands over her mouth as she took the young Stuart's long, thick rod firmly.

"But... This is really a treasure!" She exclaimed.

"Huh?" Minos made a sound of surprise. He had never heard such a 'compliment' from the two women he slept with before.

But Viola was delighted with what she saw. She was used to going out with men who couldn't compare to Minos in this regard!

Hell, most of them were barely half the size of the young Stuart's rod!

And after observing this 'treasure' for a moment, Viola first placed it right in front of her mouth while letting her tongue pass through it, going from the base to the head until she started to? suck it fervently while her little sister dripped in desire.

"Ohh ~ My ~" Minos then made a noise of satisfaction while receiving a nice blowjob from Viola.

She was especially good at it, and even though Minos's stick was more extensive than she was used to dealing with, she still managed to shove much of it down her throat!

'Ahh, this is the advantage of going out with an experienced woman! She truly knows things. Ohh ~'

And it wasn't long before the young Stuart released his first load while Viola was still sucking on him fervently.

"Ohh ~"

When she felt this, she pulled his stick out of her mouth while using her pink tongue to lick all the white liquid from her lips, making a vulgar expression for Minos.

Seeing this, Minos pulled her from side to side, throwing the beautiful Viola on the bed, leaving her on all fours in that place. He then tore the clothes still there, exposing her gorgeous legs to him, which had traces of the juice of love, which had already been expelled, even before Minos touched her.

Seeing this, the young Stuart was even more eager to taste Viola's meat, almost to the point of losing his reason and starting to act savagely with it.

Viola had a stunning body, with a big ass and an intimate part that looked like a flower, a little bigger than the girls with that Minos had already slept.

Viola's lower lips were a little fuller than Minos had ever seen, while it was utterly pink on the inside. It was sparkling with the juices released by the young woman, and she had a very inviting appearance for the young Stuart...

'That smell...' He thought in his mind as he felt his desire rise to a new level. Viola's little sister's smell was rich and made the young man even more dazzled.

And at this moment, Minos could not wait any longer and advanced with his mouth there.

"Ahhhn ~"

The moment his tongue touched Viola's little sister, she felt as if an electric current had traveled throughout her body. She had trembled softly as her nipples rose and fell, and she let out a heavenly moan.

'I'm very excited!' She thought about it as she felt Minos' tongue exploring her intimate part. She wasn't used to coming so fast, but she was almost there.

"Mmm ~ Ahhn ~ I can't hold myself anymore ~" She said this in a low voice, as her hips swayed from side to side in Minos's face, and she released a stream of love juice at him.

Squirt!

"Hah! Hah! Hah ~ I can't take this desire anymore!" She said it out loud when she stood up and looked at Minos' rod in desire. She wanted that big rod to penetrate her immediately!

Minos then smiled when he saw the girl's cloudy eyes, which were firmly focused on his intimate part.

And after that, it didn't take long before he lay down on the bed and the young woman climbed on top of him.
