

BLACK PLAIN 174

Chapter 174: Mature Woman 1 (18+)

After greeting each other, the two sat side by side on the same sofa and started to argue.

"And then? You shouldn't have come here just to see me, right?" She teased him with a curious expression on her face.

"Hmm, I came to talk about our business. I have already contacted some of the residents of the City of Waters, and soon, we will start the immigration for these families."

"Oh? That was really fast. In just over a week, you have already achieved this!" She exclaimed in surprise.

By the time that passed, if Minos had already managed to attract these people to his side, it meant that he must have an outstanding offer for these people, and his territory should not be too distant!

Obviously, Mirya was curious about where Minos came from, but she was not concerned with trying to chase him or anything like that. But, anyway, it was hard for her not to think about it...

Minos then said. "Well, as we agreed earlier, I will make the payment in advance for the first thousand people who will leave your city."

After saying this, the young Stuart took out a spatial ring from his own, handing it to the woman in front of him.

Seeing this, Mirya smiled softly. This was an essential resource for her, which could help her reach an even higher position within the Stokes family.

With this payment today, she was already receiving a number of spiritual crystals many times greater than she earned annually! With this, she could significantly accelerate her cultivation speed since she usually did not have enough crystals for that.

And immediately upon receiving Minos' spatial ring, she felt the 100,000 crystals that were there, transferring them without delay to her own spatial ring.

After that, she returned the ring to Minos and said. "Haha, it's wonderful to do business with a young man like you, who even pays in advance..."

She was feeling perfect about getting so many crystals at once. After all, Mirya was just a subordinate who was used to the lean cows that someone in her condition had to accept...

So, she truly felt very excited right now.

Minos looked into her eyes and smiled. "Eh, I'm just doing what I promise before, nothing more."

"Hmm, I know that, but I think we should celebrate it somehow..." She said with an erotic smile on her face.

Mirya was like Viola, or rather, Viola was like Mirya...

She was a 'hunter' who loved to venture out into the world. But as a conductor of the Stokes family in that place, Mirya didn't have many opportunities to have fun these days...

In fact, there were not many men in the City of Waters who could accompany the mature Mirya. After all, as someone from the 6th stage of cultivation, she had a lot of energy and a higher standard, which was common among powerful women...

And when making a big deal with an attractive young man like Minos, she couldn't help but feeling quite willing and attracted...

She then approached Minos, leaving the two bodies almost glued to each other while she stood with her face right next to Minos's left ear.

And while he felt Mirya's breaths in his ear, Minos suddenly turned to face her and enjoyed for a moment. With the transparent clothes she wore, he could see the entire contour of her body, which, to be fair, had the best measurements that the young Stuart had ever seen in his life!

Minos was very fond of women with big buttocks, and Mirya was just the right size for him. Other than that, this woman's slim waist and large breasts formed a perfect match, which was rapidly increasing the young Stuart's desire.

"Ahh, you seem to be having a great time with my daughter. You must have something special... I think it's time for you to try someone more experienced." She said that just before gently biting the ear of the youth who was there, almost as if she were a predator taking her prey...

"Oh ~"

Upon feeling this, Minos cannot help but make a sound of surprise. 'Let's see what the 'taste' of someone from the 6th stage of cultivation is like...' Minos thought about it with a naughty smile on his face when he finally started 'counterattacking'.

His arms quickly reached Mirya's waist, pulling her mature body onto his lap. And in doing so, Minos observed this woman's beautiful face for a moment before finally starting to kiss her fervently.

Mirya had an erotic feeling that was almost intoxicating for Minos, to the point that he could think of nothing more than enjoying the body of this gorgeous woman.

"Mmm ~"

Their kiss continued while the young Stuart's heart rate increased considerably, and his breathing grew louder and louder. And at the same time, his hands were already going through Mirya's curves, and now and then, it removed some pieces of clothing from her.

And just as Minos was feeling Mirya's mature body, she was doing the same to him. First, she had helped him unbutton the buttons on the shirt he wore, and it was not long before she felt the 'excitement' of his little brother pressing her legs.

"Oh!" She made a sound of surprise when she felt the size of Minos's rod, breaking their kiss and opening her eyes to look at him intently. 'It is not for less! With such a good tool, that girl would undoubtedly make the most of it...' She thought to herself, with a longing look on her face.

"Ahh, you are really well endowed, huh..." She whispered in Minos' ear before finally sucking on the young man's neck.

After doing that, it didn't take long, and the two had already removed all the pieces of clothing from their bodies amid kisses and caresses.

At that point, Minos' rod was in its best condition, while Mirya couldn't help but feeling an increasingly intense desire to taste it. 'Hehe, I haven't slept with a young man like this for so long...'

And right after that, she pushed Minos on the sofa there, making him sit, while she knelt on the floor, keeping her face precisely at the height of the young Stuart's rod.

In doing so, she looked with cloudy eyes of expectation at Minos' large, thick stick while holding it with both hands. And it wasn't long before she finally started giving him a blowjob.

"Ohh ~"

At first, Mirya did not put it directly in her mouth. No, she wanted to taste the stick of Minos, preparing it for her mouth techniques...

She started by running the pink tip of her tongue over the head of Minos's rod, making the young man shiver with pleasure.

Slurp!

Slurp!

Anyway, after doing this for a while, Mirya finally began to suck Minos's stick fervently, making the characteristic sounds of that act sound through the room where the two were.

'Ohhh, Mirya has a heavenly throat!' Minos thought about it as he felt more than half of his rod being swallowed by this woman. She showed her experience in doing this since the other women he slept with could barely do half of what she was doing...

And while she was doing a blowjob for Minos, Mirya had already lowered one of her hands to her private part. She genuinely liked to suck on a long rod, like Minos'. This made her even more excited than usual, so she was already rubbing her fingers on her little sister.

Slurp!

"Mmm ~"

And while she did that, her legs were quickly getting wetter and brighter, with several bright spots coming down from her pink cave.

"Ohh ~ I'm coming ~"

After some time, Minos had finally reached his first orgasm when his rod poured a large amount of liquid into Mirya's throat.

And when she felt that, she quickly pulled Minos's rod out of her throat, just leaving the head of his member in her mouth, using her tongue to support him.

Even though much of Minos' fluids went straight to Mirya's stomach, there was still a decent amount coming out of his stick, leaving traces in her mouth and face...

"Huh ~ Huh ~"

Minos breathed hurriedly as Mirya grabbed his rod with one of her hands, pulling it out of her mouth while tasting every drop it had spilling on her.

She used her other hand to run her fingers over the white marks on her cheek and then sucked on each of her five fingers erotically, making the young Stuart's rod shake vigorously.

And when she finished wiping her face, Mirya saw that there was a trail of white liquid on the tip of the head of Minos's stick. "Hmm, I better not waste a drop, right?"

She said this with a smile while looking into Minos's eyes. And after the young man shook his head in agreement, she quickly opened her mouth and stuck out her red tongue, passing it from Minos' balls, until finally reached the head of his stick.

'Fuck!'
