

BLACK PLAIN 41

Chapter 41: A Beauty That Brings Problems (*)

"Well, that was all I had to say to you about our business. I will still be here for a few days in the capital of Stone Island, as I have to buy some products for my region." Minos said after getting up and getting ready to leave.

At that moment, Elena said with a smile on her face. "If you want, this older sister can accompany you... I know all the best stores in Old Stone city. Certainly, this can make things easier for you."

After hearing this, Elen looked at Elena strangely, as if she were saying to walk away. "Oh! Since that is the case, I will have to thank Miss Elena for your kindness in advance." Minos gratefully responded to her offer.

"Hehe, you can just call me Elena. I don't like being called in such a distant way."

"Hmm, okay, so call me Minos too..."

Shortly thereafter, Minos, Ruth, and Elena said goodbye to Elen and headed for the exit of the Nash family palace, heading towards the central part of the city. Elena would show Minos the best places to do business.

In another part of the Nash family palace, a young man with blond hair and green eyes was lying on his bed with a beautiful young woman lying on him without any clothes. They were both completely sweaty, and a loud breathing sound could be heard from both of them.

When the beautiful young woman recovered from her recent 'activity,' she said with a smile on her face. "Young master, as I said before, I have something important to report. It's about Miss Elen. My brother, who works as a guard at the palace entrance gate, told me that a young man came to meet her earlier today."

"Oh! Tell me about it." The young man spoke while his eyes flashed chillingly. He then got up and started putting on his clothes, leaving the beautiful lady on his bed.

She then said. "According to him, that person came here to find Miss Elen, on the pretext that they were business partners. After that, he spent a few hours at her residence before finally leaving with that girl named Elena."

"Hmph, then another one came along with the same excuse as an ally? Well, it seems that I have to teach this guy a lesson... Does he not know that it is wrong to covet others' woman?" The young man said with a murderous tone in his voice.

"And even if he's just an ally, it's still good that he knows who he's messing with. I will make him understand that he must not think funny things about my Elen!"

After hearing this, the naked young woman lying on the bed smiled kindly. She was one of the servants of this young blond man named Luke Nash.

He was the youngest son of the patriarch of the Nash family, who had a Black talent, and at the age of 18, he was already at level 40. As for his relationship with young Elen, well... He was in love with her, but this was not reciprocal.

However, this young master did not care about that and used his influence as a young master of the Nash family to ward off potential loving competitors.

Elen knew that this young man had the illusion that she would become his wife one day. Also, he used his influence to chase any man who came into contact with her, but she was not too concerned about that since she was much stronger than him.

And although she didn't like young Luke's intrusions, most of the youths who tried to contact her were really individuals with no commercial relationship with her, so Luke's actions even helped her a little. And that is why she had never done anything against this young master in her family.

After finishing dressing, young Luke left his room and quickly went to look for some guards to look for Minos. He was very irritated by the constant appearance of people trying to woo his beloved Elen.

After a while walking around the palace, he came to a large room, where many guards were sitting in different corners, talking actively.

Luke approached a tall, bald man and said. "Guard Brian, I want you to find someone for me. Talk to Nydia's brother, who is working at the palace entrance gate, and resolve this as soon as possible. He will describe that person to you."

"Okay, young master." The man greeted him and then left quickly, heading for the Nash property exit.

"Well, I can't wait to meet you." Young Luke said in a low voice, as he sawed his fist tightly and have a look of few friends on his face.

...

Time passed quickly, and it had been two days since Minos had met young Elen. In the meantime, he was guided by the beautiful Elena Neel through the capital of Stone Island to do the shopping he had previously planned.

By that time, he had already bought all the spiritual weapons he could, leaving only the pills and the grade-2, low-grade, array, to finish.

But it was not easy to buy so many spiritual pills, as had been the case with weapons. This is because Stone Island was not a region specialized in this profession.

Therefore, Minos had to do his shopping in several places and still order some of these pills. That way, he still had to wait for a few more days before returning to his territory.

As for the spiritual array of grade-2, low-level, there were few array masters with this classification, even in the capital, Old Stone. So, it was not easy to find these specialists, and they were often busy with other matters, such as cultivating or producing their products.

So, despite needing only one array, Minos had still not been able to buy it.

In these two days, Minos also had the opportunity to know the beautiful young Elena better. He found out a little about the big families of Stone Island and, in particular, the Neel family, which was a large family of blacksmiths from this region.

He also discovered that young Elena was the daughter of one of the elders of this great noble family. However, she had not specialized in this profession since she preferred to become a traditional fighter.

He learned that she, like Elen, had Black talent, and according to Ruth, she was already at level 44, which could be considered very good since she was only 24-years-old.

He had also come very close to Elena in the meantime and even got used to the young woman's libertine way of life, having sometimes accompanied her in her flirtations.

"I already showed you all the best places for you to buy your spiritual pills in those two days. As for the array master, have one of your guards keep looking for them until one of them appears. This shouldn't take too long, as a new business can emerge at any time."

"Mnn, I'm going to do this. Thanks for the help over those two days, Elena." Minos said in gratitude.

"Hehe, you don't have to thank me. How about you come to my house for dinner, alone, before you return to the Black Plain? I'm sure you'll love to taste my 'culinary' skills." Elena said with a provocative smile on her face.

'What a whore on offer.' Ruth, who was nearby, thought she listened to Minos and Elena's conversation.

For her, a young virgin, Elena's offered behavior was very strange to see up close, even though Ruth knew it was common in the Spiritual World. However, doing this in front of her was somewhat disconcerting.

"Haha, actually, I was already curious about that. You've been talking a lot about your 'culinary' skills these past few days. Okay, how about we meet in 2 days?" Minos said as he cast an interesting look in the direction of the seductive Elena.

There was no way a young, single teenager like Minos would refuse such an offer!

Even if she didn't invite him, he would still try to bring her even closer to him, inviting her to dinner at the apartment he had rented at the Olson Hotel!

"Hehe, that's fine with me. I can't wait for that." Elena said after biting her lip and winking at Minos. After that, the group broke up, with Minos and Ruth returning to the Hotel Olson and Elena heading towards her family's mansion on the city's south side.

'Hmph, this Minos is also no better than that bitch...' Ruth thought to herself while showing a look of discontent directed at Minos.

In a certain part of the Nash family palace, moans of pleasure could be heard coming from a room on the south side of the building.

"Aaah ~ Aah ~ Aaaah ~"

Pah! Pah! Pah!

"Aah ~ deeper... Mmm ~"

"Aaah!"

Amid the sounds of pleasure, two people could be seen wrapped around each other, while the sounds of pounding flesh sounded constantly. The two people were completely naked, while they had beads of sweat all over their bodies.

One could also notice a strong smell in the air, which was typical of this type of 'activity.'

Of the two people, the young man under the bed was the young master Luke, who displayed pleasure while enjoying the beautiful young woman with full breasts on top of him.

This was one of his servants, with whom he entertained himself from time to time...

"Mmm ~ Aaah ~" The beautiful young woman moaned in an erotic voice as she went up and down on young Master Luke's rod.

"Aah ~ I'm coming ~"

After a few minutes of activity, the couple slowly ended their relationship. The two were completely satisfied as they rested with their bodies still connected to each other.

Not long after, a noise could be heard by the bedroom door when a hoarse voice came from outside.

"Young master, we have already located that person."

'Oh! It was about time...' Luke thought to himself, as he felt his servant's graceful body.
