

BLACK PLAIN 414

Chapter 414: I Will Kill Each One of You!

Swoosh!

Immediately upon seeing that Spiritual King's attack heading towards Abby, Minos unconsciously activated his defense and movement techniques while running towards her!

Explosive Steps!

Indestructible Body!

At the same time, Abby felt a terrible feeling in her being, seeing that attack getting closer and closer to her. 'Am I going to die?' She thought about that for a split second when finally the blow was just inches away from hitting her!

Crash!

However, young Stuart, who was only a few feet away from his mate, appeared in front of Abby just before the attack sent by that person hit her body.

Crash!

In doing so, Minos promptly used the body of his medium-level grade-2 sword to counter the opponent's blow while he unleashed an even stronger attack towards that man.

Spatial Sword!

Swoosh!

Quickly after releasing this attack, Minos immediately turned to Abby and tapped her on the shoulder. "I'll send you to a safe place." So, he said before the blue-haired girl suddenly disappeared from that place.

Swoosh!

Simultaneously when Minos sent Abby to the Spatial Kingdom, the individual who had created the previous attack started to feel goosebumps when he realized the power of this enemy's onslaught!

"Shit, how can this brat's attack be stronger than mine?" The Spiritual King who had previously attacked Abby, who was at level 52, began to feel more and more nervous as he saw Minos' technique approaching him.

Crash!

"Ahhhh!"

After a split second, the blade that Minos had created had nailed the man, who had the misfortune of underestimating his opponent and putting himself in a vulnerable situation!

After receiving Minos' blow, that man's defenses crumbled when finally the armor that protected his body couldn't withstand the damage.

Immediately after that, an arm holding a great sword fell to the ground of that spot while blood spurted from that Spiritual King's shoulder.

"Ahhh!" The man screamed with all his force, with a disbelieving look on his face. He couldn't believe that he, a level 52 person, had just been crippled by a mere level 44 cultivator!

"What?" The black-haired young man who had given the previous order exclaimed in shock, seeing how the situation had changed.

He was about to kill his target when he heard his man scream and saw everything that had happened. His bodyguard had lost an arm to a single attack from the enemy side. But, in contrast, that young woman from before had suddenly disappeared from that place.

At the same time, all the people struggling in this area realized the change that had just happened.

At that location, at this time, seven Spiritual Kings were fighting each other, while some level 49, Spiritual Generals did the same. But, on the other hand, the two young black-haired ones, the one who was to be killed and the one who was going to kill, were both on level 47 and were standing watching in the direction of Minos.

'One person at level 50, three at level 51, two at level 52, one at level 53, and one at level 54...' Minos thought to himself as he looked at the Spiritual Kings in front of him, who at this moment continued their battles, except for what had been attacked earlier...

'But of those seven who are fighting, they are already almost completely exhausted...' He thought as he saw how wounded and pale those people were. 'Looks like they're about to finish their business... That's why they wanted to eliminate Abby and me.'

Minos stood where he had sent Abby to the Spatial Kingdom, considering how he should act.

He had immediately sensed the enemy forces and understood that he couldn't protect Abby if she stayed in this place. Because of this, he immediately used the first opportunity to send her to a safe place, allowing him to fight worry-free.

As for the way he had done it, well, such a thing was within his means. The Spatial Kingdom ring did not require Minos himself to travel there. In fact, the only requirement was that the person who went to that place was in direct contact with the ring user.

That way, Minos could send people there the way he had done before!

Anyway, after looking at this group for a moment, the young Stuart turned his neck from side to side, making crackling sounds ring through the place. He then looked directly at the young man who had led the previous attack and said. "I don't know who you are, but since you've tried to involve us in your affairs, I will kill each one of you..."

"I'll start this for you!" Minos then held his sword tightly in both hands while a black ring began to expand around him, and a buzz echoed through that forested area.

Zum!

At the same time, he started running in that place while activating all his techniques simultaneously, heading towards that young man who had given the previous order.

"Die!"

Swoosh!

Swoosh!

Upon feeling this, the five Spiritual Kings who were in this young man's group felt shivers down their spines when they saw such a thing. The attack Minos had created was as strong as that of the highest-level person there!

"Third Prince!" They screamed simultaneously as one after the other began to move towards that place.

These two groups, of course, were the teams of Charles and Blake.

They had started fighting each other a few minutes ago when the third prince had finally located his older brother...

Anyway, Charles instantly felt his body became so heavy that he could barely lift his arms. 'Damn it! What's happening? Why can't I move?' So, he thought, already feeling a tightness in his chest, seeing a blade cutting through the air towards his body without him being able to try to defend himself.

But instead of having his body sliced open, Charles saw one of his level 52 bodyguards appearing in front of him at the critical moment and preventing the worst from happening.

Vuup!

That man's head was separated from his body, rolling twice in the air, before falling to the bumpy ground of that place.

And as blood frantically rushed down that dead individual's neck, Charles's other four bodyguards moved in front of him.

One of them was the one who had already lost his arm, while the remaining three were a level 50, another level 51, and another level 54 individual.

These two looked fragile at the moment as they stared at Minos in disbelief. 'How did we come across such a monster?' They wondered.

And at that moment, the strongest of them said out loud, just after realizing that the previous enemies weren't attacking them. "Young man, the person you just tried to kill is the future king of the Kingdom of the Waves, Charles Walker!"

"We understand that you were offended by the attack on your mate, but you cannot kill the third prince!"

"So, let's forget what happened, and no one will miss anything else!" He said authoritatively while his face was completely dark.

He did feel the young man in front of him was stronger than they could handle right now, so the only escape he had thought of was to appeal to Charles's background.

At the same time, the other Spiritual Kings who were in this place had gathered around Blake, waiting for what would happen.

They were already at a disadvantage before and would likely die even without Minos' interference.

But now, there was a glimmer of hope for them!

As for the others, they continued to fight at a distance from that place, where the strongest was.

Finally, hearing that man speak, Minos looked in Charles' direction and thought. 'Since he's here, I might as well kill him and avoid bigger problems in the future...'

'So if you're the third prince, that one over there must be one of your brothers...'

After thinking about it, Minos raised his sword in the air once more and said. "So, now I have another reason to kill you!"

Swoosh!
