

BLACK PLAIN 677

Chapter 677 - Seeking Vengeance 2

After Minos' recent tour in the Cromwell Kingdom, this young man had left several clues behind that could lead his enemies to the Yellow City.

And since the Chambers family was the organization most active trying to locate him, it wasn't long before they identified these clues left by Minos.

But the clues left by Minos did not only indicate where he was. Besides his location, this young man left things that showed that he had been contacting the Hayes family, the mortal enemies of House Chambers.

Hence, the Chambers family supreme elder, the father of the late Leroy, had left the headquarters of his family accompanied by five high-level Spiritual Kings.

He could not simply allow two enemies of his family to commune against them, perhaps increasing the chances of defeat for House Chambers in this war against the Hayes family.

He and other elders of that family knew very well that Minos had an enviable talent and fighting proficiency, which could become the worst of weapons against them!

Hence, they had spared no effort to form this group heading to Yellow City at this time.

They had found out that Minos seemed to have a relationship with the Hayes family and that soon both parties would be meeting in Yellow City.

And after finding out that some of the House Hayes experts had started traveling northward in the last few days, this group could do nothing but start this mission.

They wanted to get to the Yellow City as soon as possible to eliminate young Stuart and perhaps intercept the Hayes family specialists going to that place.

That's why there was so much strength in this group, where the weakest was a level 54 Spiritual King!

On the other hand, even if that Hayes family group was not heading to Yellow City, the late Leroy's father group could not take long to act. After all, they couldn't be sure how many other organizations had deciphered the clues they had found in the Cromwell Kingdom.

After finding it, they had even destroyed such things, having killed some people and caused chaos where they went. Still, perhaps others had found those clues before they destroyed them.

So, they didn't have much time!

A large family or even a group from one of the royal families in that region could contact Minos before they had a chance to destroy him.

Even if they were brave enough to act against royalty, it is undeniable that killing Minos would be much more complex and costly if that happens!

As such, they were rushing to the Yellow City, in a hurry to get there and settle this matter!

'It's time for retribution!' Some of them had this idea in mind, as they hoped to torture the culprit of Leroy's death for days before they could finally kill him.

The deaths of Leroy and Kevin had been the greatest humiliations for this Cromwell Kingdom family in their entire existence. They both were very talented and were the hope for the Chambers family to become a great regional organization that could even compete with royal families in the future...

Unfortunately, both were killed by unknown enemies, one death being broadcast to thousands of people and the other having happened within their own base...

Hence, the core members of this family were boiling with rage over these and were eager to unleash some of that hatred on Minos!

With that in mind, soon, the three beasts passed through that region where Dry City was located without even noticing that place.

A whole day passed...

At this moment, Minos was at the Black Plain Army secret base in Yellow City, where he had been staying for the last few days. At this period, he sorted out the alliance with the Cohen family.

Most of the core members of this family had already passed through this city and signed Soul Contracts with Minos, signing the alliance he had negotiated with Todd, which had been confirmed by a spiritual judge from the Miller family.

But just a few minutes ago, the last contract had been signed, the one between Minos and the patriarch of the Cohen family, level 56.

But while this Cohen family expert was here in this secret base, two Spiritual Kings from the Hayes family were also in this place to help Minos' plans...

As this young man had planned, the moment the Chambers family acted, he and his allies would also do the same. And as such, when the Chambers found the clues left by Minos, immediately these two Spiritual Kings had set off in the direction of this city.

At the same time, just before leaving Dry City to settle this matter of the alliance with House Cohen, Minos had been notified that his plans would take place in the next few days.

As a result, he was quietly living in this place for the last few days, fulfilling his responsibilities and waiting for his 'guests.'

"Mister Paul, how are you? Have you regained your energy?" Ernest asked politely to the patriarch of the Cohen family, who had just come out of a cultivation room of that secret base.

Upon hearing this, the white-haired, bearded man nodded to that young Spiritual King and said. "Haha, young man, I am fully recovered. Where is your boss?"

Ernest then smiled and said. "Very good, Mister Paul, hehe. As for the young master, he is on the surface."

"But he asked me to deliver an invitation to you, sir."

"An invitation?" The old patriarch asked in doubt.

"Hmm, as luck would have it, some 'guests' are arriving in the vicinity of our base. So, the young master intends to 'welcome' them to Yellow City..."

"That will be a good show, Mister Paul!" Ernest said while having a smile on his face that indicated that things were not that simple.

'Is that young man going to fight someone? It is a coincidence that this happens right away while I am here...' Paul thought to himself as he scratched his white hair and thought about what to do. 'Since I am here, this is a good opportunity for me to get to know this young man's power.'

'At the same time, I can help him and save this place if something goes wrong.' So, he considered, just before saying to Ernest. "Come on, let me see these guests."

"Please follow me." Ernest said, finally walking through that underground base, leading that patriarch to the same place where the spiritual judge who had confirmed the recent contracts was.

"Oh? Mister Ronald, are you still here?" Paul asked the figure who was even older than him, that spiritual judge of the Miller family.

"Yes, young Minos has asked me to wait until things settle down before I return to the family..." Elder Ronald, level 52, said this in his hoarse, tired voice as he stood on the front porch of the Yellow City government mansion.

Minos' secret base had been built down there. As such, one of the exits from that place was inside this mansion.

"So, that's how it is..." Paul understood the point, as he realized that it would not be safe for a spiritual judge to travel when Minos was expecting an enemy to arrive.

After all, such an enemy could intercept Ronald's escort before or after facing Minos' forces. And as such, it would be dangerous for this regional expert to travel until the threat was neutralized.

Patriarch Cohen then looked at Ernest and asked. "Well, where is your boss?"

"Gentlemen, look in that direction." Ernest pointed with his hand in the direction of the main avenue, a large avenue more than 30 meters wide, which went on for more than a kilometer until it disappeared amidst the abandoned houses of that town. "The young master is about 300 meters ahead."

The two men and some other people at that location then looked in the direction where Minos and two other people were standing in the middle of that avenue.

On the other side, they could see three giant beasts standing not far away from where Minos was standing, while six people were a little ahead of those winged lizards....
