

BLACK PLAIN 902

Chapter 902 A Unwanted Visitor

"That won't do." The Spiritual King tried to convince this stranger to give up his intentions. "His Highness is too busy dealing with the current situation and will not receive a stranger like you."

"By the way, why are you wearing this mask? Do you have something to hide?"

"Humph!"

"I'm protecting my identity since, unlike you, I don't have support to ensure that I won't be harmed because of the royalty's conflicts!"

"As for that other problem, I am sorry for what happened with His Majesty. But I am with a piece of information that may not last for long..."

"And since I won't pass my merits on to you, you'd better let me in, or I'll just go back where I came from!" Minos said this in an irritated tone, demonstrating to be offended by that person's lack of tact.

To fool those people, he truly needed to appear to be here to sell a piece of information. As such, he needed to value his position.

In situations like these, if he told what he knew to that man, there would be no guarantee that he would 'get' his compensation.

After all, Charles would become the King of the Kingdom of the Waves in a matter of weeks, and it definitely would not be bad to do a favor for a person of such status.

So, by defending his position, he was, in a way, legitimizing his interests here, giving his character more credibility.

'Greedy bastard!' The Spiritual King cursed Minos in his mind, pissed that this person was smarter than others who had come into contact with him in the past. PANDA-NOVEL.COM

However, while staring at Minos, this man suddenly thought of something and laughed. 'But maybe he's too smart for his own good...'

'I'll find a way to deal with him after he delivers the information he has to His Highness!'

Selling information also had its dangers!

Certain information was so vital that it would not be interesting for too many people to know about it.

And in a situation where only two sides know about such a thing, the side that is stronger and values the information in question more might find it better to act against the other party by eliminating it!

However, unfortunately for that Spiritual King, he had made the worst choice because he believed what a rascal like Minos had told him.

"All right. But I will accompany you so that we avoid any further problems." This level 54 individual said this just before he made signs to his team in that area protected by the defensive barrier of this property, opening the doors of that place to Minos.

Minos then walked into that place, following that Spiritual King who probably thought he was more substantial than this sovereign.

'Well, first, I will locate all my targets...' Minos began to think about the order in which he would act, smiling in a satisfied manner for having fooled those royal guards.

The main point of Minos' disguise was not how he had behaved, something that, yes, gave credibility to his disguise. Instead, what had allowed him to fool these people was the sheer fact that he was only at level 53, a much lower level than the many combatants on guard at this estate. PANDA NOVEL

Hell, for 99% of the cultivators of that level in this region, a mere level 54 Spiritual King would be enough to stop such a person. And if it were a cultivator of levels above, then a level 53 person would have no chance of escaping!

Hence, Minos had managed to enter the area protected by the medium-level grade-2 defensive array without causing a major commotion.

He then considered. 'I must first act against that bastard Charles!'

'He is probably that person who is being protected by these four level 57 Spiritual Kings...' So, he thought about it as he looked in a specific direction.

'I will be able to eliminate them without causing any commotion, thus ensuring the capture of my target!'

'As for the other high-level enemies, I will deal with them later!'

While thinking these things, Minos finally followed that man towards the interior of the first building they were passing, where the prince's office was.

But since the young Stuart had already realized that his target was not in that place, he decided to act.

"Hey, I don't think His Highness is in this building... Why are you bringing me here?" He asked that person as he stopped in the middle of a corridor, where there was no one else but themselves.

"Of course, we won't go straight to His Highness. First, we will notify his staff about your visit. After that, we will wait until they tell us what to do..." He was saying this when he suddenly felt his sights rapidly dim. ????????

Then, this royal guard fainted, falling towards young Stuart, who promptly held such a person by one of his arms, preventing him from falling to the ground.

'Well, I'll change my clothes...'

After this, Minos quickly went into an empty room there, taking off the uniform of that individual and then hiding the body of the guard in a closet there.

After that, while already dressed in the uniform of the local royal guard, Minos peacefully made his way toward Charles!

...

Meanwhile, Charles was at his residence, enjoying himself with one of his close friends, Ava.

The two of them were in the bedroom of this future king, both naked, sweaty, and full of red marks around their bodies as if they were at the end of an animal sex session.

He was standing on the right side of the large double bed in his room while vigorously penetrating the wet cavern of his companion, making noises characteristic of this action.

But such a thing would only be noticed by more attentive people. That is because, as Ava felt her body coming and going, with her breasts swaying wildly, she moaned as if there were no tomorrow.

She indeed was the vocalizing type, one that makes a variety of sounds, sometimes commenting on slutty things that would only make the fun more interesting.

And hearing all this, Charles could not help but smile, sometimes taking the opportunity to spank those beautiful buttocks in front of him.

Pa!

"Ahhhhhhhhh~"

'Hahaha, I wonder what that fool would think seeing me with his old friend...' Charles thought about this as he remembered a certain someone who had been kicked out of the Walker family simply because he was friends with Ava.

'What was his name again?'

'Peter!'

'Hahaha, and to think that after I kicked him out, Ava truly fell into my arms... Hehe, I truly do seem to have the best ideas!' He complimented himself as he watched his 'little brother' going in and out of Ava.

As for Ava, she was not thinking about anything related to her past since all that mattered to her was the chance to become the local queen, or who knows, at least one of the king's wives.

She did not love Charles, but having sex with this young man, besides pleasing her physically, was something that could take her to higher heights. So, why not combine the useful with the pleasant?

That was her decision when she realized that the friend she had specific interests in was no longer around and that this prince desired her.

As for lamenting whatever happened to Peter, well, at the time, and even now, she was not with her life resolved to afford the luxury of worrying about others.

So, she could not do anything about what had happened, and it was simply more advantageous to her to take advantage of the opportunity she had had.

And considering her current situation, she did not regret any of her choices!

Hence, she stood there, satisfied, smiling from ear to ear, as her little sister poured out her nectar in pleasure.

"Ahhhhhhhh~"

And while the two were actively enjoying themselves, the level 57 Spiritual Kings around that room sat in different positions in Charles' residence, keeping an eye on the area.

It was particularly annoying to keep an eye on someone who spent more than half the day in bed with beautiful women.

After all, they could not have fun while they worked...

But as influential specialists, people with many years of experience, these four knew how to minimally ignore what was happening in that room, focusing only on their work.

Unfortunately for them, today, the time had come for their duties to be tested by a particular unwanted visitor!

...