

BLACK PLAIN 903

Chapter 903 Pleasure For The Last Time

At that critical moment, when some were enjoying themselves while others were trying to ignore that, a person dressed in the blue armor of the kingdom's royal guard entered that residence.

That person was calmly walking as if he were in the middle of a night walk.

He wore a golden mask that covered his entire face but did not hide his brown hair, which was short and had a modern pattern, low on the sides and a little longer on top.

However, while walking through that high luxury residence, this person held a beautiful dark red bladed sword behind his back in one of his hands.

And with such a person walking through that residence as quietly as if he were in his own home, it did not take long before the four royal guards in that place noticed Minos' arrival.

One of them then stood up from where he was sitting, in one of the four outer corners of that Charles' room, already with a strange expression on his face.

'A masked person...'

'Is there someone like that in the royal guard?' He wondered, realizing that his three companions were already paying attention to this newcomer.

However, as Minos slowly walked down the corridor that connected the part of that residence where Charles' room was with the entrance, he slowly moved one of his hands towards his mask.

Simultaneously, those four individuals began to hear a whistling sound, which Minos made as he walked towards that place.

"Hey!"

"Who are you? Why are you wearing that mask? But, more importantly, what are you doing here?" One of them asked this as he saw Minos' face, little by little, beginning to reveal itself.

However, Minos answered nothing, not even bothering to pay attention to that level 57 Spiritual King. Instead, he continued to whistle until one of his hands slowly moved, finally showing the beautiful sword hidden behind him.

Upon seeing this, one of those individuals looked at Minos' sword and then at this young man's face, feeling an inexplicable chill run down his spine.PANDA-NOVEL.COM

Gulp!

Infinite Dream!

Devouring Art!

Immediately after encountering three of those four individuals, a large black ring appeared on Minos' feet as he attacked the individual in his field of vision who was furthest away from him with his mental technique.

And in that instant, one of those people finally recognized the newcomer, as the technique used by Minos was simply unmistakable!

As for the two who were with Minos right in front of them, one was already slowly falling to the ground after receiving the first mental attack from the invader.

"Shit!" One of them shouted in desperation, realizing the great doom this family was about to face.

Explosive Steps!

Spatial Sword!

However, while that individual had made that shout, the one closest to Minos had been unlucky and had been quickly killed by a sword strike.

Minos was too fast at his current level for these people even to stand a chance against him. And with his primary technique restricting the movements of each of those people, when his enemy least expected it, he had already appeared on his opponent's back.

After this, Minos did the simple thing, quickly using his high-level grade-2 sword to decapitate such a person!

And seeing this, that third opponent within Minos' field of vision wanted to run away, but, unfortunately for him, he did not have the strength to do so. PANDA NOVEL

Not only because of the spatial restriction generated by Minos' primary technique but also because after a few seconds under the effects of the Devouring Art, such an individual had already lost significant amounts of energy!

'Damn it!'

'How is that possible? This villain is much stronger than he should be!' The other there thought in despair.

However, while he was thinking about it, he saw Minos' eyes flash in rainbow colors, carrying him to a terrible place in a split second.

A few moments ago, inside Charles' room...

Charles and Ava were still having fun. However, as they reached there once more, they suddenly felt their bodies stop moving.

And while he was immobilized in that position behind Ava, with his two hands on this woman's buttocks, Charles watched her back, feeling strange.

'What the fuck is this?'

But it was not to be wondered at. After all, for a level 47 woman to think about the death of a powerful level 57 Spiritual King was simply absurd.

Even on the Black Plain, people like that did not die so easily!

However, here was Ava, naked, with Charles' genital organ inside her, watching that expert dying amidst the wall's rubble.

And at that moment that the two had been shocked, Charles' legs trembled, and he slowly fell toward the floor, finally disconnecting himself from Ava.

But as he did so, his little friend finally spat out its contents, which flew through the air, until it finally fell to the ground between that guard's body and young Stuart, who was now standing in that wall hole.

Seeing this, Minos looked at that mark on the floor and then at the two naked individuals in that room, understanding the situation.

"Looks like you were lucky enough to have pleasure for the last time in your life..." Minos said this as he walked in the direction where Charles was standing, observing that naked woman but soon ignoring her.

"However, that all ends here!"

"Your hell begins now, Charles Walker!" As Minos said this, he appeared behind his target, already making a sword movement towards the neck of such a person.

"You..."

"You..."

And it did not take Charles long to realize who that person was, but before he could say anything else, he felt the base of his neck being lacerated.

"No!"

"No!"

"Not that!" He screamed in desperation as he felt an emptiness in his being, an unprecedented fear that at that moment had made even his soul tremble.

But it was already too late!

Minos had destroyed that royal hair's spiritual gland in a single second, crippling the cultivation of Charles!

"NOOO!" Charles screamed desperately, feeling that everything he had had just been stolen from him in a single instant.

"Don't despair yet..." Minos said calmly. "I will soon put you in the Puller. You'll pay for what you tried to do that day, worm!"

Minos then smiled cruelly, looking into Charles' desperate eyes while completely ignoring Ava. "But now I will give you the privilege of watching me slaughter your elders!"
