Chapter 934 Voyeur (18+)

After chasing Minos' footsteps for a few seconds, Jade Carline, level 59, quickly saw him carrying her daughter in his arms, entering the royal throne hall.

'What does he think he's doing?' That woman's eyes widened in concern, looking intently at the figure of Minos.

And it did not take long for the queen to see that Minos was genuinely going to do shameless things to her daughter in that place.

In that instant, Jade saw young Stuart sitting on her husband's throne, settling the beautiful Kara on his lap while slowly kissing this red-haired beauty.

Minos' hands moved slowly down such a seductive woman's body. But he did not touch any very intimate parts of her. Instead, he just 'teased' other delicate parts of Kara's body that he knew excited her.

The female body had many points to explore and start an adventure like the one Minos wanted at the moment. And with his experience of countless hours, this young man knew very well where to start, whether it was with a woman he already knew or a stranger.

With his touches and gaze, he needed only a few seconds to raise the respiration rate of his partner as he teased her body.

And it had been no different for Kara this time. After Minos sat down on that throne, one of his hands gently touched the back of her neck, sometimes playing with her hair, sometimes massaging that area.

Meanwhile, his other hand was on the left side of Kara's waist, sending pleasant sensations through her body.

And watching all this unfold so quickly, Jade could not help but watch it all with her mouth open, shocked at how quickly Kara was melting into an enemy's arms.

'How is that possible?'

'They just sat there, but my daughter is already looking like an animal in heat!' She wailed internally, feeling a great humiliation that her offspring had no control or reason to prevent such a thing.

'Where have I gone wrong?'

'Did allowing her to sleep with her brother create this perverted personality?' Jade wondered as she remembered this remarkable fact.

Kara and Ford's relationship was known to some people in the Carline family. It was not easy to hide that kind of thing in the Spiritual World!

In particular, because those two had done such a thing so many times inside the royal palace, even if the people in their surroundings were blind, they would still notice.

Consequently, Kara's mother knew about this woman's forbidden relationship with Ford.

However, she had never done anything. Not even tell the father of those two.

Besides the fact that this kind of relationship was not so strange in her eyes, she had never thought that any harmful consequences would come of it.

First, King Carline himself had married his first cousin, Ford's mother. And as someone who accepted, nay, was very attracted to forbidden relationships like that, Jade never found herself in the position of criticizing those two.

She had no right!

Second, pregnancy in the Spiritual World was complicated even when both parties wanted it. So, as intelligent people would not do something so awful, Kara and Ford definitely would not create something so terrible out of their relationship.

Considering it that way, Jade had never done anything against the relationship between those two, having even kept it a secret and watched them from afar to prevent accidents... PANDA NOVEL

Besides, she hoped that by going to the Flaming Empire, those two would sooner or later meet other people and have a normal relationship again.

However, now that Jade saw Kara's perverted personality, she could not help but feel guilty for having allowed all this.

'She did such wrong things to her brother... Maybe she thinks nothing else can weigh on her conscience!' Jade thought about this as she felt her eyes water.

'Now my baby is like this...' She lamented, looking at Kara's perfect body, which by now was without even a single piece protecting it.

Meanwhile, Minos had also lost his clothes and was now lying on the floor of that area, just in front of the royal throne, where he had his friend on top of him, kissing him intensely.

She was partially sideways to Jade, leaving her beautiful buttocks towards her mother while kissing Minos and feeling one of his hands playing with her flower.

At the same time, she was holding her partner's rod, feeling the pulsation of that hot piece of flesh as her mind floated with desire and pleasure.

"Mmmmmmm~"

She moaned, still kissing Minos, feeling her body getting hotter and hotter as she forgot where she was.

And not only was she ignoring the fact that she had brought Minos to her father's workplace. She also neglects the surroundings, where two people watch them.

But Minos had already realized all this. Not only had he felt Jade chasing them the whole time. He also noticed Ford's spiritual fluctuation, who was also watching them from afar. ρϩϩ⌈⌈⌈⌈⌈⌈

But none of this mattered to this young man. He would rather have privacy when doing what he intended with Kara. Still, since these people wanted to watch, he would not bother stopping.

Hell, if they wanted to degrade their image of Kara by watching her like that, as well as hate him even more for it, so be it!

They were his enemies until they got down on their knees!

So, this young man would have no mercy.

As for Kara, Minos knew that such a woman saw no problem in all this, or she would not ignore those two so easily.

Consequently, not only did he not stop his fun, he even stepped things up a bit there!

"Ahhhh!"

Kara let out a small surprise cry as she felt her body shift position, now on top of Minos, with her face to his little brother and flower just centimeters from his lips.

"Let me taste you one more time..." Minos said in a tone filled with desire, just before he started eating Kara's pussy.

"Ahhhhh~"

Kara moaned aloud just after something soft and warm touched her precious pearl.

Minos then used one of his hands to rub the lips of Kara's little sister, causing a liquid to slowly start dripping onto his face as muscle spasms spread around her body.

On the other hand, this young man's other hand was slowly playing with one of Kara's nipples, squeezing it gently and sending waves of pleasure through her hot body.

"Ahhhhh~" Kara moaned in pleasure as she felt this, trying not to stop the work she was doing on young Stuart's rod, but without success.

While watching all that from another part of that place, Ford was red-eyed with anger, feeling doubly bad at that moment.

Not only was Minos doing this to his sister, who was also his lover, but he also felt terrible about what was happening between his legs!

After finding out that Minos was on this property, Ford had seen Kara being brought to this place by young Stuart and then followed them on a different path from his stepmother.

But upon arriving there, he had thought that all he would feel was an even greater hatred for young Stuart.

However, life was complicated, and seeing how Minos was teasing his younger sister; this prince had felt an unexpected pressure in his underwear!

So, right now, he was feeling self-hatred for his body displaying these shameful signs while seeing the woman he loved most being touched by another!

Not only that, but when Kara finally reached her first orgasm and begged Minos to fuck her, Ford could not help but feel a strange satisfaction deep within his being.

'It can't be!'

'It can't be that I'm a fucking voyeur!' He pondered this while feeling angry but unable to ignore the pleasure of seeing his sister being fucked by another and the urge to keep watching it all.

And it was not so different for Jade!

Unlike Ford, this woman had recognized herself for much longer. After all, she had watched the brother and sister couple do their thing so many times from afar... So, how could she not understand her situation?

But like Ford, she also felt bad about it all since Minos was an enemy, and the woman who was moaning with all her breath while riding his rod was her daughter!

Hence, this woman was red with resentment, feeling extremely bad for everything happening.

'Tsk!'

'I'm sorry, Kara. That is all your mother's fault...'

'Your perverted mother...' She wailed deeply as she felt her body warm.
