

BLACK PLAIN 953

Chapter 953 Caught In The Act (18+)

After a few minutes of intense fluid exchange, Abby and Minos were finishing their fun, lying on that same couch as before.

He was on top of her, supported on his elbows as he stared into Abby's eyes and made repetitive motions with his lower body.

And as drops of sweat dripped down Minos' back, Abby was lying beneath him, legs spread, feeling pleasure each time her partner's rod pressed against her.

But even though she was lying below Minos, not moving much at the moment, she was also very sweaty. Her breathing was irregular like his, sometimes even more so due to the heavenly sounds coming out of her mouth.

"Ahhhhhh~"

She moaned as she looked into her lover's eyes, using her small hands to play with his muscular back, sometimes with one of them going to his ass, helping him move more intensely.

"Ahhh~ That's it, my love, give it to me~" She tried to say it amidst her cries of happiness, longing for Minos' seeds.

They had obviously tried it a few times on this occasion. But, as a couple committed to the issues of the proliferation of their genes, they could not afford to waste that resource...

No, except for the initial moment when Abby pleased young Stuart with her mouth, every drop of such a resource had to go directly to her uterus.

And as someone committed to the maximum satisfaction of his women, Minos did not fail to give Abby what she wanted.

After experiencing a slight tremor in his legs, he felt a familiar sensation in his rod and then pressed it completely against Abby's flower, leaving every inch of it in that moist, warm area. PANDA-NOVEL.COM

As she felt this, Abby already knew what was happening, and amidst her little sister's involuntary contractions, she used her hands on Minos' neck, bringing him closer to her.

Minos then kissed her again while his arms wrapped around her waist in a warm and intimate embrace.

In that instant, they finally got there once again, amidst their kissing and embracing, both feeling a pleasure hard to forget.

"Hah... Hah..." After a while, young Stuart finally raised his face a little, separating his lips from Abby's, looking at her intensely. "That was a nice reunion, huh?"

"Hmmm..." She smiled sweetly at him, with love in her eyes, wishing she would not leave that position.

Abby was powerful and already had a mature personality that protected her from many troublesome situations. But deep inside her being, she felt a need to be protected and cared for by her man, to feel him in a dominant position.

Consequently, as she stood with Minos in that position, exposed to him, while he protected her in his embrace, she felt profound happiness, grateful for the decisions that had led her to this point.

Pa!

But while the two of them were talking intimately in that position, suddenly the door of that office opened, and a brown-haired woman walked in.

"Little Abby, I heard that..." Maisie was about to say something, thinking she would alert her daughter-in-law about Minos' arrival. But suddenly, she saw a scene that she honestly would not have wanted to see. PANDA NOVEL

Entering her son's office without knocking on the door nor bothering with secretary Mia, Maisie was faced with the sight of her naked son on top of Abby.

"Oh, mine..."

In that instant, she saw those two from a position where she could see part of his left leg and butt and her son's bare, sweaty back. Meanwhile, he was hugging the woman below his body, with her knees showing, and both looking in Maisie's direction with shocked looks.

"Mother-in-law!"

"You!"

The two shouted simultaneously, both with tones of shame in their voices but with particular rancor in Minos'. Upon hearing that, Maisie turned red with embarrassment and promptly left that place without saying anything more.

As for Minos and Abby, they remained in that position for a few more seconds until the sound of the door being closed reached their ears.

"Minos..." Abby murmured it in his ear, feeling that she should get up, but this young man did not seem interested in moving.

"Why is she here?" He asked as he continued in the same position.

Minos did not like to be seen like that by anyone other than his women. But now that Maisie was gone, there was no reason for him to hurry to leave Abby as if he had to hurry. ρ??(???)

No, that was his place, his woman, so he would only get out of that position and get dressed when wanted!

And seeing that Minos was not as embarrassed as she was, Abby sighed deeply but without trying to move him. "Your mother arrived in Dry City a few months ago, and because of Gloria Frost, she decided to stay here."

"Gloria?" Minos' eyes widened in surprise. "She's here too?"

"Hmmm, I don't understand that woman's fixation on you!" She said in a slightly annoyed tone, looking at him thoughtfully. "She said she wanted to settle personal matters with you... May I ask what this is about?"

Minos then smiled, almost forgetting that his mother was outside that office. "I met her accidentally during my trip to Athela. After that, I traveled alongside her for a few days until we kissed one night before we said goodbye."

"Maybe she is angry because I lied about my name to her..."

Minos had no problem telling Abby the truth. After all, he loved her, and she already knew about his womanizing personality. So, why create intrigue with his woman over something like that?

It would make no sense to do that, and precisely for that reason, he had bluntly told Abby the truth.

"You!" She shouted at him as her hands tightened on his shoulders. "Minos, you truly are a bastard! How can you try to do that even with that woman?"

"I don't like her one bit!"

But hearing those words just made young Stuart even more satisfied. And Abby had felt his satisfaction growing inside her...

"You pervert!" She shouted, slapping his chest with her hands.

"Abby, don't be jealous. She and I haven't even done anything yet..."

"Yet?" She smiled coldly at him.

But he was not bothered by that and just massaged one of her rosy cheeks. "No matter what happens, it won't change my relationship with you."

Gulp!

"Minos!"

'This bastard! Always saying those nice words, but he behaves like a pig when I'm not with him!' So, she thought silently, trying to find a way to tame this wild young man.

But she soon put that matter aside and looked at him with a doubtful expression on her face. "Aren't you going to get up? Or will we continue even with your mother waiting for us?"

"Sigh..."

"I would prefer to continue, but let's leave that for later." He said as he rose from his position, finally disconnecting his little brother from Abby's flower.

And seeing liquid oozing from his companion's cave, he wasted no time in commenting. "Do something about it, or our plans will be messed up..."

Abby's face turned red as she directed some of her energy to form a small seal in that region. "Don't worry. My mother has already taught me how to fix this..."

"Good." He sat down next to her, relaxing his back against the support of the sofa and closing his eyes.
"What a big spoiler..." Minos muttered, thinking about how he had to deal with his mother right now.

And knowing her man, Abby readily understood what he was muttering.

She rose from her position and sat on his lap, looking at him affectionately. "Minos, why don't you try to settle your matters with your mother?"

"Even if you have your reasons, having all this resentment for her is not good. I'm not telling you to forgive her, but at least you could try to learn to get along with her."

"Can you think about it?" She gave his lips a brief kiss with a pleading look on her face. "If not for her, do it for me."

"I don't want our family to be disunited."
