

BLACK PLAIN 960

Chapter 960 The Union Of Minos And Ruth (18+)

As Mona walked away from the cultivation room that Minos and Ruth were in, these two embraced each other warmly, kissing as if there was no tomorrow.

Ruth had her hands behind young Stuart's head as she felt his advance on her body without imposing any restraint.

As she let him do what he wanted, she felt his tongue in her mouth, and her body melted in his arms, quickly raising her temperature due to the pleasurable sensations she was feeling right now.

One of young Stuart's hands firmly held Ruth's slender waist, while the other was playing with different parts of her body.

This hand had started its journey on her right cheek but then slowly moved past her breasts, playing with them still with the several layers of fabric over them. After that, he felt Ruth's healthy buttocks before that hand trailed under her dress.

"Mmmmmmm~"

Their sounds quickly increased in frequency, along with the heart rate and heat of their bodies.

At the same time, both of their faces were red from the intense heat emanating from their bodies, making them want to rip off the clothes they were wearing.

And just after a few minutes of kissing each other, the two worked together to take off each other's garments.

"Ahhh~" Ruth softly moaned as she used her hands to unbutton Minos' trousers, and she felt this young man sucking on the lobe of one of her ears.

After that, Minos removed Ruth's bra, allowing the twins to breathe and sway hypnotically.

Seeing this, he pulled away from her neck. Then, he slowly lowered himself, getting into a position where he could easily remove her panties and still play with those beautiful peaks. PANDA-NOVEL.COM

"Ahhhhhhh~" Ruth moaned louder when one of her nipples was finally touched by Minos' hot tongue, making her feel goosebumps in her body as well as slight shocks in her little sister.

As for Minos, he smiled as he heard this and felt her reactions, continuing with his plan to suck that beautiful pink nipple that was at the moment completely erect.

But as Ruth's black panties fell to the height of her ankles, one of Minos' hands trailed toward her little flower, ready to extract some of her precious nectar.

"Ahhhhh~"

"Ahhh~ That's it, Minos, rub my clit~"

She said amidst her moans, making young Stuart feel even more eager to fuck her.

But as Minos worked to make this woman feel good, it did not take her long to notice his rod waiting for a little hand...

And soon, she began to play with that thing she so loved to feel, not only in her little sister but also in other cavities of her body.

Then, they moved to a bed that young Stuart brought from his spatial ring, quickly getting into a position where they could satisfy each other simultaneously.

But after doing that for a few minutes, with Ruth having two orgasms in a row while Minos had only ejaculated once, they finally moved back to watching each other closely.

"I love you, Minos~" She said this in a tone full of love as she stood over him in her favorite position. DANDA

Meanwhile, Minos took his hand off one of her breasts and slowly reached around her neck, bringing her closer to his face. "I love you too, Ruth." He said this before giving his girlfriend a warm kiss.

After that, he parted his lips from Ruth's and said the words she so desperately wanted, "You said you wanted to have children with me first, right?"

Gulp!

"You... Are you going to do that? Do you truly agree?" Her eyes widened in excitement as drops dripped from her little flower.

And seeing the look full of happiness on Ruth's face, Minos felt even better. "Of course, I love you and Abby equally."

"Then, of course, I will do my best to get you both pregnant."

"Oh, Minos~" She hugged him tighter than ever, feeling fulfilled to hear her lover's words.

"Mmmmm~"

And as they began to kiss again, this time Ruth herself was slowly moving her lower body while one of her hands directed Minos' rod.

Minos then felt their kiss turn a little different when a tight, wet, warm sensation circled his little brother, making him feel a wave of pleasure in his body.

After that, it was not long before the movements of the two's waists began to speed up until they reached a point where they could no longer kiss properly.

Pah! Pah! Pah!

"Ahhhhhhhhh~"

As Minos breathed hurriedly and sweat began to drip down both of their bodies, sounds of pounding flesh mingled with Ruth's louder and louder moans.

"Ahhhhhh~ Harder Minos, harder~"

"Put your seed deep inside my womb~"

"Ahhhh~"

Ruth then began to say things that would have embarrassed her tremendously in other situations but that were now only making her feel better.

As she freed herself on her man's rod, her orgasms quickly returned as the inner walls of her little sister squeezed Minos' rod, giving him even more pleasure.

"Ahhhh~"

An hour and a half later...

Finally, the two reached their last orgasm as they lay on that now totally sweaty bed, with the black-haired woman lying on her back to Minos, entirely under his domination.

Feeling his girlfriend's body trembling from the recent pleasure, Minos slowly removed his left hand from between Ruth's legs, wet from the state of her little flower.

After that, he kissed the back of her neck, staying there in that position while hugging her and smelling her hair.

As for Ruth, she had a cloudy look on her face, completely exhausted but smiling with as much strength as she had.

But as she felt a warmth leaving her little sister, she slowly turned to Minos, coming face to face with him.

She smiled and then used one of her hands to massage his left cheek, eager to give him as much as a woman could for a man.

"I hope we'll be lucky enough to be rewarded in the first few tries..." She said this as she looked at him and massaged her own belly.

Minos smiled and hugged her. "If that happens, maybe our offspring will have the opportunity to attend their parents' wedding..."

"Wedding?" She bit her lips, eager to discover that she had not heard wrong.

"Of course, Ruth. I want to marry you."

Gulp!

"I love you, Minos!" She said this as she moved toward his lips again, feeling even better than before.

"Mmmmm~"

After that, the two stayed in that position for a while longer, but nothing but kissing happened. They were just enjoying each other's warmth while feeling their heartbeats getting in sync.

"If you will take me as your wife, then be prepared to have me by your side every day." She said this in one of his ears, smiling and massaging Minos' head.

"Oh? What about your sect?" Minos asked in interest, slowly turning his face to look at her.

"From the moment we marry, I will have no responsibility to my sect and family. I will be totally yours, honey." She said this with her face all flushed, calling him in this intimate way.

"Good!" He smiled at her, bringing her onto his lap in a single motion. "Well, get ready to do that as soon as possible. Once the current war is over, I will marry you and Abby."

'And I will finally be able to allow you to enter my life completely...' He thought this in his mind, feeling that the time for him to be completely honest with Ruth was coming.

"I just hope you understand certain precautions I've taken, Ruth." He said this as he looked her in the eyes. "But don't doubt my feelings for you."

She saw the sincerity in Minos' gaze and smiled at him. "I know. I understand, dear, so don't worry about it."
