

BLACK PLAIN 967

Chapter 967 Before The Peace Negotiation 2 (*)

"You asked?" Abby repeated Minos' words, being a little surprised but not shocked.

She already knew that something like this would happen sooner or later. After all, Minos loved Ruth as much as he loved her. Hence, Abby was only a little surprised that he had decided to do this sooner than she had expected.

And since she was not against such a thing, Abby just looked at her fiancé's face for a moment showing her surprise but not indicating any displeasure.

"Well, we'll be a family anyway, so it's good that you made it official." She said sincerely.

Meanwhile, Ruth, still lying on that bed that she and Minos had laid down to rest earlier, suddenly opened her eyes as she listened to the conversation between the two.

She then heard Abby's sweet voice, "How will the wedding ceremony be? Will we do it on the same day? What about our honeymoon?"

Minos then answered for her. "We'll see about that later."

"That will depend more on you than on me. If you prefer to have separate ceremonies, we can arrange that."

"The most important thing is that you two are happy with the arrangements."

After Minos said these words, Ruth finally said something, signaling that she was awake. "I don't mind doing this together with Abby."

"Oh?" Minos said in surprise. PANDA-NOVEL.COM

Abby then asked as she looked at the woman lying in that bed, "You were already awake?"

"Hehe, I'm sorry. I just woke up and caught the short end of your conversation." Ruth laughed and got up from that bed, heading toward those two.

After seeing Minos' sign, Ruth immediately sat on her fiancé's free leg, standing on the opposite side of Abby.

She then leaned against him, settling comfortably into that seat the same way Abby was at that moment.

"What do you think of that, Abby?" She asked as she looked into that woman's blue eyes.

"I..."

"I don't mind doing the wedding together either. That way, we at least save time for other things..." She said this while blushing.

"Hmmm." Minos nodded at the two in a satisfied manner. "When we get married, I will spend a whole month with just you two."

"If you want to travel around the region, we will do the necessary planning and leave. But, if you want to just rest in a quiet place, our plans will be even better..." He said this as he thought of the Spatial Kingdom.

Ruth did not know about this place yet, but Minos intended to tell her the whole truth once he married her. Thus, if she and Abby just wanted to enjoy time with just the three, young Stuart was willing to lock himself away in the Spatial Kingdom alongside them. PANDA NOVEL

Abby then understood what Minos was talking about and said. "We will have plenty of time to travel in the future. But, so as far as I'm concerned, I'd rather live for a few days in a quiet place where only we can access..."

"I want something like that too."

"I have no interest in knowing any place at the moment. For me, the most important thing is to be by your side, dear." Ruth said this in a loving tone as she massaged one of that young man's cheeks.

"Good!"

But just after Minos said that, Ruth remembered something important that she did not want to wait for other people to touch on before she did. "By the way, the Black Plain will soon get its independence and become a kingdom."

"With this marriage between us, someone will need to assume the role of queen..."

"I want to clarify that I have no intention of vying for any position, so don't even worry about anything like that," Ruth said calmly. "Abby will be queen, and that's final."

"Oh?" Those two exclaimed in surprise as they realized this would indeed be a problem.

Royal families needed a hierarchy for their best functioning. And since it would not be appropriate for two people to assume the post of the queen, only one of them could assume such an honor.

And thinking about how a dispute over this could bring problems to their relationship, Minos and Abby felt relieved that Ruth had brought up the subject in such an easy way. XXXXXXXXXX

The blue-haired woman then asked after a brief silence. "Are you sure? Even if we travel the world alongside Minos in the future, we will eventually spend most of our lives on the Black Plain."

"That will be a precious position in the future..."

But Ruth did not care about that. "I'm sure."

"I used to think that I might enjoy participating in the administration of the Black Plain, but that was because I could be on Minos' side."

"But I have no intention of achieving status or political power. I just want to be by his side and be able to give him some children." She said, looking into his eyes.

"Besides, your management skills are way above mine. So, I think you will make a better queen role than I would."

"Ruth..." Abby said in a low voice, feeling good that Ruth was so devoted and loving towards Minos.

Abby also did not care about the political position or the status she would gain by becoming a queen. She just wanted that position because it meant being by Minos' side and being able to help him create and eventually take care of his kingdom.

But her genuine desire was to have a life with Minos and, at some point, achieve the most extraordinary intimacy that a man and a woman could have.

A child!

And knowing that Ruth loved Minos the same way she did, Abby could not help but feel moved.

As for Minos, he was more than pleased that his women did not fight about it. 'Previously, they didn't get along... But who knew, huh?'

He then smiled lustfully and asked. "By the way, did you do anything during the days I was away?"

"Uh?"

"No..." The two replied, embarrassed, understanding what he was talking about.

These two had done many things together, but this had only happened in Minos' presence. Of course, they could even have done it in his absence. Still, although they enjoyed the games he suggested, they only appreciated it in his presence.

When they were away from Minos, they treated each other like sisters and did not touch each other intimately. And in fact, in the days since Ruth's arrival in Dry City, Abby and she had just slept in the same bed without doing anything that might get on the nerves of certain perverts.

Minos' eyes then sharpened, and he said. "Is that so? Then why don't we have some fun? It's been so many months since we've had a good threesome..."

"My love, aren't you afraid of becoming an addict?" Abby giggled. "How many times have you had sex just today? Aren't you embarrassed?"

"Oh?" Ruth thought about what Abby had just said and understood that he had not only played with both of them but also with someone else.

"What can I do? I have perfect health!" He laughed as he tightened his arms around the waists of the two, bringing them even closer to him and each other.

"Mmmm~"

"Mmmm~"

He then kissed Abby's lips softly for a moment before finally doing the same to Ruth.

"Mmmm~"

After that, the two beautiful women in Minos' arms looked at each other for a moment and then brought their lips closer.

In that instant, as Minos played with their bodies and watched them, the tongues of the two finally met in a fervent kiss, increasing the heat of that place.

After doing this for a few seconds, the two laughed for a moment, until finally, they began to take proper care of their man.

First, they took turns kissing Minos' lips while the other slowly sucked on the young man's neck and removed the garments from his body.

In a second moment, Abby knelt on the floor, removed the last clothing pieces from Minos' body, and began to tend to this young man's sizeable throbbing dragon.

But it was not long before Ruth joined her, and they both began to use their tongues to please young Stuart, sucking his rod and testicles.

"Let's go to bed..." Minos suggested to the two after a while, quickly removing the last pieces of clothing from their bodies.
